MEDICAL SCHOOL OF MAINE.

—oo—

This School is under the direction of the Trustees and Overseers of the College, and receives from the State One Thousand Dollars a year for the purpose chiefly of procuring Books, Plates, Preparations, and Apparatus. The law requires the appointment, as soon as may be, of learned Professors of Medicine, Anatomy, Surgery, Chemistry, Mineralogy, and Botany. There are, at present, three professors, one of whom is now in Paris, and will make extensive purchases in Europe, for the benefit of the School. The particular management of this Institution is committed to the Faculty of Medicine, who examine candidates for the Degree of Doctor of Medicine, and recommend to the corporation of the College for that Degree. In order to obtain it, two courses of Medical Lectures must have been attended, the last of which, at least, must have been at Brunswick; three years must have been devoted to professional studies; and some knowledge of Latin, and of Experimental Philosophy must have been acquired.

The price of a ticket, admitting to the Lecture of one Professor, is 15 dollars; or 45 dollars for all the Lectures. The course begins about the middle of February, and continues three months.
