THE TRIANGULAR LEAGUE DEBATES

The three debates held on the evening of March 28 under the auspices of the Triangular League, composed of Bowdoin, Wesleyan and New York University, resulted in a double victory for Wesleyan. Defending the negative in Brunswick they defeated the Bowdoin team, and upholding the affirmative they defeated New York University at Middletown. New York University won from Bowdoin at New York.

The question debated was:

"Resolved—that the United States should adopt a uniform, compulsory workingmen's compensation act applicable to industrial employments. Such an act

1. Should extend to railroads and other public service corporations.

2. Should be adopted by both federal and other governments for such employments as may be within their respective jurisdictions.

3. Should make the employer absolutely liable for injury or death to the employee unless he establish the employee's contributory negligence.

4. Should contain reasonable rates of compensation which might vary in different localities."

BOWDOIN VS. WESLEYAN AT MEMORIAL HALL, BRUNSWICK

The Wesleyan debaters in the order in which they spoke were: William B. Cornish '14, Harold R. Willoughby '15, and George L. Buck '12. The Bowdoin team in speaking order was: Paul H. Douglass '13, Elwyn C. Gage '14, and Fred D. Wish, Jr. '13. The Wesleyan alternate was William W. Shepherd '12, and for Bowdoin, James A. Norton '13.

The course of the argument was clear-cut and the cases of both sides met squarely. The affirmative contended that there were great evils in the present system of Employer's Liability laws and that the proposed law was a practical cure for them. They also contended that no other plan, such as state-insurance would be satisfactory. In opposing this, the Wesleyan debaters brought forward several objections, such as inadequacy and insufficiency of the plan, and proposed the German system of compulsory insurance. In rebuttal the argument turned upon the validity of the objections to the plan, especially its adequateness in meeting farming accidents. In conclusion the Wesleyan speakers reiterated their objections. The last speaker for Bowdoin claimed that the alternative plan proposed by Wesleyan could be included in the proposed system and repeated his claim to the superiority of the scheme proposed by his side. The decision was two to one for the negative.

The Wesleyan team excelled in the form in which they presented their material, especially in the main argument. The Bowdoin debaters seemed to have the advantage in their adaptability in meeting their opponent's arguments, especially in rebuttal.

John A. Morrill, A.M., '76, of Auburn, presided and the judges were Associate Justice George E. Bird, LL.D., of the Maine Supreme Court, Rev. Raymond Calkins, D.D., of Portland, and Harold M. Sewall, LL.B., of Bath.

BOWDOIN VS. NEW YORK

UNIVERSITY AT NEW YORK

The Bowdoin-New York University debate was held in the Auditorium at University Heights, New York, simultaneously with the other two debates. The decision was given to New York University, defending the affirmative, after a two to one vote by the judges.

The debate was slow throughout, the teams failing to clash strongly in their arguments. There was evidence of learned speeches but some of the speakers failed to adapt them to the state of the argument and rebuttal was too often mere denial. There were times when the exercises more resembled a speaking contest than a debate.

Bowdoin based her destructive argument on contributory negligence, showing that under the terms of the question the proposed system would entail greater evils from contributory negligence than the present systems in force in several states and some branches of the federal government. New York made no attempt to answer this argument directly. Bowdoin then proposed as a substitute for the system advanced by the affirmative a system substantially like that in effect in the state of Washington and providing for state insurance with fines for excess accidents. New York made no direct refutation of this system but in constructive argument urged strongly the adoption of a plan similar to the English system, providing for the creation of courts of appeal to consider each case arising as a case in equity. Bowdoin urged against this the contention that such courts would be bound in their decisions to the common law definition of contributory negligence and hence an increase in litigation would follow and most cases arising would not present grounds for recovery.

The New York speakers excelled in the form of presentation of their argument. The Bowdoin trio showed to greatest advantage in the completeness with which they covered the case and their facility in rebuttal.

The teams were composed as follows: For New York University, supporting the affirmative, Albert P. Lewin, Royal L. Neufeld, Raymond M. Ryder and Abraham D. Kaplan, alternate; for Bowdoin, supporting the negative, Burleigh C. Rodick, Merton W. Greene, Earle F. Maloney and William R. Spinney, alternate.

The debate was presided over by Chancellor Ellsworth Brown of New York University and the judges were John E. Eustis, Esq., James J. Shepherd, Esq., and Trumbull White, Esq., all of New York.

A large number of Bowdoin alumni, living in and around New York, attended the debate.

MU.SICAL CLUB CONCERTS

Beginning with the concert in Brunswick on Saturday, March 23, the Musical Clubs had a busy week. The home concert was given to a large and appreciative audience and encorages were frequent. Awed by the impressiveness of the occasion they saw fit to eliminate the specialties which were so successful on the trips, much to the disappointment of those that were expecting to hear them for the first time. Concerts were given at Sarco on Wednesday, March 27; at Portsmouth, March 28; and at Reading, Mass., March 29, all of which were very successful. The trip concluded by a final performance in Boston, Saturday evening, March 30. A large number of alumni and friends attended this concert and Steinert Hall was filled to overflowing.

SENIORS WIN CUP

In the 17th Annual Indoor Meet and the 26th annual exhibition of Bowdoin College, held on the afternoon and evening of Friday, March 22, the Senior class won with 39 points and secured permanent possession of the trophy cup. This is the third victory in this annual event for the class of 1912 and it was especially fitting that at the last Indoor Meet in the Town Hall, the trophy which had been contained for so many years by rival Bowdoin schools should pass into permanent possession of the graduating class.

1913 won second place with 23 points, 1915 secured 22 points, and 1914 had to be content with 15. It was the general opinion that this year's meet was one of the most exciting within the history of the present college generation, many of the events being very closely contested.

In the afternoon several events were run off on the board track. Results were as follows:

300-yard run—Won by J. McKenney, '13; Haskell, '13, second; Cole, '12, third. Time, 35 3-5 seconds.

780-yard run—Won by Emery, '13; Wilson, '12, second; McWilliams, '15, third. Time, 1 min., 53 3-5 sec.

One-mile run—Won by Hall, '13; Tarbox, '14, second; Timbakale, '12, third. Time, 4 min., 44 4-5 sec.

The indoor events, especially the dashes and relay races, produced a lot of excitement and several of them had to be run over in order to decide the winner. The class drills were in the opinion of many the best in years. 1914 won first place in this contest and secured temporary possession of the Drill Trophy Cup.

The highest individual point winner was Frank Smith, '12, with 10 points, which entitles him to a free "Mike-made" suit. McKenney, '12, and Cole, '12, won 9 points each, and Faulkner, '15, won 6½ points.

The results of the indoor events were as follows:

Class Relay Race, 1912 vs. 1914—Won by 1912. Time, 21 2-5 seconds.

Relay Race, Lewiston High vs. Edward Little High—Won by Edward Little High. Time, 22 1-5 seconds.

Class Relay Race, 1913 vs. 1915—Won by 1913. Time, 21 1-5 seconds.

Putting 16-pound shot—Won by Faulkner, '15; Kern, '12, second; F. Smith, '12, third. Distance, 38 feet, 5 inches.

Relay Race, Brunswick High vs. Morse High—Won by Brunswick High. Time, 22 seconds.

20-Yard Dash—Won by Cole, '12; McKenney, '12, second; Faulkner, '15, third. Time, 2 4-5 seconds.

Pole Vault—F. Smith, '12; and P. Smith, '15, tied for first place; Hubbard, '14, third. Height, 9 feet, 6 inches.

Class Relay Races, Final—Won by class 1912; 1913, second; 1914, third. Time in each race, 21 2-5 seconds.

The gymnasium squads which represented the classes in the drills were as follows:

The officials for the meet were: Referee, Dr. W. W. Bolster of Lewiston; judges of drills, Dr. Manton Copeland, Prof. C. C. Hutchins, Mr. H. B. Alvord; judges of floor and track events, Prof. Paul Nixon, Mr. W. F. Marsh, V. S. Blanchard of Bates College; timers, Dr. F. N. Whit tier, Dr. N. E. Loomis, Lawrence P. MacFarland, '11; measurers, S. B. Furbish, A. W. Vandike, '10, of Augusta, E. O. Leigh, '12; starter, Burton C. Morrill; scorer, Ernest G. Fifield, '11; announcer, William A. MacCormick; clerk of course, H. L. Robinson, '11; assistant clerks of course, Guy Badger, '15, and M. Kuhn, '15.

Point Summary

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Events</th>
<th>1912</th>
<th>1913</th>
<th>1914</th>
<th>1915</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>300-yard run</td>
<td>6</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>780-yard run</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>One mile run</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Class drills</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>10</td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Putting shot</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Running high jump</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>25-yard hurdles</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pole vault</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>20-yard dash</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Class relay race</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Totals</td>
<td>39</td>
<td>23</td>
<td>15</td>
<td>22</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

OUR NEW COACH

J. J. Conroy, Dartmouth 1911, has been secured by Capt. Means as tutor of this year's baseball team. Conroy, or "Jimmie" as he is known on the campus at Hanover, was shortstop on the Dartmouth team for four years and received his baseball training under Tom Cady, whose system won a State Championship for Bowdoin last spring. Like Jack Norton, last year's coach, Conroy was a star in the field and has the faculty of instilling "ginger" into a team. He received his preparatory training at Holy Cross Prep., where he captained the baseball team. Aside from his activity in baseball he was manager of his class basketball team at Hanover. He is a member of the Sphinx senior honor society, the Paleopit, a senior honorary organization, and the Chi Phi fraternity. Since leaving college he has been engaged as a private secretary in Boston. His home is in Gardner, Mass.

BOWDOIN CROSSES BATS WITH BROWN

The Orient regrets that it cannot publish a line-up for tomorrow's game with Brown, but the impossibility of outdoor practice prevented any sort of an accurate try-out of the abilities of the various men. The outdoor practice and early games will probably change considerably the personnel of the team, but for this week's trip the line-up will probably be chosen from the following:

LaCasce, Twaddle—catcher Means, Dodge, Woodcock—pitchers
Brooks, Holt—1st base
Keegan, Dole, Shepard—2nd base
Weatherill, Cooley—shortstop
O'Neil—3rd base
Russell—left field
Tilton, Allen—centre field
Grant, Skolfield—right field

Nine of these men have had experience on Bowdoin teams previous to this year and three were second string men last year. Coach Conroy has been with the team since the middle of last week and although he has not yet given out any statement as to the prospects, he is already popular with the squad and the outlook is at present marred only by the bad weather. After Thursday's game with Rhode Island State the team will return to Brunswick and get in shape for the games of the following week.

Sen. Clapp of Minnesota, speaks in Memorial Hall next Saturday evening, 8 p. m. Students free.
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY OF THE COLLEGIATE YEAR
BY THE STUDENTS OF
BOWDOIN COLLEGE

EDITORIAL BOARD

Douglas H. McMurtrie, 1913
Robert D. Leigh, 1914
Fred D. Wish, Jr., 1913

Editor-in-Chief
Managing Editor
Alumni Editor

Associate Editors
W. R. Spinney, 1913
L. E. Jones, 1913
V. R. Leavitt, 1913
D. K. Merrill, 1914
H. B. Walker, 1913
E. Sylvester, 1914
K. A. Robinson, 1914
R. E. Simpson, 1914
A. H. MacCormick, 1915
F. P. McKenney, 1915
J. F. Rollins, 1915

Business Manager
Assistant Manager

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni, and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted. All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager.

Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

Entered at Post-Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII. APRIL 9, 1912 No. 1

The New Orient

The new ORIENT Board approaches the task of publishing the college newspaper with the customary sensation of awe upon beholding the responsibility passed on to them by the outgoing board. It is at the same time encouraged by the innovation which is brought about with the appearance of this issue. The paper which has for forty-one years been the work of the Journal Printshop of Lewiston is now to be made up at the Record Press, in Brunswick. The change has not been made because of any dissatisfaction with the old printers, but from the belief that the nearby press will enable the ORIENT to handle the news more quickly and thus endeavor to render increased service to the college.

To this end also, the new board has followed the parting suggestion of the old, and has changed the day of publication from Friday to Tuesday. Under the new plan, the important college events which are usually held during the latter part of the week may be reported three days earlier than formerly. Among the minor changes which may be noted are those of the adoption of a uniform size of type, the new limitations on the time of receiving copy, and the resurrection of the calendar, these alterations being given in greater detail in another column.

Several new departments have been suggested, and one of them, “The Campaign in the Colleges,” makes its appearance in this number. Its purpose is to give the readers of the ORIENT a broad view of the political situation in different parts of the country as well as to chronicle some of the novel campaigning methods put into practice in the college world. Although the board can make no definite announcement at present, it hopes to establish other departments in the near future.

With this foreword to the forty-second volume, the new Board takes up its labors with the desire to improve, through freely offered criticism, to carry on the work of a publication well along toward its fiftieth year, and to contribute a share in the development of old Bowdoin.

Ancient Baseball

Fickle, fickle Spring! When college closed for vacation, everyone prophesied a dry campus and glorious weather by the time the chapel bell should again ring for recitations. But prophecies are vain things, as has been proved after many a speech in Memorial Hall, and despite the prayers and labors of Capt. Means and the baseball squad, the team was obliged to leave on its first trip without a day’s outdoor practice. Despite the unkindness of Nature, however, the team is determined to do its best and the college will watch the returns of tomorrow’s game with Brown with a great deal of interest.

But pink sheets, sporting goods displays, and soft breezes tell us that baseball weather will soon be here. And we hope that it will mean another successful baseball season for Bowdoin. Not only to the first team do our hopes extend. We trust that another inter-fraternity league will be organized and that every man in college will get out of doors into some kind of exercise. Play Ball!

In behalf of the whole college, Professor Chapman desires to extend sincere congratulations to Professor Chapman upon his reappearance on the campus. In the long weeks following his accident, the undergraduates have come to realize more than ever the place that he holds in the hearts of Bowdoin men. He has been missed not alone by those to whom he gave an insight into the beauties of literature, but by those also who have known him only by his kindly smile and word of greeting. To everyone his return will be an occasion for rejoicing.
NOTICE TO COLLEGE ORGANIZATIONS

Through the co-operation of the Orient and the Press Club an effort is to be made to cover every college event. It is requested that those in charge of each college organization, whether sectional club or what not, submit to Fred Wish, 31 No. Winthrop, the dates of future meetings and events. In this way both organizations and publications may be benefited. By consultation with this Press Club Calendar it will be easier to avoid conflicting dates.

CANDIDATES FOR ORIENT BOARD

Competition is now open for Sophomore member of the Orient Board. All who wish to compete will please hand their names to the managing editor as soon as possible. Those who competed for Freshmen members and were not successful in being elected are eligible for this position. Competition is open also for Assistant Business Manager, members of the Freshman class being eligible.

NOTICE TO CONTRIBUTORS

All communications and editorials should be in the hands of the editor-in-chief by Thursday evening of each week. All other material must be handed to the managing editor by Friday evening of each week. Special assignments may be submitted later than these dates only by arrangement with the managing editor.

Typewritten work is much easier to handle. Headings are not necessary. Time is saved by a careful writing of all material.

Material for the departments, "On the Campus," Intercollegiate Notes, Faculty Notes, Alumni Department, etc., should be placed on separate sheets. Special articles should each be placed on separate sheets.

MASS MEETING

Two Junior members were elected to the Student Council at a Mass Meeting held in Memorial Hall, Monday evening, Mar. 25th. This change in the membership of the Council was made in order that the two Junior members may become acquainted with the work of the old Council and carry the benefit of their experience over to the new one. Crosby '13 and Crowell '13 were elected.

At the Mass Meeting Prof. Lunt submitted a plan which it is inadvisable to publish in the Orient at this time. The plan was taken up section by section and passed the first reading unanimously until section four was reached. As had been expected this section was held up for discussion. The speakers fell into two opposing classes, those who advocated the passing of the section at once and those who advocated the passing of the rest of the plan with section four left out until more mature thought could be given it or a new section substituted.

Those who asked that it be held up for a time argued that a better working section and one less liable to result in infraction of the rules and the ensuing confusion and ill-feeling should be adopted to guard against the disturbance of present satisfactory conditions. Those who asked that the section be passed at once argued that the section was workable because of the honorable interpretation and obedience which Bowdoin men would give it.

After a long and heated argument a motion to lay on the table was carried by a vote of 50 to 51. The meeting was then adjourned leaving two more sections to pass the first reading and the final plan to be voted upon as a whole. The matter will have to come up again at a future meeting. At that time doubtless all the discussion will center upon section four as it is evident that the plan as a whole met with universal favor.

BASEBALL SCHEDULE

This season's complete baseball schedule is as follows:
April 10—Brown at Providence, R. I.
April 11—Rhode Island State at Kingston.
April 19—Maine Centrals at Portland.
April 20—Exeter at Exeter, N. H.
April 23—St. Anselm's College at Manchester, N. H.
April 24—Dartmouth at Hanover.
April 25—Dartmouth at Hanover.
April 26—Middlebury at Middlebury, Vt.
April 27—U. of V. at Burlington.
May 1—Tufts at Medford.
May 2—Harvard at Cambridge.
May 4—Colby at Brunswick.
May 10—Maine at Brunswick.
May 15—Maine at Orono.
May 16—Colby at Waterville.
May 25—Tufts at Portland.
May 30—Bates at Lewiston.
June 7—Bates at Brunswick.

MASSACHUSETTS CLUB BANQUET

The Massachusetts Club held a meeting and banquet in conjunction with the monthly banquet of the Bowdoin Club of Boston, Friday, April 5, at the University Club, Boston. There were about 70 present including undergraduates and alumni. The principal speakers of the evening were Dr. Whittier, who outlined the progress on the new gymnasium, describing the structure in some detail, and Prof. Purington, who told about the work that the Bowdoin bureau in Boston is doing.
ZETA PSI'S ENTERTAIN

Bowdoin Chapter of Zeta Psi gave an informal dance, Wednesday evening, March 27, at their chapter house. Lovell's Orchestra of Brunswick furnished the music for an order of twenty dances. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The patronesses were Mrs. Frank S. Ricker of Portland, Mrs. Roscoe J. Ham and Mrs. Paul Nixon of Brunswick. Prof. Nixon was a guest. The committee which worked for the success of the affair consisted of Herbert Locke '12, Reuel Soule '15, Harold W. Miller and Omar P. Badger '14.

Among the young ladies present were Miss Caroline Sparks and Miss Ethelle Libbey of Augusta; Misses Dorothy and Hilda Laughlin, Ada Plummer and Marie Hieber of Portland, Miss Christine Houston of Newcastle, Miss Alfaretta Graves of Brunswick, Miss Martha Feyler of Waldoboro, Miss Angie French of Skowhegan.

ANNUAL MEETING Y. M. C. A.

The Annual Meeting of the Y. M. C. A. held on Tuesday evening, March 26, resulted in the election of the following officers:

President, C. R. Crowell '13.
Vice-President, L. A. Crosby '13.
Treasurer, R. D. Leigh '14.
Cor. Secretary, A. E. Gray '14.
Rec. Secretary, G. A. McWilliams '15.
Alumni Advisory Committee, David R. Porter '06, 2 years; E. G. Fife '11, 2 years; Dean K. C. M. Sills '01, 1 year; Rev. Chester B. Emerson '04, 1 year.

A condensed summary of the committee reports is given below.

Reception, J. L. Hurley, Chairman. The usual receptions given, one to the Freshmen at the beginning of the college year and one to the entering class of the Medical School on Oct. 23.

Bible Study, C. D. Skillin, Chairman. Three courses in Bible study during the first semester. Seven groups studied the “Life of Christ,” six the “Social Teachings of Jesus,” and four the “Men of the Old Testament.” The total enrollment was 141 and the average attendance 86.

Social Service, W. R. Spinney, Chairman. Collections taken at Christmas and Thanksgiving amounting to $61.11 and dinners provided for 30 families. A box of clothing sent to New York and a box of magazines to the Sailor's Haven in Charlestown.

Gymnasium Class, E. O. LaCasce, Chairman. Class held every Saturday forenoon. Average attendance 25.

Meetings, C. O. Warren, Chairman. Regular weekly meetings held with an average attendance of 44; noon meetings during the Week of Prayer, attendance 25; and Lenten meetings, average attendance 15. Two student meetings.

Missionary, Kenneth Churchill, Chairman. Illustrated lecture on Hiwale by Rev. Brewer Eddy of Boston. $293 pledged for the support of Hiwale and $225 collected. Mission study carried on from the opening of the second semester to the spring vacation. Three courses given with an enrollment of 93 and average attendance of 68.

Membership, F. A. Smith, Chairman. 199 members secured by canvass during the first of the year.

Pres. McCormick read his report stating that the Association had carried on one of the most successful years in its history and thanked the members and officers for their support. He spoke at some length of the Deputation Work in which a beginning has been made this year by sending deputations to several towns and preparatory schools and advised that it be continued and extended next year.

ACTION TAKEN

A meeting of the non-fraternity men in college was held in Hubbard Hall, Wednesday, March 27. About twenty-five students were present and there was a general discussion as to the advisability of organization. A committee consisting of H. L. Bryant '12, H. A. Andrews '12, and R. E. Hubbard '14, will meet with the faculty committee and draw up formal plans to be submitted at a later meeting of the body. The faculty committee consists of President Hyde, Prof. Nixon and Mr. Wilder.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY BANQUET

The Bowdoin Cumberland County Club held its first annual banquet, Tuesday evening, April 2, in the State of Maine Room of the Pownal Hotel, Portland. There was plenty of enthusiasm in evidence and Bowdoin songs and cheers were numerous. S. F. Dole '13, President of the club, acted as toastmaster and several members were called upon for impromptu toasts. Those present were: C. L. Russell '14, E. Russell '12, F. Callahan '14, John Roberts '11, H. Arenovsky '12, E. Wilson '12, D. Mannix '15, G. Talbot '15, B. Moulton '13, M. Moulton '15, F. Wish '13, P. Lunt '13, D. Merrill '14, A. Sweet '13, and J. Norton '13.
MORE COUNTY CLUBS ORGANIZE
The York County Club held a meeting in Hubbard Hall, March 27, at which officers were elected and steps taken toward permanent organization. The result of the elections was as follows:
Lester L. Bragdon ’12, President.
Kendrick Burns ’13, Vice-President.
H. Burton Walker ’13, Treasurer.
Kenneth E. Ramsey ’15, Secretary.
An executive committee consisting of Bragdon, Percy D. Mitchell ’14, Kenneth A. Robinson ’14, Clifford T. Perkins ’15, and Frederick S. Wiggins ’13, was chosen.
The Penobscot County Club met at the D. K. E. House, Tuesday evening, March 26, and the following officers were chosen:
Frederick E. Simpson ’12, President.
George F. Eaton ’14, Vice-President.
George A. McWilliams ’15, Secretary-Treasurer.

On the Campus
The 900,000 bricks which are going towards the construction of that new gym of ours are commencing to pile up. The latest word is that the building will be completed by July 1.
The members of the two intercollegiate debating teams are to be awarded medals for their work by an anonymous donor. It is a case of gold you win, silver you lose. This year’s team receives silver medals.
Since Wesleyan proved successfully to one set of judges that workmen’s compensation should be adopted, and the same evening convinced another set of judges that it should not be adopted, just what would they have us do?
Prof. and Mrs. Davis entertained the members of the course in English 4 with “an evening with Carlyle,” at their home on McLellan Street, March 27. A number of interesting views of the Carlyle country were shown and refreshments were served. Johnson, Medic ’14, rendered a vocal solo.
William R. Spinney ’13, President of the Bowdoin Republican Club, was seen on the platform during the Roosevelt speech in Portland recently, and returned to Brunswick with a Roosevelt button on his coat. When Roosevelt ascended the platform a large part of it collapsed, and the vigorous ex-President jumped up after the fall, exclaiming to some one behind him, “Are you all right, Bill?” Was it Bill Sewall or Bill Spinney?

Raymond K. Hagar ’13, the youngest delegate at the recent Democratic State Convention, is a Page in the Legislature now in session.
Ed Snow ’14, substituted in Brunswick High School during vacation, teaching History and Chemistry.
A larger number than usual stayed over in Brunswick during the vacation.

WITH THE FACULTY
The American Youth for February, on file at the Library, contains a poem by Pres. Hyde entitled “The Boy’s Prayer.”
Among the delegates elected at the Brunswick Republican Caucus March 30, to attend the Republican State Convention were Professors Files and Moody. They are instructed for Taft.
A number of the Faculty were out of town during vacation. Dean Sills spent a part of the time in Geneva, N. Y.; Prof. Files and family visited Boston; Dr. Copeland was at Taunton, Mass., and Prof. Davis spent the week at Cambridge.

CALENDAR
Tuesday, April 9
College opens.
Wednesday, April 10
Bowdoin vs. Brown Univ. B. B. team at Providence, R. I.
Thursday, April 11
Bowdoin vs. R. I. State B. B. team at Kingston, R. I.
Deutscher Verein Meeting.
Sunday, April 14
Tuesday, April 16
Spring Rally in Memorial Hall.

THE CAMPAIGN IN THE COLLEGES
The order of preference in a straw vote taken at the University of Washington, Seattle, was as follows: Roosevelt, La Follette, Wilson, Charles Edward Russell (Socialist), Taft, and the remainder of the votes scattering.
Taft first, Roosevelt second, Wilson third, was the result of the Presidential straw vote at Harvard.
The Socialist Clubs at Amherst and Brown are taking an active part in the campaign in those colleges.
The Yale Review for April contains an article on William Howard Taft by A. Maurice Low.
Alumni Department

'55.—In Cincinnati, on March 20th, an interesting address was delivered by Rev. J. K. Greene, D.D. The occasion was “The World in Cincinnati,” an exposition held in that city for the purpose of spreading information regarding the work carried on by the missionary boards and societies of all the Protestant churches. This address was the feature of a scene in Turkey given in a “Pageant of Darkness and Light.”

'61.—Edward Stanwood, Litt.D., on March 19 delivered a lecture at the Hotel Vendome, Boston on Current Events in which he treated mainly “feminism,” the movement in a social, political, and material way for woman’s broadest and largest opportunities. Mr. Stanwood treated phases of present day affairs in Germany, Great Britain, and France.

'81.—Cara Dana, the daughter of Clinton L. Baxter, was married to Mr. Louis Spring Runciman, on Wednesday, March 20, in Portland.

'98.—Donald B. MacMillan is planning with George Borup, another member of the famous Peary party, to make an expedition to Crocker Land in the Arctic Ocean under the auspices of the Museum of Natural History and the American Geographical Society. Admiral Peary thought he saw this land thru his field glasses in June, 1906, and from tidal observations its existence has been proved by Dr. Harris, tidal expert of the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey.

'04.—John Merrill Brigham, now a professor at the University of Wisconsin, recently won the distinction of writing a waltz for use at “The Prom,” the big social event of the year at that university. Prof. Brigham’s production was chosen from twenty-four contributions submitted.

'04.—Emil Hermes has been named by the trustees of Westbrook Seminary to fill a vacancy in the faculty. He will take charge at the beginning of the spring term, as German instructor and athletic coach. In both of these lines Mr. Hermes is very efficient. He is a native of Germany and has specialized in German. While here, he played on the football team, being considered one of the strongest linemen on the eleven. He also did some track work, his specialty being the weight events.

'10.—Frank E. Kendrie, the well-known violinist, participated on March 22nd in a recital given in the Fogg Museum, Harvard. His playing found an appreciative audience and also met favor with the critics.

Among the delegates to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore, two Bowdoin Alumni were chosen by the Maine branch of the party at their convention March 19th: Daniel J. McGillicuddy, ’81, of Lewiston; Merton L. Kimball, ’87, of Norway. As an alternate from the Second District George E. Hughes, ’73, of Bath, was named. Andrew P. Havey, ’03, was chosen as the member of the Democratic State Committee from Hancock County.

KENNEBEC COUNTY BOWDOIN ALUMNI

The Kennebec County Bowdoin Alumni Association held its annual business meeting and banquet, Friday evening, March 20, at the Augusta House. A business meeting preceded the banquet, and the officers for the year of 1912 were elected.

The names of the officers elected are: President, Judge Henry S. Webster, ’67; 1st vice-president, Anson M. Goddard, ’62; 2d vice-president, Rev. Henry Dunmack, ’97; secretary and treasurer, Blaine S. Viles, ’03. Those on the executive committee are: F. J. C. Little, ’89, John R. Gould, ’85, R. H. Bodwell, ’01.

Charles Knight of Gardiner acted as toastmaster, and H. M. Heath, John V. Lane, Henry D. Evans and Emery O. Beane were the speakers of the evening. The speeches in part referred to college days, and they were very interesting.

Those present were: Langdon Quimby, ’95; John V. Lane, ’87; Horace Sturgis, ’76; Melvin S. Holway, ’82; C. S. Pettengill, ’98; H. D. Evans, ’01; Robert A. Cony, Jr., ’07; R. L. McKay, ’06; G. K. Heath, ’06; R. W. Smith, ’10; C. S. Kingsley, ’07; N. S. Weston, ’08; John R. Gould, ’85; F. J. C. Little, ’89; Alton S. Pope, ’11; G. Cony Weston, ’10; George H. Macomber, ’11; Blaine S. Viles, Richard H. Stubbs, ’08; W. S. Thompson, ’75; H. M. Heath, ’72, all of Augusta; E. C. Pope, ’07, Manchester; Charles A. Knight, ’96, and Henry S. Webster, ’67, both of Gardiner; Emery O. Beane, ’04, Hallowell; Ralph W. Leighton, ’96, Readfield. Dean K. C. M. Sills was a guest of the association.

MEDICAL SCHOOL OF MAIN

BOWDOIN COLLEGE

ADDISON S. THAYER, Dean
10 Deering St., Portland, Me.

UNIVERSITY OF MAINE

SCHOOL OF LAW

Located in Bangor, maintains a three years’ course. Ten resident instructors and three non-resident lecturers. Tuition $70 a year; diploma fee only other charge.

For Circulars, address
Dean W. E. WALZ, Bangor, Me.
Campaign at Bowdoin

Senator Moses E. Clapp of Minnesota, the noted insurgent leader in the Senate, addressed the students in Memorial Hall, last Saturday evening under the auspices of the Bowdoin College Republican Club. Leaving his work in Washington where he is in the midst of the Trust hearings before the Senate Committee of which he is chairman, he consented to come down and speak upon the history and policies of the progressive movement with which he has been so closely connected. The Orient would like to print a complete summary of the speech, but space will not permit. He outlined the origin of the movement for more popular government so prominent in Roosevelt's platform, stating as its genesis the failure of Beveridge to be returned as Senator from Indiana when his opponents conceded that a popular election would have resulted in his re-election. He showed the conditions surrounding the formation of our written government, at a time of abatement of patriotism when there was a distrust of the people and proceeded to outline the steps of the people since then "to write back into the constitution the word 'nation.'" Taking up the popular election of Senators, the initiative, referendum, and recall he showed that they were not revolutionary but merely attempts to make the representatives serve the people rather than rule them. In his account of the Arizona admission he styled the compulsion of Congress to remove the recall of judges from its constitution a stultification of the electorate. In closing he made a very eloquent appeal for progressive principles and stated that despite the efforts of their opponents they were bound to come in the end, for they were in accordance with a law of nature.

Points in his speech which stood out prominently were:

"The time is coming when we will realize that government is a moral problem, and then we will not hold at arm's length the ballot that greatest of all moral forces, the womanhood of America."

"People insist in believing that there is something divine in free government, but there is not, except the divine right for freedom."

"The dollars spent by the corporations in invoking favorable legislation is insignificant compared with the debauched citizenship they have caused. I am advocating the initiative, referendum, and recall not so much for their use by the people permanently, as for a protection against this debauchery."

"One of the greatest problems before the people of this country is the making of their more ignorant citizens able to vote."

"There was never a time when commercialism was more in evidence than today; but at the same time there was never a time when there was more altruism than there is today."

"They call us agitators, but this world never moves without agitation."

The Senator is a powerful and eloquent speaker and uses forceful gestures to drive home his points. He was introduced by President Spinney of the Republican Club. On hearing of the result of Pennsylvania, Clapp said that the feeling in Washington was that a Roosevelt victory in that State meant his nomination at Chicago.

BROWN, 5; BOWDOIN, 4—APRIL 10

In a close and exciting game at Providence, last Wednesday, Brown defeated Bowdoin 5 to 4. The game was a pitcher's battle in which Captain Means of Bowdoin carried off the honors. The Brown team was able to gather but four hits from his delivery and seven of the Providence players were retired on strikes. Had it not been for shaky support at critical moments, the White would have pulled out a victory. Bowdoin had the better of the game at the bat with six hits. Keegan, the Freshman first sacker, had two credited to him.

The strong game played by Bowdoin was remarkable in consideration of the fact that the team had had but two days of outdoor practice before the trip.

The score:

BOWDOIN......... 32 ab 1b po a e
Weatherill, 2b .......... 3 1 1 1 0
Skofield, ss .......... 4 0 0 3 1
Russell, lf .......... 4 0 0 0 0
Brooks, 1b, e .......... 4 0 8 2 0
Means, p .......... 4 1 0 7 1
Grant, rf .......... 4 1 1 0 0
O'Neil, 2b .......... 3 0 2 1 0
Tilton, cf .......... 2 0 0 1 0
Casce, c .......... 1 1 3 0 0
Keegan, 1b .......... 3 1 1 1 0

Totals .......... 32 5 25*15 3
BOWDOIN, 5; RHODE ISLAND

STATE, 1—APRIL 11

Bowdoin played her second game of the season with Rhode Island State College at Kingston, R. I., and won handsomely, the final score being 5 to 1. Although the White team hit the ball hard and often, the hits were so well scattered that until the eighth inning, only one Bowdoin man had crossed the plate. In the eighth, however, Meyers was touched up for five hits, which, together with two errors and a stolen base, resulted in four runs.

Dodge, the Bowdoin twirler, pitched a fine game. But four men were able to solve his curves, and thirteen of the Rhode Island collegians struck out.

The score:

BOWDOIN

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>bh</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>6</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dodge, p

Totals

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>bh</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>38</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>12</td>
<td>27</td>
<td>6</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

RHODE ISLAND

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>bh</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>5</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Totals

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>bh</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>30</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>27</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>3</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Innings

| 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 |

Bowdoin

| 1 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 4 | 0 | 5 |

Rhode Island

| 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 0 | 0 | 1 |

Stolen bases—Dodge, Doll, Briden. Sacrifice
Struck out—By Meyers, 8; by Coleman; by Dodge, 13. Hit by pitched ball—Price, Tilton.
Umpire—Briggs. Time—2h. 15m.

BOWDOIN FENCERS RECOGNIZED

Bowdoin was admitted to membership in the Intercollegiate Fencing League, at a meeting of the association held Thursday, April 4, at the Hotel Astor, New York. The institutions represented were Harvard, Cornell, Pennsylvania, West Point, Annapolis, and Columbia. Next year the Bowdoin fencers will compete in the League dual meets and the annual championship contest at the Hotel Astor. Manager Pike has been trying to obtain recognition for Bowdoin in this branch of sport for the last two seasons and it is due to his efforts, mainly, that admission was secured in the League.

NEW FACULTY MEMBER

Since Professor Chapman has decided, at the advice of his doctors, not to take up his work again during the present academic year, Mr. Robert Withington, A.M., has been secured to take charge of his courses. After his graduation from Harvard in 1906, Mr. Withington studied for a year at the University of Lyons in France and the year following was connected with the Boston Transcript. For the past two years he has been doing graduate work at Harvard and has been assistant in English to Professor Barrett Wendell. Mr. Withington is a brother of the Harvard track captain.
TRACK NEWS

The largest squad which has ever been out for the track team has been practicing daily under Coach Marsh and Captain Cole. The practice has been held on the cinder paths around the campus, but the track at Whittier Field has been put in good condition and practice will be held there for many of the events. Last Saturday, the first of the weekly college meets was held. These meets will begin at 2:30 P. M. every Saturday and will consist of twelve events.

BRUNSWICK'S NEW THEATRE

It will be of interest to readers of the Orient to know that the new theatre being built on Cumberland Street by a syndicate of business and professional men of Brunswick will be completed about the middle of May, at which time it will be opened to the public. The building will be of stucco, with an attractively finished interior. The seating capacity of the auditorium will be about four hundred and thirty, and that of the balcony at the rear, about two hundred and twenty, making a total seating capacity of about six hundred and fifty. The comfort of the patrons of the theatre is assured by the raised floor, absence of posts and comfortable orchestra chairs.

There will be steam heat and a fine system of ventilation by which the foul air will be carried off through ventilators in the walls, connected with a large ventilator in the roof.

Although the theatre is to be used principally as a motion picture house, the large stage, thirty-three by fifty feet, and the good sized dressing-rooms will give ample facilities for presenting first class plays. During the theatrical season arrangements will be made with a New York booking concern to furnish attractions of this kind from time to time. Mr. Emery A. Crawford, who has leased the theatre for five years, has had experience in this line and understands the tastes of Brunswick people, having had charge of the Town Hall for many years, and will endeavor to please his patrons by giving them at all times first class entertainments.

FRESHMEN-SOPHOMORE DEBATE

The question for this year's Freshman-Sophomore Debate is as follows:—

Resolved, That the initiative and referendum should be generally adopted by the American States.

Trials for the teams will be held on Thursday, April 18, at 3:30 P. M. in Memorial Hall. Speeches for these trials will be limited to five minutes. Some references have been placed in the Classical Room of Hubbard Hall and further material can be found by consulting Poole's Index and the Reader's Guide. Prof. Mitchell will confer with the Freshmen and Prof. Davis with the Sophomores. Names of men intending to try for either of these teams should be left with P. H. Douglas '13 by this evening, April 16.

DR. SPEER, COLLEGE PREACHER

The fifth and last college preacher of the year was Dr. Robert Elliott Speer of New York City. Dr. Speer who is at present Secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, is well known for his numerous books on religious subjects and his popularity as a speaker at the various young men's conferences held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. At the morning service in the Church on the Hill his subject was "The Appeal of Christian Service." He urged eloquently the actual investment of a life for Christ, emphasizing the eternal satisfaction of such a choice, and the inadequacy and despair of life centered only in material things. At the afternoon Chapel service he spoke on the subject, "The Realization and Accomplishment of a Life Mission." He emphasized strongly the need of a definite purpose and how this may be secured through God. He then pointed out how this "life commission" may be carried out with purity, truth, and loyalty.

THE MARCH QUILL

The Quill for March, coming from the press in its usual neat and attractive form, presents an interesting table of contents. Each contribution has good measure of merit which the reviewer wishes briefly to mention. Taking the subjects in order we open to the story—"All Rivers Run to the Sea." This tale as its title suggests is a study in realistic fatalism, very well constructed and excellently written. It seems perhaps dramatically unnecessary to involve the grim doctor in the melancholy determinism which inexorably bears the "hero" to ruin, but the story shows power and moves to its logical end.

"A Paraphrase from Euripides" renders in English rhyme the song of the chorus pleading with Medea not to avenge herself upon her faithless husband, by the dreadful act of slaying her own sons. The verse intimately interprets the sense, giving in original form the substance of the poet's thought.

In the essay—"Carlyle's Message: Insight Plus Action," the writer clearly grasps the great Scotch seer's central motive, and draws us deep (Continued on page 13)
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY OF THE COLLEGIATE YEAR
BY THE STUDENTS OF
BOWDOIN COLLEGE

EDITORIAL BOARD

D. H. McMURTRIE, 1913, Editor-in-Chief
R. D. LEIGH, 1914, Managing Editor
F. WISH, 1913, Alumni Editor

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

W. R. SPINNEY, 1913 K. A. ROBINSON, 1914
L. E. JONES, 1913 R. E. SIMPSON, 1914
V. R. LEAVITT, 1913 A. H. MACCOMICK, 1915
D. K. MERRILL, 1914 F. P. MCKENNEY, 1915
J. F. ROLLINS, 1915
H. P. WALKER, 1913, Business Manager
E. SYLVESTER, 1914, Assistant Manager

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni, and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted. All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager.

Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

Entered at Post-Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII. APRIL 16, 1912 No. 2

Fight, Fight, Fight!

What slogan could be more appropriate for the impending track campaign and the final battle between the four Maine colleges three weeks from next Saturday than the one which made its appearance in the strenuous days of the football season last fall? It was the cheer that helped the team more than anything else, and it is the watchword that every undergraduate needs to sear into his mind now. The track men are practicing faithfully and with a determination which stamps them as worthy of the most loyal support that Bowdoin can give. Loyalty can be manifested in various ways, from being generous to the man with the subscription book, to being present on the field at practice time to give every man the encouragement he needs. The trial meets which are to be held each Saturday call for such support. Let the track men see that the college is with them heart and soul, that the college expects them to fight to the last ditch and will be content with nothing less. And then may there be inspired in the team a generous measure of the Bowdoin spirit that has won so many hard-fought battles in the past, may it be given the power to uphold the record that the track team has never suffered defeat on Whittier Field.

The New Instructor

To complete the courses in English Literature which Professor Chapman's accident has made it unwise for him to continue, the college has been fortunate in securing Mr. Robert Withington, a graduate student of Harvard University. Mr. Withington has been one of the hardest tasks imaginable, but he has the satisfaction of knowing that the undergraduates believe that he can accomplish this task. In the few days that he has been on the campus, his genial personality has inspired the confidence and respect of the college. The Orient takes pleasure in voicing this confidence and in welcoming him to Bowdoin.

Success to Bowdoin Bureau

Undergraduates who have heard of the work being done by The Bowdoin Bureau of Boston rejoice in knowing that it is one of the liveliest organizations connected with the college. "We work for Bowdoin and for Bowdoin men" is its motto. The Bureau desires to do all in its power for the college and hopes to receive whatever aid is possible from the undergraduates. The Orient takes this opportunity to assure the Bureau that the college appreciates the service which it is giving to Bowdoin. In every way the college stands ready to support it.

An Opportunity Missed

When the Republican Club secured one of Maine's ablest representatives in the National Legislature to speak before the college some weeks ago they were somewhat surprised that there was such a small attendance. But they explained it as best they could by bad weather conditions and insufficient advertising. Through great good fortune they were able to secure as their second speaker the ablest orator and exponent of the large and growing branch of the Republican party which is of such importance in the present campaign, Moses E. Clapp, the Insurgent Senator from Minnesota. Imagine their surprise and disappointment, therefore, at finding the hall only about two-thirds full for the occasion. Now it is not for the Orient to dictate the desires of the student body or faculty. If the whole number prefer to stay away from such a meeting it is none of its vital concern, as a college organ. But it does feel that such a showing as that of Saturday night is a good indication that the interest of this student body in the questions of the nation and affairs outside of our own local circle is mostly a minus quantity. Senator Clapp is a partisan and represents, moreover, only a wing of a party, but surely his lecture Saturday evening... was of vital interest to every man in College who intends to become a voter. A self-educated man, a "son of the soil," a breezy, open-hearted Westerner, he represents the highest type of that new order of political leaders of the Middle West who are playing such a large part in the affairs of Congress. With Dolliver, Beveridge, and LaFollette he founded the insurgent movement and as chairman of the inter-state commerce committee in the Senate is recognized as their sanest leader. His subject was the "Movement for Popular Government" and his exposition of the progressive principles was in the opinion of the Orient, the clearest, most logical, and eloquent ever delivered in the State of Maine, not excepting the Roosevelt speech in Portland a few weeks ago. His sincerity, wit, logic and brilliance won the hearts of the audience and again and again they broke into applause. We wish to thank the Republican Club in the name of the students for giving us the opportunity to get a new light and clearer insight into the problems of the campaign and an acquaintance with a political leader of the West. We only regret that the miserable support of the students necessitates their having to cancel all engagements for further speakers this year out of courtesy to the speakers.

The March Quill
(Continued from page 11)

into the heart of the realities for which Carlyle forever stands inspiring spokesman. "Insight Plus Action" distinctly describes the prophet’s message.

"The Censer," a miniature drama of one scene and three actors moves rapidly through a mystic world of a mystic Monk, out of which for the Cavalier man of action, emerges a returning material reality. Without incisive significance, perhaps with the intention of suggesting the vague and haunting elements of life and death, the little drama gives artistic expression to a mood which comes and goes with us all.

The editorial deals with an interesting phase of college life at Williams—that is, the declared dissatisfaction of the students there with the hampering prescriptions of the curriculum and the lack of a developed elective system. By contrast, the editorial views with appreciation the large liberty which Bowdoin students enjoy in planning their courses to suit their individual needs or desires. It may be said, however, that in the large view, the best system is yet to come, and in the not uncommon abuse of the elective privilege, the Williams administration may find no little justification for its more conservative course.

"Ye Postman," or exchange editor remarks a decided falling off in the previous month’s issues of the college magazines. Doubtless the Postman writes advisedly. All college student publications have their ups and downs of literary quality, but it pleases the Orient reviewer of the March Quill to congratulate its editors upon a very creditable number.

J. H. Q.

CLUB AND COUNCIL MEETINGS

The Student Council held its regular meeting, Wednesday, April 10. The date of the Annual Spring Rally was set for May 2. It was also voted to abolish sending of fraternity delegates to house parties, but the Council advised that they be continued to be sent to receptions. This action was taken after the sentiment of the fraternities was ascertained to be in favor of such action. The Council decided to put the matter of inter-fraternity baseball before the fraternities.

The Hebron Club was organized at a meeting held in Hubbard Hall, Thursday, April 11. Officers were elected as follows:

L. B. Schackford, President.
J. E. Philoön, Vice-President.
C. A. Brown, Secretary.

A committee was appointed to draw up a constitution and by-laws.

The Classical Club met at the rooms of Dean Sills, Tuesday evening, April 9. Prof. Woodruff gave a talk on Athenian Democracy. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

Dean K. C. M. Sills, President.
P. H. Pope, Secretary.
D. K. Merrill, Executive Committee member.

The Musical Clubs held a meeting, April 10, at which officers were elected for next year as follows:

G. F. Eaton, Leader of Glee Club.
P. C. Savage, Leader of Mandolin Club.
L. A. Crosby, Manager of Musical Clubs.
E. S. Thompson, Asst. Manager of Musical Clubs.

Mgr. Ashley of the 1912 Club reported a very successful season, with a total of fifteen concerts and a large surplus in the treasury to be turned over to next year’s management.

The Deutscher Verein met Thursday evening, April 11, at the home of Prof. Ham. Mr. Withington, the new instructor in English, was a guest. Prof. Ham gave an interesting talk on the German School System.
The Ibis held a meeting last night, April 15. President Aley of the University of Maine addressed the club.

At a meeting of the Athletic Council held recently, R. E. Simpson '14, and K. A. Robinson '14 were nominated candidates for assistant baseball manager. F. X. Callahan who was elected to this position last spring has been obliged to resign it on account of entrance conditions.

On the Campus

Nice day ain't it?
The Track team has been "on the campus" the past week.
Black caps are in style again this spring. No Freshmen should be without one.
The Brunswick Record mentions Prof. Files as one of the possibilities for Senator from Cumberland County.
Despite the recent action of the Council we shall still send delegates to the College Teas.
The Finance Committee of the Board of Trustees held their annual meeting in Massachusetts Hall last Friday afternoon.
We wonder what Lee Means by starting the season in such whirlwind style? (Shades of Longfellow! A daffydill in the Orient.)
At a meeting of the Junior Class April 10, the Ivy assessment was placed at $8. Any surplus is to apply to the deficit in the account of the Junior assemblies.
Dean Sills, and Professors Nixon and Woodruff attended the meeting of the New England Classical Association at New Haven, last Friday and Saturday.
The Pastime is building an addition to the rear of the building in order to accommodate a larger stage. Vaudeville will be presented at that theatre in a few weeks.
The student who woke the College out of sound slumber by ringing the chapel bell at 3 A.M. the morning after the Rhode Island State game is still at large and has not been detected.
A meeting of the High School principals of Maine will be held in Augusta High School, Friday, April 19, to consider adoption of uniform eligibility requirements. This is a commendable movement and should have good results.
"Beautiful, Busy Brunswick" was the heading of an elaborate, special edition of the Portland Press of April 6. Views of the College were reproduced and articles pertaining to its history, hits, Skofield 2. Wild pitches—Meyers, Dodge, and life were included.

The Senior class of Brunswick High School will present in the Town Hall on Friday evening, April 19, the farcical comedy entitled "The Private Secretary." The play will be followed by a dance with music by the High School Orchestra. Seats will be on sale at Chandler's this evening.

CALENDAR FOR THE MONTH

Wed., April 17.—Trials for Intercollegiate Oratorical League.

Thurs., 18.—Theta Delta Chi House Party.

Bowdoin Sigma Joint Banquet with Maine Chapter at Waterville.
Trials for Freshman and Sophomore Debating Teams.

Fri., 19.—Recess, Patriots' Day.

Bowdoin vs. Maine Centrals at Portland.
Alpha Delta Phi at Riverton Park, Portland.

Sat., 20.—Joint Banquet of Bowdoin and Colby Chapters of Delta Upsilon at Augusta.

Bowdoin vs. Exeter at Exeter.

Tues., 23.—Bowdoin vs. St. Anselm's at Manchester, N. H.

Wed., 24.—Bowdoin vs. Dartmouth at Hanover.

Thurs., 25.—Bowdoin vs. Dartmouth at Hanover.
Fri., 26.—Bowdoin vs. Middlebury at Middlebury.
Meeting of the Chemical Club.

Sat., 27.—Bowdoin vs. U. of Vermont at Burlington.

Wed., May 1.—Bowdoin vs. Tufts at Medford.

Thurs., 2.—Bowdoin vs. Harvard at Cambridge.
Annual Contest of Intercollegiate Oratorical League.
Annual Spring Rally.

Fri., 3.—Kappa Sigma House Party.

Beta Theta Pi House Party.

Sat., 4.—Bowdoin vs. Colby at Brunswick.

Thurs., 9.—Meeting of the Deutscher Verein at Prof. Files.

Fri., 10.—Bowdoin vs. Maine at Brunswick.

Sat., 11.—Maine Intercollegiate Track Meet at Brunswick.

Mon., 13.—Commencement Essays and Prize Story due.

Wed., 15.—Bowdoin vs. Maine at Orono.

Fri., 17.—Delta Upsilon House Party.

New England Track Meet at Springfield.

Intercollegiate Notes

With the opening of the college baseball season there is being published considerable comment and criticism of the national game as it is played in college. Capt. Palmer E. Pierce, U.S.A., President of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, came out recently in a speech at the U. of Kansas deploring professionalism in college baseball, and saying that although summer baseball is all right for college men it should debar him from amateur baseball. Dean Briggs has this to say about the situation: “If it is the duty of patriotic students to make all the noise they can while the visiting pitcher is facing their representatives; if it is the duty of the catcher to steady the pitcher by remarks that unsteady the batsmen; if baseball must deteriorate into vocal competition on the part of the players or into efforts to rattle the opponents, the sooner we have done with the game the better.”

After a space of six months in which no college paper has been published at Tufts, a news journal is now to be issued weekly by the junior class.

By a majority of 500 votes the men of Leland Stanford University recently voted to adopt a system of self-government. The system of representation is based somewhat upon that of the congressional districts in the United States and is centralized finally in a committee of five.

The Glee Club of the University of Washington has as its chief tenor soloist, William Lai, a Chinese student. The Oriental soloist is creating a sensation on the club’s trips.

The Colby baseball schedule follows:
April 19—U. of Maine at Waterville.
April 24—Mass. Agricultural College at Amherst.
April 25—Boston College at Boston.
April 26—Holy Cross at Worcester.
April 27—Harvard at Cambridge.
May 1—U. of Maine at Orono.
May 4—Bowdoin at Brunswick.
May 8—Maine Central at Waterville.
May 16—Boston College at Waterville.
May 22—Bowdoin at Waterville.
May 23—U. of Maine at Waterville.
May 30—Maine Central at Portland (two games).

June 1—Bates at Lewiston.
June 8—Bates at Waterville.
June 24—Coombs Day Game.

At this last occasion the “Mighty Jack” will appear with his college team mates of the champion ‘06 team.

An order has been issued at Yale requiring all undergraduates after next year to room on the campus.

Dartmouth, Pennsylvania, Princeton, University of Virginia and Williams will enter contesttants in the Intercollegiate Balloon Race to be held about July 1.

A Student Council will probably be formed at Colby as a result of the efforts of the Senior Class.

Campaign in the Colleges

In response to a call to announce where it stands in the matter of national politics, The Reserve Weekly of Western Reserve University has come out with the following “progressive” platform:

Public Ownership—College to own, maintain, and operate the theaters of Cleveland at cost.

Initiative, Referendum, and Recall—Applied to all faculty members under rank of full professorship.

Labor Reform—No recitation before 9 A. M.; appointment of commission to investigate evils of afternoon “labs.”

Publicity—All faculty meetings to be open to the general public.

Anti-Privilege—Extension of chapel attendance rule to apply to faculty.

Universal Suffrage—Nuff sed.

Popular Election—Of all college monitors.

Tariff Revision—Reducing tariff on such necessities as “E’s” and “G’s,” and a 50 per cent. reduction in the charge of make-up exams.

As a result of a straw ballot which was taken among the members of the faculty and the undergraduates at Wesleyan University, Taft triumphed over Roosevelt, 134 to 91. Governor Wilson, who was at one time a professor at Wesleyan, was the leading Democratic candidate, having 38 first choice and 60 second choice votes, thus securing third place. Jack Johnson received one vote.

“Must Republicans and Democrats at Williams give first place to the Socialists?” asks the Williams Record editorially in an appeal to the undergraduates to form other political clubs.

A Mock Convention is to be held at St. Lawrence University soon. There will be street parades by the so-called delegates; platforms for each party, including the Suffragists; and nominating speeches for the various candidates.

In a recent debate against the Freshmen, the Amherst Sophomores proved to the satisfaction of the judges that Taft would win. The question —Resolved: That it would be for the best interest of the country to re-elect William H. Taft Presdent of the United States. The Sophs proved that Roosevelt, LaFollette, and the Democrats didn’t have a show.

Senator LaFollette was chosen as the presidential nominee of the Republican party on the fourth ballot of a class in Political Science at Western Reserve University. The first three ballots showed Roosevelt in the lead, with Taft and LaFollette practically tied. On the fourth ballot the supporters of the President went over to LaFollette.
Alumni Department

'52.—The library received this week an elegantly bound memorial of Dr. E. A. Thompson. This memorial was the gift of Mr. Frank E. Guernsey of Dover, Me.

'56.—Dr. Edwin P. Parker, D.D., has severed his connection with the South Congregational Church of Hartford, Conn., after being its pastor for fifty-two years. On March 31st he delivered his valedictory sermon at that church, the occasion being most impressive. Dr. Parker has been most successful in this church and it was with great regret that it had to give him up. An especial mark of honor for this loyal Son of Bowdoin was a letter from the Center Church of that place in which it expressed its appreciation of Dr. Parker's work and its sympathy with the South Church at its loss.

'69.—Dr. Albert Woodside of Rockland died on Saturday afternoon, April 6th. Dr. Woodside was born in Wales, Androscoggin County, July 12, 1847, a son of Calvin and Emily (Whittum) Woodside. He fitted for college at Edward Little High School in Auburn and graduated from Bowdoin in 1869. He then went to Illinois where he taught school for one year. Upon his return to Maine he was elected principal of Monmouth Academy, which position he filled for one year.

He studied medicine with Dr. Alonzo Garcelon, afterwards Governor of Maine, and with Dr. E. H. Hill of Lewiston. Graduating from Bowdoin Medical School in 1874, he commenced practice at Tenant's Harbor. Here he remained until 1891, endearing himself to everybody in that and the adjoining towns, and then moved to Rockland where he continued his practice in medicine until the close of last year. He was member of the American Academy of Medicine and of the Maine Medical Association. He had the reputation of being one of the greatest students in his profession and his articles in the various medical journals attracted widespread attention.

He served 15 years as supervisor of schools in St. George and was subsequently a member of the School Board in Rockland. He was a Republican and had a deep interest in the welfare of the state and country.

Dr. Woodside was married June 23, 1875, to Alice Skolfield Hunt and is survived by his wife and two children, Mary A. and Josephine A. Woodside.

'82.—The many friends of Dr. Warren O. Plimpton of New York City will regret to learn of the recent failure of his health, so serious as to cause the temporary abandonment of his extensive practice.

'91.—Once again a Bowdoin man has stepped into the gap and provided a booklet which will be most useful to all people interested in the present political situation. We refer to the explanation of our new election laws prepared by Lewis A. Burleigh of Augusta. The work is entitled "An Analysis and Interpretation of the Primary Election Law, Corrupt Practices Act, and Federal Election Law." It is most comprehensive and up-to-date as it also includes a copy of the new Ballot Law passed on March 23rd. The work shows a very careful analysis of the situation and will prove of interest to all Bowdoin undergraduates or alumni who are interested in the political matters of our state and country.

'07.—This Class is making arrangements for a large attendance at the next Commencement which will be that of its first reunion.

'03.—Mr. Scott Clement Ward Simpson of Portland and Miss Florence Alice Williams of Malden, Mass., were married, Tuesday, March 26, at the home of the bride's parents. Richard E. Simpson '14, the brother of the groom, was the best man and Alfred M. G. Soule '03 of Woolwich, Conn., and Paul H. Powers '08 of Houlton were among the ushers. Mr. Simpson is secretary of the Benjamin H. Sanborn Publishing Co. of Boston.

MEDICAL SCHOOL OF MAINE
BOWDOIN COLLEGE

ADDISON S. THAYER, Dean
10 Deering St., Portland, Me.

UNIVERSITY OF MAINE
SCHOOL OF LAW

Located in Bangor, maintains a three years' course. Ten resident instructors and three non-resident lecturers. Tuition $70 a year; diploma fee only other charge. For Circulars, address
Dean W. E. WALZ, Bangor, Me.

Compliments of

A. H. SCOTT CO., Inc.
Manufacturers of . . . Custom Shirts for well dressed men . . .

273 Middle Street, PORTLAND, MAINE

WILLIAM E. ATWOOD, Bowdoin, '10, Treasurer
BOWDOIN ORIENT

Vol. XLII  Brunswick, Maine, April 23, 1912  No. 3

BOWDOIN, 5; EXETER, 9—April 20

Exeter defeated Bowdoin last Saturday afternoon at Exeter, by a score of 9 to 5. For four innings the game was close, but in the fifth a bunching of hits netted the New Hampshire team four runs, a lead which the White was unable to overcome. Aside from this inning the game was closer than the score indicates. Lack of teamwork was noticeable in the play of the collegians. Several errors of omission, together with poor coaching on the bases were mainly responsible for the defeat. Woodcock worked in his first game of the season and was rather wild. The one redeeming feature of Bowdoin's play was the work of Capt. Means at the bat. Lee began his active batting career with the Bates games last season and is now proving to everyone those long drives were not accidents. Out of four times at bat he registered a single, a double, a triple, and a base on balls. Skolfield at short field pulled off the fielding feature of the game when he captured a sizzling liner from Fripp's bat.

BOWDOIN

| | | | | | | |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ab</td>
<td>r</td>
<td>bh</td>
<td>po</td>
<td>a</td>
<td>e</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dole, 2b</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Skolfield, ss</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Russell, lf</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brooks, c</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>10</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Means, rf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tilton, 3b</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Keegar, 1b</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>6</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Allen, cf</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Woodcock, p</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>†LaCasce</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>†Cooley</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Totals</td>
<td>39</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>10</td>
<td>24</td>
<td>6</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

*Russell out for interference.

Innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Exeter 0 0 2 1 4 1 0 1 x—9
Bowdoin 0 0 0 2 0 1 0 0 2—5

The team left yesterday on the New Hampshire-Vermont trip where they play a series of five games. The line-up will probably be the same as last Saturday's game unless Weatherill and O'Neil will be in shape to make the trip. If they go, Tilton will go to the out field and O'Neil will cover third; Weatherill will play second in place of Dole. These two regulars have been laid up lately, Bob with a bad shoulder and Joe with a game knee. Means, Dodge and Woodcock will do the pitching on the trip.

SECOND HANDICAP MEET

The results of the second Saturday handicap meet held on Whittier Field, April 20, are as follows:

100-yard dash—Won by Walker '13; second, McKenney '12; third, Roberts '15.

440-yard dash—Won by Haskell '13; second, Gray '12; third, Payson '14.

One-mile run—Won by Hall '13; second, Emery '13.

120-yard hurdles—Won by Houghton '15, second, C. Brown '14; third, Jones '13.

880-yard run—Won by Marr '14; second, Wilson '12; third, McWilliams '15.

Running broad jump—Won by Smith '15; second, Walker '13; third, C. Brown '14.

220-yard dash—Won by Walker '13; second, Hinch '12; third, Roberts '15.

Two-mile run—Won by Hall '13; second, Bacon '15.

220-yard hurdles—Won by Houghton '15; second, Jones '13; third, A. L. Pratt '14.

High jump—Won by Mifflin '12; second, Smith '15; third, Marsh '12.

Pole vault—Won by McKenney '12; second, Smith '15; third, Page '12.

Hammer throw—Won by A. Lewis '15; second, Simpson '12; third, Wood '13.
Discus throw—Won by Kennedy ’13; second, Parkhurst ’13; third, Austin ’15. There was no shot put.

NON FRATERNITY CLUB HOUSE IN SIGHT

The joint committee of non-fraternity men and Faculty, consisting of Professor Nixon and Mr. Wilder of the Faculty and Bryant, Hubbard and Andrews of the non-fraternity men, recommend ed to the Faculty at its meeting on Monday, April 15, a rough outline of a plan of organization to be put in effect among the non-fraternity men. This plan provides for a house in which some of the men shall have their rooms and at which all who become members of the society shall board. Four dollars per week is the rate to be charged for board, and a steward elected by the club from candidates nominated by the Faculty shall have charge of this eating club. An annual fee of ten dollars is to be paid by all members of the society. It is expected that the income from this fee and the money obtained from the rental of rooms together with whatever profit can be made by the eating club will suffice to pay the rental to the college, expenses of operation, and the interest on the money which the college advances for furniture. A house committee of three is to be appointed to have general supervision of matters pertaining to the club and together with a faculty committee is to make all arrangements with the college. The signatures of twenty men from the three lower classes, who are willing to co-operate to form such a society, were secured and turned over to the Faculty.

President Hyde has announced that in response to this request the Finance Committee has offered, and the Faculty has accepted, one of the college houses to be used for a society house. All the non-fraternity men in college will be invited to join this society; but membership in it will not prevent a man from joining a fraternity.

The Trustees and Overseers will be asked to furnish this house and rent it to the society on such terms as will place an attractive home within the reach of every student in the college whether he be rich or poor, and give to those who do not for any reason join any fraternity the same advantages that the chapter houses do to those who do join the fraternities.

CLASS DEBATE RESULTS

Trials for the Freshman-Sophomore debate were held in Memorial Hall last Thursday afternoon. From the nine Freshmen competing the following team was chosen: G. W. Bacon, F. P. McKenney, R. P. Coffin, and as alternate, J. Rubin. Owing to the small number of Sophomores competing Thursday, additional trials were held Saturday afternoon. The following team was chosen from the seven contestants: A. E. Gray, E. H. Snow, J. Schwey, and R. E. Bodurtha, alternate. The final debate will be held May 14, in Hubbard Hall.

THE TENNIS SEASON—CHANCE FOR ALL

As the tennis season is approaching and the courts will soon be in shape, the tennis management wishes to make the following announcement:

The College Annual Spring Tournament will take place as soon as the courts are ready. Cups will be awarded to the winner and runner-up. In addition to this, in order to make the competition more keen among the “unheralded and unsuspecting” players there will be a consolation tournament for those defeated in the first two rounds and winner and runner-up will also receive cups. The tournament is for a two-fold purpose: First, to get a line on team material, and second, to afford a chance for the average player to receive recognition, and in this way encourage the sport as one for the whole student body rather than for the sake of developing a team of four experts. As cups are to be awarded an entrance fee of twenty-five cents per man will be charged. Men planning to enter the tournament are urged to submit their names to Manager Cummings as soon as possible.

The tennis schedule follows:

Maine Intercollegiate Tournament at Orono, May 23, 24, 25.

Bowdoin Intercollegiate Tournament at Brunswick, May 31.

THETA DELTA CHI HOUSE PARTY

Eta Charge of Theta Delta Chi held its annual house party and reception at the chapter house on the afternoon and evening of April 18. The reception was held from three to five o’clock. In the receiving line were Mrs. William H. Lunt, Mrs. Wilmot B. Mitchell, Mrs. Frank B. Woodruff, all of Brunswick, and Mrs. Herbert E. Cole of Bath. The fraternity delegates were: C. O. Bailey ’12, Alpha Delta Phi; L. Pratt ’12, Psi Upsilon; B. D. Holt ’13, Delta Kappa Epsilon; W. A. MacCormick ’12, Delta Upsilon; C. O. Warren
'12, Kappa Sigma; L. T. Brown '14, Beta Theta Pi.

In the evening the ladies who were in the receiving line in the reception were the patronesses. Among the young ladies present were: Miss Priscilla Stephenson of Pasadena, Cal., Miss Edith Kilbourne of Philadelphia, Pa., Miss Virginia Fessenden of Hoboken, N. J., Miss Jeannette Kimberley of Montreal, P. Q., Miss Esther Barnhurst of North Adams, Mass., Miss Margaret Lyman of Somerville, Mass., Misses Elizabeth Drummond, Marian Edwell, Olivia Bagley, Elizabeth Wyer, Alice Foster, Evelyn Edwards, Mildred Schonland, Elizabeth Conneen, Helen Leavitt, all of Portland, Miss Carolyn Jordan of Westbrook, Miss Avis Thompson of Presque Isle, Miss Melissa Robinson of Dover, N. H., Misses Gertrude Dillon, Katherine Torrey, Millicent Clifford, Louise Harriman, Elizabeth Harriman, Elizabeth Houghton, and Margaret Goodman of Bath, Miss Mabel Norton of Falmouth, and Miss Lillian Fogg of Freeport.

The committee was composed of Philip P. Cole '12 of Bath, Stanley F. Dole '13 of Portland, Neil A. Fogg '13 of Freeport, Clifford E. Russell '14 of Portland, and Gordon D. Richardson '15 of Reading, Mass.

The members of the active chapter also had the pleasure of entertaining the following alumni and former members: Summer Edwards '10, Leon H. Smith '10, Stephen Perry, Jr., '12, Charles C. Abbott '12, George W. Howe '11, Harold D. Archer '13, and Briton O. Smith '12.

Lovell's Orchestra furnished the music; Given was the caterer.

DELTA UPSILON CHAPTERS BANQUET

A joint banquet of the Colby and Bowdoin Chapters of Delta Upsilon was held Saturday evening at the Augusta House in Augusta. About thirty-five members of the Bowdoin Chapter and thirty of the Colby Chapter were present, as well as a large number of alumni of both colleges.

Music was furnished by the Delta Upsilon Orchestra and Quartette, and by G. A. Tibbets, Bowdoin '12. The fraternity songs and songs of both colleges were sung by those present.

The toastmaster was W. E. Jones, Colby '12 and the guest of honor was Sheldon J. Howe, Brown '08, traveling secretary of the fraternity. The speakers were: Paul H. Douglas, Bowdoin '13; Prof. Alfred W. Anthony, Brown; Emory O. Beane, Bowdoin '04; Seward J. Marsh, Bowdoin '12; Ray C. Carter, Colby '11, who read a poem written for the occasion; Farnsworth G. Marshall, Bowdoin '98; Alfred W. Wandtke, Bowdoin '10; and Mr. Howe.

The committee, whose efforts made this one of the most pleasurable of the joint banquets held by the two chapters, consisted of J. A. Norton '13, H. D. Gilbert '13, and K. A. Robinson '14 from the Bowdoin Chapter, and O. E. Lowell '12, I. C. Cleaveland '13, and J. Wells '14 from the Colby Chapter.

ALPHA DELTA PHI BANQUETS

The Alpha Delta Phi Alumni Association held its third annual banquet Monday evening, April 15, in the State of Maine room of the Falmouth Hotel, Portland. The guests of honor were those who have been for fifty years or more members of the fraternity.

The banquet room was decorated with green and white streamers which formed a canopy over the tables, the latter were decorated with potted lilies-of-the-valley, the fraternity emblem.

Rt. Rev. Robert Codman acted as toastmaster and speeches were made by Dr. Spaulding, Dr. Thompson, Dr. M. P. Cram, George C. Purington, Edward L. Morss '12, and H. C. Chapman '12.

The undergraduates of the Bowdoin chapter were guests of the association.

The Fourth Annual Banquet of the Bowdoin chapter of Alpha Delta Phi was held at the Riverton Casino last Friday evening. After the banquet C. O. Bailey '12, acting as toastmaster, called on H. C. Chapman '12, C. R. Bull '13, E. S. Thompson '14, and P. S. Smith '15 for toasts.

PHI CHI SMOker

Patriots' Day was observed by the members of Gamma Gamma Chapter of the Phi Chi Medical Fraternity with a smoker at the Congress Square Hotel in Portland, which was followed by a luncheon.

Drs. Henry Brock, W. E. Tobie, E. W. Gehring, F. N. Whittier, M. P. Cram, H. A. Pingree, and W. D. Williamson were special guests of the Chapter.

The exercises consisted of a paper on the "Fountain of Eternal Youth" by Dr. Brock and "Experimental Medicine" by Dr. Gehring, and informal talks by the other M. D.s present. The talks were interspersed with orchestral selections and vocal numbers by H. D. Ross.

W. J. Hammond, president of the Chapter, gave an interesting report of the doings of the national convention at Indianapolis in February, which he attended. About forty members of the active chapter and alumni were present.
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

Published every Tuesday of the Collegete Year by the Students of Bowdoin College

EDITORIAL BOARD

Douglas H. McMurtrie, 1913, Editor-in-Chief
Robert D. Leigh, 1914, Managing Editor
Fred D. Wish, Jr., 1913, Alumni Editor

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

W. R. Spinney, 1913
J. A. Robinson, 1914
L. E. Jones, 1913
R. E. Simpson, 1914
V. R. Leavitt, 1913
A. H. MacCormick, 1915
D. K. Merrill, 1914
F. P. McKenney, 1915
J. F. Rollins, 1915
H. B. Walker, 1913, Business Manager
E. Sylvester, 1914, Assistant Manager

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni, and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted. All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager.

Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

Entered at Post-Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII. APRIL 23, 1912 No. 3

With the track meet on Whitthor Fight, Fight, Fight! the Field looming up only two weeks from next Saturday, that cheer should be redoubled and it should be put into practice with the last bit of strength the college has. Coach Marsh is pleased that the track squad is large. But he wishes to see every man come out every day. To bring out the full value of the practice meets, there must be the keenest kind of competition. The only way to secure that kind of competition is for every man on the squad to work six days a week. Let the men who are not on the squad be on the field in a body at practice hours every day and especially at all the practice meets, for their presence is a mighty force in putting the spirit into the team. Fight, then, every man, and remember that Bowdoin has never lost a track meet on Whittier Field.

In this number there appears

The Library Table the first article in a new department, The Library Table, which is to be in charge of Kenneth A. Robinson, 1914. The Board feels that some explanation is necessary upon establishing a department which may seem at first glance to encroach upon the province of the Quill. But is it thought that the Orient may best give its readers the news of the college world by means of two separate departments: the Intercollegiate Notes and The Library Table. The former aims to present the happenings in many colleges by means of brief notes. The new department will not be concerned with questions solely of literary merit, and will thus not parallel the exchange department of the Quill. It will, however, attempt by means of longer articles of comment to bring before Bowdoin men such problems in college administration and college life as will be of interest.

Richard Frazer White befall thirteen hundred passengers on the largest ocean liner in the world last week was brought home to Bowdoin students with terrible reality from the circumstance that a Bowdoin undergraduate was numbered among the lost. Richard Frazer White, or "Dick," as he was known on the campus, was in every sense a true Bowdoin man, and his death will be mourned by the entire college community. During his three and a half years' course, he proved his ability by winning election to Phi Beta Kappa at the close of his Junior year and by his membership on the editorial board of the Quill, also secured in his Junior year. He was a member of the Sophomore Squad. By reason of his brilliant and conscientious work, he was enabled to complete the courses required for graduation at the close of the first semester in February, and through the half year's vacation brought about by the completion of these courses, he was led to enter upon the fateful voyage of the Titanic. The Orient joins the whole community in lamenting the early death of a brilliant student, a popular and loyal undergraduate, and a true son of Bowdoin.

A COMMUNICATION

To the Editor of the Orient:

The Bowdoin Musical Clubs have just closed one of the most successful seasons in their history—the Clubs have been well above the average of college musical organizations, they have been composed of men who have been a credit to Bowdoin, and through the efforts of the manager they have finished the season free from debt and with a credit balance for next year. The members of the Clubs surely have a right to be proud of this record.

But it is not the purpose of this letter to praise the Clubs in the season just passed, but to call attention to the prospects for another year. By graduation this June the organization will be hard hit. The Glee Club will lose eight of its eighteen members. On the Mandolin Club there will be left at least five vacancies. And, of even greater importance, the Clubs will lose their reader and cornet soloist. That it will be hard to fill the places thus made vacant is needless to emphasize. They can be filled and filled well only through hard work by new men.

The fact that the Clubs were successful financially this year has encouraged the hope that another year perhaps a longer trip may be taken during the Christmas or Easter vacation. While such a trip is at present only projected, there is a reasonable chance that it may materialize. But before it is even seriously thought of, one thing must be assured,—namely, that the Bowdoin Clubs next year are as good as and even better than those this season. It is useless to talk of trips without strong organizations to back them.

It has already been shown that there is a good chance for—or rather, a great need of—new material and new men for the clubs next winter. The members of the organization this season unite in urging every student who has the least ability in musical lines or as a reader to begin now to work with this idea in view,—to make the season of 1913 an even greater success than the one just past.

Very truly yours,
LAURENCE A. CROSBY,
Manager 1913 Musical Clubs.

BOWDOIN SPIRIT AND THE TRACK TEAM
A Letter to the Undergraduates

At every mass meeting and rally we hear a great deal said about Bowdoin spirit. We pride ourselves on our college spirit, think of it as something peculiarly our own, and seem to think that it is all-sufficient, that the mere possession of it will bring any victory that we wish. Possibly this has been so in the past, but is it a fact today?

Let us examine the track situation. Since the outdoor season opened, exactly 65 men have reported for practice. This is a good showing as far as it goes, 65 men training each day would give us a track team of which to be proud, if not this year, at least in another year. But examine the situation more closely. Of these men who have reported, 21 have not been out over three times, and at least 10 others have not been out over six times. Bowdoin Spirit? Of the remaining 34 men, but 11 have been out every day since the term commenced. Bowdoin Spirit? Furthermore, out of the total 65, but 33 are underclassmen. Bowdoin Spirit? To raise Bowdoin’s athletic standard, it is imperative that the underclassmen come out and receive the training that will enable them to take the places of the men who graduate. We make our athletes, for the most part, and it is a slow process. Every underclassman who is not a candidate for some other athletic team, or a managership should be out on the track every day and fit himself for the work of the years to come.

We have a new coach this year, who has had wide experience in all athletic events. He was carefully selected as the one man who could best develop our green men. We did not expect a victory perhaps, this year, with but a half dozen points back in college, but we did expect that he would develop men for next year. Can he do it with but ten men appearing regularly for practice to receive the benefit of his knowledge? Again, there seems to be a feeling among some men in college that they can advise our runners better than the coach. In the case of one or two men, this advice, well meant no doubt, has had more weight than that of the coach and has practically nullified his work. Bowdoin Spirit? Keep away, fellows, and let the coach earn his money. He knows what is best and it is the duty of every man on the squad to obey him implicitly.

It is our plan to have weekly handicap meets. To develop our green men, this competition is a necessity. These meets have been well advertised and every man knew they were to take place. At the first meet but 38 of the squad reported and at the second, but 42. Bowdoin Spirit? These meets are held for a purpose and more men should be out to compete.

Among the members of the squad, however, there are some men who are trying to do what they can for the college. They work hard and faithfully and, though inexperienced and undeveloped, are following orders and set a praiseworthy example to other men who let selfish interests turn them from the interests of the college. Forgetting this work and gameness, many of the spectators stand by and ridicule them because they do not show finished form. Bowdoin Spirit? A fine thing for men who are too wrapped up in themselves to help the college, to make sport of the few underclassmen who are really trying to do something for the college, and who in a few years will be hailed as our best athletes.

This is not an attack on the spirit shown by our football team last fall, that was true spirit, but such exhibitions come only in flashes. In the spirit that requires hard monotonous work with no apparent result, in the little things that sum up to the larger things, we are lacking. Let us bring back the old Bowdoin Spirit, it must have existed, or we would not have the tradition. Get out on the track every day. It is hard work, but it's worth some sacrifice to represent Bowdoin. Obey the coach's orders and believe that he knows best. Encourage the men who are working, do not ridicule them in the slow process of perfecting form. Then we will have the true Bowdoin Spirit, a spirit that is worth while, that is permanent, not a flash in the pan, and we will take our proper position in the track world, the position which the memory of Harry Cloudman, Irving Nutter, Sumner Edwards, Harry Atwood, and Henry Colbath bids us take.

ROBERT D. COLE,
Captain Track Team.

SUNDAY CHAPEL, PRESIDENT HYDE

At Sunday Chapel, April 21, President Hyde spoke of the recent Titanic disaster. He said that he should not refer to the College's share in the great tragedy since the grief of those nearer to the lost ones was so much greater, but would dwell upon the great lessons to all the world which might be drawn from it. He said in part: "It sometimes seems far-fetched to speak of it as a chastisement, but this is a chastisement for sin, not for the sin of the passengers or crew nor even of the managers or directors, but for the sin of the whole American people and the world, so far as it shares the attitude of the American people. It is the sin of caring more for luxury than safety, of the incidents of life rather than life itself." He then dwelt on the hopeful aspect of the tragedy, of the nobleness displayed by men, and women alike, saying that this also was common in our everyday life and the tragedy only a small exhibition of the sacrifices of mothers and young men. "There are deep, heroic, transcendent virtues on land as well as on sea." The President closed by reading a poem by Theodore Williams, which expressed very beautifully, honor and prayer for the dying brave, pity and hope for those bereaved of friends.

The Library Table

Stover at Yale by Owen Johnson. (Current Serial in McClure's Magazine.)

Stover at Yale is a serial story by Owen Johnson, the writer of The Eternal Boy, which is far and away the best story of American schoolboy life ever written. The Eternal Boy and its various sequels have done much to immortalize Lawrenceville—quite as much in their own particular way as Mr. Hughes's book has done for Rugby. Consequently, considerable interest was aroused by the announcement that Mr. Johnson had written a very big story of American college life. Unfortunately, however, Stover at Yale proves to be by no means a "big story," and lately it has become no story at all, but simply a rather tiresome attack on present conditions at Yale—an attack which those who know Yale life intimately say is entirely prejudiced and unfair. Stover at Yale is a protest—very frankly a protest—and as such was conceived and advertised, only—it has become all protest and no story. It opens well, although tamely, with considerable commonplace advice to Freshmen, races through a year or two of football games that Yale does NOT win and some that she does win, brings in Tap Day, together with an immensely popular football captain who is NOT tapped, introduces a girl wise beyond her years, and straightway becomes transformed into a treatise on sociology as applied to the undergraduate community. The story does not remain long in one's mind, it leaves a curious sense of confusion—due partly, no doubt, but by no means entirely, to its publication in serial form—and, in short, exasperates until one feels like wading in with a club and straightening things out. Furthermore, it presents Yale in rather a bad light—a dangerous thing to do when the foundation of such a presentation is uncertain. The characters, too, are not appealing; "Regan" is not drawn strongly enough to arouse any very deep sympathy in the average reader, and those who know Mr. Johnson's previous books have become familiar with so many degenerations and regenerations of "Dink Stover," that before long they surely must abandon all hope for that unfortunate victim of environment. The thing that Stover at Yale does do for the student who reads it is to cause him to ask himself once again the eternal question "are secret societies fair?" and the manner in which Mr. Johnson attacks secret societies at Yale makes one favor rather than oppose them.

BOWDOIN AND MAINE KAPPA SIGMAS JOIN HANDS

The second annual joint banquet of Psi Chapter of Maine, and Alpha Rho Chapter of Bowdoin of Kappa Sigma was held Thursday evening, April 18, at the Elmwood Hotel, Waterville. Nearly every active member from each chapter was present, together with a number of alumni from both Psi and Alpha Rho. Between the courses, the entertainment was made lively by the singing of fraternity songs.
After the banquet, many effective speeches were made, setting forth the progress of each chapter and the aims of the fraternity as a whole. J. Everett Hicks, Bowdoin '97, G. M. of the First District of the fraternity, acted as toastmaster. Among the other speakers of the evening were Mr. Foster, Maine '03, of Oakland, C. W. Wescott, Maine '12, B. C. Rodick, Bowdoin '12, O. B. Higgins, Maine '12, W. R. Spinney, Bowdoin '13, H. L. Crosby, Maine '12, E. L. Russell, Bowdoin '12, and R. K. Hagar, Bowdoin '13.

The committee for the banquet was: R. K. Hagar '13, E. L. Russell '12, and E. O. Leigh '12 of Alpha Rho, and C. W. Wescott '12, O. B. Higgins '12, and H. L. Crosby '12 of Psi Chapter.

On the Campus

Everybody's doin' it, doin' what? Having a banquet.

Mr. Ralph B. Stone, former instructor in Mathematics, was on the campus last week.

The following are out for the Orient Board: McDonald, Elwell, Talbot, and Kulm.

James O. Tarbox '14, was initiated into the Kappa Sigma Fraternity, Wednesday, April 17.

B. C. Rodick '12 is coaching the graduation speakers of the Freeport High School, his alma mater.

The following Freshmen are out for baseball assistant manager: Elwell, Mannix, Ricker, Bacon, Perkins, Hall, Hyler.

Prof. Charles H. McLwain, head of the History department last year and now at Harvard, visited Brunswick last Sunday.

W. A. MacCormick '12, Fifield '11, A. S. Merrill '14, P. H. Douglas '13, and J. F. Weinitz '15, went on another deputation trip last week end, this time to Skowhegan.

Wet grounds and a considerable downpour upset the plans for the baseball game between Bowdoin and the Maine Central's in Portland last Friday. It is not yet definitely decided whether the game will be played at another date.

The trials for the choice of a speaker to represent Bowdoin at the Annual Contest of The New England Oratorical League was held Thursday, but owing to the absence of one of the contestants the decision is reserved until he will be able to try out.

The Alpha Delta Phi and Kappa Sigma Fraternities are having new tennis courts laid out. The old Kappa Sigma court was swallowed up by the new gymnasium, and the new one will be located directly across Harpswell Street from the chapter house.

Mr. Tyson, in charge of the construction of the new Gym, requests that students and other spectators shall not come near to the building when the construction work is going on. Mr. Tyson feels that now that the walls and the steel beams are going up that the danger of an accident is too great for any spectators to be allowed in the buildings.

A new trophy for the College will be received within a few days, in the form of a silver trophy cup to be kept permanently in the trophy room and to have the names of the highest point winners for Bowdoin in the intercollegiate meets engraved upon it. This is the gift of Mrs. Henry A. Wing in memory of her husband, Henry A. Wing, who was a prominent member of the Bowdoin Athletic Council for years, and was a judge at many Bowdoin track meets. The inscription on the cup will be "Memory of Henry A. Wing, 1880." Further announcement of the gift will be made in a later issue.

Spalding's Second College Baseball Annual has been recently issued and contains, among a number of interesting notes of the college game, an All-New England college team. Its choice for catcher is George F. Wilson, late of Bowdoin, and captain-elect of the 1912 team, who is doing the backstop work for Toronto in the Eastern League. The Annual says this about Squanto in making its choice: "The selection of a catcher is a simple problem. In that important position Bowdoin was exceptionally strong. Wilson was a fine backstop, could throw to bases like a shot, and was strong on foul flies. He makes his place on the all-college team 'in a walk.'" Bowdoin is not represented elsewhere by either picture or schedule.

With the Faculty

President Hyde will represent the College at the inauguration of President Hibben of Princeton in May.

The Faculty refused permission for the dual meet with Bates on May 4, on the ground that too many athletic contests were to occur at that time.

At the last meeting of the Faculty thirty major warnings, and fifty-six minor warnings were given. Last year there were sixteen majors and fifty-six minors.

Prof. Wilmot B. Mitchell will be Bowdoin's delegate to the 75th anniversary of the opening of Mt. Holyoke College which is to take place in October.

At the last Faculty meeting it was voted that Freshmen, Sophomores and Juniors must register electives for next term before the examination period of the present term.

Professor Hornell gave an address before the Sagadahoc Teachers' Association last Friday. His subject was "The Methods and Aims of History Teaching in Elementary and Secondary Schools."

Bowdoin will be represented by Dr. N. F. Whittier at the fifteenth International Congress on Hygiene and Demography, to be held under the auspices of the United States Government in Washington, D. C., Sept. 23-28.

The first news of the "Titanic" disaster was received in Brunswick at nine o'clock Monday evening by Prof. Hutchins who intercepted a message at his wireless station in the Science Building. This was a number of hours before it was known to the newspapers.

The ladies of the Faculty announce that an extra college tea will be held May 7 to which all alumni in this vicinity are welcome. The occasion for this additional afternoon reception is the Maine Conference of Congregational churches which is to be held in Brunswick on that date and the day following.

Resolution

Hall of Theta of Delta Kappa Epsilon, April 20, 1912.

In the sinking of the Titanic on April 14, the Theta Chapter of Delta Kappa Epsilon lost Brother Richard F. White of the delegation of 1912.

Brother White's literary ability, his position on the editorial staff of the Quill, and his excellent scholarship made him known throughout the college; his faithful devotion to the fraternity in all matters, large and small, made him especially dear to us, and make us deeply regret his loss under such particularly tragic circumstances.

To his mother and brother, the Chapter extends its heartfelt sympathy in their double loss. To us he was a loved and honored brother and we mourn his loss with them.

ROBERT D. COLE,
LAURENCE A. CROSBY,
ALFRED E. GRAY,
For the Chapter.

Alumni Department

'03.—The engagement of Mr. George H. Stover of New York to Miss Edna Morton Nichols of Oakwood Heights, Staten Island, has been announced. Mr. Stover is a member of the legal profession in New York City and is at present connected with the New York Municipal Research Bureau. Miss Nichols is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Granville W. Nichols.

'06.—Melvin T. Copeland, Ph.D., formerly of Brewer and now instructor in Economics at New York University, has been awarded the David A. Wehs prize in Economics by Harvard University. The prize carries an award of $500, and is given for the best thesis on some subject on economics. The title of Dr. Copeland's thesis is "The Cotton Manufacturing Industry of the United States." The book will be published in the series of Harvard Economics Studies. Dr. Copeland is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Salem D. Copeland of Brewer.

'11.—The engagement of Miss Ruth B. Little, the youngest daughter of Prof. and Mrs. George T. Little, to Mr. Gardner Sanford has been announced. The occasion of the announcement was a very pleasing party given at the Little home last Friday afternoon. Miss Little is one of the most talented and popular young ladies of Brunswick. Mr. Sanford specialized in Chemistry while in college and was a member of the Chemical Club. He was also interested in baseball, being a member of his class teams. He was a member of the Psi Upsilon fraternity. He is at present located in Boston.

MEDICAL SCHOOL OF MAINE
BOWDOIN COLLEGE

ADDISON S. THAYER, Dean
10 Deering St., Portland, Me.

UNIVERSITY OF MAINE
SCHOOL OF LAW
Located in Bangor, maintains a three years' course. Ten resident instructors and three non-resident lecturers. Tuition $70 a year; diploma fee only other charge.

For Circulars, address
Dean W. E. WALZ, Bangor, Me.

Compliments of
A. H. SCOTT CO., Inc.
Manufacturers of Custom Shirts for well dressed men
273 Middle Street, PORTLAND, MAINE

WILLIAM E. ATWOOD, Bowdoin, '10, Treasurer
THE BIG SPRING RALLY

ALL-STUDENT GATHERING—MAY 2

The biggest event of the year in the line of spirit rousing and good fellowship will take place Thursday evening when students, faculty and alumni get together for the Big Spring Rally. An affair of this kind is very hard to forecast. Our up-and-coming Student Council which has the love feast in charge is very mysterious when questioned as to the speakers and features and we are obliged to fall back on past history in telling what is likely to occur. We can be pretty certain that Track and Baseball will be mentioned, and perhaps the Lunt Plan. Then too we are reasonably sure that something classy will be presented in the line of a souvenir for the occasion, and there will certainly be plenty of cider, smokes and other promoters of good fellowship. Aside from that we dare not promise. Last year we decided to have a new Gym at this affair and there is no telling what may be decided this time. We might go on promising all kinds of other surprises, but it is enough to say that no live student of Bowdoin College can afford to throw away this opportunity of attending the Big rally of the year. Remember, there are rallies and rallies but only one Spring Rally. Admission fifty cents; music; speeches; souvenirs; refreshments; cheers; and general good time. Everybody out!

BOWDOIN, 8; ST. ANSELMS, 26—APRIL 23

St. Anselm’s defeated Bowdoin last Tuesday, 26 to 8. A strong wind rendered good playing out of the question. St. Anselm’s gained a commanding lead in the first three innings by hard hitting, and maintained it throughout the game.

The score:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>b</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>h</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Whalen, 2b</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Flannagen, tb</td>
<td>0</td>
<td></td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Harris, 1b</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Croister, 3b</td>
<td>0</td>
<td></td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>McCarthy, 3b</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conners, If</td>
<td>0</td>
<td></td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>King, If</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Donnelly, cf</td>
<td>6</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Bowdoin:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>b</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>h</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Fish, c</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Holcomb, ss</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Linehan, rf</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Haggerty, rf</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wendler, rf</td>
<td>1</td>
<td></td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Smith, p, rf</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pomereleau, p</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Totals: 42 26 18 27 9 2

BOWDOIN

Innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
St. Anselm’s: 4 8 9 0 0 5 0 x—26
Bowdoin: 0 0 7 0 0 1 0 0—8

BOWDOIN, 2; DARTMOUTH, 12—APRIL 24

Bowdoin lost the second game of the trip to Dartmouth, 12 to 2, on the Dartmouth Campus. The grounds were very muddy and many errors resulted. Bowdoin started off well when Bob Weatherell, the first man up, smashed a long drive to center which was good for four bags. After that the game was all Dartmouth. Bowdoin could do little with either of Dartmouth’s pitchers.
The score:

DARTMOUTH

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>h</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Fahey, ss</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kimball, ss</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Daley, rf</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hoban, cf</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Twitchell, cf</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bennett, tb</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cook, tb</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Donahue, 2b</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sullivan, 2b</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gammons, lf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rollins, 3b</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Steen, c</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alden, c</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>12</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Morey, p</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Platt, p</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Totals</td>
<td>41</td>
<td>12</td>
<td>10</td>
<td>27</td>
<td>7</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

BOWDOIN

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>h</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Weatherell, 2b</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Skolfield, ss</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Russell, lf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brooks, c</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Means, p</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>7</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LaCasce, cf</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tilton, 3b</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dole, rf</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cooley, rf</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Joy, tb</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Keegan, tb</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Totals</td>
<td>37</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>7</td>
<td>24</td>
<td>12</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Innings: Dartmouth 4-4-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-2; BOWDOIN 1-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-2.

Bowdoin

BOWDOIN, 9; MIDDLEBURY, 9—APRIL 26

In a close game Friday, Bowdoin and Middlebury played each other to a standstill, 9-9. The game was called at the end of 10 innings on account of darkness.

MIDDLEBURY

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>h</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Bundy, rb</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Loder, tb</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vail, p, lf</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Triggs, ss</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Weaver, 3b</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Leonard, cf</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mulcahy, rf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Haskins, rf</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jones, 2b</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ellison, If</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stillson, If, p</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Williams, c</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Totals</td>
<td>45</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>16</td>
<td>30</td>
<td>11</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
BOWDOIN

\[ \begin{array}{llllll}
\text{Weatherell, 2b} & 6 & 1 & 3 & 5 & 2 & 1 \\
\text{Skolfield, cf} & 6 & 1 & 1 & 2 & 0 & 0 \\
\text{Russell, If} & 5 & 0 & 2 & 0 & 0 & 0 \\
\text{LaCasce, rf} & 4 & 0 & 0 & 0 & 0 & 0 \\
\text{Brooks, c} & 6 & 2 & 2 & 11 & 1 & 0 \\
\text{Means, rf, p} & 6 & 2 & 3 & 2 & 1 & 0 \\
\text{Cooley, ss} & 5 & 1 & 3 & 4 & 1 & 0 \\
\text{Tilton, 3b} & 6 & 2 & 2 & 1 & 2 & 0 \\
\text{Joy, 1b} & 5 & 0 & 1 & 6 & 5 & 3 \\
\text{Hall, p} & 1 & 0 & 0 & 0 & 0 & 0 \\
\hline
\text{Totals} & 30 & 9 & 16 & 30 & 15 & 5 \\
\text{Innings} & 1 & 2 & 3 & 4 & 5 & 6 7 8 9 10 \\
\text{Bowdoin} & 0 & 0 & 6 & 0 & 0 & 3 & 0 & 0 & 0 & 0 & 0 & 0 & 9 \\
\text{Middlebury} & 0 & 3 & 1 & 2 & 1 & 0 & 1 & 0 & 0 & 0 & 0 & 9 \\
\hline
\end{array} \]

\[ \text{BOWDOIN 1; VERMONT, 3—APRIL 27} \]

In a featureless game, Saturday, Vermont defeated Bowdoin, 3-1. Winkler held Bowdoin to two hits. Bowdoin's only run came in the first, when Skolfield drew a pass, and scored on Russell's two-bagger. Vermont's hits were well scattered.

The score:

\[ \begin{array}{llllll}
\text{VERMONT} & \text{ab} & \text{r} & \text{h} & \text{po} & \text{a} & \text{e} \\
\text{Dowd, ss} & 4 & 2 & 1 & 2 & 0 & 0 \\
\text{Flaherty, lf} & 4 & 0 & 0 & 0 & 0 & 0 \\
\text{Halstein, 1b} & 5 & 1 & 1 & 14 & 0 & 0 \\
\text{Dutton, rf} & 4 & 0 & 1 & 1 & 1 & 0 \\
\text{Mayforth, c} & 4 & 1 & 2 & 8 & 1 & 0 \\
\text{MacDonald, cf} & 4 & 0 & 2 & 1 & 0 & 0 \\
\text{Fraser, 2b} & 3 & 0 & 1 & 1 & 4 & 0 \\
\text{Williams, 3b} & 3 & 0 & 2 & 0 & 3 & 0 \\
\text{Winkler, p} & 2 & 0 & 0 & 0 & 5 & 0 \\
\hline
\text{Totals} & 33 & 3 & 10 & 27 & 13 & 0 \\
\text{BOWDOIN} & \text{ab} & \text{r} & \text{h} & \text{po} & \text{a} & \text{e} \\
\text{Weatherell, 2b} & 4 & 0 & 0 & 1 & 0 & 0 \\
\text{Skolfield, cf} & 3 & 1 & 0 & 1 & 4 & 0 \\
\text{Russell, If} & 4 & 0 & 1 & 1 & 1 & 0 \\
\text{Brooks, c} & 3 & 0 & 0 & 0 & 6 & 1 \\
\text{Means, p} & 3 & 0 & 0 & 0 & 0 & 0 \\
\text{LaCasce, rf} & 3 & 0 & 1 & 1 & 0 & 1 \\
\text{Cooley, ss} & 2 & 0 & 0 & 1 & 0 & 1 \\
\hline
\text{Tilton, 3b} & 3 & 0 & 0 & 0 & 1 & 0 \\
\text{Joy, 1b} & 3 & 0 & 0 & 13 & 0 & 0 \\
\hline
\text{Totals} & 28 & 1 & 2 & 24 & 12 & 2 \\
\text{Innings} & 1 & 2 & 3 & 4 & 5 & 6 7 8 9 \\
\text{VERMONT} & 0 & 1 & 0 & 0 & 1 & 0 & x—3 \\
\text{Bowdoin} & 1 & 0 & 0 & 0 & 0 & 0 & 0—1 \\
\end{array} \]

STUDENTS' WORK APPRECIATED

Brunswick, Me., April 27, 1912.

William DeWitt Hyde,
President of Bowdoin College,

My dear Sir:
The Selectmen of Brunswick, in behalf of the town, thank the students of Bowdoin College for their timely and efficient aid in preventing the spread of the fire of April 26th. The work of the students was noted by citizens generally, also by officials of the fire department, and all speak the highest praise of them.

Samuel Knight, Jr.
Henry C. Upton
Pierre A. Morin
Selectmen of Brunswick.

The above letter is self-explanatory. Surely the College should feel proud to receive this recognition. Such things as this show there is something more to the Bowdoin man than book learning and love of leisure. Incidentally it might be mentioned that members of the Faculty and students worked side by side in the valuable volunteer service rendered.

FINAL INTERSCHOLASTIC DEBATE

Lewiston High School defeated Cony High School in the final debate in the Bowdoin Interscholastic League, last Friday evening in Hubbard Hall. The Lewiston team consisted of A. L. Purinton, L. E. Pettingill, and J. D. Churchill; and the Cony team was composed of C. W. Metcalf, A. Mason, and E. H. Blanchard. The judges were Professors Mitchell, Hornell, and Davis. J. A. Norton '13 coached the Lewiston team and H. E. Locke '13, the Cony team. The winning team supported the affirmative of the question: "Resolved, that a tariff for revenue only would be better for this country than a protective tariff." B. C. Rodick '12 presided.
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY OF THE COLLEGIATE YEAR
BY THE STUDENTS OF
BOWDOIN COLLEGE

EDITORIAL BOARD

Douglas H. McMurtrie, 1913, Editor-in-Chief
Robert D. Leigh, 1914, Managing Editor
Fred D. Wish, Jr., 1913, Alumni Editor

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

W. R. Spinney, 1913
L. E. Jones, 1913
V. R. Leavitt, 1913
D. K. Merrill, 1914
J. P. Rollins, 1915
H. B. Walker, 1913
E. L. Sylvester, 1914

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni, and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted. All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager.

Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

Entered at Post-Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII. APRIL 30, 1912 No. 4

Only one week from next Fight. Fight, Fight! Saturday comes the Maine Intercollegiate Track Meet in Brunswick. The team will probably be chosen this week. Whether a man makes the team or not, he ought to stay on the squad to furnish competition for the men on the team. Captain Cole's summary of the situation last week showed that there were not enough men standing by the team to give this competition. The student support at the practice meets has been improving, but it ought to be still more in evidence. Remember that Bowdoin has never lost a track meet on Whittier Field.

Out of the joint meeting of the Faculty committee and the non fraternity men there has come a plan which the Orient believes will prove one of the greatest forward strides of the year. The tentative offer of the college to rent one of its houses to the non fraternity men will mark a new departure in Bowdoin life. That the plan will succeed there can be little doubt. It will serve to bind the non fraternity men into a more effective unit and by so doing cannot fail to give a great impulse to undergraduate activities. It is the hope of the Orient that the men will respond in a body to this offer and will band together to increase their service and devotion to the College.

The Orient is rather slow to Bowdoin Tradition criticise an established student custom, but in the case of violations of the traditions of the institution, especially when these traditions have been made law by the Student Council it feels no hesitancy in expressing what must be the sentiment of a majority of the student body. We refer to the wearing of Freshman caps, and also of prep school emblems. The purpose of wearing these caps is not to haze the Freshman, it is for the purpose of getting them acquainted with each other. The purpose of forbidding prep school emblems is to make the entering classes recognize the superiority of Bowdoin over these schools. Reasonable enough, isn't it? And yet there are some who are not yet wearing the caps and some who have not yet been able to forget their prep schools. In some colleges they duck Freshmen who preserve this spirit of "capital" independence; in some institutions they tear the prep school emblems off those who will not recognize the traditions and customs of the institution they are attending. At Bowdoin there is a subtle, more effective way, and yet one less kind to the offender. It is merely that of letting human nature take its course, and the inevitable result to him who thus fails to see what is best for him to do is first criticism, and then unpopularity and lack of respect of Bowdoin men. Is it worth the price?

SUNDAY CHAPEL

The Chapel Sunday was a memorial service to Richard Frazer White, the member of the Senior Class who was one of the victims in the Titanic disaster. His classmates, in honor to him, appeared in cap and gown and marched in regular order in and out of the chapel. President Hyde spoke on the character and personality of Bowdoin's lost son and pointed out what a heritage it has left us. His words in part were as follows: "Richard Frazer White has left Bowdoin College a precious legacy. If we can each appropriate our share we shall be better men to the end of our days: and through us he may still do for the world something of what in his own person he was so splendidly prepared to do. Filial, faithful, thorough, thoughtful, eagerly interested in this many-sided world; modest about what he had done and was; ambitious about what he was to do and be; he filled to the full every relationship in which his brief life placed him. Somehow, somewhere, our faith assures us, this strong and gentle nature will find its appropriate career and its fitting satisfaction. Those nearest and dearest to him, in due time, gratitude for what he was in some measure will console for the terrible loss which now weighs them down. We who have known him through almost an entire college course, can best express our gratitude and affection by adding to our own lives some portion of the frankness and fidelity, the earnestness and kindliness, the modesty and efficiency which in him we have admired and loved.”

INTER-FRATERNITY BASEBALL

The inter-fraternity league has been organized and the opening games already played. Games will be played on the Delta at 4 P. M. Postponed games will be played at 6 A. M. The teams have been divided into two classes and the division winners will play a series of three games. Varsity squad men will not be allowed to play. The umpires will be students chosen by the opposing captains.

The managers are as follows: C. R. Bull '13, Alpha Delta Phi; P. C. Savage '13, Delta Kappa Epsilon; R. R. Payson '14, Psi Upsilon; W. Brown '14, Theta Delta Chi; E. W. Kent '12, Zeta Psi; L. B. Shackford '13, Delta Upsilon; A. D. Weston '12, Kappa Sigma; W. F. Eberhardt '13, Beta Theta Pi; J. Schvey '14, Non-Fraternity; E. L. Hutchins, Alpha Kappa Kappa; J. E. Cartland, Phi Chi. E. Leigh '12 is president of the league. The complete schedule follows:

April 25—Theta Delta Chi vs. Zeta Psi; April 26—Phi Chi vs. Alpha Delta Phi; April 29—Delta Upsilon vs. Non-Fraternity; April 30—Kappa Sigma vs. Psi Upsilon; May 1—Beta Theta Pi vs. Alpha Kappa Kappa; May 2—Theta Delta Chi vs. Delta Upsilon; May 3—Delta Kappa Epsilon vs. Alpha Delta Phi; May 6—Kappa Sigma vs. Non-Fraternity; May 7—Zeta Psi vs. Psi Upsilon; May 8—Beta Theta Pi vs. Delta Kappa Epsilon; May 9—Phi Chi vs. Alpha Kappa Kappa; May 13—Kappa Sigma vs. Theta Delta Chi; May 14—Delta Upsilon vs. Zeta Psi; May 15—Beta Theta Pi vs. Phi Chi; May 16—Non-Fraternity vs. Psi Upsilon; May 17—Alpha Kappa Kappa vs. Delta Upsilon; May 20—Beta Theta Pi vs. Alpha Delta Phi; May 21—Theta Delta Chi vs. Non-Fraternity; May 22—Delta Upsilon vs. Psi Upsilon; May 23—Delta Kappa Epsilon vs. Phi Chi; May 24—Alpha Kappa Kappa vs. Alpha Delta Phi; May 27—Delta Upsilon vs. Kappa Sigma; May 28—Theta Delta Chi vs. Psi Upsilon; May 29—Non-Fraternity vs. Zeta Psi; June 1—Kappa Sigma vs. Zeta Psi.

ZETA PSI, 17; THETA DELTA CHI, 7—APRIL 25

Score by innings:
Zeta Psi .......... 1 0 8 1 7 0 x—17
Theta Delta Chi ...... 1 1 0 1 2 1—7
Batteries, L. Stetson and Belknap; W. Brown and E. Tuttle.

WHAT THE SENIORS WILL DO

A canvass of the members of the Senior Class to discover what they intend to do after graduation next June shows that teaching, business, and medicine are the lines which will attract the most. Many will study law and still more will take postgraduate work in Bowdoin, Harvard, and Tech. Twenty-two of the eighty-six have not yet made the important decision. The future vocations of the rest are as follows: Teaching 12, Business 12, Medicine 10, Further study 16, Law 8, Ministry 3, Chemists 3, Y. M. C. A. work 2, Electrical work 1, Engineering 1, Manufacturing 1, Biological work 1.

THE FRIARS AT RIVERTON

The Friars held their annual dinner and dance last Friday evening, at Riverton Park Casino, Portland. Twelve members of the society were present including several of the alumni. The patrons were Mrs. Eugene T. Savage of Bangor and Mrs. Neal W. Cox of Portland. Among those present were the Misses Elizabeth Sullivan, Pauline Savage of Bangor; Marion Keith of Old Town; Grace A. Kern, M. Eulalia Duddy, Rose Tyler, Mary Hieber of Portland; Alexina Lapointe of Brunswick; Lila Pike of Dover; Lida Baker of Boston. The committee in charge was J. E. Dunphy '13, P. C. Savage '13, and P. H. Wood '13.

HEATH HONORS BOWDOIN

The Hon. Herbert M. Heath of the Class of 1872, who has recently announced himself a candidate, at the June Primaries for the office of United States Senator, will pay Bowdoin undergraduates the pleasing honor of opening his campaign in Memorial Hall, Monday evening, May 6, at 8 P. M. Out of a sentimental regard for his college Mr. Heath has declined several invitations to open his campaign elsewhere.

Although the Republican Club is tendering its services in arranging for the rally, Mr. Heath does not come at the invitation of that organization but out of regard for the whole student body and expresses a desire that all students of whatever political faith shall attend the rally.

The general public is also cordially invited to attend.
ALPHA KAPPA KAPPA INSTALLATION

The annual installation and banquet of Theta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Kappa was held at the Lafayette Hotel, Portland, Saturday, April 27. The program for the day included a clinic at the Maine General Hospital in the morning, a theater party in the afternoon and a banquet in the evening. John F. Thompson, M.D., acted as toastmaster and toasts were given by F. H. Gerrish, M.D., Addison S. Thayer, M.D., Charles E. Banks, M.D., Gilbert M. Elliott, M.D., Frank Y. Gilbert, M.D., Francis J. Welch, M.D., and Harold J. Everett, M.D.

COUNCIL AND CLUB MEETINGS

At a meeting of the Debating Council held last Tuesday evening in the Debating Room in Hubbard Hall, J. A. Norton '13 was elected to fill out the term of E. F. Maloney '12, secretary, who has left college. Treasurer Timberlake reported that in spite of the extra expense incurred in having two debates this year, the Council stood better financially than last season.

The Good Government Club met April 22, in the Government Room, Hubbard Hall. Papers were read reporting on the municipal government of Portland in its various phases and departments. These papers were the result of the personal investigation of the Club members. A discussion followed the reports.

Last Friday afternoon, A. D. Welch '12 was chosen to represent Bowdoin in the annual contest of the New England Oratorical League to be held at Brown University, May 3. P. H. Douglas '13 was chosen as alternate. Mr. Welch's subject for the contest has not yet been announced.

President Aley of the University of Maine spoke before the Ibis, April 22, taking for his subject "James Whitcomb Riley." His speech was illustrated with numerous readings from the Hoosier poet and was greatly enjoyed by those present.

The Chemical Club met Friday evening at the Psi Upsilon House. There were 15 members present. Dr. Cram introduced Dr. Marks of Simmons College who spoke upon the detection of arsenic in small quantities. After the talk refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed.

At a meeting of the non-fraternity men, held in the Faculty Room, in Massachusetts Hall, on last Wednesday evening, the constitution of the new club to be organized was read and is to be voted upon at the next meeting which will be held soon. R. M. Verrill '14 was elected captain of the baseball team and H. M. Keating '12, manager.

Arrangements have been made with the College for the occupation of the Houghton House on Maine Street.

---

On the Campus

Fred Spollett '03 of Somerville, Mass., was on the campus Patriots' Day.

Porrirt, McKinnon and McWilliams are among those out for Business Manager of the Orient.

Mose Woodward '10, who is now attending the Harvard Medical School, was on the Campus last week.

The cups that are to be awarded in the Tennis Tournament have arrived and are on exhibition at Slocum's.

The rehearsals for "A Pair of Spectacles," the Ivy play are being held, and rehearsals for the Commencement play "The Taming of the Shrew" will begin shortly.

The first trials for the Alexander Prize Speaking have been held in the Freshman Class and ten men selected from whom three will be chosen later by the Faculty.

J. H. McKenney '12, R. H. Weatherill '14, W. B. McMahon '13, and E. H. Snow '14 are members of the newly organized roth Co., Coast Artillery Corps of Brunswick.

The Deke and Zeta Freshmen crossed bats on the Delta Wednesday afternoon. The Zetas won 12 to 10. Kuhn and Cox pitched, and Mannix and MacCormick acted as umpires.

The day of the Maine Intercollegiate Track Meet is fast approaching and a man has been hired by the Track Association to keep the track in the best possible condition for that event.

Thomas J. Halpin, a prominent candidate for the Olympic team in the 440 and 880 dashes, and a member of the B.A.A., has been in town for the past week training prior to the trials for that team. He was a member of the team which broke the world's record at Troy in a relay race against the New York A. C. and the Irish American A. C. He has a mark of 1.55 2-5 in the half and 49 1-5 in the quarter. While here he has been the guest of Captain Cole.

Professor Mitchell gave an illustrated lecture on "The Wordsworth Country" in Memorial Hall, last evening. A large number of students and faculty attended. Professor Mitchell visited this region last summer and took views of a number of the places made famous by the writings of the Lake poets.

Talk about amateur fire fighters. We are commencing to think we are a necessary adjunct to the Brunswick Fire Department and Chief Colby after the big fire of last Friday. The Orient for-bears printing the names of those who distinguished themselves by individual deeds of daring on account of the space required for such a list. Carnegie will probably appropriately reward most of them.

Dr. Burnett has recently distributed a number of copies of a collection of Bowdoin songs he has written. Among them is "Rise, Sons of Bow-doin," which the Glee Club rendered with so much success. Copies of this collection can be obtained at Chandler's for twenty-five cents. It is hoped that everybody will make himself acquainted with them in order that they may be tried out at the Rally. Those men who have tried them are enthusiastic in their favor and say that they will remedy the oft lamented dearth of Bowdoin music.

---

CALENDAR

Tues., April 30.—4:00 Baseball: Kappa Sigma vs. Psi Upsilon.

College Tennis Tournament begins.

Wed., May 1.—Bowdoin vs. Tufts at Medford.

4:00 Baseball: Beta Theta Pi vs. Alpha Kappa Kappa.

Thurs., 2.—Bowdoin vs. Harvard at Cambridge.

4:00 Baseball: Theta Delta Chi vs. Delta Upsilon.

8:00 Annual Spring Rally, Memorial Hall.

8:00 Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest at Providence.

Fri., 3.—Beta Theta Pi Reception and Dance.

Kappa Sigma House Party.

4:00 Baseball: Delta Kappa Epsilon vs. Alpha Delta Phi.

Sat., 4.—Bowdoin vs. Colby at Brunswick.

Mon., 6.—Review of Freshman Class for Warnings.

3:30 Handicap Track Meet.

4:00 Baseball: Kappa Sigma vs. Non-Frats.

8:00 Meeting Good Government Club, home of Professor Lunt.

8:00 Hon. Herbert M. Heath speaks, Memorial Hall.

Tues., 7.—4:00 Baseball: Zeta Psi vs. Psi Upsilon.

3:30 College Tea, Hubbard Hall.

---

With the Faculty

Professor Paul Nixon is to teach courses in Martian and Plautus at the University of Chicago this summer. These courses will be mainly for graduate students and will extend through the two terms of the summer session.

Dean Sills attended a meeting of the committee of the Maine colleges, on relations with the schools of the State, at Augusta last Saturday. The committee is composed of one representative from each of the four Maine colleges and Superintendent of Schools Payson Smith.

The annual reports of the President, Dean, Librarian, and Curator of the Art Collection are now in preparation and will be issued some time in May.

At a meeting of the Village Improvement Association of Brunswick, April 23, Professor Files was re-elected president of the society. Other members of the college, chosen as officers were Professors Chapman, Moody, Mitchell, Little, and Messrs. Booker and Furbish.

---

Intercollegiate Notes

Reed College, Portland, Oregon, of which William Trufant Foster, formerly Professor of English and Argumentation at Bowdoin, is president, began its first year of instruction last September with fifty Freshmen,—twenty-six men and twenty-four women,—out of two hundred and sixty-three applicants. The college declines to admit any students on conditions, special students, partial students, or those who have not completed the equivalent of a four-year high school course with more than mediocre credit. In the words of the catalogue, "For the first few years at least, there will be no fraternities and no sororities, no intercollegiate athletics, and but few of those outside activities that have often interfered with the supreme objects of higher education. . . . There will be a healthful interest in clean sports and every boy and every girl will be expected to take part regularly in some of the out-of-door games."

Subscriptions totaling $3,000 towards the erection of a new concrete stadium for the University of Maine were pledged recently by members of the New York Alumni Association of the university.

A Men's League for Woman Suffrage similar to those at Harvard and Yale is being organized by the undergraduates at the University of Kansas.

The Williams team is holding spring football practice.

A laboratory has been fitted out at De Pauw resembling as nearly as possible a metropolitan newspaper office for the accommodation of a practical course in newspaper writing.

An unknown donor has agreed to provide Wesleyan with a swimming pool.

Fifteen fraternities are represented in the Interfraternity Baseball League at the University of Pennsylvania.

The Chess Club has been reorganized at Tech.
WILLIAM R. MERRILL

It was with surprise and sincere sorrow that the news of the death of William R. Merrill was received on the campus last Tuesday. Although he had been ill for a period of three months with appendicitis, it was thought that his condition was improving. "Billie" Merrill came to the service of the College from an enviable record in the traffic department of the Maine Central Railroad where he was employed for seventeen years. For the last eighteen months until the time of his illness he was employed as janitor of Appleton Hall. During that time he came to be well known by everyone in college and was very popular and highly esteemed among the students in Appleton. The College sympathizes with Mrs. Merrill and her son in their loss and unite with them in mourning the death of one whose character and cheerful disposition endeared them to him closely.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. William R. Merrill and son Barton wish to express their deepest gratitude for the invaluable aid and kindness of the students and members of the Faculty of Bowdoin in their recent affliction.

Alumni Department

'So.—It is reported that the widow of Col. Henry Asa Wing will present to the college a loving cup as a recognition of the love which Col. Wing bore to the college and the active interest that he always took in its welfare. The cup is of solid silver, of very graceful and quaint design, stands 12 inches high and is inscribed "In Memoriam, Henry Asa Wing, Class of 1880."

The trophy will be in the possession of the college and will be in the trophy room of the new gymnasium. From year to year it will be inscribed with the date, name, and number of points that represent the highest individual score made for Bowdoin at the annual Maine Track Meet.

The college appreciates the kindness and thoughtfulness of the gift, but, indeed, the memory of Col. Wing and his kindly interest in the college will remain inscribed in the hearts of Bowdoin men, active and alumni, long after they have forgotten the outcome of the various events of which the Colonel was always such an interested spectator. The appearance on the field of this true son of Bowdoin has more than once caused the undergraduate to wonder at the loyalty of this man, a wonder in which the graduate who had seen Col. Wing's kindly face many a time in the Athletic Council, giving his services in the interest of Bowdoin athletics, was even more able to join.

'95.—Guy B. Mayo was elected as a delegate to the National Republican Convention from Pennsylvania, Twenty-first District. Mr. Mayo is a Roosevelt delegate.

'08.—The class and college mates of Clarence Perrin Robinson will regret to learn of his bereavement in the death of his wife which occurred April 11th at their home in Woodbury. N. J. Bessie Stuart Robinson was 25 years, 6 months, 24 days old and the couple had been married about two years.

'10.—A very neat folder was received from the secretary of this class, entitled Bulletin No. 1. This report, as it is called, shows a great amount of care in preparation and is very interesting. It gives the data of eighty of the eighty-four members of the class, their home addresses, business addresses and occupations. It shows that 35 are engaged in business; 19 in post graduate work; 17 in traveling; and the remaining 19 in various positions. The business occupations show a great variety, from "Special Agent Missionary Fertilizer Department, Swift & Co.," as "Ned" Bagley is labeled, to "First Lieutenant of Philippines Constabulary" as "Dan" Ready is announced as being.

Five of the members of this class have been married, R. E. G. Bailey, Ralph S. Crowell, James B. Draper, Randall L. Taylor, Jr., and Harold L. Small.

The Treasurer's report which is appended to this pamphlet shows that the class now has over $280 to its credit and it is voted to hold it for three years before deciding what will be done with it.

'11.—An announcement recently received from Reed College, Portland, contains the following statement: "Earl Baldwin Smith, a graduate of Bowdoin College, now holding a fellowship in Art and Archeology at Princeton University, has been elected to an instructorship in Art in Reed College."

MEDICAL SCHOOL OF MAINE

BOWDOIN COLLEGE

ADDISON S. THAYER, Dean

10 Deering St., Portland, Me.
BIG MEET SATURDAY

The eighteenth annual track meet of the Maine Intercollegiate Athletic Association will be held Saturday on Whittier Field. The trials will begin in the morning at ten o'clock sharp and the afternoon events will start at two o'clock. The Meet is already predicted to be one of the most closely contested in the history of the Association. Bowdoin men are confident that this year's team is going to make a strong fight for a leading position. Every man in college should be on Whittier Field before ten in the morning to give the team a good start in the trial events. It is up to the student body as well as the members of the team to do its part in keeping defeat from Whittier Field. That it has done so in the past is attested by the fact that since the Maine Intercollegiate meets were started in 1895, Bowdoin has not lost on its own grounds, and has succeeded in winning the meet thirteen out of seventeen times. The score by points is: Colby, 103⅔; Bates, 289½; Maine, 617; and Bowdoin, 1126.

The tickets for the Meet will go on sale in Memorial Hall tonight at 7:00. All track men, that is men who are entered in the Meet, will be allowed first choice. These men will form in line, and be given preference in the order of their position in the line. Each track man will be allowed two tickets. No substitutes.

Men who are not entered in the Meet will form in line, and these men will have preference in the order of their position in line, after the track men have chosen their seats. These men in the second line will be allowed three tickets each.

Tickets for morning and afternoon including grand stand or bleacher seat, $1.00; ticket for afternoon including grand stand or bleacher, $1.00; ticket for admission only in morning, 25 cents; ticket for admission only in afternoon, 75 cents; grand stand or bleacher seats, 25 cents.

BOWDOIN, 3; COLBY, 6—MAY 4

In an interesting but loosely-played game Bowdoin lost the first contest in the State series to Colby last Saturday afternoon by the score indicated above. Bowdoin's inability to bunch hits and Colby's ability to hit at the right times were the main causes of our defeat. James pitched a steady game and his work throughout the series will deserve attention. Woodcock pitched well except in the fifth and ninth innings when Colby got six of her total eight hits. Both teams were inclined to throw the ball wild between bases. The work of our infield was a feature of the contest and was a surprise to most of those who had not seen it in action before, this year. Brooks, behind the bat, showed up especially well. Our outfield was weak on fly balls but did the yeoman's part of the batting. For Colby, Sturtevant played a steady game and Reid, the big first baseman, was a star at the bat.

The score:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>BOWDOIN</th>
<th></th>
<th>COLBY</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>ab</td>
<td>r</td>
<td>bh</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Weatherell, 2b</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Skolfield, cf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Russell, lf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LaCasce, rf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brooks, c</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Titon, 3b</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cooley, ss</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Joy, rb</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Woodcock, p</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>*Pratt</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>+Allen</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Totals</td>
<td>35</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

* Batted for Joy in 9th.
+ Batted for Woodcock in 9th.
† James out, hit by 3rd strike.

Innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Bowdoin: 1 0 1 0 1 0 0 0 3
Colby: 1 0 0 0 2 0 0 1 2—6

Two base hit—Burroughs. Three base hits—

BOWDOIN, 0; HARVARD, 4—MAY 2

Bowdoin was defeated by Harvard in their annual game last Thursday, 4 to 0. Lee Means pitched a steady game, keeping the Crimson's hits well scattered. Bartholf struck out twelve and allowed but four hits.

The score:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Harvard</th>
<th>35</th>
<th>4</th>
<th>9</th>
<th>27</th>
<th>10</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Babson, 1f</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wingate, 3b</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Clark, 1b</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Potter, 2b</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reynolds, 1f</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gilson, rf</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Desha, ss</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Young, c</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>12</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wigglesworth, cf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bartholf, p</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>14</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Bowdoin

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>30</th>
<th>4</th>
<th>24</th>
<th>12</th>
<th>4</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Weatherell, 2b</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Skolfield, cf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Russell, If</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LaCasce, rf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brooks, c</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Means, p</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>10</td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tilton, 3b</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>13</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cooley, ss</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>10</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Joy, 1b</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>12</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Totals

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>37</th>
<th>10</th>
<th>11</th>
<th>27</th>
<th>4</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Innings</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tufts</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>20</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>100</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bowdoin</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

BOWDOIN WINS A SECOND TIME

Arthur Deehan Welch, representing Bowdoin in the annual contest of the New England Inter-collegiate Oratorical League, held at Brown University, May 2, won a distinct honor for the College and added another prize to the many he has won during his four years here, by receiving the unanimous vote of the judges for first prize. His subject was the same with which he won the '68 Speaking contest, "The Irish Drama." The other colleges belonging to the League are Brown, Wesleyan, Williams, and Amherst. The judges were as follows: Henry L. Southwick, Emerson School of Oratory, Boston; Dr. L. B. R. Briggs of Harvard; Judge Thomas I. Chatfield of the United States District Court, Brooklyn; Professor Frederick Tupper of Vermont University; Dr. George Hodges of Cambridge Divinity School. This is the third annual contest under the auspices of the League. Bowdoin won last year.

REALIZATION RALLY

It was all there; our predictions in last week's issue concerning last Thursday's Rally came true; music (some new music too, coxing Bowdoin songs by Professor Burnett, and original selections by the Pall Mall Quartet), souvenirs (neat calendars that will last long after the last of us are out of college), refreshments (ice cream cones and enough for all), cheers (led by Mr. Cheer Leader), smokes (not the sensuous "Turk" or pompous "7-20-4" but good old Missouri Mere Schaums), and speeches (by future mayors, past players, some crying for more "pep," others pleading for less speed, but all infused with the true Bowdoin spirit).

But that was not the only reason for calling it the realization rally. One year ago, you remember, it was the New Gym rally, and as Dr. Whittle said, this rally was that of realization of last year's anticipation. Then, too, Dick Simpson realized his last year's ambition to be assistant baseball manager, as a result of the election held early in the evening.

The speakers were as follows: George E. Fogg '02, Bowdoin Tradition; Harold Files who gave a good boost to the Lunt Plan; John Clifford '10, Bowdoin Spirit; Duff Wood, Baseball; Bob Cole, Track; John Dunphy, Readings; Dr. Whittle, The New Gym; R. Withington, the Youngest Bowdoin Man. The Student Council deserves the credit for the success of the affair.

LAST COLLEGE TEA

The fourth and last College Tea of the season will be held this afternoon in the Alumni Room of Hubbard Hall from 3:30 to 5:30. Spring flowers will be used for decorations. Besides the Brunswick people and students present there will be many visitors from various parts of the State who are in Brunswick this week as delegates to the Convention of Congregational Churches.

In the receiving line will be Miss Chapman, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Moody, and Mrs. Hutchins. Mrs. Mitchell assisted by Mrs. Nixon and Mrs. Copeland, and Mrs. Brown assisted by Mrs. Hormell and Mrs. Wilder will serve at the punch tables. Mrs. Ham assisted by Mrs. Lunt will pour coffee, and Mrs. Files assisted by Mrs. Davis will serve tea. Others assisting in serving will be Mrs. Cram, Mrs. Booker, Mrs. Furnish, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Lewis, and Mrs. Alice Little. Grant of Lewiston is the caterer.

INTERFRATERNITY BASEBALL

PSI UPSILON, 7; KAPPA SIGMA, 4—TUESDAY, APR. 30

The features of the game were the box work of Shepherd and the fielding of Houghton. The Psi U twirler allowed only four hits and made three himself. Weston for the Kappa Sigs had a three-bagger to his credit.

BETA THETA PI, 16; ALPHA KAPPA KAPPA, 13—WEDNESDAY, MAY 1

The Betas and the Medics indulged in a batting festival which was called after five innings by agreement of the captains. All the pitchers were hit freely, and long drives into the pines proved to be the popular means of getting around the bases.

DELTA UPSILON, 19; THETA DELTA CHI, 8—THURSDAY, MAY 2

The features of the game were the fielding of Brown for the Theta Delts and the three-baggers by Marsh and Page for the Delta U. team. The winners put the game on ice in the fifth when they brought in nine runs and doubled their tally.

DELTA UPSILON ......... 2 4 0 3 1 1 x—19 13 3
Theta Delta Chi ....... 3 0 2 3 0 0—8 6 9
Batteries: Fish, Pratt, and Marsh; J. A. Slocum, N. Tuttle, and E. B. Tuttle. Umpire: Grant. Phi Chi defeated Alpha Delta Phi last Tuesday morning, 14 to 4. The score by innings:

Innings: ......... 1 2 3 4 5 RHE
A. D. ......... 0 0 0 4 0—4 5 6
Phi Chi ......... 2 9 3 0—14 9 2
Batteries, Pratt and Wiggin, MacFarland and Twaddle, Doten.

Delta Upsilon, champions of the interfraternity league last year, lost to the non-frats Monday, April 29, 9 to 8. The score:

Innings: ......... 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 RHE
Non-Frat ...... 0 2 1 0 1 0 5—9 9 10
D. U. ......... 0 1 0 2 3 2—8 5 1
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT
Published every Tuesday of the Collegiate Year
by the Students of
BOWDOIN COLLEGE

EDITORIAL BOARD

Douglas H. McMurtrie, 1913, Editor-in-Chief
Robert D. Leigh, 1914, Managing Editor
Fred D. Wish, Jr., 1913, Alumni Editor

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

W. R. Spinney, 1913 K. A. Robinson, 1914
L. E. Jones, 1913 R. E. Simpson, 1914
V. R. Leavitt, 1913 A. H. MacCormick, 1915
D. K. Merrill, 1914 F. P. McKenney, 1915
J. F. Rollins, 1915

H. B. Walker, 1913, Business Manager
E. L. Sylvester, 1914, Assistant Manager

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni, and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted. All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager.

Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

Entered at Post-Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII, MAY 7, 1912 No. 5

If there has ever been a time when there was need of the Bowdoin Spirit of rising to the occasion, that time is now and the occasion is the Maine Meet next Saturday. The ways in which this spirit can be manifested have been clearly shown by Captain Cole’s recently published letter in the Orient. There is plenty of spirit among the members of the team. They have fought day in and day out through a long season of preparation and now approach the culminaling struggle of the year. The College has faith in them, it believes that in spite of injuries to the members and in spite of the temporary loss of the coach the team will furnish some surprises to its rivals. The College has the conviction that the men will fight till they drop, and that they will rise to the occasion. And now to show the team that Bowdoin is united behind it, it is the duty of every undergraduate to be on Whittier Field early Saturday morning. Let every man instill in the athletes what he can of the never-give-in spirit of Bowdoin, remembering that since the track meet became an annual event among the Maine colleges, Bowdoin has never lost on Whittier Field.

The Orient takes pleasure in printing in this issue the announcement that the bulletin descriptive of the new gymnasium is now ready. One of the best features is the statement in the prefatory note that the College proposes to issue other bulletins from time to time describing the various departments. The Orient believes that the carrying out of this announcement offers a wonderfully broad opportunity for the College.
It provides a suitable medium for bringing before the public the work and traditions of Bowdoin and will go far towards solving the problem of conservative publicity. Let every undergraduate make the most of the new bulletin.

NORTHFIELD LECTURE THURSDAY

From June 21 to 30 there occurs at Northfield, Mass., the Annual Conference of the Y.M.C.A.
for the colleges of the Eastern States and Canada.
Over 800 students gather here every year and spend ten days together listening to inspiring speeches by some of the best speakers in this country and England, studying how to more ef-effectively carry on Christian work in their institutions and enjoying the good fellowship which comes from association with leaders in college life from every college. No one who has ever attended will forget the inspiration and fellowship of the place.

The speakers this year are up to the usual high standard; Mr. Speer, whom we have had the pleasure of hearing recently; Mr. Mott, the head of the World’s Christian Student Federation; Rev. D. S. Cairns of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been in close touch with the British Student Movement; Rev. G. G. Atkins of Providence, a popular College Preacher; E. T. Colton, Secretary of the Foreign work of the Y.M.C.A.; Rev.
C. B. McAfee, a well known preacher of Brooklyn.

Every afternoon is given to recreation. A series of baseball games, a tennis tournament, a track meet, swimming, walking, etc., furnish opportunity for everyone to have a good time.

Colleges the size of Bowdoin have delegations from 12 to 15 men. We have not taken advantage of this opportunity as we should and as we certainly would if it were better understood what Northfield really is and how one cannot afford to miss it. On next Thursday evening at 7:30 o’clock there will be an opportunity to learn something about this big intercollegiate event when stereopticon views will be shown and described in Hubbard Hall.
KAPPA SIGMA HOUSE PARTY

The annual house party and reception of Alpha Rho Chapter of Kappa Sigma was held last Friday evening, May 3. It included a dinner at the chapter house, and a reception and dance at Pythian Hall. At the dinner music was furnished by Stetson's Orchestra.

In the receiving line at the reception were the patronesses of the affair: Mrs. Charles P. Greenleaf and Mrs. Willis E. Moulton of Portland; Mrs. Roscoe J. Ham, Mrs. Orren T. Hormell and Mrs. Frank M. Stetson of Brunswick; and Mrs. Harold B. Stetson of Yokohama, Japan.

Miss Bernadette Moreau's Orchestra of Portland furnished music for an order of twenty-four dances. Among the guests present were: Misses Ruth Davis, Olive Gould, Retta Morse, Marion Carter, Annie Hodgkin, Olive Barnes, and Dorothy Garland of Portland; Misses Marian E. Ingalls and Florence Carll of Waterville; Miss Elisabeth Gibbs of Brookline, Mass.; Miss Alma Sullivan of Rumford Falls; Misses Lucy Stetson, Helen Fiske, Ellen McMahon, Emogene Bennett, Katie Pletts, and Anna Snow of Brunswick; Miss Ethel McConkey of Gorham; Miss Jessie Merrill of Freeport; Mr. and Mrs. Ensign Otis of Rockland; Prof. Orren C. Hormell and Prof. Roscoe J. Ham of Brunswick. George C. Shaw of Portland was the caterer.

The committee was composed of Walter J. Greenleaf '12, chairman, Leon E. Jones '13, and Ernood L. Sylvester '14.

BETA THETA PI RECEPTION AND DANCE

The Annual Reception and Dance of Beta Sigma Chapter of Beta Theta Pi was held at the chapter house on McKeen Street on Friday, May 3. The reception took place from four until six in the afternoon, and dancing began at nine. The patronesses, who were in the receiving line in the afternoon, were Mrs. Henry Johnson, Mrs. Frank E. Woodruff, Mrs. Wilmot B. Mitchell, Mrs. Alice C. Little, of Brunswick; and Mrs. Charles E. O. Nichols of North Grafton, Mass. Mrs. Manton Copeland and Mrs. William E. Lunt poured tea; coffee was served by Mrs. Paul Nixon and Mrs. Frederick W. Brown. Mrs. Charles C. Hutchins and Mrs. Roscoe J. Ham dipped punch. Mrs. Algeron Chandler, Mrs. William Hawley Davis, and Miss Maud Mason floated.

Among the guests present were the Misses Katherine and Ruth Jenkins of Portland; Miss Katherine Johnson of Woodfords; Misses Dorothy Bird, Rose Davis, and Anna Gay of Rockland; Misses Frances Little, Clare Ridly, Bertha Stetson, Lorette Lapointe, Isabel Palmer, Grace Lunt, and Nathalie Withington, of Brunswick; Miss Helen Walcott of Belmont, Mass.; Miss Olive Holway of Augusta; Miss Mary Belt of Waldoboro; Miss Iva Record of Auburn; Miss Arline Hutchins of Fryeburg; Miss Ruth Blood of Groton, Mass.; Misses Gladys Greenleaf and Ruth Brophy of Fairfield; Miss Louise Garland of Bangor; Miss Lucile Verbeck of Boston, Mass.; and Miss Inez Giles of Edgewood, Rhode Island.

The delegates to the reception from the other fraternities: E. L. Morss '12 from Alpha Delta Phi; R. P. King '12 from Psi Upsilon; W. Fletcher Twombly '13 from Delta Kappa Epsilon; R. E. Foss '12 from Zeta Psi; P. P. Cole '12 from Theta Delta Chi; L. D. Lincoln '12 from Delta Upsilon; and E. L. Russell '12 from Kappa Sigma. The decorations consisted of banked evergreen, smilax, and the fraternity rose. Music was furnished for the afternoon reception and for the order of twenty-four dances in the evening by Lovell's Orchestra of Brunswick. The catering was done by Mrs. R. L. Townes of Brunswick.

In charge of the affair was the following committee: L. S. Foote '12, chairman, F. W. Hart '12, G. H. Nichols '12, D. E. Gardner '13, and F. X. Callahan '14.

ATHLETIC BULLETIN OUT

The first of a series of bulletins to be issued from time to time describing the various departments of the College was sent out from the office last week. To use the words of the bulletin, "Inasmuch as a new gymnasium and athletic building now in process of construction make an interest in physical training timely, the first bulletin is devoted to that subject." It is a very attractive piece of work, and is illustrated with many cuts of the various athletic buildings and equipment of the College, as well as plans of the new gymnasium. The written material, the work of Dr. Whittier, contains much interest to all students and friends of the College. It includes an early history of athletics, a complete description of the new Gym, an outline of the system of physical training at Bowdoin, and a history of each of the sports represented here: Rowing, baseball, football, track, tennis, golf, and fencing. The bulletin concludes with a statement of Bowdoin's athletic policy and ideals. Copies may be had at the office.

BOWDOIN MISSIONARY

Mr. Hillawe has written a report of his work in the annual report of the Marathi Mission which has just been received at the library. He says in part:

"Our present field of labor is from Karad Taluka to Madhe Taluka, about 70 miles in length from North to South, and about the same from east to west, a very thickly populated area. Kadrad, Masur, Rahimatur, Koregaum, Vadud, and Medha are out-stations where we have preachers, teachers, Bible women and an acting pastor. We are longing to send permanent workers to Madhie and Masur but for lack of money we cannot do so at present. We are very thankful to the Lord for giving us strength to present Christ to about 15,000 souls this year. With the help of our colporteur we sold 25,000 Scripture portions and distributed hundreds of tracts and booklets of the Tract Society.

"During the touring season my associates and I made three tours in the district. Everywhere people gave us a good hearing. In several villages people requested us to send a Christian teacher to them. Mrs. Hiwale accompanied me wherever she could and while my associates and I were working among the men she was working among the women. Her gentle and loving ways won the hearts of many women."

In regard to Mr. Hiwale's work the report states: "In our Mission itself the most marked feature of the year's work has been the increasing acceptance of initiative and responsibility by Indian leaders. When Mr. and Mrs. Lee went on furlough the responsibility for the Satara District fell largely on Rev. Anandrao Hiwale, and after Mr. Lee's death, the Mission decided to leave Mr. Hiwale in charge of this most difficult field. We rejoice in the ability and consecration of our Indian fellow-workers. We gladly recognize that they have this year made a marked advance in responsibility and done much notable service such as no missionaries could have rendered, and we confidently look forward to their taking an ever increasing part in Mission work and counsel."

Satara District, over which Mr. Hiwale has charge, is about 70 miles square and has a population of 500,000. There are 30 workers under him, two entirely self-supporting churches with 122 members, 7 Sunday Schools with 333 members, one High School and 5 other schools with a total enrollment of 264.

On the Campus

Even Al. Grant said the Spring Rally souvenirs were the best yet.

Spring Rally calendars are on sale at Slocum's for thirty cents apiece.

MacCormick and West are among those out for assistant manager of tennis.

During the past week Morss '12 has been surveying the campus in view of making a map of it. Abbott '13 and Hoit '12 are putting out score cards for the home baseball games this spring. The first ones appeared last Saturday.

Orient Board Meeting 5 P. M. today, Deutscher Verein Room. Important. Candidates for Board attend.

F. A. Smith '12 has returned from Halifax with the body of Richard F. White. The body was taken to Winchendon where Mr. White's family resided.

The Orient goes too early to get the account of H. M. Heath's speech in Memorial Hall, Monday, May 6. Next week's issue will include a report of it.

From the Juniors the following will try out for the Alexander: Baker, Crosby, Crowell, Douglas, Dunphy, M. Greene, Jones, Wish, W. Greene, Twombly.

The following have been chosen from the Sophomore class to try out for the Alexander Prize Speaking: C. A. Brown, Buell, Cunliffe, Eaton, Gage, Gray, Leigh, Monroe, Newcombe, Nichols.

The following-named members of the Freshman Class have been chosen to take part in the preliminary competition for the Alexander Prize Speaking: Bacon, Faulkner, Hall, Livingstone, McWilliams, Merrill, Ramsay, Rubin, Smith, Weintz.

At the meeting of the Intercollegiate Athletic Association in Philadelphia a week ago Saturday, the Maine colleges had a special conference to discuss the proposal of allowing a special board to select the officials for football games. Bowdoin, represented by Harrison Berry '11, objected to such a course and asked that the selection of officials be left to the Central Board.

The Annual Spring Tennis Tournament has begun and matches of the first round have been played. All matches of the second round must be played before Thursday of this week. The consolation tournament will begin immediately after these two rounds are completed. More are entered in the tournament this year than ever before; there seems to be a keen interest in the sport this spring and prospects for a winning team are excellent.

The members of the Gibbons Club are to produce the play, "Our Jim" on May 24th. The cast will consist of Artie Welch, Jack Hurley, John Dunphy, Harold Somers, James Lappin, Francis Callahan and Fred Willett. The club will be assisted by Miss Margaret Hutchins, Miss Lapointe, Miss Vermette and Miss McKinley of Brunswick. Rehearsals have been in progress for two weeks. The college orchestra will probably furnish the music for the dance that will follow.

A large number of the students were surprised to learn of the drowning of Osborn Faulkner and Bill Lovell, while boating in the Androscoggin near Lewiston last Sunday afternoon. Faulkner was a reporter for the Lewiston Journal and in that capacity had a great deal to do with Bowdoin and athletic affairs in Maine colleges. He was a familiar figure on the campus. Lovell was manager of the Bates football team a year ago and captained the basketball team of that institution, being considered one of the best players in the State.

With the Faculty

Dr. Whittier attended the annual meeting of the Providence Alumni Association, held in Providence last week.

President Hyde had a signed editorial in the Boston Herald for Tuesday, April 30, on Mt. Holyoke and its coming celebration.

In the Journal of Experimental Zoology for April Prof. Manton Copeland has an article on "The Olfactory Reaction in Shellfish."

Prof. Ham is visiting this week Thornton Academy, Saco, the Nashua, N. H., High School, and the Peabody and Lexington, Mass., High Schools.

In Modern Language Publications for April, Mr. Robert Withington has an article on "The Letters of Charlotte: An Antidote to Werther's Leiden."

The Library Table

The American Undergraduate by Clayton Sedgwick Cooper: (The Century Magazine—January to May, 1912).

Clayton Sedgwick Cooper's American Undergraduate papers must be regarded as a very valuable addition to the truly multitudinous works that have been written of late about the American college student. As a matter of fact so much has been written and in such a tone that American undergraduates generally are becoming very frankly tired of being dissected and analyzed up hill and down dale. We are tired of being called immature; we are tired of old men and magazine articles that flaunt our immaturity in our faces. We are perfectly conscious of it and we can't help it. The Cooper articles, however, are not written in that vein at all. Strange as it may seem to the world at large, a great many of the things that we do are very serious and vital to us, and we are glad to find them discussed by a man like Clayton Sedgwick Cooper. We realize, as we cannot help realizing, that we are becoming a bit of a problem to the world—Clayton Sedgwick Cooper realizes it, too—and when a man writes at any length today regarding the American undergraduate he is pretty sure to touch things that are very close to our hearts. Accordingly, the Cooper articles do touch things that are close to our hearts—athletics, undergraduate society, college journalism, to say nothing of college work itself, and all these resolve themselves into one big question, distinguished not only by a question mark but also by a flaming danger mark—Are undergraduate activities absorbing the American undergraduate?

Are undergraduate activities absorbing the American undergraduate? If they are not Clayton Sedgwick Cooper does not see any reason why not. He deals with the question very patiently and very thoroughly, however, looking at the matter from all points of view, and in every case where there is any possible doubt he gives the "activities" the benefit of that doubt.

It is absolutely impossible to give here anything like an adequate review of the Cooper articles. There are five of them and every one should be read carefully and consciously by every undergraduate who at any time has a serious thought. There is one sentence in the concluding article that is worthy of consideration—especially when one is given to wonder what, after all, he is likely to get out of his college course. It is this—"College training must give a man permanent idealism." Clayton Sedgwick Cooper believes thoroughly that the American undergraduate should work with that end of "permanent idealism" constantly in view.

CALENDAR

Tues., 7.—College Tea 3:30-5:30.

Wed., 8.—Baseball: Beta Theta Pi vs. Delta Kappa.

Baseball: Zeta Psi vs. Psi Upsilon.

Baseball: Zeta Psi vs. Psi Epsilon.

Thurs., 9.—Meeting Deutscher Verein.

Baseball: Phi Chi vs. Alpha Kappa Kappa.

Northfield Lecture, Hubbard Hall, 7:30.

Central Committee, Beta Theta Pi House 7:30.

Sat., 11.—Maine Intercollegiate Track Meet, Whittier Field.

Mon., 13.—Freshman-Sophomore Debate, Hubbard Hall.

Baseball: Kappa Sigma vs. Alpha Delta Phi.

Commencement and Prize Essays due.

Tues., 14.—Baseball: Delta Upsilon vs. Zeta Psi.
Intercollegiate Notes

Plans are being discussed by the Tufts Student Council in regard to a trip of the student body to Portland on May 24-25 at which time Bowdoin and Tufts meet in baseball. If this plan should be carried through the Tufts men will come to Portland on the night boat Friday, May 24, stay in Portland during the day, and return after the game on the night boat Saturday. It is hoped that this plan may be carried out successfully as it has been done before in connection with football games.

Construction of the building for the Columbia School of Journalism will be begun in April and completed by the summer of 1913. The school will be opened in temporary quarters next fall.

Walter Camp is strongly in favor of retaining the hammer throw in collegiate athletic competition.

Brown is engaged in an effort to add a million dollars to the endowment fund.

The Athletic Board of Brown University has voted to abolish basketball.

By vote of the Harvard Student Council, all cheering intended in any way to rattle the opposing players is to be done away with.

The geology class at St. Louis University spent two months in the Rocky Mountains last summer.

Two large buildings, one a museum and dental department, the other a graduate school, will be erected at the University of Pennsylvania, complete by the fall of 1913.

The Williams Record is now published three times a week instead of two. Monday, Thursday, and Saturday are its publication days.

Yale’s Athletic Committee has recommended the expenditure of $1,000,000 for improvements on the athletic field of the university. The recommendations include: Football stadium, $400,000; baseball stadium, $200,000; track stand, $100,000.

Alumni Department

'54.—The class and college mates of Hon. John O. Robinson will regret to learn that he died in Seattle, Wash., April 9, as a result of a stroke of paralysis.

Mr. Robinson, the son of Capt. Richard Robinson, was born in Thomaston, Me., July 7, 1831. After attending the schools of that town he came to Bowdoin, graduating in 1854. Together with his college friend, the late Chief Justice Fuller, he was a member of the old Chi Psi Fraternity.

Having studied law and been admitted to the bar, Mr. Robinson practiced first in his native town, and then in Pennsylvania, where he was attorney for a coal mining company. Later he returned to Thomaston, where he practiced with his brother-in-law, the late Hon. A. P. Gould, and with Hon. J. E. Moore, and at a later time with Hon. Fred Rice Rowell, his office being in Rockland. Mr. Rowell and Mr. Robinson set up an office in Seattle in 1889, where the latter practiced until he retired sometime before his death. Mr. Robinson had seen Maine only once since he left for Seattle.

This son of Bowdoin was a sound and able lawyer—one of the best. He also possessed that desirable faculty of making hosts of friends. Mr. Robinson held several political positions on the Democratic ticket, being twice county attorney of Knox. The funeral was held April 11 at the Butterworth Chapel, Seattle. He is survived by a wife, a daughter, and a son.

'62.—Rev. S. W. Pearson is now in a very critical condition as the result of a fall from a train on April 25th. Mr. Pearson is now feeling as well as can be expected, although his condition is serious.

'72.—Herbert M. Heath has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Senator. He opened his campaign in Brunswick under the auspices of the Bowdoin Republican Club last night.

'00.—Joseph C. Pearson is now at his home in Brunswick, being called here by the illness of his father.

'01.—Donald F. Snow has announced his candidacy for nomination for County Attorney on the Republican ticket in Penobscot County.

'09.—Rev. Fred V. Stanley has accepted a call to the Old South Congregational Church in Hallowell.

In the annual report of the Carnegie Foundation two of the nine exchange teachers sent to Germany under the auspices of the Foundation are Bowdoin graduates. These are Edgar Kahrl '99, formerly principal of Brunswick High School, and John W. Leydon '07, formerly a teacher in Worcester Academy.

UNIVERSITY OF MAINE
SUMMER TERM
June 26 to August 6, 1912.

Offers college courses for students to make up conditions in the following subjects:

Advanced courses in these subjects may also be taken to count toward a degree.

For circular address,

Robert J. Aley, President, Orono, Maine
ENTRIES FOR NEW ENGLAND MEET

The Bowdoin entries for the New England Meet to be held Saturday, May 18, at Springfield, Mass., are as follows:

- 120 yd. Hurdles—C. Brown '14, L. Donohue '14, Houghton '15, Jones '13, McFarland (Med.).
- 2 Mile Run—Hall '13, Tarbox '14.
- 880 yd. Run—Emery '13, Marr '14, Timberlake '12, Wilson '12.
- Shot Put—Faulkner '15.
- Hammer Throw—A. Lewis '15, Simpson '12.
- Broad Jump—C. Brown '14, Cole '12, Faulkner '15, Floyd '15, McFarland (Med.).

EIGHTEENTH M. I. A. A.—MAY 11

BATES WINS FAST MEET

After a week of steady rain and fog, the day of the big meet dawned with scarcely a cloud in the sky. By ten o'clock, when the first of the trial events began, the track at Whittier Field was in good condition, and by the afternoon it was in perfect condition for a record-breaking meet. In the morning the crowd numbered about 1500, including practically the entire student body of each of the Maine colleges. All through the day every section was the cheering-section, while four bands did their best to swell the general uproar. In the afternoon the crowd numbered over 2000, the grandstand and bleachers being full to overflowing.

In the first trial heat of the 440-yard dash, Haskell of Bowdoin and Thompson of Bates ran a close race, but in the finals Charlie clearly showed his superiority over all comers in a splendid race, defeating Thompson by over ten yards. Although he won his heat in the trials, because of a wrenched tendon Captain Bob Cole was unable to figure in the 220-yard dash, but he fought a game, gritty fight right through to the end.

Alton Lewis earned a place for his name on the new Wing Cup by defeating both Bailey and Shepherd of Maine in the hammer throw with a heave of 123 feet, 9¼ inches.

Four State records and one New England record were beaten and one State record was tied. In the 120-yard hurdles Blanchard of Bates made a new record of 16 seconds flat. In the shot put Shepard of Bates broke Bert Morrill's record with a put of 42 feet, 2¾ inches. Rogers of Maine broke his own record in the pole vault with a vault of 11 feet, 6 inches. Gove of Bates broke his own and the New England record in the discus throw with a throw of 125 feet, 6½ inches. Nardini of Colby equaled the record of 22 1-5 seconds in the 220-yard dash.

Maine lost her chance of winning the meet when Deering of Bates won the half-mile and Gove of Bates defeated Shepherd of Maine for second place in the shot put by only ½ of an inch. In the final results Bates led with forty-three points, Maine second with thirty-nine points, Colby third with twenty-six points, and Bowdoin fourth with eighteen points. Nardini was the highest point winner with fifteen points.

The great success of the meet, which was handled in a way which could not be improved upon, was due to the efforts of Manager Cedric Crowell. There was not a hitch at any time during the contest, things going so smoothly that the events in the afternoon were completed in less than two hours.

100-YARD DASH

Trials—First heat won by Nardini, Colby; second, Baker, Bates; time, 10 2-5 seconds. Second heat won by J. H. McKenney, Bowdoin; second, Deering, Maine; time, 10 3-5 seconds. Third heat won by Nevers, Bates; second, Good, Colby; time, 10 1-5 seconds.

Finals—Won by Nardini, Colby; second, Deering, Maine; third, Nevers, Bates; time, 10 1-5 seconds.

220-YARD DASH

Trials—First heat won by Cole, Bowdoin; second, Baker, Bates; time, 22 3-5 seconds. Second heat won by Nardini, Colby; second, Deering, Maine; time, 22 4-5 seconds. Third heat won by Nevers, Bates; second, Lord, Colby; time, 23.1-5 seconds.
Finals—First, Nardini, Colby; second, Deering, Maine; third, Nevers, Bates; time, 22.1-5 seconds. (Equals records.)

120-YARD HURDLES
Trials—First heat won by Blanchard, Bates; second, Hill, Colby; time, 17 seconds. Second heat won by Woodman, Bates; second, Washburn, Maine; time, 16.3-5 seconds. Third heat won by Farnsworth, Colby; second, Bartlett, Bates; time, 16.4-5 seconds.
Semi-finals—Washburn defeated Hill and qualified for finals; time, 17.1-5 seconds.
Finals—First, Blanchard, Bates; second, Woodman, Bates; third, Farnsworth, Colby; time, 16 seconds. (New record.)

220-YARD HURDLES
Trials—First heat won by Blanchard, Bates; second, Morse, Maine; time, 27 seconds. Second heat won by Royal, Colby; second, St. Onge, Maine; time, 27.4-5 seconds. Third heat won by Woodman, Bates; second, Houghton, Bowdoin; time, 28 seconds.
Semi-finals—Won by Morse, Maine; second, St. Onge, Maine; time, 27.3-5 seconds.
Finals—First, Blanchard, Bates; second, Woodman, Bates; third, Royal Colby; time, 25.2-5 seconds.

440-YARD DASH
Trials—First heat won by Haskell, Bowdoin; second, Thompson, Bates; third Littlefield, Maine; time, 54 seconds. Second heat won by Huston, Bates; second, Bowen, Colby; third, Skolfield, Maine; time, 54.3-5 seconds.
Finals—First, Haskell, Bowdoin; second, Thompson, Bates; third, Skolfield, Maine; time, 52.4-5 seconds.

880-YARD RUN
Won by Deering, Bates; second, Morris, Maine; third, Cates, Colby; time, 2 minutes, 4.2-5 seconds.

ONE MILE RUN
First, Towner, Maine; second, Houghton, Maine; third, Hall, Bowdoin; time, 4 minutes, 32.2-5 seconds.

TWO-MILE RUN
First, Power, Maine; second, Hall, Bowdoin; third, Hosmer, Maine; time, 10 minutes, 7.2-5 seconds.

FIELD EVENTS
Running High Jump—Qualified: Kempton and Drake, Bates; Herrick and Wood, Colby; Worden, Maine; height, 5 ft. 4 in. Finals: First, Herrick, Colby, 5 ft. 8 inches; second, Worden, Maine, 5 ft. 6 in.; third, tie between Kempton and Drake, both of Bates, 5 ft. 5 in.

Running Broad Jump—Qualified: Nardini, Colby; Floyd, Bowdoin; Faulkner, Bowdoin; C. A. Brown, Bowdoin; Reed, Colby. Finals: First, Nardini, Colby, 21 ft. 3/8 in.; second, Faulkner, Bowdoin, 21 ft. 2/4 in.; third, Floyd, Bowdoin, 20 ft. 8/4 in.

Pole Vault—Qualified: Rogers and Thomas of Maine; Chase and F. P. McKenney of Bowdoin, and Herrick of Colby. Finals: First, Rogers, Maine, 11 ft. 6 in.; second, Herrick, Colby, 10 ft. 6 in.; third, Thomas, Maine, 10 ft. (New record.)

Sixteen-Pound Hammer Throw—Qualified: H. A. Lewis and Simpson, Bowdoin; Bailey and Shepherd, Maine; Tibbetts, Colby. Finals: First, H. A. Lewis, Bowdoin, 123 ft. 9/4 in.; second, Bailey, Maine, 116 ft. 5/4 in.; third, Shepherd, Maine, 115 ft. 5/2 in.

BOWDOIN STRONG MEN
Dr. Whittier has just announced the ten men in college who have passed the highest strength tests this year in the physical examinations given to all men who take part in athletics, to all new students and to any others who desire examinations. The ten strongest men in the Freshman Class are also announced. The strength tests which are given to compute the total strength are the lungs, back, legs, upper arms and forearms. In reckoning the strength of the upper arms both dips and pull-up or chinning are given, the number of times each is done is added, multiplied into the weight of the individual, and divided by 10. In computing the strength of the forearms, each arm is tested separately by the strength of grip, and the results of each are added. The physical examinations are given according to the system arranged by Dr. Dudley A. Sargent of Harvard. The results are as follows:

1. Frank Arthur Smith '12: Strength of Lungs, 26; Strength of Back, 240; Strength of Legs, 430; Strength of Upper Arms, Dips, 14; Pull-ups, 14, 218.4; Strength of Forearms, Right, 67; Left, 63, 130; Total Strength, 1044.4

2. George Craigin Kern '12: Strength of Lungs, 39; Strength of Back, 190; Strength of...
Legs, 440; Strength of Upper Arms, Dips, 22; Pull-ups, 11, 18.75; Strength of Fore-arms, Right, 63, Left 62, 125; Total Strength, 1041.5.

3. Henry Levenseller Hall '14: Strength of Lungs, 35; Strength of Back, 150; Strength of Legs, 530; Strength of Upper Arms, Dips, 11; Pull-ups, 11, 166.5; Strength of Fore-arms, Right, 58, Left, 50, 108; Total Strength, 989.5.

4. Jesse Hamilton McKenney '12: Strength of Lungs, 26; Strength of Back, 145; Strength of Legs, 400; Strength of Upper Arms, Dips, 16; Pull-ups, 18, 208; Strength of Fore-arms, Right, 45, Left, 44, 89; Total Strength, 878.

5. Robert Thomas Weatherill '14: Strength of Lungs, 20; Strength of Back, 190; Strength of Legs, 370; Strength of Upper Arms, Dips, 12; Pull-ups, 14, 187.2; Strength of Fore-arms, Right, 52, Left, 51, 103; Total Strength, 870.2.

6. John Lawrence Hurley '12: Strength of Lungs, 19; Strength of Back, 180; Strength of Legs, 390; Strength of Upper Arms, Dips, 11; Pull-ups, 11, 164.6; Strength of Fore-arms, Right, 56, Left, 47, 103; Total Strength, 856.6.

7. Lewis Turner Brown '14: Strength of Lungs, 35; Strength of Back, 180; Strength of Legs, 340; Strength of Upper Arms, Dips, 14; Pull-ups, 14, 182; Strength of Fore-arms, Right, 55, Left, 50, 105; Total Strength, 842.

8. Ermond Sylvester '14: Strength of Lungs, 23; Strength of Back, 210; Strength of Legs, 300; Strength of Upper Arms, Dips, 12; Pull-ups, 12, 172; Strength of Fore-arms, Right, 63, Left, 60, 123; Total Strength, 828.

9. Gordon Pierce Floyd '15: Strength of Lungs, 17; Strength of Back, 140; Strength of Legs, 410; Strength of Upper Arms, Dips, 8, Pull-ups, 14, 157.9; Strength of Fore-arms, Right, 50, Left, 47, 97; Total Strength, 821.9.

10. Bryant Edward Moulton '13: Strength of Lungs, 27; Strength of Back, 200; Strength of Legs, 310; Strength of Upper Arms, Dips, 12; Pull-ups, 12, 168.7; Strength of Fore-arms, Right, 59, Left, 57, 116; Total Strength, 821.7.

FRESHMEN

1. Gordon Pierce Floyd: Strength of Lungs, 17; Strength of Back, 140; Strength of Legs, 410; Strength of Upper Arms, Dips, 8, Pull-ups, 14, 157.9; Strength of Fore-arms, Right, 50, Left, 47, 97; Total Strength, 821.9.

2. Harry Peter Faulkner: Strength of Lungs, 29; Strength of Back, 150; Strength of Legs, 350; Strength of Upper Arms, Dips, 14, Pull-ups, 10, 173.7; Strength of Fore-arms, Right, 59, Left, 49, 108; Total Strength, 810.7.

3. Philip Sidney Smith: Strength of Lungs, 19; Strength of Back, 150; Strength of Legs, 335; Strength of Upper Arms, Dips, 14, Pull-ups, 16, 195.3; Strength of Fore-arms, Right, 58, Left, 50, 108; Total Strength, 807.3.

4. Charles Frederick Houghton: Strength of Lungs, 16; Strength of Back, 180; Strength of Legs, 370; Strength of Upper Arms, Dips, 6, Pull-ups, 10, 114.5; Strength of Fore-arms, Right, 56, Left, 49, 105; Total Strength, 785.5.

5. Manning Coe Moulton: Strength of Lungs, 31; Strength of Back, 175; Strength of Legs, 310; Strength of Upper Arms, Dips, 10, Pull-ups, 8, 145; Strength of Fore-arms, Right, 60, Left, 63, 123; Total Strength, 784.

6. Harold McNeil Somers: Strength of Lungs, 15; Strength of Back, 160; Strength of Legs, 345; Strength of Upper Arms, Dips, 15, Pull-ups, 10, 159.5; Strength of Fore-arms, Right, 51, Left, 52, 103; Total Strength, 782.

7. Francis Paul McKenney: Strength of Lungs, 18; Strength of Back, 125; Strength of Legs, 370; Strength of Upper Arms, Dips, 15, Pull-ups, 13, 160.7; Strength of Fore-arms, Right, 43, Left, 45, 88; Total Strength, 761.7.

8. Herbert Alton Lewis: Strength of Lungs, 12; Strength of Back, 180; Strength of Legs, 330; Strength of Upper Arms, Dips, 8, Pull-ups, 8, 129.6; Strength of Fore-arms, Right, 46, Left, 52, 98; Total Strength, 749.6.

9. Daniel Weston Rodick: Strength of Lungs, 20; Strength of Back, 180; Strength of Legs, 300; Strength of Upper Arms, Dips, 9, Pull-ups, 9, 127.4; Strength of Fore-arms, Right, 59, Left, 56, 115; Total Strength, 742.4.

10. Charles Carr Morrison: Strength of Lungs, 18.5; Strength of Back, 155; Strength of Legs, 325; Strength of Upper Arms, Dips, 9, Pull-ups, 11, 130; Strength of Fore-arms, Right, 52, Left, 45, 97; Total Strength, 725.5.

Maynard H. Kuhn and Max V. McKinnon of the Freshman Class also have strength records of over 700. It is interesting to note that McKenney '12 and McKenney '15 and Moulton '13 and Moulton '15 are brothers.

The strength tests are reckoned in kilograms.

KAPPA SIGMA, 18; NON-FRATERNITY, 18

The feature of the game was a fast triple play for the Non-Frats, by Grierson, Merrill, Lewis, and Verrill, which was very timely as it pulled that team out of a bad hole. A heavy mist made fast pitching or fielding impossible. The game was called at the end of the sixth in time for Chapel.

I 2 3 4 5 6 R H E
Kappa Sigma .... 4 1 2 1 6 4—18 to 4
Non-Fraternity .... 0 8 8 1 0 1—18 14 5
Batteries: Hoit and Willett; Grierson and Lewis. Umpire, Bull.
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY OF THE COLLEGIATE YEAR
BY THE STUDENTS OF
BOWDOIN COLLEGE

EDITORIAL BOARD

DOUGLAS H. McMurtrie, 1913, Editor-in-Chief
ROBERT D. LEIGH, 1914, Managing Editor
FRED D. WISH, JR., 1913, Alumni Editor

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

W. R. Spinney, 1913  K. A. Robinson, 1914
L. E. Jones, 1913  R. E. Simpson, 1914
V. R. LEAVITT, 1913  A. H. MACKORMICK, 1915
D. K. Merrill, 1914  F. P. McKENNEY, 1915
J. F. ROLLINS, 1915

H. B. Walker, 1913, Business Manager
E. L. SYLVESTER, 1914, Assistant Manager

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni, and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted. All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager.

Subscriptions, $2.00 per year. Single copies, 10 cents.

Entered at Post-Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII.  MAY 14, 1912  No. 6

Bowdoin fought and lost. It was the first defeat that the College has suffered on Whittier Field. We believe that it will be the last. For in spite of the score, there were a number of circumstances which promise a different result in the years to come. Bowdoin found after the meet at Waterville last year that she must develop a wholly new team and this year's record represents the beginning of the development. Of the five Bowdoin point winners in the meet Saturday, only one took a place in the contest at Waterville last year. Every man who won a point Saturday is an underclassman. Coach Fish Marsh has had the work of training new men to win places and that is a slow process under any circumstances. But the way in which he has brought out the ability of the men gives assurance that he can start with eighteen points next year and build upward.

The points won by Bowdoin were taken by the Junior and Freshman classes, each contributing nine points to the total. The College should be particularly encouraged by the showing of the Freshmen, for it knows of the consistent hard work on their part and is proud of their first year record.

There was plenty of Bowdoin Spirit displayed on the field and in the stand. One of the most stirring examples of pluck was given in the final of the 220-yard dash when Bob Cole, the fighting captain of the team, who was crippled by a wrenched tendon, struggled desperately for the whole length of the dash to gain a place among the winners. And there were many of the squad who proved by their work that with another year's practice they will develop into point winners.

Bowdoin has gone through the harrowing experience of two defeats in succession while a new team is being developed. But the College, though cast down at the memory of the first defeat on Whittier Field, may give its admiration and will give its support to a team which fought for all there was in it and will fight.

Welch's Victory

Among the recent contests in which representatives of Bowdoin have engaged, none has been attended with a result more pleasing to the College than the New England Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest. The victory of Arthur Dehan Welch following upon that of Earl Baldwin Smith last year has given Bowdoin first place in two of the three contests held. To be able to win from the men entered by Amherst, Brown, Wesleyan, and Williams speaks well for the ability of the Bowdoin representative and his coach. The Orient wishes to congratulate them in the name of the College.

BOWDOIN AND THE MAIN CHURCH CONFERENCE

Bowdoin was well represented at the annual meeting of the Congregational Conference and Missionary Society of Maine which took place at the Church on the Hill last week. Among the speakers were: Rev. Charles H. Cutler, D.D., of the class of '91, who delivered a conference sermon, Tuesday evening; Rev. Alexander P. McDonald '81, who discussed the Maine Sea Coast Mission; Rev. Daniel Evans, D.D., of the Class of '90, now a professor at the Andover Theological Seminary, who had as a topic "The Task of the Church in an Age of Unrest:" and President Hyde who spoke on "The Birth-right of the Child."

Among the delegates from the churches were the following men: Rev. John M. Wathan '92, of Biddeford; Rev. Nathaniel Flint Allard '91, of Fryeburg; Rev. Herbert L. McCann '93, of Deer- ing; Rev. Robert L. Sheaf '94, of Newcastle; Rev. Langdon Quimby '95, of Gardiner; Rev. Oscar W. Peterson '96, of Brownfield; and Rev. Willard S. Bass '96, of Wilton.
The following Bowdoin men were elected officers: Rev. Henry S. Noyes '91, Clerk; Rev. George A. Merrill, Assistant Clerk; and Rev. H. W. Webb '90, a director. President Hyde was appointed Interdenominational Commissioner.

PHI BETA KAPPA AFTER ENDOWMENT

A committee of the members of Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha of Maine, connected with Bowdoin, is trying to raise an endowment fund of five thousand dollars for the chapter. This fund would make a permanent endowment, the income of which would pay most of the chapter expenses and would also probably allow the chapter to hold public meetings in the winter time, as was formerly the custom, in addition to the regular annual meeting at Commencement time. A letter has recently been sent out to the alumni and generous contributions to the endowment are already coming in. The committee in charge of the work of raising the endowment is composed of Professors Henry L. Chapman, Frank E. Woodruff, William A. Moody, George T. Files, and Kenneth C. M. Sills.

HEATH OPENS CAMPAIGN

Hon. Herbert M. Heath opened his campaign for United States Senator, in Memorial Hall, Monday, May 6. After explaining his reasons for choosing Bowdoin as the place for his opening speech and outlining the method he intended to pursue, that of a direct appeal to the people on a definite platform rather than personality, he talked informally about the live issues of the national campaign. He dealt mainly with the trust problem and its relation to the tariff, the high cost of living, and the unequal distribution of wealth. His exposition of the workings of the Sherman law was very clear, logical and extremely interesting from the standpoint of the student of economics as well as the practical politician. His speech was interspersed with references to his college days at Bowdoin and other humorous experiences of his early life. A large and enthusiastic audience was in attendance.

PRIZE FOR AMATEUR SOCIOLOGISTS

Through the pages of the New York Times Owen Johnson, author of Stover at Yale, makes the following prize offer: "Believing that a mutual knowledge of the merits and defects of the social systems in vogue at the various colleges, as well as the arguments pro and con, would be of larger public interest and service, I should like to propose a competition for the best constructive plan for the social organization of a university or college. I shall be very glad to offer a prize of $150 for that paper which shall be adjudged the best submitted by an undergraduate, and $100 for the best paper from a graduate.

"There will be not the slightest limitation to the nature of the plan submitted, except of its possible effectiveness in the safeguarding of education and democracy."

"I hope that strong papers may be submitted in behalf of all existing systems, (with suggested improvements in the matter of detail), and that equally there may be plans submitted for an entirely different system of division, as well as plans that would argue for no systems at all.

"The manuscripts should be submitted in typewritten form and signed by a nom de guerre, the real name being inclosed in a separate envelope. In any case where, for obvious reasons, a contributor does not desire to reveal his identity, his preference will be considered, even in the event of his winning the prize.

"The competition will close June 2, and the announcement of the winners will be made in the Sunday Times of June 9.

"I am glad to announce that the Hon. Otto T. Bannard, Mr. Norman Hapgood, and Prof. Henry Fairfield Osborn have generously contributed their services and will act as a jury.

"From time to time, as the answers warrant it, The Times will publish them during the progress of the competition."

CLUB AND COUNCIL MEETING

Acting under recommendation from the chairman of the committee on grounds and buildings, the Student Council at its meeting last week voted to prohibit the posting of all bills, posters, and notices on the trees of the campus. According to the provisions of the constitution, the vacancy on the Council left by Wilson, who has left College, has been filled by the next highest man in the voting at last year's Spring election, Leland G. Means '12.

Owing to a misunderstanding the Deutscher Verein did not meet last Thursday evening as planned.

The Joint meeting of the Orient and Quill Boards was held last Thursday afternoon to consider the plan for union of the business management of the two Boards formulated by a committee from the Student Council. All the details were not discussed and another meeting will be held this afternoon to act definitely upon the matter. It will undoubtedly meet with the unqualified approval of the two organizations.
On the Campus

Bob Bisbee '03 was on the campus last Wednesday.

All kinds of grads were on the campus Saturday to see the Big Meet.

Think what would have happened if "Dean Morris" hadn't been on hand to manage the meet for us.

No more "Fight, fight, fight!" Never mind, baseball can now occupy the editorial writer's attention.

Hon. F. A. Fisher '81, W. M. Emery '89, and the Rev. C. B. Emerson '04 were on the campus last week.

The Student Council has decided to hold weekly "sings" and band concerts during the rest of the year. Here is a good chance to learn our new songs and get together for a good Bowdoin time.

A large part of the student body with the 1911 baseball management as stellar performers combined with the Downing Stock Co. in producing Dora Thorne last Saturday evening in the Town Hall. Link Colby also took part.

The title for this year's Pray English Prize Essay is "The Humor of Falstaff."

Manuscripts are to be left at Professor Chapman's house before June 20; each is to bear a fictitious name, and to be accompanied by a sealed envelope bearing the fictitious name outside and enclosing the writer's real name. No manuscript shall exceed five thousand words in length.

Le Nouvelliste, a newspaper printed in the French language has made its appearance in Brunswick journalistic fields. The new paper is four pages in size and contains numerous departments aside from locals and general news. It is stated that it will be independent in politics.

Jupiter Phuvius played an important part in the athletic events last week. The heavy rain prevented Bowdoin and Maine baseball teams meeting on Whittier Field Friday and the showers all of last week prevented the playing off of the preliminary rounds in the College tennis tournament. It is requested by the manager that all matches be played off as soon as possible in order that the team may be picked and an opportunity given them for practice.

With the Faculty

Robert Withington had a signed article in the Boston Globe, May 12.

Mrs. Paul Nixon entertained before the Colby game Saturday, May 4, with a luncheon for Mrs. Lunt and Mrs. Atkinson of Chicago.

At the last review of the Freshman Class three majors and two minor warnings were issued. Two of the majors issued two weeks ago have been brought down to minors.

Dean Sills represented Bowdoin at the meeting of the administrative officers of the New England colleges at Dartmouth last Wednesday and Thursday. He also attended a meeting of the New England College Entrance Certificate Board in Boston Friday.

The examining committee of the Boards of Trustees and Overseers visited the College the first of last week, spending two days visiting recitations and college exercises. The members of the committee are: Gen. Joshua L. Chamberlain of Portland, Judge Frederic A. Fisher of Lowell, Mass., Judge Addison E. Herrick of Bethel, Rev. Edgar M. Cousins of Old Town, and Alpheus Sanford of Boston.

Campaign in the Colleges

In an article in the Independent for March 21, President Jacob G. Schurman of Cornell University discusses "The Republican Presidential Nomination." He predicts that President Taft, a Progressive Republican in the true sense of the word, will triumph over ex-President Roosevelt, the exponent of Radicalism and Caesarism.

In the straw vote taken at the New York University under the direction of the Department of Journalism, the results were as follows:

First choice: Roosevelt, 486; Taft, 456; Wilson, 209; Debs, 66; La Follette, 56; Clark, 51; Harmon, 40; Hughes, 33; Gaynor, 25; Underwood, 17; Bryan, 8; C. E. Russell, 8; Brandeis and Berger, 2 each, and Hearst, 1.

Second choice: Taft, 318; Wilson, 293; Roosevelt, 209; La Follette, 135; Gaynor, 66; Underwood, 52; Clark, 49; Hughes, 29; Harmon, 27; Debs, 9; C. E. Russell, 9; and Berger, 6.

The total of votes cast for first and second choice causes the order of the leaders to change to Taft, Roosevelt, and Wilson.

Among the faculty, Wilson and Taft were the favorites.

A course of lectures in practical politics is being given at New York University.

Taft, Roosevelt, Harmon, La Follette, Clark, and Bryan was the order in which the Trinity undergraduates voted. Taft polled 77 votes to Roosevelt's 70.

Statistics supplied by the Yale News show that in a straw ballot taken in the principal universities of the country, Roosevelt has a total of 2324 votes to the 1649 for Wilson, his nearest rival. Taft is third.

A Taft Club was organized last week at Brown.
Roosevelt, Clark, and Bryan is the way the vote went at Bucklin High School, Kansas. Taft got three votes.

Amherst students cheered Taft wildly when his picture was thrown on the screen at a lecture recently. Roosevelt was cheered, too, but not with so much vim.

CALENDAR

Tues., 14.—Orient and Quill Boards, Deutscher Verein 5 P. M.
Baseball: Delta Upsilon vs. Zeta Psi.
Readings from Thackeray, Hubbard Hall.—Professor Davis.

Baseball: Beta Theta Pi vs. Phi Chi.

Thurs., 16.—Baseball: Non-Fraternity vs. Psi Upsilon.

Fri., 17.—Delta Upsilon House Party.
Baseball: Alpha Kappa Kappa vs. Delta Kappa Epsilon.
Trials, New England Meet at Springfield.

Sat., 18.—Finals, New England Meet at Springfield.
Thesis of 1875 Prize in American History Due.

Mon., 20.—Trials, Alexander Prize Speaking.
Good Government Club Meets.
Baseball: Bowdoin vs. Maine at Whittier Field 3:30.

Tues., 21.—Baseball: Non-Fraternity vs. Theta Delta Chi.

Intercollegiate Notes

Two hundred men reported for track at the University of Pennsylvania at the first call for candidates. This is the largest squad in years.

A Socialist Club has been organized at Brown.

"Next Saturday is Mother’s Day at the Pi Beta Phi House," says the Daily Kansan. "Thirty-three mothers are expected."

For the second time in succession a Radcliffe girl has won the Craig Prize of $250 for the best play written by a Harvard or a Radcliffe student.

"The Production of the Mill," the winning play, will be staged by the donor of the prize at his opera house in Boston.

Syracuse University will set a precedent next fall by maintaining a reserve football squad. The athletic governing board recently took the step to form a reserve team that will take the place of the second and third teams of the school and will rank in form almost even with the first team. A different set of signals and plays will be used and as the opportunity presents itself they will be tried out against the first team.

The annual gymnastic “Circus” held at Syracuse recently netted the Athletic Association $300.

The University of Kansas has an annual interfraternity debate. The subject of this year’s debate will be this: “Resolved: That high schools should be reorganized to extend over six years, in order to provide an adequate vocational training and guidance.”

Pledges aggregating $1,200,000 have been secured at Harvard for the construction of a set of Freshman dormitories. The buildings will consist of twelve wings facing the Charles River. Each tenant will be provided with a parlor in which to receive his friends. Shower baths, tennis courts, a large common room, and a dining hall are also included in the plans.

An Irish banquet was held at the University of Minnesota in honor of St. Patrick.

An Interfraternity Tennis Tournament is now being played at Tulane University at New Orleans.

Harvard University has just received an important bequest in the form of a high-tension electrical laboratory, which is expected to out-rank everything else of its kind in the world. A transformer will be constructed which will be able to deliver an alternating current at 1,000,000 volts, a far higher voltage than has heretofore been possible. The direct current supplied will be at 100,000 volts.

Wesleyan has adopted a rule forbidding anyone to play on the ‘Varsity teams until after six months’ residence in college.

The committee has disposed of 29,000 seats for the Olympic games, and an additional 10,000 seats will be erected.

More than fifty men have reported for Freshman baseball practice at Princeton.

The trustees and faculty of Yale have finally voted to accept the semester plan instead of having the academic year divided into terms. The new system will go into effect in 1913-1914.

The members of the Senior Class at the University of Wisconsin are just at present divided into “hell” and “anti-hell” factions. One group, led by a new president followed mostly by girls, favors the elimination of “hell” from the class yell.

A new pipe organ has been given to Harvard University by a donor whose name will be made public later. The organ will be a large four-manual instrument.

Basketball has just been dropped at Georgetown University.
A new set of rowing machines of the most improved type has been installed recently in Columbia Gymnasium. The new arrangement provides for a system which forces the men to row together, with a dial that informs the coach as soon as any member of the crew is out of time.

The Institute of Technology has finally acquired the land in Cambridge on which it is to erect its new buildings.

The Fencing Club of the University of Pennsylvania has put out a broad sword team this year.

Dr. Lyman Abbot was voted to be the most popular speaker who has been in Yale's pulpit this year.

Three new university buildings have been completed at the University of Cincinnati, at a cost of $500,000. They include the finest engineering college building in the country, and the most completely equipped small gymnasium to be found among the middle western colleges. Due to these new buildings, the registration has increased fifteen per cent.

As a result of a recent demand on the part of the undergraduates at the University of Kansas, the signals for the closing of all classes will be given by a blast of the university whistle. Instructions accompanying the schedule say: "Students are authorized and expected to leave their classes promptly after hearing the signal. Instructors will not consider this a discourtesy."

The University of Pennsylvania is contemplating the erection of a new chapel, in order to remedy the overcrowding which now exists. The cost of the new chapel is estimated at $600,000.

An innovation in summer sessions will be offered this year at the University of Kansas. The Daily Kansan under the name of the Summer Session Kansan, will be issued tri-weekly; two courses will be offered in journalism, the newspaper, and the short story; and two teachers' courses in basketball and track athletics will be given.

Alumni Department

'41.—The Library was fortunate this week in receiving from Mr. John F. Dana '98 an interesting little book with the following explanatory letter:

Prof. George T. Little,
Bowdoin College,
Brunswick, Me.

Dear Sir:

Among the papers of my great-uncle, Samuel Trask, Bowdoin '84, which have come into my possession, is a small book containing autographs of various members of the classes of '41 and '42. I am forwarding the book under separate cover. If you have a place for it with the college memorabilia, I shall be glad to have the college retain it.

Yours very truly,

John F. Dana,
Bowdoin '98.

The book which is a small autograph volume such as used to be common around the college, contains the names and birthdates of various college mates of Mr. Trask. Among the most interesting signatures is that of the late Gov. Frederick Robie, then 19 years old, the last man of his class to pass away. This book also contains the signature of Hon. H. H. Boody, now next to the oldest Bowdoin graduate in date of graduation.

'57.—At the coming Commencement, there will be a reunion of the class of 1857, of which there are eight members still living, to celebrate the fifty-fifth anniversary of their graduation. The class of 1862 will celebrate their fiftieth anniversary, the class of 1887, their twenty-fifth, and the class of 1907 will have its first reunion.

'81.—Edgar O. Achor, LL.D., delivered the Commencement address before the Tennessee Medical College at Knoxville, May 10.

'00.—Clifford S. Bragdon, formerly of Westbrook, now of Springfield, Mass., has been chosen head of the Utica Free Academy, Utica, N. Y. Mr. Bragdon goes to this position from Springfield Technical High School, where he was head of the Mathematical Department and Vice-Principal. Previous to the time he assumed this position Mr. Bragdon was principal of the high school at Ashland, Mass., for three years and also of the high school at Grafton for the same term of years. He has been at Springfield since 1906.

'09.—Ernest L. Goodspeed, who is attending Maine Law School, was recently elected Editor-in-Chief of the Maine Law Review.

UNIVERSITY OF MAINE
SUMMER TERM
June 26 to August 6, 1912.

Offers college courses for students to make up conditions in the following subjects:

Advanced courses in these subjects may also be taken to count toward a degree.

For circular address.

Robert J. Aley, President,
Orono, Maine
BOWDOIN MAKES SHOWING

For the 12th time Dartmouth won the New England Meet Saturday with 46 points, twice as many as her nearest opponent. Among the Maine colleges, Bates led with 12 points, Colby was second with 8, Maine third with 6 1-2, and Bowdoin fourth with 6 points. Out of five Bowdoin men who competed in the trials, four qualified, Faulkner and Floyd in the broad jump. Emery in the half-mile, and Haskell in the quarter, Lewis failing to qualify in the hammer-throw. In the finals Saturday, Harry Faulkner took second place in the event in which Gutterson broke the record, Charlie Haskell took fourth in the quarter, and Uriah Hall took third in the two-mile, being barely beaten for second place in the final sprint. The results of the meet are very encouraging from Bowdoin's standpoint, since last year the White got no points at all in the New England Meet, while this year she won over Williams, Worcester Tech, Trinity, and Amherst.

THE SUMMARY

100 yards dash—Won by F. T. Nardini of Colby; F. Burns of Brown, second; H. S. Wilkins, M. I. T., third; C. O. Olson of Dartmouth, fourth. Time, 10 1-5 seconds.

220 yards dash—Won by F. Burns of Brown; F. T. Nardini of Colby, third; C. A. Lyman of Williams, fourth. Time, 22 3-5 seconds.

Running high jump—P. W. Dalrymple of M. I. T., and H. B. Enright of Dartmouth tied for first place at 6 feet, 7-16 inches (a new record); D. R. Mason of Dartmouth, third; height 5 feet, 11 5-8 inches; S. A. Herrick of Colby, fourth, height 5 feet, 8 3-4 inches.

Broad jump—Won by A. L. Gutterson of Vermont, distance 23 feet, 5 2-5 inches (a new record); H. P. Faulkner of Bowdoin, second, distance 23 feet, 1-2 inch; E. R. Bartlett of Williams, third, distance 21 feet, 7 inches; W. S. Orr of Amherst, fourth, distance 21 feet, 6 7-8 inches.

Pole vault—Won by M. S. Wright of Dartmouth, height 12 feet, 6 1-4 inches (a new record); H. Wessels of Trinity and M. A. Myers of Dartmouth, tied for second place at 11 feet, 6 inches. L. B. Rogers of Maine and C. E. Buck of Dartmouth, tied for third place at 11 feet.

Shot put—Won by E. A. Bartlett of Brown, distance 45 feet, 8 inches (a new record); R. A. Shepard of Bates, second, distance 43 feet, 2 1-8 inches; C. C. Clough of Worcester Polytechnic, third, distance 42 feet, 1 5-8 inches; H. E. Marden of Dartmouth, fourth, distance 41 feet, 1 1-4 inches.

Discus—Won by H. E. Marden of Dartmouth, distance 129 feet (a new record); A. E. Bartlett of Brown, second, distance 127 feet, 3 3-8 inches; G. H. Gove of Bates, third, distance 127 feet, 1 1-2 inches; N. D. MacLeod of M. I. T., fourth, distance 113 feet, 11 3-4 inches.

Hammer Throw—Won by H. E. Marden of Dartmouth, distance 148 feet, 8 1-2 inches (a new record); A. H. Tilley of Dartmouth, second, distance, 142 feet, 1 1-4 inches; W. T. Englishorn of Dartmouth, third, distance 141 feet, 10 5-8 inches; H. P. Bailey of Maine, fourth, distance 132 feet, 1 3-4 inches.

SUMMARY OF POINTS

Dartmouth, 46; Brown, 23; M. I. T., 16; Bates, 12; Wesleyan, 10; Colby, 8; Vermont, 8; Maine, 6 1-2; Bowdoin, 6; Holy Cross, 5; Williams, 5; Worcester Polytechnic, 5; Trinity, 2 1-2; Amherst, 1.
Bowdoin lost to Maine at Orono last Wednesday by the above score. At the end of the third inning the score was 4 to 4, and neither team could send a man across the rubber until the tenth inning when Witham smashed out a hit between left and center which was good for the circuit.

Bowdoin lost the game on errors. Maine failed to secure a single earned run as snappy work would have prevented Witham’s score in the tenth. Maine scored three runs in the second on a combination of hits and errors. Bowdoin scored four runs in this inning, Joy, Means and Tilton securing doubles. Slow work on the part of our infield allowed Maine to tie the score in the fourth. Both teams played air tight ball from the fourth inning on.

Means pitched steadily throughout the game, showing some of his old time form. With good support he should have won his game.

The score:

Bowdoin

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>h</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Weatherell, 2b</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Skolfield, cf</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tilton, 3b</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LaCasce, rf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brooks, c</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Means, p</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cooley, ss</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Russell, lf</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Joy, tb</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Totals</td>
<td>36</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>7</td>
<td>28*</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Maine

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>h</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Gilman, 3b</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cobb, ss</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Abbott, c</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stobie, p</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Witham, tb</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Baker, cf</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pickard, 2b</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hosmer, lf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>McCarthy, cf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Totals</td>
<td>40</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>30</td>
<td>12</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

* Winning run made with one out.

Innings 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Bowdoin 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Maine 0 3 1 0 0 0 0 0 1 5

The New Room Regulations

All students who wish to retain their rooms for the succeeding year must signify their intention prior to June first.

Shortly before the close of each college year, the Treasurer will give public notice of time and place for drawing rooms for the ensuing year; the right of choice being given to the classes in the order of seniority, beginning with the juniors.

A student on entering college is permitted to choose from the rooms which are vacant at the time of his request, by making application at the Treasurer’s Office and signing a Room Contract which binds the signer to be responsible for the rent of the room for one academic year; also for all unnecessary damage that the room may receive.

Upon signing a Room Contract at the Treasurer’s Office a deposit of $10.00 will be required which is credited to the account of the signer if he occupies the room. If for any reason he fails to occupy the room, the deposit will be forfeited.

Rooms are not transferable.

If for any reason, and at any time prior to the second Thursday in September a signer wishes to be released, his request will be granted upon the forfeiture of his deposit.

Baseball Outlook

The game between Bowdoin and Maine yesterday afternoon occurred too late to be included in this week’s Orient. The result of that game and the game with Colby tomorrow afternoon at Waterville will determine to a great extent our chance of figuring in the State Championship. The victory of Bates over Maine last Saturday afternoon indicates that the Lewiston institution has struck its gait and will become a formidable rival in the championship race. Maine has now played five out of six of her games and from the present outlook will win the final game. Bates has played but two of the games on her championship schedule but unless some great reversal of form takes place has a good chance of winning its remaining games. Colby seems to be out of the running. Our only chance of tying for first place is by winning every game left to play.

Next Saturday in Portland will occur the annual game with Tufts. Special Saturday rates will be in effect on the Maine Central and the management is counting on a large crowd to go in to see Bowdoin meet her old rival on the diamond. Last year’s attendance at this game was not near what it should have been and this is an opportunity for the students to show the team that they are behind them to a man. Tufts may run an excurs...
BOWDOIN ORIENT

sion up to the game, and surely Bowdoin students would hardly like to witness the humiliating spectacle of being out rooted in the city of Portland. So, let's get together and make a real live excursion out of the event next Saturday.

The Maine College Baseball standing at present is:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Won</th>
<th>Lost</th>
<th>P.C.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Maine</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>.750</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bates</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>.500</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Colby</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>.500</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bowdoin</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>.000</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

COMMENCEMENT WEEK PROGRAM

The following program for Bowdoin's 107th Commencement has been announced. The exercises will extend from June 23 to the 27th.

Sun., 23.—Baccalaureate sermon by President Hyde in the Congregational Church 4 P. M.
Mon., 24.—Alexander Prize Speaking in Memorial Hall 8 P. M.

Tues., 25.—Class Day exercises in Memorial Hall 10 A. M., and under the Thorndike Oak 3 P. M.

Meeting of the Trustees in the Classical Room of Hubbard Hall 2 P. M.
Meeting of the Maine Historical Society in the Lecture Room of Hubbard Hall 2 P. M.
Meeting of the Overseers in the Lecture Room of Hubbard Hall 7 P. M.
Commencement Hop in Memorial Hall 9 P. M.

Wed., 26.—Commencement exercises of the Medical School in the Congregational Church 9:30 A. M., address by John A. Morrill, Esq., of Auburn.

Annual meeting of the Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha of Maine in the Alumni Room of Hubbard Hall 11 A. M.

Annual meeting of the Alumni for election of officers at 1:30 P. M. in the Sargent Gymnasium, preceded by buffet lunch
Out-door presentation of scenes from "The Taming of the Shrew" by the Dramatic Club 3 P. M.

Band Concert 7:30 P. M.

President's Reception in Hubbard Hall 8 to 11 P. M.

Thurs., 27.—Commencement exercises in the Congregational Church 10:30 A. M., followed by the Commencement Dinner in Memorial Hall.

The Reunion Trophy, presented by David William Snow, Esq. '73, now held by the Class of 1861, will be awarded to the class that returns the largest percentage of its members.

PATTANGLALL SPEAKS IN MEMORIAL HALL

Last Thursday evening Hon. W. R. Pattangall, the Attorney-General of Maine, spoke in Memorial Hall at a rally given under the auspices of the Bowdoin Democratic Club. He dealt mainly with the state issues, speaking at some length on the financial situation and showing the improvement of this administration over the previous one in that respect. He took up various articles of the party platforms and urged especially that state prohibition ought to be changed to local option. In closing he advised young men with the right purposes to enter political life. Owing to the bad weather there was a small audience in attendance.

STATE TOURNAMENT BEGINS THURSDAY

Owing to the inclement weather during the past month the Tennis Management has been unsuccessful in carrying out its original plans. It was previously arranged to finish the tournament now in progress and then to have a second tournament for the leading men. From this a team would be chosen. However, such plans could not be carried out because of limited time before the State Tournament would begin. Accordingly, elimination matches were played off among those men who showed up well this spring and the following men were picked to represent Bowdoin on the courts: W. A. MacCormick '12, H. C. Chapman '12, Savage '13, and Shephard '14. In the State Tournament which is to be held at Orono, May 24, 25 and 26, Captain MacCormick and Shephard will play the singles and the doubles teams will be MacCormick and Savage, Chapman and Shephard. The same men will play singles at Longwood where the New England Tournament begins next week but the team to play doubles has not yet been decided upon.

On Saturday afternoon the above men played matches in singles and doubles against members of the Portland Country Club who are Bowdoin alumni. Although the alumni won all the matches played the college team showed up well with their fast company. A second tournament will be played on Memorial Day at the club grounds in which each organization will be represented by six men.

The team will leave for Orono tomorrow afternoon and after the State Tournament is finished it will go on to Boston to play in the opening round of the New England Tournament on the following Monday.

(Continued on page 53)
course the secondary purpose of good-natured rivalry and of playing the game; and there is no danger that this will be forgotten. It may even overshadow the main end, with the result that when a team has lost its chance for the championship, the members take the remaining games as a matter of course and do not exert themselves to the utmost. Is that the case at present? Bowdoin needs more material for the varsity which the inter-fraternity games should develop this season.

The Interscholastic Meet

Again the College has an opportunity to entertain the athletic teams and representatives of schools throughout the State at the Annual Interscholastic Meet next Saturday. It is an opportunity which should be used to give the visiting sub-freshmen a true impression of Bowdoin life. There is little need to speak of the new gymnasium and the physical attractions of the College as these will be easily displayed. But it is possible for those who entertain guests to give them during even a short stay a touch of the Bowdoin Spirit which is found not in the campus, but in the undergraduates themselves.

Quill Ranks High

The Orient takes pleasure in passing on to its readers a considerable honor which the Quill recently received. The Williams Literary Magazine publishes each year a list of the college magazines in the order of their rank as to excellence. This is an imperfect method of judging the "All-America" college papers as are all such attempts, even in the realm of football, but owing to the care with which this ranking has been prepared in the past it has come to be a well established method of determining the leading college literary publications. Last year the Quill stood fourth in the list; this year it is given second rank, being preceded by the Vassar Miscellany. We quote from the article:

"Second on the list would come the Bowdoin Quill—a paper which has been most happy in its contributors, this year. Its articles have been very few indeed: the whole make-up of the magazine is a matter of not many pages. But every story, poem and essay has been above the average, has been interesting and well-executed: has been a striking argument in favor of quality over a slip-shod quantity. Then, too, the Quill has realized the charming distinction of its format, and has remained throughout the year, original and refreshing. It has been a pleasure to review it since we first began our round of readings, and to notice how much the Quill has gained this year."
State Tournament Begins Thursday
(Continued from page 51)

The management is very desirous that the tournaments—the large one and the consolation—be carried out as soon as possible. Many rounds remain to be played in each and it is quite necessary that the fellows make up for lost time. The summary of the spring tournament to the end of last week is as follows: In the preliminary round: Mifflin '12 defeated Burleigh '13, 46, 6-1, 6-3; Moulton (Med.) defeated Porritt '15, 6-0, 6-0; Thompson '14 defeated Robinson '14 by default; Kuhn '15 defeated Barton '14, 6-4, 6-2; Anten '12 defeated Dunphy '13, 6-4, 6-0; Warren '12 defeated Adams '12; Card '15 defeated Mathews '12, 7-5, 6-2; Nixon '13 defeated Standish '14, 6-2, 6-2; Nichols '12 defeated Green '13, 6-3, 8-6; Cressey '12 defeated Leigh '14, 6-0, 6-0; Slocum '13 defeated Wilson '12, 6-0, 6-1; Shephard '14 defeated Hart '12, 6-2, 6-1; McCargo '14 defeated Twombly '13, 6-1, 6-3. In the first round, Gardner '13 defeated Mifflin '12, 6-2, 6-1; Pysong '14 defeated H. Hall '14, 6-1, 6-2; Eaton '15 defeated Torrey '12, 6-3, 6-3; Mitchell '14 defeated Dole '13, by default; MacCormick '12 defeated Philoon '13, 6-0, 6-0; Shackford '13 defeated Gray (Med.) 7-6, 6-2, 7-5; Cummings '13 defeated Conant '13, 6-0, 6-3; Savage '13 defeated Cunliffe '14, 6-0, 6-0; H. Chapman '12 defeated Cartland (Med.), 6-2, 6-2; Moulton (Med.) defeated Leavitt '13, 6-0, 6-0; Anten '12 defeated Kuhn '15, 7-5, 6-4; Warren '12 defeated Card '15, 6-2, 6-3; Nichols '12 defeated Nixon '13, 3-6, 6-2, 6-2; Shephard '14 defeated McCargo '14, by default. In the third round Pysong '14 defeated Gardner '13, 6-4, 6-3; Eaton '15 defeated Mitchell '14, by default; MacCormick '12 defeated Shackford '13, 6-0, 6-0; Savage '13 defeated Cummings '13, 6-1, 6-0. In the semi-finals Eaton '15 defeated Pysong '14, 6-0, 6-2.

See the Bulletin Board for the remaining matches to be played in both tournaments.

DELTA UPSILON ANNUAL AFFAIR

The Delta Upsilon Fraternity held its annual house party at the Chapter house last Friday evening and Saturday. The affair included a reception to the friends of the Fraternity from 8 to 9:30 in the evening, followed by a dance.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Henry Johnson, Mrs. Frank E. Woodruff, Mrs. Roscoe J. Ham, Mrs. Frederic W. Brown, and Mrs. William Hawley Davis, all of Brunswick. The members of the house party committee acted as ushers. Music was furnished by Lovell's orchestra of Brunswick.

The delegates from the other fraternities were

E. S. Purington '12, Alpha Delta Phi; L. Pratt '12, Psi Upsilon; F. B. Simpson '12, Delta Kappa Epsilon; J. L. Hurley '12, Zeta Psi; M. W. Hamblen '14, Theta Delta Chi; E. O. Leigh '12, Kappa Sigma; and F. W. Hart '12, Beta Theta Pi. The delegate from the Colby Chapter of Delta Upsilon was Granville C. Reed '13.

The patronesses at the dance were the same as those in the receiving line in the afternoon. Grant of Lewiston was the caterer.

Among the guests present were Mrs. Jennie Bird, Mrs. William A. Hill, Misses Madeline Bird, Dorothy Bird, Katherine Spear, Nettie Bird, Katherine Buffam, and Blanche Hanscom of Rockland; Misses Julia Campbell, Alice Dudley, and Dorothy Tubbs of Waterville; Misses Katherine Torrey and Caroline Rullmann of Bath; Misses Helen Fiske and Gertrude Sader of Brunswick; Misses Mina Everett and Virginia Dunn of Auburn; Mrs. J. A. Norton and Miss Estelle Barker of Phillips; Miss Ernestine Thompson of Winslow; Miss Jane Longfellow of Simmons College; Miss Ethel Withoe of Farmington; Miss Ana Harvey of Hallowell; Miss Louise Harford of Saco; Miss Frances C. Miner of Waterbury, Conn.; Miss Susanne Chase of Lowell, Mass.; Miss Louise Perkins of Ogunquit; Miss Mary Holton of Boothbay Harbor; Miss Hazel Williams of Hartland.

The committee in charge of the affair was composed of J. H. Mifflin '12, chairman; S. J. Marsh '12; L. B. Shackford '13; S. T. Chase '14; and A. H. MacCormick '15.

GIBBONS CLUB PLAY

The Gibbons Club will present "Our Jim," a comedy-drama in four acts, at the Town Hall, May 24, at 8 P. M.

Dramatis Personae
John Matthews, called Uncle John, Jack Hurley
James Matthews, his son, Artie Welch
Bob, his nephew, Francis Callahan
Major Mudge, Harold Somers
Deacon Tidd, John Dunphy
His sons:
Bill Tidd, Alfred Willett
John Henry Tidd, Jimmie Lappin
Aunt Deborah Matthews, Marie A. Vermette
Caroline Antwerp, Alice McKinley
Bessie, the Major's daughter, Yvette Lopointe
Grace Antwerp, Marguerite Hutchins

The actors are now busily putting on the finishing touches to their acting. The tickets, which may be bought at Wilson's Drug Store, are going rapidly and all points to a very successful benefit. A social will be held after the play and the music will be furnished by the College Orchestra.
INTERFRATERERNITY BASEBALL

Beta Theta Pi, 17; Phi Chi, 14.

In another batting fest the Betas gained the lead in Division B last week by defeating Phi Chi. Gardner and Brown drove out long hits with men on bases.

Innings: ......... 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 R H E
Beta Theta Pi .... 8 4 0 1 0 4 x—17 10 4
Phi Chi ......... 3 2 0 4 1 1 3—14 17 9
Batteries: Hart, C. Brown and Robinson; McFarland and Doten. Twaddle, Umpire.

Delta Upsilon, 7; Zeta Psi, 5—May 13
Score by innings: ......... 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 R H E
Delta Upsilon ........... 0 0 4 1 0 2 0—7 6 9
Zeta Psi ............... 1 1 3 0 0 0—5 7 5
Batteries: Pratt and Page and Marsh; Stetson and Belknap. Umpires: Twaddle and Dole. Time: 2 hrs. 40 min.

The standing of the teams in the Inter-Fraternity League in all the games played until Saturday is as follows:

DIVISION A

Won Lost P.C.
Psi Upsilon .......................... 1 0 1.000
Non-Fraternity ........................ 1 0 1.000
Delta Upsilon ......................... 2 1 .666
Zeta Psi .............................. 1 1 .500
Kappa Sigma ........................ 0 1 .000
Theta Delta Chi ....................... 0 2 .000

DIVISION B

Won Lost P.C.
Beta Theta Pi ......................... 2 0 1.000
Alpha Delta Phi ....................... 1 1 .500
Phi Chi ............................. 1 1 .500
Delta Kappa Epsilon ............... 0 1 .000
Alpha Kappa Kappa ................. 0 1 .000

SCHEDULE OF EXAMINATIONS

Wednesday, June 12

8:30
Latin 4 ................................. Memorial Hall
Latin B ................................. Memorial Hall
(By special arrangement)
Thursday, June 13

8:30
Eng. Lit. 2 ............................... Memorial Hall
Math. 6 ................................. Memorial Hall

1:30
Hist. 8 ................................. Memorial Hall
Hist. 2 ................................. Hist. Lect. Room
Greek 4 ................................. Memorial Hall
Greek B ............................... Memorial Hall

Friday, June 14

8:30
Math. 2 ................................. Memorial Hall

1:30
Math. 4 ................................. Memorial Hall
Gov. 2 ................................. Memorial Hall

8:30
Econ. 2 ................................. Memorial Hall
Latin 6 ................................. Memorial Hall
Chem. 8 ............................... Phys. Lect. Room

Saturday, June 15

8:30
Desc. Geom. ......................... Memorial Hall
Latin 2 ................................. Hist. Lect. Room
Eng. Lit. 4 ............................. Memorial Hall

1:30
Chem. 2 ................................. Memorial Hall
Chem. 4 ................................. Memorial Hall
Botany ................................. Memorial Hall

Monday, June 17

8:30
German 14 ............................. Memorial Hall
Zool. 6 ................................. Memorial Hall
Latin 8 ................................. Memorial Hall

1:30
Chem. 6 ................................. Memorial Hall
French 2 ............................... Memorial Hall

French 4 ............................... Phys. Lect. Room

Tuesday, June 18

8:30
Italian 2 ................................. Memorial Hall
Psychol. 2, 6, 8 ....................... Memorial Hall
Greek 2 ................................. Memorial Hall
Mineral 1 ............................. Memorial Hall

1:30
Greek 8 ................................. Memorial Hall
German 4 ............................. Memorial Hall
German 16 ............................. Memorial Hall

Wednesday, June 19

8:30
Phil. 2 ................................. Memorial Hall
Zoölogy 2 ............................. Memorial Hall

1:30
French 14 ............................. Phys. Lect. Room
German 6 ............................. Memorial Hall

Thursday, June 20

8:30
English 2 ............................... Memorial Hall
Econ. 4 ................................. Hist. Lect. Room

1:30
French 8 ................................. Memorial Hall
Hist. 6 ................................. Memorial Hall
Surv. 2, 4 ............................. Memorial Hall

Friday, June 21

8:30
German 2, 8 ............................. Memorial Hall
Zool. 8 ................................. Memorial Hall

1:30
English 4 ................................. Memorial Hall
Physics 2, 4 ............................ Memorial Hall
INTERSCHOLASTIC RECORDS

The Athletic Association issued recently a book of rules governing the Annual Invitation Meet held here each year. There is included in it a list of the best records made at the past meets which is of special interest in the light of this year's meet to be held on Whittier Field Saturday.

100 yd. dash: 1899—S. H. Allen of Kents Hill, 10 2-5 sec.; 1907—E. C. Bates of Coburn, 10 1-5 sec.

Half mile run: 1899—I. W. Nutter of Bangor, 2 min. 9 4-5 sec.; 1901—D. S. Richardson of Westbrook Semi., 2 min. 5 4-5 sec.; 1908—P. Tukey of Portland, 2 min. 5 2-5 sec.

One mile run: 1899—A. C. Head of Skowhegan, 5 min. 3 sec.; 1901—W. O. O'Connor of Bangor, 4 min. 53 sec.; 1905—S. S. Holmes of Westbrook, 4 min. 59 sec.; 1910—V. L. Day of Portland, 4 min. 48 2-5 sec.

High jump: 1899—F. M. Murphy of Portland, 5 ft. 6 in.; 1901—G. P. Goodwin of Skowhegan, 5 ft. 6 1-2 in.; 1906—Thomes of Portland, 5 ft. 7 1-2 in.

16-pound shot put: 1899—A. C. Denning of Kents Hill, 35 ft. 2 in.; 1900—A. C. Denning of Kents Hill, 37 ft. 5 in.; 1901—A. C. Denning of Kents Hill, 38 ft. 2 in.; 1909—R. Hight of Portland. (In 1910 this event was discontinued and replaced in 1911 by the 12-pound shot.) The record in the 12-pound shot is held by Allen of Hebron with a put of 44.18 feet, made in 1911.

16-pound hammer throw: 1899—A. C. Denning of Kents Hill, 109 ft. 11 in.; 1900—A. C. Denning of Kents Hill, 119 ft. 10 1-2 in.; 1902—A. C. Higgins of Kents Hill, 121 ft. 6 in. (In 1910 this event was discontinued and replaced in 1911 by the 12-pound hammer.) Parsons of Hebron holds the record in the 12-pound hammer with a throw of 133.4 ft., made in 1911.

Pole Vault: 1899—E. A. Dunlap of Brunswick, 9 ft. 5 in.; 1903—T. R. Winchell of Brunswick, 9 ft. 5 3-4 in.; 1904—Quincy of Kents Hill, 9 ft. 6 1-2 in.; 1906—A. C. Chase of Hebron, 9 ft. 11 1-2 in.; 1908—F. A. Smith of Kents Hill, 10 ft. 6 in.; 1911—Belcher of Hebron, 11 282 ft.

CLUB AND COUNCIL MEETINGS

The Deutscher Verein will meet Thursday at the Inn where they will be the guests of Professor Files.

The Good Government Club will hold a very interesting meeting next Monday evening when, according to the general program of the consideration of Municipalities of this vicinity, the city government of Lewiston will be discussed. Papers will be read by the following: Hurley, Police; Rodick, Population; Pike, Government; Andrews, Elections; Knowles, School System; Douglas, Franchises; Means, Streets, Fire Dept.; M. Gray, Charities; Sweet, Board of Health.

The ORIENT and Quill Boards will hold another meeting to consider the plan of union drawn up by the Student Council. There are a number of important details to be decided and it is urged that members of both boards attend in full force.

On the Campus

Kendrie's Orchestra will furnish the music for the Ivy Exercises and Hop.

The trials for the Alexander Prize Speaking occur tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Pretty busy week, with all those exhaustive theses due and the multifarious social functions, Friday night.

George Nichols '12 represented the Bowdoin chapter at the annual reception and dance of Beta Theta Pi at the University of Maine.

Rodick '12 presented Lewiston High School with the cup won as a result of the debates in the Bowdoin Interscholastic League this year.

The Brunswick Dramatic Club presents three one-act comedies in the Town Hall this evening. behind doors closed to all but members. A number of the members of the Faculty are taking leading parts.

The following named seniors have been chosen to speak on Commencement Day: Charles Francis Adams, Eugene Francis Bradford, Kenneth Churchill, John Arnett Mitchell, Edward Longworth Morss, Ellison Smullen Purington.

Work on the new Gymnasium has been greatly hampered and delayed by the rains of the last two weeks. The walls are getting higher all the time, however, and the steel girders to support the floor of the second story have been put in place.

The New Meadows Inn opens tomorrow (a fact which is not so much of a paid advertisement as a mere announcement of a fact pleasing to those epicureans among us who long to escape occasionally from the thrall of the fraternity stewards.)

CALENDAR

Tues., May 21.—Baseball: Theta Delta Chi vs. Non-Frats.
Wed., 22.—Baseball: Bowdoin vs. Colby at Waterville.
   Baseball: Delta Upsilon vs. Psi Upsilon.
Thurs., 23.—Maine Intercollegiate Tournament begins at Orono.
   Baseball: Delta Kappa Epsilon vs. Phi Chi.
   Deutscher Verein at New Meadows Inn.
Fri., 24.—Maine Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament at Orono.
   Baseball: Alpha Kappa Kappa vs. Alpha Delta Phi.
   Gibbons Club presents "Our Jim" at Town Hall.
Sat., 25.—Baseball: Bowdoin vs. Tufts at Portland.
   Maine Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament at Orono.
   Bowdoin Interscholastic Track Meet at Whittier Field.
Mon., 27.—New England Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament at Longwood Courts.
   Baseball: Delta Upsilon vs. Kappa Sigma.

Alumni Department

'59.—An address delivered by Henry M. King, D.D., before the Providence Baptist Association, in the First Baptist Church of Pawtucket, September 20, 1911, on "Prayer and Its Relation to Life," has recently been published in pamphlet form. The subject is treated in a very interesting way, taking up the purpose and importance of prayer and its relation to church life.

'75.—Professor E. H. Hall of the Department of Physics of Harvard, who has recently undergone an operation, is as comfortable as can be expected.

'95.—Guy B. Mayo of McKean County, Pa., has been appointed as one of a committee of nine members named by the Republican State Convention of Pennsylvania. The duty of this executive and legislative committee is to see that the pledges for progressive legislation contained in the party platform are carried out. It is instructed to draft bills upon the vital subjects treated in the platform and to appear with these bills before the legislature and demand the fulfillment of the platform promises.

'11.—Earl Baldwin Smith of Brunswick, recently elected instructor in Art at Reed College, Portland, Oregon, has been awarded a fellowship of $600 by Princeton University for 1912-1913. The department of Art and Archeology at Princeton University, which is commonly regarded as the strongest department of its kind in the United States, speaks of Mr. Smith as the best student they have ever had in that department, and they expect to award him a traveling fellowship for study in Europe during the years 1913-1914.

Low Prices

But not too low

Let us explain our position. Our inexpensive Furniture, quality considered, is the lowest priced in Maine. But it is never so low that it must be deficient in quality. All our Furniture has the "Corey Quality" guarantee back of it. That means you cannot lose in a deal here.

Walter Corey Company

"75 Years Of Success"

PORTLAND, MAINE

UNIVERSITY OF MAINE

SUMMER TERM

June 26 to August 6, 1912.

Offers college courses for students to make up conditions in the following subjects:

Advanced courses in these subjects may also be taken to count toward a degree.

For circular address,

Robert J. Aley, President,

Orono, Maine
BOWDOIN ORIENT

VOL. XLII BRUNSWICK, MAINE, MAY 28, 1912 NO. 8

BIG GAME COMING

Next Thursday Bowdoin and Bates clash at Lewiston in their annual Memorial day game. Bates, it is admitted, has a very strong team this year and on the results of games played should win out. But baseball is an uncertain game, and it is hard to predict the outcome. Bowdoin has played in hard luck all the year. The Maine game at Orono was lost on a fluke, really. The two teams have not played many of the same teams this year, so that it is rather difficult to compare them. The most recent game has been with Tufts. Bates defeated the Bay State collegians in a hard-fought game by a score of 1 to 0. Saturday Bowdoin lost to the same team by a score of 5 to 2 in a ten-inning match.

Bowdoin has a strong hitting team, but the great fault has been ragged fielding at critical moments. The Tufts game, though, shows that the fellows have at last struck their stride, and the game next Thursday should be a good one. Everybody should be on hand to help the fellows.

BOWDOIN, 2; TUFTS, 5—MAY 25

Tufts defeated Bowdoin for the second time this season in a ten inning contest at Portland Saturday. The game was very much closer than the score indicates. In the tenth inning after the Medford team had secured a three run lead, Capt. Means and Weatherill hit safely. Skolfield struck out. Then Tilton came to bat and drove a hit in the direction of first base. And right here came the big question of the game. The umpire declared the ball a foul. The ball went under the bleachers, and before it had been thrown in, Means, Weatherill, and Tilton had crossed the plate. The men were called back after a ten minute discussion. Tilton struck out, LaCasce was out at first, and the game was over.

One of the features of the game was Link Skolfield’s home run from a drive over the left field fence in the sixth inning. Lee Means fielded his position perfectly and secured three hits out of four times at bat. Proctor at short and Laurie in center field starred for Tufts.

BOWDOIN

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>bh</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Weatherill, 2b......</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Skolfield, cf........ | 5 | 2 | 1 | 3 | 0 |
Tilton, 3b........... | 5 | 0 | 1 | 0 | 1 |
Russell, lf......... | 2 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 0 |
LaCasce, lf........ | 3 | 0 | 2 | 0 | 0 |
Grant, rf........... | 4 | 0 | 2 | 2 | 0 |
Brooks, c......... | 4 | 0 | 1 | 21 | 1 |
Cooley, ss......... | 3 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 4 |
Joy, tb........... | 4 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 0 |
Dodge, p........... | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
Means, p......... | 4 | 0 | 3 | 0 | 7 |

Totals ........... 39 2 11 30 15 4

TUFTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>bh</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Lee, 2b.........</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Laurie, cf......</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Qualters, 3b....</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hooper, lf......</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bennett, tb.....</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>14</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Angell, rf......</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Proctor, ss.....</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jameson, c.......</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adams, p.........</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Totals ........... 36 5 7 30 15 2

Innings .......... 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Bowdoin ........... 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0 2
Tufts ........... 1 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 3 5

BOWDOIN, 0; COLBY, 6—MAY 22

Bowdoin lost her third game in the State series, last Wednesday, to Colby, 6 to 0. James, the Colby twirler, had the Indian sign on our batters, and held them hitless and scoreless. Ten men were retired on strikes. Bowdoin’s only opportunity to score came in the first inning, when Skolfield reached third with two men out.

Our infield played a ragged fielding game at critical times, though three double plays were made. Colby’s hits were bunched.

The score:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>BOWDOIN</th>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>bh</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Weatherill, 2b</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Skolfield, 1f</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tilton, 3b</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LaCasce, cf</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Grant, rf</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Means, p</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brooks, c</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cooley, ss</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Joy, 1b</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Keegan, th</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>*Russell</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Totals .......... 29 0 0 24 14 6

*Batted for Skolfield in the ninth.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>COLBY</th>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>bh</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Goode, cf</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bowker, 3b</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sturtevant, c</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>10</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reed, 1b</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fraser, 2b</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Moore, rf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lafleur, ss</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mooers, lf</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>James, p</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Totals .......... 29 6 8 27 11 1

Innings ............... 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Colby ................. 2 0 1 0 2 0 1 0 6

BATES WINS AT TENNIS

Bates kept a clean slate in the State Tennis Tournament at Orono Friday and Saturday, capturing the championship in both doubles and singles. Woodman and Twomblen defeated all comers in the doubles, while Twomblen now holds the championship in singles.

DOUBLES

Preliminaries: Cushman and Faulkner, Colby, defeated Shepherd and Chapman, Bowdoin; Nickerson and Alley, Bates, defeated MacCormick and Savage, Bowdoin.

Semi-finals: Woodman and Twomblen, Bates, defeated Cushman and Faulkner, Colby, 6-3, 6-1. Dillingham and Morse, Colby, defeated Nickerson and Alley, Bates, 6-4, 6-3.

SINGLES

Semi-finals: Bird of Maine defeated Shepherd of Bowdoin, 6-3, 6-0. Twomblen of Bates defeated Gowan of Maine, 6-4, 6-3.

Finals: Twomblen of Bates defeated Bird of Maine, 6-4, 3-6, 4-6, 6-0, 6-4.

BUCKLE ANNOUNCEMENT

The editors of the 1913 Bugle wish to announce that the book is completed and will be sold on the morning of Ivy Day, June 7. The volume is larger than ever this year and contains a number of new features. It is well printed and attractively bound in cloth. While the editors make no claim as to its excellence they present the book to the Junior Class and the College as the result of their best efforts.

The edition this year numbers but 400 copies—considerably less than that of a year ago. As Manager Cushman does not plan to solicit subscriptions in advance, all who desire copies should plan to secure them early because of the limited edition. The price will be the same as that of the past few years—$1.50.

MASQUE AND GOWN CAST

The Dramatic Club is busy rehearsing for the Ivy and Commencement plays. Trials have been held for parts in the outdoor production of Shakespeare’s “Taming of the Shrew,” which will be presented on the Campus Wednesday, June 26, during Commencement Week. The cast for this has not been definitely decided yet.

The manager has announced the cast for the Ivy play, “A Pair of Spectacles,” a comedy in three acts which will be given in the Brunswick Town Hall, June 6, the night before Ivy Day, and will also be used on the Dramatic Club trip which will probably come the last week in May. The cast is as follows: Benjamin Goldfinch, Artie Welch; Uncle Gregory, Cedric Crowell; Percy, Paul White; Dick, Winthrop Greene; Lorimer, Merton Greene; Bartholomew, John Dunphy; Joyce, Paul Donahue; Mrs. Goldfinch, Fletcher Twombly; Lucy Lorimer, William Nixon.
FRESHMEN UPHOLD TRADITION

The Freshmen won a unanimous decision in the Freshman-Sophomore Debate held Saturday evening in Hubbard Hall.

The victorious team was composed of Francis P. McKenney, Robert P. Coffin, and George W. Bacon. Their alternate was Joseph Rubin. Their sophomore opponents were Joseph W. Schney, Edward H. Snow, and Alfred E. Gray. The alternate was Robert E. Bodurtha.

The judges were Prof. William Hawley Davis, Prof. Wilmot B. Mitchell, and Mr. Ernest G. Field. Paul H. Douglas '13 presided.

The question for debate was: Resolved, That the Initiative and Referendum should be adopted by all the American States.

BOWDOIN INVITATION MEET

After qualifying 20 of the 50 men who qualified in the morning's trials, Hebron Saturday afternoon easily won the 14th Annual Bowdoin Invitation Interscholastic Track Meet on Whittier Field with 49⅔ points. Dexter High took second place with 15 points, Coburn Classical Institute was third with 13 points, Bangor fourth with 10 points, Hallowell fifth with nine points, Thornton Academy sixth with 5⅓ points, Camden and Biddeford seventh, each having five points, Deering eighth with four points, and Maine Central Institute ninth with one point. The Hebron athletes took six firsts, those in the 100 yd. dash, 440 yd. dash, 220 yd. dash, 220 yd. hurdles, shot put, and pole vault.

The record for the mile was lowered from 4 min. 48⅔ sec. to 4 min. 43⅞ sec. by Preti of Portland High. In the 12 lb. hammer throw, the record was broken by Murchie of Coburn, Parsons of Hebron, and Leadbetter of Bangor. Murchie's throw being 154 ft. 8½ in. and breaking the old record of 133 ft. 4⅞ in. In the 12 lb. shot put Allen of Hebron broke his own record of 44 ft. 15⅛ in.

The speed and smoothness which characterized the handling of the meet is largely due to the efforts of Asst. Mgr. Alan Cole, who was in charge.

CHANGES IN COURSES

LATIN

A and B will be omitted.

Latin 3 will be a course in Plautus (Prof. Nixon).

*Latin 5 will be a course in Mediaeval Latin (Prof. Sills).

Latin 7 will be a course in Virgil given the first semester (Prof. Sills).

*Latin 5 not to be given unless elected by at least six students.

ENGLISH

The following changes will be made in the English courses for next year:

Eng. 3 will be more closely correlated with the work of other courses, especially History and Economics.

Eng. 4 will be changed to a study of the nineteenth century essayists.

Eng. 8 will probably be a full year course.

HISTORY

The History courses are to be changed as follows:

Eng. Hist. 3 and 4 will not be given; Mediaeval European History (7 and 8) will take their place.

NON-FRATERNITY CLUB ORGANIZES

On Thursday, May 16, the visiting committee, composed of two trustees and three overseers, met at the college and voted to recommend to the Board of Trustees and Overseers the appropriation of the sum asked for in the plan of the Non-Fraternity Club recently formed.

This club met last Wednesday for the election of officers and the following were chosen: President, L. H. Gibson '14; Vice-President, L. G. Whittier '13; Treasurer, R. M. Verrill '14; Secretary, R. E. Hubbard '14; Steward, H. C. Dixon '14. These officers, of course, are provisional upon the adoption of the plan by the Trustees and Overseers. The question of a name for the club was also discussed but none was decided upon. It was also voted to hold a banquet at New Meadows Inn, the date to be fixed by the committee.

COLLEGE PREACHERS

Rev. Roswell Bates, D.D., of New York was the College Preacher last Sunday, occupying the pulpit of the Church on the Hill in the morning and speaking at the Chapel Vesper service at 5 P. M. In the evening he met a number of the students at the D. K. E. House for an informal talk.

The last College Preacher of the year is Rev. Gaius Glenn Atkins, D.D., of Providence, R. I., who will preach next Sunday, June 2. Dr. Atkins, born in Carmel, Ind., received his degree of A.B. from Ohio State University in 1888 and of LL.B. from Cincinnati Law School in 1891. He was given the degree of D.D. by the University of Vermont in 1904, and by Dartmouth College in 1906. He was pastor of the Congregational Church in Greenfield, Mass., from 1895 to 1900; in Burlington, Vt., from 1900 to 1906, of the First Church in Detroit from 1906 to 1910, and since 1910 has been pastor of the Central Church in Providence. Dr. Atkins is an able and vigorous preacher.
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

Published every Tuesday of the Collegiate Year by the Students of Bowdoin College

Editorial Board

Douglas H. McMurtrie, 1913, Editor-in-Chief
Robert D. Leigh, 1914, Managing Editor
Fred D. Wish, Jr., 1913, Alumni Editor

Associate Editors

W. R. Spinney, 1913
L. E. Jones, 1913
V. R. Leavitt, 1913
D. K. Merrill, 1914
H. B. Walker, 1913
E. L. Sylvester, 1914

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni, and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted. All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager.

Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

Entered at Post-Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII. MAY 28, 1912 No. 8

In place of the regular issue next week, a special number will be published on June 7, Ivy Day. This will include a complete account of the exercises of the day.

The tennis season this year

College Tennis Court has brought out forcibly the need of a court maintained for the sole use of the team. At present the fraternity courts do not offer an adequate opportunity for the team to practice and for the owners to enjoy the use of their courts. When the varsity team practices or when college tournaments are held, the management faces the necessity of requesting some fraternity to give up the use of its court for the occasion. Although the manager's request is granted, it is unfair to the fraternities to continue to ask the favor from year to year. With the building of a college court the team might practice at all times without inconveniencing other players.

Prize Song Cup There is now on exhibition at Hubbard Hall near the charging desk the Sterling Silver Cup just given to the College by David W. Snow, Esq. '73, of Portland. It is twelve inches in height. On the front is engraved "Song Cup. David W. Snow '73." On the back are the first two measures from Walther's Prize Song from "Die Meistersinger." This cup is offered as an annual prize for the best class singing. This involves the organizing of a joint contest in which all four classes shall compete. The class doing the best work will hold the cup as a prize until the next annual contest. In some colleges, Amherst for example, such competitions have constituted one of the pleasantest features of college life. The Amherst men sing like a trained chorus and throngs gather on foot and in automobiles from the surrounding region to attend their open-air competition. For Bowdoin men the occasion offers itself as one of the few incentives now existing for the maintenance of a wholesome class spirit. The College owes hearty thanks to Mr. Snow for his generous aid toward establishing here a new and delightful custom—one likely to result at length in a large increase of Bowdoin songs.

Financial Loyalty Today it is necessary for the track manager to collect all subscriptions in order that a team may represent Bowdoin at the I.C.A.A.A.A. meet next Saturday. The track men deserve a chance to represent the college. If the unpaid subscriptions are not collected, it will be impossible for the team to make the trip. Let everyone concerned see the manager and pay him today.

INTERFRATERNITY GAMES

Phi Chi, 15; Alpha Kappa Kappa, 12

Phi Chi climbed another notch in the Interfraternity League by defeating the A. K. K. aggregation 15 to 12, May 25. The game was a free hitting contest. The score:

Innings: .......... 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 RHE
Phi Chi .......... 5 0 3 6 0 1 x—15 14 9
A. K. K. ............ 5 2 0 2 1 1—12 14 5

Batteries: Parcher and Doten; Johnson and Buck.

Phi Chi, 12; Delta Kappa Epsilon, 4—May 23

The game was loosely played but Atwood pitched a good game for the Phi Chis. Long drives were made by both teams.

Score by innings .......... 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 RHE
Phi Chi ............... 1 0 1 3 4 3 x—12 11 5
Delta Kappa Epsilon .. 0 0 1 1 0 2 0—4 4 6
Batteries: Atwood and Twaddle; Cox and Woodcock. Umpire, L. Brown. Time, 1 hr. 40 min.
Kappa Sigma, 9; Theta Delta Chi, 7—May 27

Innings: 1 2 3 4 5
Kappa Sigma 3 5 0 1 0—9
Theta Delta Chi 1 0 3 3 x—7
Batteries: Stetson and Snow, Dole and Tuttle.
Umpire, Purinton.

Delta Upsilon, 10; Psi Upsilon, 1—May 22
The game was characterized by the pitching of Pratt, who allowed his opponents only three hits.
Score by innings:........1 2 3 4 5 6 7 RHE
Delta Upsilon............0 2 8 0 0—10 8 3
Psi Upsilon..............0 0 0 0 1 0—1 3 6
Batteries: Pratt and Page; Wilson and Wing.
Umpire, Bull. Time, 1 hr. 32 min.

Delta Kappa Epsilon, 13; Beta Theta Pi, 12
It was a loosely played game, each team contributing several errors. Eastman played a steady game in left field for D. K. E.
Score by innings:........1 2 3 4 5 RHE
Delta Kappa Epsilon........3 4 2 4 x—13 5 7
Beta Theta Pi............5 0 6 1 0—12 12 5
Batteries: Stevens, Cox, and Woodcock; C. A. Brown and Robinson. Umpire, Bearce. Time, 1 hr. 30 min.

DEPARTMENT OF GERMAN—ANNOUNCEMENT FOR 1912-1913

First Year Course

Professor Ham.

Second Year Courses

German 3 and 4. Prose composition and drama (Schillier). Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday, 10.30.

Professor Files.

Professor Ham.

Courses 3, 4 and 5, 6 are elective for those who have passed in course 2 or who have been credited with German for admission.

Third Year Courses

German 7 and 8. History of German literature. Lectures in German and collateral reading. Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday, 11.30.

Professor Files.

German 9 and 10. Advanced course in rapid reading for a limited number of students. Monday, Wednesday, Friday, 9.30. Professor Ham.

German 11 and 12. The Life and Works of Goethe. Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday, 9.30. Professor Files.

Note.—Prerequisite for any of the third year courses: either German 3, 4 or 5, 6.

Fourth Year Courses

German 13 and 14. (Verein course). The Classical German Drama. Tuesday, 2.30 to 4.30.
Prerequisite: One of the third year courses. Professor Files.

German 15 and 16. Gothic and Old High German. Hours to be arranged. Professor Files and Ham.

CLUB AND COUNCIL MEETINGS

At the Orient and Quill Boards meeting held last Thursday, the plan for union of the business management of the two boards with amendments was adopted unanimously and will be referred back to the Student Council.

The Sophomore Class held a meeting last Thursday noon at which it was decided to hold a class banquet as usual in June. A committee to be appointed by the president was authorized to make all arrangements.

The banquet will be held at the West End Hotel, Portland, Saturday, June 8.

The banquet committee consists of P. Fox, S. Chase, R. Payson, F. Callahan, C. Bickford, E. Thompson, L. Gibson, W. Cunliffe, and R. Buell.

At a meeting of the Bowdoin College Golf Club held in the Deutscher Verein room of Hubbard Hall last Tuesday the following officers were elected: President, C. J. Mead; Secretary, W. H. Johnson; and Treasurer, K. A. Robinson.

The Deutscher Verein met last Thursday evening at New Meadows Inn as the guests of Professor Files. After a banquet, Professor Schubert of Bates gave a talk on the German Army in German and German songs were sung. Professors Johnson and Ham and Mr. Fifield were present.

The joint Cabinet meeting of the Y.M.C.A. will take place at New Meadows Inn on Monday evening, June 3. This year's cabinet will meet that for next year, and the prospects for the ensuing year will be discussed. The members will then partake of a shore dinner.

The Juniors will replace the usual class banquet with a Junior Field Day, to be held tomorrow afternoon. Two hay racks containing the members of the class will leave the campus at 1:20 P. M. for Gurnet. A baseball game and track events will be among the order of events in the afternoon. Dinner will be enjoyed at 6 P. M., and the return will be made before curfew in the evening. A special committee, consisting of one member from each fraternity, has been appointed by President Crosby to have charge of the affair.

---

On the Campus

The Board of Proctors for next year will consist of the following: Lawrence A. Crosby, Cedric R. Crowell, Leon E. Jones, Douglas H. McMurtrie, James A. Norton and Philip Shaw Wood.

The Garnet will open Memorial Day.

Jimmy Hamburger '10 was on the campus last Sunday.

E. W. Freeman '85 was on the campus for the week end.

Dean Sills addressed the Bath teachers last Thursday night.

Charles L. Oxnard '11 has been visiting the campus for the last few days.

Ivan C. Merrill '15 was initiated into Theta Delta Chi Fraternity last Thursday.

Professor Mitchell will deliver the Memorial Day address in Brunswick this year.

If amateur inspectors count for anything this ought to be the most perfectly built Gym in the country.

Dana Merrill '14 is president again this year of the flourishing Portland Grammar School Athletic League.

Theta Delta Chi and Delta Kappa Epsilon will hold a joint dance in the chapter house of the latter, Wednesday evening of Ivy week.

On Wednesday evening, June 26, preceding the President's Reception, there will be an illumination of the campus and a band concert.

One of the features of Ivy week this year will be the Coming of Columbus at the Postime. This is planned for those who wrote too late.

Professor Hornell has been added to the committee of the faculty on non-fraternity men, which already consists of Prof. Nixon and Mr. Wilder.

After two unsuccessful attempts to play the Maine game, it was finally pulled off yesterday afternoon. The box-score will appear in the next issue.

J. S. Brown '13 will represent the Bowdoin chapter of Kappa Sigma at the national conclave of the fraternity to be held at Louisville, Kentucky, July 10, 11, 12.

Why not a Board of Arbitration to settle the labor differences on the new Gym? We suggest Professor Catlin, Assistant Professor Douglas, and James C. McBain.

A band concert was held on the campus last Friday evening, until the weather man, probably thinking that we were trying to slip over a baseball game on him, sent a first class shower.

The annual convention of Psi Upsilon Fraternity is to be held June 5-7 in New York City with the chapter at Columbia University. L. Pratt '13 is to be the delegate from the Bowdoin chapter.

The board of directors of the Interfraternity Baseball League has decided to continue the schedule, although this will necessitate a number of morning games. Why not have a six o'clock bell?

The Orient wishes to announce that the reporter who wrote last week's baseball article saying "Colby is out of the running" has been discharged since last Wednesday's game with that institution. Maine State papers please copy.

At the trials for the Alexander Prize-Speaking held May 22, the following men were chosen to take part in the final contest on June 24: G. W. Bacon '15, C. R. Crowell '13, P. H. Douglas '13, J. E. Dunphy '13, G. A. Hall '15, R. D. Leigh '14, G. A. MacWilliams '15, W. F. Twombly '14, and J. F. Weintz '15. The first, second, and third alternates are K. E. Ramsay '15, W. T. Livingston '15, and P. S. Smith '15 in the order named. The judges were Prof. Warren B. Catlin, Prof. Orren C. Hornell, and Mr. Ernest G. Fifield.

A special meeting of 1915 was held in the Gymnasium Thursday noon to make plans for the class banquet. Pres. McWilliams was elected toastmaster, and Doc. Merrill was chosen to write the ode. A committee, consisting of MacDonald (chairman), Field, MacCormick, McKenney and Mannix, were chosen to have charge of the banquet. Roberts and Woodbury were appointed as a cane committee.

---

With the Faculty

SUMMER PLANS

President Hyde will spend a large part of his summer in Brunswick so that he may be in close touch with the work going on at the College.

Prof. Chapman will summer at his home on Federal St.

Prof. Woodruff is planning to spend the summer at his cottage on Caspian Lake, Greensborough, Vt.

The preparation of the General Catalogue of 1912, which is to be issued at Commencement, has necessarily postponed much of the routine work of the library, and Dr. Little is planning to confine his vacation to the month of August to be spent at his cottage at Mere Point.
Prof. Moody will make his headquarters at Brunswick this summer. He expects to attend the meeting of the American Mathematical Society in New York shortly before college opens.

Prof. Files will summer at his new house on Mere Point.

Prof. Hutchins will remain on the campus for some time to supervise the insulating of the heating pipes which run from the main plant to the respective buildings. Later in the summer he anticipates a trip to the Moosehead region.

Dr. Whittier will continue to supervise the erection of the new Gym during the summer. He also is planning to do some hospital work in Boston and New York, and will attend the meeting of the International Congress on Hygiene and Demography.

Prof. Mitchell will spend the summer at his home in Brunswick.

Dr. Burnett expects to sail the first of August on a thirteen months' trip to Europe to visit France, Germany, Italy and Greece.

Prof. Ham will make his headquarters in Brunswick this summer.

Dean Sills is planning to spend some time this summer at St. Andrews, New Brunswick.

Dr. Copeland will carry on experimental work this summer in the laboratory of the U. S. Fish Commission at Woods Hole, Mass.

Dr. Cram sails June 6 for England and Italy; he will return the last of August to attend the Eighth International Congress of Applied Chemistry at New York.

Prof. Lunt will be in Brunswick and Cambridge this summer doing research work.

Prof. Davis will have charge of the work in reading and speaking at Columbia University Summer School the same as last year. Later he is planning a trip to the Katahdin region.

Prof. Nixon will teach a course in the Latin department of the University of Chicago this summer.

Prof. Catlin will spend some time visiting the labor centers of the north and studying the labor conditions there. He will later go to his home in Lincoln, Nebraska.

Assistant Librarian Wilder will spend a month at Pembroke, after which he will return to the library.

Dr. Loomis will spend the summer at his home in Madison, Wis.

Asst. Professor Alvord is to be married the last week in June and after his honeymoon trip he and his bride will return to their new home in Brunswick.

Prof. Johnson will spend much of his summer in Brunswick at work on a new catalogue of the Art Collection of the College. The importance of this collection and of a comprehensive catalogue of it can be appreciated when it is known that some two thousand visitors, many of them people of note in the world of art, enter our art building every summer.

CALENDAR

Tuesday, May 28.—New England Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament at Longwood Courts.
Baseball: 6 A. M., Non-Frats vs. Psi Upsilon.
4 P. M., Theta Delta Chi vs. Psi Upsilon.

Wednesday, 29.—New England Delta Chi vs. Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Thursday, 30.—Memorial Day, a holiday.
Bowdoin vs. Bates at Lewiston.
Bowdoin Tennis Team plays Portland Country Club on Portland courts.

Friday, 31.—Bowdoin Interscholastic Tennis Tournament.
Examination for Class of 1875 History Prize.
Psi Upsilon House Party and Reception.

Saturday, June 1.—Bowdoin Interscholastic Tennis Tournament.
Friar Initiation at Riverton Park, Portland.
Baseball: 4 P. M., Kappa Sigma vs. Zeta Psi.
Philo Sherman Bennett Government Prize and Reception.

Sunday, 2.—Final College Preacher, Rev. G. G. Atkins of Providence, R. I., at the Church on the Hill.

Monday, 3.—Meeting of the New Central Committee at the Kappa Sigma House for organization.

Tuesday, 4.—Final Meeting of the Deutscher Verein at New Meadows Inn.

Wednesday, 5.—Zeta Psi House Party and Reception.
Delta Kappa Epsilon-Theta Delta Chi Dance.

Thursday, 6.—Presentation of "A Pair of Spectacles" by Masque and Gown at Town Hall.

Friday, 7.—Ivy Day.
Bowdoin vs. Bates, Whittier Field, 10 A. M.
Junior Exercises, Memorial Hall, 2:30 P. M.
Seniors' Last Chapel, 4:30 P. M.
Ivy Hop, 9 P. M.
Alumni Department

'53.—The Orient regrets to announce the death of Col. William P. Drew, one of Bowdoin's most loyal and most interesting alumni. Mr. Drew died at his home in Lansdowne, Penn., after a brief illness subsequent to a paralytic shock.

Mr. Drew was born at Augusta, eighty-two years ago, the son of Rev. W. A. Drew. He prepared for college at Phillips-Exeter and entered this college in the sophomore year. He was a classmate and dear friend of the late Chief Justice Fuller.

After graduation, Mr. Drew took graduate work at Harvard, specializing in Greek and Latin. From there he went to Tufts to accept the position of Professor of Greek and Latin.

The position which he held in the world of letters is shown by the fact that at the request of Dr. Joseph Worcester, he was a collaborator in the compilation of the Worcester's Unabridged Dictionary which has been an undisputed authority in matters pertaining to English.

Mr. Drew's activity at the time of the Civil War is notable. At the beginning of the war, he was secretary to Maine's war governor, Hon. Israel Washburne. At the close of the war, that other famous alumnus, Gen. Oliver O. Howard, who was at the head of the Freemens' Bureau, appointed Mr. Drew head of the department of confiscated and abandoned lands, which office he most honorably filled until the Bureau passed out of existence. Mr. Drew was then appointed, his ability having been clearly shown in the previous position, Comptroller of Currency of the United States Treasury Department and served in that office for twenty years.

He was a quiet, scholarly man, whose real worth was not appreciated except by those few friends who in their close companionship realized the sterling qualities of the man. However, his quiet and pleasing manner made him one of the most respected citizens of Lansdowne where he resided for eighty years. An evidence of high position he held among his fellow citizens is that from Oct. 3, 1905 until his death, he held the position of Librarian of the local Free Library, and under his management the efficiency of this institution was greatly increased.

Mr. Drew's demise will be sincerely regretted by many of the older Bowdoin graduates who probably realized better than those of the outside world the admirable qualities of this quiet unostentatious man.

'52.—Bowdoin men will be interested to learn that General Joshua L. Chamberlain has received from President Taft a reappointment as Surveyor of the Port of Portland. Gen. Chamberlain has held this office for the past eight years. His loyalty has made him beloved by the undergraduates as well as the alumni of the college.

'55.—The poem delivered by the late S. S. Gardner at his Commencement has been added to the College's store of interesting manuscripts. This was possible through the kindness of Raymond Fellows, Esq., of Bangor.

'58.—In the new Samuel Brown school building at Peabody, Mass., has been placed a memorial tablet to the honor of this illustrious graduate. This tablet is of bronze and bears the following inscription:

In memory of

—SAMUEL BROWN—
born Feb. 61, 1836.
A native of South Danvers
A graduate of her public schools
And Bowdoin College, Class of 1858.
In the early days of the Civil War
He organized and was commissioned Captain Co. D, 16th Conn. Volunteers and was killed at the Battle of Antietam
Sept. 17, 1862.
A citizen, schoolmaster, and soldier
Admired and Esteemed.

'66.—Prof. Henry L. Chapman has recently been elected a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

'77.—Mr. Charles W. Morse has recently returned from a trip abroad. While there he toured Italy and Germany. When he left this country his health was despaired of, but traveling and the medical treatment that he received abroad has improved his condition greatly. The citizens of his home town, Bath, are planning a celebration in his honor when he shall return to it.

'11.—Arthur H. Cole '11 has been awarded a scholarship in economics at Harvard.

UNIVERSITY OF MAINE
SUMMER TERM

June 26 to August 6, 1912.

Offers college courses for students to make up conditions in the following subjects:

Advanced courses in these subjects may also be taken to count toward a degree.

For circular address,

Robert J. Aley, President, Orono, Maine
Program

Dramatic Club Play, (Thurs. Even'g)
Baseball, Bowdoin vs. Bates, 10 A. M.
Ivy Exercises, 2.30 P. M.
Seniors' Last Chapel, 4.30 P. M.
Ivy Hop, 9 P. M.
MASQUE AND GOWN PLAY—IVY EVE

The first of the Ivy Week festivities was the annual play produced by the Masque and Gown, the College Dramatic Club. This year the club presented "A Pair of Spectacles" in the Town Hall, before a good sized audience. The parts were well taken, the leading characters being assumed by old favorites. Cedric Crowell as Uncle Gregory and Artie Welch as Benjamin Goldfinch were especially good.

THE BUGLE—IVY MORNING

The 1913 edition of the Bugle—the sixty-seventh volume of Bowdoin's annual publication—appeared this morning. The book this year is a good-sized volume, attractively bound in gray cloth with red lettering—red and gray being the class colors of 1913. The cover design is extremely simple but effective—being the Bowdoin seal under the words "Bugle—1913."

In contents this edition is the largest ever published, containing 310 pages of reading matter exclusive of advertisements. It is divided into the usual departments—the statistics of the college, the faculty, the classes and the fraternities; the Medical School of Maine, with its faculty, students and fraternities; the undergraduate activities, literary, social and athletic; and finally, the "grinds"—the humorous section of the book with the usual hits on the undergraduates and faculty, the class statistics and the college calendar for the year.

The volume is dedicated by the class to Franklin Conant Payson, LL.D. '76, of Portland, at present a trustee of the College.

The book was published this year by Burleigh & Flint of Augusta and bound by the F. H. Gilson Company of Boston. Its appearance is a decided credit to the publishers.

The editorial board which has issued the book is elected by the junior class from the various fraternities and the non-fraternity men. It is made up as follows: Laurence A. Crosby, editor-in-chief; Albert P. Cushman, business manager; Edward O. Baker, Charles R. Bull, Cedric R. Crowell, John E. Dunphy, Daniel E. Gardner, Icinn E. Jones, Luther C. Whittier, associate editors; and Douglas H. McMurtrie, art editor.

IVY DAY BASEBALL GAME—10.00 A.M.

The feature of Ivy morning was the annual game with Bates on Whittier Field. This was Bowdoin's last home game this year and was the last appearance of Capt. Means, the star twirler, Brooks, Grant and Joy, all sterling players. The Orient goes to press too early to record the result of the contest. Below is the Maine college standing to date, not including this morning's game:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Won</th>
<th>Lost</th>
<th>P.C.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Maine</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>.833</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bates</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>.500</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Colby</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>.400</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bowdoin</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>.200</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

IVY EXERCISES—2.30 P.M.

ORATION

THE PENSION SYSTEM (AN ABSTRACT)

A short time ago a party of sightseers were touring the capital of the United States for the first time. "On your right," said the guide, pointing to a huge brick structure, "is the Great National HAND-OUT, the Government Free-lunch Counter. If any one of you runs out of cash while in Washington, go to your Congressman, he will see that you have pin-money for the rest of your life."

One man of that party was inquisitive and asked what the "Great National Hand-out" was. "The Pension Office," was the answer. The man was patriotic also, and was annoyed, to say the least, at hearing the Pension Office thus sneered at, and asked the guide why he had spoken in that manner. "Do you know anything about the conduct of that Pension Bureau?" the guide in turn asked. The man confessed that he did not. "Then you had better find out," was the laconic reply.

We must first of all realize that the regulations governing the granting of pensions are made by Congress and administered by a Pension Board appointed by the President. This board, however, has never been compelled to present any itemized report to Congress, aside from giving the total number of pensioners on the rolls, and the total sum paid them. Furthermore the public has always been denied the privilege of examining the records, and so it is seen that this board is allowed free rein to conduct the department as it wishes, with no one being the wiser. Another possible basis for political corruption was furnished when Congress reserved the right to pass certain pension bills granting pensions to those who could not get them under the ordinary laws, and thus Congress, is likewise allowed to manipulate the system as it may desire.

After the Civil War these opportunities were at once taken advantage of by a class of men who were largely responsible for the unfortunate condition which exists today; I refer to the claim agents or pension attorneys. As illustrating the methods used by these gentlemen we may take the agency conducted by one George Lemon, who for fifteen years did the largest pension business. Lemon formed alliances with the different Pension Administrations and with influential Congressmen, and was frank in advertising that he was in a position to secure the granting of almost any kind of claim, and that he would charge no fee in any case unless the claim was granted. To spread this glorious news among the veterans he published the “National Tribune,” ostensibly an independent old-soldier newspaper, but conducted for the sole purpose of his fraudulent pension business. This newspaper enjoyed a large circulation, and the combination worked so successfully that Lemon is said to have made over half a million dollars yearly. The other pension attorneys do not make so much money, but their methods are the same, and they are responsible for the fraud and corruption which exists today.

We have before noted that the Pension Board is allowed to do much as it pleases, since all that it does is kept secret. Much depends, then, on these men in charge of the Bureau. Beginning with Cleveland’s first administration, so that our investigation may not seem too much like ancient history, a review of the records of the Pension Commissioners during Cleveland’s two administrations and Harrison’s administration shows that, with the exception of William Lochren, the last Commissioner under Cleveland, all these officers were inexcusably extravagant in the granting of pensions. Lochren’s business-like administration brought down storms of protest from those who had been profiting from the wasteful system and was the most important factor in the Democratic defeat of 1888.

The Republican party coming into power with this old-soldier patronage was compelled to refrain from any pension reform since, the only attempt, one made by Commissioner Evans in McKinley’s administration, being promptly nipped in the bud by sending the too conscientious Commissioner abroad to occupy a Consulship. This old-soldier vote is constantly being catered to by passing more generous pension legislation, and it is a significant fact that one of the last acts the present administration did before entering into the present campaign was an appeal to this old-soldier vote in the form of a pension bill which will swell the total yearly amount spent for pensions 30 million dollars. Already the yearly appropriation amounts to $65 million dollars, a sum absolutely beyond comprehension, more than the annual expense of maintaining the whole British Army. Congress is constantly made brilliant with the pyrotechnic oratory let loose in behalf of more generous pensions, and a recent speech of Mr. Cannon’s, describing the awful suffering of the soldiers and the ungratefulness of this country, is said by one magazine writer to have brought tears to the eyes of the marble effigies in Statuary Hall.

To remedy this alleged stinginess on the part of the Pension Bureau, Congress passes several thousand acts each session granting pensions to those who cannot get them from the Bureau. Each Congressman has a certain number assigned him for distribution among his friends. In order to make it difficult for an investigator to discover whether the beneficiaries of these special acts are worthy or not their addresses are not given, the act reading:—“To grant a pension of $100 a month to John Jones of the 6th Mass. Infantry,” and there is no way of discovering whether Jones lives in Colusa, Cal., or Mexico, Me., unless his comrades choose to give the information.

Cleveland said in one of his messages to Congress, “If the veterans of the war knew all that was going on in the matter of granting pensions by private bills they would be more disgusted than any other class of citizens,” and we believe this to be true. To include in the pension list among the names of worthy soldiers, the names of thieves, cowards, drunken rowdies, embezzlers, and deserters is an insult to our Union Army as monstrous as it is undeserved, and it is only because the rank and file of those remaining are largely ignorant of the true condition of affairs that it is allowed to exist. Is there any good reason why the pension records should be kept secret? Some may say, “Spare the old soldier the publicity of being known the object of charity.” But he would not be so regarded. A pension roll should be, and a purified pension roll would be, indeed a roll of honor, and like all rolls of honor, like that roll of honor we of Bowdoin so prize and love, should be placed where all could read and understand.

When, by the force of a stimulated public opinion, this is done, then and only then, can we as Americans point with honest pride to our policy of paying to the soldiers who fought for us a portion of that debt we owe them; and then and only then, will this pension system cease to be a sacrifice against the memory of the noble dead in whose name it is perpetuated; then, and only then, will it cease to be a standing insult to those veterans who remain; and instead of being a disgrace, become the pride of all patriotic Americans.

POEM

The Song of the Fool.
The golden sun played o'er the court, And spread his shadows on the tiles; Then, wearying, in idle sport He thrust his finger in the fountain, whiles It's shattered shaft to fragments fell About the base. At last the fool He sought, who dreamed and spurned To join his pranks; for in the cool Recesses of the court he sat, Content to watch him at his play. The air grew languid with the heat so that The fool at last did nod, and lay Upon his bench and slept. Then grew The sun more bold and crept Up to the slipper of the fool and blew Upon his eyes his light-beams as he slept.

"Sir fool," (the voice was as a knell,) "His Majesty demands a song, And in it thou shalt tell The glories of the court. So fine a throng Must not remain unsung:"

The fool, his eyes yet caught in sleep, Looked up dismayed and saw The Chamberlain, a wileful man and deep, Of haughty mien, whose word was law. "A song, my Lord? The sun has tricked my brain, And sleep befogged mine eye. A song, my Lord? But list you, I am fain To rest and would not try My slender voice, my Lord." "The task is set—no word will gain Thee time. Thy song prepare, Or ere this sun shall set again, Thou diest! Come, Thy song prepare."

Through the windows drifted music In a dreamy low refrain— Loud bassoon and silver flute tones, Violins in treble strain. 'Midst the music, like a cobweb, Laughter floated low and clear; All the court was at its pleasure— To the fool his death was near!

Drawn by some resistless impulse, Past the grooms he slowly went, To an alcove where in darkness On the court his eye he bent. All unseen (an arras hid him) There he crouched and watched the play Of the rainbow colors flashing In the myriad tapers' ray.

Quick his heart leaped up, and highly Beat, for surely it was true: There was wealth of grace to sing of, Something old and something new!

But soon he felt his ardor cool: He knew them all too well, and they— Full well they knew he was a fool Who could but give them platitudes. Yet had the king commanded, So Perforce he'd sing and give them what He could; then to his dreaming go.

Again he turned to watch the crowd, And looking, mused he thus: Now there is Stidge, the scientific man, Who sees the world in figure and in form. He gazes at you as you were a wall, And finds your smile is just below the norm. Poor court! he long has learned you all, And put you in his catalogue; and can You by a word escape his dreadful law?

And there is Bingle standing by the Queen— A social bird that Bingle. With what grace He dances—never tires. By his talk, I ween, You'd call him brainless. Not a trace Of worthy thought he owns!

The fool looked on, and saw his hope decay; I might extol the soldiers—they at least are strong; But, Heaven, they are gloried every day! Do not the heralds over all the land Proclaim their worth, these soldiers nine? Oh, they will never do. Each courtly band Has soldiers nine who fight, and what's to say About such men as they?
I cannot sing of Kidge though he be wise
And wear a golden key; for without books
He is a very dole, and though he tries
He cannot say a human word, but looks
About with vacant stare. Yet ranks he high,
And all the books he's read he knows by heart.
But think of all the joy he lets go by!

But see that dreadful cripple by the door,
His brows all bound in ivy-chaplets gay,
And in his clutch a poet's scroll bedight
With words. Oh, that is Mudge. Each year
He wails an Ivy Poem, that is a crazy flight
Of words. The lines go limping short and long (Small wonder the poor bard looks weak and worn!)
But all the court talks on; they hear no sound,
While Mudge wails on in vain his silly song.

The music flagged; the lights within the hall
Grew dim. The dancers left by two and two;
But still the fool watched on till all
Were gone. Then he, despairing, near the window drew,
And pondered long. "So fine a throng
Must not remain unsung."
Forsooth, a goodly throng. But lo, my voice is dead.
I cannot sing! So wept the fool, and bowed his head.

The silver sandalled dawn stole out apace,
And from her shoulders fell the cloak of night.
Reluctant still she hid her smiling face
And hovered shyly on the dewy height.

She looked upon the city in the plain,
All silent as the dwellings of the dead;
She saw the sleeping castle, and again
She saw the fool with mournful lowered head.

At first with sleepy hand,
And then more bold and true,
The sun pushed back from off the land,
The sulky shadows. Then anew,
In radiant strength he leaped
Above the hill, and laughed
For joy to see the fool so steeped
In woe, for all his dreamer's craft.

O, fool, awake, awake,
And see how wags the world!
Bewail thee not, but take

Fresh hope, and hear the song
That joyous nature sings.
Then tell the court, nor fear
Its kindly wrath, nor stings.

The willing fool heard nature's melody
And sang it to the waiting court that noon.

PRESENTATIONS

King—crown          Frederic S. Wiggins
Jester—cap and bells  Kendrick Burns
Duke—monocle         Alfred Henry Sweet
Anarchist—bomb       Paul Howard Douglas Popular man—wooden spoon Philip Shaw Wood

PLANTING OF THE IVY

This custom follows the Ivy exercises. While the young shoot is being planted the class will sing the following ode:

AIR:—Wake, Freshman, Wake
O, Bowdoin, our Mother,
Rejoicing, we serve thee,
And plant our Ivy to thine honored name.
Our voices together,
We raise to acclaim thee,
And pay our homage to thy loving fame.

CHORUS
Hail! hail! Bowdoin hail!
We, the class of '13 sing thy praise.
This cry our token
That our love is unbroken,
And that we cherish all our college days.

Accept our class tribute,
Our love for thy guidance
And teach our class to ever honor thee
With heartfelt emotion,
And deathless devotion,
Until the years of time shall cease to be.

CHORUS
—E. O. Baker.

SENIOR'S LAST CHAPEL—4.30 P.M.

According to tradition a regular chapel service is held on the afternoon of Ivy Day which the Seniors attend en masse going through the familiar chapel service for the last time as undergraduates, marching out at its close singing the customary song to the tune of Old Lang Syne. For the rest of the year the Seniors are not required to attend the morning chapel service.

IVY HOP—9.00 P.M.

The Ivy festivities will be brought to a close this evening with the annual Ivy Hop in Memorial Class Officers

L. A. Crosby
President

P. S. Wood
Popular Man

M. W. Greene
Orator

L. W. Smith
Marshal

E. O. Baker
Poet
L. G. MEANS
Captain Baseball Team

F. S. WIGGIN
Manager Baseball Team

HUBBARD GRAND STAND

A. P. CUSHMAN
Manager of Bugle

A. D. WELCH
President of Dramatic Club

J. E. DUNPHY
Manager of Dramatic Club
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY OF THE COLLEGIATE YEAR
BY THE STUDENTS OF
BOWDOIN COLLEGE

EDITORIAL BOARD

Douglas H. McMurtrie, 1913, Editor-in-Chief
Robert D. Leigh, 1914, Managing Editor
Fred D. Wish, Jr., 1913, Alumni Editor

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

W. R. Spinney, 1913
L. E. Jones, 1913
V. R. Leavitt, 1913
D. K. Merrill, 1914
J. F. Rollins, 1915

H. B. Walker, 1913, Business Manager
E. L. Sylvester, 1914, Assistant Manager

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni, and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted. All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager.

Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

Entered at Post-Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII. JUNE 7, 1912 No. 9

HALL. A reception will be held from eight to nine o'clock after which there will be dancing until daylight.

The patronesses are Mrs. Johnson, Miss Chapman, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. Moody, Mrs. Hutchins, Mrs. Ham, Mrs. H. B. Peters, Mrs. Copeland, Mrs. Lunt, Mrs. Nixon, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Hornell.

Music for an order of twenty-six dances will be furnished by Frank Kendrie and his orchestra of sixteen pieces.

The catering will be done by Pooler of Portland.

The committee in charge is Leon E. Jones, chairman; Robert W. Belknap, Stanley F. Dole, Clifton O. Page, Paul C. Savage.

PSI UPSILON HOUSE PARTY

The Psi Upsilon Fraternity held its annual house party at the Chapter House on Friday, May 31. The affair included a reception to the friends of the fraternity from three to five o'clock in the afternoon.

In the receiving line were Mrs. G. T. Files, Mrs. L. S. Emery, Mrs. H. B. Peters, Mrs. Henry Johnson and Mrs. Hartley Baxter. The members of the house party committee were L. Pratt ’13, A. Cushman ’13, E. Payson ’14, and K. Eaton ’15.

Music was furnished by Lovell’s orchestra of Brunswick. The patronesses at the dance in the evening were the same as those in the receiving line in the afternoon. G. L. Shaw Co. of Portland were the caterers.

Among the guests present were Misses Janet Peters, Margaret Starbird, Woodfords; Frances Crosman, Blanche Libbey, Portland; Ellen Baxter, Sarah Baxter, Brunswick; Marie Ranney, Belmont, Mass.; Louise Cushman, Bangor; Helen Copeland, Newton Centre, Mass.; Lucy Jacobs, Thomaston; Edwina Quincy, Dorchester, Mass.; Elizabeth Houghton, Louise Harriman, Bath.

ZETA PSI HOUSE PARTY

The Zeta Psi Fraternity held its annual house party at the Chapter House on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. A reception was held on Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 5. In the receiving line were Mrs. Henry Johnson, Brunswick; Mrs. George M. Chapman, Fairfield; Mrs. Scott A. Simpson, Portland; Mrs. William E. Lunt and Mrs. Roscoe J. Ham, Brunswick.

Punch was served by Mrs. Frederick W. Brown, Brunswick; tea by Mrs. Paul Nixon, Brunswick; and coffee by Mrs. J. C. Lunt, Portland. Music was furnished by Kendrie’s Orchestra.

Among the guests present were Miss Margaret Timberlake, Lancaster, N. H.; Misses Marion Greene and Florence Emery, Madison; Misses Martha O’Brien, Lyda Chenery and Hilda Laughlin, Portland; Miss Gladys Umberline, Topsham; Miss Winonna Vannah, Winslow’s Mills; Miss Elizabeth White, South Portland; Misses Mary Emery, Gertrude Emery and Ethel Mitchell, Skowhegan; Misses Loretta Lapointe and Alberta Graves, Brunswick; Miss Lena Blanchard, Augusta; Miss Helen Berry, Newton, Mass.; Miss Mildred Goddard, Lynn, Mass.; Miss Alberta Rumph, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The program of the house party consisted of a reception and dance on Wednesday, a trip to the Garnet House, and the Dramatic Club play on Thursday, and the Ivy Day exercises on Friday. The committee in charge was R. E. Foss ’12, chairman; P. C. Lunt ’13, R. E. Simpson ’14, and G. W. Ricker ’15.

JOINT DANCE

The Theta Delta Chi and Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternities held a joint dance at the D. K. E. house last Wednesday evening. Before the dance the party took dinner at the Inn. Music was furnished by Arlington’s of Portland; refreshments were provided by Given.
STUDENT ELECTIONS MONDAY

The Student Council held a meeting Monday at which time it was decided to hold the annual Spring election next Monday evening in Memorial Hall. At this meeting elections will be held for members of the Student Council, assistant managers of Track, Baseball, Tennis, and Fence and managers of the same. Members of the Athletic Council will be elected also. The Council also prepared finally the proposed constitution for the Associated Student Body plan and the constitution of the new Bowdoin Publishing Co., a part of the blanket tax scheme. A new plan of electing assistant managers will also be submitted to the student body. Copies of the proposed constitutions are posted in the various fraternity houses and at the bulletin board in the Library, so that the student body may have a chance to examine the plan carefully before Monday evening when they will be voted upon. This will be the most important student meeting of the year.

BOWDOIN, 5; MAINE, 6—MAY 27

In one of the most exciting games ever played on Whittier Field, Maine won from Bowdoin, 6 to 5. Maine got away with a big lead in the first four innings. Bowdoin came strong at the finish and was barely defeated in a stirring last inning rally.

The game abounded in long hits. The score:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>BOWDOIN</th>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>bh</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Weatherill, 2b</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Skolfield, cf</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tilton, 3b</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LaCasee, If, rf</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Grant, rf</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Means, p</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brooks, c</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>0</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cooley, ss</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Joy, 1b</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>12</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Russell, If</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Totals</td>
<td>34</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>27</td>
<td>11</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>MAINE</th>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>bh</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Gilman, 3b</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cobb, ss</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Abbott, c</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>10</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stobie, p</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Witham, 1b</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>0</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hosmer, If</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Baker, rf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pickard, 2b</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>McCarthy, cf</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Totals</td>
<td>37</td>
<td>6</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>27</td>
<td>14</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Bowdoin 0 0 1 0 0 2 1 1—5
Maine 2 2 1 0 0 0 0 0—6

BOWDOIN, 2; BATES, 1—JUNE 4

Bates' pennant hopes were dashed Tuesday when Bowdoin triumphed in a hard fought game, 2 to 1. Both pitchers were in great form. But four hits were made by either side. Captain Means fanned 15 of his opponents, and 12 were retired by Stinson. The prettiest fielding play of the game was contributed by Link Skolfield, when he captured a hit from Talbot's bat which looked good for three bases, at least. The score:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>BOWDOIN</th>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>bh</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Weatherill, 2b</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Skolfield, cf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tilton, 3b</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LaCasee, If, rf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Russell, lf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Means, p</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brooks, c</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>15</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cooley, ss</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Joy, 1b</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Totals</td>
<td>33</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>27</td>
<td>7</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>BATES</th>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>bh</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Ridlon, 2b</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reagan, 1b</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>7</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Talbot, cf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Griffin, c</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>14</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cody, 3b</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Shepherd, lf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Danahy, rf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Keaney, ss</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stinson, p</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Totals</td>
<td>33</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>27</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Bowdoin 0 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 0—2
Bates 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0—1

INTERFRATERNITY BASEBALL

Kappa Sigma, 11; Zeta Psi, 8—June 1

Score by innings:............

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Kappa Sigma</th>
<th>1 2 3 4 5 6</th>
<th>RHE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Zeta Psi</td>
<td>1 2 3 4 5 6</td>
<td>11 10 5</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Non-Fraternity, 5; Zeta Psi, 1

Non-Fraternity, 5; Zeta Psi, 1

Innings:............

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Non-Fraternity</th>
<th>1 2 3 4 5 6</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Zeta Psi</td>
<td>1 2 3 4 5 6</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Batteries: Willett, A. Stetson and Snow; L.

Stetson and Badger. Umpire, Leonard.

BOWDOIN ORIENT

Meet and New England Intercollegiate. He was developed as an athlete entirely since entering college and his popularity and qualities as a leader make him an ideal captain for next year’s team.

The tennis team will not elect a captain this spring owing to the fact that the loss of all the matches made none eligible for the Tennis “B.” The election will probably be held at the termination of the Fall Tournament.

The Friars held their annual initiation and banquet at Riverton on Saturday evening. The initiates were Horace A. Barton, Clarence A. Brown, Louis A. Donahue, Alfred E. Gray and Elroy O. LaCasce, all of 1914.

CLUB AND COUNCIL MEETINGS

The Y.M.C.A. held its annual joint cabinet meeting at New Meadows Inn, Monday, June 3. A large number attended and a good time was enjoyed by all.

The Class in English 7 is to hold a banquet at New Meadows Inn Tuesday evening, June 11. As one of the features of the course is after dinner speaking and post prandial forensics, there is expected to be a lively interest in that part of the evening’s entertainment. W. R. Spinney ’13 is in charge of the affair.

A meeting of the Somerset County Club was held at the Zeta Psi House, Friday evening, May 31, and the following officers were elected: President, C. B. Haskell ’13; Vice-President, E. O. LaCasce ’14; Secretary-Treasurer, A. S. Merril ’14; Executive Committee, F. I. Cowan ’13, O. P. Badger ’14, E. H. Austin ’15.

ATHLETIC RESULTS

EASTERN INTERCOLLEGIATE

Bowdoin’s only representative at the Eastern Intercollegiate Track Meet in Philadelphia Saturday, Harry Faulkner, took third place in the broad jump with a leap of 22 feet, 3 ½ inches. Pennsylvania won the meet with 28 points, Cornell was second with 17 ½ points, Michigan third with 15, and Harvard and Columbia tied for fourth with 13 points. The world’s record in the pole vault was broken and new college records set up in the two-mile, quarter, half-mile, and shot put.

BOWDOIN INTERSCHOLASTIC TENNIS

The Bowdoin Interscholastic Tennis Tournament was pulled off last Saturday with six schools competing: Bangor High, Portland High, Cony High, Edward Little High, Hebron, and Thornton. Ennis of Thornton captured the honors in singles, and Whitehouse and Mansfield of Portland High in doubles.

LONGWOOD TOURNAMENT

Amherst won first place in both singles and

ELECTIONS

The following men from the Junior Class were elected to the Ibis at the recent elections: L. A. Crosby, C. R. Crowell, E. O. Baker, J. E. Dunphy and B. E. Holt. The initiation and banquet will be held Saturday night.

The Band held an election of officers for next year Tuesday evening, June 4. J. A. Lewis ’15 was elected leader and C. A. Brown ’14 was chosen manager.

At a meeting of the Track “B” men held at Webber’s studio last Tuesday noon, Charlie Haskell ’13 was unanimously elected captain of next year’s track team. Haskell won his letter this year as a member of the cross country team, relay team, and track team, both in the Maine State

DIVISION A

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Won</th>
<th>Lost</th>
<th>P.C.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Delta Upsilon</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Non-Fraternity</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kappa Sigma</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Psi Upsilon</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Zeta Psi</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Theta Delta Chi</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

DIVISION B

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Won</th>
<th>Lost</th>
<th>P.C.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Phi Chi</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Beta Theta Pi</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alpha Delta Phi</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Delta Kappa Epsilon</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alpha Kappa Kappa</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
doubles in the New England Tennis Tournament at Longwood last week, Johnston and Miller winning the doubles and Johnston the singles. Bowdoin's team was defeated in the preliminary rounds. In the singles Bacon of Wesleyan, who was runner-up, beat Capt. MacCormick, and Con- ger of Williams beat Shepherd, and in the doubles Nelson and Webber of Dartmouth beat Shepherd and Chapman.

NEW BOWDOIN SONG PUBLISHED
Professor Chapman's song "Onward Bowdoin" has been set to music and printed, and David W. Snow, Esq. '73, the donor of the "Song Cup," has made it possible for all to learn it without delay by the generous gift of five hundred copies. The clerk at the charging desk in the Library will attend to the distribution. Every student is entitled to a free copy.

COURSES FOR NEXT SEMESTER
The following courses will be given the first semester of next year as described in the catalogue, with the exception of the changes noted below.

Note under History corrects misstatement of courses in History in last issue of the Orient.

Astronomy 1, Descriptive Astronomy. Textbooks, lectures and observatory work, Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday 9:30 A. M. Elective for Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors. (Astronomy 2 will be given second semester dealing with applications of Spherical Trigonometry to problems in Astronomy, Navigation and Surveying. Same hours: elective for those who have passed Mathematics 2, and Astronomy 1.)

Biology 1, 3, 7, 9
Chemistry 1, 3, 5, 7
Economics 1, in the Principles of Economics, will be divided into two sections, one in charge of each instructor, and those sections sub-divided once each week for oral quiz and conference work, hours for the latter to be arranged.

Economics 3, Money and Banking, by Mr. Davis.
Economics 5, Sociology, by Mr. Catlin.

Education 1, History of Education, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday 8:30, Mr. McCon- aughy. Probably not offered in 1913-14.
English 1, 3, 6

English 9, 10, two courses running through the year; given as English 8 has been given this year. Open to six students. Choice of six students to be announced not later than June 10.

Fine Arts 1, History of Art, Monday, Wednesday, Friday 9:30. Open to Seniors and Juniors, Mr. Johnson. (Continuation of Fine Arts 1 will be offered the second semester under the same instructor.)

French 1, 13, as in catalogue.
French 3, in one division, Monday, Wednesday, Friday 9:30, Mr. Brown.
French 5, in one division, Monday, Wednesday, Friday 11:30, Mr. Brown.

Geology 1

German 1, 3, 5, 7

History 1, 3, 7. Note:—In 1913-14 Modern European History will be substituted for American History, so Juniors wishing American History should elect the course this year.

Government 1

Hygiene 1

Italian 3

Latin 1

Latin 3, Plautus, Mr. Nixon.
Latin 5, Late Latin, Mr. Sills.

Latin 7, Virgil, Monday, Wednesday, Friday 11:30; First Semester instead of Second Sem- ester, Mr. Sills.

Mathematics 1, 3, 5

Philosophy 1

Psychology 1, 3, as announced in the catalogue, Mr. W. T. Brown.

Physics 1, 5

Mechanical Drawing 1

Surveying 1

RESOLUTIONS
Hall of Delta Upsilon, June 4, 1912.

The recent death of Samuel Wiggin Pearson of the Class of 1862 has removed from the Chapter one of our oldest and most respected brothers. After graduation Brother Pearson studied at the Bangor Theological Seminary from 1863 to 1866. From that time until 1883 he held pastorates in different churches in the State. In 1883 he re- tired from the ministry and engaged in business. Throughout his life Brother Pearson was a high- minded and conscientious citizen.

In behalf of the Delta Upsilon Fraternity and the Bowdoin Chapter, we extend our sincere sym- pathy to his family.

Manning Hapgood Busfield,
Kenneth Allan Robinson,
Clifford Thompson Perkins,
For the Chapter.
107th COMMENCEMENT—JUNE
23-27, 1912
CLASS OF 1912

OFFICERS:
Arthur D. Welch, Vice-Pres.
William A. MacCormick, Secy-Treas.
Robert D. Cole, Marshal.

CLASS DAY COMMITTEE:
Joseph E. Newell, Chairman
Seward J. Marsh
Edward O. Leigh
John H. Joy
Heman A. White

BACCALAUREATE SERMON—SUNDAY 4 P. M.
By President Hyde.
The Fundamental Loyalties—John 18:37
(Abstract)

The College expects from every man of you four loyalties: the loyalty that puts the integrity of the home above any pleasure disloyalty can offer: the loyalty that rates the worth of good work squarely done above any profits dishonesty can gain: the loyalty that holds the rights and interests of the people dearer than any honors or favors corruption can buy: the loyalty that ranks God's justice and kindness supreme over all tem-pation to the selfish and the mean.

The alumni who would be loyal to his college alone is no alumni at all; is never a welcome sight upon the college campus.

Go out into the world and conquer something there. Then when you have proved true to your fathers and mothers, or to wife and children of your own; when you have some useful business or profession well in hand; when you are doing something to make your community and country more free, prosperous, healthy and happy; when you are filling the place God gives you in the way
He wills you to fill it; then come back bringing your sheaves with you, and you will be alumni indeed; thrice and four times welcome; for through your loyalty to the four objects the College stands for,—home, work, country, God,—you will prove your loyalty to her in the one way for which she supremely cares; and win the everlasting right to be her well-beloved sons.

ALEXANDER PRIZE SPEAKING—MONDAY
8 P. M.
PROGRAM

Music

Clive
William F. Twombly '13
The Moral Equivalent of War
Jacob F. Weintz '15
Cladius and Cynthia
Kenneth E. Ramsay '15

The Benediction
John E. Dunphy '13
The True Use of Wealth
George A. McWilliams '15
Hitch Your Wagon to a Star
George W. Bacon '15

Music

The Death of Sidney Carton
Paul H. Douglas '13
The Fezziwig's Ball
George A. Hall, Jr. '15

Song of the Parson's Son
Robert D. Leigh '14

Music

Alternates, William T. Livingstone '15, Philip
S. Smith '15.

First Prize, John E. Dunphy.
Second Prize, Paul H. Douglas.

CLASS DAY EXERCISES—TUESDAY
Memorial Hall 10 A. M.
PRAYER—CLYDE R. CHAPMAN
ORATION—CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS
(Abstract)

"In Bowdoin the pleasing contact with the Faculty shows the student what an immense amount there is still to be learned. Some time during his senior year, and it seems rather sad, he realizes what an extensive field lay before him as a Freshman and how little he has explored it. Surely the opportunities for the development of one's individuality in a small college are infinite.

It has occurred to more than one that too many students in college have too much to do. In our undergraduate activities we try to counterfeit the relations of life as we expect to find them when we graduate. It has long since been commented upon that the pursuit of independent research work by the students has quite died out. This raises a serious question, are we devoting time to petty college businesses that could better be put upon a deeper study of the humanities? Isn't there a danger that in losing ourselves in objective ends we shall develop business capacity but neglect the philosophy that must underlie our actions?

Those who believe that the undergraduate is too busy to do an adequate amount of thinking cite the fact that few college men are accustomed to take time to meditate. It is true that if you talk with an undergraduate confidentially about such matters he will react, but on the whole there seems to be what we may term a "social pressure" that forbids such discussion.

In a small college where everyone knows everybody else the student body is apt to be a social group, and there is a possibility that the movement of the crowd will carry the individual along with it. As Bowdoin men we have a different stamp from the men of other colleges, and we are proud of it. Yet there is a tendency that militates against a man's growing in the direction his individuality leads him. The interests of the individual tend to become the interests of the college, but the interests of the college are not necessarily those of the majority of the undergraduates. For instance, every undergraduate does not feel the strong enthusiasm in athletics which the college calls for, but such are not to be censured.

It has been said that the small college is no place for a genius. As a social group, indeed, we provide no garrets for seclusion, but at least let us give full credit to such individuality as manifests itself, for as tastes, so of individualities, which comes to the same thing, there must be no discussion.

We are here for the development of character and there is no course offered in college which does not afford a broad field for this. Individual development has two aspects. First it is concerned with intellectual honesty and secondly it is concerned with the realization and cultivation of one's tastes and capacities. Honesty to self, self knowledge and self development are fundamental. This is brought home to us in the translation of foreign languages, and even more so in the teaching of English.

Our business here is character building, and in this the most important elements are an intensive study of the humanities and intimate relations with our fellow students. In the furtherance of the latter I believe a college commons would be a valuable aid. By this I do not mean merely a place where all the students meet together at meal times, but a place where one can go and take his friends and enjoy a quiet discussion over a cup of tea. Every circumstance would conspire to make it a success. Already the most friendly relations exist between the students, between students and Faculty, and between the fraternities. The success of such an institution would depend upon the democracy of the student body and for that reason it would have every hope of success. If I have indulged in the statement that we do not know each other well enough here in college it is surely not because we are undemocratic. There is no more democratic group of men than the undergraduates of Bowdoin. Here among us honesty, ability, frankness, and gentlemen'sness receive their highest rewards, and it is upon this rock foundation that we confidently believe the future of the college rests.

POEM—EUGENE FRANCIS BRADFORD

Under the Thorenske Oak 3 P. M.

OPENING ADDRESS—BURLEIGH C. RODICK

The Sense of Obligation.
It is indeed with a deep sense of pleasure that we bid you be present at our last happy exercises as undergraduates and in behalf of the Class of 1912 I extend to each and every one of you a most sincere and cordial welcome.

As we look back on the four years spent here we feel a deep Sense of Obligation to our friends and to the College for all they have done for us.

Our Sense of Obligation to our relatives and friends who have helped to make a college career possible is strong, lasting and fundamental. It is due to your sacrifices, your words of encouragement and your faith in us that we are here today. This is our Sense of Obligation to you and we shall not soon forget.

Then there is the Sense of Obligation that we feel toward the College for all that it has offered us and all that we have received from it. No man could live up to all of its opportunities but all of us have received some share of those rich rewards so eloquently pictured by President Hyde in his oft-quoted words describing the offer of the College.

This may well lead us to consider for a few moments just how we shall bear this Sense of Obligation which we feel toward our friends and the College for if this Sense of Obligation is a true one it involves much more than the mere statement of it here this afternoon. It is hardly necessary to say that in return for the advantages that have been bestowed upon us we in our turn must enter actively into the work of the world,—we must enter actively into the game of life.

And how shall we play the game? Play it strenuously but how else? The Sense of Obligation that we owe our friends and the College for opportunities that have been given us as well as the traditional spirit of Old Bowdoin says, "Fair play and may the best man win." But the game of life is not a fair game when every man is not given an equal opportunity with every other man. As Bowdoin men, then, it becomes our duty to fight for a greater equality of opportunity, to give every man his chance as we have been given our chance. This fight for fair play, this struggle to give every man his chance, is typified today in the great world-wide struggle for Democracy. I believe that in this great struggle most Bowdoin men will be found on the right side. And the need is great for I believe the great evil that besets the college man today is a loss of the common touch. Wrapped in his aristocracy of learning he not only fancies himself infinitely superior to the average man but is utterly without a Sense of Obligation to him. Only recently no less an authority than Justice Hughes, himself a college man and speaking before an audience of college men said that he had found the college man as undemocratic, as selfish and as lacking in public conscience as the man who had not had his advantages.

Yet in education lies the hope of Democracy. True it is that fundamentally the college is borne upon the bent shoulders of the workers. Her undergraduates are entrusted to her guidance at the expense of extra toil that they may "learn to divine the laws of the great movements of society" and with such means as their talents endow them, seek to alleviate the drudgery of those who have patiently labored that we might learn. This is the opportunity of the college man to nobly save or meanly lose the last best hope of earth. This is the problem that every man of us in whatever walk of life we enter, will have to face. For under whatever guise we find it, the problem of Democracy is the same, that of giving an equal opportunity to all members of society.

Therefore it is plain that the pressing problem of today in every phase of life is the demand for equal opportunity. And now in conclusion let me bring the solution more clearly home to you. People are prone to strike at the symbol and fail to see that the real heart of the evil can be altered only by moral forces. "The antidote for the abuse of formal government," declared Emerson, "is the influence of private character, the growth of the individual." Therefore the solution does not lie primarily in legislation or in the support of any political party, propaganda or creed. But as far as the college man is concerned the solution does lie right here. We as college men must be gripped by an inner consciousness, the essence of which is an all-compelling Sense of Obligation to Society for the opportunities Society has conferred upon us. Then shall we see that every man is given an equal opportunity with every other man. Then shall we be prepared to right the wrongs of the moral, social and industrial world. Then and then only shall we see that every Obligation that friends and College have conferred upon us is fulfilled.

HISTORY—ARTHUR D. WELCH

If it lay within my power, I should present to you today a history of the Class of 1912, edition-de-luxe with gold tipped pages bound in the finest vellum and sincerely recording from day to day the progress from collegiate infancy to magnificent manhood of the largest class that ever came to Bowdoin College. Its history demands such treatment. But greatness is too often accompanied by forgetful biographers. There is demand for more Boswells, and they are not forthcoming. The best that I can do is to offer just a hint of what has been done by a class that has for four years looked collegiate responsibility in the eye, and has never failed to be actively interested in anything that the college has made its own, in anything that has spelled Bowdoin.

This is not said in a spirit of vainglory but is rather meant to be a careful assessment. If there is any one characteristic that has distinguished 1912 it has been a marked tendency to make its interests as broad as possible, and has shown great versatility, desiring to avoid specialization either in athletics or any other of the undergraduate activities. Our life has been one of thrilling interest to us. It must be of some interest to you.

There must be something of interest for anybody in the life of youth during its four supremely happy years. As you well know, the Senior is proverbially granted an air of fearful and wonderful erudition, while the Freshman is always painted in the bashful, helpless attitude which college cartoonists have fondled so lovingly. I feel sure that as you gaze at this eminent body of scientists and men of letters at my left you are convinced that they can never have been otherwise. And yet at one time we possessed a bewildered attitude of willing belief.

There were 115 of us when we first gathered over there in King Chapel for our first class rush. We have lost 40 of our crew since then, but we still retain our numerical leadership among the college classes.
In the very first game that fall 1912 had placed four men on the varsity eleven. But our dignity was sufficiently restrained by a certain razoo night, and by wearing a kind of straw akin to the Merry Widow, then in vogue. But we recall with great gusto that 1911 suffered in consequence in the class football game, and that we rang the chapel bell, after two rushes.

The fight had begun, 1912 was on the undergraduate activity warpath. I have often felt when some members of the class were reappearing on Whittier Field or in Memorial Hall to record the fact that they were again "out," that I ought to feel proud to claim any sort of allegiance to a class which had some members who hadn't the faintest notion of when they were licked.

We gave 1910, packed as it was with track men, the run of her life at the Indoor Meet that year, and have won every Indoor Meet since that time, yet track has been far from being specialized in by 1912. But all these good things came to an end, Freshman year was a thing of the past, and that strange mixture of content and discontent, high thinking and care free happiness was gone never to be forgotten.

In the fall of 1909 we made a commendable effort to organize the Class of 1913. Perhaps in the course of time we shall gain the reward of seeing 1913 realize something of our paternal desire for its success. That was a fat year from the viewpoint of athletics, and 1912 did yeoman duty to make it what it was. In the class games we were also successful in baseball, and lost in football only through the stress of circumstances.

It seems almost a useless effort to record Junior year. It was so full of things which happened yesterday. To live some phases of the last two years over again would be Paradise now. But that may not be. They are gone from us now in our old age.

It is of course one of the regrettable things about college life that we cannot bring to bear upon Freshman year Senior year's appreciation and understanding. It is as impossible in college as it is in life. Accordingly if there is anything that 1912 has gained more than any other this year it has been an appreciation of all that college means. We were but human when we could not earlier realize the value of the privilege of being allowed to sit in the class rooms of some of the older members of the Facult.

We lost Dick White when the Titanic went down, a man strong of arm and broad of brain, and a friend and classmate whose heart was ever open, and whose smile was ever a benediction. But we can triumph that in the stress of those terrible circumstances he played the hero. We are here a little while, and again a little while and we shall be here no longer. And when we are gone, we shall soon be forgotten. But if there is any legacy that I sincerely believe the class of 1912 can leave to the college, it is the legacy of kindly word, the legacy of the morning face, the friendly smile. If there is anything we have tried to kindle, it has been an appreciation of the best in each other, and a blindness to the faults that each one of us possesses. Our little efforts may die with us, but we are content. We know that we have cultivated friendships here, that are not concerned with commencement exercises or honorary degrees, but are better, purer, more lasting things. Triumphantly, contentedly we go forth from Bowdoin, despite our sorrow at leaving, knowing with the song that "we hold the league of heart to heart the only purpose of the earth."

PARTING ADDRESS—FRANK A. SMITH

(Abstract)

For the most of us this season of the year is full of happiness and good cheer. Around us all nature seems to rejoice, while in our midst are welcome friends and loved ones, who are pleased to know that we have successfully finished four good years at Bowdoin.

As Seniors we feel glad to think of the hard work behind us while we also experience much of the excitement the athlete feels on the eve of a great game, for soon 1912 as the youngest alumni of Bowdoin College will be playing the real game of life on a field that takes in the whole world. This, our formal parting, cannot be otherwise than solemn as we in a plain, humble manner bid farewell to the dearest spot on earth.

The growth of each individual of our class may be likened to the construction of the long-hoped-for building which is now rearing its walls on the campus. That structure, like many others, stands for the love and sacrifice of Bowdoin men and Bowdoin friends, so our lives are beautified by the love and sacrifice of many people living and dead.

Our foundations were laid in the home; begun at mother's knee; made firm by the love of family and mother's religion. Here in college we have found the best of material for our superstructure and slowly, as we see yonder building grow brick by brick, stone by stone, thus have our lives been developed by those things to which we now pay our parting tribute.

As we gaze about this campus for the last time we are impressed at the sight of the Science Building, where such men as Professor Lee and Professor Robinson lived and worked; of Hub-
Music Master: Winthrop S. Greene ’13
Tailor: Edward R. Elwell ’15
Cook: Paul E. Donahue ’14
Katharine, daughters of the Shrew: Arthur D. Welch ’12
Bianca Baptista: Lowell S. Foote ’12
Curtis, housekeeper to Petruchio: Walter F. Eberhardt ’13

People in the Dance
Ladies:
William F. Twombly ’13
Lowell S. Foote ’12
Walter F. Eberhardt ’13
Edward R. Elwell ’15

Gentlemen:
Percy W. Mathews ’12
Edward B. Baker ’13
Robert D. Colc ’12
Winthrop S. Greene ’13

PRESIDENT'S RECEIPTION—8-11 P.M.
The reception was held in Alumni Room, Hubbard Hall. In the receiving line were President Hyde, Professor and Mrs. Frank Woodruff, Professor and Mrs. Charles Hutchins. The ushers were George Tappan Little, John Baxter, Philip F. Weatherill and Edward F. Little, all of Brunswick.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES, THURSDAY
Commencement Procession, Dr. Ernest B. Young ’92, Marshal, Church on the Hill
Music
Prayer
Music
Jacksonian Democracy
Edward Longworth Morse
The Solitariness of Hawthorne
Eugene Francis Bradford
The Ethical Teachings of Pure Science
Ellison Smullen Purington
Music
A Crisis in American Government
Charles Francis Adams
The Call of the East
Kenneth Churchill
Race Adjustment
John Arnett Mitchell
Music
Conferring of Degrees
Prayer
Benediction

COMMENCEMENT DINNER—1 P.M.
Immediately following the graduation exercises today occurred the Commencement Dinner in Memorial Hall. The features of the exercises at the dinner were the presentation of the Peary bust and the annual speech by President Hyde.

The bust is presented by the Class of 1877, Peary’s graduating class. It is the work of William Ordway Partridge of New York City. The bust was made shortly before Peary’s last and successful trip to the Pole. It is of bronze and presents the famous discoverer in a meditative mood. It is a little larger than life size. Admiral Peary was present at the dinner.

President Hyde’s speech is presented below in abstract.

THE POLICY OF BOWDOIN COLLEGE

Bowdoin College devotes three million dollars to training three hundred men; has a professor for every dozen students; preceptorial groups with a professor for every five students; one course with six professors for six picked students; excludes alike the dissipated and irresponsible rich and the stupid and indolent poor; promises no financial aid to any man in advance but one of thousands of dollars set apart for scholarships and assistantships gives every resourceful and diligent poor man all the help he needs; elects and retains professors exclusively on the basis of their power to instruct, interest, and inspire the students, and admits and retains students exclusively on the basis of their ability to profit by such interesting and inspiring instruction; gives the students free choice of their studies, and protects that freedom from abuse, not by arbitrary regulations, but by personal advice to the individuals; sets standards high and keeps them where they are set even when that means keeping the numbers low; shares interests with the students that they may share ideals with the professors; offers social equality to all, and opposes extravagance and vice with a multitude of moral and wholesome pleasures; sends its best scholars with liberal fellowships into graduate study and organizes its alumni to help the young graduate to a fair start in his chosen vocation; in short raises and spends money generously; picks both professors and students carefully; organizes work and play effectively; all with an eye single to making trained, useful, honorable men of the limited number of students who, without inducement or solicitation, chose the college on its merits and prove worthy of so costly a training.

PRIZES AND AWARDS

HONORARY COMMENCEMENT APPOINTMENTS

Summa cum laude—Ellison Smullen Purington.
Magna cum laude—Harold Perry Vannah.

Goodwin Commencement Prize—Eugene Francis Bradford.

Class of 1868 Speaking—Arthur Deehan Welch 1912.

Pray English Prize—Burleigh Cushing Rodick 1912.

Alexander Prize Speaking—John E. Dunphy, 1913, first; Paul H. Douglas 1913, second.

Sewall Latin Prize—Neal Tuttle 1914.

Sewall Greek Prize—Philip Huntley Pope 1914.

Goodwin French Prize—Kenneth E. Ramsay 1914.

Noyes Political Economy Prize—Summer Tucker Pike 1913.

Smythe Mathematical Prize—Joseph Schwy 1914.

Class of 1875 Prize in American History—Leon Everett Jones 1913.

Philo Sherman Bennett Prize—Burleigh Cushing Rodick 1912.

Hawthorne Prize—Kenneth A. Robinson 1914.

Bradbury Prizes—Burleigh Cushing Rodick 1912, Richard Earl Simpson 1914, Merton William Greene 1913, first prizes; Paul Howard Douglas 1913, Herbert Edson Locke 1912, Fred Dixon Wish 1913, second prizes.

Almon Goodwin Prize—Laurence Alden Crosby 1914.

Hiland Lockwood Fairbanks Prize for Excellence in Debating—Burleigh Cushing Rodick 1912.

Earle Lander Russell 1912.

Hiland Lockwood Fairbanks Prize for Excellence in Public Speaking—Harry Peter Faulkner 1915 and Kenneth Elmer Ramsay 1915.

David Sewall Premium for Excellence in English Composition—Robert Peter Coffin 1915.

Henry W. Longfellow Graduate Scholarship—Eugene Francis Bradford 1915.

Charles Carroll Everett Scholarship—Ellison S. Pursing 1915.

FRIAR CUP—INTERFRATERNITY SCHOLARSHIP

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Organization</th>
<th>Amount</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Delta Upsilon</td>
<td>15.75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alpha Delta Phi</td>
<td>13.2916</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Theta Delta Chi</td>
<td>13.1818</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Beta Theta Pi</td>
<td>13.1515</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Psi Upsilon</td>
<td>13.000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Non Fraternity</td>
<td>12.9444</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Zeta Psi</td>
<td>12.4857</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Delta Kappa Epsilon</td>
<td>12.409</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kappa Sigma</td>
<td>12.3611</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

ANNOUNCEMENT TO STUDENTS

The Board of Managers wish to bring before the student body the importance of securing immediate success in the working out of the blanket assessment scheme under their direction as provided in the Constitution of the A.S.B.C., adopted at the Student Meeting June 10.

The annual assessment will be fifteen dollars, "restrictive, seven dollars and a half at the beginning of each semester. The date of payment next fall and at all other times will be the first three days of the semester. On these dates the representatives of the Board of Managers will be at the office in the new gymnasium, or at such other place as will be announced by posters to receive the assessment and issue coupons of membership to all students. The coupon of admission entitles the holder to all privileges of the organizations included within the Associated Student Body. For the successful working of the scheme the Board found it necessary to make a provision that those students who do not pay on the dates of payment shall forfeit their right to membership and privileges in the A.S.B.C. for the ensuing semester, unless special arrangement shall be granted by the Board. The entire success or failure of the plan depends upon the payment of the assessment on the assigned dates by every student in College. This is a chance for real College loyalty and Bowdoin spirit to display itself. Remember, this is not a subscription system and no soliciting will be done. The payment is purely a voluntary matter and rests upon the honor and spirit of the student body.

Board of Managers.

The Orient is not publishing the by-laws adopted by the Board and the Constitutions adopted by the Student Body, because of the fact that the new Student Council will probably issue a booklet next fall containing these various constitutions and by-laws together with Athletic Council and Student Council by-laws and constitutions.
broad Hall, the gift of a generous son of Bowdoin; of Memorial Hall, with its testimony of Bowdoin's honor roll stamped on its bronze tablets; of Massachusetts Hall, through the doors of which Bowdoin men have passed for a century. To the Bowdoin men living and dead who have made this college possible, we owe an inestimable debt.

And within King Chapel we have found that sacred atmosphere which lifts our thoughts to the highest, purest things in life. Many times in the soft light of the closing Sabbath day have we listened to the words of our honored President and have been made by them better men. In him we have found a true example of the college man, when he fearlessly attacked evil or firmly stood for right. His kindness and sympathy, clothed in a certain natural dignity, have won our love and admiration.

There remains one more great factor which has helped us in building well, that is the friendships of classmates. We all have been severed from the life of a dear, honored member of our class; and while we have much to be thankful for this day, our hearts go out in sympathy to the noble mother who yearns for the boy she so tenderly reared. While we are saddened by this vacant place within our ranks yet our hearts swell with pride and we think with greatest admiration of the nobility with which he met his death. "Greater love hath no man than this that he lay down his life for his friends." The last minutes of Dick White's life were spent in assisting, assuring and strengthening the hearts of the weak and helpless that they might live.

Men of the Class of 1912, we have the highest example life can furnish to measure up to, and the noble death of one of our number must bear fruit in our lives. So wherever we go, to whatever work we are called whether great or small, may we too catch Dick White's spirit with that forgetfulness of self, and, trusting in life's great Pilot, may we answer with the best that is in us.

SMOKING PIPE OF PEACE

THE FAREWELL ODE

Tune: America.
The time has come when we
Of Nineteen hundred twelve
Must say good-bye.
Fond mem'ries we'll recall
Of campus, tower and hall
Of fellowships have all
That will not die.

Yet may no sadness dim

The happiness complete
Of this glad day.
May we instead feel pride
To swell the mighty tide
Of those gone far and wide
From Bowdoin's sway.

And as those gone before
Have fought and vict'ries won
In Bowdoin's name,
So may our purpose be
To do whatever we Shall as our duty see
In Bowdoin's fame.

—James B. Allen.

FAREWELL ODE

CHEERING OF HALLS

FAREWELL

MAINE HISTORICAL SOCIETY MEETING 2 P.M.

The annual meeting of the Society was held in the Debating Room of Hubbard Hall and was attended by about fifteen members. The annual business was attended to and gifts received. Nineteen new members were elected to membership in the Society. The following officers were elected: President, Hon. James Phinney Baxter of Portland; vice-President, Prof. Henry L. Chapman of Brunswick; Treasurer, Fitz H. Jordan of Portland; Corresponding Secretary and Bibliographer, William D. Patterson of Wiscasset; Librarian and Curator, Nathan Gould of Portland; Recording Secretary, Hubbard W. Bryant of Portland; Standing Committee, Rev. Henry S. Burrage of Togus, Fred Odell Conant of Portland, Henry Deering of Portland, George A. Emery of Saco, Prentice Cheney Manning of Portland, Augustus Frewdon Monilto of Portland, Ashbury Coke Stilphen of Gardiner, Albert Roscoe Stubbs of Portland and Joseph E. Moore of Thomaston.

TRUSTEES AND OVERSEERS MEETING—7 P.M.

The Trustees and Overseers held several meetings during the week aside from those scheduled on the program. A large quantity of business was transacted. Senator Charles F. Johnson '79 of Waterville and Hon. Edwin U. Curtis '82 of Boston were elected as the new trustees. Hon. Charles F. Libby, for many years chairman of the Board of Overseers, resigned from the Board on account of ill health. Four new members were added to the faculty as named elsewhere. The Non-Fraternity Clubhouse plans were approved. J. L. McConanughy was elected to be Assistant Professor of Education and Secretary of the Christian Association. Dr. Burnett was granted a year’s leave of absence beginning next Fall; Dean Sills was granted a half year’s leave of absence for the second semester of next year; Professor Mitchell and Professor Frederick Brown were granted a half year’s leave of absence for the second semester of the year 1913-14. The boards voted to purchase an addition to the Athletic Field. It was voted that the members of the Faculty have the option of taking a year’s leave of absence on half pay or a half year on full pay every seven years as a sabbatical year.

COMMENCEMENT HOP—9 P.M.

The annual Commencement Hop was held Tuesday night in Memorial Hall. Chandler’s orchestra of Portland played for an order of twenty-six dances.

The dance was preceded by a reception. In the receiving line and as patronesses were: Mrs. William DeWitt Hyde, Mrs. Frank E. Woodruff, Mrs. Wilmot B. Mitchell, Mrs. Charles C. Hutchins, Mrs. William A. Moody, Mrs. Frederic W. Brown, Mrs. William H. Davis, Mrs. George T. Files, Mrs. Roscoe J. Ham, and Mrs. William E. Lunt, all of Brunswick. The orchestra gave a concert during the reception.

The Class Day Committee in charge was composed of Joseph H. Newell, Chairman, Seward J. Marsh, Edward O. Leigh, Heman A. White and John H. Joy.

MEDICAL SCHOOL GRADUATION, WEDNESDAY 9:30 A.M.

Procession to Church on the Hill

Music

Invocation by Rev. Sylvester Burnham, D.D, ’62, Dean of Theological Faculty of Colgate University

Music

Address by Adams Morrill, A.M., of Auburn, Maine

Music

Conferring of Diplomas, President Hyde

Benediction

Music

ANNUAL MEETING PHI BETA KAPPA—11A.M.

Officers were elected as follows: Gen. Thomas H. Hubbard, President; Prof. Frank E. Woodruff, Vice President; Prof. George T. Files, Secretary-Treasurer. Literary Committee, Prof. Henry L. Chapman, Rev. Samuel V. Cole, Prof. K. C. M. Sills, Stanley P. Chase, Dr. Charles H. Cutler. The committee was authorized to arrange for a public meeting or dinner during the year.

MEETING ALUMNI ASSOCIATION, 1:30 P.M.

An informal luncheon was served in the Sargent Gymnasium and the regular meeting was held at 1:30. The usual matters of business were discussed and the officers of the alumni association and members of the Athletic Council were elected.

TAMING OF THE SHREW—3 P.M.

Presented by the Masque and Gown, direction of Mrs. Arthur Brown, assisted by Mrs. Frederick W. Brown.

CAST OF CHARACTERS

THE INDUCTION

A Lord, ...................... Robert D. Cole ’12
Christopher Sly, a Tinker .... John L. Hurley ’12
Hostess ....................... Frederick B. Simpson ’12
Page .................................. Lowell S. Foote ’12
Hunter .......................... Joseph C. MacDonald ’15
Messenger ....................... Percy W. Mathews ’12
Attendants: Edward O. Baker ’13, Francis P. McKenney ’15, Elden H. Austin ’15

THE PLAY

Baptista, a rich gentleman of Padua,

Paul H. Douglas ’13

Petruchio, suitor to Katharine,

Cedric R. Crowell ’13

Hortensio, husband to Bianca,

Winthrop S. Greene ’13

John L. Hurley ’12

Joseph C. MacDonald ’15

Francis P. McKenney ’15

Elden H. Austin ’15

Percy W. Mathews ’12

Grumio

Pedro

Biondello

Servants

Nathaniel

Walter
Among the many final meetings of the college year were the meetings and banquets of the Bowdoin Debating Course and that of the Y.M.C.A. Joint Cabinets. Both of these affairs were very successful.

The Board of Managers have held several meetings and have drawn up a set of by-laws for their own use as provided for in the Constitution of the A.S.B.C. The organization for next fall has been planned and the budgets examined and the appropriations made. Paul Donahue has been elected Secretary of the Board.

The Student Body held a meeting June 10, at which the Constitution of the Associated Students of Bowdoin College was formally adopted and the Constitution of the Bowdoin Publishing Co., a part of the previous plan was also adopted. The annual elections followed.

At the Sophomore Banquet held at the Falmouth Hotel, Saturday, June 8, C. A. Brown was toastmaster and the following toasts were given: Opening address, J. B. Lappin; the Class, R. D. Leigh; Wherefore, H. A. Barton; Closing address, A. E. Gray.

At the Freshman Banquet held at the West End Hotel Saturday, June 8, G. A. McWilliams acted as toastmaster and the following responded to toasts: H. M. Somers, Opening address; J. A. Lewis, 1915; G. C. Thompson, Course Jokes; C. T. Perkins, The Chapel Belle; L. C. Merrill, Wine, Women and Song; O. R. Jones, the Faculty; P. S. Smith, Athletics; A. K. Eaton, The Suburbs; F. S. Roberts, the Closing address.

THE APRIL QUILL—Review

The April number of the Quill contains—beside two biographical sketches of Bowdoin men—two stories, a poem and “Ye Postman.”

Of the two sketches, the first—by Edward B. Merrill ’57—is a eulogy of the late James McKeen ’64, Overseer of the College since 1886. The account of his life and character must be an inspiration to every Bowdoin man. He was “Of ancient race by birth, but nobler yet
In his own worth, and, without title, great.”

Dean Kenneth C. M. Sills ’01 contributes an appreciation of Richard Frazier White ’12, the remembrance of whose brief life will not soon fade; rather will it uphold many a college mate as he goes out into the “dust and confusion” of the world, which White has been spared.

“He who is not forgotten is not dead.”

So youth joins age in leaving us a splendid legacy; and Bowdoin is the richer for our memory of these lives.

W. F. Eberhardt’s The Smile of Admiration is a monologue, in which a Mexican tells of his love for an American girl, whose motor-car injured him on Broadway. She nursed him, took sisterly dinners with him, her “smile of desprecio” giving place to one “of amicito”; and finally,—as he discovers that she is married and determines to go away,—it turns to one “of admiracion.” “It is a great thing to die for a woman, but it is a greater to live for one,” says the Mexican. The sketch is not without interest, and is pleasantly written; but it fails to move us deeply.

New York is also the scene of The Man Who Was Made Over, an amusing story by Kenneth A. Robinson. It, too, has a moral: “be satisfied.” An ugly department-store clerk, falling in love with a beautiful girl who presides over a neighboring counter, gives his small fortune to a “beauty-doctor,” only to find that Alice preferred him as he was. We can only hope that the new-made Adonis found another girl to comfort him, since the author informs us he could not be restored to his pristine ugliness. The reader of this sad tale will doubtless not seek Dr. Spratt’s Dermatological Institute without informing his bride-to-be of the pleasure in store for her on his return.

The Lamp of Life (by P. L. W.) is rather philosophical than poetic. It might be called didactic, if it taught a lesson, but as it doesn’t, we may consider it expository. The verse is not without imagination: but we cannot help wondering what will happen to all the lamps when the sunshine, referred to in the last line, comes. Perhaps the author has mixed his metaphors: let him not be downcast, however:—Shakespeare did it before him!

Ye Postman compliments the Radcliffe Magazine, the Haverfordian and the University of Virginia Magazine; he reprints a bit of verse from the last periodical. His praise of these three is not extended to a fourth exchange, however.

“I swear ’tis better to be much abused
Than but to know ’t a little.”

(To comfort the contributors to this publication, we quote from Othello.)

The editors of the Quill are to be congratulated on getting out a number that maintains the high standard of the past. It is distinctly readable,—which is no slight praise,—and is marred by but few typographical errors. Magazines which have none are,—to quote Mr. White,—too much “like things Divine” to be expected “for human nature’s daily food,”—to quote somebody else.

—R. W.
ATHLETIC REPORTS

Report of Track Manager—Season of 1911-12

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Receipts</th>
<th>Amount</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1910-1911 student subscriptions</td>
<td>$41.50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911-1912 student subscriptions</td>
<td>655.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bowdoin-Vermont C. C. Race</td>
<td>13.55</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bowdoin-Bates C. C. Race</td>
<td>13.60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Indoor Meet (ads., tickets, progr.)</td>
<td>260.64</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B.A.A. Guarantee</td>
<td>50.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>M.I.A.A. Dividend</td>
<td>251.25</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Interscholastic Meet</td>
<td>171.21</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alumni subscription</td>
<td>10.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Railroad rebates</td>
<td>30.00</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Total receipts $218.40

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Expenses</th>
<th>Amount</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Unused mileage on hand</td>
<td>18.64</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Total $237.04

Disbursements

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Item</th>
<th>Amount</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Coaches (Morrill and Marsh)</td>
<td>$462.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bowdoin-Vermont C. C. Race</td>
<td>76.93</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bowdoin-Bates C. C. Race</td>
<td>13.21</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B.A.A. Meet (8 men)</td>
<td>101.70</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Indoor Meet</td>
<td>55.47</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>M.I.A.A. Meeting of executive committee</td>
<td>6.15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>at Bangor—expenses</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I.C.A.A.A. annual dues</td>
<td>10.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>N.E.I.C.A.A. annual dues</td>
<td>15.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>M.I.A.A. annual dues</td>
<td>15.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>N.E.I.A.A. Meet at Springfield (10 men)</td>
<td>202.10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Interscholastic Meet</td>
<td>133.42</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wright &amp; Ditson</td>
<td>34.73</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Supplies</td>
<td>36.98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Printing (including new Interscholastic</td>
<td>95.90</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rule Books)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rubbing</td>
<td>14.75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hurdles made</td>
<td>52.17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910-11 bill</td>
<td>1.25</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I.C.A.A.A.A. Meet at Philadelphia (1 man)</td>
<td>51.05</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Incidentals, postage, etc.</td>
<td>14.91</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Balance paid to Treasurer of Athletic Council $74.33

Total Disbursements $1,392.72

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) C. R. CROWELL,
Manager

I find the report of the track manager to be correct as above and properly vouched.

(Signed) F. N. WHITTIER,
For the Auditors.

June 22, 1912.

Report of Tennis Manager—Season 1911-12

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Receipts</th>
<th>Amount</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Borrowed from Athletic Council</td>
<td>$20.00</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Total Expenses $213.88

To Athletic Council for loan $20.00
To Athletic Council—Balance $3.16

Total $237.04

The small amount under receipts for college tournament was due to the fact that a large number of men defaulted or did not play.

Mileage was used whenever possible.

(Signed) GEORGE CUMMINGS,
Manager

I find the report of the tennis manager to be correct as above and properly vouched. Cash balance $3.16.

(Signed) F. N. WHITTIER,
For the Auditors.

June 22, 1912.
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

Published every Tuesday of the Collegiate Year
by the Students of
BOWDOIN COLLEGE

EDITORIAL BOARD

Douglas H. McMurtrie, 1913, Editor-in-Chief
Robert D. Leigh, 1914, Managing Editor
Fred D. Wish, Jr., 1913, Alumni Editor

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

W. R. Spinney, 1913
L. E. Jones, 1913
V. K. Leavitt, 1913
D. K. Merrill, 1914
J. F. Rollins, 1915

H. F. Walker, 1913, Business Manager
E. L. Sylvester, 1914, Assistant Manager

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni, and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted. All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager.

Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

Entered at Post-Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII. JUNE 27, 1912 No. 10

Review of the Year

As we look backward over the record for the year, we see that it is one mingled with defeat and success; in which the passing athletic defeats are harrowing to the undergraduates; but in which the permanent successes will make the year one to be remembered.

In athletics, Bowdoin though defeated often was never taunted with the charge of a quitting team. The football eleven fought to the end against heavy odds, and tied for second place in the State Championship Race. The cross country team lost to Vermont by a close score and won from Bates. In the winter season, the relay team hung up a victory for the White by defeating Tufts by a wide margin at the B.A.A. games. The fencing team was unsuccessful against Harvard. The track meet on Whittier Field was a disappointment, but in that disappointment appeared the assurance of a winning team to be developed from the green material of this year's squad. It was not a victorious year for the tennis team. In baseball, the team was slow in getting under way with the result that they tied for last place, although the team showed championship form in winning the last two games on the schedule.

But while the athletic year was not marked with a line of victories, and while the debating teams lost to Wesleyan and New York University, there were successes which will be permanent. The adoption of the blanket tax marks such a permanent advance, for it assures ample support to each activity without overtaxing the managers or the undergraduates themselves. Mr. Welch's victory in the New England Oratorical League contest places Bowdoin to the fore in this form of competition with her sister colleges. The year with college publications has been a successful one. The Quill has been ranked second in excellence among college literary magazines. The Bugle met with approval; and the Orient has attempted by changing the date and place of publication to give its readers increased service. As the greatest success of all stands out the completion of the campaign for the new gymnasium. The College may look on the buildings now nearly completed with the knowledge that the gym ranks as one of the best in the country and that this alone marks a red letter year in the undergraduate life of Bowdoin.

The Faculty has had a very prosperous year and many improvements have been made in the curriculum and the college affairs in general. Chief among these changes is the new English 8 course. An improvement for which both Faculty and students are to be congratulated is the organization of the new Non-Fraternity Club, or "Bowdoin Club," as it is called. This, we believe, is the greatest forward step of the year, leading as it probably will to the formation of a college commons, and resulting at least in a more democratic student spirit.

ELECTIONS

The Bugle Board for the 1914 Annual has been chosen as follows: Editor-in-chief, A. E. Gray; Business Manager, E. S. Thompson; Art Editor, G. F. Eaton; L. A. Donahue, R. D. Leigh, F. R. Loefler, F. T. Garland, H. W. Newcombe, K. A. Robinson and E. F. Wilson.

The Faculty members having charge of English 9 and 10 have elected the following for the course next year: L. A. Crosby '13, C. R. Crowell '13, W. F. Eberhard '13, R. D. Leigh '14, C. O. Page '13, and K. A. Robinson '14.

At a meeting of the Baseball B. men held in Webber’s Studio G. L. Skolfield '13 was chosen as captain of next year’s team.
At a meeting of the Student Body Monday, June 10, the following were elected to office:

Associated Student Body
President—C. R. Crowell '13,
Vice-President—P. H. Douglas '13,
Secretary—L. A. Crosby '13.

Student Council
C. R. Crowell, President; L. A. Crosby, Secretary; P. H. Douglas, Vice-President; from 1913, C. Haskell, P. Wood, L. Smith, G. Skolfield, F. Wiggins, K. Burns, J. Dunphy; from 1914, R. Leigh, C. Brown.

Athletic Council
Senior Members—C. Haskell, P. Wood.
Junior Members—R. Weatherill, E. LaCasce.
Sophomore Member—A. Lewis.
Cheer Leader—P. White.
Baseball Mgr.—X. Callahan.
Track Mgr.—A. Cole.
Tennis Mgr.—P. Donahue.
Asst. B. Mgr.—Elwell.
Asst. Tennis Mgr.—MacCormick.
Asst. Track Mgr.—Postponed.
Fencing Mgr.—Postponed.

BOWDOIN, 5; BATES, 4—IVY DAY, JUNE 7

To tell the story of the great eighteen inning victory over Bates on Ivy Day would require more space than the more recent commencement features will permit. Suffice it to say that it was the longest, most exciting, and interesting college game ever pulled off on a Maine college diamond. Capt. Means ended his brilliant college pitching career by the best exhibition of endurance, grit and pitching ability he ever displayed since donning the Bowdoin uniform. "Bud" Brooks had all kinds of hard luck, receiving three different injuries, but gave an excellent exhibition of Bowdoin spirit in the way he stopped Means' speedy shots. In the last of the 18th after the excited and hungry crowd had seen attempt after attempt to bat out a victory by either team fail, Bob Weatherill lifted a beautiful two-bagger which scored Brooks and brought in the winning run. In the 11th after the score had been tied in the eighth, Bates brought in a run and the game looked bad for the White until Neal Tuttle, appearing for the first time in a Bowdoin uniform, tied the score with a beautiful home run which sent Bates' left fielder sprinting up the 320 straightaway. The Bowdoin infield and outfield played fine ball after the first inning, only one run being scored upon them during the next seventeen.

The score:

BOWDOIN

ab r tb po a e
Weatherill, 2b....... 9 0 1 2 6 0
Skolfield, cf....... 8 1 3 1 0 0
Tilton, 3b......... 8 1 2 1 2 0
LaCasce, rf....... 7 1 0 2 0 1
Means, p.......... 8 0 2 1 13 0
Cooley, ss......... 8 0 1 4 5 1
Tuttle, lf......... 8 1 3 1 0 0
Brooks, c......... 8 1 0 15 8 1
Joy, rb.......... 8 0 2 27 1 3
Total ........ 72 5 14 54 35 7

BATES

ab r tb po a e
Ridlon, ss....... 5 1 0 5 7 2
Reagan, 1b....... 8 1 1 18 0 1
Talbot, 2b....... 8 1 3 2 5 0
Griffin, c....... 6 1 2 16.1 0
Coady, 3b....... 8 0 0 1 6 0
Shepard, cf...... 8 0 3 4 1 0
Bassett, lf...... 6 0 0 2 0 1
Bates, rf........ 4 0 0 4 1 0
Cobb, rf......... 3 0 0 0 0 0
Stinson, p........ 7 0 0 0 5 1
Total ........ 63 4 9 52* 26 5

*Winning run with one man out.

Bowdoin ...... 0 0 2 0 0 0 1 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 5
Bates .......... 3 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 4

Time, 3:40. Umpire, Carrigan.

FINAL STANDING MAINE SERIES

Won Lost P.C.
Maine ........... 5 1 .833
Colby ........ 3 3 .500
Bowdoin ...... 2 4 .333
Bates ........ 2 4 .333

Owing to the late spring the schedule in the interfraternity baseball series could not be played off. No team had a position which assured them the pennant so no winner can be declared.

CLUB AND COUNCIL MEETINGS

The Non-Fraternity Club met recently and elected new officers as follows: President, Luther G. Whittier '13; Vice-President, Joseph C. Schwey. The name of the new organization is to be "The Bowdoin Club."
Report of Treasurer of Athletic Council
Season 1911-1912

Manton Copeland, Treasurer, in account with Bowdoin Athletic Council:

DR.

To Balance received from C. C. Hutchins, Treasurer
Interest on deposits $1,203.28
Balance of tennis accounts 41.67
Balance of track accounts 3.16
Loan to football, repaid 74.33
Loan to track, repaid 30.00
Loan to tennis, repaid 75.00
Loan to fencing, repaid in part 20.00
Ten per cent. football gate receipts 194.89
Ten per cent. baseball gate receipts 44.30
Ten per cent. track gate receipts 17.44

Total $1,731.57

By loan to track manager $75.00
Loan to tennis manager 20.00
Loan to football manager 240.00
Loan to fencing manager 25.00
Expenses of Committee to Portland 2.85
Bowdoin College on account of turf diamond 498.85
Kennebec Greenhouses 10.00
Wright & Ditson on baseball account 339.68
G. W. Higgins for work on running track, etc. 81.90
G. W. Higgins for work at Athletic Field 70.79
Wright & Ditson on football account 190.00
Balance on deposit, Brunswick Savings Institution 150.20
Balance on deposit, Union National Bank 7.30

$1,731.57

Balance of ten per cent. fund $150.20
Balance of General Treasury 7.30

I find the report of the Treasurer of the Athletic Council to be correct as above and properly vouched.

(Signed) F. N. WHITTIER, For the Auditors.

June 22, 1912.

With the Faculty

There will be a number of additions to the Faculty next year, three of whom have been at Harvard during the past year.

Joseph Stanley Davis, A.M., Ph.D., Harvard, is to be an instructor in Economics and Sociology, in addition to Professor Catlin. While in college Mr. Davis was on an intercollege debating team which defeated Yale and won the Coolidge Debating Prize. He was secretary of the Phillips Brooks House while an undergraduate. He is a brother of Professor William H. Davis.

Alfred Otto Gross, Ph.D., Harvard, is to be instructor in Biology under Professor Copeland. Mr. Gross received his A.B. from the University of Illinois and has been doing graduate work at Harvard for the past three years.

Walter Theodore Brown, A.B. Toronto 1907; A.M. Toronto 1908; Ph.D. Harvard 1912, is to be instructor in Psychology to take the place of Dr. Burnett who will be on a leave of absence next year. Mr. Brown has been an assistant in Philosophy 4 (Ethics) at Harvard during the past year.

At the head of the new Department of Music will be Edward James Wass of Augusta. Mr. Wass is Director of the Choral Art Society of Augusta and also director of the Maine Festival Chorus of that part of the State. He is the organ-

Students are given this extra early announcement so that they may work on papers during the summer vacation. These prizes have been offered for the past seven years. Here's the list of colleges from which winning essays have come: Washington and Lee College leads with four prizes and one honorable mention; Northwestern University, University of Chicago, and Oberlin, each three prizes; Cornell, one prize and one honorable mention; Swarthmore, an honorable mention, and each of the following colleges one prize: Michigan, Wisconsin, Bowdoin, Hanford, Illinois; Queen's University, Kingston, Canada; Harvard, Wesleyan; Branch Normal, Pine Bluff, Arkansas; Yale, Missouri, Union College of Law.

Some of the subjects suggested are: Agricultural education, A lumber policy for the United States, What forms of education should be advised for the elevation of wage earners from a lower to a higher industrial status in the United States. The effect of the industrial awakening of Asia upon the economic development of the West.

Further information may be had from Professor J. Laurence Laughlin at the University of Chicago, who is Chairman of the Committee of Awards.

Hart, Schaffner and Marx Prizes

The students of Bowdoin College are to have another opportunity to compete for prizes amounting to $2,600. The announcement comes from Professor J. Laurence Laughlin of the University of Chicago, Chairman of the committee in charge of the contest, that prizes will again be offered next year by Hart, Schaffner and Marx. ist at St. Mark’s Church of Augusta and has been director of the choir at the Church on the Hill.
He was also director of the Musical Clubs for the last three years.

The Administrative Number of the Bowdoin College Bulletin, recently issued, contains much material of interest to all alumni and undergraduates of the College. The Dean’s report contains a list of the “Popular Men,” and their records in and out of College. The President’s report contains much interesting information and a number of the points in it were up for discussion this week, among them, the new Music course and Non-Fraternity Club.

The new General Catalogue of the College and the Medical School of Maine has been issued to the alumni this week. This is the fourth edition of the work in English. The first of these cata-louges issued in 1889 was preceded by the Latin Triennial of which there were 23 published. The volume numbers 500 pages, nearly twice the size of the last volume, and contains over 6000 names.
The book contains many interesting statistics and is a very distinct credit to the College. The Librarian has had charge of the difficult task of publishing it.

One hundred dollars has been given to the College to be used in prizes for the best Bowdoin song. Fifty dollars of this sum will be awarded to the best song and fifty dollars for the best musical setting for the song which has won the prize. The contest is open to both graduates and undergraduates. The time limit for the first contest is Dec. 1912, and for the music April 1, 1913.
Other details of the contest will be announced in the fall.

THE LIBRARY TABLE

A series of articles entitled The Social Usurpation of Our Colleges by Owen Johnson is running serially in Collier’s Weekly and is exciting a great deal of comment in the college world and world at large. The institutions already treated are Yale, Harvard and Princeton. These articles are worth while for any student to read whether he agrees with the author in his denunciation of the social life of the colleges or not.

Of especial interest from a Bowdoin standpoint in the light of the recent widespread discussion of college social systems is an article by William R.
Spinney ’13, which appeared in the current issue of the Intercollegiate Magazine, entitled What the Fraternities Must Do. This article, which space forbids us to comment upon more generally, deals with the needs and excellence of the social system existent at this institution, and the problems confronting the backbone of our Bowdoin organization, the national fraternity. It should be read by every Bowdoin man.

Intercollegiate Notes

To secure a degree at Kansas the student, even though a co-ed, must be able to show a certificate of proficiency in swimming.

Hereafter all undergraduates at Michigan have to fill out cards giving a list of their campus activities. This plan is the result of the desire on the part of the faculty to have complete record of the personnel of student organizations.

The varsity baseball team of the University of Washington may make a trip to Japan during the coming summer.

Alumni Department

'23.—Mrs. Sarah Frances Hitchcock, the daughter of the late William George Crosby, who was Governor of this State, 1853-54, one of the famous members of his illustrious class, died May 24th. She was the widow of John Hitchcock, a prominent Boston business man and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. D. Hunt, in Brookline.

'40.—A picture of Rev. Edward Robie '40, Bowdoin’s oldest living graduate, appeared in the Boston Sunday Globe recently.

'42.—Mrs. Georgiana Butterworth Gannett, the widow of Dr. George Gannett, died May 25th in Boston. Dr. Gannett was one of our prominent alumni in the educational world. He founded, and until his death was principal of, the Gannett Institute, one of the leading girls’ finishing schools of the Hub.

62.—A new book of poems has been recently issued by Isaac Bassett Choate of this class, entitled “The Singing Heart.” Many of the poems deal with music and song, and interwoven in the very poems themselves is a rhythmic motion which is very pleasing. The songs in this book are of an inspiring, optimistic nature for the most part, and its effect on the reader is most refreshing. Indeed, the author well describes the effect of his own work when he writes:

“it lingers long
Among the sweet remembered things of old
In the sweet melody of song
The sweetness of what never yet was told.”

The book is also arranged in a most pleasing manner, beginning with a poem of introduction, dealing next with the birth of song, then telling of the value of song, and finally ending with some farewell poems.

This delightful book Mr. Choate dedicates to his wife in these pleasing and appropriate words: "To her who went with me life’s journey long Cheered all life’s rugged road with courage strong I dedicate in tenderest memory This wreath fresh-woven of a full heart’s song."

'62.—Rev. Samuel Wiggins Pearson died on June 2nd at his home in Brunswick. A number of weeks previous, Mr. Pearson had been injured while alighting from a train and an operation was necessary. He seemed to rally well but for a few days previous to his death, the end was certain. He will be sorely missed, especially on this the 50th anniversary of his class, for he was a frequent visitor at Commencement.

Mr. Pearson was born at Alna, Oct. 24, 1836. After graduating from Bowdoin he spent four years at Bangor Theological Seminary. For a number of years after that, he was in the Congregational ministry. Later he went into grain milling with William R. Lincoln of Brunswick, their partnership being dissolved several years ago when Mr. Pearson retired from active business.

Mr. Pearson is survived by one son, Joseph C. Pearson '06 of Washington, D. C.

Mr. Pearson was for many years an active member of the First Parish Congregational Church of Brunswick, and his loyalty both in church and college matters will long be remembered by his many friends.

'67.—Dr. Frederick C. Thayer of Waterville, and Dr. A. G. Young of Augusta, both graduates of the Medical School in this year, have recently been appointed by Gov. Plassed as delegates from Maine to the 15th International Congress on Hygiene and Demography to be held at Washington, D. C., next September. Other Bowdoin men appointed are: Dr. Charles D. Smith '79 of Portland, and Dr. John L. M. Willis '77 of Elliot.

'71.—We who glory in Bowdoin’s literary reputation have great cause to be glad this week, for in addition to the book of verses by Mr. Choate referred to above, another of equally fine value and pleasing appearance has been presented to the Orient by Edgar Foster Davis. This collection of poems is entitled “Pine Cones and Needles,” and in addition to its value as a work of versification, it interests Bowdoin and Maine men by its choice of local subjects. The poems in this book are of an entirely different character than those of Mr. Choate, but the introduction of scenes and subjects with which all are familiar and the treatment of them in such a pleasing manner, bringing us back to home scenes, is most pleasing and delightful.

The versatility of the author is well shown by the variety of the subjects treated. A poem showing touching pathos is “Kind o’ Grave,” while one showing a pleasing flight of imagination is “Reincarnate—A.D. 2012.” Several of the poems show a patriotic appreciation of the deeds of past heroes. A poem of especial interest to us at present is “Faithful Unto Death,” praising the bravery of the orchestra on board the ill-fated Titanic.

The most interesting selection to Bowdoin is an “Ode to Bowdoin,” written to be sung to “La Marseillaise.” To the writer, the first part of the second verse seems the best part of this admirable poem:

“With hearts attuned to love’s emotion O reverend mother, kind and true, We come, and with sincere devotion Enshrine thy name in honors new Enshrine thy name in honors due.”

The entire poem is evidence of the loyalty of this noted Bowdoin alumnus.

'72.—George M. Whitaker, Sc.D., Secretary of the National Dairy Union, has been removed from Washington, D. C., to Fort Atkinson, Wis.

'73.—Dr. Benjamin Tappan Deering, who has lived most of the time in late years abroad, died at Paris, France, May 23rd. Dr. Deering was born Nov. 19, 1850, at Augusta, the son of Stephen and Caroline (Potter) Deering. Four years after he had graduated from here, having received an A.M. on this side, he went across the water and pursued his studies further at the Ecole de Medicine. He remained in France, taking up his work in Paris where he had a flourishing practice until the time of his death.

While his death was not unexpected, as he suffered for a long time with angina pectoris, it brings regret to his many friends and classmates who, in spite of his long absence, remember him as a man most interested in his profession and always mindful of his friends.

'76.—Charles T. Hawes, Esq., has been elected a Trustee of Bangor Seminary.

'77.—Prof. George T. Little, the Librarian at Bowdoin, has recently been appointed by Gov. Plassed a member of the Maine Library Commission.

'89.—Mr. Lory Prentiss, Director of Physical Education at Lawrenceville School, Lawrenceville, N. J., has been awarded the honorary degree of Master of Physical Education (M.P.E.) by the Springfield Training School. Other noted men who have received this degree are Dr. Edward Hitchcock, Dr. Luther H. Gulick, Dr. George J. Fisher, and Dr. Dudley A. Sargent.

'90.—Rev. H. W. Webb of Warren, Me., has recently accepted a call to the Congregational Church at Bucksport, Me., where he will begin service July 1st.

'92.—Rev. J. S. Richards who has been at Litchfield, Me., for nearly five years has retired from the church, much to the regret of his many friends in that town. He and his wife were tendered a reception by his parishioners, and resolutions were adopted expressing the love and esteem with which the pastor and his wife are held, and an appreciation of their work in the church and the community.

'98.—D. Lyman Wornwood, who for the past eight or nine years has efficiently served Old Town and Orono as Superintendent of Schools, has been elected to a similar position in Waterville. He will assume his new duties at the end of this month.

'99.—In a recent edition of the Boston Post appeared a picture of Roy L. Marston '99, of Skowhegan, who is a candidate for Representative to the State Legislature.

'99.—Edgar Kaharl, who for the past year has been teaching in Germany, has been chosen for a fine position in the Harrington School, New Bedford, Mass. Mr. Kaharl is well known to Bowdoin alumni, having been in Brunswick for several years as Principal of the High School.

'02.—Dr. Ernest Woodbury Files of Portland was married, June 19th, to Miss Mabel Burroughs Haskell at Westbrook. Dr. Files is one of the best known members of his class. Miss Haskell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin James Haskell of Westbrook.

'03.—Scott C. W. Simpson of Boston has recently been chosen vice-president of the firm of Benjamin H. Sanborn & Co., on Boylston Street.

Dr. and Mrs. William T. Rowe of Rumford, formerly of Portland, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter who has been named Elizabeth Frances Rowe.

'05.—Stanley Perkins Chase, the popular and loyal member of this class, and Miss Helen Johnson, daughter of Prof. Henry Johnson, were married at "The Church on the Hill" in Brunswick last Friday evening. A reception was held after the ceremony at the Johnson home. Mr. Chase is now Professor of English at Union College, Schenectady, N. Y.

Dr. Albert H. Staples, ex-'05, and Miss Alice H. Eaton, both of Brunswick, were married at Boston, June 5th. Mr. Staples was a prominent football man while in college, playing guard on the varsity eleven.

'06.—Mr. John P. Winchell, ex-'06 of Brunswick, who for some time has been in the Philadel...

'97.—S. O. Andrews, Esq., is a field assistant in the Co-operative Investigation of the Illinois Coal Problem.
THE BLANKET ASSESSMENT

The students of the College by their support of the new blanket tax have shown that they wish to have it adopted permanently and yet it is a question whether its success can be assured. Two hundred and seventy-five students paid up during the appointed time, leaving about fifty-five students in College yet unpaid. The Board of Managers believe that the prompt payment of most of the students indicates that the remainder have not realized the importance of paying their tax and joining the Associated students. Unless the assessment is paid by practically every student in college it fails to work—it is a failure. It was designed to be paid by all, and is reasonable enough for all to be able to pay it. When one realizes that the non-payment of this membership fee to the Associated Students means that one is barred from membership and participation in the activities represented therein, it is hard to figure out why one should not join.

At 7:30 P. M., tonight in the Deutscher Verein, on the second floor of Hubbard Hall, the Board of Managers will meet to pass on the admission of all those who have not paid to date. There is little doubt but that all reasonable applications will be granted as there is reason to suppose that the penalty for non-payment was not clearly understood.

Tonight the success or failure of the whole scheme will be decided. The decision is in the hands of the minority who have not yet paid. It is to be hoped that they will possess enough Bowdoin spirit to pay their assessment and save the student body from reverting to the unfair subscription system.

BOWDOIN, 20; FT. MCKINLEY, 6—SEPT. 28

Bowdoin’s football season began Saturday on Whittier Field with the Fort McKinley game, which the soldiers lost by a score of 20 to 6. Fort McKinley’s touchdown came in the last quarter, when Bowdoin on her ten yard line tried a forward pass, which Durney of Fort McKinley intercepted and carried over for a touchdown. Linehan failed to kick the goal. The features of the game were the work of Fitzgerald, the Freshman half-back, and Lew Brown’s quarter-back runs. Fort McKinley made persistent use of the forward pass with little success. Several of the soldiers received minor injuries, but no time was taken out for the collegians. Frank Smith watched the game from the sidelines, although he is to play in later games. Harry Faulkner played in part of the game and showed his old-time form, in spite of the fact that it was almost his first day on the field.

Tappan of Fort McKinley kicked off to Bowdoin’s 35 yard line, Duff Wood carrying the ball back 20 yards. A fumble then cost Bowdoin ten yards and La Casce punted, Lewis getting the tackle. Mills was taken out with a sprained knee and Apple took his place. McKinley made first down but lost the ball by downs on Bowdoin’s 33 yard line. Lew Brown carried the ball around right end to the middle of the field. Steady rushes by La Casce and Weatherill through right and left tackle and a run around left end by Lew Brown made first down three times in succession. Fort McKinley held firm but finally Brown carried the ball over for the first touchdown. Duff Wood kicked the goal. Littlefield replaced Pratt. On the kick-off Lew Brown ran the ball back 35 yards and Fitzgerald brought the stands to their feet with a 45 yard run for a touchdown. Wood kicked the goal and Hall took his place. La Casce carried the kickoff from Bowdoin’s 15 yard line to the middle of the field and Fitzgerald made 15 yards. The first quarter ended with the score 14 to 0.

Dole went in at right end, Crosby at quarter, Beal at left end, Moulton at right guard, and Faulkner at left half-back. Both teams tried forward passes and failed. Cross went in, replacing Weatherill. Fort McKinley made short gains through center, making first down. A forward pass, Hale to Zimmermann to Brodeur, netted them 12 yards. La Casce intercepted the next forward pass, giving the would-be tackler a ride on his back for several yards. Douglas went in at center, Joe Brown at right end, Stuart at quarter, Biff Pratt at left tackle, and later Dunton at right end. The half ended with the ball in the center of the field.

The third quarter began with the same team which started the game. La Casce kicked off, Hinch getting the tackle on McKinley’s 30 yard line. Bowdoin held and McKinley punted. Weatherill ran the ball back 12 yards and Bowdoin made first down. La Casce made five yards, a forward pass failed, and Fitzgerald made 18 yards around right end. Weatherill carried the ball 18 yards through right tackle for a touchdown. Wood failed to kick the goal. Beal replaced Hinch and Crosby replaced Brown. Weatherill ran the kick-off back 25 yards and Fitzgerald made five yards. Stuart replaced Crosby. La Casce punted to McKinley's 42 yard line. McKinley gained with a forward pass and were held in the middle of the field. King Pratt blocked their punt but McKinley recovered the ball. Pike spoiled McKinley's forward pass and Hall recovered the ball on a low punt on McKinley's 45 yard line. Fitzgerald broke away for what would have been a touchdown, but Bowdoin was penalized 15 yards for holding. Carr replaced Beal and Barry went in at right end. McKinley made eight yards on an intercepted forward pass. Biff Pratt replaced Lewis and Moulton took Pike's place. McKinley punted to Stuart. Under the shadow of the Bowdoin goal posts, Durney intercepted Weatherill's forward pass and carried it over for a touchdown. Linehan missed the goal. Dole replaced Fitzgerald. McKinley kicked off about 15 yards but recovered the ball. Moulton was replaced at center by Douglas, whose arrival resulted in a decided gain. Daniells replaced Cross and Hinch took Carr's place. Stuart made a 32 yard run but Bowdoin was forced to punt. Faulkner's punt was recovered by McKinley behind the goal line. Joe Brown went in at right end, and Badger at center. McKinley punted to Dole. Time was taken out for Schirm, who was replaced by Blakeley. Faulkner made 15 yards by a fake punt and Dole made 12 yards around left end. The whistle blew with the ball in Bowdoin's possession on McKinley's eight yard line.

The line-up:

BOWDOIN

Page, Dole, Brown, Barry, re

Lewis, A. Pratt, rt

Leadbetter, Moulton, rg

Pike, Moulton, Douglas, c

Pratt, Littlefield, lg

Wood, Hall, lt

Hinch, J. Brown, Beal, Dunton, Carr, le

L. Brown, Stuart, Crosby, qb

Fitzgerald, Faulkner, Dole, rhb

FORT McKinLEY

Fitzgerald, ux, c, Tappan

Martin, rt, Krumanaker

Adam, Burger, lg

Hale, Mapes, rg

Linehan, rt, Linehan

Schirm, Blakeley, re

La Casce, fb

rhh, McMillan, Mahar

Zink, fb

Score—Bowdoin, 20; Fort McKinley, 6.

FOOTBALL PROSPECTS

With the largest squad out for practice in the memory of the present college generation, good Freshman material, good coaching and management, the prospects this fall are very bright. Coach Bergin has been assisted during the past week by J. A. Greene '03, Mountfort ex-Tufts and now '14, Squanto Wilson '13, and Frank Smith '12. The game with Fort McKinley was satisfactory, with the single exception that the cheering was very poor. This should be improved before the next home game. The men who have been out for the team this fall are as follows:—Backfield, Dole '13, Fitzgerald '16, L. Brown '14, Foster '16, Crosby '13, Lull '16, Mannix '15, Faulkner '15, H. C. Abbott '14, P. Smith '15, Stuart '16, Somers '15, Cross '15, Stone '15, La Casce '14, Weatherill '14, Hagan '13; ends, Beal '16, Wing '14, Dyar '16, A. Pratt '14, Hinch '13, Edwards '16, Fox '14, Tuttle '14, Daniels '13, J. Brown '13, Carr '13, Page '13, H. Wood '16, Glidden '16, Barry '16; tackles, Wood '13, Dunton '15, Floyd '15, C. Abbott '13, Payson '14, Hall '14, Lewis '15, Leadbetter '16, Austin '15; guards, Pratt '14, Littlefield '16, Hamilton '13, Haywood '16; centre, McMahon '13, Pike '13, Moulton '15, Douglas '13, Badger '14.

1916, A RECORD CLASS

In spite of the graduation of 1912's large class, registration this year shows a total of 330, or 7 more than the total registration last year. This increase is due largely to the entrance of the largest class in the history of the College. The Class of 1916, with 116 members, has been by one man the record set by 1912. In the new class there are 38 men from outside the State.

By classes the registration has been as follows:

- Seniors
  - 76
- Juniors
  - 66
- Sophomores
  - 71
- Freshmen
  - 116
- Special
  - 1

The list of men entering in the Class of 1916, and admitted to advanced standing is as follows:

Daniel Allen, Anthony; Greenwich, Conn.; John
Blethen, Frankfort; James Scott Brackett, Phillips; Wellington Arthur Bamford, Houlton; George Ernest Beal, Lisbon Falls; James Hiram Brewster, Lisbon Falls; John Lincoln Baxter, Brunswick; Elliott Sheffield Boardman, Guilford; Fred Oscar Bartlett, Jr., Rockland; Kenneth Towle Burr, Dorchester, Mass.; Lewis Evans Boutwell, Malden, Mass.; Vaughan Forrest Burnham, Portland; James Edward Barry, Bangor; Adriel Ulmer Bird, Rockland; Everett Warren Bacon, Skowhegan; Winthrop Bancroft, Brookline, Mass.; John Doane Church, Minot; Aaron Wallace Canney, Kezar Falls; Raymond Clark Church, Hallowell; Philip Linwood Carter, Portland; Robert Coffyn Clark, Newton Highlands, Mass.; Walter Emery Chase, Jr., Bath; Alfred Hall Crossman, Newton Center, Mass.; Eugene Joseph Cronin, Lewiston; Frederick Ellery Cruff, West Roxbury, Mass.; Malcolm Henry Dyar, Farmington; Harold Linwood Doten, Lewiston; James Alfred Dunn, Malden, Mass.; Enderle Alphonse Drapeau, Brunswick; Robert Rutherford Drummond, Portland; Ora Liston Evans, Foxcroft; Don Jerome Edwards, Portland; Lowell A. Elliott, Haverhill, Mass.; Samuel Fraser, Masardis; Herbert Henry Foster, Seattle, Wash.; Richard Stearns Fuller, Rockland; Charles Percival Furtney, New Bedford, Mass.; John Cogan Fitzgerald, Bath; Henry Lincoln Gormley, Roxbury; Allen Joseph Ginty, Boston, Mass.; Donald Payson George, Thomaston; Edward Philip Garland, Bangor; Ralph Raymond Glidden, Gardiner; George Everett Greely, Hudson, Mass.; Coy Lawrence Hagermann, Houlton; Frank Hober Lord Hargraves, West Buxton; Joseph Francis Xavier Healey, Portland, Me.; Hugh Merrill Hescock, Foxcroft; Edward Cary Hawes, Bangor; Carroll William Hodgkins, Portsmouth, N. H.; Amos Bartlett Haggert, Jr., Bath; Chauncey Alfred Hall, Augusta; Raymon Charnbury Hamlin, Maynard, Mass.; Myron Eusebius Hale, Roxbury, Mass.; Lawrence Joseph Hart, Bath; Ralph Winson Hayward, Salem, Mass.; Donald Clark Hight, Athens; Walter Thomas Haseltine, Pittsfield; Alden Fairfield Head, Bangor; Wendell Verne Howe, Presque Isle; Arthur G. Hildreth, Westford, Mass.; William Dunning Ireland, Stetson; Lawrence Irving, Roxbury, Mass.; David Frances Kelley, Gardiner; Harry Fletcher Knight, Townsend Harbor, Mass.; Raymond Horace Larrabee, Bridgton; Arthur Eldredge Littlefield, Dorchester, Mass.; Guy Whitman Leadbetter, South Lincoln; Edward Robert Little, Brunswick; William Mason Bradley Lord, Portland; Walter Huron Lane, So., Portland; Ernest Proctor Lull, Pawtucket, R. I.; Leland Stanford McElwee, Houlton; Ernest Parsons Marshall, South Portland; James Burleigh Moulton, East Portland; Howard Miller, Jr., Brooklyn, N. Y.; Urban Howe Merrill, Lawrence, Mass.; Stewart Engree Morrill, South Portland; Paul Kendall Niven, Providence, R. I.; Lew Maurice Noble, Phillips; Norman Hunt Nickerson, Red Beach, Me.; Gordon Wesley Olson, West Somerville, Mass.; Wallace Bruce Olsen, West Somerville, Mass.; James Franklin Parsons, Barnston, Que.; Frederick Webster Powers, Portland; Emery Bruce Poore, Hudson, Mass.; Lee Duren Pettingill, Lewiston; Maurice Clifton Proctor, Portland; Ralph Colby Parmenter, Portland; Haywood Treat Parsons, Pittsfield; John Waterman Robie, Gorham; Raymond Miller Richardson, Lynn; Le Roy Addison Ramsdell, Portland; Frederick Payne Rawson, West Townsend, Mass.; Abraham Seth Shwartz, Portland; Dwight Harold Sayward, Portland; Richard Hill Stuart, Newport; Ruel Blaine Soule, Augusta; Earle Revere Stratton, Hudson, Mass.; Elliott Shepard, Brookline, Mass.; George Richard Stuart, Augusta; John Howe Trott, Yarmouth; Henry Sanborn Thomas, Farmington Falls; Thomas Henry Taber, New Bedford, Mass.; John Glenwood Winter, Kingfield; Timothy Herbert Weston, Broad Cove; Philip Francis Weatherill, Brunswick; Leigh Webber, Hallowell; Langdon Robert White, Bath; Willard Paine Woodman, Peabody, Mass.; Henry Gerard Wood, Steuben; Walter Brown Willey, Jr., Bangor; Donald Sherman White, Indianapolis, Ind.; Charles E. Wyman, Jr., Roxbury, Mass.; Ivan Hyde Yenetchi, Scituate, Mass.

ADMITTED TO THE SOPHOMORE CLASS
Adam Phillips Leighton, Jr., Portland; Charles Thomas Hughes, Somerville, Mass.; John R. Hamel, Portland, Me.; Clarence Hall Tapley, Ellsworth; C. Talbot Rogers, No. Anson, Me.; H. B. Pinkham, Hanover, N. H.

ADMITTED TO JUNIOR CLASS
Hebron Mayhew Adams, Westbrook; Charles A. Hatch, Richmond; Harold F. King, Houlton; Summer L. Mountfort, Portland.

SPECIAL STUDENTS
Mankichi Koibuchi, Higariikarakari Kori, Hararki, Japan.

Of the 16,216 names recorded in "Who's Who in America," 56 percent are college men; 15 percent, academy and normal men; 48 percent, high school graduates; and only one-fifth percent self-taught.

Esperanto is offered in the curriculum of Leland Stanford this year.
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY OF THE COLLEGIATE YEAR BY
THE BOWDOIN PUBLISHING COMPANY
IN THE INTERESTS OF THE STUDENTS OF
BOWDOIN COLLEGE

EDITORIAL BOARD

DOUGLAS H. MCMURTRIE, 1913, Editor-in-Chief
ROBERT D. LEIGH, 1914, Managing Editor
FRED D. WISH, 1913, Alumni Editor

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

L. E. JONES, 1913 K. A. ROBINSON, 1914
V. R. LEAVITT, 1913 R. E. SIMPSON, 1914
W. R. SPINNEY, 1913 A. H. MACCORMICK, 1915
D. K. MERRILL, 1914 F. P. MCKENNEY, 1915
J. F. ROLLINS, 1915

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted.

All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager of the Bowdoin Publishing Co. Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

BOWDOIN PUBLISHING COMPANY
H. B. WALKER, 1913, Business Manager
ALFRED E. GRAY, 1914, Assistant Manager
E. L. SYLVESTER, 1914, Assistant Manager

Entered at Post Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII. OCTOBER 1, 1912 No. 11

The New Year

It is the common saying that this year will be Bowdoin's best. Several newspaper reports make the statement prominently, and indeed they have reason for it.

The rapid completion of the new gymnasium is alone enough to mark this college year as an eventful one, but when there are added so many other evidences of progress there is little wonder that the newspapers indulge in "glowing prophecy."

With the successful inauguration of the blanket tax there will be eliminated from the duties of the managers all the subscription-collecting worries which have before taken so much time.

The opening of the new Bowdoin Club, a meeting place for everyone and a home for non-fraternity men also marks a new departure of the greatest moment.

And with a record-breaking entering class, several new courses, and the satisfaction of being ranked in the first class of American colleges, Bowdoin may well enter upon its 110th year with the assurance that it can be made the best.

New Faculty

The Orient is glad to welcome on behalf of the undergraduates the five new members of the faculty who come to the College this fall. The aid which they are to give to the various departments and the new courses in Fine Arts, Music, and the History of the Novel which are thus made possible, speak for Bowdoin's progress as a college of liberal arts. May the relations of the new members with the undergraduates be sympathetic and pleasant.

Football

The large squad which reports for practice and the showing of the twenty-eight men who played in the Fort McKinley game indicate that the men on the field will do their full share. And the successful collection of the blanket tax will remove the handicap of subscription collecting, at the same time insuring the financial support of the team. The one remaining element necessary for success must be furnished by the undergraduates themselves and that element is the moral support given by attendance of every man at every home game and by the spirited cheering of every man.

Y. M. C. A. RECEPTION

The social life of the college began last Thursday evening with the reception in Hubbard Hall, given by the Young Men's Christian Association to the Class of 1916. At about half past eight the speaking began in the debating room. Pres. Crowell of the Y. M. C. A. explained the purpose and aims of the organization and was followed by Pres. William DeWitt Hyde, who welcomed the incoming class to the college. Rev. John H. Quint in behalf of the pastors of the town extended a welcome from the churches and spoke on the relations between the churches and students. P. S. Wood '13 spoke on undergraduate life and football prospects and was followed by Coach Bergin, who in a few words criticized the "quitting" spirit and complimented Bowdoin on the absence of that class of men on her campus. P. H. Douglas '13 then explained the new blanket tax and urged the students to be prompt in their payments. Mr. J. L. McConaughy then closed the program with a strong speech on the proper spirit which the college man should show in every undertaking. After the singing of Bowdoin Beata an informal reception was held in the Alumni...
Room, refreshments of ice cream, fancy crackers and punch being served.

The new Handbook, the so-called Freshman Bible, which was given to each student, is the best one ever published by the Y. M. C. A. It is of a more convenient size and shape and contains more information than those of previous years, as well as being very attractive in appearance.

THE NEW GYM

Bowdoin men now see their vision for so many years realized in solid brick and stone. For the new gym, which in June was outlined by steel girders and a few half-finished walls, is now rapidly approaching completion. The contractors in charge promise that with the exception of the steamfittings the big building will be finished in about two weeks. Furniture for the offices and equipment for the gym proper have been ordered and will be installed as soon as they arrive.

Today the last of the series of pictures showing the progress of construction month by month was taken.

ORIENT COMPETITION

Competition is now open for the Orient Board. The competition is open to all members of the Freshman Class and it is urged that each fraternity group send out at least one man. The Bowdoin Club too is requested to see that they are represented on the list of those competing. Plans are under way for additions and enlargements of the scope of the paper and the chances are better than ever for a large number of men to be elected in the spring. All desiring to compete should hand their names to the managing editor at 9 Maine Hall by Thursday night of this week.

There will be a meeting of the Orient Board at 5 P. M. Thursday at the D. U. House.

BOWDOIN CLUB IN OPERATION

The house at 264 Maine St. secured for the use of the Bowdoin Club was opened for the first time last Thursday. It has been furnished at a large expense to the College and offers most of the comforts of the fraternity houses. The dining room will accommodate about thirty-six men and there are study and sleeping rooms for twelve, besides a comfortable lounge. Membership in the society is open to all non-fraternity men of the College and during the first two weeks of the college year board may be obtained at the house by all non-fraternity men not members of the society at the rate of sixty-five cents a day or four dollars a week. Rooms including light are forty-five dollars a year and board, four dollars a week. The officers of the organization are: President, L. G. Whittier '13; Vice-President, J. Schwey '14; Treasurer, R. M. Verrill '14; Secretary, R. E. Hubbard '14.

FALL TOURNAMENT TO PICK TENNIS TEAM

Contrary to the usual custom, the Varsity Tennis Team this year is to be picked in the fall instead of just before the season opens in the spring. This new system will do away with the uncertainty which marks the early work of the team. With the added facilities for practice which the gym offers, it is hoped that the team may be able to do some work during the winter, and that they may not be handicapped by rainy weather, as was last year's team. A tournament will be held as early as possible this week for those who desire to try for the team. From this number, the six best men will be chosen, a number sufficient to cover any losses through ineligibility. It is desired that a large number of promising men may enter this tournament, especially those from the Freshman Class. Savage '13 and Eaton '15 are the only men of last year's team in college, so there is a good chance for new material. Entries should be made as quickly as possible with Paul Donahue at the Theta Delta Chi House or MacCormick at the Delta Upsilon House.

MARATHONERS OUT

A large cross country squad under the leadership of Capt. Uriah Hall began work today. With three men from the team of last year, Hall '13, Haskell '13, and Tarbox '14, and with McWilliams '15 again eligible, Bowdoin's chances look good. This year is to be an unusually busy one for the cross-country team, as in addition to the race with the University of Vermont there will be a New England cross-country race, and probably a race between the four Maine colleges. The New England race will be held Nov. 18, but the plans for the Maine run have not been completed as yet.

FIRST THURSDAY MEETING

The first Thursday night meeting of the Y. M. C. A. will be held this week at 7:00 P. M. It will be in the nature of a Bible study rally and the meeting will be addressed by President Hyde and W. A. MacCormick '12. MacCormick was last year's president of the Association and is well known to all upper classmen for his interests in this direction as well as through his prominence. in many other college activities. MacCornick is now assistant secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Chelsea, Mass.

Any desiring copies of the Handbook may obtain one by calling at the office of the General Secretary in Hubbard Hall and those desiring employment or wishing to borrow books should call at the same place during the temporary office hours 11:30-12 and 1:00-1:30 daily.

FIRST SUNDAY CHAPEL

At Sunday Chapel, President Hyde emphasized the point that happiness consists not in idleness but in work. He said that it is not the people who spend their vacations at summer resorts in quest of idle pleasure who are really happy, but those whose time is occupied by some useful work. He cited as an example Admiral Peary '77, who prepared the equipment for his polar expeditions with the utmost toil and diligence, looking forward only to the attainment of the coveted goal. "He was a strong and happy man." He also mentioned the great aviator who exclaimed, "It’s great to be a pioneer! We never build two machines alike because we discover defects in each new machine and strive to improve upon it." "The young man in college who pursues his studies in a listless way," President Hyde continued, "leads the life of a slave, a life of dreary, monotonous, unprofitable drudgery. When the student sets before himself the ideal of a high, forceful, useful, happy, Christian service, and makes every study count toward that end, he makes college full of profit, peace, and power."

Club and Council Meetings

The Student Council held a meeting in Massachusetts Hall the day before college opened in conjunction with President Hyde and Dean Sills. The matter of the "first night razoo" was discussed and acted upon as already announced to the students. Another meeting of the Council is to be held this week.

The Board of Managers has held several meetings since the opening of college. At a recent meeting James Norton '13 was elected Assistant Treasurer of the Board.

With the Faculty

After a semester’s absence because of sickness, Professor Chapman has again taken up his work, his health having greatly improved.

Dr. Whittier returned Saturday from Washington, D. C., where he has been attending the International Congress of Hygiene.

Dr. Burnett is at present traveling in Spain. He expects to spend the next two months in France and Germany.

The list of student assistants in the various departments as announced up to date is as follows:

Psychology—Page '13.
Greek—Dodge '13.
Chemistry—Fogg '13, Pike '13, and McMurtrie '13.
English—Baker '13 and Robinson '14.
French—Ramsay '15.
Mathematics—Floyd '15.
German—Gardner '13.

The list of proctors is as follows:—North Winthrop, Jones; South Winthrop, Douglas; North Maine, Crowell; South Maine, Norton; North Appleton, Wood; South Appleton, Crosby.

Dr. Burnett's place will be taken this year by Walter Theodore Brown, Ph.D. He is a native of Ontario, Canada, prepared for college at the Petersborough Collegiate Institute in Ontario, graduated from the University of Toronto in 1907, taught in the public schools and then took graduate work in Harvard, receiving his degree of Ph.D. in 1912. He has specialized in Philoso-

Alfred Otto Gross, Ph.D., is assistant to Professor Copeland. He prepared for college at the University of Illinois Academy and graduated from that university in 1908. He then took up graduate work at Harvard, receiving his Ph.D. in 1912. He has specialized in Zoology and for the year following his graduation was instructor in that subject at the University of Illinois. He has written: Economic Values of Common Illinois Birds (1908), Life History of Tropic Bird of Bermuda, Reactions of Anthropods to Monochromatic Lights of Equal Intensity, which will appear soon in the Journal of Experimental Zoology. He is 29 years old and not married.

Edward Hames Wass is to give the new courses in Music. He is a native of Boston, but for the last seven years has been located in Augusta. There he was organist and choirmaster of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, conductor of the Choral Art Society, the Festival Chorus, and the Cecelia Club of Augusta, visiting choirmaster of Christ Church and the First Congregational Church of Gardiner and the First Congregational Church of Brunswick. He studied the piano with Gerard Tallandier, the voice with S. Searing and Warren A. Locke and took a music course at Harvard University. He is a member of the American Guild of Organists. For the last four years he has coached the Bowdoin Musical Clubs.

Joseph Stancliffe Davis is to be assistant professor in the Economics Department this year. He prepared at West Chester, Pennsylvania, attended the State Normal School, and graduated from Harvard in 1908. He took part in the debate against Yale and in class debates at Harvard. He won the Coolidge Debating Prize and made Phi Beta Kappa in his Junior year. For two years he was graduate secretary of the Christian Association at Harvard. While doing graduate work in Economics, he was assistant in that subject. He is the author of the "History of Corporation Legislation in New Jersey." Mr. Davis is 27 years old and unmarried.

On the Campus

The Library assistants for this year will be chosen by means of an examination, the exact nature of which has not yet been decided.

The Cumberland Theatre now in operation was opened the 2d of July and Professor Files made the dedication speech.

Among those missing on the campus are "Brose" Burns and "Farmer" Kern. But Peters is back and that helps some.

Eaton, Evans, McDonald, Kuhn, Verrill and Livingstone are out for assistant manager of football.

Spinney '13 is principal of the high school at Pembroke, Me., for this semester. He will return in February.

Kennedy '13, Spinney '13, Cummings '13, Leigh '14, Faulkner '15 and Ramsay '15, stayed over in Brunswick during the past summer.

McMurtrie '13 takes the place of Burns '13 on the Student Council.

What do you think of the tax on tacks?

There were about five thousand visitors on the campus this summer according to the estimate of Joe Boyd, the oldest inhabitant. A guide was on duty to show visitors through the various buildings and a large number of them registered in Massachusetts Hall.

Moulton '13 and Cummings '13 are going Medec.

L. Pratt '13, E. Thompson '14, and R. Morris '10 were on the City of Rockland this summer when it went on the rocks.

The Library Table

Through the Treasury Department the Library has received an assortment of the notes of the Confederate States of America, which came into possession of the Union Army about the close of the war and were turned over by the War Department to the Treasury in 1867. This assortment contains notes from practically every issue made by the Confederate government and is exhibited in the case in the upper hall of the Library.

During the summer months the Library has received some eight hundred new books. Among them are many of the best pieces of late fiction and there have been a great many additions in the department of Art History, Music, Economics, and History. Among the most interesting are Stover at Yale of interest to all college men, and Professor Foster's new book on Argumentation for use in preparatory schools.

Alumni Department

'76.—One of the most interesting and well known of those alumni of this institution who have died during the summer was Dr. Irving Ellis Kimball who graduated from the Medical School in 1876. Dr. Kimball was very popular in Portland where he lived almost from the time he graduated, and occupied a high place in the medical fraternity of that city.

He was born at Clinton, Me., Sept. 2, 1851, the first child of Ebenezer P. Kimball and Tryphosa F. Kimball. He fitted for college at the Buckport Academy and entered Bowdoin, where he did some of the work for two years being for a time during that same period engaged in teaching school.

Mr. Kimball did not wait to complete his college course but began to prepare himself for the medical profession. He graduated from our medical school in 1876 and after spending three years in Wiscasset he moved to Portland where he soon built up a very successful practice. After the first few years he took for his specialty the diseases of the lungs and throat. He fitted himself for this work by taking a course at Harvard and also by special study at the University of Vienna and it was the distinguishing work of his life.

From 1883 to 1889 he was demonstrator in Anatomy at the Medical School, and for many years he was on the medical staff of the Eye and Ear Infirmary and also of the Maine General Hospital in Portland. He was a member of the Maine Medical Association, the Academy of Medical Science, the American Laryngological, Rhinological and Otological Society and also of the New England Otological and Laryngological Society.

In 1880 Dr. Kimball married Mary Frances
Tucker, daughter of Capt. John Tucker of Wiscasset. She lived only two years after marriage. In 1886 he married Susan Jackson Rollins, daughter of Hon. Franklin Rollins of Portland.

Dr. Kimball, in spite of his large practice was never too busy to help where he thought he might be of any assistance. For many years he was connected with the State Street Congregational Church of Portland, where he was for a long time president of the Parish Club and was also very active in the musical and other departments of the church. He was also for some years a director in the United States Trust Co., and in this capacity formed a large circle of business friends.

Dr. Kimball is survived by his wife, a sister, and a brother.

"42.—In memory of her husband, Rev. George Gannett, of this class, Mrs. Georgianna Butterworth Gannett of Needham, Mass., who recently died, left to the college $6,000 for a trust fund to be known as the George Gannett fund. She also gave her library to the college.

"67.—Rev. Dr. S. M. Newman has entered upon his duties as president of Howard University, Washington, D. C.

"80.—Major Holman F. Day’s new book, “The Red Lane,” has been dedicated to Deputy United States Marshal Burton Smith of Portland who graduated in this class. Mr. Smith has always been a great friend of Mr. Day and it is with pleasure that the friends of both of these men hear of the honor which Mr. Day has conferred on our alumni.

"90.—Joseph B. Pendleton, the well-known football official, has recently taken a position in the athletic department of Filene’s department store in Boston.

"10.—Harold E. Rowell has recently taken the principalship of Bridgton High School.

The Orient regrets to announce the following deaths of Bowdoin alumni during the summer: Henry Hill Boody of the Class of 1842, died at Brunswick, Sept. 11th.

William Drew Washburn of the Class of 1854, died at Minneapolis, Minn., June 29th.

Lewis Orsmond Brastow of the Class of 1857, died August 12th.

Charles Hoyt Bangs, of the Class of 1869, died August 12th.

Hon. Herbert Milton Heath of the Class of 1872, died August 18th.

George Mason Whittaker of the Class of 1872, died August 29th.

Frank Vernon Wright of the Class of 1876, died August 3rd.

Henry Russell Bradley of the Class of 1884, died August 2nd.

Dr. Irving Ellis Kimball of the Medical Class of 1876, died August 5th.

Dr. Jefferson Caty of the Medical Class of 1878, died August 25th.

All of these men lived and accomplished deeds which bring great honor to their Alma Mater. Their lives are also interesting as examples of what college men can accomplish and their biographies will be published from time to time in the Orient.

During the summer months the following Bowdoin men have been married:

Rev. Oliver Dana Sewall ’87 of Great Barrington, Mass., married Miss Christine Martin Bullock of Kennebunkport, Me., at Kennebunkport, Sept. 4th.

Alfred L. La Ferriere ’01 of Norway, Me., married Miss Josephine Bowker, Brunswick, at Berlin, N. H., July 27th.

Archibald T. Shorey ’05 of Brooklyn, N. Y., married Miss Anna Josephine Snow of Brunswick, at Brunswick, August 26th.

Ralph W. Giles ’07 of Brownfield, Me., married Miss Mabel R. Chadbourne of East Baldwin, Me., at East Baldwin, August 19th.

Dr. William C. Whitmore ’07 of Portland married Miss Hazel Rounds of Portland, at Portland, August 29th.

Willis E. Roberts ’07 of Brunswick married Miss Grace M. Lunt of Brunswick, at Brunswick, September 25th.

Ridgley Colfax Clark ’08 of Dexter, Me., married Miss Idella May Hill of East Conway, N. H., at East Conway, June 27th.

Leon S. Lippincott ’10 of Augusta married Miss Emily Felt of Brunswick, at Boston, Mass., August 1st.

Harold E. Rowell ’10 of East Jaffrey, N. H., married Miss Nettie B. Pollard of Cornville, Me., at East Jaffrey, June 12th.

Fred C. Black ’11 of Rockland, Me., married Miss Hazel Perry of Rockland, Me., at Rockland, August 27th.

In one of the hardest fought games that has been played in New England under the new rules Wesleyan nosed out a 7 to 6 victory from the Bowdoin team. The inability of "Duff" Wood, the Bowdoin captain, to kick a fairly easy goal gave the Connecticut boys the deciding point.

The game was hard fought from the beginning to the end and was all the more interesting because the two teams played different types of ball. The Bowdoin men carried the ball by line rushing and end runs but the Wesleyan play was chiefly forward passes. The Middletown team made yard after yard down the field and scored the touchdown with the forward pass. The men had the play worked down to a science and there was almost never a slip in the work. The men took their positions as if run by machinery. The ball was thrown just at the right time and the interference was always able to keep the man protected.

Harry Faulkner, the Bowdoin back, was the star of the game and it was through his good playing that the greater part of the Bowdoin score was made. After the first score Faulkner was pretty well laid out as he had run the ball a great deal and had been the center of attack of the Wesleyan forces. He was knocked up so badly that he had to be helped into his sleeper for the trip home by the other members of the team.

The ball was in dangerous territory but the situation did not look serious at the down the scoring play was made on. The teams were near the center of the field between the 10 and 20 yard line. The formation did not look like a forward pass but after the men got in motion the ball shot out of the mass and sailed over the quarterback's head and landed in Blauvelt's arms. The touchdown was then easily made as the end was very near the goal line. Bacon kicked the goal.

The result of the game would have been reversed if it hadn't been for a mistake in the first half that cost Bowdoin dearly. The ball was on Wesleyan's eight yard line. It was the fourth down with only a short distance to go when the Bowdoin quarter made a misplay. The Maine boys didn't make their distance and the ball went to the home team.

The Wesleyan men were bound to win and fought for every inch of the ground. Their team was heavier than Bowdoin but the backs could find no openings in the White line.

The summary of the game:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>WESLEYAN</th>
<th>BOWDOIN</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Eustis, le</td>
<td>re, A. Pratt, Hall</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Parkinson, lt</td>
<td>rt, Leadbetter</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bernhard, lg</td>
<td>rg, Lewis</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sprague, c</td>
<td>c, Pike</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Murphy, c</td>
<td>c, Douglas</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Durling, rg</td>
<td>lg, L. Pratt</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wilcox, rt</td>
<td>lt, Wood</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Blauvelt, re</td>
<td>le, Hinch</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nourse, re</td>
<td>le, Beal</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bacon, qb</td>
<td>qb, Brown</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Frances, lhb</td>
<td>qb, Fitzgerald</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Murphy, rhb</td>
<td>rhb, La Casce</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>lhb, Weatherill</td>
<td>lhb, Dole</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kenan, fh</td>
<td>fb, Faulkner</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

SOPHIS WIN FIRST GAME 14-2

The Sophomores had little difficulty in defeating the Freshmen in the first of the series of baseball games between the two classes. Until the sixth inning, the game was a close one, but in the sixth and seventh, the Sophomores put over enough runs to win several games.

The Freshmen batted better than did their conquerors, but their pitchers were far freer with passes.

The game was followed by a tug of war, in which the Freshmen pulled the Sophomores from the Delta to the chapel steps. The members of each class cheered their own class, then the other class, and both united in cheering all four classes, and giving the Bowdoin yells.
Keegan, 2b  5 1 1 1 2 2 1
Allen, cf    3 0 1 1 1 0 0
A. Stetson, cf 1 0 1 1 0 0 0
Eaton, lb  4 2 1 1 9 0 0
Somers, ss  2 1 0 0 0 0 0
Demmons, ss  2 0 0 0 0 0 0
Rogers, 3b  5 0 0 0 0 3 0
Roberts, 3b 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
McKenney, If 2 2 1 1 1 0 0
Coxe, If  0 0 0 0 0 1 0
Mannix, rf  3 2 1 1 0 0 0
Knowiton, rf 1 1 0 0 0 0 0
L. Stetson, p  3 3 0 0 1 2 0

35 14 7 7 29 9 2

1916 ab r h tb po a e
Woodman, rf  5 0 0 0 0 0 0
Kelley, ss  2 1 0 0 0 2 1
Larrabee, ss 2 0 1 1 0 1 3
Rawson, cf  4 0 1 2 2 0 0
Churchill, cf 1 0 0 0 0 0 0
McElwell, 3b 3 0 1 1 2 2 0
Knight, p  2 0 1 1 0 0 0
Fraser, p  1 0 0 0 0 0 0
Merrill, p  0 0 0 0 0 1 0
Robie, c  2 0 0 0 6 0 1
Doten, c  2 0 0 0 3 0 0
Olson, tb  4 1 1 1 7 0 0
Parsons, 2b  2 0 2 2 1 2 0
Yenetchi, 2b 1 0 0 0 1 0 1
Glidden, If  3 0 1 2 2 1 1
Howe, If  1 0 0 0 0 0 0
*Anthony  1 0 0 0 0 0 0

36 2 8 10 24 9 7

*Batted for Merrill in ninth.

Score by innings:  1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
1915  2 0 0 0 6 4 0 2 x—14
1916  1 0 0 0 0 0 1 0—2

Two base hits, Rawson, Glidden; base on balls, by Stetson 5, Knight 4, Fraser 5, Merrill 4; struck out, by Stetson 13, by Fraser; double play, McElwell unassisted. Umpire, Gus Tilton.

BOWDOIN 2nds TIE WITH HEBRON

The second team occupied themselves during the absence of the Varsity by playing Hebron Academy at Hebron last Saturday. The team work displayed by the scrubs was a surprise to everyone, themselves included, and they made a good account of themselves against the prep team. There was only one fumble made by the college team while Hebron fumbled often. The line opened up good holes for the backfield and most of the gains were made by these line plays. Stone, right halfback for the seconds, was severely injured on the third down of the game and had to be removed. Capt. Page, who replaced him, played remarkably well considering his lack of experience in that position. Dyar, Foster and Stuart made good gains and played well on defense. The ends played a good, consistent game. In the second period Bowdoin pushed the ball down within the Hebron twenty yard line and were stopped from scoring by the whistle. The Hebron team was in dangerous proximity to the Bowdoin goal posts during the first and fourth periods and it required a stiff defense in both cases to stop their attack. The team was very well entertained. A game is being arranged with Westbrook Seminary for next Saturday, Oct. 12.

The summary:

HEBRON ACADEMY  BOWDOIN 2ND

Corbett, le  re, Page
Allen, lt  re, J. Brown
Thomas, lg  rt, Austin
Andrews, c  c, Badger
Walker, c  lg, Haywood
Blake, rg  lt, J. Brown
Moncton, rt  le, Fox
Stanley, rt  qb, Stuart
Campbell, re  rhb, Stone
James, qb  rhb, Page
Small, lhb  lhb, Dyar
Denyan, rhb  fb, Foster
Saunders, fb
Jones, fb
Referee, Garcelon, Bowdoin. Linesman, Joy, Hebron. Time, 90m. periods.

RHODES SCHOLARSHIP

The Rhodes Scholarship examinations for the State of Maine will be held in the Senate Chamber at Augusta October 15 and 16. Earl B. Tuttle '13, Neal Tuttle '14, and Alfred E. Gray '14 have announced their intention of taking the examinations, and Laurence A. Crosby '13 qualified last year. Any other students who desire to take the examinations should confer with Dean Sills.

The amount of the scholarship is $1500 a year for three years. In order to qualify for the scholarship all candidates must be examined in Latin, Mathematics, and Greek, and must pass at least Latin and Mathematics. The men who qualify are required to present themselves to the State Board of Examiners at Augusta for personal conferences, and will be subjected to further tests.
if necessary. The final decision will be based not only on the student's literary and scholastic attainments but also on his fondness for and participation in athletics, his many qualities, and moral force of character.

Bowdoin has been highly successful in obtaining Rhodes Scholarships, three of the six scholarships that have been granted to students from this state having been awarded to Bowdoin men. The first Maine Rhodes Scholarship was won in 1906 by David R. Porter '06. In the three years following Bowdoin men were barred from the examinations and the scholarships were awarded in turn to men from Bates, Colby and the University of Maine. The rules were changed in 1910 so that students of all the colleges in the state were eligible, and a Bowdoin man carried off the honors, Robert Hale '10 being the successful candidate. The scholarship in 1911 was won by Edward E. Kern '12.

Y. M. C. A. MISSIONARY MEETINGS

The Y. M. C. A. and the First Parish Church will cooperate in holding a missionary meeting next Thursday evening, Oct. 10, at 7 P. M. in King Chapel. This meeting is to be held in connection with the annual meeting of the American Board of Missions to be held at Portland. Bowdoin has been connected with the American Board since an early date, and great interest is always taken at these meetings. Something special is planned this time in the way of music, and it will certainly be worth while for everyone to hear it.

A fine list of speakers has been arranged, speakers that one does not have the opportunity to hear every day. Rev. Paul Corbin Tarker of China is to speak on "Critical Days in China," Rev. Mr. Tarker was a very prominent figure in the Boxer uprising and is thoroughly fitted to talk on his subject. Rev. Richard Rose, a graduate of Oberlin, will speak on "Why I Decided for India." We are fortunate in getting this chance to hear Mr. Rose as he sails in two weeks for India.

The principle address of the meeting will be given by Mr. Philip Swartz, Lafayette '11, who is the travelling secretary of the student volunteer movement of New York City.

Mr. Swartz will speak on "College Men and Missions." He is well able to speak on this subject as he has just finished a tour of the American colleges. Mr. Swartz will remain in Bowdoin for two days and wishes to have a talk with as many fellows as possible.

FROM CROSS COUNTRY

The cross country men are out for good now and are running around the town every afternoon. The first two days only a few showed up for practice but since Coach Merrill took hold of the squad and posted notices asking everybody to come out and help there have been a great many more candidates in the field. The fellows that come out late have been badly handicapped by the lack of the first few days work which led up gradually to the longer distances.

The latter part of last week the men were divided into three squads. The first division under 'Uriah' Hall consisting of about three men took a trot around the stand pipe. The second lot led by Haskell took a turn around the field and then went over the loop. The last lot made up of new men did a mile on the cedar track.

Among those that are showing up daily are Haskell, Hall, Norton, Burleigh, Cummings, Payson, Standish, McCargo, Eberhardt, Jones, Melcher, Fuller, Hargraves, Irving, Lord, Porritt, Darwin, Tuttle, Dodge, Tarbox, Donahue, Burton, Prescott, Cox, McWilliams, Stowell, Stuart, Church, Irelan, Marshall, Fuller, Ward, Miller, Haseltine, Hall, Moulion, Garland, Head, Winter, Boardman, Noble.

Y. M. C. A. THURSDAY MEETING

The first Y. M. C. A. meeting of the year was held last Thursday evening in the Y. M. C. A. room. After a few opening remarks by C. R. Crowell, president of the association, Pres. Hyde spoke on "The College Man and the Bible." He said that one should study the Bible, not because his salvation depended upon it, but because in it he could find the principles of the life of Christ, upon which all civilization is based, and without a knowledge of which no man should attempt to go out into the world. He said that, although every word could not be taken literally, as if handed down by some divine power; nevertheless, there was an underlying influence for good running through it. He cited examples of some of the leaders in public life who have made constant use of the Bible, finding verses in it to fit every difficulty that might arise. W. A. MacCormick '12, assistant secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Chelsea, Mass., then spoke of the value of Bible study in persuading one to do right, and of the permanent influence of certain passages upon one's life. He also spoke of the lasting friendships that might be formed by studying and discussing the Bible in college.
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

Published every Tuesday of the collegiate year by
The Bowdoin Publishing Company
in the interests of the students of
Bowdoin College

EDITORIAL BOARD

Douglas H. McMurrtrie, 1913, Editor-in-Chief
Robert D. Leigh, 1914, Managing Editor
Fred D. Wish, 1913, Alumni Editor

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

L. E. Jones, 1913
V. R. Spinnney, 1915
W. R. Spinney, 1915
D. K. Merrill, 1914
J. F. Rollins, 1915

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted.

All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager of the Bowdoin Publishing Co. Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

E. B. Walker, 1913, Business Manager
Alfred E. Gray, 1914, Assistant Manager
E. L. Sylvester, 1914, Assistant Manager

Entered at Post-Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII. OCTOBER 8, 1912 No. 12

Competition

Although the college year is young, it is marked by an unusually large number of contestants in certain activities. This is as it should be, for the remodelled saying that competition is the life of Bowdoin undergraduates has been proved again and again. You members of 1916 who have not yet decided upon any activity to enter may well give the matter immediate thought and determine to make your way in some one of the many branches of college life.

It is certain that the opportunity for service has never been greater than at present. In everything there is a chance for the freshman. One fact from many in support of this statement is that the large number of new men on the football squad compare favorably with the veterans of last year's team.

You raise the objection that the time-devouring demands of the faculty make it impossible for you to go out for anything. But if you are the man who is to make a success you will acquire the ability to plan your work to the end that you may reach the happy medium between the pursuit of the curriculum and that of "education." Go out for something with all your might, remembering that if you lose out, the competition you have given the other fellow cannot fail to secure improvement in Bowdoin activities.

You who are unable to support the football team by joining the squad may yet find a way to help the warriors considerably during the coming weeks of out-of-state games. That way lies in making it a point to be at the station to give some fighting cheers when the team leaves. It is the general testimony of the players that cheering helps more than anything else to inspire them to the utmost efforts, and it is the general experience of the undergraduates that nothing can serve better to weld them together into a unit. Let everyone who can be at the station Friday morning.

TOURNAMENT IN PROGRESS

In the fall Tennis Tournament the following drawings have been made:—Payson '14 and Card '15; Nixon '13 and Nickerson '16; Gardner '13 and Walker '13; Eaton '15 and Gilbert '13; Cummings '13 and Kuhn '15; Miller '16 and Greeley '16; Wing '14 and Savage '13; Larrabee '16 and Barton '14; Leigh '14 and Woodman '16. In the two matches which have been played, Gardner defeated Walker 6-2, 6-4, and Eaton defeated Gilbert 6-1, 6-3. The other matches are to be played as soon as possible. According to the rules of the Tennis Association the winner of the tournament will be captain of the team.

BIBLE CLASSES

The Bible Classes will meet Sunday afternoon for the first time, in the various fraternity houses and at the Bowdoin Club. So far, the enrollment has been small and it is earnestly hoped that the men of the College will heartily respond to the call of the leaders in the Bible study movement.

The work of the classes is to be divided into three courses. The first course, "Principles of Jesus," is to be taken by the Seniors and Juniors. In this course will be discussed problems which are of vital importance to humanity and the solution of these problems offered by Christianity. Course II, "Life of Christ," will be taken by Sophomores and Freshmen. Course III, "Men of the Old Testament," may be taken by all classes. The course reveals the lives of the important figures in the days of the Old Testament, and what they stood for.

The leaders of each course will be instructed as follows: Course I by the Rev. John H. Quint, Course II Mr. J. L. McConaughy, Course III Professor W. B. Mitchell.

COURSES IN MUSIC
—Professor E. H. Wass.

Music I.

MUSIC AS AN ART
A general study of the development of the Art of Music, preparing one to understand and appreciate musical performances.

Sound, musical sound, notation, rhythm, melody, harmony—their evolution and application to modern music.

History of music, study of the great composers, their lives, works and influence upon the development of modern music.

Frequent tests by written papers on assigned topics.

No technical preparation requisite for this course.

First semester—Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday, 8:30.

(Elective for Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors.)

Music II.

MUSIC AS AN ART
(Continuation of Music I.)

Musical appreciation and history (advanced). Elements of Theory. Study of musical forms from listener’s standpoint.

Assigned readings, oral tests and written reports.

Second semester—hours to be arranged at convenience of class and instructor.

(Elective for Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors. Music I, prerequisite.)

Music III.

HARMONY (ELEMENTARY)
Systematic study of intervals and chords, and their correct and effective use in four part harmony.

Harmonization of melodies.

Daily written exercises. Knowledge of notation necessary.

First semester—hours arranged at convenience of instructor and class.

(Elective for Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors.)

Music IV.

HARMONY (ADVANCED) AND COUNTERPOINT (ELEMENTARY)
(Continuation of Music III.)

Lectures and practical work. Collateral reading on history and biography.

Study of musical forms with analyses. Study of evolution of music from the primitive folk-song to the symphony of Beethoven.

Study of the clefs. Orchestral instruments. Ability to play four part harmony (like hymn tune) and Music III requisite.

Second semester—three hours at convenience of class and instructor.

(Elective for Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors.)

Music V.

Sight reading in song, practical work in intervals, scales, relationship of keys.

Modes, rhythm, accentuation explained.

Study of expression marks, musical terms, etc. No technical preparation necessary.

One-half of period devoted to blackboard instruction and singing tests, half to four part chorus singing. Two years regular attendance equal to one semester’s work.

One hour and a half weekly.

(Elective for all students.)

SUNDAY CHAPEL

At Sunday Chapel President Hyde spoke of the interest which other people take in our work. He said in part: “We are not alone. Our moral life is not a life lived all to ourselves; it is not an individual life.” As an example of this he referred to the Bowdoin Club of Boston as follows: “This club is not like most formal associations, which meet only once a year for a dinner. It is a club that is now in its seventeenth year, and holds its meetings once a month.” He then stated that the club was composed of Bowdoin graduates, lawyers, doctors, editors, and business men, young and old, who work together for the welfare of Bowdoin. “They take great interest in Bowdoin. They help on our prosperity, and are disappointed in our troubles. We ought to live with the sense that they are with us and we are with them. It is up to us to continue the good work that they started. We must do our part, meet temptations, and overcome obstacles with the sense that we are in the fellowship of the living and the dead.”

Club and Council Meetings

The Student Council held a meeting last Tuesday night and considered several important measures. It was decided to hold weekly “sings” or “hums” in Memorial Hall on Friday evenings from now until the end of the football season in order that the cheering and singing may be improved by practice and so that the Freshmen may familiarize themselves with the songs and yells. Tuesday, October 22nd, was set as the date for fraternity initiations. It was resolved that the Sophomores be urged to avoid any physical violence or damaging of any college property during proclamation night. The proclamation was read and approved. It was decided to hold a class rope pull after the class baseball games instead of the usual, indecisive class rush. A committee was appointed to see that this contest was initiated properly. It was decided that the Council hold weekly meetings in Hubbard Hall, German Room, at 8 P. M.

The Board of Managers held a meeting, Tuesday, Oct. 1. The cases of the delinquents in paying the blanket assessment were passed upon and a number were received. The assessment has proved a success and will be continued.

The first meeting of the Debating Council was held last Thursday afternoon in the Debating Room. Intercollegiate debating was discussed but no definite action taken for the present. The inter-scholastic debating league was discussed, especially as to the advisability of allowing more schools to enter the league. The following committee was appointed to look into the matter: Stanley Dole '13, Chairman; Joe Brown '13, Ray Verrill '14. The matter of a series of inter-class debates was also discussed and a committee appointed to draw up some detailed plan and also to investigate the attitude of the student body towards this proposition.

The Freshman Class has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: John D. Churchill of Minot, president; Willard P. Woodman of Peabody, Mass., vice-president; Lew M. Noble of Phillips, secretary; Edward C. Haves of Bangor, treasurer; Harry F. Knight of Townsend Harbor, Mass., captain baseball team; Edward P. Garland of Bangor, manager baseball team. Steps were taken toward a class assessment but the matter of a constitution was left until the next meeting.

Art Building Notes

Since Commencement the Art Gallery has received several gifts which are now on exhibition. In the Boyd Gallery is the bronze bust of Admiral Peary, which was presented by the Class of 1877 last Commencement. The bust was done by William Orway Partridge before the trip to the Pole. In this gallery also is the copy of Whistler's famous "Portrait of Mother." This painting was made and presented by Joseph Kahill of Portland, who also painted the portrait of General Cham-berlain and the David panel in King Chapel. Over the entrance to the Boyd Gallery is a new painting, "Seining at Dawn," by Philip Little and presented by him in memory of his sister-in-law, Helen Beal Little.

In the Bowdoin Gallery is a portrait of Joseph Merrill '34, by Joseph Kahill, and a portrait of Peleg Chandler '34, given by his son, Horace P. Chandler. Mr. Chandler was the son-in-law of Professor Cleveland, and the donor of the Cleveland Cabinet in Massachusetts Hall.

Portraits of the Presidents of the College have been assembled in the Bowdoin Gallery, many of the pictures having been brought from Memorial Hall.

Interesting pieces of silver formerly belonging to Governor Bowdoin have been received by the will of Frances E. Weston. The pieces are a punch ladle, three silver spoons, and a silver cream pitcher. By the same will the Gallery received also three small oil paintings. None of these articles are yet on exhibition.

The Library Table

The Outlook for Oct. 5th contains an article by President Hyde entitled "The Issues of the Campaign." The article does indeed set forth the issues in a clear non-partisan manner, an interrogatory style being used throughout. What the voter should consider in the coming election are the candidates, the term of office, and the five great issues—the tariff, the control of corporations, labor, the Constitution and the courts, and the machinery of elections. In general, the issue is to what extent and by what means we are to change from the old to the new order of things.

The Atlantic Monthly for October on page 441 gives an article on "A Father to His Freshman Son." Commendably true to life, it should be read by every Freshman. With the exception of the writer's tolerance of light drinking, the advice seems admirable.

Another addition especially adapted for Freshmen is "From School Through College" by Henry Parks Wright, Ph.D., Dean of Yale College from 1884-1909. The advice comes from one who has for a life time dealt with boys, and never lost sympathy for their interests.

The Library has received a most important accession to its medical books by the bequest of the private library of the late Dr. Albion S. Whitmore of the Class of 1875. Dr. Whitmore was a most loyal son of the College, always interested in the undergraduate life of the institution and a subscriber to all its interests. During the latter portion of a quarter century of successful practice in Boston he bought freely in professional literature. As a result over a hundred volumes of recent and authoritative medical text-books have come into the possession of the College and twice that number of valuable books which prove to be duplicates but are of use in exchange with other Libraries.

On the Campus

The following Freshmen are out for the Orient Board: P. H. Carter, R. C. Church, D. J. Edwards, L. A. Elliott, E. P. Garland, Myron E. Hale, R. E. Hamlin, E. C. Hawes, L. Irving, W. M. B. Lord, D. Sayward, T. H. Taber, L. Webster, J. G. Winter. This is the largest number ever in competition for the Board and it is expected that three or four more will be added by the time of the issuance of this number. If there are any more who wish to compete they will please hand their names to the managing editor today.

All Juniors who wish to enter the competition for assistant calendar manager for this year will hand their names to Earl Gardner at the Beta House at once.

One hundred and fifteen men attended the College "Hum" last Friday night. There will be room for the other 216 next Friday evening.

Ted Emery '13 spent the early part of last week at Merrymeeting Bay in pursuit of the black duck.

Rev. Malcolm MacKay '12 has been the guest of friends at the Bowdoin Club.

During the past week many new men have been boarding at the Bowdoin Club and prospects look very encouraging for a large membership. At present there are thirty-six boarders with plenty of room for more. Anyone desiring board or rooms can apply to Steward H. C. Dixon or President Luther G. Whittier.

The following fraternity stewards have been chosen for the coming year: Beta Theta Pi, Alton Lewis, 1915; Delta Upsilon, Samuel W. Chase, 1914; Kappa Sigma, Harold Somers, 1915; Theta Delta Chi, John E. Dunphy, 1913; Psi Upsilon, Loring Pratt, 1913; Delta Kappa Epsilon, Alfred Gray, 1914; Zeta Psi, Cedric R. Crowell, 1913; Alpha Delta Phi, Arthur Palmer; Bowdoin Club, H. C. Dixon, 1914.

With the Faculty

President Hyde spoke Friday night at the dinner of the Bowdoin Club of Boston.

Professor Wilmot B. Mitchell represented the College today at the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of Mt. Holyoke College.

Intercollegiate Notes

The most important happening in the world of colleges during the summer vacation was the publication of the official classification of American Colleges and Universities by the U. S. Department of Education. Dr. Babcock, who made the classification, put fifty-nine universities and colleges in the first class and designated them as standard institutions and placed 161 in the second class, 85 in the third class and 40 in the fourth. Bowdoin is put in the first class, the only one of the Maine colleges so honored and is the smallest but one of the fifty-nine put in the roll of honor. The New England institutions are well represented in the first list. In this so-called first class there are forty-four endowed and private institutions and fifteen State universities. Bates, Colby, and Maine are in the second class and also Boston University, New York University and Syracuse, Trinity and Holy Cross. In the third and fourth classes New England is not represented, these being mostly Southern institutions.

The classification was made upon the basis of the bachelor's degree and comparisons were made of the work done in recognized graduate schools by graduates of various institutions and the time taken and needed for graduation by these men. This report, although it perhaps cannot be accepted finally, gives evidence that New England still maintains its reputation as the educational center of the country and brings a good deal of satisfaction to the officers and alumni of the colleges in the first class, such as Bowdoin.

Resolutions

Hall of Lambda of Zeta Psi.

Whereas, it has pleased God in his infinite wisdom to take from our midst our beloved brother in Zeta Psi, Herbert M. Heath of the Class of 1872, Resolved, That we have lost in him a loyal and devoted brother.

Harold W. Miller, Elywn C. Gage, Omar P. Badger.

Alumni Department

'67.—James Wallace MacDonald died very suddenly, August 5, 1912, at a summer camp near Katahdin Iron Works, where he and his wife were spending a summer vacation. Mr. MacDonald was born in Houlton, Me., June 26, 1844. He was principal of a High School at Abington, Mass., from 1867 to 1876, and at Stoneham, Mass., from 1876 to 1892. In October, 1892, he was appointed an agent of the Massachusetts State Board of Education, with special assignment to the visitation of High Schools. This position he held to the end of his life, keeping his residence in Stoneham. He gained an enviable reputation as an educator, and was the author of several textbooks.

He was married, Nov. 21, 1874, to Emma F. Prouty of South Abingdon, who survives him. He left no children. Funeral services were held at the First Congregational Church in Stoneham, of which society he was a member.

Mr. MacDonald had an active and progressive mind, and cherished high standards of conduct and character. "In his death," says the Stoneham Independent, "Stoneham loses a leading citizen and a man whose worth had gained him, to the full, high respect and esteem."

'72.—Bowdoin alumni and undergraduates were shocked on August 18th to hear of the sudden death of Herbert Milton Heath of Augusta. Mr. Heath was a loyal Bowdoin son, and in this respect he seemed particularly like an older brother to the younger alumni and the undergraduates with whom he frequently came in contact. He was not only ready to aid the college as he did as Overseer, and to lend invaluable assistance to any college organization as he did to the debating team last year, but he also welcomed the confidence and friendship of Bowdoin men individually. It may be truly said that his life was an inspiration to those who were fortunate enough to know him.

Mr. Heath was born in Gardiner August 27, 1853. His parentage in way explains his courage, earnestness, and loyalty, for he descended from the best of the old Revolutionary patriots. His father, Alvah M. C. Heath, himself a loyal Union man who lost his life at Fredericksburg, was a direct descendent from Gen. William Heath of Revolutionary fame, while his mother could trace her family to the great General Kendall.

Mr. Heath prepared for college at Gardiner High School and in the meantime he also studied at the Dirigo Business College in Augusta. He entered Bowdoin in 1868, graduating four years later. While here, he was elected to membership in Phi Beta Kappa, was a member of the Peucinian Society, won a prize in mineralogy, was editor-in-chief of the Bugle, and rowed on the college crew. During part of his last year, he was also the principal of Limerick Academy.

In 1873 he received a master's degree here. For the following three years he was principal of Washington Academy at East Machias. During this time he was also studying law with Judge Charles Danforth of the Maine Supreme Court, and in 1876 he was admitted to the Maine Bar. In the same year he married Laura S. Gardiner. Five children blessed this union.

He was a lawyer in Augusta from this time until his death and was undoubtedly one of the greatest if not the greatest lawyer in Maine. His practice contained some of the most noted and important cases, both criminal and civil, that are found in the state's records. He was also president of the Maine Bar Association 1896-1897 and the lecturer on Cross Examination at the University of Maine Law School since 1910.

In addition to this legal prominence, Mr. Heath was also a leader in the political life of the state. Even while he was in college, he was assistant secretary of the Maine Senate, his term continuing from 1870 to 1873. He was city solicitor of Augusta in 1879 and for the following two years was county attorney of Kennebec County. He was also prominent in the Maine Legislature, serving in the House of Representatives 1883-1886, and in the Senate, 1887-1890. While in these offices, in addition to drafting the new primary bill, he shaped much of the railroad legislation now in force in the state, drew up the first 10-hour bill presented to the legislature, and had an important interest in much other legislation. He was also a member of the commission in 1883 which revised the statutes.

The water districts, through which the water supplies in the state are now handled are also due his knowledge and practice which helped to perfect them.

Mr. Heath was also an Overseer of the College for about a year before his death.

Mr. Heath's oratorical power was everywhere recognized. He spoke in a direct and simple manner, but he always made his points clear and then drove them home. One of the leading papers, when speaking of this, just after his death expressed it rightly when it said that "death has set its seal on the most eloquent lips in Maine."

A busy and fruitful life is over and Bowdoin is poorer because she has lost in this true man, a loyal and devoted son.

'71.—Philip W. Meserve spent a few days at Bowdoin last week before he left for Johns Hopkins University at Baltimore where he is to take a graduate course in chemistry. Meserve was at the Harvard graduate school last year, and was an instructor during a part of the year at Radcliffe.
BOWDOIN OREINT

VOL. XLII
BRUNSWICK, MAINE, OCTOBER 15, 1912
NO. 13

BOWDOIN, 0; TRINITY, 27—OCT. 12

'Midst the happy news of Red Sox victory with the triple triumph of Bedient, Beans, and Boston came the mournful news sagging along the wires last Saturday evening that the sturdy wearers of the Bowdoin B had succumbed to the mighty onslaught of Hudson, Trinity's 195-pound fullback and were defeated by the score noted above. One Freshman heard that the score was 27 to 0 in Bowdoin's favor and came within an ace of ringing the chapel bell. Think of what excitement there would have been! Another outdoor track celebration.

But as to the game at Hartford. Hudson was remarkable on offence and carried the ball through our line for yards on nearly every play in which he figured. Their other backs were stopped with short gains, but gave Hudson good interference.

Both teams played old fashioned football and there were only two successful forward passes, one by each team. The Bowdoin defense was weak in the center and guard positions and in the backfield the interference was not of a high quality. Leadbetter, the Freshman tackle, made good yardage on tackle around plays, and Harry Faulkner furnished the sensation of the game by a fifty-five yard run through an open field on the kick off.

THE GAME IN DETAIL

Trinity received the first kick-off and Hudson and Lawler in two long runs brought the ball close to our goal. It was in these plays Hudson revealed his diving line plunge which gained ground every time he tried it. Here the forward pass gave us the ball. Sage caught the kick out and by a forward pass and a line buck by Hudson the ball was carried over for the first touchdown. Kinney kicked the goal. Score: Trinity, 7; Bowdoin, 0.

Bowdoin again kicked off to Trinity's 15 yard line. Collete brought it back ten and Lawler made 30 around end. Bowdoin was twice penalized for offside and the ball was rushed to the goal by a variety of plays, Hudson again making the touchdown. Kinney missed goal. Score: Trinity, 13; Bowdoin, 0.

Faulkner of Bowdoin ran back the kick off 55 yards through a broken field. Trinity held on their thirty-five yard line and Bowdoin was forced to punt. After an interchange of punts and forward passes the quarter ended, Bowdoin having the ball in mid field.

The second quarter was scoreless and was marked by much punting. Trinity received the kick off at the first of the third period and carried it to Bowdoin's five yard line in a variety of plays, when a fumble gave the ball to Bowdoin. Sage fumbled the punt out but Bowdoin was soon forced to punt again. A series of penalties and runs by Hudson brought the ball near Bowdoin's goal. Trinity was held for downs but on Bowdoin's punt out the ball was nabbed by Collete near the side lines and he dashed across the line for the third touchdown. Kinney kicked goal. Score: Trinity, 20; Bowdoin, 0.

Sage ran back the kick off 35 yards. Bowdoin got the ball on a fumble and made ten yards before the end of the quarter. Howell intercepted a forward pass and Hudson with his plunging dives made possible the fourth touchdown. Trinity, 27; Bowdoin, 0. Neither side could score again and the ball ended in Bowdoin's territory.

Bowdoin's best showing was made in the second period when they played the Hartford team to a standstill.

The line-up:

TRINITY
Cole, re
Lambert, rt
Castator, Dunsford, rg
Kinney, Castator, c
J. A. Moore, J. B. Moore, lg
Howell, Smith, lt
J. B. Moore, Smith, le
Sage, q
Collete, Mayer, rhh
Lawler, lhb
Lawler, lhb
Dole
J. A. Moore, fb

BOWDOIN
le, Hinch, Hall
l, Wood lg, Pratt c, Pike
rg, Lewis rt, Leadbetter, Moulton
re, Beal, Wing
qu, Brown, Crosby
lhb, Faulkner, Brown lhb, Weatherill, Fitzgerald, Dole fb, LaCasce
COLLEGE SING

Friday evening the student body held the second weekly "sing." Only about a hundred and twenty-five men were present. The small attendance may have been due to the weather but even a rainy night should not have kept so many away. Some of the songs and cheers were run through and the college band played a few marches. A BIG "Sing" is promised for next Friday night. Every Bowdoin man must be there. Remember the Colby game is only two weeks off.

WINTER BASEBALL PRACTICE

This winter the baseball squad is to have an opportunity for indoor practice, something which Bowdoin has long felt the need of but has never before been able to obtain. Already 27 men have announced their intention of joining the squad but there is still a need for more candidates.

The contract for the preparation of the indoor field has been let to Mr. C. E. Hacker of Brunswick, who now has a crew of men at work. The floor will be composed of three inches of clay covered with half an inch of fine building sand. The diamond, which is to be in the east end of the building with home plate in the northeast corner, will be caged by an immense net extending completely around and over it, the net being of one and one half inch mesh and of extra heavy material. Work on the field is going on rapidly and the time gym practice starts the diamond will be ready for the squad.

With this exceptional opportunity for winter practice there is no reason why Bowdoin should not turn out a winning team in the spring. It is up to the undergraduates and there is still a chance to join the squad.

BISHOP CODMAN THURSDAY

Bishop Codman of Portland will address the Y. M. C. A. meeting next Thursday night. The Bishop, a graduate of Harvard College, is well known in New England. From 1895-1900 he was rector at St. John's Church, Roxbury, and in 1900 was consecrated bishop Diocese of Maine.

On Thursday night, also, the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity will tender a reception to the Bishop and all members of the Episcopal Church in College.

The membership of the Y. M. C. A. is the largest it has been in years. Over two hundred have joined and the enrollment is not finished yet.

The Pejepscot Sunday School will start next Sunday.

CROSS COUNTRY

The management of the cross country squad is still issuing a call for more men. Many of the new men are showing up well and have good prospects of making the team. Definite arrangements in regard to Bowdoin's entering the All-Maine meet at Lewiston on November 2 or the N. E. I. meet at Brookline on November 16 have not been made. Bowdoin has arranged to race against the University of Vermont team on November 9 with good prospects of winning the contest.

Coach Morrill is working hard for the track men with excellent results but more men are desired to insure success.

MISSIONARY MEETINGS

A number of students and townspeople gathered Thursday evening in King Chapel at the second Y. M. C. A. meeting of the year. The program was as follows:

Organ Prelude
Vocal Solo Mrs. William Hawley Davis
Address Mr. Philip A. Shwartz
Address Rev. Richard S. Rose
Address Rev. Paul Corbin
Benediction Rev. John H. Quint
Organ Postlude

The first speaker of the evening, Mr. Philip A. Shwartz of New York, spoke of the changes in foreign countries in religion, education and politics. He said that the people in those far-away lands, who had previously been non-Christians are now turning away from their old forms of religion toward Christianity and are striving to live up to the standards set forth by our missionaries.

Not only are our missionaries teaching these foreigners the Christian religion, but they are also civilizing them, as is shown from the fact that in the countries where Christianity has been established, one may find modern railways, steamers and other instruments of use to man.

The text chosen by the Rev. Mr. Rose was "Why I Chose India." He carefully laid bare the conditions which exist today in India and demonstrated the need of missionaries in that dark country of 300,000,000 inhabitants, 2,000,000 only of whom are followers of the Christian religion. In India 1 per cent. of the women can read and write while 5 per cent. of the men and boys are able to read and write. These facts alone are enough to convince one that India, the home of Brahmanism, Mohammedanism and Buddhism, needs the help of American missionaries to turn the religion of these hordes of people toward Christian ideals.

The Rev. Paul Corbin spoke briefly on the improvements which have occurred in China within the past eight years. The Chinese people today are desirous to make progress in civilization. They send men from their country to America in order that they may go home and take American ideals with them and arouse their native land from her slumbers. All this has been brought about through American missionary workers.

COLLEGE CIVIL SERVICE EXAM

Two library assistants will be chosen from the entering class, and as applications to the number of eleven have already been received, these appointments will be determined by the results of a competitive examinations, to be held at the librarian’s office today at 4:30 P.M. The examination will be simple in its character, requiring no preparation and designed merely to test general knowledge of books, and the qualities of accuracy and quickness of eye and mind. No one should take the examination who is not, to a greater or less degree, dependent on his own exertions for means to defray the expenses of his college course.

FIRST COLLEGE PREACHER

Rev. Samuel Atkins Eliot, D.D., of Cambridge, Mass., the first College preacher of the year will preach in the Church on the Hill next Sunday morning and at the chapel service in the afternoon. An evening meeting under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. will probably be arranged for and will be announced later. Dr. Eliot was graduated from Harvard in 1884. He received the degree of A.M. from Harvard in 1889, and D.D. from Bowdoin in 1900. From 1889 to 1893 he was pastor of Unity Church of Denver, Colorado. Since 1900 he has been president of the American Unitarian Association.

FESTIVAL MUSIC CONFERENCE

At Professor Hutchins’ house on last Friday evening, Professor Wass held his first musical conference. The music played at the Festival this week was rendered on the orchestrel, and a particular analysis was made of the two movements of Schubert’s “Unfinished Symphony.” The object of this conference was to give the men taking music an opportunity to appreciate the fine melodies and live over again the thoughts of the composers.

SUNDAY CHAPEL

At Chapel Sunday afternoon President Farren of Forest Grove College, Oregon, was the speaker. As a text he took the Bible story of the rich young man whom Christ told to sell all that he had and give to the poor. The young man upon hearing this, went away sorrowful, unwilling to give up his position and riches for a life of service. He spoke of the service of the Christian life of today, and enlarging upon it, showed the different kinds of service. As an illustration he told of some young missionaries who before they left for their field of work were heard to tell of the sacrifices they were about to make; and also of a medical missionary who had risked his life in stamping out an unknown plague and in telling of it made no mention of himself or of the risk that he had taken. Comparing these ideas of service he brought vividly before the minds of all the ideal Christian service of today, the service where self is not considered, but the good of others only. He showed the true Christian life as being one where all is unhesitatingly given to help in the great work of Christ.

OLD BOWDOIN SONG BOOK

Among recent publications of interest to Bowdoin men is “An Old Bowdoin Song Book,” by George William Kelly of the Class of 1866. It contains the verses of twenty-one songs without music, and is a work which will serve to increase the rapidly growing store of our college music. The list of titles shows a range from the war days to the present, even to verses on the latest general catalogue:

Just at present when the undergraduates are endeavoring by means of weekly hums to make use of the new songs, this collection is especially welcome.

The following interesting statistics from the report of the U.S. Bureau of Education: Teaching is now the dominant profession for college graduates, with 25 per cent.; law, 15 per cent.; medicine 6 to 7 per cent.; engineering, 4 per cent.; ministry, 5 per cent.
The attendance at the second College Sing College hum last Friday gave proof that there is urgent need for practice of the new songs which will be used as the football and track seasons progress. Although those present were not lacking in enthusiasm, a greater number must attend if the songs are to be rendered in the best manner this fall. The small attendance might be explained by the circumstance that there had already been one gathering earlier in the day to see the football team off; but it is far better to have such a large crowd present that there will be no question about lack of spirit.

Winter Indoor Practice With the unexcelled opportunities for winter practice which the new gym will afford, the College may expect that its athletic teams will gain the lead over their rivals which the advantage of indoor practice ought to bring. Although October may seem an early date to discuss this winter practice, such is not the case. The men who are going to apply for admission to the various squads should do so at once, as the numbers will be limited for the sake of efficiency. It is the duty of every one who has ability in baseball or who is a potential point winner for the track team to apply at once for a place on the squads, in order that the captains may be able to gauge all the material available and begin now to plan their spring campaigns.

Fire-Hardening the Team Naturally the undergraduates wish to see the football team go through the season with an unbroken series of victories, and they are not inclined to be wholly satisfied with the early-season results. But there is no doubt that the men on the team are playing as hard as they know how, there is no doubt that they possess the fighting spirit that is not dismayed when the odds are against them. Now is the time when the team is being welded together by combining the new material with the old; it is a time that calls for the support of every man in College. Let the players see that Bowdoin to a man is going to back the team, and this alone will form an important part of its development into a machine to win the championship. Fire-hardening the team is not a process which brings much pleasure to the players or the undergraduates, but it is one which cannot fail to bring results when the championship games are contested.

Musical Notes There are an exceedingly large number of men out for the glee clubs this fall and it will take several weeks before the final choice for the year is made. The candidates are nearly all good singers and the managers of the club think that with the old men and the best of the new ones there ought to be an exceptionally fine chorus. The club will have an extra advantage this year of having Professor Wass, who has coached the organization several seasons, in Brunswick as rehearsals can be held more often and at shorter notice. Although the band has had a few rehearsals this year nothing definite concerning the organization or the membership has been decided. There are about the usual number out and they are all very good musicians. Lewis, this year's leader, will begin rehearsals very soon and will cull out the poor players at once so that there may be music at the Maine series games. Although nothing definite has been decided upon it is understood that this winter the choir will consist of a double quartette as last year. At present the members are Mason, Colby, Twombley, Card, West, Page, Tibbetts and Munroe.

Art Building Notes

A valuable addition to the illustrative material being collected for the new course in Fine Arts has been received as a gift from Mrs. I. S. Bangs of Waterville in memory of her son, Dennis M. Bangs '91. It consists of a series of the Medici prints illustrating the Italian and English schools, and is especially helpful in the work of the course because of their faithful and beautiful reproduction of the colors of the original painting.

The College has been fortunate in being able to decorate the new lecture room, in which the course in the History of Art is given, with a fine collection of marbles, bronzes, paintings, and porcelains loaned by Mrs. Percival W. White in memory of her son Richard of the Class of 1912 and her husband, who were victims of the Titanic catastrophe.

Of especial note are the three Bayse bronzes, Lion and Serpent, The Horse, and The Centaur. There are copies of well-known classical figures, such as The Narcissus, The Fighting Gladiator, The Wrestlers; there is also an admirable copy of Vela's Last Days of Napoleon, a charming Farewell of the Swallows, a modern French bronze done by Felix Charpentier in 1893, and a beautiful standing figure called The Angelus, done by Jacquot in 1887.

The six marbles are a full-sized copy in Carrara marble the bust of the Apollo Belvidere and five modern figures of ideal significance, Ruth, Innocence, A Fourteenth Century Page, Cupid's Lasso, and The Youthful Columbus.

Among the paintings are a large copy of a Putto by Raphael, charming in color as in other details, and a "Forest Interior" representing the deep woods. There are also three large photographs of The Syndics by Rembrandt, the Sistine Madonna, and the Immaculate Conception by Murillo. There are three excellent portraits in oil of Richard White and an admirable photograph of his father. A fine water color, On the Delaware, is by F. F. English. Two large etchings, proofs, are of Albrechtsburg by Mannfeld and another, St. Paul's by Moonlight, by Francis S. Walker. A portfolio of unframed pictures includes several etchings by Haig.

Choice specimens of Royal Worcester, Royal Dresden, Sévres, and Minton ware, and various pieces of Cloisonné are shown in cases on the north side of the room.

As it is impossible to have an attendant in the room, visitors desiring to see the collection should apply at the desk in Sculpture Hall. Students taking the course in the History of Art have access to the room during the hours when the Art Building is open.

Club and Council Meetings

The Student Council at their meeting Monday evening considered several important measures. The question of a class contest after the baseball games was discussed and a flag rush was settled upon as the most feasible. A committee was appointed to work up the affair. The calendar proposed by Gardner '13 was accepted and Eaton '14 was elected to the position of assistant calendar manager. The Council recommended to the student body that the chapel bell should not be used for class victories, but should be used for college celebrations alone. Douglas brought up the matter of instituting a system of limitations of the number of student activities for individual students. A committee will report on this matter at a later meeting.

At a meeting of the Gibbons Club in the Deutscher Verein room on Thursday evening, the following members were admitted: Frank R. Loeffler, 1914; James A. Dunn, 1916; James E. Barry, 1916; and John C. Fitzgerald, 1916. It was voted that the next meeting should be held at the Theta Delta Chi House.

At a meeting of the Sophomore class held in the gym last Tuesday the members were urged to come out for the track athletics by Coach Morrill, Captain Haskell of the track team and "Uriah" Hall, the cross country captain. The talks were all straight to the point and took effect as there was a large increase in the number of Sophomores on the field the last of the week.

At a meeting of the Freshman class last Tuesday Mr. Wiggin of the student council, Captain Hall of the cross country team and Captain Haskell of the track team spoke on Freshman activities in athletics. The flag rush was also explained and the class were requested not to ring the chapel bell for class victories. Elliott S. Boardman was elected cross country captain.

With the Faculty

At a meeting held in the court room of the Town building last Saturday night a Wilson-Marshall club was organized with Dean Sils as President and Professor Ham, Secretary.

President Hyde is to be one of the speakers at the inauguration of President Michaeljohn of Amherst College on October the 16th.

At a meeting of the Maine Teachers' Association, to be held at Portland on the 25th of this month. Dean Sills, the representative of the Maine Colleges on the executive committee, is to read a paper on "The Equipment of an English Teacher." In this Association, President Hyde is the chairman of the College Section, Professor Cram is chairman of the Department of Science and Mathematics, and Professor Files is chairman of the Department of Modern Languages.

On the Campus

The Library Table is being handled by Simpson this fall.

Rollins is editing With the Faculty.

Frank Cowan '13 and Vernon Marr '14 left Saturday for Madison, Wis., where they will represent the Bowdoin Chapter of Delta Upsilon at their national convention.

"Spike" MacCormick was nailed to a tree by the Freshmen last Saturday in the rope drag.

The College as a whole feels sympathy with Paul Douglas, the popular football man, in his bereavement. He left Thursday evening for Ithaca, N.Y., where he will attend the funeral of his father.

Bisbee '03 was on the campus Thursday.

Bacon '13 returned to college Friday.

Large numbers of Bowdoin students attended Topsham Fair where the back fence proved as popular an entrance as ever. Among the features were Baby Jim, the 700 pound wonder, and Coach Fish Marsh, who presided over a well patronized souvenier stand near the gate. Fish was happy to see old friends and anxious to learn of track prospects.

On Thursday night, Charles Wyman was severely scalded while taking a shower bath in North Winthrop. Wyman cried lustily for help and pounded on the door. His roommate Shepard hearing his cries rushed to his assistance, pushed open the door, and pulled him out. By this time Wyman was painfully scalded about the shoulders and chest. Dr. Whittier was called and pronounced the burns not dangerous.

Arthur Merril '14 is coaching the Brunswick High School football team this fall. His proteges are meeting with fair success in their early season games.

The janitors in the dormitories this year are James C. McBain in Maine, Frank Cummings in Appleton, and Frank Meicher in Winthrop. Edward Purrington and Samuel Seel have charge of the class-rooms. Arthur Litchfield is in the Science building and E. Bragdon is in the Hubbard Library. James McBain is head janitor again this year.

A large number of loyal Bowdoin rooters cheered the football men Friday morning, when the team left for Hartford to play Trinity.

Dr. Whittier is fast completing the strength tests of the men in the entering class.

A large number of Freshmen took advantage of the double holiday to make a trip home.

Nickerson '16 set a record for this year at the dips in the strength tests, when he performed the stunt 20 times. He also chinned the bar 15 times.

The total registration for the first Semester is 333. Of this number, 75 are Seniors, 65 Juniors, 56 Sophomores, and 117 Freshmen. There is one special student.

Herbert Locke '12 of Angusta was the guest of friends on Thursday last.

Harold Arenovski '12 was a visitor at the Bowdoin Club last week.

Work on the new gym is rapidly nearing completion. The plumbing is all done and the electric fixtures and steam radiators are now being installed. On last Thursday the water was turned on for the first time, and the water heating system was tried out, with satisfactory results.

Football teams representing the "Deke" and Alpha Delta Phi fraternities played a hard-fought but bloodless game of football on the Delta last Saturday afternoon. After Stuart and Johnnie Bull had made their last fierce rushes, and after "Peanut" Verrill had made his last flying tackle, the score stood 14 to 7 in favor of the "Dekes."

New Meadows Inn closed last Sunday evening.

The Second Team was scheduled to play Portland High last Saturday afternoon, but on account of the financial risk involved in holding the contest under such unfavorable weather conditions the Portland management requested that the game be cancelled. The Bowdoin management desired to play but acceded to the wishes of the Portland boys.

Jupiter Phvios called off the second game in the Freshman-Sophomore baseball series which was to be played last Saturday morning. The postponed game will be played.

The Dean announces that students who wish examinations for the removal of Incompletes are requested to leave their names and the subjects in which they wish to be examined at his office before Oct. 20.

All those who wish to substitute track work for regular gymnasium work are requested to hand their names to Manager Alan Cole at the Theta Delta Chi House or Captain Charlie Haskell at the Delta Kappa Epsilon House. All those who wish baseball cage work instead of gym hand in names to Captain Link Skolfield or Manager X.
Callahan at the Beta House.

In spite of Topsham Fair and kindred attractions and distractions, the Tennis Tournament is still in progress. Nixon '13 has defeated Nickerson '16, Kuhn '15 beat Cummings '13, Miller '16 beat Greeley '16, Savage '13 beat Wing '14, Larrabee '16 beat Barton '14, Miller '16 beat Kuhn '15 and Woodman '16 beat Leigh '14.

The Library Table

Professor Hutchins has contributed two articles to the world of science which are especially worthy of mention. One of them, “How to Make Quartz Fiber,” was published in the Scientific American of Aug. 17th. Quartz fiber is considered the finest and strongest suspension known. The other article, “The Absorption and Thickness of Thin Films,” was published in the American Journal of Science, Vol. XXXIV, September, 1912. This article treats of the preparation of films, of the transparency of the films to long waves and of the thickness of the films.

Seventy-four volumes of standard works in general English literature have been received from the library of the late Rev. George Gannett '42, who was at one time principal of the Gannett Institute, Boston.

“The Democratic Mistake,” one of the new books at the Library, by George Arthur Sedgwick, discusses government by design, responsibility, the Democratic mistake, the patronage and the machine, limitations, and the suffrage.

One of the books which bears very much on the political questions of the day is “Majority Rule and the Judiciary,” by William L. Ransom, which has just been added to the Library. It aims to show the legal and historical basis for the recall of judicial decisions and has an introduction by Roosevelt.

In his article “The Undergraduate Roosevelt” in Collier’s Weekly for Oct. 12th, Donald Wilhelm shows the influence of the young man’s four years at Harvard on his later career.

Joseph Schafer, Professor of History in the University of Oregon, is the author of “Who Should Go to College and Why” in the October Review of Reviews. The article shows the increasing importance attached to the practical studies, advises the abolition of the certificate plan, and suggests that the examinations test the quality, not the quantity, of the work.

“An Old Bowdoin Song Book,” by George William Kelly '66, is a magnificent symbol of the deepest love and truest loyalty that one of our alumni could have for his Alma Mater.

The chivalry which General Chamberlain, of Maine, the hero of Little Round Top and Gettysburg, displayed in receiving the surrender of the army and colors of Lee’s forces at Appomattox is admirably portrayed in the article by Morris Schaff in October’s Atlantic Monthly entitled “The Sunset of the Confederacy.” Inasmuch as General Chamberlain has been governor of Maine and president of Bowdoin College, every loyal Bowdoin man should read the account.

Intercollegiate Notes

John Paul Jones, the famous Cornell miler, has recently been elected president of the Senior class at Cornell.

The Sophomore class at Brown has adopted a caucus system for the nomination of its class officers.

One of the promising candidates for center at a certain western university has been declared ineligible because he played three minutes in 1909.

U. of P. gets a promising candidate for the Freshman team in Michael Dorizas, a Greek. Dorizas is 24 years old, weighs 244, and is 5 feet 9 inches tall. In 1908 he won second place in the javelin throw at the London Olympics.

The college fire brigade at Wellesley has reorganized for service in 1912-1913. The fire corps consists of a marshal, and at least one captain from each of the college houses, and each of the boarding houses in the village.

The Amherst Dramatic Club will produce the “Taming of the Shrew” this year. It will be remembered that this was staged last commencement by our own Masque and Gown.

At the University of Wisconsin a class of 128 students, nearly half of whom were above the Freshman class, was examined in elementary geography. The highest mark obtained by any student was 87 and the lowest 28. Nearly 80 per cent. of the class received marks below 70. The largest number, nearly 30 per cent., received between 50 and 60.

Alumni Department

’54.—It is the sad duty of the Orient in this issue to record the death of one of Bowdoin’s most earnest and famous alumni, Ex-Senator William Drew Washburn, late of Minneapolis, who died on July 22nd. But sad as it is to record the passing of such a noble man, it is an equally great pleasure to present the facts of such a notable life. Here was a man who indeed had a big place to fill in the world and filled it. As lawyer, as projector of railroads, mills, and other business propositions, and as statesman, he was a leader in the improvement of the Northwest, and it is no wonder that he has often been called "the first citizen of Minneapolis." And, a fact of greater interest to us in our own small world, he was "loyal forever until death did sever" to the College, always interested in its management and its achievements.

William Drew Washburn was born in Liver-more, Me., on Jan. 14, 1831. He was a member of a family famous in Maine history, several of its members having been in the House of Representatives and in other important offices. He worked on his father's farm and then entered Gorham Academy. From there he entered Bowdoin in 1851, graduating three years later. During the entire three years he was dependent on his own resources and several times he did outside work, such as being a clerk in the Maine House of Representatives.

After graduation, Mr. Washburn studied law, being first with his brother Israel (later governor of the state) at Orono and later with Hon. John A. Peters of Bangor. He was admitted to the bar in 1857.

In the same year he conceived a great desire to go West and moved to Minneapolis. Here he became an agent for the Minneapolis Mill Co., at the same time carrying on a little law practice.
From this time his rise was by leaps and bounds.
In 1861 President Lincoln appointed him Surveyor General of Minnesota. While working at this, he became well acquainted with the lumber resources of the state and in 1854 erected a large saw mill, this being his first attempt in the mill promotion in which he was so prominent later.

Five years later he started projecting railroads when he started the Minneapolis and St. Louis Railroad, of which he was president in 1875.
Later he organized the Minneapolis, Sault Ste.
Marie and Atlantic Railroad, the great outlet of those twin cities, Minneapolis and St. Paul, and indeed of the whole Northwest.

His interest in milling later led him to become interested in the Washburn & Crosby, and the Pillsbury-Washburn plants, which have a daily capacity of 30,000 barrels.

Mr. Washburn's political career began in 1874 when he was elected to the Minnesota House of Representatives. Two years later he was a candidate for governor, but lost in the convention.
In 1878 he was elected to Congress, being re-elected in 1880. In 1884 he was again elected to Congress from the fourth district and he declined a re-election at the close of this term. In 1889 he was elected to the Senate, serving until 1895.

Mr. Washburn had a most pleasing home in Minneapolis called "Fair Oaks." In 1859 he mar-rried Miss Elizabeth Mussy of Bangor. One of his sons, Stanley Washburn, is a successful manufacturer in Minneapolis, while the other, Cadwaller Washburn, is a noted artist in the same city.

In 1901, Bowdoin gave Mr. Washburn the honorary degree of LL.D. in recognition of his notable achievements.

Thus another of our great alumni departs, leaving us a rich heritage in his eighty-one years of achievement and giving us an example of what can be accomplished if one has the will in spite of seemingly insurmountable disadvantages.

'61.—Ex-Chief Justice Lucilius A. Emery of the Maine Supreme Court is working on the history of the Maine courts prior to the separation from Massachusetts in 1820. This will be a part of a larger work in which Mr. Emery is planning to cover the history of all the Maine Courts.

'71.—Edward Page Mitchell, editor of the New York Sun, and the author of Phi Chi, was married last July to Miss Ada Burroughs of New York. Miss Burroughs has been the literary critic of the paper of which Mr. Mitchell is editor. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell took a tour through the West.

'89.—Rev. Edward R. Stearns, who has been pastor of the Lancaster, New Hampshire, Congregational Church for the past ten years, has resigned to accept a position as field secretary of the Ministers' and Widows' Charitable Fund Society, a state Congregational organization.

'98.—Donald B. McMillan, who spent the summer on the coast of Labrador, recently returned for a few days to Freeport, his home town. Mr.
McMillan is in fine health and has greatly enjoyed his trip, although he reports that the season was cold and stormy. The story of the trip, as it was sent out from Sidney, N. S., was recently published in the Portland Express-Advertiser.
Mr. McMillan has now gone on to Boston and New York on business.

'09.—Harrison Atwood, who will be remembered as one of the most popular men in this class, has entered the political field as a worker for Wilson. Under the auspices of the Wilson College Men's League, a New York City organiization, he is helping to organize clubs in the various colleges. Mr. Atwood is also now one of the directors in the McCann Advertising Corporation of New York City, having entered the advertising business immediately after graduation.

'00.—Clifford S. Bragdon was chosen from a list of 100 candidates to the position of principal of the high school at Utica, N. Y. Since 1906
Mr. Bragdon had held the position of sub-master of the Technical High School, Springfield, Mass.
READY BOWDOIN, READY COLBY?

Next Saturday afternoon on Whittier Field Bowdoin will meet Colby for the first clash in the Maine State football series. The papers would have it that Colby is to win this first contest with ease. Far be it from the Orient to contradict its more experienced contemporaries.

But even the best of prophets sometimes make miscalculations. This much is certain, however. The boys out on the Field are working like Trojans, tackling the dummy, charging, and running punts and are determined, every man of them, to show the College that they are worthy to represent the "White."

They're not quitting, and it is up to the student body to get behind them and root next Saturday, root as they never rooted before, and when the game is over, and not till then, will we reckon the score.

These are the Bowdoin-Colby scores of the past: won by Bowdoin 13, by Colby 4, tied 5.

1894—Bowdoin 30, Colby 0.
1895—Bowdoin 5, Colby 0.
1896—Bowdoin 6, Colby 0.
1897—Bowdoin 12, Colby 0.
1898—Bowdoin 16, Colby 0.
1899—Bowdoin 24, Colby 0.
1900—Bowdoin 26, Colby 0.
1901—Bowdoin 12, Colby 0.
1902—Bowdoin 16, Bowdoin 5.
1903—Bowdoin 11, Bowdoin 0.
1904—Bowdoin 52, Colby 0.
1905—Bowdoin 5, Colby 0.
1906—Bowdoin 0, Colby 0.
1907—Bowdoin 5, Colby 0.
1908—Bowdoin 9, Colby 6.
1909—Bowdoin 12, Bowdoin 5.
1910—Bowdoin 6, Colby 5.
1911—Bowdoin 0, Colby 0.

BOWDOIN, 0; TUFTS, 34—OCT. 19

Bowdoin was defeated by Tufts last Saturday, at Medford, Mass. It was the poorest exhibition of football that a Bowdoin team has put up in a long while. The Bowdoin men were in a daze from the first touchdown to the end of the game. They seemed to have completely lost the ability to tackle a man or to stop a play. Time and again Tufts rushed the ball through a broken field for gains of 15 to 40 yards. Play after play shot around our ends, and Bowdoin didn't stop them!

The reason for that defeat was a simple one. Bowdoin failed to come back with the punch. The team lacked that spirit which has won so many games for old Bowdoin. The players all fought, but not as one man. The team was not a machine. It lacked unity.

Bowdoin was extremely weak in defense, especially in tackling. This was very evident from the gains made by end runs. Beal and Page smashed the interference in every play, but the secondary defense failed to get the man with the ball. The line held fairly well. Leadbetter got some good tackles and fought his position. But each man worked alone. They were individuals and not a team.

Stuart played a fine game at quarter. He ran the team well and got his punts off fast and sure. Wetherill and LaCasce made good gains around the ends. Beal and Page both played steady, consistent football. Wilson and Adams were easily the stars for Tufts.

IN DETAIL

Bowdoin received the kick and rushed the ball to Tufts' 15 yard line. Faulkner fumbled. Wilson rushed the ball over for the first touchdown after a few minutes of playing.

Angell scored the next touchdown after a series of successive gains by line plunges. Wilson missed the goal.

Ellms ran the kick-off back forty yards through a broken field. Tufts was then held for downs and Adams kicked to Bowdoin's twenty-yard line. Wetherill then made twenty yards on an end run only to lose the ball on the next play when Adams captured a forward pass.

Wilson carried the ball to Bowdoin's ten yard line and Adams carried the ball over the line. Wilson kicked the goal.

Angell advanced the kick-off to Bowdoin's 40 yard line. After two plunges the ball was on the 25 yard line, and Mitchell on the next play made a spectacular run to a touchdown. Wilson kicked the goal.
Bowdoin kicked to Elms, who ran the ball back 15 yards. Adams played through the line for 15 yards more. After several successive plunges Wilson again carried the ball over on an end run.

TUFTS
Elms, McIver, le.........................re, Beal
O'Donnell, Tobin, lt....................rt, Leadbetter
Houston, Babcock, lg....................rg, Lewis
Thorndike, Richardson, Robbins, e
Schlotterbeck, rg.......................lg, Pratt
Bennett, Hill, rt........................lt, Wood
Donnellan, Gaw, Ford, re..............re, Hinch, Page
Wilson, Garvin, qb......................qb, Stuart
Mitchell, Hadley, lhb...................rhb, Wetherill
Angell, Whitney, rhb..............lhb, Faulkner, Fitzgerald
Adams, Teale, fl.......................fb, LaCasce

FRATERNITY INITIATIONS
This evening the eight fraternities of the College will hold their annual initiations, admitting 85 men from the Freshman class and 3 from the Sophomore class. The past few days have witnessed the customary goat riding stunts, and today has brought a large number of alumni to enjoy the ceremonies. Following is the list of initiates:

BOWDOIN CHAPTER OF ALPHA DELTA PHI
Wellington Arthur Bamford, Houlton.
Coy Lawrence Hagermann, Houlton.
Amos Bartlett Haggett, Jr., Bath.
Edward Robert Little, Brunswick.
Lew Maurice Noble, Phillips.
John Waterman Robie, Gorham.
Richard Stuart, Newport.
Philip Francis Weatherill, Brunswick.
Donald Sherman White, Indianapolis, Ind.

KAPPA CHAPTER OF PSI UPSILON
Winthrop Bancroft, Brookline, Mass.
Eliot Sheffield Boardman, Guilford.
Walter Emery Chase, Bath.
Frederick Ellery Cruff, West Roxbury, Mass.
Donald Payson George, Thomaston.
Edward Carey Hawes, Bangor.
Alden Fairfield Head, Bangor.
Frank Hobert Lord Hargraves, West Buxton.
David Francis Kelley, Gardiner.

Norman Hunt Nickerson, Red Beach.
Dwight Harold Sayward, Portland.

THETA CHAPTER OF DELTA KAPPA EPSILON
Richard Stearns Fuller, Rockland.
Robert Rutherford Drummond, Portland.
Myron Eusebius Hale, Roxbury, Mass.
Lawrence Irving, Roxbury, Mass.
William Mason Bradley Lord, Portland.
Leland Stanford McElwee, Houlton.
Haywood Treat Parsons, Pittsfield.
George Richard Stuart, Augusta.

ETA CHARGE OF THETA DELTA CHI
Daniel Allen Anthony, Greenwich, Conn.
George Ernest Beal, Lisbon Falls.
Lewis Evans Boutuell, Malden, Mass.
Kenneth Towle Burr, Dorchester, Mass.
John Cogan Fitzgerald, Bath.
Urban Howe Merrill, Lawrence, Mass.
Henry Gerard Wood, Steuben.
Ivan Hyde Yenetchi, Lawrence, Mass.

Affiliation
Summer Leighton Mountfort '14, Portland.

LAMBDA CHAPTER OF ZETA PSI
Everett Warren Bacon, Skowhegan.
James Edward Barry, Bangor.
Robert Coffyn Clark, Newton Highlands, Mass.
James Alfred Dunn, Malden, Mass.
Don Jerome Edwards, Portland.
Ora Liston Evans, Foxcroft.
Henry Lincoln Gormley, Roxbury, Mass.
Hugh Merrill Hescock, Foxcroft.
Ernest Proctor Lull, Pawtucket, R. I.
Paul Kendall Niven, Providence, R. I.
William Ray Pease, Portland.
Frederick Webster Powers, Portland.

BOWDOIN CHAPTER OF DELTA UPSILON
1915
George Douglas Grierson, So. Portland.
C. Talbot Rogers, No. Anson.

1916
James Scott Brackett, Phillips.
John Doane Churchill, Minot.
Alfred Hall Crossman, Newport Center, Mass.
Malcolm Henry Dyar, Farmington.
Samuel Fraser, Masardis.
George Everett Greely, Hudson, Mass.
Emery Bruce Poore, Hudson, Mass.
Lee Duren Pettingill, Lewiston.
Earle Revere Stratton, Hudson, Mass.
John Glenwood Winter, Kingfield.

ALPHA RHO CHAPTER OF KAPPA SIGMA
Philip Linwood Carter, Portland.
Eugene Joseph Cronin, Lewiston.
Harold Linwood Doten, Lewiston.
Charles Percival Fortin, New Bedford, Mass.
Herbert Henry Foster, Seattle, Wash.
Ralph Raymond Glidden, Gardiner.
Donald Clark Hight, Athens.
Gordon Wesley Olsen, West Somerville, Mass.
Wallace Bruce Olsen, West Somerville, Mass.
Thomas Henry Taber, New Bedford, Mass.

BETA SIGMA CHAPTER OF BETA THETA PI
1915
James Abram Lewis, No. Haven.
1916
Adriel Ulmer Bird, Rockland.
Edward Philip Garland, Bangor.
Chauncey Alfred Hall, Augusta.
Raymond Charmbury Hamlin, Maynard, Mass.
Walter Thomas Haseltine, Pittsfield.
William Dunning Ireland, Stetson.
Harry Fletcher Knight, Townsend Harbor, Mass.
Guy Whitman Leadbetter, So. Lincoln.
James Burleigh Moulton, E. Barnstable.
James Franklin Parsons, Barnston, P. Q.
Leigh Webber, Hallowell.

1916, 12; 1915, 1—OCT. 16
The Freshmen easily defeated the Sophomores in the second game of the inter-class series. Fraser held the upper class team to only three hits. The timely batting of Knight and McElwee, which scored five runs, coupled with the many passes which Stetson granted, made it impossible for the Sophomore team to win. Glidden's base running was a feature. Stetson and Kuhn worked hard for their team; Allen hit well for the Sophomores, while Rogers played a good game at third. The score:

SOPHOMORES

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>bh</th>
<th>th</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Kuhn, c</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Allen, cf</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Keegan, 2, p</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Eaton, 1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Somers, ss</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rogers, 3</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>McKenney, lf</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Coxe, rf</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stetson, 1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Grierson, p</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. Stetson, ss</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SUM</td>
<td>18</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>15</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

FRESHMEN

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>bh</th>
<th>th</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Woodman, cf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kelley, ss</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Parsons, 2</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>McElwee, 3</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Boutwell, c</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Glidden, if</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bird, rf</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Knight, rf</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Olsen, 1</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fraser, p</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

SUM

32 12 6 9 5 15 3

Hits off Stetson, 6; Fraser, 3; Grierson, 0. Hit by pitched ball, Fraser, 1; Stetson, 0; Grierson, 0. Passes, off Stetson, 8; Fraser, 2. Three base hit, McElwee. Two base hit, Knight. Stolen bases, Woodman, Glidden 3, Olsen 2, Keegan 2.

MORE BRASS NEEDED
The following men have already been chosen members of the Band: E. W. Bacon, R. C. Hamlin, W. T. Hazeltine, F. P. McKenney, I. C. Merrill, Ranson, A. H. Stuart. This brings the membership up to twenty-one as against twenty-six of last year.

The loss of twelve members by graduation last June depleted every section and seriously crippled the band. It is up to the new men to make good this loss. So far the response has been excellent, but more men are still needed. The tenor and trombone sections are especially weak.

New music has been ordered and will probably be here for the next rehearsal. It is imperative that all members and applicants for membership turn out Tuesday night for rehearsal so that this music may be tried out and worked up for the coming games. The men will surely do this when they realize that only by so doing can the usual good showing of the band be made possible.

STUDENT FORUM
The Y. M. C. A. meeting next Thursday will be a Student Meeting. Crosby will speak on "College Property;" Douglas on "College Honors;" Haskell on "Team Support;" Jones on "The New Gym and a Physical Director." Crowell will preside.

For the last two years the Association has conducted these discussion meetings periodically with the greatest success. It is their object to bring before the student body various undergraduate problems and interests with the view to better understanding them. All who possibly can find the time will find it profitable to be present.
A subject which should prove of great interest to all undergraduates is to be given the first public discussion at the Student Meeting of the Christian Association next Thursday evening. It is the limitation of individual activities by means of a point system. The plan has been tried in several colleges with success, hence it is one certainly worth examination by Bowdoin undergraduates. The arguments for and against the system will be outlined at the meeting; the modifications of the system in different colleges will be explained; and these considerations should lead everyone to be present.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING

Bishop Codman of Portland, Episcopal bishop of Maine, was the speaker at the meeting of the Christian Association last Thursday evening, the subject of his talk being "God: how to find Him and know Him." He told of his own earlier life, of how he had regarded God in the same light that most young fellows do, and how he had built an idol of definite shape and character out of his imagination. But he said that if we are to find the true God, we have only to lay aside this idol and look about us. To show how God was regarded in the time of the Old Testament, we may take the names of Lord and God and trace them back to their origin, the one being derived from Jehovah, a more revered being than the other, Elohim. Today we are able to understand to a greater degree than the native of the Eastern countries in the Old Testament times what God really means. May we break away from the sentimental idols which in our hearts we know to be false, and may we accept the real God as our Jehovah and our Elohim.
Whether the plan of the Student Council for the flag rush was wise or not is beside the point—the sophomores who interfered with it violated the unwritten law of the College in refusing to abide by the suggestions of the Student Council as the popularly elected governing body of the undergraduates of Bowdoin, whose authority and influence depends solely upon our oft-praised Bowdoin spirit. By their act last Wednesday the sophomore class has manifested a contempt for the Student Council, and a decided lack of that Bowdoin spirit.

The sophomores have offered as an excuse for their act in breaking up the rush that they were greatly outnumbered. Although the freshman class is larger than the sophomore class it is not so large as to render a flag rush in which the sophomores have the advantage of position unequal. But the fact was the sophomore complaint has its foundation in the fact that about two-thirds of the class were absent from the field—in other words, its plea rests on the weakness of its own class spirit.

It is unnecessary to state that the Student Council does not wish to assume power over the students or to abuse the power it rightly has—nothing is farther from its intention. On the contrary, its members are glad to relieve themselves of the many important questions which they are forced to decide. But as the governing body of the undergraduates it feels that it must express its regret that its acts should be set at naught through the lack of college and class spirit in the Class of 1915.

—THE STUDENT COUNCIL.

SUNDAY CHAPEL

Rev. Samuel Atkins Eliot, D.D., of Cambridge, Mass., President of the American Unitarian Association, the first College preacher of the year, spoke at Sunday Chapel from the text, "The Lord hath need." He said in brief:

"People who attend church hear a great deal about our need of God; it is the custom of religious gatherings to emphasize this point. We cannot fail to realize that we have need of a power larger, greater, and more far-seeing than ourselves, but we should not forget that God has need of the man.

"The responsibility for human progress rests upon human shoulders. God tells us what he wants us to do, points out the way, and gives us the power to carry out his instructions. He does not do the work himself; that is our duty.

"The best impulses of our lives come unsolicited. It is from God that come our impulses for success in life, and a life of service and usefulness. We alone cannot make those impulses good; we must cooperate with God. He made us to be voluntary workers and sharers in his plan, and gave us moral freedom and the power to serve or rebel. The progress of the world depends upon our humble efforts. In self-respect, then, we can stand erect—erect for service as God demands.

"You college men are facing the fact of a world's ignorance, and every one of you wants to be of service. In the battle in which you are to engage you should remember that it is not your fight but God's. Every single victory of human progress is just an onward step with God leading the procession. You should work with that sense of confederacy that you can rely on God's strength if he can rely on you."

Art Building Notes

Two gifts of unusual interest have been received from Dr. Carleton Sawyer of the Class of 1881 of Foxboro, Mass. One of these is a library chair that belonged to Ex-President John Quincy Adams and was bought at his residence in Quincy, Mass., by Mr. Fred C. Clark, from whose possession it has passed to Dr. Sawyer. It is exhibited in the Bowdoin Gallery at the east side near the Stuart portraits of Presidents Jefferson and Madison. The other gift is that of a small Spanish cannon captured in the Philippines during the late Spanish-American War by Rear-Admiral Wilde, who gave it to Dr. Sawyer. The cannon was sent to the Far East by the Spaniards about 1530 according to Philippine authorities. It is placed in Memorial Hall, which also contains a fragment of the "Maine," a relic of the same conflict.

With the Faculty

Through an oversight on the part of the editors the name of Professor Herbert C. Bell, Ph.D., did not appear in With the Faculty among those of the new members. Professor Bell becomes the Thomas Brackett Reed Professor of History and Political Science, succeeding Professor William E. Lunt who is now professor of English History at Cornell University. Professor Bell graduated from the University of Toronto in 1903 and received his Ph.D. degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1909,—the subject of his thesis for the doctor's degree being "The American Revolution and the British West Indies." He also spent half a year at the University of Paris as well as a year and a half in England doing research work. He received the Alexander MacKenzie Fellowship in History from the University of Toronto, the Harrison Scholarship, the Harrison Fellowship, and the Harrison Research Fellowship from the University of Pennsylvania. He is a member of Phi Eta fraternity (honorary), and of Zeta Psi. For the past three years he has taught Modern European and English History at the University of Wisconsin.

Professor Lunt whose place Dr. Bell takes left a deep impress on the College during his year here. A Bowdoin man himself, he was not only an inspiring lecturer and a forceful, patient and vigorous teacher in his chosen field, but he identified himself with the interests of the student body. It is to the Lunt plan that we owe our large entering class this fall. Both faculty and student bodies feel confident that with his energy, vigorous intellect, industry and winning personality he will rapidly become one of the leaders in the profession.

President Hyde represented Bowdoin at the inauguration of Dr. Merklejohn as president of Amherst College on October sixteenth. In his address President Hyde dealt with the problems which a college president must face. These problems he considered under four main propositions: First, the alumni and friends of a college must be kept intelligently interested in the activities and needs of the college. Second, the income must be wisely distributed. This presents many difficulties, for every live department considers itself most important, and wants the largest share. "The third problem is to select a faculty effective as individuals in their departments and as a team for the joint enterprise." Fourth, the undergraduate life must be kept wholesome. Fraternities must be influenced by personal pressure in the right direction. "They can be made a mighty power for right living—but like fires, though splendid servants, are terrible masters." This last problem President Hyde considers the president's chief duty.

A number of the Faculty expect to attend the Maine Teachers' Association annual meeting in Portland, this week. Pres. Hyde and Mr. McConaughy are on the list of speakers. All the other Maine Colleges will be represented at this meeting.

A meeting of all the presidents of the various New England Colleges will be held here sometime in November. This is the first time this meeting has been held here for fifteen years.

The Saturday Club of Brunswick has announced their schedule of meetings for the coming year. The College has arranged to have two of them held in Memorial Hall, and all students will be admitted free. The meetings will be well worth attending. The first one comes Nov. 14, at 8 p.m., and will be a concert by Parker's Boston Imperials, an octette consisting of four superb male voices, with a trio of flute, violin, and harp assisted by a prima donna soprano. The second meeting comes Nov. 18, at 8 p.m. This is an illustrated lecture on The Grand Canyon of Arizona, by Mr. Nat. M. Bridgham.

Prof. K. C. M. Sills as chairman of the Brunswick Chapter of the Red Cross has appointed a committee to have charge of the active work for the prevention of the spread of tuberculosis in this town. Prof. Cram is chairman of the committee.

Prof. Files has been granted a leave of absence which he will take in the spring.

On the Campus

The Student Council at its meeting a week ago elected the two faculty members of the Board of Trustees of the Bowdoin Publishing Co. Professor Mitchell was elected with a two-year term and Professor Ham with a one-year term of office. The matters of a hockey team and a mid-winter preparatory school carnival in the new gymnasium were discussed but no definite action was taken on either.

The deciding game in the Freshman-Sophomore baseball series will be played tomorrow, weather permitting.

Eighty-five Freshmen will be the proud but sleepy possessors of fraternity pins tomorrow morning.

Among the most interesting of the Saturday Club entertainments to be given this winter are the following: Nov. 26, Public Health. Our Greatest National Asset. Dr. Harvey W. Wiley; Dec. 10, Ben Greet Players in She Stoops to Conquer.

Professor Woodruff has been entertaining President Ferrin of Forest Grove Seminary for the last few days.

Edward Snow '14 is principal of the Brunswick evening school and Francis McKenney '15, his first assistant.

Professor Hutchins received the news of the final games in the world series at the wireless station in the Science Building and his returns by innings were closely followed on the campus.

The following took the Rhodes exams at Augusta last Tuesday: Harold C. Morse, Colby; Jesse S. Robinson, Allegheny College, Pa.; Earl Tuttle, Neal Tuttle, Alfred Gray, Bowdoin.

Half hour service on the electrics to Lewiston and Bath has been discontinued for the winter.
Cars leave for Bath at twenty minutes past the hour; for Lewiston at twenty minutes of the hour.

The Boston Globe publishes a straw vote of the Faculty. The results of the poll are: Wilson 12, Taft 11, Roosevelt 6. "Teddy," however, is reported to have remarked that despite these apparently overwhelming odds, he will still stay in the contest. In 1908, 24 voted for Taft and one for Bryan. This year the Dean apparently has more company.

A large number of the students and faculty attended the Maine Musical Festival in Portland. Among those noticed were Dean Sills, Professor Woodruff, Professor Ham, Professor Wass, Holt '13, Greene '13, Mitchell '14, Leigh '14, Gibson '14, Rowe '13, Burleigh '13, Foster '16.

Howard Miller, Jr., '16 of Brooklyn, New York, left Friday for New York City, where he expects to enter Columbia University.

The Brunswick and Topsham Water District has tried its hand at digging up the campus this week. Its employees have been installing hydrants in front of the Chapel and Massachusetts Hall.

The two lower delegations at the Beta house defeated the two upper delegations at football last Friday by the score of 18 to 0.

Students occupying rooms facing the campus have found a uniform layer of ashes over their furniture this week. This has not been due to any volcanic action but to the fact that the campus crew has been burning up straw leaves.

Owing to the painful accident to one of the Freshmen using the shower-bath in North Winthrop, the Committee on Grounds and Buildings has ordered the doors on all old style showers to be changed to swing outward. It is hoped that this will obviate the danger of being boiled alive which the user has heretofore run.

A new chapter house has been opened for the Phi Chi medical fraternity.

The Library Table

During the past week the Library has procured some volumes which are especially deserving of space on the shelves. There are two volumes of "The History of Music" by Emil Naumann, translated by F. Praeger and edited by the Rev. Sir F. Gore Ouseley, Bart., Mus. Doc. The musical department is also supplied with the "Life of Mozart," in three volumes, by Otto John, translated from the German by Pauline D. Townsend. Then there are three volumes on "Johann Sebastian Bach" treating of his work and influence on the music of Germany, 1685-1750, by Philipp Spitta, translated from the German by Clara Bell and J. A. Fuller Maitland.

Among the other noteworthy books is Vasco da Gama and His Successors by K. G. Jayne. Many contributions have been made to the works on English literature, including English Lyrical Poetry by Edward Bliss Reed, Ph.D., Masters of the English Novel by Richard Burton, History of English Literature by Andrew Lang, An Anthology of English Prose—1330-1740, by Annie Barnett and Lucy Dale, and the Poetical Works of George Meredith, edited by G. M. Trevelyan. Of another nature is the book entitled Essays in Radical Empiricism, which contains twelve of Professor James' philosophical essays, and which is edited by Professor Perry of Harvard. Then there is The Problem of Freedom by George Herbert Palmer.

Besides the foregoing there are many works on more everyday subjects. Edwin M. Bacon and Morrill Wyman have a book on Direct Elections and Law-Making by Popular Vote.

Among the papers now contributing to our political literature is the Saturday Evening Post, which in its issue of Oct. 19th presents an article by President Taft, entitled The Supreme Issue.

Especially interesting to college men is the latest edition of Baird's Manual of American College Fraternities. This book gives a descriptive analysis of the fraternity system in the colleges of the United States, with a detailed account of each fraternity, including the history, chapters, chapter houses, fraternity magazines, a description of the badge, and a list of the prominent alumni of each fraternity.

THE CALENDAR

Tuesday, Oct. 22.—Fraternity Initiations.
Wednesday, 23.—Adjourns.
Thursday, 24.—7 P. M. Student Meeting of the Y. M. C. A.
8 P. M. Mandolin Club Trials.
Friday, 25.—7.30 P. M. College Hum.
Saturday, 26.—2.30 Bowdoin vs. Colby, Whittier Field.
Monday, 28.—7.30 Student Council Meeting.

Intercollegiate Notes

A canvass has been made by the Williams Record to ascertain the political bias of the faculty, and it is found that of the forty-seven men interviewed, twenty-five, including the president, propose to vote for Wilson; three will vote for Taft and three for Roosevelt. The remainder are undecided, ineligible, or do not care to express their preferences.
Chester C. Soule of Colby has been elected captain of the football team to replace Roy P. Good, who has gone to Harvard Dental College.

Alumni Department

'40.—In the New York Herald recently appeared a short article on Rev. Edward Robie and his long pastorate at Greenland, N. H. Mr. Robie has been pastor of the Congregational Church of Greenland since Feb. 25, 1852, over sixty years ago. Mr. Robie is now the oldest alumnus of Bowdoin College, being over ninety-one years old. This venerable classmate of Elijah Kellogg holds another unique record: when the Youths' Companion was established in 1827, his father subscribed for it in Edward's name and he still reads it regularly each week. Probably no other publication can boast of a reader who has subscribed for it for eighty-five years.

'63.—The following notice which recently appeared, not only imparts to us the pleasing information of an honor conferred on one of our older brothers, but it also shows the high esteem in which he is held:

"I am asking permission to express for a large circle of friends, our gladness that a long deferred honor has now fallen upon the head of my dear old friend, Rev. Addison Blanchard, formerly of Denver, Col., now busily employing himself under the pretence of retirement at Rogers, Ark. An orthodox man free from the wooden stupidities of the lower orthodoxy, a stalwart worker, a modest student, a home missionary expert of half a century's experience, our regret is merely that his recognition came from another denomination whom he is serving unofficially and so late in the day. ‘Doctor of Divinity,’—he is truly that."

Birmingham, Ala. GEORGE EVANS.

'72.—It is with a special regret peculiar to itself that the Orient records the death of George Mason Whitaker of this class, for Mr. Whitaker was the planner and one of the principal founders of this paper. Mr. Whitaker was also prominent in other college activities, and his life has been a series of signal triumphs, each one being greater than the one preceding.

George Mason Whitaker was born at Southbridge, Mass., the son of Thomas and Harriet (Mason) Whitaker, on July 30, 1851. He prepared for college at the Nichols Academy, Dudley, Mass., and entered Bowdoin in 1868.

While in college, Mr. Whitaker became interested in journalistic work. He became convinced that a college paper could live at Bowdoin and having the courage of his convictions, he with a few others started the Orient. Thus it is owing to his courage and hard work that we can point to our college paper as one of the first in the state. Mr. Whitaker won a mineralogy prize while in college and also had a Junior part in German. He was elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

On leaving college, Mr. Whitaker followed his journalistic tendency still further by editing and later owning the Southbridge Journal. Still later he established the Temple Star, a Temple of Honor Journal. One of his best known papers was Our Grange Homes which he edited 1888-1889. His final journalistic enterprise was The New England Farmer, which is well known in all Maine households.

Mr. Whitaker married Miss Allie E. Welf of Southbridge in 1872.

In 1875 he received from this college the degree of Master of Arts, and later he received from Lincoln University, Tenn., the degree Sc.D.

In 1899 Mr. Whitaker left the newspaper field to take up a position with the Massachusetts State Department of Agriculture to which he had been appointed. From 1903 until last December he was chief of the market milk bureau in the United States Department of Agriculture, spending most of his time in Washington. During this time he was also the president of the Farmers' National Congress.

Last December Mr. Whitaker left this work to become secretary of the National Dairy Union, taking up his headquarters at Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin. There he died on August 29th last.

In the veins of this loyal alumnus was the blood of the pioneer. It led him, not into other parts of the country as it did many of our alumni, but into hitherto unexplored fields of labor. This it was that made him a founder of the Bowdoin Orient, that made him the successful editor of the various rural journals, and that made him one of the first to take up dairy work from a scientific point of view. But great as was his success in these unusual lines of work, he leaves a greater claim for our admiration in the assistance he gave to other people. Whether as editor or farmer he was constantly striving to better the conditions of those with whom he had chosen to cast his lot, thus carrying through life his conception, the true conception, of the Bowdoin Spirit.

'05.—Arthur L. McCobb, who graduated in this class and who received an A.M. at Harvard in 1910, has been appointed instructor in German at that university.

'09.—Harold H. Burton, LL.B., (Harvard 1912) who was married on the fifteenth of June to Miss Selma F. Smith of West Newton, Mass., is now practicing his profession at Cleveland, Ohio, with the firm of Gage, Wilbur & Wachner.
BOWDOIN ORIENT

Vol. XLII  Brunswick, Maine, October 29, 1912  No. 15

BOWDOIN? BATES?

Last week a Freshman contributor handed in a doleful tale about how the Bowdoin team would limp on the field to attempt to stave off a terrible defeat from Colby. This week comes an article as optimistic as the wordliest prospectus of a gold mine promoter telling how easily Bates would be crushed. What's the use!

Bowdoin, Bates, Brunswick! What more needs be said? If you wish to know what lies behind those three words, what history they are an index of, glance at the appended list. If you wish a more colorful account of what might be expected Saturday ask anyone in Brunswick from the "kid" of ten who watches from the neighboring Pines to the oldest inhabitant who "hasn't missed seclin' the boys play for twenty years."

You can never tell what will happen. Bates will be there with a fighting, aggressive team and loyal supporters by the hundreds. And Bowdoin will be there fighting every inch of the way from whistle to whistle, with just a little more "pep" and a little more strength, we hope and believe, than the Bates team. And Bowdoin will be cheered on through that sixty minutes of play by the whole student body doing all they can from the grandstands to help on those lads with the white-striped stockings.

Bowdoin—Bates—Brunswick—BOOST!

1889—Bowdoin, 62; Bates, 0.
1893—Bowdoin, 54; Bates, 0.
1894—Bowdoin, 26; Bates, 0.
1895—Bowdoin, 22; Bates, 6.
1896—Bowdoin, 22; Bates, 0.
1897—Bates, 10; Bowdoin, 6.
1898—Bates, 6; Bowdoin, 0.
1899—Bowdoin, 16; Bates, 6.
1901—Bates, 11; Bowdoin, 0.
1902—Bates, 16; Bowdoin, 0.
1903—Bowdoin, 11; Bates, 5.
1904—Bowdoin, 11; Bates, 5.
1905—Bowdoin, 12; Bates, 6.
1906—Bates, 6; Bowdoin, 0.
1907—Bowdoin, 6; Bates, 5.
1908—Bates, 5; Bowdoin, 0.
1909—Bowdoin, 6; Bates, 0.
1910—Bowdoin, 6; Bates, 6.

1911—Bowdoin, 11; Bates, 0.

Summary:—Won by Bowdoin, 13; won by Bates, 6, tied, 1. Bowdoin's total points, 277; Bates' total points, 92.

BOWDOIN, 10: COLBY, 20—OCT. 26

Lowney, Fraser, and nine other football men came down from Colby Saturday and beat Bowdoin in the first Maine championship game of the season. The result of the game was due to the splendid runs by Lowney and Fraser, and the poor secondary defense of Bowdoin. At times it seemed impossible to stop the speedy Colby backs as they tore around the ends for long gains.

Bowdoin's weakness this season has been in her ends and secondary defense. The ends have either failed to smash up the interference, or the backs have fallen short in their tackles. It is difficult to place the blame on any one man, but the trouble is there and must be remedied.

But for all the faults to be found and criticisms to be made, Bowdoin played a fighting game; every man doing his best. The line played as one man, and with a snap that easily outclassed Colby. Douglas showed himself to be one of the grittiest players that ever went into a game. He played himself off his feet in the first period, but pluckily refused to come out. He was Bowdoin's center and the star of her line while he lasted. He came out only after he was unable to stand from complete physical exhaustion. Leadbetter played a wonderful game at right tackle. He piled up the plays sent at his side of the line and opened wide holes for the Bowdoin backs. He also fought to the limit of his endurance, and was carried from the field in the fourth period. What is said of one lineman can be said of them all. They played a terrific game and deserve little criticism. Crosby played a fine game at quarter, making several good gains himself and showed good judgment in picking the weak spots in the Colby line. One of the coolest players in the back field was LaCasee. He kicked a perfect goal from field in the second period, making the first score of the game. "Bob" Weatherill was Bowdoin's star, both in rushing the ball and in defense. His run of 48 yards in the first period brought the ball within striking distance of Colby's goal posts. Bowdoin's longest gains were made by "Bob," and it was he that carried the ball over the line for the one touchdown that Bowdoin made.

Foster, the Freshman halfback, in the short time he was in the game, showed remarkable ability in hitting the line. It was his gains that brought the ball within scoring distance of Colby in the last quarter.

Colby was penalized 11 times for a total of 115 yards, a fact which marred the game greatly from a spectator's point of view, but was, of course, necessary. Bowdoin tried the forward pass three times. Two were unsuccessful, and on the third Colby was penalized 15 yards. Colby did not try a forward pass.

No praise can be too high for Lowney and Fraser. They earned every inch of ground that they made, and it is those two men that Colby can thank for her victory.

Bowdoin played the best game that they have this season. Lack of teamwork, their fault of the first of the season, was certainly not in evidence Saturday. They fought a great game, and although they lost, a game to be proud of.

FIRST PERIOD

Stanwood kicked off for Colby to LaCasce on the 15 yard line, who ran the ball back 10 yards. On the second down a fumble gave the ball to Colby, Fraser recovering it. Fraser made 7 yards through left tackle and Lowney followed with three more; but Colby was penalized 5 yards because Daicey was off side. Weatherill and Wood got the next two men for no gains. Colby was forced to punt, Stuart running the ball back to the 20 yard line. Faulkner made 4 yards on a fake kick and Stuart followed with 5 more. LaCasce took the ball next and made Bowdoin's first down by a matter of inches. On the next play, Colby was penalized for being off side. Weatherill made first down around left end; Faulkner, Wood and Page were then downed without any substantial gains. Faulkner punted 45 yards to Lowney, who ran back ten, being tackled by Douglas. Fraser made 4 yards and then 7 more through the line, finally being stopped by Douglas. The Bowdoin center was hurt on this play but gamely refused to leave the field. Taylor made 5 yards through center but Lowney lost three on a fake kick. Fraser punted to Weatherill on the 20 yard line, the tackle being made by Crossman. On the next play Crossman nailed Faulkner for a 6 yard loss, but Weatherill brought the rooeters to their feet by breaking through the line for a 45 yard gain. He was finally downed by Crossman. LaCasce made a yard at right end and Colby was penalized for off side playing. Faulkner made three and a half at right end, gaining first down. The quarter ended with the ball in Bowdoin's possession on Colby's 32 yard line.

SECOND PERIOD

The first two downs resulted in a 6 yard gain and then LaCasce kicked a pretty goal from the 25 yard line. Score: Bowdoin, 3; Colby, 0.

Stanwood kicked off to LaCasce who returned the ball to the 25 yard line. Weatherill made 8 yards through left tackle; then Murchie replaced Ladd. Weatherill made 5 yards through center and Colby was penalized for sitting on his head. The next four plays were disastrous for Bowdoin. Faulkner lost 3 yards on a fake kick and Wood two more on a tackle around play. Pratt was caught holding and Bowdoin received its only penalty of 15 yards. Soule of Colby was hurt and Robbins took his place. Faulkner punted to Lowney, the kick going low. The Colby half back caught the ball on his own 40 yard line and dodging all tacklers ran the ball through the entire Bowdoin team 60 yards for a touchdown. Fraser kicked the goal. Bowdoin, 3; Colby, 7.

Bowdoin kicked off to Ladd on the 35 yard line, the Colby man being downed in his tracks. A fumble lost 5 yards for Colby. Fitzgerald went in for Faulkner at this point. Two more rushes were stopped by the Bowdoin line, and Fraser punted to Weatherill on Bowdoin's 40 yard line. Fitzgerald was downed for no gain, but Colby was again penalized for off side play. Weatherill made 8 yards around left end, and Fitzgerald made it a first down. Another 8 yard gain was followed by an incompletely forward pass to Bowdoin's left end. Beal then tried a run around right end but was downed for an 8 yard loss. Another incompletely forward pass gave the ball to Colby near the center of the field as time was called for the first half. Bowdoin, 3; Colby, 7.

THIRD PERIOD

The original lineup started the second half. LaCasce kicked to Daicey who carried the ball back 15 yards from the 10 yard line. After three downs, Fraser got away for a 55 yard run for a touchdown. Fraser then failed to kick the goal. Bowdoin, 3; Colby, 13.

Leadbetter punted to Lowney on the 43 yard line and shortly after that Colby was penalized for holding. Ayer of Colby attempted a field goal but failed because the ball hit the cross bar. Pike replaced Douglas. After three downs, Stuart punted 35 yards to Ayer, who carried the ball back only 5 yards. L. Brown replaced Beal at left end. Taylor went through the line for 6 yards; then Dole tackled Fraser for a loss. At this point Lowney got away with an end run for the third touchdown. Fraser kicked out and kicked the goal. Bowdoin, 3; Colby, 20.

Stanwood kicked to Weatherill, who returned the ball to the 40 yard line. The period ended with Bowdoin in possession of the ball in the center of the field.

FOURTH PERIOD

Crosby replaced Stuart and Moulton replaced Lewis. Weatherill pushed the ball over for a first down on the opening rush. Wood made two yards around right end when a fumble gave the ball to Colby. Foster replaced Faulkner. Lowney failed to gain and Colby was penalized 15 yards for holding. Colby was obliged to punt to Crosby. Bowdoin could make only two yards and LaCasce kicked to Ayer on the 25 yard line. Fraser made 5 yards through center but Colby was penalized 15 yards for holding, the ball being placed on the 10 yard line. Stanwood punted to Weatherill, who returned the ball 5 yards and then made 5 more. Foster made 4 and LaCasce made first down. J. Brown replaced LaCasce. Colby was penalized 5 yards for holding. Foster made the distance in three downs. Crosby lost a yard, Foster made 4 yards, and then Weatherill carried the ball 6 yards for a touchdown. Wood kicked the goal. Bowdoin, 10; Colby, 20.

During the remainder of the period, the ball see-sawed back and forth near the center of the field.

The line-up:

BOWDOIN
Beal, L. Brown, le.............re, Stanwood
P. Wood, lt....................rt, Daicey, Fraser
Pratt, lg
rg, Kolseth, Prendergast, Thompson, Dresser
Douglas, Pike, Barry, e..................c, Bowler
Lewis, Moulton, rg..... Ig, Soule, Robbins, Hunt Leadbetter, Hall, rt
lt, Ladd, Murchie, Keppel, I. Merrill
Page, Dole, H. Wood, re
1e, Crossman, Royal, Hunt, Yeaton
Stuart, Crosby, qb..............qb, Ayer
LaCasce, J. Brown, lbh rhb, Lowney, Coldthwart
Faulkner, Fitzgerald, Foster, rhb
1hb, Fraser, N. Merrill
Weatherill, fb..................fb, Taylor, Reed, Pratt
Score, Colby, 20; Bowdoin, 10. Touchdowns:

CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM CHOSEN

The 'varsity cross-country trials were held last Thursday afternoon. Although the course was rain-soaked, Hall and Tarbox, the two first men, seemed fresh when they finished. The surprise of the afternoon was Bacon '15 who showed good ability to sprint. Marshall '16 also showed great form and speed. The winning men finished in the following order: Hall '13, Tarbox '14, Haskell '13, Bacon '15, Marshall '16. T. Emery did not run on account of a bad leg, but he makes a place on the team. There may be some changes in the team after the Freshman-Sophomore race.

The race was held over a four and one-half mile course. Hall's time was 28 minutes, 5 seconds, and was very good considering the condition of the course.

Seven men will run in the all-Maine cross-country race at 10 A.M. Nov. 2nd in Lewiston. On Nov. 9, a five-man team will race the University of Vermont.

FRESHMAN-SOPHOMORE

The Freshman-Sophomore cross-country trials were held Monday, Oct. 21, over the Mere Brook course. Marshall '16 showed great speed and was the first Freshman to finish. The men were picked in the order in which they finished and the two teams are as follows: Freshman—Marshall, Boardman, Irving, Hale, Hargraves, and Winter. Sophomore—McWilliams, Bacon, Porritt, Coxe, McKenney, and Roberts.

POLITICAL CLUBS COME TO LIFE

The Democratic Club, realizing that the fifth of November is fast approaching, has begun active operations. As a result, this organization has obtained the services of Senator Johnson, who will give an address here next Thursday. The club has also started a canvass of the voters of the college with the view to finding out how the sentiment has changed since the straw vote taken last spring.

The Republican Club has had its troubles owing to the fact that several of its members have joined the Bull Moose movement during the summer. Consequently, the club at present appears to be a dead issue. There has not been established any Progressive organization as yet, but the number of Bull Moose buttons seems to warrant the immediate start of such a club. The Taft men are meditating upon the question but to date they have organized no Taft-or-die group of voters.

In the meantime, the address by Senator Johnson will give the Democratic Club first advantage.
BOWDOIN ORIENT

THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

Published every Tuesday of the collegiate year by The Bowdoin Publishing Company in the interests of the students of Bowdoin College

EDITORIAL BOARD

Douglas H. McMurtie, 1913, Editor-in-Chief
Robert D. Leigh, 1914, Managing Editor
Fred D. Wish, 1913, Alumni Editor

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

L. E. Jones, 1913 K. A. Robinson, 1914
R. R. Leavitt, 1913 R. E. Simpson, 1914
W. R. Spinney, 1913 A. H. MacCormick, 1915
D. K. Merrill, 1914 F. P. McKenney, 1915

J. F. Rollins, 1915

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni, and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted.

All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager of the Bowdoin Publishing Co. Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

BOWDOIN PUBLISHING COMPANY

H. B. Walker, 1913, Business Manager
Alfred E. Gray, 1914, Assistant Manager
E. L. Sylvester, 1914, Assistant Manager

Entered at Post Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII. OCTOBER 29, 1912 No. 15

The team did not win the first game of the championship series. But the College is proud of the spirit shown by the team on the field, and is confident that that spirit cannot fail to bring victory in the games to come. The men played as hard and as well as they knew how; and they played cleanly, as the fact that there was but one penalty testifies. There was fighting spirit in the grandstand too. But the cheers must be kept up continuously as well as given with lots of ginger. The fighting spirit must be manifested all the time. The closeness of the struggle between Maine and Bates last Saturday shows that the game this week will be a hard one; and for this reason even more enthusiasm, continued enthusiasm, is needed on the sidelines. The Maine championship is not lost because of the defeat last Saturday. The fighting spirit may yet win out for Bowdoin.

Every undergraduate has a double duty to perform next Saturday. The first is to be at the Bates field in the morning to cheer on the cross-country team as it goes into the race with the other three colleges; the second is to put such vim into the rooting at Whittier Field that the combined fighting spirit of college and team shall assure a victory.

A glance at the Calendar for More System Needed this week published elsewhere in the ORIENT reveals a common problem for the undergraduate. On Thursday evening at 8 p.m. there will be a Democratic rally, a Y.M.C.A. cabinet meeting, a Mandolin Club rehearsal and a meeting of the Board of Managers. What is the need of this annoying conflict of dates? It has been the effort of the Board for some time to have the managers of the various college organizations make use of the Calendar in making their dates. Fred Wish in South Maine Hall, telephone 55, has charge of the Calendar and will be very glad to inform anyone desiring to determine a time for a meeting as to the scheduled events for any evening from now until Christmas. If we must have so many meetings, so many outside activities, let's have some system to their organization and coordination.

Alumni Loyalty A striking instance of celebrity in meeting the needs of the football team was given by the alumni present at the recent game with Tufts. The team was not going to victory that day, but the unusually large number of Bowdoin rooters on the sidelines cheered it as loyally as they would a winning team. And when it was noticed that the players were in need of blankets, a subscription was immediately collected to provide this necessary part of the equipment. Many times the alumni have given promptly and generously in response to an appeal from the College, but seldom has there been an occasion when the actual gift of money has followed so speedily upon the recognition of the need.

THE SPELL BROKEN

For the first time in twelve years the Freshmen won the series of baseball games with the Sophomores, by taking the third game last Wednesday afternoon to the score of 12 to 2. The first game went to the upper classmen with a score of 14 to 2; the second contest to the Freshmen with a score of 12 to 1.

The winners cinched the game in the first inning. Grierson, the Sophomore pitcher passed five men in this session. His wildness, coupled with timely sacrifice hits by his opponents, gave the Freshmen seven runs at the end of their half of the inning. From that time until the end of the eighth, when the game was called on account of darkness, 1916 gathered five more runs. The Sophomores played as individuals and not as a team. Kuhn played a good game for them after the early innings. The feature of the game was the batting of McElwee, who secured a three-bagger and a home run and sent in five of the twelve scores for his team.

The score:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>bh</th>
<th>tb</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Woodman, cf</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rawson, cf</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Larrabee, ss</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kelley, ss</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Glidden, lf</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>McElwee, 3b</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Knight, rf</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Boutwell, c</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Olsen, tb</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>7</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Parsons, 2b</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Yenetchi, 2b</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fraser, p</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

31 12 6 11 24 12 2

Sophomores:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ab</th>
<th>r</th>
<th>bh</th>
<th>tb</th>
<th>po</th>
<th>a</th>
<th>e</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Kuhn, c</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Allen, cf</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Keegan, 2b</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Eaton, tb</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>7</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mammix, ss</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Demmons, ss</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Somers, 3b, ss</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>McNeney, lf</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rogers, rf, 3b</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Grierson, p</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

26 2 5 6 21 9 2

Two base hit, Somers; three base hit, McElwee; home run, McElwee; stolen bases, Woodman, Glidden, Kelley 4, Rogers, Fraser, Boutwell; base on balls, by Grierson 6, by Fraser 3; struck out, by Grierson 7, by Fraser 9; hits, off Grierson 6, off Fraser 5; double play, Olsen to Kelley. Umpire, Tilton.

ALUMNI GUESTS

Among the guests present at the initiation ceremonies of the different fraternities were the following:

Zeta Psi:—Prof. H. Johnson ’74, E. S. Anthoine ’02, L. A. Cousins ’02, J. A. Clark ’05, M. C. Webber ’07, H. E. Locke ’12, H. P. Vannah ’12, M. T. Hill, Colby ’12, F. G. Davis, Colby ’13, Hiram Ricker, Jr., Colby ’15.

NEW GYMNASIUM INSTRUCTOR

We welcome Mr. P. K. Holmes as the new gymnasium instructor this year. Mr. Holmes is a graduate of the Springfield Training School, the great Y.M.C.A. college, and also has an A.M. degree from Clark University. He comes here highly recommended by Dr. J. H. McCurdy of the Springfield School.
Mr. Holmes will have charge of the work on the horizontal and parallel bars, rings, horse, and other branches of heavy gymnastics. These branches of work were formerly very popular here at Bowdoin, but of late years have hardly been taught at all. But the new instructor, together with the new gym and installation of new apparatus should make this work very interesting.

Mr. Holmes will also be a student at the Medical School, and, since he played four years on his football team at college, he will be ineligible to play here. He has brought Mrs. Holmes with him to Brunswick, and both express themselves as very much pleased with the town and College. The College extends its heartiest greetings to him and sincerely hopes that he will meet with all kinds of success here.

THE COLBY RALLY

Last Friday evening the first big football rally was held in Memorial Hall. Paul White started things going by calling upon the 200 or more fellows present for a round of Bowdoin cheers and the way they responded showed that the old-time Bowdoin spirit was very much in evidence. Cedric Crowell then called on Jim McConaughy, Professor Nixon and Mountforth, who could see nothing but a victory for the White. But it was Coach Bergin's speech that brought the enthusiasm to the climax. Speaking with great earnestness he declared that he had not eleven men going on the field Saturday but a real team that would fight cleanly for Bowdoin every minute of the game.

STUDENT MEETING

About seventy-five students attended the Student Meeting in the Y.M.C.A. room Thursday night. Cedric R. Crowell presided, and first introduced Laurence A. Crosby, who spoke on "College Property." He mentioned Bowdoin's fine buildings and beautiful campus, and asked the fellows to treat them properly because, first of all, they are the result of years of toil and sacrifice on the part of the alumni and friends of the college, and, furthermore, because the students cannot expect to have better buildings unless they take good care of those they already have.

Leon E. Jones then outlined briefly the work in the new gymnasium for the year. He showed the important part the gymnasium will play in developing better athletic teams, and pointed out the opportunities for physical betterment which it would give the individual students. He said that the gymnasium became a reality because of the liberality and earnest endeavors of the college men of last year, the alumni, and last but not least, Dr. F. N. Whittier; and that all they expected in return was that the student should use it to the best advantage.

Captain C. B. Haskell of the track team then spoke briefly on "Team Support." He said that last year's athletic teams failed because a great part of the material available for them did not come out, and urged every man in college who is physically able to try to make at least one of the college teams. He also laid particular stress upon the attendance of the student body at games.

Paul H. Douglas, the last speaker, showed the evils of the honors system now in vogue at Bowdoin and the majority of colleges whereby a very small percentage of the men in each class monopolize the student activities much to their own detriment and to that of the rest of the class. As a remedy for this condition of affairs he advocated the point system which has been given a thorough trial and is now in successful use at Brown, Colgate, Rutgers, Wesleyan, and several other colleges. By this system each student activity is rated at a certain number of points, and a limit is set, which no student is allowed to exceed. Douglas closed by assuring the fellows that the Student Council would thresh the matter out thoroughly, and adopt the plan that seemed best for the College.

SUNDAY CHAPEL

At Sunday Chapel, President Hyde said that he had recently heard undergraduates spoken of as an irresponsible lot, who chose their courses according to fancy and ease, but that here at least he thought they were thoughtful in choosing courses and diligent in the prosecution of them. The honest choice of subjects is better than prescription. President Hadley pointed out at the convention in Portland that the principle of choice or the principle of prescription should not be fancy, ease, or vocational profit, but citizenship, not in the narrow political sense, but in the broad social sense. This consists not only of living in and supporting our institutions, but having a hand in them and being so trained for leadership that we can preserve their worth. This we all agree to whether we believe in election or prescription. Real religion consists in going out into the world and making things better for our presence; secular efficiency is the real test. He likened the part of the church to that of the cheering section in a game, saying that it is not of ultimate final value, but is indispensable for keeping up the spirit of devotion on which citizenship in a broad sense depends.
THE CALENDAR

Tuesday, Oct. 29th.—7 p. m. Informal discussion of the political situation at the meeting of English VI in the Debating Room in Hubbard Hall.

Thursday, 31st.—7 p. m. Alfred O. Booth addresses the Y.M.C.A. on "A Problem of Life."

8 p. m. Y.M.C.A. Cabinet meets at D.K.E. House.

8 p. m. Sen. Charles F. Johnson discusses political issues in Memorial Hall under auspices of Bowdoin Democratic Club.

8 p. m. Meeting of the Board of Managers.

8 p. m. Mandolin Club rehearsal.

Friday, Nov. 1st.—7.30. Rally in Memorial Hall.

Saturday, 2nd.—10 a. m. M.I.A.A. Cross-Country Meet at Lewiston.

2.30 p. m. Bates vs. Bowdoin, Whittier Field.

8 p. m. Informal dance at the Delta Upsilon House.

Monday, 4th.—Freshman Warnings appear.

7.30. Student Council Meeting.

Tuesday, 5th.—Election Day.

THE MEDICAL SCHOOL OPENS

The Medical School opened its ninety-third year of instruction last Monday with an entering class smaller than usual because of the new entrance requirement of at least one year's work in an approved college. This extra requirement is in accord with a general movement to broaden the work of the school. The following men have registered thus far in the entering class:

N. S. Kupelian, A.B., Turkey; George O. Cummings, Ferris W. Ferris, and Bryant E. Moulton, Portland; Percy K. Holmes, East Stroudsburg, Penn.; Alexander E. Chandler and Monroe G. Chandler, New York City; Robert W. Belknap, Damariscotta; Alfred L. MacIntire, Biddeford; Alton L. Grant, A.B., Lewiston; Raymond W. Clark, Franklin; and Clyde F. Richardson, Brunswick.

The Edward Mason Dispensary at Portland, which will be ready for occupation this fall, is an important addition to the school, and will furnish an abundance of clinical work. The following men have been added to the faculty:

William Herbert Bradford, A.M., M.D., Professor of Clinical Surgery; Henry William Miller, M.D., Lecturer in Mental Diseases; Henry Darenyyd Evans, A.M., Lecturer in Public Hygiene; Henry Marshal Swift, A.B., M.D., Lecturer in Neurology; Manton Copeland, S.M., Ph.D., Lecturer in Embryology and Histology; Walter Darwin Williamson, M.D., Instructor in Clinical Surgery; Charles Milton Leighton, A.B., M.D., Instructor in Clinical Surgery; Alfred Otto Gross, Ph.D., Instructor in Histology and Embryology.

On the Campus

Seats on sale for Bates game today, 2.00-4.30 P. M., Memorial Hall. Bring your A. S. B. C. Coupons.

Fourteen members of the Faculty attended the meetings of the Maine Teachers' Association in Portland Friday: President Hyde, Professors Woodruff, Moody, Files, Mitchell, Ham, Sills, Gram, Nixon, W. H. Davis, Hornell, Mr. McConaughy, Mr. J. H. Davis, and Dr. Gross. President Hyde was chairman of the College Group; Professor Sills addressed the English Department, Professor Ham, the Modern Language Department, Professor Woodruff, the Classics Department, and Mr. McConaughy, the College Group.

"For Bowdoin was old Bowdoin when there wasn't any Bates, as we go marching on." All out Saturday.

At a meeting last Saturday evening the Athletic Council nominated Koughan '15 and Prescott '15 for assistant manager of the track team and Hyler was named as alternate.

There has recently been organized in connection with the First Parish Church a Young People's Society which meets each Sunday evening at 7:15. Dr. Loomis is president of this society. Mr. Alvord is a member of the Program Committee, MacCombick '15 is chairman of the Membership Committee, and Churchill '16 is on the Entertainment Committee.

In the Tennis Tournament Card '15 beat Nixon '13 and Eaton '15 beat Gardner '13.

An example of college spirit which should live long in the minds of Bowdoin men was shown by Bob Lawlis '11 and Harry Woodward '10 at the recent game with Tufts. These two fellows, seeing the Bowdoin team unprotected from the rain, took up a collection among the alumni present for the purchase of blankets. The amount subscribed will enable the entire team to be provided.

A rehearsal of the Mandolin Club was held last Thursday evening with fifteen men present. It is reported that much excellent material is in sight and the prospects for a good club this year are very favorable.

Mr. Alfred O. Booth, secretary of the local Y.M.C.A. at Portsmouth, N. H., will speak at the next Thursday meeting. The subject, "A Mystery and a Problem," promises to be very interesting.

The Freshman religious committee, made up of representatives from the Freshmen in the fraternities and Bowdoin Club, will meet sometime next week instead of this evening.

Resolutions

Hall of the Kappa of Psi Upsilon
Oct. 17, 1912.

The Kappa Chapter is called upon to record with regret the death on August 2nd of another of its alumni, Henry Russell Bradley, of the Class of 1884. Therefore be it Resolved. That we express our deep sorrow at his death and extend our sincere sympathy to those bound closer to him by ties of friendship and family.

ALBERT PERCIVAL CUSHMAN,
EDGAR ROBINSON PAYSON, JR.,
ALBION KEITH EATON,
For the Chapter.

Hall of Theta of Delta Kappa Epsilon
October 17, 1912.

In the death of James Wallace MacDonald of the Class of 1867 which occurred August 5, 1912, the Theta Chapter of Delta Kappa Epsilon lost one of its older brothers. He was long a loyal supporter of the fraternity. In the field he chose for his life's work—that of education—he gained an enviable reputation.

To his wife the Chapter extends its heartfelt sympathy and with her mourns his loss.

LAWRENCE A. CROSBY,
ALFRED E. GRAY,
For the Chapter.

Alumni Department

'42.—It is now the sad duty of the Orient to record the death of Henry Hill Boody, that loyal and well known alumnus, who at the time of his death was next to the oldest graduate of Bowdoin in respect to graduation and who was the oldest in respect to age, being nearly ninety-six years old. Mr. Boody was well known in Brunswick, having attended the Commencements for many years. He died in this town on September 11th.

Henry Hill Boody was born in Jackson in November, 1816. He entered Bowdoin in 1838, graduating at the age of twenty-six. His high scholarship and his maturity justified his appointment at the Commencement at which he graduated, to a tutorship, this being the first and only instance of this in the early history of the college. In 1845 he was elected to the Chair of Rhetoric and Oratory in this college and held this position for nine years.

At this point he entered upon a political career which was brilliant and productive. He was a member of the State Senate for one year and immediately after, was sent to the State House of Representatives. While there he was very active in the debates. He was influential in passing an act which, for the first time, involved the question of whether the State legislature has the right to control corporations when public convenience requires such control. Soon after this he left the political field although only his consent would have been necessary to give him the nomination for the House of Representatives.

Perhaps the most noted feature of his political life was that Mr. Boody was one of the prime movers in the formation of the Republican party in this State. In the spring of 1854 he spent some time in Washington and during that period he became very much disgusted with the two old parties, the Whigs and the Democrats. As a result when he came home, he introduced Samuel Fessenden and a few other prominent politicians in the new party and under his leadership they built up a Maine branch of that organization.

Mr. Boody was also noted for his railroad activities. In addition to many other enterprises, he was concerned in many land and financial transactions in Hudson, Wisconsin, for several years. He was the originator of the plan by which the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad was formed, for after another smaller road had been declared bankrupt and the stockholders sought some way out of the difficulties, he suggested the solution which has resulted in the building up of this enormous system. It was also in his office that the first subscription for stock of the Union Pacific was made.

The later part of his life Mr. Boody spent in the banking business, being connected for over thirty years with the firm of Boody, McEllan Co. of New York.

In 1845 he married Charlotte M., the daughter of the late Prof. Newman, and for thirty-one years until death took her from him theirs was a most happy home. This union resulted in a son and a daughter, both of whom the father outlived.

From 1864 until 1871, Mr. Boody was a trustee of this college.

Thus has passed away one of the oldest of our big family of brothers, one who through obtaining a high place in the world, not only brought honor on his Alma Mater, but also aided his fellow man by bringing the East nearer the West, and advanced those interests which today help to make possible our lives of ease and comfort.
ALL ABOARD!

Student Body Excursion to Orono Saturday. Special round trip rate $2.00. Leaves Brunswick 8.30 A.M. Leaves Orono 6.45 P.M. Let's make this the largest crowd that ever made the excursion to see the Maine game.

PAST SCORES
1893—Bowdoin 12, Maine 10.
1896—Bowdoin 12, Maine 6.
1898—Bowdoin 29, Maine 0.
1899—Bowdoin 14, Maine 0.
1900—Bowdoin 38, Maine 0.
1901—Maine 22, Bowdoin 5.
1902—Maine 10, Bowdoin 0.
1903—Maine 16, Bowdoin 0.
1904—Bowdoin 22, Maine 5.
1905—Maine 18, Bowdoin 0.
1906—Bowdoin 6, Maine 0.
1907—Bowdoin 34, Maine 5.
1908—Bowdoin 10, Maine 0.
1909—Bowdoin 22, Maine 0.
1910—Bowdoin 0, Maine 0.
1911—Maine 15, Bowdoin 0.
Summary—Bowdoin, won 10, lost 5, tied 1.
Total points, Bowdoin 204, Maine 107.

BIG STUDENT RALLY TONIGHT

All of Bowdoin College, whether Bull Moose, Democrat or Republican, of all ranks and stations, from the President to the humble Freshman (faculty women excepted), will meet tonight in Memorial Hall to pass away the anxious hours in riotous amusement with apples and cider, and hear the returns as they come in from all parts of the country. Of course the Band will be there and the usual features of these events. Johnny Dunphy may spring the never-old "Gunga Din," and smokes of all kinds will be there. The committee of the Student Council has been working hard on the program for the evening. Secretary Crosby announces the following communications:

New York, Nov. 2.

Dear Chuck:

Everything going fine. Get the whole gang together to cheer the Bull Moose on to victory. Regards to Joe Boyd and Col. Spinney.

—TEDDY.

Dear Sir:

I hope the whole College will be present to watch for the return from the polls and I hope that they will see the Republican Party vindicated and peaceful conditions in Brunswick restored.

—WM. H. TAFT.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 4.

Dear Mr. Crosby:

It is pleasing to me to note the deep interest of the men of your College in national politics and this important election. Democracy is sure to win. Regards to Bergin.

—WOODROW WILSON.

Douglas has heard from Debs and if possible the Socialist leader will be present at the rally. Everybody out!

BOWDOIN, 6; BATES, 7—NOV. 2

If hard clean football, if eleven determined fighting players deserve a victory, then Bowdoin deserved a tie Saturday. She went into the game to win, and fought with that purpose every minute of play. There is not a criticism to be made of the team. They played a great game, the kind of a game that it hurts to lose.

One very noticeable thing about the team Saturday was the way the weak points had been strengthened. The end positions, that have caused so much trouble this season, were filled by two good men. Brown and Fitzgerald. They both made some splendid tackles and broke up runs that threatened to cost Bowdoin heavily. They were down the field under every punt, smashed up end runs, and spoiled several plays behind Bates's own line. Another weak spot has been Bowdoin's secondary defense. Saturday it was a strong point. When a Bates runner was tackled behind Bowdoin's line he went down with a crash that stopped him short.

The line, up to the third period, held like iron. Bates had difficulty in gaining even a yard through it. The linemen fought together and with but two thoughts, to stop Bates and to open holes. Douglas again showed of what stuff he is made. He played a game the first period that was impossible for a man to keep up. He came out in the second period only after he was unable to stand. Barry took his position and played a fine steady game the last three quarters. Lewis and Pratt showed up well, playing low and hard and opening wide holes. Leadbetter put up the kind of game that is typical of Bowdoin teams. He fought without letup with very ounce of his strength from the kick-off to the last whistle. Captain Wood set his team a conspicuous example of fight and determination. He went into the game for all there was in it and made a splendid showing.
BOWDOIN ORIENT

“Bob” Weatherill played THE great game of the day. His short end runs and line plunging brought the Bowdoin section to its feet time and again. His long, hard, clean tackling was that kind that stops a runner in his tracks and admits no possibility of further gain. “Bob” was easily the star of both teams. LaCasce and Foster played strong consistent football, made good gains, and were strong in defense. “Chuck” Crosby showed excellent judgment and good generalship at quarter. He mixed his plays well and ran his team fast and smoothly. Faulkner played a sensational offensive game.

Dyer and Dennis starred for Bates. They were hard line plungers and fast in long runs. Bates had a strong, evenly balanced team and was a worthy opponent. They too put up a game that deserved victory.

THE GAME IN DETAIL:

LaCasce kicked to Bates on Bates’s 25 yard line. Bates in the next play made only a yard and a half. Eldridge made 5 yards and this was followed by a gain of 5 yards by Talbot. Bowdoin was penalized 5 yards for off-side playing and this gave the Bates team first down. Eldridge fumbled and Fitzgerald recovered the ball. The ball was then in Bowdoin’s possession on Bates’s 38 yard line.

Foster made 5 yards on a play through the line and LaCasce made first down on another 5 yard gain. Foster made a yard and Weatherill succeeded in carrying the ball for a gain of 3 yards. He was tackled by Harding. Foster made 4 yards more and LaCasce made first down in the next play. Weatherill made first down in the next two plays and brought the ball to Bates’s 6 yard line. Weatherill failed to make any gain in the next play but Bates was penalized 5 yards for off side playing. It looked like a sure touchdown for Bowdoin. Everybody in the grandstand came to their feet and the band played Bowdoin Beata; but a Bowdoin man fumbled the ball and Bates recovered the fumble.

Talbot punted to Foster on the 32 yard line who after a short run was downed by Danahy. Weatherill made 7 yards, followed by 3 yards gain by Foster. Weatherill then went through the line for 20 yards. This brought the ball within a few yards of the goal posts. Once more Bowdoin fumbled, but this time Foster recovered it on the 3 yard line. Again the crowd came to their feet and the band played, this time not in vain, for in the next play, Foster carried the ball over for a touchdown. Wood kicked out to Weatherill and LaCasce’s attempt to kick a goal was a failure.

LaCasce kicked to Danahy on the 23 yard line. Talbot attempted a gain but was tackled by Douglas. Bates then made 5 yards in the next two downs so Talbot was forced to punt to Weatherill in the middle of the field. Foster made a gain of 5 yards. Bowdoin lost 5 yards on a fumble but Foster recovered the ball. In the next play Weatherill made no gain. LaCasce punted to Talbot who was stopped from making a long run by a feature tackle by Fitzgerald. Bates and Danahy made 4 yards each in the next two plays. Douglas tackled Dennis for no gain. Bates made first down on Bates’s 45 yard line. Eldridge and Bates made 3 and 2 yards respectively and Bowdoin was penalized 5 yards for off-side playing in the next two rushes. Eldridge made 2 yards and the period ended with the ball in Bates’s possession in the middle of the field.

SECOND QUARTER

Bates carried the ball 4 yards and Talbot went through center for 2 yards. Bates made 3 yards in the next play. Dennis made 3 yards and Wood held Bates for no gain. Dennis then made a pretty forward pass.

Bates made a yard and a half, Dennis 4 and finally Weatherill tackled Dennis for a small loss. Eldridge made 2 yards in the next play and then made an incomplete forward pass.

This gave Bowdoin the ball. Weatherill was tackled by Eldridge and Shepard in the next two plays for no gains. Fitzgerald lost 5 yards and LaCasce punted 25 yards. Dennis lost a yard but redeemed himself in the next play by gaining two. Talbot made 3 yards but was forced to punt.

Weatherill received the ball and was downed by Harding after a run of 5 yards. Weatherill was tackled for no gain by Shepard. Foster made 1 yard, Leadbetter lost a yard, and LaCasce punted to Bates. Weatherill recovered Eldridge’s fumble. Foster made 2 yards and Faulkner, who replaced him, under two more. LaCasce made 2 yards, but Weatherill failed to push the ball over for first down. Bates and Dennis made no gains. Talbot punted to Faulkner who made an excellent run of 20 yards. The half ended 6 to 0 in Bow-
THIRD QUARTER.

LaCasce kicked to Danahy who brought the ball back to the 30 yard line. Bates, tackled by Lewis made only a yard. Eldridge made no gain, and Fitzgerald tackled Dennis for a loss of a yard. Talbot punted to Weatherill who made a 5 yard run and was finally tackled by Dyer. Foster made 7 yards followed by another gain of 1 yard. Crosby made first down on the next play. This was followed by an incomplete forward pass. Weatherill made 1 yard and Foster two. Bates intercepted a forward pass by Crosby.

Eldridge made a yard and Bates two. In the next play, Dennis made a 45 yard run and was finally stopped on Bowdoin's 15 yard line. Here Dyer replaced Bates and Stillman replaced Dyer.

Stillman lost one yard and this gave Bowdoin the ball. Weatherill made 3 yards in two plays, Foster two more. LaCasce punted to Dennis.

Dennis made two yards and Bowdoin was penalized 5 yards for playing off side. Dennis made a 30 yard run. Dyer made a yard in each of the following plays and Bowdoin was again penalized 5 yards. In the next few plays, the ball was brought within a yard of the goal posts. In the next play, Dyer barely pushed the ball over for a touchdown. Dennis kicked the goal.

LaCasce kicked to Danahy who was tackled by Wood. Talbot kicked to Weatherill on the 48 yard line. Weatherill was tackled by Harding and gained only 1 yard. Bates was penalized 5 yards for off-side playing. This gave Bowdoin first down on the 50 yard line. Weatherill made 4 yards and the quarter ended with the ball on Bates's 46 yard line. Score: Bowdoin, 6; Bates, 7.

FOURTH QUARTER.

Faulkner replaced Foster. Weatherill made 9 yards but Bowdoin was penalized 15 yards for holding. Faulkner made a 27 yard run and Dyer broke up a forward pass. After the next three plays Talbot punted to Weatherill. Faulkner made no gain but Weatherill made 5 yards on the next play. Faulkner made ten and Leadbetter recovered Weatherill's fumble. Crosby made no gain and Stillman recovered a fumble. Dyer made 3 yards in the next two plays and Bates was penalized 5 yards for being offside. Dennis was tackled by Weatherill. On a fake the ball was acquired by the Bates team. Dyer made first down in the next two plays and a gain of 5 yards in the two following. Dennis made 5 yards and in the next play Lewis recovered the ball on a fumble.

Harry Faulkner made 5 yards and Weatherill made two. Here Moulton replaced Lewis. Faulkner made two runs of 10 and 15 yards. Weatherill made 3 yards and Bates was penalized 5 yards for offside playing.

Faulkner made 18 yards in the next two plays. Beal replaced Fitzgerald. Bowdoin now hoped to score but their hopes were shattered in the next few plays when they lost 15 yards. Then owing to the bad pass, LaCasce's attempt to kick a field goal was a failure. On this play the Bates team recovered the ball and after a few short gains the game ended.

Line-up:

BATES
Danahy, le
Dyer, Stillman, lt
Shepard, lg
Harding, c
Russel, Inmanuel, rg
Gove, rt
Thompson, re
Talbot, qb
Bates, Dyer, lhb
Dennis, rbb
Eldridge, fb

Score: Bowdoin 6, Bates 7.

Officials: Referee, Hapgood of Brown; umpire, Tufts of Brown; linesman, McGrath of Boston College.

Time, 4—15 minute periods.

MAINE STATE CROSS-COUNTRY RACE

The University of Maine won the first annual Maine Intercollegiate Cross-Country Run at Lewiston Saturday morning with a score of 20 points. Bowdoin was a second with 45 points. Bates with 62 points finished third, and Colby with 102 points was fourth. The cold, penetrating wind and the ground saturated with Friday's rain made fast time impossible. Power of Maine was the winner, covering the course of nearly five miles in 24 minutes, 43 seconds. Bell and Towne also of Maine were right at his heels, and took second and third places respectively. Captain Hall of Bowdoin, running in fine form, finished fourth, half a minute behind the winner. Burgess of Maine came in fifth, and Emery and Tarbox of Bowdoin showed their speed by capturing sixth and seventh places respectively. The others finished in the following order: Parker, Bates; Morris, Maine; Rand, Colby; Syrene, Bates; Houston, Bates; Haskell, Bowdoin; Tibbetts, Bates; Bacon, Bowdoin; Clark, Maine; Doe, Bates; McWilliams, Bowdoin; Kidder, Bates; Sawyer, Bates; Hlussey, Colby; Kennedy, Colby; Coffin, Maine; Dyer, Colby; King, Colby.
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

EDITORIAL BOARD

Douglas H. McMurtrie, 1913,     Editor-in-Chief
Robert D. Leigh, 1914,          Managing Editor
Fred D. Wish, 1913,             Alumni Editor

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

L. E. Jones, 1913
V. R. Leavitt, 1913
W. R. Spinney, 1913
D. K. Merrill, 1914
J. F. Rollins, 1915

K. A. Robinson, 1914
K. E. Simpson, 1914
A. H. MacCormick, 1915
F. P. McKenney, 1915

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted.

All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager of the Bowdoin Publishing Co. Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

BOWDOIN PUBLISHING COMPANY

H. B. Walker, 1913,     Business Manager
Alfred E. Gray, 1914,  Assistant Manager
E. L. Sylvester, 1914,  Assistant Manager

Entered at Post-Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII. NOVEMBER 5, 1912 No. 16

Dramatics

It will be noticed that a meeting of the Dramatic Club will be held tomorrow evening to organize for the year and elect officers. It seems to the Orient that this branch of Bowdoin's student activity has received far too little attention from the student body at large. As a result of this the handling of the club's affairs has fallen to a small group and the results have been only partially satisfactory. The club at present is organized in a very loose way. There is no competitive system for managers, or if there is any it is not advertised; there is no regularity of election; and membership is a very uncertain thing varying from year to year according to no fixed principle. There is a constitution, but this is a very indefinite affair and resembles Locke's Grand Model in its application.

In short there is need for some real live organizers in the Masque and Gown and for some new blood to give new life to the organization. Something must be done so that it will become worthy of the name of the Bowdoin College Dramatic Club and so that the dramatic interest of the faculty and town will be turned towards it. We do not wish to criticise the past management of the club's affairs. Its members have done all they can to advance the interest in dramas here at Bowdoin, but a great deal more material is needed and better organization to make it realize the hopes of those most interested.

Now if ever is the time for Fight! Fight! Fight! the fighting spirit of the college to be displayed. Defeated in the first two games for the state championship, the team faces its hardest game next Saturday. The two opening games were bitterly contested, especially the struggle with Bates which the Bowdoin players strove so valiantly to win. For their work in this game alone, it is the duty of every undergraduate to be on the field at Orono to show the men that Bowdoin feels the deepest loyalty toward the team which has fought so hard. The dopes can see nothing ahead but a Maine victory. But the players are going on the field with the conviction that they will put up the battle of their lives. Let everyone see to it that the same conviction sends him off to the team with the slogan of "Fight, Fight, Fight!"

A Step Forward

The Class of 1914 is to be congratulated on the forward step it has taken in passing a resolution to provide for the return to the class treasury of any surplus from the receipts of the assemblies, the Bugle, and the Ivy Day committee. The resolution also provides for the auditing of all accounts by a committee chosen by the president. The surplus so returned is to be used as the class may provide. The Orient believes that this resolution marks an immense improvement in the administration of Junior functions and establishes a sound precedent to be followed in years to come.

THE BLANKETS HERE

We publish the following letter from "Bob" Lawlis '11, which is self-explanatory:

October 28, 1912.

My dear Dr. Whittier:—

I am sending you by express today one dozen heavy black blankets, bearing the white "B," for the use of the eleven in the remaining games this fall. They are not to be the property of the men when the season is over, but are to be kept with the other property of the athletic association and be for the use of the baseball and track teams at the games and meets next spring and for the eleven again next fall and in coming years. The blankets are the best we could buy, and ought to be a good protection for the men when going to or from the field, or when on the sidelines.

The money for these blankets was given by about seventy of the young alumni who saw the Tufts game at Medford and who showed their loyalty to a badly beaten team in this substantial fashion as well as by cheering it to the bitter end of the contest. At that game the team had a long walk from the gymnasium to the field in the rain and had to stand round between the halves with no blankets for protection, though the Tufts men kindly loaned several of their blankets for our subs on the sidelines.

We hope that the blankets will be accepted and used in the spirit in which they are given, and they may remind those who use them of the unfailing interest and loyalty of the alumni body in all of old Bowdoin’s athletic activities.

Sincerely yours,
R. M. LAWLIS ’11.

1716 Cambridge St.,
Cambridge, Mass.

SUBSCRIBERS TO THE ALUMNI “BLANKET TAX”

PRIZE SPEAKERS CHOSEN

The following members of the class of 1913 have been chosen for the Class of 1868 Prize Speaking, which occurs in Memorial Hall, Jan. 16: Edward Oliver Baker, Lawrence Alden Crosby, Cedric Russell Crowell, Paul Howard Douglas, Alfred Henry Sweet, Fred Dixon Wish.

INTER-CLASS CROSS-COUNTRY RACE

The Sophomores won their cross-country race held with the Freshmen on Monday, Oct. 28. They had twenty-seven points, while 1916 had twenty-eight. The race was run over a four and one-half mile course and, in spite of much rain, the roads were in fair condition.

Marshall ’16 was the first man to finish. He came in with a good sprint and seemed to be in good condition. His time was twenty-seven minutes.

The other men finished in the following order: McWilliams ’15, Bacon ’15, Boardman ’16, Irving ’16, McKenney ’15, Coxe ’15, Hargraves ’16, Porrut ’15, and Hale ’16.

Meetings and Rallies

This past week has been one of political activity within and without the College. The Progressives started things with a short campaign rally in front of the Eagle Hotel last Monday at which Governor Johnson, the Progressive candidate for Vice-President, gave a short speech. Last Thursday a very successful rally was held in the Town Hall at which President Hyde and Senator Johnson ’79 expounded the doctrines of Democracy. The Progressives held another rally last Friday evening. Today the big game is pulled off and tomorrow we shall know whether Yale, Harvard or Princeton is the victor.

The Student Council held a meeting last Monday, but nothing of outside interest was discussed. The Board of Managers held a meeting last Friday noon and cleared up some financial matters. The Treasurer reports that a larger amount than was estimated for in the budget is on hand and that all but a dozen of the students joined the Association. The Bugle Board held a meeting last Tuesday evening and talked things over quite extensively.

At a meeting of the Junior Class held last Wednesday noon in Memorial Hall the following resolution drawn up and passed by the Bugle Board was adopted unanimously: "Resolved that the chairman of the Assembly committee, Ivy committee and manager of the Bugle keep an accurate account of all money received and spent, with vouchers for all expenditures, that all surplus from assemblies and Ivy be turned back to the treasurer, that all surplus from the Bugle over $50 net be turned back to the treasury, the surplus up to that amount to be kept by the manager, that all deficits of assemblies, Ivy day or Bugle be assumed by the class, and that the accounts of the treasurer, chairman of Ivy and Assembly committees be carefully audited by a member of the faculty chosen by the president of the class.

At a well attended rally in the Town Hall last Thursday evening under the auspices of the Bowdoin Democratic Club, President Hyde and Senator Johnson set forth the contentions of the party, expressing clearly their views of the presidential situation. President Hyde in introducing Senator Johnson spoke in part as follows:

"All the candidates are good men; but there are degrees of goodness. President Taft has advocated many excellent policies, but he has made three fatal mistakes in withholding patronage in an attempt to coerce a portion of his party; by intrusting the execution of the conservation policy to the abominable Ballinger; and by approving a tariff devised and dictated by private interests.

"Colonel Roosevelt is a good and great man who has done much for the welfare of his country, but his policies have been hastily drawn together, his party has not been trained into a deep and mature conviction of their urgency, and furthermore he lacks a majority in Congress. His past record on the tariff question is also highly unsatisfactory.

"Woodrow Wilson is a man of superb independence, unquestioned ability, and spotless integrity, a man who stands for deliberate and steady progress with a responsible party behind him."

Senator Johnson then spoke as follows:

"The Democratic party has risen to the occasion, and nominated a man who stands for progressive principles. Wilson's position has not removed him from the world but has given him an insight into the needs of the country today. His party has fought with the motto: 'Equal justice to all; special privilege to none.' Wilson and his party have pledged themselves to apply tariff with favoritism squeezed out; they have shown themselves in sympathy with those who demand that the people have more control in the government. If Wilson is elected, the people will have a progressive administration looking toward the future participation of the people in the affairs of this government."

On the Campus

Psi Upsilon, Delta Upsilon and Beta Theta Pi held informal dances last Saturday evening after the Bates game.

The Bates Rally last Friday evening was of a high order. The speakers were Professor Files, Professor Mitchell and "Squanto" Wilson. P. K. Koughan '15 was elected Assistant Track Manager.

There are 25 candidates for the Mandolin Club this year. The next rehearsal will be held tomorrow at 5 P. M.

The Association of New England Colleges is to meet here November 12. The Association is composed of the president and a faculty delegate from each of the colleges and universities represented.

Arthur Howe, coach of the Yale football team and captain of the team in 1911, and picked by Walter Camp as All-America quarterback last year, will speak at a students' conference to be held here February 28, March 1 and 2, 1913.

The Library Table

Of great convenience to the students will be the Standard Encyclopedia, in twenty-five volumes, published by the Funk and Wagnalls Co., which has just been added to the Library. Perhaps the addition of deepest interest to Bowdoin men, however, is the bound copy of pleadings, proceedings, briefs of argument, and court's opinion, in the case of Batt et al., Executors of Coombs v. Treasurer of Massachusetts, on the inheritance tax, the work being presented by Edward P. Payson '69, who plead the case for the executors. In the first place, the arguments involve the practical working out of the inheritance tax. Of prime interest to Bowdoin men, however, is the fact that the court held that with the Act of Separation in 1820, Massachusetts ceased to maintain the corporation of Bowdoin College, inasmuch as the sovereignty had passed to the State of Maine.

More universal in its appeal for attention is "The Building of the Alps," by T. G. Bonney, Sc.D., LL.D., F.R.S. The work contains forty-eight illustrations, and treats of the structure and growth of the Alps, their glaciers, their physical changes, their meteorology, their
With the Faculty

At the meeting of the associated charities in Saco last Tuesday President Hyde was one of the principal speakers. In a very forcible address he told of the faults in the child labor system and suggested some rather drastic changes. In brief they were that: the children should not be allowed to work, they should have sufficient playgrounds, and they should not be adjudged criminals until after the sixteenth year. The talk was received with applause and was concurrent with the general sentiment of the meeting.

At a meeting of the New England Association of Colleges and Preparatory Schools at New Haven, Nov. 1 and 2, Mr. McConaughy represented the College.

THE CALENDAR

Tuesday, Nov. 5—Election Day.
8 p.m. Smoker in Memorial Hall. Election returns.

Wednesday, 6—8 p.m. Meeting of the Dramatic Club. Election.

Thursday, 7—7 p.m. Y. M. C. A. Meeting. Rev. H. E. Dunnack of Augusta speaks on "The Challenge of Tomorrow."
8 p.m. Meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet.
Friday, 8—7 p.m. Rally in Memorial Hall.
Saturday, 9—3,30 p.m. Cross-Country, Bowdoin vs. University of Vermont, at Burlington.

2,30 p.m. Football, Bowdoin vs. Maine, at Orono.

Monday, 11.—7 p.m. Meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Normal Classes.
8 p.m. Meeting of the Student Council.
Tuesday, 12.—Meeting of the Association of New England Colleges.
6.45 p.m. Meeting of the Debating Council.

Intercollegiate Notes

Ten men have been dropped from the Harvard varsity because of their inability to keep up in their studies.

The students of the University of Illinois have a novel stunt of wearing a specially made university cap to all athletic contests. Over two thousand caps have been sold.

Harvard undergraduates are cogitating upon the ruling of the faculty by which all students in the college are required before admission to the Junior class, to pass an oral examination in French and German.

"Tag Day" has been instituted at the University of Nebraska in order to support athletics. Tags are sold at three dollars apiece and one admits the purchaser to all home contests during the year.

A local wireless company has presented Harvard with a new and complete wireless outfit.

Brown has abolished Freshman football on the ground that it handicaps the second team.

The University of Missouri last year canned, among other things, 25,000 cans of tomatoes.

Drastic measures are being used at the University of North Carolina to stamp out hazing. The action results from the death of a student who fell and cut an artery while being hazed.

The alumni of Yale will erect a twenty-story club house upon the site of the present one in New York City. It will cost approximately $1,000,000.

The fraternities at Dartmouth are faced with a critical situation in regard to their pledging system. Unless they institute some radical change immediately there is danger of interference and legislation on the part of the trustees. A Sophomore pledging system is proposed and its radical nature causes much alarm among the more conservative fraternities.

The Dartmouth Literary Magazine, for twenty-six years the official literary organ of that college, has been suspended this year on account of lack of student financial and literary support.

One would believe that there is a good deal of truth in the charge brought against the Princeton student body that it is inclined to hero worship.
The presidents of their four classes are football stars. Pendleton is 1913 president; DeWitt is the 1914 head; Baker, 1915; and Heyning, star of the Freshman team, is president of his class.

Reed College opens this year with an enrollment of 130. The students celebrated the opening with a big bonfire on the campus.

Considerable money has been expended at Colby in the improvement of the Campus. College walks have been graded and walled and the dormitories have undergone extensive changes and repairs.

Women excelling in athletics at Kansas this year will be awarded "K's" by the Women's Athletic Association. They will be modifications of the varsity "K's" of original design, and will be given to the girls who play in the finals of three different sports, hockey, tennis, and basketball. For this year at least only seniors are eligible.

The Freshman class at New Hampshire State College numbers 147, the largest enrollment in the history of the college.

The building at Williams which in recent years has been occupied as a fraternity house by the Alpha Zeta Alpha Society is henceforth to be used as a clubhouse by the faculty of Williams College.

Alumni Department

'61.—Mr. Edward Stanwood has recently finished a new work called "A History of the Presidency from 1897 to 1909," which is published by Houghton, Mifflin. The work is a continuation of the work which he published in 1898 called "The History of the Presidency," well known to every student of American History or Government, and will be of great value as an authoritative work on the elections of the decade following that which he formerly treated.

'71.—Columbia has recently announced a course of lectures on Journalism and Public Life. One of them, on December 2, will be delivered by Mr. Edward P. Mitchell of the New York Sun. His subject will be "The Newspaper Value of Non-Essentials." In this lecture course, the name of this noted alumnus is connected with the names of some of the most noted men in the journalistic world, which is truly merited by the position he holds.

'87.—Dr. John W. Nichols, M.D., of Farmington and Miss Marion H. Pomeroy of New Sharon on Wednesday, Oct. 30th. Dr. Nichols, who received his degree of A.B. in 1881, his M.D. with this class, and an A.M. in 1891, is a prominent and successful physician in Franklin County. Miss Pomeroy is the daughter of Mrs. Harriet L. Pomeroy of New York City.

'99.—Edward B. Chamberlain, A.M., a successful teacher of science in the Franklin School for the past six years, is ranked among the leading botanists that Maine has turned out in recent years.

'03.—Dr. and Mrs. Malcolm S. Woodbury of Clifton Spring, N. Y., recently sailed for Germany where the doctor will spend several months in the study of neurology and psychiatry. He intends eventually to restrict his practice to these lines.

'04.—In the October number of the American Historical Review is an article by Prof. William E. Lunt of Cornell, who was head of the history department here last year. The title of the treatise is "The First Levy of Papal Annates." This is thoroughly annotated and in every way is an example of that superb scientific style the value of which he impressed on many of us who are now in college.

'08.—Arthur L. Robinson, who has recently been law clerk to Judge Hand of the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York, has opened an office with his brother, Clement F. Robinson, in connection with the offices of Woodman and Whitehouse in Portland.

'09.—Clyde Earle Richardson of Brunswick, who was principal of Freedom Academy in 1909-1910 and of Danforth High School, 1910-1912, has entered the Medical School this year.

'10.—John D. Clifford, Jr., who will be remembered as the remarkable orator of his class, has entered the law department of Georgetown University, Washington, D. C.

Winston Stephens of New Bedford, Mass., has been appointed by the Prussian Government at the recommendation of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, an Exchange Teacher of English in the Royal Gymnasium at Kalberg, Pommerania. He is the third Bowdoin man in two years to receive such an appointment. Mr. Stephens has previously been teaching at the Holderness School, Plymouth, N. H.
VERMONT SATURDAY

Bowdoin plays the last game of the season Saturday against the University of Vermont in Portland. The team will be in the best of condition and will put up the best game of the year. This last game in Portland always draws a large crowd and practically the whole student body will be present. Douglas, the fighting center, Capt. "Duff" Wood, Stan Hinch, "Chuck" Crosby, Cliff Page and Stan Dole will play their last game for Bowdoin Saturday. The support of all the students is needed for the game. This is the first time Bowdoin and Vermont have ever met on the gridiron.

BOWDOIN, 0; MAINE, 19—NOV. 9

The two thousand people that saw Bowdoin go down to defeat before the University of Maine team at Orono Saturday came away from the field with a great deal of respect for the losing team. The Bowdoin team fought always against odds, and not once during the entire game did they have an opportunity that they did not accept. Bowdoin's defense was stubborn to the last degree and her holding Maine on the one foot line was a typical example of the fighting spirit of the team.

There is not one man on the team of whom Bowdoin should not be proud. Weatherill carried the ball for many of Bowdoin's gains and he tackled a large number of the men that managed to break through the line. LaCasce's punting was consistently good; Foster was responsible for breaking up many of Maine's plays and he carried the ball for many consistent gains. Faulkner was in the game but a short time and made many good tackles. Crosby played his usual gritty game at quarter. The linemen fought gamely against the telling weight of their opponents. Hinch, Page and Dole played hard and made their way through the line many times to break up the interference of the Maine backs. Brown while he was in the game played exceptionally well at end and made many tackles to Maine's loss. Most of the plays were centered at Lewis and Leadbetter who withheld them to the last degree. Leadbetter made many of the tackles of the game. Wood was fast and sure in making tackles and in making holes in the Maine line. Barry made fine passes to the backs and fought hard to hold the opponents from breaking through the line. Douglas fought until his strength failed him and he had to leave the game.

The game was clean throughout although Maine was penalized 65 yards and Bowdoin 5.

In the second half and more noticeably in the last quarter Bowdoin began to weaken under the continual hammering on the line and Shepherd and the other Maine backs broke through time after time for many short gains. Maine tried long end runs but they only resulted in a race across the field and the man being tackled before he had any chance to gain ground.

Bowdoin was weak in her forward passes and only one of the several attempts was successful. The ends were unable to get through in order to receive the ball.

THE GAME IN DETAIL

First Quarter

LaCasce kicked off to Shepherd who ran the ball back 15 yards and was finally tackled by Foster. Carleton was downed by Pratt in the following play for no gain. Carleton again carried the ball but was tackled by Douglas for no gain. In the next play a Maine man fumbled but Bigelow recovered the ball. With the ball on the 33 yard line Shepherd punted the ball back of the goal posts for a touch-back. Foster recovered the ball. This gave Bowdoin the ball on her 20 yard line. In two plays Weatherill made 5 yards and then Foster made only one, being tackled by Bigelow. LaCasce was forced to punt to Cobb on the 35 yard line. Martin made 4 yards through right tackle but was finally stopped by Wood. He again carried the ball and was tackled by Leadbetter after a gain of only 2 yards. Cobb was tackled by Douglas for a gain of one yard. Shepherd punted off-side, this gave Bowdoin the ball on the 37 yard line. Weatherill was tackled by Donahue for no gain. A forward pass from Weatherill to Brown was broken up by Carleton. Foster then advanced the ball 7 yards but failed to make first down so LaCasce punted to Cobb on the 20 yard line, who was held from gaining by Hinch. Martin made 4 yards, being downed by Lewis. Brown then broke through the line and prevented Cobb from making any gain. In the next play Carleton made only 3 yards so Shepherd punted to Crosby on the 32 yard line. Weatherill made 3 yards and was tackled by Donahue. Weatherill again carried the ball and was tackled by Bigelow. Maine left guard off side, penalized 5 yards. This gave Bowdoin first down. Leadbetter carried the ball but failed to make any gain. Foster went through center for 4 yards and in the next play he made 3 more yards. Here Maine was penalized 5 yards for interfering with the snapping back of the ball: Bowdoin first down. Foster made 2\frac{1}{2} yards through right guard and Weatherill’s forward pass to Brown was broken up by Carleton. Again Bowdoin made an incomplete forward pass. It was now fourth down and 8 yards to go. LaCasce punted to Carleton who, when tackled by Leadbetter, fumbled the ball. Wood recovered the fumble. The ball was in Bowdoin’s possession on the 30 yard line. Foster was tackled by Bigelow for no gain. The next play was a forward pass caught by Shepherd. Carleton made 8 yards and Shepherd was tackled by Leadbetter. In this play Douglas was hurt. Shepherd made 7 yards and was tackled by Douglas and this gave Maine first down. The first period ended with the ball in Maine’s possession on her 36 yard line.

Second Quarter
Shepherd was tackled by Brown after a gain of 3 yards and Cobb caused Maine to be penalized 5 yards for off-side playing. In the next play Shepherd made 6 yards through left tackle and this was followed by a delayed forward pass which netted only 2 yards. Shepherd punted to Weatherill on the 28 yard line who ran the ball back only a short distance, being tackled by Donahue. Foster was tackled by Bernheisel for no gain, and Weatherill made 2 yards. Foster then carried the ball for a gain of 2 yards and Douglas was relieved by Barry. LaCasce punted to Cobb who ran the ball back 7 yards to the 45 yard line. Cobb made 4 yards through center and Leadbetter tackled Martin for no gain. Carleton made 3 yards through right tackle, and 10 yards around the end, being finally tackled by LaCasce. Leadbetter held Martin for a gain of only 1 yard. Carleton followed this with a gain of 5 yards through right tackle. Brown broke through the line and held Carleton for no gain. Carleton carried the ball for a third time and was finally tackled by Leadbetter after making first down. Lew Brown tackled Bernheisel for no gain and Cobb made no gain through right guard. Leadbetter tackled Carleton after he had broken through the line and gained 6 yards, making first down. Cobb then attempted a forward pass to Donahue which was incomplete. This gave Bowdoin the ball on her 25 yard line. Foster made 3 yards through the line and in the next play he made a fumble which Bernheisel recovered: Maine’s ball on Bowdoin’s 31 yard line. Maine made 6 yards on a delayed forward pass and Leadbetter tackled Shepherd for no gain. Martin followed this with a gain of 2 yards through right guard. Carleton made no gain in the next play as he was tackled by Wood. Martin made 6 yards and first down in the next play. The ball was now on the 6 yard line and Carleton made 3 yards through Wood and 2 yards through Leadbetter. Here the ball was, third down and 18 inches to go. The next play was centered on Lewis and Leadbetter who held fast. Maine made no gain. The next play was attempted between Bowdoin’s right end and tackle but Brown held the man for no gain. At no point throughout the game was the interest so great as here. To see the light team of Bowdoin hold a team that weighed so much more was a great treat to every person on the field. LaCasce punted to Cobb on the 37 yard line who made a fair catch. Shepherd made a placement kick from here which made the score 3 to 0 in Maine’s favor. LaCasce kicked off to Bryant who ran the ball back 10 yards. Bryant made 3 yards through left end, being tackled by Weatherill. In the next play Carleton made a gain of 15 yards but the Maine team was penalized for holding. In this play Brown hurt his shoulder and was forced to leave the game. He was replaced by Page. Carleton was tackled by Wood after a gain of 4 yards. The half ended with the ball in the possession of Maine on the 15 yard line.

Third Quarter
Shepherd kicked off to Weatherill who ran the ball back 15 yards, being finally tackled by Carleton. Weatherill made 9 yards and Crosby went through center for a 1 yard gain. In the next two plays Weatherill was held for only two yards gain. Foster went through center for 1 yard gain but this failed to make first down for Bowdoin. LaCasce punted to Carleton on the 25 yard line. In Page’s attempt to tackle the runner the ball was fumbled and recovered by Wood, who fumbled again, Page recovering the ball. A discussion arose as to whether the whistle had blown before the ball was fumbled or not and the referee had to toss up a coin to decide. Maine won the decision. Weatherill held Carleton for no gain and Barry held him in the next play for only 1 yard. Wood tackled Carleton for no gain and Shepherd punted to Crosby who ran the ball back 5 yards and was tackled by Donahue. Bowdoin's ball on the 48 yard line. In the next play Bowdoin fumbled but Crosby recovered the ball. Weatherill attempted a forward pass but it was intercepted by Martin. Maine was penalized 5 yards for playing off side. This gave Bowdoin first down. Murray held Weatherill for no gain and Weatherill's forward pass to Page was broken up by Carleton. Weatherill made 5 yards and LaCasce punted to Carleton on the 20 yard line, who was tackled by Leadbetter for no gain. Shepherd made 8 yards through the line and Bryant carried the ball through the center for 5 yards, making first down. Carleton was tackled by Leadbetter after a 5 yard gain. In the next play Carleton carried the ball and barely made first down. Lewis held Bryant for a gain of only 1 yard through the center. Carleton carried the ball for a 6 yard gain in the next play, Weatherill making the tackle. Shepherd made first down in the next play. Bryant made 17 yards around left end and Carleton made 3 yards followed by Shepherd, tackled by Leadbetter after a short gain. Shepherd bared his way through the line for another gain of 4 yards, and Dole replaced Page. Carleton made 3 yards and in the next play LaCasce tackled him for a loss of 3 yards. The next play was a delayed forward pass. Bernheisel gave the ball to Bryant who made the pass to Donahue who crossed the line for a touchdown. Shepherd kicked the goal. LaCasce kicked off to Bryant who ran the ball back 22 yards to the 38 yard line. LaCasce tackled Carleton after he had made a gain of 4 yards. Bryant made 6 yards and the period ended with the ball in Maine's possession on her own 47 yard line.

Fourth Quarter

Foster tackled Carleton after a gain of 10 yards and Leadbetter followed this with a pretty tackle of Martin after a gain of only 4 yards. Martin in the next play hurdles the line and was penalized 15 yards. Carleton made 12 yards around left end, being finally tackled by Foster. Shepherd punted 55 yards over the goal posts and this gave Bowdoin the ball on her 20 yard line. Weatherill lost 2 yards and LaCasce punted the ball to Baker on the 28 yard line. Crosby tackled Bryant for no gain and Faulkner went in for Foster. Bryant tried a long end run but Weatherill tackled him for no gain. Shepherd after failing to make any gain through center made an attempt to kick a goal from placement but the ball went to the right of the posts: Bowdoin's ball on her 25 yard line. Faulkner lost 7 yards in the next play and LaCasce punted off side to the 37 yard line. Leadbetter tackled Martin for a 1 yard gain and Bryant plunged through center for 5 yards. Faulkner made the next tackle and held his man for only 2 yards. Shepherd made first down. Shepherd plunged through the line for a 9 yard gain, being finally tackled by Faulkner. Carleton then plunged through the line for a 6 yard gain. In the next play Maine brought the ball to the 10 yard line and in the next few plunges the ball was carried over for a second touchdown. Shepherd kicked the goal.

LaCasce kicked off to Bernheisel who ran the ball back 15 yards. Martin made 10 yards through left end, was finally tackled by Wood. Martin again carried the ball but Barry tackled him for no gain. Maine was penalized 15 yards for holding. Leadbetter downed Martin after he had gone around the end for 5 yards. Faulkner tackled Carleton for no gain. Ruffener takes Martin's place. Maine punted to Weatherill who ran the ball back to the 48 yard line where he was tackled by Ruffener. Faulkner made 3 yards and Bowdoin was penalized 5 yards for off-side playing. In the next play Maine was penalized for off-side playing. Bigelow held Weatherill for no gain. A forward pass from Weatherill to Dole was incomplete. LaCasce punted to Bryant. This gave Maine the ball on her 30 yard line. Game ended.

Line-up:

BOWDOIN

Hinch, le..........................re, Bernheisel
Wood, lt..........................rt, Bigelow
Pratt, lg..........................rg, Tipping
Douglas, Barry, c................c, Baker
Lewis, rg..........................lg, Sawyer
Leadbetter, rt......................lt, Murray
Baker, Rhb..........................lb, Martin
Faulkner, Rhb......................rhb, Ruffener
Weatherill, Rhb...................lbh, Carleton
LaCasce, fb........................fb, Shepherd

VERMONT WINS CROSS-COUNTRY

Vermont won the second annual cross-country race with Bowdoin at Burlington, Nov. 9. The race was very close and exciting from first to last. The score was: Vermont 24, Bowdoin 21. The men finished in the following order: Hayden, Vermont; Hall, Bowdoin; Jones, Vermont; Tarbox, Bowdoin; Oldrich, Vermont; Haskell. Bowdoin; Bacon, Bowdoin; Minkler, Vermont; Tenni, Vermont.
The Maine Game

The entire college is proud of the way in which the football team contested the game with Maine Saturday, fighting with all the strength they had against the far greater weight of their opponents. Their stand on the one-foot line, when Maine was held for downs, marks the team as one which possesses the Bowdoin spirit in full measure. Although everyone hoped for victory, the showing of the team against the odds they had to face was entirely creditable. One thing which has characterized their playing during the entire season has been the small number of penalties imposed upon them: their game has been clean, no matter what kind of a game their opponents were playing. The game Saturday was comparatively free from penalties: Maine lost 65 yards and Bowdoin, five. With the Vermont game next Saturday, a game which the College expects the team to win, comes the close of a season which has not been marked with a series of victories; but a season that Bowdoin will remember for the clean, hard, and spirited fighting of the team.

It is the hope of the Orient that the completion of the presidential campaign will not cause the immediate disbanding of the political clubs which have done so much to enliven the local struggle. At least one of the losing movements is not at all dismayed but “ever hopeful of the future:” and the winning party can well afford to keep up the interest of its followers by a continuation of its organization. The Orient suggests permanent organization for each one of the clubs, with an occasional passage-at-arms to maintain the attention of the undergraduates upon national questions and thus meet the criticism that we live too much in a world of our own.

NOTED EDUCATORS MEET HERE

The meeting of the Association of Colleges in New England is to be held in Hubbard Hall on Tuesday and Wednesday, November 12 and 13. The colleges are to be represented at the meeting as follows: Harvard University—President Abbott Lawrence Lowell, Professor William Bennett Munro; Yale University—Dean Frederick Scheetz Jones, Professor Henry Crosby Emery; Brown University—Dean Otis Everett Randall, Professor James Quayle Dealey; Dartmouth College—President Ernest Fox Nichols, Professor Gordon Ferrie Hull; University of Vermont—Professor Samuel Fliot Bassett; Williams College—President Harry Augustus Garfield, Professor George Daniel Wild; Amherst College—President Alexander Meiklejohn, Professor Thomas Cushing Esty; Middlebury College—President John Martin Thomas, Professor Edward Day Collins; Trinity College—Professor Frank Cole Babbitt; Wesleyan University—President William Arnold Shanklin, Professor Walter Nicolson; Tufts College—Dean Frank George Wren, Professor John Sterling Kingsley; Boston University—Dean William Marshall Warren, Professor Norton Adams Kent; Clark University—Professor Henry Taber; Clark College—President Edmund Clark Sanford; Bowdoin College—President William DeWitt Hyde, Dean Kenneth Charles Morton Sills.

The first session of the meeting will be held at Hubbard Hall at 2 o’clock Tuesday, at which a program consisting of sixteen subjects, proposed by the various colleges represented, will be discussed. Tea will be served informally at Hubbard Hall at 5 o’clock Tuesday to the delegates of the Association and the Faculty of the College.
This is the first time in fifteen years that the meeting has been held here in Brunswick.

ANNIE TALBOT COLE LECTURES

It has been announced that George Edward Woodbury, Litt.D., LL.D., will deliver the Annie Talbot Cole lectures this year. The subject is "The Way of a Poet" and the lectures will be delivered as follows: November 25, "Illusion;" December 2, "The Denial of Life;" and December 9, "The Affirmation of Life." Dr. Woodbury has been Professor of English Literature at the University of Nebraska, and of Comparative Literature at Columbia University. He is recognized as our leading literary critic; and is the author of several books, among which are: Life of Edgar Allen Poe, Life of Nathaniel Hawthorne, Life of Ralph Waldo Emerson, America in Literature, and Makers of Literature.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Rev. H. E. Dunnack '97 spoke before the Christian Association Thursday evening, taking as his subject, "The Challenge of Tomorrow."

"Some men live in the past, others in the present," he said, "but the man who lives in tomorrow gets the most from both past and present. Tomorrow is the day when forests will be conserved and swamps and deserts reclaimed for the use of mankind. Tomorrow will see the completion of great enterprises. But before one can receive all the advantages of tomorrow he must first prove himself efficient and capable of fulfilling all the demands which the future imposes.

Those who will answer the challenge of tomorrow must be prepared mentally and physically. A sound mind and a healthy body are essential to the proper carrying out of our duties. One must also have the proper kind of a soul; a deep religious belief is a prime essential in the correct answering of the demands of the future. Men must therefore go out prepared in mind and body and spirit for the tasks which are to confront them, and be able to answer courageously the challenge of tomorrow."

The speaker at the Y. M. C. A. meeting on Thursday will be Rev. John H. Nolan, rector of the Episcopal Church in Lewiston. Mr. Nolan was for some time a curate in the Cathedral at Portland; he spoke effectively at the Y. M. C. A. last year.

This week is observed as a Week of Prayer in all the colleges of the country. At Bowdoin special brief meetings will be held at noon, and a special address by Dean Hodges on Sunday evening will conclude the series. The noon meetings will begin at one o'clock and close in time for the first afternoon recitation; they will be held in the Y. M. C. A. room. Crowell, president of the Association, spoke at the first meeting yesterday, and Douglas addressed the meeting this noon. Tomorrow, President Thomas of Middlebury is expected to be the speaker. President Thomas, who is here attending the meeting of the Presidents of all the New England colleges, is a preacher of note and has been a college preacher in many institutions. President Hyde will speak Thursday noon and the speaker on Friday will be David R. Porter '06, who is now in charge of the Y. M. C. A. work in all the secondary schools of the country. Porter was the first Maine Rhodes scholar, scored the memorable touchdown against Harvard in 1902, and is on the Advisory Committee of the Y. M. C. A. This will probably be the only time that he can speak at Bowdoin this year.

The membership of the Association, last week, was 248, which is the largest in the history of the Bowdoin Y. M. C. A.

The deputation work, which was successfully started last year, will be continued this year; one hundred letters have been sent to nearby towns explaining the work.

The social service committee plans to continue the Thanksgiving collection for the poor of Brunswick; last year money enough was contributed to buy Thanksgiving dinners for nearly a dozen needy families. The collections of old clothes and magazines, for the Sailors' Mission and the prison will be made this fall.

COLLEGE PREACHER SUNDAY

Rev. George Hodges, Dean of the Berkeley Theological School, will be the college preacher next Sunday. Dean Hodges is one of the prominent Episcopal ministers of the East and was at some of the larger churches before he gave up the routine work and went to the Berkeley School. During the past few years he has written a great deal on religious subjects and concerning religion.

He was born at Rome, New York, in 1856 and received his college education at Hamilton, obtaining his A.B. degree in '77 and his M.S. five years later. His theological education was received at the Western Pennsylvania Seminary.

SUNDAY CHAPEL

Pres. Hyde spoke of the three kinds of religion: positive, comparative and superlative. These are illustrated by the story of Esau, who sold his birth-right for a mess of pottage; the parable of the Pharisee; and the parable of the merchant
The man seeking good pearls. Esau desired immediate good, but obtained it at the price of a great future good, a price he had no right to pay. We find this same condition in every day life. Men desire a present good and obtain it only by the sacrifice of great future benefits to themselves, their families and those dependent upon them, and to society in general. No man desires evil, nor will he seek it if he obtains it, it is because in obtaining some small present good he was blind to the evil that was sure to follow. The chances are ten thousand to one that the man seeking present natural good is doing wrong.

But worse than this is the man who thinks himself better than his neighbor because he does not indulge in certain evil practices to which his neighbor may be addicted. This is the worst attitude a man can possibly have. This man is worse than the neighbor with whom he compares himself.

The superlative form of religion is illustrated by the merchant man seeking good pearls, who when he found one of surpassing value, sold all his other possessions that he might obtain it. This exemplifies the quest for the best and should be every man's attitude in life. Each of us should be ready to sacrifice all present goods to obtain the best. Of course we can never hope to obtain the best on this earth, but all of us may have an opportunity to obtain a future good immeasurably greater than the present benefits we have to give up, and at such a crisis we should not hesitate to choose the future good. We must remember that whatever choice we make, all other alternative benefits are forever lost to us.

THURSDAY CONCERT
The Saturday Club will give a concert Thursday evening, Nov. 14 in Memorial Hall, to which students will be admitted free. The entertainment will be given by Parker's Boston Imperials—a male quartet, a soprano soloist, and a harp, flute, and violin trio. A most enjoyable musical evening is anticipated.

CLASS FOOTBALL
Wednesday afternoon the Freshman and Sophomore classes elected their football captains and managers as follows: 1916, George R. Stuart of Augusta captain, Richard S. Fuller of Rockland manager; 1915, Daniel M. Mannix of Portland captain, George C. Thompson of Augusta manager. The captains called out the candidates for the teams Thursday, and the two squads are now practicing daily, getting in trim for the annual Freshman-Sophomore game which will probably be played the Saturday before Thanksgiving. Twenty Freshmen and fifteen Sophomores came out last week and additions are expected this week from the varsity substitutes and the second team. The following men have reported for the Freshman eleven: ends, Drummond, Giddlen, Poore, Woodman; tackles, Fortin, G. Olsen, Ramsey, Taber; guards, Chase, Ramsdell, Richardson; centers, Lull, Webber; backs, Captain Stuart, Doten, Fuller, Greeley, Haseltine, Ginty, Petten-gill, Weatherill. Among the Sophomore candidates are Captain Mannix, Coxe, Cross, Eastman, Keegan, Floyd, MacCormick, MacWilliams, McKinnon, Roberts, Rodick, P. Smith, Somers, West.

Meetings and Rallies
On Tuesday evening an election rally was held at which everybody present had a thoroughly good time even though some of them watched the defeat of their chosen political parties posted before them. The meeting opened about eight o'clock with a selection by the band; apples and cider were then brought forth, pipes were lighted and general preparations made to enjoy the evening. Douglas, with the characteristic piece of plaster on his nose, officiated, and was ably assisted by "Chuck" Crosby in posting the returns which were received by telephone at the Dean's office. Sum Mountfort ably impersonated Taft, Doc Merrill in cap and gown gave a noble impersonation of the learned Wilson, while Rawson in a rough rider's costume appeared with a "This-is-bully-boys," led three cheers for himself, and sat down to watch the returns. During the evening Loring Pratt and Johnny Dunphy gave some readings which were greatly appreciated and much applauded. But by far the most striking remarks were made by Douglas, whose appeal to the spirit of the undergraduates to send two hundred men to Orono brought results. Later in the evening the settees were moved back, and while some of the fellows danced others gathered around the piano and made the night air melodious.

Colonel Frank Plummer '87 was the principal speaker at the rally before the Maine game Friday night. Colonel Plummer expressed the spirit of every Bowdoin man, whether graduate or student, when he said that supporters of Old Bowdoin everywhere would feel satisfaction in the knowledge that the team had played a good clean game. Colonel Plummer told of several instances when Bowdoin pluck had made good, and he said that it was the same kind of pluck that was going to be in evidence on the field at Orono.
Other speakers of the evening were Professors Davis and Bell and Cedric Crowell, presiding. Ralph Buell led the cheering.

The Y.M.C.A. Cabinet held its regular meeting at the D. K. E. House last Thursday evening. A number of important questions of policy were discussed, but no matters were definitely decided upon.

On last Wednesday evening the Dramatic Club met, with Manager John E. Dunphy '13 presiding. The following officers were elected for the coming season: Cedric R. Crowell '13, president; William J. Nixon '13, manager; Winthrop S. Greene '13, senior member of the executive council.

On the Campus

Seneranee ex-'14 was on the campus over Sunday.

Professor Mitchell was recently elected president of the Brunswick Dramatic Club. Professor F. W. Brown was elected as a member of the executive committee.

Dean Sills will represent the College next Saturday at a meeting of the Committee of Maine Colleges with the State Superintendent of Schools.

The All-Americans, composed of former Bowdoin stars, coaches, ineligible, and second team men defeated the varsity in an afternoon game last Wednesday, 10 to 6. Frank Smith scored the winning play with a drop kick from the 28 yard line during the last few minutes of play. Quite a crowd watched the performance. Nickerson, the veteran trainer, was referee and the rounds lasted 10 minutes.

Earl L. Wing '10 was on the campus Wednesday and Thursday.

Freshman warnings were issued Tuesday. Out of the 117 men in the entering class, 32 received major and 37 minor warnings. Last year the Freshman class numbered 81, and 15 major and 43 minor warnings were issued.

As a result of the examinations for Library assistant, E. B. Poore '16 and A. W. Canney '16 have been chosen from the Freshman class.

The Library Cable

Miss Lucy F. Young of Winchester, Mass., a daughter of Rev. Dr. Joshua Young of the Class of 1845, has recently presented the Library with a rare lithograph, published by Joseph Griffin and representing the college buildings and the campus as it appeared in 1845. This lithograph was engraved from a daguerreotype taken by Hendee. The college librarian is very desirous of learning whether this daguerreotype is still in existence. It would throw light upon the period at which the long walk extending south from Massachusetts Hall was first laid out and the trees were planted at its sides.

Strongly reinforced is the history department with the addition of “Readings in American Constitutional History, 1776-1876,” edited by Prof. Allen Johnson. Mr. Johnson was Thomas Brackett Reed Professor in History and Political Science at Bowdoin until his departure in 1910. He is now Professor of American History in Yale University. Then, there is the “History of the United States, Vol. III,” treating of the American Revolution, 1761-1789, by Edward Channing.

For all ages and all temperaments is the “Home Book of Verse: American and English (1580-1911),” compiled by Burton E. Stevenson. Another book, widely recommended by eminent authorities, is “Moral Leadership and the Ministry” by Edward E. Keedy. This work is that combination of passion and argument which is necessary for successful ministry.

Writings regarding college work and college life are by no means scarce. In the Twentyeth Century Magazine for October, there is an article by Richard Rees Price, Director of the Extension Division of the University of Kansas, showing how that university is following the policy of doing research work and public service, as well as that of instructing the youths in its class rooms.

Baseball receives interesting treatment in the Review of the World section of Current Literature, under the titles “Baseball Eclipses Politics,” “Physical Problems in Baseball” and “Curious Antics of a Baseball.” Scribner’s for November contains an article by Henry Cabot Lodge entitled “Some Early Memories.” The author recalls his school and college days, including the Civil War and the impression it made upon him as a boy. During his course at Harvard the institution underwent the change from the old Puritan type to the modern type of college. The senator deplores the elective system for studies. In the same magazine, good reading is also found in Paul Van Dyke’s “College Life—A Word to Fathers Who Have Not Been to College but Whose Sons Want to Go.”

The Calendar

Tuesday, Nov. 12.—1:00 p.m. Week of Prayer
Half Hour Meeting, Douglas '13, leader.
Meeting of the Association of New England Colleges.
2 p.m. Meeting in Hubbard Hall.
5 p.m. Tea given in honor of the visitors in Hubbard Hall.
8 p.m. Meeting in Hubbard Hall.
7 p.m. Meeting of Debating Council in Massachusetts Hall. Discussion of the advisability of holding a series of interclass debates.

Wednesday, 13.—1:00 p.m. Week of Prayer Half Hour Meeting, Prof. McConaughy, leader.
9 a.m. Meeting of the Association of New England Colleges in Hubbard Hall.
Thursday, 14.—1:00 p.m. Week of Prayer Half Hour Meeting. President Hyde, leader.
7 p.m. Y. M. C. A. Meeting, Rev. John H. Nolan of Lewiston, speaker.
8 p.m. Concert in Memorial Hall. Parker’s Boston Imperials.
Friday, 15.—1:00 p.m. Week of Prayer Half Hour Meeting, David R. Porter ’06, leader.
7:30 p.m. Rally in Memorial Hall.
Saturday, 16.—2:30 p.m. Football, Bowdoin vs. U. of Vermont, in Portland.
2:30 p.m. New England Cross-Country Meet.
Meeting of the Committee on College and Secondary School Relationships, at Brunswick.

Sunday, 17.—College Preacher, Dean George Hodges of Berkeley Seminary, Cambridge. 10:45 Dean Hodges preaches at The Church on the Hill.
5:00 p.m. Dean Hodges speaks at Chapel.
7:30 p.m. Dean Hodges conducts the closing service of the Week of Prayer, at the St. Paul’s Episcopal Church.

Monday, 18.—7 p.m. Meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Normal Classes.
7:30 p.m. Meeting of the Student Council.
8 p.m. Illustrated Lecture, Memorial Hall.
Mr. Nat M. Brigham, “The Grand Canyon of Arizona.”

Resolutions
Hall of Alpha Delta Phi, November 1, 1912.
It is with deepest regret that the Bowdoin Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi records the death on September 11th of one of its founders, Henry Hill Boody of the Class of 1842. At the time of his death he was the oldest alumnus of the college. He has always shown a deep interest and loyalty both to the college and the fraternity. In the many walks of life he followed he achieved an enviable record.
The Chapter expresses its deep sympathy to those to whom he endeared himself by his sterling character and fidelity.

James Everett Philoon,
Earl Spaulding Thompson,
Sam West,
For the Chapter.

Alumni Department
'57.—Another alumnus who, in quite a different line helped humanity, and who has now gone to his rest is Louis Orsmand Brastow, late of New Haven, Ct. Mr. Brastow died August 12th at the age of seventy-eight years.
Louis Orsmand Brastow was born in Brewer on March 23, 1834. After receiving a common school education in his home town, he taught school there for some time. After that he entered Bowdoin, graduating from here in 1857. He then entered the Bangor Theological Seminary from which he graduated in 1866.
In the year of his graduation he was ordained as pastor of a Congregational Church in St. Johnsbury. In 1870 he acted as a member of the Vermont Constitutional Convention, and he held that position until 1872. In 1881 he was made chaplain of the Twelfth Regiment of Vermont Volunteers, serving them during the war.
In 1872 he was chosen pastor of the First Church in Burlington, Vt., acting in that capacity for eleven years.
He left this work to take a position as Professor of Practical Theology in the Yale Divinity School, where he served as a professor until 1907, when he was given the title of professor emeritus. At one time he was also dean of the divinity school.
Mr. Brastow was a regular contributor to the religious press and also published two or three books. Chief of these were “The Representative Modern Preachers,” published in 1904, and “The Modern Pulpit,” published two years later. His ability was recognized by this college in 1880 when he received the degree of D.D. and by Yale five years later when he was accorded the distinction of an honorary A.M.
Mr. Brastow married, early in his career, Miss Martha B. Ladd, and they were blessed with two children.
The steadfastness of purpose which led this alumnus to follow his favorite field of labor, through incalculable sacrifice, and even on to the battlefield to help those who were in spiritual anguish, shows that he was a true son of Bowdoin and he retained in his after life, the most valuable thing we can get from our college days—a desire to help others and steadfastness of purpose.
That Bowdoin CAN play football and win, was unquestionably demonstrated at the Pine Tree grounds Saturday afternoon. On a wet, sticky field, under the odds of playing a heavier team, Bowdoin came to her own at last and won one of the best games played in the State this year.

The team as a whole made the best showing that it has this season in team work, hard offense, and clean, smashing tackling. Every man appeared to be in as perfect condition and as fresh as he was in mid-season. They were certainly there with the punch at every minute of the play.

The Bowdoin line fought the hardest kind of a game. One or more linemen broke through Vermont's primary defense on every play. Pratt, Douglas, Wood and Leadbetter had on their opponents from the first whistle. Time and again they broke through and tackled the Vermont backs for losses of 5 to 10 yards, and it was due to their smashing game that Bowdoin was able to make such long and frequent gains through line plunging. It is by no means meant that these were the onlyfighters in the line. Every Bowdoin player was a fighter, and no distinction can be made in favor of any one man. Crosby played a cool, steady game at quarter. He used his head well, and ran his team smoothly and with good generalship. Faulkner was the star of the game, and his wonderful dodging was the sensation of the afternoon. Twice he ran through the whole Vermont team for gains of 20 and 30 yards. LaCasce put up the steady, cool game that he always plays. He gained consistently when given the ball, and played a hard, smashing defensive game. Weatherill put up as fine a game at secondary defense as has been seen this season. He stopped the Vermonters several times in the open field when it seemed that they were clear, and when "Bob" tackled a man, the ball stopped moving.

Bowdoin played straight old-fashioned football, relying on line plunging and short end runs. Several forward passes were tried but all failed but one. Vermont used open formations and complicated plays during the first of the game, but were forced to fall back on regular football. For Vermont Sefton and Whalen starred. The game was cleanly played and good feeling prevailed on the field.

THE GAME IN DETAIL

LaCasce kicked to Vermont's 15 yard line. Putnam recovered the ball and carried it back 10 yards. A short forward pass by Smith, tackle by Wood. Currier 5 yards. Smith 1 yard. Sefton 5 yards through Lewis. Smith 5 yards, tackled by Pratt. Vermont penalized 15 yards for holding. Smith made 1 yard around right end, tackled by Hinch. Smith punted to Bowdoin's 20 yard line. Weatherill recovered the ball and advanced 15 yards. Weatherill makes 5 yards more through right guard. LaCasce held for no gain. Weatherill 3 yards through skin tackle. LaCasce 8 yards through left guard. First down. LaCasce 3 yards through right guard. Faulkner made a brilliant run of 22 yards around right end. Weatherill was held for no gain through the line. LaCasce made 3 yards through left guard. Weatherill's forward pass intercepted by Currier, who was held for no gain by "Duff" Wood. Smith held for no gain. Currier ditto. Smith punted. Crosby allowed the ball to roll over the line. Ball returned to scrimmage on the 25 yard line. Weatherill and LaCasce gain 2 yards through the tackles. Faulkner makes first down by an 8 yard plunge through left tackle. Vermont off side. Bowdoin's ball, first down, on Vermont's 40 yard line. After a few failures to gain, LaCasce punted. Hinch recovered the ball on the 35 yard line. Hinch replaced by Dole. Bowdoin failed to make first down. Vermont's ball on her 25 yard line. Here Vermont uncovered her triple forward pass, but was unsuccessful. Vermont failed to make downs. End of first period, with the score 0-0.

Second Period

Bowdoin's ball, 7 yards to make. Faulkner and Weatherill failed to make the distance. Sefton made 9 yards through Leadbetter. Smith 1 yard through center, tackled by Wood. Smith 8 yards around end. Currier held for no gain by Leadbetter. Sefton about 2 yards. Fourth down 1 inch to go. "Duff" held Currier for 1/2 inch gain. Bowdoin's ball on the 20 yard line. Weatherill rushed the ball 8 yards through right guard. Weatherill made first down. LaCasce fumbled and Vermont recovered, and carried the ball 5 yards. Pratt broke through and nailed Smith for a loss of 10 yards. Smith tried a place kick. The whole Bowdoin line broke through and blocked it. Faulkner recovered the ball and tore down the field for 23 yards. Line plunges by Faulkner, Lewis and LaCasce gave Bowdoin first down. Faulkner dodged through the entire Vermont team for thirty yards and a touchdown. (Bowdoin cheering section goes wild.) LaCasce kicked a perfect goal. (Repeated wildness in Bowdoin section.) Foster replaced Weatherill. Both teams penalized for holding. The ball see-sawed in the middle of the field till the end of the half. Score, Bowdoin, 7; Vermont, 0.

Third Period

Dole replaced Page at end. Whalen kicked to Leadbetter on the 25 yard line. LaCasce punted 40 yards. Smith recovered the ball and ran it back 10 yards. Sefton made 16 yards around left end. Douglas and Pratt held Currier for no gain on an attack at center. Smith punched a long, low kick up the center of the field. Barry replaced Douglas at center. Bowdoin set back 15 yards for holding. LaCasce had to punt. Putnam recovered the ball but was downed in his tracks by Leadbetter. Vermont made first down but was compelled to punt after failing to get off two forward passes. Crosby recovered the ball on the 5 yard line. LaCasce punted to the 40 yard line. Fitzpatrick replaced Smith and fumbled the first ball passed to him. Faulkner recovered the ball but was unable to make any distance. Both teams punted several times and tried forward passes without success. The ball remained in the middle of the field for the rest of the period. Neither goal in danger during the whole period.

Fourth Period

Gallagher replaced Putnam, and Hayes went in for Salmond. Whalen punted to Crosby on the 8 yard line. Faulkner and LaCasce were both held for no gain. Foster replaced Faulkner. LaCasce punted to Gallagher on the 22 yard line. Vermont penalized and ball went to Bowdoin. Weatherill and LaCasce made first down. Vermont line stiffens up, and held Bowdoin for no gain the next three downs. LaCasce punted. Leadbetter went in left half and Brown took right tackle. Pike replaced Barry. Leadbetter was given the ball on the next two rushes and made first down. The whistle blew as Leadbetter recovered a fumble.

BOWDOIN

Hinch, Dole, le. re, Sefton Wood, lt. rt, Flynn Pratt, lg. rg, Salmond, Hayes Douglas, Barry, Pike, c. c, Farr

Lewis, Hall, rg. ig, Berry Leadbetter, J. Brown, rt. It, Whalen Page, Dole, re. le, Claffey Crosby, qb. qb, Currier Weatherill, Foster, Leadbetter, lhb. rhb, Smith, Fitzpatrick Faulkner, Foster, rhb, lhb, Putnam, Gallagher LaCasce, fb. fb, Frank

WEATHERILL ELECTED FOOTBALL CAPTAIN

After the picture at Webber's yesterday afternoon, Robert Thomas Weatherill, '14, was elected football captain for next year. For three years "Bob" has been a star in the backfield and his long end runs and hard, smashing tackles have been features of every game. Many times he has snatched the team from defeat. Here's hoping that next year he will lead Bowdoin to victory.

AFTER THE GAME

The Bowdoin College student body turned themselves into Portland boys last Saturday. The marching, cheering and spirit displayed was excellent. After the game the squad had a very successful banquet at the Falmouth Hotel.

At the post-prandial exercises Capt. "Duff" Wood presided. He called on the senior members of the squad for short speeches. Those responding were Pike '13, Douglas '13, Page '13, Hinch '13, J. Brown '13, Crosby '13, Daniels '13, Dole '13, Coach Bergin, "Buster" Crosby, "Nick" and "Sum" Mountfort also responded to toasts. The same note ran through all the remarks: that, although the season had been one of disappointment as far as scores were concerned, all were mighty glad to have been out helping to make a team for Bowdoin, were mighty sorry to leave College and counted the friendship formed on the squad the best single thing in their college career. Other members of the squad and managers at the banquet were L. Smith '13, Pratt '14, LaCasce '14, Weatherill '14, Lew Brown '14, Leigh '14, Moulton '15, Lewis '15, Austin '15, McDonald '15, Evans '15, Livingstone '15, Verrell '15, Leadbetter '16, Foster '16, Barry '16, H. Wood '16 and Dyer '16.

After the banquet the team occupied boxes at the Jefferson Theatre where the performance of "Little Boy Blue" was turned into a Bowdoin night. The intermissions were filled with cheers and songs and long distance conversation.

Nothing marred the whole excursion, and everyone had the best kind of time and—we won.

INTER-CLASS STRUGGLE SATURDAY

The Freshman and Sophomore football squads are putting on the finishing touches for their annual game to be played Saturday. Both squads have plenty of good material, and a close game is expected. Captain Stuart is coaching the Freshman backs, and Leadbetter, the varsity tackle, is drilling the Freshman line, while Captain Mannix, Philip Fox '14, and “King” Pratt, the varsity guard, are grooming the Sophomores for the contest.

The tentative line-up of the Freshman eleven, as announced by Captain Stuart, is as follows: Hagermann, le; Woodman, lt; Haywood, Ig; Lull, c; Moulton, Chase, rg; Rawson, rt; Drummond, re; Fuller, qb; Bamford, lbh; Stuart (Capt.). Glidden, rbb; Parsons, Hazeltine, fb. Although the Sophomore line-up has not yet been definitely determined, it is quite certain that Captain Mannix will run the team at quarter-back, and that Roberts, Somers, P. Smith, and Coffin will fill the other backfield positions. The line will be selected from the following men: Austin, Coxe, Dunton, Floyd, Keegan, Mac Cormick, Melcher, Moulton, Rogers, Thompson and West.

FOOTBALL LETTERS AWARDED

At a meeting of the Athletic Council held yesterday noon the following men were awarded the football “B”: Wood, Douglas, Dole, Hinche, Page, Crosby, Pratt, LaCasce, Weatherill, L. Brown, Lewis, Faulkner, Foster, Leadbetter, Barry—15 in all.

SONG CONTEST

Announcement was made in the Commencement number of the Orient of a prize of fifty dollars, offered through the Music Committee of the Faculty, for the best Bowdoin song. The time limit of this contest, which is open to both graduates and undergraduates, will be January 15, 1913. Competitors are requested to send their songs on or before that date to Mr. Edward H. Wass, chairman of the Music Committee. Each song should be signed with an assumed name, and accompanied by the author’s name in a sealed envelope. The prize will not be awarded, if, in the judgment of the Committee, no worthy song is presented.

If, as is confidently hoped and expected, this prize is awarded, another prize of the same amount will be offered for the best musical setting for the prize song, with April 1, 1913, as the time limit.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Rev. John H. Nolan of Lewiston spoke before the Christian Association Thursday evening, taking as his subject, “The Church of the Living God.”

“Years ago the significance of this name,” he said, “was well known and understood: such men as Carlyle and Gladstone knew and often used this term. Nowadays there appears to be a singular lack of knowledge of this most important expression. Laymen must join with the clergy in making the significance of the Church felt and appreciated, for the clergymen cannot do all the work alone. Without educated laymen the Church must limp along the way. It is not narrow as some would have us believe; true it is not perfect for the very reason that it is made up of men.

“To make men Christians is in one sense an economic principle. By making good men there will be less crime and therefore less cost for prisons and trials. The way in which to support the Church and make men come to church meetings is to interest them in Christ. It is because of the lack of interest in Him and His ideal that the term ‘Church of the Living God’ has lost so much of its significance among us today.”

Robert H. Gardiner of Gardiner, a graduate of Harvard Law School, founder of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and one of the foremost Episcopal laymen in the state, will speak to the Christian Association next Thursday.

The Freshman Religious Committee has been announced as follows: Foster, chairman; Fuller and Hazeltine, sub-chairmen; Anthony, Bamford, Bird, Canney, Churchill, Elliot, Edwards, Greeley, Hawes, Hescock, Little, H. T. Parsons and Rawson. During the week this committee will collect old clothes which are to be sent to Dr. Grenfell’s mission in Labrador and to the Bates Settlement House in New York City. Magazines for the Sailor’s Mission in Charleston and text books for the loan library of the association are also solicited. Any member of the committee will gladly call for articles if notified.

Colby statistics, just compiled, show that there are now 396 students in college.
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

Published every Tuesday of the collegiate year by The Bowdoin Publishing Company in the interests of the students of Bowdoin College

EDITORIAL BOARD

Douglas H. McMurtrie, 1913, Editor-in-Chief
Robert D. Leigh, 1914, Managing Editor
Fred D. Wish, 1913, Alumni Editor

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

L. E. Jones, 1913 K. A. Robinson, 1914
V. R. Leavitt, 1913 R. E. Simpson, 1914
W. R. Spinney, 1913 A. H. MacCormick, 1915
D. K. Merrill, 1914 F. P. McKenney, 1915
J. F. Rollins, 1915

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted.

All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager of the Bowdoin Publishing Co. Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

BOWDOIN PUBLISHING COMPANY

H. B. Walker, 1913, Business Manager
Alfred E. Gray, 1914, Assistant Manager
E. L. Sylvester, 1914, Assistant Manager

Entered at Post-Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII. NOVEMBER 19, 1912 No. 18

Our Football Heritage

The excitement of the last scrimmage has subsided, the echo of the last strains of Bowdoin Beata has died away in the distance; soon the football uniforms will be packed away and the College will settle down to the quiet work of the winter season.

But before we turn our minds from the season just passed, let us consider what of permanent value we have gained from it. It seems to us that if there is anything of lasting worth in the football days which we should carry with us into the less spectacular part of the year's work it is that fine spirit of comradeship which is developed on the long afternoons of practice, side by side on Whittier Field and in the stands cheering as one man, not for self or for fraternity but for Bowdoin.

This same spirit should govern the members of the two upper classes as they proceed this week and next to the choice of their class officers. Let us not sink back into any individual selfishness or fraternity prejudice, but let the spirit of fairness and honor which prevailed on the football field extend into these other undergraduate functions. Let's prove to ourselves that the thing for which we have been yelling ourselves hoarse and taking willing bruises and the daily grind of practice is not a vain enthusiasm at a gladiatorial spectacle but that it is something higher, a spirit, which expresses itself in honor, fair play and friendship and will condemn anything that does not measure up to that standard.

Those who withstand any tendency to combination in class elections, those who vote only for the men whom they consider deserve the honors, regardless of other considerations, are fighting for the honor of Bowdoin as loyally as any athletic team and those who seek by any method to circumvent this spirit of fairness are quitting, quitting like the men on the football field who stop fighting before the game is over, quitting because they refuse to bear their little part in the building up of an undergraduate spirit in Bowdoin which will work out the problem of fraternity and college by the actual comradeship of its members.

Quill Support

A branch of college activity which calls for the support of the alumni as much or more than any other undergraduate undertaking is the Quill. The literary magazine of such merit that it was ranked second among like college publications last year surely deserves to have more than the hundred alumni subscribers at present on its list. There is an old debt, contracted through no fault of the men now in College, of over two hundred dollars. This debt can be paid and the paper put on a firm basis if the graduate subscribers to the Orient will subscribe to the Quill as well.

The Orient desires to express An Honorable Record press to every member of the football team the appreciation of the College for the way in which the team has fought through its schedule against odds. That schedule will not go down in the records as a successful one, but from the point of view of pure sportsmanship the season has been a complete success. The 1912 team has made a name for itself by its plucky game; and the Orient records its admiration for that pluck, fairness, and fighting Bowdoin spirit.

Michigan's new general catalogue shows that the University in its seventy-five years has given instruction to 43,666 students.
SATURDAY CLUB CONCERT

A most delightful concert was given Thursday evening by the Parker Imperial concert company of Boston in Memorial Hall. This is the first of this season’s affairs under the auspices of the Saturday Club and was attended by a large audience composed of students and town people.

The company, which consisted of eight people, was excellent and their program was extremely well chosen. Miss Hiltz, the prima donna, was called back again and again and her encores were applauded fully as much as her first numbers.

The program included a great deal of well known music while the encores were of a lighter order. The personnel of the company: Evangeline Hiltz, prima donna soprano; Raymond Simonds, tenor; Lyman Hemenway, tenor; John Smallman, baritone; Alex Logan, bass; Phyllis Hammond, harpist; Alberta Florence, violinist; Philip Morse, flutist.

PROGRAM

Traum der Sennerin

Comrades in Arms

Charmant Oiseau

Soprano with Flute Oligato

Barcarolle from Tales of Hoffmann

Barcarolle from Harp, Violin, Flute

Meditation from Thais

Old Favorites

Tenor or Bass Solo, Selected

Mazurka

Blue Danube Waltzes

Labitzky

Adam

David

Offenbach

Massenet

Arranged

Schuecker

Strauss

ENSEMBLE

DEBATING NEWS

Tonight in Hubbard Hall there will be a meeting of the Debating Council at which the following question will be discussed: "Resolved, That the extent to which any student may participate in student activities should be subject to regulations made by the Student Council." All students are invited to be present, and as the question is one that should be of live interest to every man in college, there should be a good attendance.

At their meeting on Thursday afternoon the Council voted to hold a debate between the Freshmen and Sophomores directly after the Christmas vacation. All Freshmen and Sophomores are eligible to compete in the trials which will occur shortly after Thanksgiving, and it is expected that a large number of men will try out for the teams. The subject of the debate and the exact date of the trials will soon be announced.

N. E. COLLEGE ASSN. MEETING

The fifty-fifth annual meeting of the Association of Colleges of New England convened in Hubbard Hall on Tuesday and Wednesday, November 12 and 13. Six college presidents, four deans and fifteen professors, representing fifteen of the leading colleges of New England, were in attendance. Sessions were held Tuesday afternoon and evening and Wednesday morning, at which sixteen topics of vital concern to colleges were discussed. Tuesday afternoon at five o’clock the Bowdoin faculty entertained the visiting delegates with an informal reception. Wednesday morning the delegates attended Chapel, where President Lowell of Harvard briefly addressed the student body, touching upon the function of the college and the great opportunities for advancing education that it holds out to ambitious young men. The convention closed Wednesday forenoon, and the visiting educators departed highly pleased with the conference and the College.

SATURDAY CLUB LECTURE

Last night in Memorial Hall Nathaniel Brigham gave his stereopticon lecture on "The Grand Canon of Arizona." The photographs which Mr. Brigham exhibited were all taken by himself, and he has lived for many years in the west. The lecture was under the auspices of the Saturday Club, but a large number of students were present. Mr. Brigham was a classmate of President Hyde at Harvard.

Under the auspices of the Saturday Club, Dr. Wiley of "pure food" fame will speak in Brunswick November 29, and the Ben Greet players will be here December 10.

SECOND COLLEGE PREACHER

Dean Hodges of the Berkeley Divinity School preached at the Chapel service last Sunday. His subject was the hypocrisy of the right hand and he dealt with the common fault among college men of pretending to be worse than one really is. He pleaded eloquently for the life of aggressive goodness of the deliberate stand for the right and by that stand the resulting moral activity resulting inevitably in moral and spiritual strength.

On the Campus

The winning of the Vermont game was an important thing and the men on the team should be honored for it, but it is a very doubtful tribute to spoil the dignity of the Sunday Chapel service by "wooding" the team. The Freshmen were the only ones to do it. Moral: Get wise, Freshies, and wait for the upper-classmen to act first in this matter of student customs.

The Senior class will elect its class day and regular class officers at a meeting Thursday evening in the History Lecture Room.

Next Friday afternoon Sousa and his Band will be at the Cumberland Theatre. It is expected that the College will be out in full force to hear the great "march king" and his organization render "Stars and Stripes Forever" and others.

The first Saturday Club entertainment in Memorial Hall, Parker’s Imperials, drew a large crowd from the student body.

Work on this year’s catalogue is nearing completion.

Quite a stir was caused in College and Delta Upsilon circles by the announcement of the marriage of Vurnyer Adrian Craig '13 and Miss Verna Harriet Larrabee of South Portland at Starks, Nov. 6, by Rev. George Ingram. Craig will continue his college course this year.

Professor Alvord has a printed letter in the last issue of the Brunswick Record, in regard to the Progressive Party and the Press.

The regulations and subjects for the American History Prize and Bennett Prize are posted on the bulletin board. Names of contestants should be handed to Profs. Bell or Hormell by Saturday.

Meetings and Rallies

At a meeting of the Sophomore class held Wednesday afternoon the following officers were elected: James A. Lewis, President; Ellsworth A. Stone, Vice-President; Daniel W. Rodick, Secretary; George A. Hall, Treasurer.

Next Thursday evening at 8 P. M. in Memorial Hall the Junior class will hold its election of officers. The class and Ivy officers will be chosen and members elected to the Ivy and Assembly committees.

The Student Council held its usual meeting Monday night but did nothing of special importance.

The last football rally of the season was held Friday evening in Memorial Hall. Although the number of students present was small, there was plenty of spirit. The speakers were exceptionally good. The first speaker, Mr. McConaughy, outlined the proposed plans for having "Bowdoin Nights" in the larger cities of the State this year. The next speaker, Dean Sills, gave a short talk on the student support of the teams and college spirit in his student days. "Chuck" Crosby spoke briefly of the team and the plans for the game. The final speaker was Mr. David Porter '06, the first Rhodes scholar from Bowdoin. He spoke of the College and its athletics, bringing in incidents of his life at Oxford, and said that the test of Bowdoin spirit was in the support of a losing team. The whole program was interspersed with cheers and music by the band, making this last rally one of the best and most interesting of the year.

The Library Table

According to the World’s Work for November, there were 4,856 students in the colleges of our country from foreign lands during 1911-12. Of these, Canada sent 898; West Indies, 698; China, 549; Japan, 415; Mexico, 294; Germany, 143; Philippine Islands, 123; Korea, 21. The magazine calls attention to the fact that our civilization will in this way be stamped upon a wide area of the world.

That the fraternity question is receiving attention among women students as well as among the men is evinced by the appearance in the November Century of "The Fraternity Idea Among College Women" by Miss Edith Rickert. The article is the result of a "comprehensive and impartial investigation." It will be followed in the next number by "What Can We Do About It?"

Interesting for educators should be the article by William Mc. Andrews in the November World’s Work entitled "One Remedy for Education." The author deplores the conservatism of our boards of education and the excess of the curriculum, or conventional, method of teaching in our schools. One remedy, he suggests, is magazine study for the scholars in place of much that is useless.

Of more universal interest is the article in the Atlantic Monthly for November entitled "My Boyhood" by John Muir, the renowned geologist, explorer and naturalist. A vivid picture of life in New York City is found in "Your United States" by Arnold Bennett, in the November number of Harper’s Monthly.

Professor Nixon contributes an exegetical note on Juvenal to the Classical Review for November.

A gift of 10 volumes and 40 pamphlets has been received from H. W. Bryant, Esq., of Portland.

A notable contribution to the department of drama is in the form of seven volumes. There are the dramatic adaptations of Crawford and The Vicar of Wakefield by Marguerite Merington. Besides these works there are the original plays, The Marrying of Ann Lee by Granville H. Barker; The Girl With the Green Eyes by Clyde Fitch; Seven Short Plays by Lady Gregory; Jean d'Arc by P. W. Mackaye; and Tragedy of Nan by John Masefield.

That college presidents can relish a little nonsense now and then is testified by Eric's Book of Beasts by President David Starr Jordan of Stanford University. The book contains about a hundred jingles written for the amusement of his son Eric; it tells of beasts both common and uncommon, and has fanciful pictures of them by a Japanese artist. Of the hospitable reptile, we learn:

This reptile is a hardened sinner;
But when a friend drops in for dinner,
He greets him with an open smile,
And makes him merry quite a while.
O let us, like this reptile, be Renowned for hospitality!

THE CALENDAR

Tuesday, Nov. 19.—5 p. m. Glee Club Rehearsal, Y. M. C. A. Room.
6.45 p. m. Debate under auspices of English VI. Subject: Should the extent to which any student may participate in student activities be subject to regulations imposed by the Student Council.

Wednesday, 20.—4 p. m. Trials for Soloist and Reader of Musical Clubs.
Thursday, 21.—7 p. m. Y. M. C. A. Meeting.
Robert H. Gardiner of Gardiner, speaker.
8 p. m. Meeting of the Senior Class.
8 p. m. Meeting of the Junior Class.
Friday, 22.—2.15. Concert by Sousa's Band at the Cumberland Theatre.
Saturday, 23.—2 p. m. Freshman-Sophomore Football Game on the Delta.
Monday, 25.—Mid-Semester Warning for all classes appear.
7 p. m. Meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Normal Classes.
Tuesday, 26.—8 p. m. Dance at the Theta Delta Chi House.
8 p. m. Dance at the Zeta Psi House.
8 p. m. Lecture in Town Hall. Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, speaker. “Our Greatest National Asset.”

Intercollegiate Notes

A new University of Vermont publication bearing the name of Ye Crabbe made its initial appearance this year. The paper, which is of a humorous vein, is an entirely new departure in the varsity literary circle.

The General Education Board, founded by John D. Rockefeller, has given to the University of Maine the sum of $8,000, with which to provide instruction in new farming methods for the people of Washington, Kennebec, Oxford and Cumberland Counties. This is the first year that this board has appropriated money for agricultural demonstration work in the Northern States.

According to figures prepared by Professor Rudolph Tombo of Columbia the United States is rapidly becoming the educational center of the world. Dr. Tombo selected twenty-one of the leading universities of Germany and a like number from America to make his comparison. In total registration he shows that the American universities have an enrolment of 75,000, as against 55,000 in the German institutions. The foreign students in Germany number 4,500 and in the United States, 1,500. The largest foreign delegation in America is found at Columbia, with Pennsylvania, Harvard and Cornell following in the order named.

Wesleyan University has recently received a gift of two new buildings, a fund of $60,000 for the erection of a new astronomical observatory and $75,000 for an addition to Fayerweather Gymnasium.

A survey of the moral, economic and social conditions of Waterville is to be taken by the Colby Y. M. C. A. and the classes in sociology and economics.

A radical change in undergraduate study at Columbia is proposed in the annual report of Dean Keppel. If the dean's plan is put into effect, the student, after completing two years of regular college work will notify the registrar of the course which he intends to pursue during the junior and senior years, and then will take up that course independently. His study may be in the classroom with other students or he may follow out the work privately, coming up twice a year before a conference of his professors and there discuss the results of the work he has followed.

The high cost of living has made its first inroad on college men at Cornell. The price of board has risen two dollars a week in a very short time.

The dramatic club at Boston College is rehearsing Macbeth and will stage the production in early December. There is a growing tendency for the college clubs to take a well known play rather than a farce.

A new departure is being taken at Dartmouth with the building of the two new dormitories, one for the students and the other as a faculty apart-
BOWDOIN ORIENT

The faculty apartment house plan is one of the most radical of the eastern colleges' new systems.

The new examination plan at Harvard has done what it was intended to do, says the Harvard Faculty. It has allowed more men to enter from the public schools. This fall there were only four more private school men than public, something that has not happened for a long time.

Alumni Department

'59.—A beautiful sonnet entitled "Autumnal Leaves" from the pen of Rev. Edward N. Pomroy, appears in The Independent of November 7th.

'76.—It is with sadness that the Orient records the death, during the summer, of one of our most loyal alumni, a man who has done much for his class since he has been out of college, Frank Vernon Wright. Mr. Wright died very suddenly from a stroke of apoplexy August 3rd at Salem, Mass.

Frank Vernon Wright was born in Boston, Oct. 13, 1855. He fitted for college at the Boston Latin School, entering Bowdoin in 1872. The year after his graduation he spent in taking graduate work at this college and he then began the study of law which was to be his life work. He began this study with Hon. George F. Choate, himself a Bowdoin graduate of 1843, and at that time the Judge of the Probate Court at Salem, Mass. After completing his preparation Mr. Wright opened a law office at Salem where he was located during his entire life. In 1886 he married Miss Cornelia Letitia Pennell of this town.

In addition to his law business which he conducted since 1879, Mr. Wright was also interested in the activities of the legal profession of that city and somewhat in the political life. He once served as a clerk for the committee on accounts of the city council. He was also for several years the private law clerk of the late William C. Endicott who was at that time the Judge of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts. For the past ten years he has been the clerk of the First District Court of Essex County. He had also been just re-elected to this office before his death. He was also for thirty years the librarian of the Essex County Law Library. Mr. Wright was also a member of many orders and clubs in Salem.

But perhaps the thing which most interests us as Bowdoin students and alumni is that Mr. Wright was always most active in the furtherance of the plans of his class as a group of graduates. In 1893, when a class history was issued on the 21st anniversary of the graduation of this class, Mr. Wright was one of the most active members of the committee which had this in charge. Anyone who has looked into this book which gives us a picture of the Bowdoin which existed about thirty-five years ago, cannot fail to appreciate the work which Mr. Wright put into the volume.

Thus has passed another of our well known graduates. He was a man who not only has become prominent in the outside world, and thus spread the fame of his college there, but he has also spanned the gap which seems to exist between the graduate and the student by his interest in the college after graduation. Thus, although many of us did not have the pleasure of knowing him personally, yet when we pick up the "History of the Class of 1876," we feel that here is a man who was indeed "loyal forever, until death did sever."

'02.—Dr. Frederick A. Stanwood is giving instruction in bacteriology to the third and fourth year men in the Harvard Medical School.

'09.—Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Arthur L. Smith of New Vineyard, and Miss Drusilla Townsend of Sangerville. Mr. Smith since graduation has been interested in a manufacturing proposition at New Vineyard. The bride is a graduate of Bates.

'09.—A daughter, Nathalie Clifford, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Smith at Dover, N. H., October 20th. Mrs. Smith was formerly Miss Agnes Maxwell Greene of Woodfords, Maine. Mr. Smith entered Harvard Law School the fall after his graduation and graduated from there last June. He passed the New Hampshire Bar examination in the same month and is at present located at Rochester, N. H., in the office of Leslie P. Snow, Esq.

'10.—Elmer Hamilton Hobbs, the former Bowdoin pitcher whose good work on the mound will be recalled by the undergraduates and younger alumni, was married in Waterboro, Me., Oct. 30th, to Natalie Nora Knight. The bride is a graduate of the Waterboro High School in 1906 and from Gorham Normal School in 1910. Since her graduation she has been teaching in the Saco Grammar School. Mr. Hobbs is now associated with J. H. Gallagher in the marble and granite business at Waterboro. Since leaving college he has pitched for the Springvale team, and was captain of that aggregation during the last season. The wedding was attended by George Mocomber and Merton G. L. Bailey, both well known members of this class.

'11.—Mr. John L. Roberts is now teaching at North Yarmouth Academy.
SUMMARY OF THE SEASON

The victory over Vermont in Portland a week ago Saturday marked the close of the 1912 football season of the Bowdoin football team, a season full of shattered hopes, and disappointments, but one in which the student body stood behind a fighting team from start to finish. There are no excuses to offer, no complaints to be made. The College is not downhearted over its showing. As long as "the White" is represented by men of such calibre as those appearing in the picture above, as long as the team fights squarely and hard as did our team this year, we will consider that there is credit to the institution in being supported by a losing team. Here's hoping the Vermont game, the last one of this season, will be the first one of a long string of victories to follow.

Capt. "Duff" Wood at left tackle played a remarkable game this year on the defense, and, unlike most captains, improved steadily as the season went on. He deserves the position on the all-Maine team which he has won for the last two years.

Leo Pratt, at left guard, played the best game of his life two weeks ago against Vermont, and that is playing some. "King" does not appear often in the list of stars in the newspaper accounts, but he is steady as a clock and many of Bowdoin's best gains were due as much to the holes he opened as to the men carrying the ball. On defense he was a hard proposition for the opponents. The fact that his team mate and coach picked him as all-Maine guard is an indication of his real value to the team.

It is hard to describe just what the team will lose at the graduation of Douglas, "the fighting center." There has never been a better exhibition of Bowdoin spirit and grit than that made by "Doug" who, although declared physically unfit to engage in the game, was out every night giving the best he had in him to the College. He made a brilliant finish to his remembered football career here in his game against Vermont. Barry made a good substitute center and was in the game every minute of play. His speed and aggressiveness made up for his lack of weight.

At the right of center, Alton Lewis was in every play, working like a Trojan and putting up a steady, consistent game.

Leadbetter at right tackle was the "find" of the year. His game this year marks him as one of the best tackles we have had in a long while and in the next three years he will develop into a star of the first magnitude.

The end positions were uncertain all season. Hinch, Lew Brown, Page and Dole were the regulars in the two wing positions and all played well. Fitzgerald played remarkably well at this position in the Bates game but was unfortunately disqualified for the rest of the season on account of scholastic work.

Crosby at quarterback, before the end of the season, developed into a capable general and one whom his teammates could trust implicitly to direct the team. If he had another year or two "Chuck" would develop into a star.

LaCasce at fullback played a steady, consistent game all year. His kicking was a large addition to the team's strength and the way he stood up before the fast charges of the Bates ends and never faltered in his punts will not soon be forgotten.

Foster at halfback was not in shape to play until the beginning of the Maine series, but showed that he is a valuable man. With more weight and college experience he should develop into one of the best line-buckers seen here in a long time.

Harry Faulkner at halfback was not in trim for a great part of the season, but played a brilliant game against Vermont. He is a very dangerous man with the ball on a dry field.

Capt.-elect Bob Weatherill was, without doubt, the star of the team this year. The best ground gainer and the best tackler on the team, he played hard every minute of the game. Next year he should make a wonder.

Coach Bergin worked hard with the team and followed its fortunes with the spirit of a Bowdoin man. Mountfort gave valuable service to the College in spending his afternoons on the field coaching the line men and second team. Next year we hope to see him in a Bowdoin uniform playing a star game at guard.

"Doc" Smith as manager, with due respect to his predecessors, was from every point of view the best the College has had in a long time. He is unanimously the choice for all-Maine manager.

The schedule of the season follows:

- Oct. 5—Bowdoin 6, Wesleyan 7.
- Oct. 12—Bowdoin 0, Trinity 27.
- Oct. 19—Bowdoin 0, Tufts 34.
- Nov. 2—Bowdoin 0, Bates 7.
- Nov. 9—Bowdoin 0, U. of M. 17.
- Nov. 16—Bowdoin 7, Vermont 0.

SOPH'S, 10; FRESHMEN, 3—NOV. 23

Seven years ago the Sophomores won the annual Freshman-Sophomore football game. Fortune smiled on them once more last Saturday and they won another game.

It was a good hard contest from whistle to whistle and furnished plenty of excitement in every period. The Freshmen started off with a swirl, and at the end of the first period it looked as if they had a fair chance to win. The Sophomores, however, came back in the second period and had a little whirl of their own. Luckily for the Freshmen the ball was in the center of the field and the best the Sophomores could do was to tie the score by a well-placed field goal from the 20 yard line by Floyd. The ball was rushed up and down the center of the field all through the game and neither goal was in danger except when the Sophomores scored and during the last few minutes of play.

The Freshmen were good in secondary defense, but weak in their line, while the Sophomores had their weight and strength all in the line. Lull and J. Moulton were the strong points in the Freshmen line, and Moulton and Keegan in the Sophomores'. Floyd, of the Sophomores, was the best offensive man and his line plunging was a feature of the game. Glidden and Parsons were the ground gainer for the Freshmen, and they divided the honors with Floyd. MacCormick, the lightest end on record, played a fine game at end for the Sophs and dumped a lion's share of the Freshmen plays. Mannix ran his team well and was strong in running back punts.

GAME IN DETAIL

Glidden kicks off. After a loss of ground by a fumble, Floyd punts. Freshmen make first down but lose the ball. Fuller recovers the ball on the Sophomores' 20 yard line on a bad fum-
FRESHMEN

Touchdown, Freshmen, silence b., 1.

Floyd kicks a field goal from the 17 yard line. Period ends with the ball in the Sophomores’ possession on their own 47 yard line. Score: Freshmen, 3; Sophomores, 0.

Second Period

The Sophomores start in with a rush and carry the ball back 30 yards on the first two plays. Floyd kicks a field goal from the 20 yard line. An exchange of punts brings the ball back to the Freshmen’s 5 yard line, where they hold for downs. The Freshmen rally, and carry the ball well down to the center of the field. Sophomores lose 20 yards on an attempt to punt. Score: 3-3.

Third Period

Floyd kicked off and Parsons carries the ball back 10 yards. Bamford makes 15 yards through center. Fuller loses 7 yards. Mannix recovers a fumble and gains 10 yards. Floyd kicks and MacCormick recovers on the 20 yard line. Sophomores penalized 10 yards. Floyd 15 yards through right guard. Floyd 12 yards more on the other side of the line. Mannix no gain. Somers 10 yards. Ball on the Freshmen’s 3 yard line. First down. (Great excitement, and much good advice from the sidelines.) Floyd one-half yard. (Freshmen cheers.) Somers one-half yard loss. (Crowd pours on the field.) Floyd makes the touchdown through the right side of his line. Somers kicks the goal. At the end of the period the Freshmen have the ball on their own 28 yard line. Score: Sophomores, 10; Freshmen, 3.

Fourth Period

Glidden punts to the 25 yard line. Hagerman tackles Somers for no gain. Floyd punts. Glidden recovers the ball and carries it back 10 yards. Glidden 5 yards. Freshmen penalized 5 yards, off side. Glidden punts and Smith runs the ball back 10 yards. Sophomores penalized and fail to make downs. Sixteen seconds to play, Freshmen’s ball on the 20 yard line. Glidden 11 yards. (Freshmen rooters go wild; silence in the Sophomore camp.) Mannix somehow gets the ball and tears off down the field, never stopping till he reaches the Gym. The game is over.

The line-up:

FRESHMEN

Dunton, Coxe, le.............re, Beal, Hagerman
Austin, lt.............rt, J. Moulton, Woodman, Pierce
Keegan, lg.............rg, Olson, Taber, Robie, Fortin
Thompson, c..................c, Lull
Moulton, rg..................lg, Chase, Ramsdell
McKinnon, rt..................lt, Rawson
MacCormick, re.............le, Wood, Drummond
Mannix, qb..................qb, Fuller
Somers, lhb.............rhb, Dyer, Bamford, Heseltine
Smith, rhb..................lhb, Glidden

Floyd, fb..................fb, Parsons

ALL-MAINE SELECTIONS

The annual crop of All-Maine teams this fall was very scanty. Those picked by the papers did not agree to any extent and showed signs of hasty preparation without a knowledge of the field of material from which to pick. Two of the best selections were made by Coach Bergin and Captain Wood. This is Bergin’s State team—l. e., Danaby, Bates; l. t., Wood, Bowdoin; l. g., Pratt, Bowdoin; c., Baker, Maine; r. g., Sawyer, Maine; r. t., Bigelow, Maine; r. e., Thompson, Bates; q. b., Talbot, Bates; l. h. b., Fraser, Colby; r. h. b., Weatherill, Bowdoin; f. b., Shepard, Maine. Wood’s selection differs in only two positions, that of Cobb of Maine in place of Talbot for quarterback and Dyer of Colby in place of himself at left tackle. It will be noted that there are four Maine men in the lineup, three from Bowdoin, three from Bates and one from Colby.

SENIOR ELECTIONS

The Class of 1913 held the annual election of officers last Thursday evening, Nov. 21. The meeting was held in Adams Hall. Nominations were from the floor and all elections were by a majority vote, this majority being ascertained by the elimination of the lowest man in successive ballots until the majority was reached. The officers in the order of election are as follows:

President, Cedric R. Crowell.
Marshals, Charles B. Haskell.
Vice-President, Lawrence W. Smith.
Secretary-Treasurer, James A. Norton.
Poet, Edward O. Baker.
Orator, Paul H. Douglas.
Chaplain, Rensel H. Colby.
Opening Address, Laurence A. Crosby.
Historian, Stanley F. Dole.
Closing Address, John E. Dunphy.
Class Day Committee, Albert P. Cushman (chairman), Leon E. Jones, George L. Skolfield, Jr., Paul C. Savage, Theodore E. Emery.

JUNIOR ELECTIONS

The Class of 1914 held their annual class elections last Thursday evening in Memorial Hall. The Class Popular Man is not announced. The other officers in the order of choice is as follows:

(Continued on page 156)
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

Published every Tuesday of the Collegiate year by
The Bowdoin Publishing Company
in the Interests of the Students of
BOWDOIN COLLEGE

EDITORIAL BOARD

Douglas H. McMuntrie, 1913, Editor-in-Chief
Robert D. Leigh, 1914, Managing Editor
Fred D. Wish, 1913, Alumni Editor

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

L. E. Jones, 1913 K. A. Robinson, 1914
V. R. Leavitt, 1913 R. E. Simpson, 1914
W. R. Spinney, 1913 A. H. MacCormick, 1915
D. K. Merrill, 1914 F. P. McKenney, 1915
J. F. Rollins, 1915

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted.

All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager of the Bowdoin Publishing Co. Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

BOWDOIN PUBLISHING COMPANY

H. B. Walker, 1913, Business Manager
Alfred E. Gray, 1914, Assistant Manager
E. L. Sylvester, 1914, Assistant Manager

Entered at Post-Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII. NOVEMBER 26, 1912 No. 19

Tomorrow

With the approach of the Thanksgiving season, the Christian Association has as usual arranged for a practical application of the text that it is more blessed to give than to receive. Tomorrow it will take up a collection at the door of the Chapel for the purpose of furnishing as many dinners as possible to the needy families of the town: a work which has met with a most grateful response in the past and which it is highly desirable to continue. Everyone will enjoy his own Thanksgiving the more if he has the satisfaction of knowing that he has helped to provide good cheer for those less fortunate than himself. Tomorrow let generous contribution be the watchword.

Class Spirit

The members of the two upper classes are to be congratulated upon the way in which their elections during the past week were held. They are satisfied in each case that the men selected for the different offices represent the real choice of the class. The meetings were unmarrred by any trace of factional dispute; and were on the other hand marked by a pleasing spirit of cooperation. The Orient hopes that this same spirit may be carried into all the undertakings of the year and may become as firm a Bowdoin tradition as fair play on the athletic field.

An Omission

There is one omission from the annual catalogue from which the Orient desires to bring to the attention of the College. Although there appears a statement concerning the Student Council, there is no mention of the Associated Students’ organization or the blanket tax collected to support undergraduate activities. At the same time there is a statement of the low, average, and liberal expenses of students. From these lists are excluded such items as furniture, travelling expenses, class dues, and fraternity fees, “since the taste and character of the individual students vary so to a degree that all such estimates are of little value.” The blanket tax, however, calls for a fixed expenditure of fifteen dollars a year by every man who is to participate in the election of officers including the Student Council, and who is in general to take part in the activities of the Associated Students of the College. As such a fixed expense, the Orient believes that the blanket tax should be included in the statements of undergraduate organizations and expenses.

Junior Elections (Continued from page 155)

Marshal, Clarence A. Brown.
Orator, Alfred W. Newcombe.
Poet, Kenneth A. Robinson.
Chaplain, Charles A. Hatch.
President, Elroy O. LaCasce.
Vice-President, Lewis T. Brown.
Secretary, Leo W. Pratt.
Treasurer, Alfred E. Gray.
Assembly Committee, Robert D. Leigh (chairman), Horace A. Barton, Reginald A. Monroe.

THE CATALOGUE OUT

The 1912-1913 catalogue has just been received at the office and is ready for general distribution to students and alumni. In the many number of changes in courses, faculty personnel and general information is reflected the improvements and changes which have been made in the past year both by students and faculty.

There are exactly the same number of students in the academical department as there were last year, 333. In the Medical School there are 11 less students than last year, the number this year being 72. The distinction between students taking the Arts and those taking the Science degree is made in the list of students. There are 7 Sophomores and 16 Freshmen taking the B.S. course. There are 8 Freshmen taking the Medical Preparatory course offered according to the new regulations for entrance to the Medical School. It is a significant fact that without any faculty or undergraduate ruling, but seemingly as a result of a general recognition of the desirability of such a condition there are no members of the Freshman class rooming in the fraternity houses. There are fewer men not receiving their class standing than was the case last year.

The faculty has been increased by nine members, there being now a total of 82. There are three additions to the faculty of the academical department. There are a number of changes in the membership of the faculty committees.

The honorary commencement appointments were given to a considerably smaller number last year than before owing to the operation of stricter requirements for such honorary appointments.

The new Benjamin A. Thorp Gould Fuller Lectureship which provides for instruction in personal hygiene is mentioned. The student life is given more recognition in a short statement of fraternity life at Bowdoin, with prominent mention of the new Bowdoin Club.

The alumni membership on the Athletic Council is changed owing to the death of Col. Wing who served for so many years in that capacity. The two new alumni members are George C. Purinton and Donald C. White.

The detailed description of the College buildings is omitted and in place of it a short description of the new gymnasium and the Art collections is included.

Some of the most important changes are in the lists of courses. The new courses in Art and Music are included. The courses in Education under Professor McConaughy reappear after a lapse of three years. There will be a new course in this department called Educational Psychology open to Juniors and Seniors next year.

The new course in literary composition for six students, English 9 and 10, receives a place in the English Department and a new course of a somewhat similar nature is to be given next year by Professor Hrmell. It is to deal with Municipal government with special relation to municipal problems and is limited to ten students chosen from those taking Political Science 1 and 2.

Other new courses will be English 13, The Drama, under Professor McConaughy, to be offered next year: Economics 8, Social Reform, under Mr. Joseph Davis; Economics 5B, Conservation, to be offered next year in place of Sociology by Professor Catlin. A course in Modern European History is to be given by Professor Bell next year, called History 10.

French 13 and 14 is now French 7 and 8. There are some minor changes in the outlines of the advanced German courses.

MUSICAL CLUBS ORGANIZING

After several weeks of rehearsing the Glee and Mandolin Clubs are beginning to round into shape for another successful season. Before very long the final choice of the men for the Clubs will be made and the last rehearsals will begin before the actual concerts.

The Clubs are especially fortunate this year in having the services of Professor Wass of the Music Department. He has coached the Glee Club for the past few years before his connection with the College and has produced excellent organizations. With the additional advantage of having him at the College constantly even better results are expected this season. A great deal of new material is trying out for the Glee Club and about eight of these will make the club this year. George A. Tibbets, Medec, '13, leader of last year's club, is again out for the rehearsals. A lot of new material is out for the Mandolin Club also.

As a result of the trials held recently Cedric R. Crowell '13 was selected reader of the Clubs this year to take the place of Arthur D. Welch who graduated last June. Crowell is president of the Masque and Gown, and was the star of that club's play last year. He is an Alexander Prize Speaker and has done considerable work in reading.

The usual Maine trip of the Clubs will be taken the week of January 29, 1913. A concert has been scheduled in Portland, probably for Monday, January 27. It is planned also to take the usual spring trip in Massachusetts, ending with the concert in Boston.

DEBATING NEWS

At a meeting of the Debating Council held Thursday afternoon, it was voted to hold the annual Freshman-Sophomore debate on January 13, 1913. A committee composed of Wish '13, Tuttle '13 and Simpson '14 was appointed to arrange the details.
The trials for these class teams will be held December 13, in Memorial Hall. Sometime before that date a list of the contestants in the order in which they will speak will be posted.

The question is: Resolved, That the President of the United States should be elected by direct popular vote. This question was selected as being very even, not too complicated for new men, and one on which there is a good quantity of material.

A special shelf bearing some of the best articles on this subject will be made up at the Library and when the teams are selected, a coach will be chosen from the Council for each team.

This is something which should interest every member of the lower classes. It not only gives an interesting class contest, in which the superior numbers of the one will not be an advantage, but it also furnishes a stepping stone to something greater in the same line of work. The Bradbury Debates which lead to the varsity debating teams, will be held at the beginning of the second semester and with the experience of the interclass debates behind them, the Freshmen and Sophomores should have a fine chance of making one of these.

At this meeting it was also voted that preliminary arrangements should be made for Bowdoin to enter a triangular debating league similar to the one in which she participated last year. It is understood that Wesleyan is ready to form such a league, but the third college is as yet a matter of doubt.

The interscholastic league is now being formed. It is hoped, and there seems to be a likelihood at present that two leagues of four teams each can be formed instead of only one as in years past.

SUNDAY CHAPEL

President Hyde chose as his text at Sunday Chapel, "Am I my brother's keeper?" and discussed the subject as it applied to undergraduate life at Bowdoin. He said in part: "We are ceasing to be paternal because we are becoming so intensely fraternal. The College is now organized into nine groups, where the students, young and old, come together to help each other and work for the common good. In giving over control of the social life to the men in these organizations, the College takes a great risk and the men a great responsibility. When the fraternity abuses this responsibility, evil consequences result. Fortunately, the responsibility has been so well assumed this year by the fraternity men that a very beneficial and wholesome influence has gone out from all the different fraternal organizations."

MUSIC V

The first meeting of the class in Music V, the new course in Chorus Singing, was held Friday night at 7:15 in Y. M. C. A. Hall. Although the attendance was small the session was very enthusiastic, and it is hoped and confidently expected that a large number of students will enroll next Friday night. The class meets weekly on Friday nights throughout the year.

The course is open to all students, requires no technical training and does not count toward a degree. It gives valuable instruction in elementary chorus singing, and includes sight reading in song; practical work in intervals, scales, and relationship of keys; study of modes, rhythm, accentuation, expression marks, musical terms, etc. One-half of the period is devoted to black-board instruction and singing tests, and the remainder to four-part chorus singing.

DRAMATIC CLUB NEWS

The Dramatic Club is now selecting a play for Ivy Day. This play will also be used on the road, but a different one will be chosen for Commencement. The management of the club will issue a call for candidates soon after the Thanksgiving vacation. All who have any intention of trying out for the Dramatic Club should be present then. Copies of the play will be given out and competition will begin for places on the cast.

ORGAN RECITAL FOR STUDENTS

Professors Hutchins, Nixon, and Wass, and about one hundred of the students who were in Portland Saturday, November 16, for the Vermont game, attended a recital given by Mr. MacFarlane, the municipal organist, on the great Memorial Organ in City Hall. Although the concert was primarily designed for the students of the Music Department, all Bowdoin men were invited. The program follows:

Intermezzo from Cavalleria Rusticana Mascagni
Largo Handel
Toceato in F Bach
Humoresque Doorak
Evening Bells and Cradle Song MacFarlane
Evening Song Johnson

As an addition to the regular program, Mr. MacFarlane played parts of other pieces in an informal lecture-recital, during which he invited all the students to inspect the console on the stage, explaining in detail the working of the organ.
The concert was of high order. Some of the most striking features of the organ were its immense, almost overwhelming power, the delicate sweetness of the stops, the ethereal beauty of the vox celeste stop, the mysterious emotional quality of the echo in the dome, and the almost perfect imitation of orchestral instruments.

As the football team and many of the other students were unable to be present at this concert, another recital will probably be arranged later at a time equally convenient for all the students.

PRIZES IN HISTORY AND GOVERNMENT

I. The Class of 1875 Prize in American History is awarded to the undergraduate who writes the best essay in an assigned subject, and passes a satisfactory examination in an assigned field. Subjects for 1912: 1—The American colonial executive, 2—Politics and political influence of the New York Nation during the Reconstruction period, 3—Policy, laws, and treaties of the United States relating to acquiring, constructing and operating the Panama Canal.

II. Philo Sherman Bennett Prize is awarded to the Junior or Senior who writes the best essay on an assigned subject relating to the principles of free government. Subjects for 1912-1913: 1—Presidential direct primaries, 2—Recent tendencies in State constitution making.

The competitors will meet, for a conference over the principles of research and the general principles of criticism by which historical essays are judged, at the home of Mr. Hormell, Thursday evening, Dec. 5, at 8 p.m.

The American History Prize essays will be due May 23, and the examination will be held June 6. The government essays will be due June 14.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The speaker at the Y. M. C. A. meeting December fifth will be Rev. Charles Harbutt of Portland. Mr. Harbutt is the son of English missionaries in the Samoan Islands. He attended school in Chicago, was engaged in business in the Middle West, and then entered the Bangor Theological Seminary, graduating from that institution. He has preached in Bridgton, Searsport and Presque Isle, and has since been Superintendent of the Congregational Conference and Missionary Society of Maine. His address should prove of special interest to Bowdoin students.

Art Building Notes

A pamphlet, "The Study of the History of Art in the Colleges and Universities of the United States," by E. Baldwin Smith, A.M., Fellow in Art and Archaeology at Princeton University, (Bowdoin 1911), has been received at the Art Building. This pamphlet was issued in response to a request from Prof. Adolfo Venturi for the 20th International Congress of Art Historians which met in Rome in October.

Some Egyptian photographs have been presented to the College by Mrs. Edward P. Pennell of Brunswick. The photographs were taken while Mrs. Pennell was travelling in Egypt with her brother, Dana Estes, Hon. A.M.

A friend of the College who wishes to remain anonymous has provided for filling one of the two remaining unused panels of the Chapel with a copy of Michael Angelo's "Isaiah," the familiar figure in the decoration of the Sistine.

On the Campus

Since the number of issues yearly is limited, The Orient will not appear again until two weeks from today.

Word has been received recently that the three Bowdoin students who took the Rhodes scholarship examinations this fall have passed them successfully and are candidates for the scholarship from this State. These men are E. Tuttle '13, A. Gray '14, and N. Tuttle '14. Crosby '13 passed the examinations two years ago.

"King" Pratt, the coach of the Sophomore football team, has completed his fourth year as coach of class teams at Bowdoin. Leo's proteges have been successful three out of four times.

At a meeting of the eight cross-country men at Webber's Studio last Thursday noon, James O. Tarbox '14 was elected captain of next year's team. Jim has been a member of the team for the past two years and can always be counted upon to finish well up among the leaders. His running ability has all been developed since he first turned out as a Freshman in College and he is a fine example of what hard work and faithful, consistent training will do.

Last Saturday evening the Massachusetts Club held a meeting at the D. K. E. House. Officers were elected as follows: F. Twombly '13, president; W. Greene '13, vice-president; Philip Smith '15, secretary. The next meeting will be held Dec. 14.

The Freshmen will not be required to wear their caps during the coming season of wintry winds and frozen ears. The time in which the regulation headgear is not required is from Thanksgiving to spring vacations.

At a meeting of the Athletic Council a week ago nominations were made for assistant football manager as follows: Joe McDonald, Will Livingstone, with Maynard Kuhn, alternate. The election will be held sometime next month.

Plans are being made for the Y. M. C. A. deputation work this year and the teams will be organized soon. This part of the Association work will be carried out more extensively this year, owing to the great success of the work last year.

Quite a number of students attended the concert of Sousa and his band last Friday afternoon.

George W. Higgins, the man who has built Bowdoin bleachers as far back as the time when Nick commenced to be Bowdoin trainer, has recently accepted the position of janitor at the new Gymnasium. He will still retain his position as superintendent of the carpenter work at the athletic field.

The College is glad to know that the unfortunate affair in which some of the students were mentioned in the Portland papers the night of the Vermont game, reflects nothing but credit on the student body, when the facts are fully known.

Thanksgiving—and then gym work, but in the new gym. Hooray!

Dana K. Merrill ex-14 was on the campus last week. Merrill plans to return to College either next semester or next fall.

Charles F. Houghton ex-15 has left for Alberta, Canada, where he will live the life of an independent farmer.

The students who live to the west have found out that they will have to spend the first afternoon of their precious vacation in Brunswick, if they have any classes the third and fourth hours. The trains for Portland between 10.55 and 4.25 have been all removed and their only method of escape is through Lewiston, a two-hour trip, or over the electrics.

With the Faculty

Dean Sills attended a meeting of the executive committee of the Maine Teachers' Association in Augusta last Saturday.

Professor W. B. Mitchell gave an illustrated lecture at the church in South Freeport last Friday evening. His subject was "A Peep at Our Mother Land."

Dr. Whittier has been called away to Augusta to act as an expert witness in the Mattie Hackett case.

Professor McConaughy has charge of the work of preparing the lantern slides of the College. Any student who has any views of value in this connection should see him about the use of them.

THE CALENDAR

Tuesday, Nov. 26.—4.30 Meeting of English VI. Discussion of the Advisability of entering a triangular debating league this year.

5 p. m. Rehearsal of the Glee Club.

8 p. m. Dance at the Zeta Psi House.

8 p. m. Dance at the Theta Delta Chi House.

8 p. m. Lecture in Town Hall. Our Greatest National Asset. Dr. Harvey W. Wiley.

Wednesday, 27.—12.30 p. m. College closes for the Thanksgiving Recess.

Monday, December 2.—8.20 a. m. College opens. Applications for Scholarships must be hand in to the Treasurer's Office.

8 p. m. Second Cole Lecture. Prof. George E. Woodberry. Denial of Life.

7 p. m. Meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Normal Classes.

Tuesday, 3.—5 p. m. Rehearsal of the Glee Club.

7 p. m. Debate in English VI. Subject, the substitution of one six year term for the President of the United States.

Alumni Department

'83.—Fred Morrow Fling, professor of European History at the University of Nebraska, has been engaged to deliver a course of lectures at Yale next month on "The French Revolution." Prof. Fling received his Ph.D. from Leipzig in 1890 and is considered an authority on all matters of European History, his book on Mirabeau and the French Revolution being considered a standard historical authority. He will visit Portland following this lecture course and may also visit the College.

'98.—It was recently announced that Prof. Donald B. McMillan would be at the head of an expedition which will attempt to explore Crocker Land next summer. This expedition will be under the auspices of the American Museum of Natural History and the party will leave Sidney, N. S., on June 20th.

'99.—Dr. Fred H. Albee of New York City recently performed an important and interesting experiment before the third annual Clinical Congress of Surgeons of North America in that city. This operation was performed as one of a series of clinical demonstrations which makes this congress so valuable. Dr. Albee removed a piece from a boy's shin-bone and splintered it into the spine, forming a human crutch to take the place of a plaster cast. The operation was very successful. Dr. Albee obtained his medical degree from Harvard in 1903, and is now a prominent physician of the metropolis. He is also an instructor in Orthopedic Surgery at Columbia.
CHRISTMAS SMOKER

At the last meeting of the Student Council it was decided to hold a Christmas smoker on the evening of December 16. This will be the first big smoker of the year and it is hoped that practically the entire student body will attend. At this smoker the football election will be held. At a meeting of the Council two weeks ago Harold E. Verrill was added to the list of nominees made by the Athletic Council for assistant football manager. At the time of the Athletic Council nominations Verrill was thought to be ineligible but the matter was later straightened out. The other nominees are William T. Livingston and Joseph C. MacDonald. The nominees for football manager are Horace A. Barton and Robert D. Leigh.

LETTER FROM COACH BERGIN

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 27, 1912.

To the Editor of the Bowdoin Orient.

Dear Sir:—On the 21st of November, the New Haven Union published an alleged interview with the writer. The greater part of the alleged interview was devoted to a contemptible attack on Mr. Brickley of Harvard.

The New Haven Union published a retraction in its next issue in so far as it had attributed the statement of the previous issue to me. This retraction has not been given the same publicity that was accorded the alleged interview.

During the time that I was present at the discussion mentioned in the paper there was nothing said by any of those in the party that could have been interpreted as a reflection on Mr. Brickley.

I have never discussed the Bowdoin team with any newspaper representative. The Union attributed an analysis of the Harvard and Yale teams to me of which not a single word had been uttered or communicated in any way by me.

The whole article, in so far as it attributed any of the statements made therein to me, was absolutely false.

I would be very grateful if you would permit me to use your paper to correct this terrible error and justify myself in the eyes of my Bowdoin friends.

Respectfully yours,

(Signed) FRANK S. BERGIN.

ZETA PSI DANCE

Tuesday evening the Zetes held their annual Thanksgiving house dance. The guests were: Misses Hilda Laughlin, Florence Horne, Margaret Burr, Gladys Burr, Frances Darker, Clara Jones, Ruth Barker and Marie Hieber, of Portland; Misses Helen Merriman, Alfretra Graves, of Brunswick; Miss Doris Hussey, of Damariscotta; Miss Edith Klein, of Mount Vernon; Miss Lena Gerry, of Dover; Miss Mary Emery, of Skowhegan; and Miss Mildred Morrison, of Bar Harbor. The patronesses were Mrs. William H. Davis, Mrs. Paul Nixon, of Brunswick, and Mrs. Charles C. Morrison, of Bar Harbor. Refreshments were served during the dance. Music was furnished by Lovell’s orchestra. The committee in charge was composed of George Ricker ’15, Otto Folsom-Jones ’15, Charles Morrison ’15.

THETA DELTA CHI DANCE

The annual Thanksgiving dance of Theta Delta Chi Fraternity was held at the chapter house on the evening of November 26, and was attended by about twenty couples.

Mrs. Wilmot B. Mitchell and Mrs. Frank E. Woodruff of Brunswick and Mrs. Leon S. Lipincott of Portland were the patronesses. The committee of arrangements consisted of Philip S. Wood ’13, of Bar Harbor; Alan R. Cole ’14, of Bath, and Daniel A. Anthony ’16, of Greenwich, Connecticut.

The young ladies present were: Miss Marion Fernald, Miss Mina Mitchell of Portland, Miss Yvette Lapointe, Miss Marion Drew, Miss Clare Ridley of Brunswick, Miss Louise Harriman, Miss Millicent Clifford, Miss Katherine Torrey, Miss Anna Dillon, Miss Dorothy Palmer, Miss Helen Triggs of Bath, Miss Mildred Ralph of North Vassalboro, Miss Marjorie Scribner of Bridgton, Miss Evelyn Plummer of Lisbon Falls, Miss Barbara Johnson of Augusta, Miss Lillian Fogg, Miss Edna Dennison of Freeport, Miss Yvette Clare of Waterville.

LETTER OF THANKS

Any of those who contributed to the Thanksgiving collection who doubt the practicability of such a thing and are not aware of the real Thanksgiving cheer that the gifts bring to the needy families in Brunswick might do well to talk with the members of the Y. M. C. A. social service committee who had charge of the distribution. We print verbatim a letter of thanks from one of the many who appreciated the letter that the students could share with those less fortunate.

My Dear gentleman not knowing envy of you But i diew know that some one is helping one and i diew a preachet your cindness and i need every thing you have helped me to and i never Shell forget your cindness to me i am Sorry that i have no way to pay but Some day you will get it for he that castest his Bread upon the waters after menny days shell receive it again So the lord will pay you for me But you are good boys and good to me and i shell give you Praise of it where ever i may Bee i should like to meet with you all and get aquainted So i will close thanking all of you for what you have done for me

Sincerely

Nov. 28, 1912.

Brunswick
Me

BOWDOWN IN WHO'S WHO

Investigations conducted in the Library in regard to the representation of Bowdoin graduates in Who's Who in America show that 102 are considered of sufficient importance to warrant such an honor. The edition of 1910-1911 gave 99 biographies of Bowdoin men. Of these, in the two years following the publication, 17 died. This is a large mortality list and it is a matter of great credit that 20 of the younger men should have attained this distinction.

The Who's Who in the World or The International Who's Who, containing about 12,000 biographies includes the name of 29 Bowdoin graduates. This is an excellent percentage and it may be interesting to note the names of those thus honored.

Hon. Joseph Little Pickard, 1844, who has a noteworthy career as an educator.
Hon. Sumner Increase Kimball, 1855, General Supt. Life Saving Service for thirty years.
Rev. Edwin Pond Parker, 1856, clergyman and Fellow of Yale University.
Hon. Lysander Hill, 1858, lawyer and judge in Chicago.
Rev. Frank Sewall, 1858, pastor at Glasgow, Scotland and Washington, D.C.
Rev. Horatio Oliver Ladd, 1859, pastor and educator.
Hon. William Widgery Thomas, 1860, statesman and diplomat.
Prof. Merritt C. Fernald, 1861, ex-president of U. of Maine.
Prof. Sylvester Burnham, 1862, Dean of the Theological School, Colgate University.
Prof. Henry L. Chapman, 1866, of Bowdoin.
Hon. Henry Brewer Quimby, 1869, ex-governor of New Hampshire.
Marshman E. Wadsworth, 1869, Dean, School of Mines, U. of Pittsburgh.
Hon. James J. Roberts, 1870, lawyer in New York City.
Rev. Samuel Valentine Cole, 1874, President of Wheaton College.
Dudley Allen Sargent, 1875, noted for interest in promotion of physical training.
Professor Arlo Bates, 1876, of English department, Mass. Inst. of Technology.
Professor George Thomas Little, 1877, Librarian of Bowdoin College.
Rear Admiral Robert Edwin Peary, 1877, arctic explorer, author, discoverer of North Pole.
George W. Tillson, 1877, civil engineer, consulting engineer, New York.
Professor Alfred Edgar Burton, 1878, Dean, Mass. Inst. of Technology.
Robert H. Greene, 1881, physician, New York City.
Hon. D. J. McGillicuddy, 1881, member Congress from Maine.
Hon. Frederic Clement Stevens, 1881, member Congress from Minnesota.
Professor Charles C. Torrey, 1884, Professor Semitic Languages, Yale.
In Who's Who, an English publication and giving but comparatively few Americans, six Bowdoin men are mentioned. Gen. Chamberlain, Arlo Bates, Admiral Peary, Professor Torrey are included in this list as well as the other and in addition there appear the names of James R. Day, 1874, Chancellor of Syracuse University, and Henry Crosby Emery, 1892, chairman of the U. S. Tariff Board.

It is interesting to note that President Hyde is included in all three of these publications. The Faculty members who are Bowdoin graduates in the American Who's Who are: Dr. Alfred Mitchell, 1859; Dean Emeritus, Medical School of Maine; Professor Chapman, 1866; Dr. Gerrish, 1866; Professor Henry Johnson, 1874; Lucius A. Emery, 1861; Professor Little, 1877; Professor Hutchins, 1883; Professor W. B. Mitchell, 1890. Other Faculty members appearing are Professors Woodruff and Ham.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

At the Y. M. C. A. Thanksgiving collection, taken on Wednesday, Nov. 27th, $29.50 was received, and fourteen families were provided for.

Rev. R. W. Plant of Gardiner will be the speaker at the Y. M. C. A. meeting December 12. Mr. Plant is a canon of the Episcopal Church and is well known throughout the State.

The year's deputation work began Sunday, when Douglas '13, C. Brown '14, and Merrill '14 held meetings at Bethel.

Club and Council Meetings

It is requested that the various sectional clubs meet as soon as possible and elect officers for this year. The Central Committee, composed of the presidents of the sectional clubs, will be organized before the Christmas vacation to continue the work outlined by the "Lunt Plan." It is important that an organization be effected before the Christmas holidays. Results of elections should be reported to J. A. Norton, 7 S. Maine, or W. F. Eberhardt, Beta Theta Pi House.

The final trials for the Glee Club were held this afternoon in the music room at Banister Hall. The men that have passed the previous trials were examined in squads of four on their musical ability in general, their knowledge of reading, and the progress that they had made in learning the songs. The names of the lucky singers will be published later and very soon, probably this week, Prof. Wass will begin the coaching in earnest.

Only a few of this year's dates have been made finally, although several preliminary ones have been arranged. The club will leave on its first trip the last of January or the first of February, and then for several weeks concerts will be given intermittently. The student body expects great things of this year's organization with a coach on the scene of action all the time, and Manager Crosby and Leader Eaton are trying their best to satisfy them.

Negotiations have been completed whereby Bowdoin is to enter a triangular debating league as it did last year. The other members of the league are Hamilton College of Clinton, New York and Wesleyan University. Bowdoin's visiting team will probably debate at Wesleyan, while its other team will fight it out with Hamilton at Brunswick.

The annual banquet of the Deutscher Verein will be held next Thursday at the Hotel Eagle. The initiation of new members and the election of officers for the ensuing year will take place at that time.

At its last meeting the Council unanimously adopted a resolution in favor of the general scheme of limiting the number of activities in which any one student may participate. The committee is now at work on a detailed plan of regulation of the amount of activities and it is possible that they may have the matter ready for presentation to the student body at the Christmas smoker.

At a meeting of the Orient Board held last Thursday afternoon George Talbot '15 was elected to the Board as Sophomore member. A regulation was adopted requiring the publication of at least two articles each semester by every member of the Board, failing in which each member not having two articles shall be automatically dropped by the Board. The Board voted to recommend to the Bowdoin Publishing Co. that the number of issues per volume be changed from 30 to 32.

The Y. M. C. A. Cabinet held its monthly meeting at the Beta Theta Pi House last Thursday evening. It was decided to have the piano used outside the Y. M. C. A. room only in very exceptional cases and after the consent of the Executive Committee has been obtained.

At a meeting of the Athletic Council Thursday evening the matters of baseball and football schedules were discussed. It has been decided to hold light football practice in connection with the track squad for those desiring it. Names of all wishing to take this work should be handed to Capt. Weatherill at once.

All of the stewards in college desirous of forming a Stewards' Club, with the end in view of saving money for the various eating clubs, will meet in Room No. 23, Maine Hall, on Thursday, Dec. 12, at 4 o'clock.

ANNIE TALBOT COLE LECTURE

Dr. George Edward Woodberry delivered the second of the three Annie Talbot Cole lectures

Continued on page 164
The Orient desires to call attention to the trials held this week for the purpose of choosing the sophomore and freshman debating teams. Last year although the trials were duly announced, there were not enough candidates for one of the teams present to enable a choice to be made. This year the number of entries has been large, assuring keen and beneficial competition. The candidates ought to be present in full force in order that all the material in the two lower classes may be developed by the time that the teams are chosen to represent the college in the contests with Wesleyan and Hamilton.

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted.

All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager of the Bowdoin Publishing Co. Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

Published every Tuesday of the Colloquial Year by
The Bowdoin Publishing Company in the Interests of the Students of Bowdoin College

Editorial Board
Douglas H. McMurtrie, 1914, Editor-in-Chief
Robert D. Leigh, 1914, Managing Editor
Fred D. Wish, 1913, Alumni Editor

Associate Editors
L. E. Jones, 1913
V. R. Leavitt, 1913
W. R. Skinner, 1913
D. K. Merrill, 1914
K. A. Robinson, 1914
R. E. Simpson, 1914
A. H. MacCormick, 1914
F. P. McKenney, 1915
J. F. Rollins, 1915
G. H. Talbot, 1915

Bowdoin Publishing Company
H. B. Walker, 1913, Business Manager
Alfred E. Gray, 1914, Assistant Manager
E. L. Sylvester, 1914, Assistant Manager

Entered at Post-Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter
Vol. XLII. December 10, 1912 No. 20

Election Smoker
After the close of the football season, the opportunities for the undergraduates to gather in informal meetings are somewhat far between. For this reason no one should miss the first smoker of the year, which is to be held during the coming week. The attendance at the fall rallies has been deplorably small, often falling short of half the number of men in college. Such a condition makes the rallies less representative of the whole college than they should be. Especially is this true in the case of election rallies. As the smoker will also be the occasion of the election of the manager and the assistant manager of the football team, everyone should be present to make it a three hundred man affair.

Class Debate

It is hardly necessary to bring to the notice of Coach Bergin readers the letter from Coach Bergin which appears in another column. The letter deals with a situation known to many of the undergraduates, and is self explanatory. The Orient is confident that the letter will serve perfectly the purpose for which it was written, and is confident that all Bowdoin men will continue to be warm friends of Coach Bergin.

Annie Talbot Cole Lecture
Continued from page 163

last Tuesday night in Memorial Hall. His subject was "The Denial of Life" and he said in part:

"Poetry in its range contains and repeats the whole of life; in poetry one can by sympathy be anything that man has ever been. Hence I look on poetry most often as the ritual of the passion of life and by poetry I believe the youth is brought most rapidly, most vividly and with most conviction to the perception of noble living, to the dreaming desire for it, to the passionate effort after it. The threshold of the eternal is art; there are other senses of the eternal, for it is of the infinite, but other vision there is none.

"In the poetic life truly lived every withdrawal from life is an entrance on a higher duty, every denial is a greater affirmation, and each of the thousand mortal deaths with which the poetic life is sown is a dying immortality. In the select and fortunate among men—those whom the race honors as its ideals of the spirit—this truth is felt to be life's highest achievements, though they be cradled into it by wrong and learned by suffering, as was long ago said of the poets; few indeed are they who come to this knowledge early and directly and happily as if by some heavenly dispensation. For us, who constitute the mass, poetry provides in its whole range successive figurations of gradual detachment; and these idealities, I am fond of thinking, constitute a kind of approach to the eternal like the angelic hierarchies of scriptural fable. It belongs to our nature, as each stands in his place, to attach ourselves to the heroic life in action, to the life of the lover in emotion, to the philosophic life in the intellect, according as we have power; and in the successive passing away of these to come nearer to the eternal element that shines through these bodily idealities that art creates in order to bring before our living and mortal vision that world to which all thought and feeling is finally imageless. 'The deep truth,' says Shelley, 'is imageless.' Beyond art, which is final and condensed illusion of life in the soul, lies only that which eye has not seen nor ear heard.'

THE 1913 CALENDAR
The 1913 Calendar, published under the management of Gardner '13 and Eaton '14, appeared last week. The printing was done by George C. Fry of Philadelphia and is fully up to the standard which he has set in work for the largest colleges. The cover is a photogravure of Hubbard Hall.

The first page contains pictures of President Hyde, the chapel, and the class of '75 gate. Next come pictures of the old gym, the new gym, and Dr. Whittier. Pictures of the football, baseball, track, and relay teams follow and last come the fraternity houses and some of the college buildings.

Those responsible for the Calendar are to be congratulated on its general attractiveness and excellence.

On the Campus
The following list of the men in the Chapel choir has been posted on the bulletin—From 1913, Colby, L. Dodge, Page, Saunders, L. Smith, Twombly; from 1914, Eaton, Monroe, Shea; from 1915, Austin, Card, Cross, Trottier, West, Wilson, McKenney; from 1916, Barry.

At a recent meeting of the Ibis, Fletcher Twombly '13 was initiated into the society. The question of literary speakers for the coming year was also discussed.

L. Crosby '13 has just returned from Memphis, Tenn., where he attended the national convention of Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Dr. Woodberry was the guest of Dean Sills yesterday afternoon and met with the English 9 class which is now studying verse.

The Freshman football aggregation had their pictures taken recently but with very good taste did not wear their uniforms.

The apparatus is rapidly being installed in the new gymnasium. The date when the classes will begin has not yet been announced.

The following fraternities are to hold Christmas dances on Friday evening, December 20: Alpha Delta Phi, Delta Upsilon, Kappa Sigma, and Theta Delta Chi; Thursday evening: Beta Theta Pi.

Gladys Klark's company and the "ten, twenty, and thirty" seats attracted a large number of followers of the drama to the Cumberland last week.

Wish '13 was a delegate from the Bowdoin chapter of Kappa Sigma to the celebration of Founders' Day in Boston Saturday.

Leigh '14 attended the initiation of the Brown chapter of Kappa Sigma Monday.

The familiar "Chiribiribin" of Amerigo Bernadino, better known as Spaghetti, was heard on the campus last week and again the college is supplied with plaster ornaments.

The Bugle Board offers its annual inducement to jokers in the form of a free Bugle for eight or more grinds accepted.

Intercollegiate Notes
Twenty-two foreign countries are represented by eighty students at the University of Wisconsin this semester. The countries represented by four or more are China, which has thirty-two; Canada, eleven; Turkey, seven; and Mexico, four. Last year only seventeen foreign countries were represented.

Three hundred sixty-three conditions involving three hundred one students were received by the recorder of the University of Washington for the period ending with the month of November, as compared with five hundred seventy involving four hundred twenty-seven students for the same period last year.

At a meeting of the entire undergraduate and faculty bodies of Dartmouth last week, it was announced that Wallace F. Robinson of Boston has made a gift of $100,000 to the trustees of the college to be used in the erection of a new building to house the student organizations which are non-athletic. 'Mr. Robinson's hope is that the building may be of some service in counteracting the emphasis that is now put upon college athletics.

Dr. Yager, for the past six years president of Georgetown College in Kentucky, has resigned. Dr. Yager has been connected with the institution in various capacities for twenty-eight years.

A new course that is of unusual interest and importance at this time is to be added to the curriculum of Hobart College. Professor John A.
Silver, head of the history department, announced that he will begin at once a course in current topics. This course will take up current political and economical developments and will really be a course in citizenship.

Statistics compiled by the registrar of the Rhode Island State College show that the entering class this year, which numbers 76 students, is the largest in the institution’s history, while the total number of students is ahead of any registered in any year. Last year’s entering class was 58 in number. The entire student body now numbers 211.

Dr. E. T. Fairchild, superintendent of public instruction in the State of Kansas, has accepted the presidency of New Hampshire College.

At a meeting of the representatives of the non-athletic organizations of Dartmouth College, called by the faculty to consider some permanent method of undergraduate representation upon the body which controls all the non-athletic organizations, it was resolved that three student representatives be admitted to a proposed non-athletic council, which will exert a control over non-athletic affairs.

The University of Minnesota has refused to grant “M’s” to the members of the football team because of damages done to the Northwestern train which took them to the Wisconsin game. The railroad company has submitted a bill for damages amounting to $48 and the letters will not be granted until someone admits his guilt and the debt is paid.

Athletics cleared $12,084 for the University of Michigan last year. The entire balance is due to the financial success of football.

Because of the number of late sleepers at Washington, the faculty has ordered the aid of the big dining hall bell to bring the students to their 8 o’clock classes.

It seems possible that the “honor system” may have a trial at the University of Illinois, several instructors having already tried it in their classes. Several college organizations have declared in favor of it and the student papers will give editorial assistance.

Mt. Holyoke will have one of the largest student social buildings in the country. It will contain a college theatre and auditorium, seating 1500, a large dining room for the college functions and offices for the student organizations.

The students at the University of Washington are having a heated discussion and disagreement with the president and board of regents of the institution, resulting in the suspension of over fifty prominent students and the censorship of the college daily. The trouble is over the acceptance of a set of chimes from Alden J. Blethen, editor of a daily paper in Seattle and generally known as a man of low moral character. Col. Blethen received an honorary degree of A.M. from Bowdoin in 1872. The present indications are that the students will win out in the fight.

A decided innovation was tried out at the College Night entertainment at Brown University last week, when a moving-picture machine was used to arouse interest in one of the required readings in the English courses, Dickens’ “Tale of Two Cities.”

The faculty of the University of Washington has voted to recommend to the president of the Board of Regents that a college of science be established. This would mean the separation of the science departments from the College of Arts and Sciences.

The Library Table

“What Becomes of College Graduates?” by William B. Bailey, Ph.D., in the Independent for November, is an article giving the following table showing the occupations of American college graduates at three different periods, a century apart:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Ministry</th>
<th>Law</th>
<th>Medicine</th>
<th>Education</th>
<th>Business</th>
<th>Public Service</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1696-1700</td>
<td>65.6</td>
<td>1.6</td>
<td>3.1</td>
<td>4.7</td>
<td>1.6</td>
<td>9.4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1796-1800</td>
<td>21.4</td>
<td>30.5</td>
<td>8.4</td>
<td>5.7</td>
<td>5.6</td>
<td>1.1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896-1900</td>
<td>5.9</td>
<td>15.6</td>
<td>6.6</td>
<td>26.7</td>
<td>18.8</td>
<td>1.0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Anyone desiring a good description of the recent Harvard-Princeton game should read Arthur Ruhl’s article in Collier’s for November 23rd, entitled “The Tiger Comes to Cambridge.” It was the first time Princeton had visited Harvard in sixteen years, and the victory was Harvard’s first one over Princeton in twenty-five years.

For the fencers in College the Outing for December contains an instructive article in the form of “Fencing in America,” by Edward Breck, “The All-Around Game of Tennis,” by Raymond D. Little in the same number shows how to play the volleying position with success.

An excellent review of recent books appears in the Outlook for November 23rd in “A Few Books of Today,” by Hamilton W. Mabie. The writer’s criticisms of the authors is clear and entertaining. Among the late productions of a biographical nature are Albert Bigelow Paine’s Mark Twain (Harpers) and the Letters of George Meredith (Scribners). James Bryce’s South America: Impressions and Observations (Macmillan) brings the reader face to face with a national personality.

Among the essays, Bliss Perry's American Mind (Houghton Mifflin) is noteworthy. Other books treating of the American are Meredith Nicholson's Provincial American (Houghton Mifflin) and Dr. S. M. Crother's Humanly Speaking (same publishers).

Dr. Henry van Dyke has a collection of short tales and stories under the name of The Unknown Quantity (Scribners). George McCutcheon receives recognition for his In the Hollow of Her Hand (Dodd, Mead & Co.).

Recent fiction has been added to the Library in the form of The Lady and Sado San by Frances Little and The Red Cross Girl by Richard Harding Davis. A new complete American edition of Mark Twain's works in twenty-five volumes has also been added.

The Chapter takes this opportunity to express its sincere sympathy to his immediate family and to those who have been privileged to be associated with him.

For the Chapter,

JAMES EDWARD PHILOON,
EARLE SPAULDING THOMPSON,
SAMUEL WEST.

Alumni Department

'81.—Rev. Charles H. Cutler, D.D., pastor for twenty-five years of the First Congregational Church, Bangor, Me., who was called by the Union Church of Waban, has accepted and will begin his work Nov. 17. He is a Bowdoin graduate with Phi Beta Kappa standing. He also received his doctorate of divinity from his Alma Mater. His theological course was taken at Andover.

'92.—Prof. Henry Crosby Emery, chairman of the Tariff Board, which went out of existence through the action of the last session of Congress, has returned to his former duties on the faculty of Yale University. He is to teach political economy there.

'91.—Prof. H. DeForest Smith and family were forced by the inconveniences caused by the war in Greece to sail from Naples a few days ago. They left on the Carpathia which was due in New York Dec. 4. Prof. Smith was sent by Amherst College to study the modern Greek language and customs and was in Athens when war was declared.

'94.—Rev. Frederick Joseph Libby has assumed a position on the Phillips-Exeter faculty as an instructor in German and a preceptorial instructor in mathematics. He will also render service to the students as a general counsellor. He leaves a position as pastor of the Congregational Church at Magnolia, Mass., to take up this new work.

'94.—Rev. George Colby DeMott, who has been for seven years the pastor of the Central Congregational Church, and for the past two years pastor of the combined Central and Winter Street Churches of Bath, has tendered his resignation to his parish and asks that it take effect December 31st. Mr. DeMott has been very successful in this field, not only in the pulpit but also in his pastoral work, and his action is very much regretted by his parish.

'94.—Mr. Ralph P. Plaisted has been appointed Judge of the Municipal Court of Bangor. Mr. Plaisted is a graduate of the Albany Law School and has been very prominent in legal circles in the Queen City.

---

Resolutions

Hall of Alpha Delta Phi

November 17, 1912.

It is with deepest sorrow that the Bowdoin Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi records the death on August 12th, of one of its distinguished members, Louis Orsmond Brastow of the Class of 1857. His was a life of generous service for others, in which as pastor, author, and professor he has brought distinction not only upon himself but also upon the Fraternity and College.

Calendar

Tuesday, Dec. 10.—2.00-4.00 p.m.—Glee Club Trials, Y. M. C. A. Room.

3.30 p.m.—Debate in English VI.

7.00 p.m.—Meeting of the Bugle Board, Deutscher Verein Room.

8.00 p.m.—Ben Greet players present "She Stoops to Conquer," in Town Hall.

Thursday, 11.—7.00 p.m.—Rev. R. W. Plant of Gardiner speaks at the Y. M. C. A. Meeting.

7.15.—Deutscher Verein Meeting, Hotel Eagle.

Friday, 12.—Class Debate Trials, Memorial Hall.
'98.—Rev. Oliver Smith, who formerly was located in North Dakota, has been rector of the Episcopal Church at Seal Cove, Maine, since May of this year.

'99.—Mr. Arthur H. Nason, the well-known author and publisher of New York City, has recently issued a small pamphlet announcing several books by himself and Emma Harrington Nason. These books are notable for the range of subjects and also for literary value. One of the most interesting to the people of Maine is "Old Hallowell on the Kennebec," by Emma Huntington Nason.

'02.—Melville E. Ingalls of Cincinnati, who has been connected with the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Co. for forty-two years, first as president and then as chairman of the board, recently resigned his position on account of ill health. Mr. Ingalls was a Maine boy and has been one of the great men in the Big Four system for several years. He received the honorary degree of A.M. in this year. Mr. Ingalls was also president of the National Civic Federation in 1905.

'04.—Frank H. Byram has recently taken up teaching at Livermore Falls. He was formerly located at North Berwick.

'05.—Dr. John H. Woodruff who graduated from the college in this year and from the Maine Medical School in 1908, is at the head of the medical corps combating the small pox at Barre, Vt. Dr. Woodruff is a resident of the stricken city and is an instructor in surgery at the University of Vermont.

'06.—Romilly Johnson has been engaged to sing the leading baritone parts in grand opera with a company that is to travel through the Italian Riviera this winter.

'06.—Mr. E. A. Silha, who has been working at the advertising business in Boston, is now engaged in the same line of work at Minneapolis, Minn.

'06.—Mr. Robie R. Stevens is now manager of the Chattel Loan Society of New York City. This society, a "company which is working to eliminate the evils of the loan shark, by conducting against it a loan business on reasonable terms for the good of the people," is becoming very prominent for its good work.

'06.—Another feature of the recent Clinical Congress of the surgeons of North America was the demonstration of the method of treating lateral displacements of the spine devised by Dr. Edville G. Abbott of this class. Eight cases treated for spinal curvature by this method were exhibited. Dr. Abbott's work is one of the newer procedures in orthopedic surgery. It consist of rotating the spine from the side on which the curvature appears until it is shown in the exact position on the other side. It is held in place there by means of a specially devised jacket for a certain length of time and when it is finally released from this, the spine is readily moved to normal position.

Dr. Abbott is one of the most successful of our younger graduates. He took a course in graduate work in Berlin after he had received his medical degree, and the degree of Master of Arts in this College. He was instructor in Orthopedic Surgery from 1903 to 1911 and at that time was advanced to Lecturer in that subject.

'07.—William Shepherd Linnell of Saco was married Nov. 12, to Miss Jessie Eudora Hopkinson of Saco. Henry D. Evans '01 of Augusta was best man. The bride is a graduate of Thornton Academy. Mr. Linnell went to the Law Department of the George Washington University after graduating from here and has since been a successful lawyer in his home city.

'07.—Mr. Charles W. Snow, A.M., recently delivered a lecture on "The Esquimos of Alaska" before the Portland Society of Natural History. Mr. Snow, since leaving his position here at the College as Professor of English has been in Alaska in the interests of the Federal Bureau of Education of the Department of Indian Affairs. He has been stationed on the Seward Peninsula.

'08.—Another Bowdoin grad who is interested in the same work is Arthur H. Ham, who in his work as Director of the Division of Loans under the Russell Sage Foundation Fund, has been handling part of the work of this corporation. In the course of this work, Mr. Ham has recently published an interesting pamphlet on "The Campaign Against the Loan Shark."

'08.—Prin. Ridgley C. Clark of Fryeburg Academy has been re-elected for a period of four years. This is the first time in the history of the Academy that a principal has been elected for more than one year.

'11.—Lawrence Davis, who was in the Boston office of Vickery, Hill Co., of Augusta last year, has recently accepted a position in the advertising bureau of the Independent Magazine. His address is 130 Fulton St., New York City.

AGENT WANTED

Most popular money making proposition open for live-wire student. Apply today, stating qualifications.

COLLEGE MEMORY BOOK CO.
226 S. La Salle St., Chicago.
NEW GYM OPENS ITS DOORS

Monday, Jan. 6, the new Bowdoin Gymnasium and the General Thomas Worcester Hyde Athletic Building were informally given over to the interests of physical training and athletics in Bowdoin. Together the buildings form training quarters second to that of no college in the country, and represent an outlay of more than $115,000 given by alumni, students and friends of the College. Bowdoin's greatest need has at last been filled.

The New Gymnasium faces the campus between Maine Hall and King Chapel and lies between the old Sargent Gymnasium and the Observatory. It is of brick with split face granite trimmings built in colonial style. The front entrance facing the campus is done in cut granite surmounted by the Bowdoin seal cut into the granite pediment. The whole structure is imposing without being too massive.

The General Thomas Worcester Hyde Athletic Building is the largest structure in New England devoted exclusively to athletics, measuring 160 by 120 feet, 120 by 40 feet of this space in the west end of the building will be devoted to track work; the rest of the floor is given over to baseball practice. The baseball diamond is built of hard clay with a sanded surface. It is of regulation size with room to run over each base about ten feet.

Thirteen feet above the floor is a ten-foot running track of 12 laps to the mile. The baseball cage is enclosed by 35,000 square feet of netting. This huge net had to be made in sections and then woven together.

These two buildings give to Bowdoin a physical training equipment second to none in the country, an equipment of which every student, alumnus, and friend of old Bowdoin is justly proud.

Every Bowdoin man feels that with the opening of the New Gym and Athletic Building a new era in athletics begins. The Athletic Building will give Bowdoin at least a three months' start over all other Maine colleges in baseball and track. Enthusiasm is already running high among the undergraduates. A squad of thirty-five men reported for the relay team. In the past, ten or twelve men would have been a large squad to have dared the cold and ice of the old outdoor track. With the New Gym it will be much easier to get the green material in the lower classes working and to keep it working.

Mr. B. C. Morrill will be the general gymnasium instructor and the track coach for the coming year.

The instructor in heavy gymnastics will be Mr. P. K. Holmes, Medic '16. Mr. Holmes comes to Bowdoin highly recommended from the Springfield Training School, where he was a member of their gymnasmium team. He also has a degree of A.M. from Clark University.

The senior squad instructor will be Allan Woodcock, Medic '15. His assistants: L. A. Crosby '13, C. R. Crowell '13.

CROSBY WINS RHODES SCHOLARSHIP

Bowdoin men have the opportunity to feel justly proud, for at the recent meeting of the Board of Selection, Laurence Alden Crosby '13 of Bangor was chosen from a particularly large and well-fitted number of candidates, to be the next Rhodes scholar from Maine.

This means that "Chuck" has upheld Bowdoin's enviable record of being the only Maine college yet to be represented by a Rhodes scholar at Oxford, and it means also that he has deservedly won for himself a three years' course at the big English university, with an annual income of $1500.

Eligibility to secure this honor is based on a man's all-round development. Not only is his scholarship taken into consideration but also much depends upon his ability as an athlete, his personality and his powers of leadership. That "Chuck" fully measures up to this required standard is evident from his prominence in all branches of college activity. For two years he has been first string quarterback on the football team, was secretary and treasurer of his class sophomore year, and president junior year, editor-in-chief of the Bugle and assistant manager and manager of the Quill. In addition to this, he has been for three years secretary and treasurer of the Press Club, and a member of the Mandolin Club, is secretary and treasurer of the Gibbons Club, a member of Ibis and Friars, a member of the Board of Proctors, secretary of the Student Council and Associated Students and a member of the Monday Night Club. "Chuck" is a Delta Kappa Epsilon and Phi Beta Kappa man and won the Almon Goodwin Prize which goes to that Phi Beta Kappa man with highest scholastic rank at the end of the junior year. He also was awarded the Goodwin French Prize his freshman year.

"Chuck" is planning to study either history or jurisprudence, and when he sails for England in October to take the place formerly held by "Dave" Porter '06, and "Bob" Hale '10, and "Eddie" Kern '11, he will have behind him the confidence and best wishes of every Bowdoin man.

CUTTS SPEAKS TONIGHT

Tonight at 7.30 o'clock a Senior smoker will be held at which some matters of class interest and a brief talk will be given by Mr. Oliver F. Cutts of New York. Mr. Cutts is a graduate of Bates and of Harvard Law School and in both these institutions he was famous as an athlete. While at Harvard he was selected as tackle on Walter Camp's all-American team. He had a successful law practice at Seattle, Washington for a number of years and very successfully coached the University of Washington football team for one season. He is now giving his time toward interesting college men in serving their communities by assisting in the work of altruistic institutions and in similar ways. All seniors are invited to attend and to come equipped with tobacco, etc., if they so desire.

ASSISTANT MANAGER AT LAST

On the fourth ballot, the third of the evening, Joseph Cony McDonald was chosen assistant football manager at an election in Memorial Hall last Friday evening. The first ballot was led by Verrill with McDonald and Livingston close seconds. Then on the second ballot McDonald took the lead and kept it throughout the remainder of the balloting. At the end of the third try, Livingston withdrew his name, leaving the contest between the two high men. The final polling was 85 to 71.

FIRST TRACK WORK IN NEW GYM

A large squad of track men answered the first call for B. A. A. relay work last week. Probably not more than half of the thirty-six men working are out for the relay team, the remainder of squad being those men who realize the benefits of early training for the harder track work of the spring. Coach Morrill advises all track men to come out as it will give a line on candidates for the class relay teams.

The following are the men who have reported: Woodcock, Medec. 1915; 1913, L. Dodge, Gardi-
NEW USE FOR OLD GYM

The following statement regarding the use of the old gymnasium for a Brunswick Boys' Club has been prepared by the secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

"For some years, the need has been felt for a building in town where Brunswick boys can get wholesome recreation and amusement. Two years ago a movement was started to establish a Y. M. C. A. in town but no suitable building could be secured. Another attempt to organize was made this fall, but it was found that the building which it was hoped could be secured could not be had for another year. When it became evident that the College intended to make no use of the old gymnasium this year, the faculty was requested to permit the use of this building for such a club; this permission was temporarily granted, providing that the presence of the boys on the campus did not prove troublesome. Considerable interest has been aroused in the town among the business men, and a committee of seven, appointed for the purpose, reported in regard to the organization and management of such a club at a public meeting some weeks ago. The result of this report has not yet been officially approved, however. It is hoped that a considerable sum of money will be raised for equipment, that a paid instructor will be engaged to direct the athletic work each afternoon and that the college men will cooperate in conducting the club.

"If this plan goes through, college men can perform a definite unselfish service by helping Brunswick boys to have the right kind of recreation and by becoming their friends. The details regarding the organization of the club and this hoped for cooperation will be decided later this month.

"There are numerous objections to such a temporary use of the old gymnasium, but as it would otherwise remain idle this year, it is hoped that the student body will be unselfish and cooperate in this movement. Furthermore many sincerely hope that such a use of the old gymnasium this year will make it possible to use the building in the future as a social club for the college, where class meetings, smokers, club meetings, etc., may be held."

The sum of $400 has been raised already by the faculty and townspeople. Nearly $200 worth of gymnasium apparatus has been ordered and the college is establishing lockers and baths in one corner of the floor. Frank Smith, 1912, and Arthur Merrill, 1914, will be in charge of the clubs. The organization is called the Brunswick Boys' Association and is controlled by a board of directors—two members of the faculty, the principal of the high school and four prominent men in town. Nearly 100 boys have indicated their desire to become members at the rate of 50 cents each. The plan is to divide the boys into groups of ten and have college men in charge. Each group will meet twice a week in the gymnasium and one other time with its student directors. Any student who desires to give up one hour a week is asked to give his name to Arthur Merrill.

A BOWDOIN NIGHT

Last Thursday evening in Memorial Hall a large number of students gathered for a social Bowdoin night. The program was started by singing "Bowdoin Beata." Then Mr. McConaughy introduced James P. Webber '00, professor of public speaking at Exeter, who furnished the chief entertainment of the evening. Mr. Webber gave two readings in a very able and interesting manner, the "Christmas Carol" and "Lend Me Five Shillings," a humorous one-act play. Following were some selections by the Zeta Psi orchestra, after which Mr. Webber gave two more readings, "The Man Who Was" and "Gun- ga Din," both by Kipling. The evening was closed by singing "Phi Chi." It was proposed to hold more of these informal "get-togethers" during the winter if this one proved successful, so there is no doubt but that others will follow.

INTER-CLASS DEBATE FRIDAY

The Freshman-Sophomore debate is to be held Friday, Jan. 10. The question is, "Resolved, That the President of the United States should be elected by direct popular vote." The two teams selected at recent trials are as follows: Sophomores, Talbot, McKenney, Bacon, and Livingston alternate; Freshmen, Edwards, Garland, Sayward, and Niven alternate. Douglas '13 will be the presiding officer. The Sophomores are being coached by Tuttle '13, while the Freshmen are being prepared for the struggle by Gage '14.
The BOWDOIN ORIENT

Published every Tuesday of the Collegiate Year by
The Bowdoin Publishing Company
in the interests of the students of
Bowdoin College

EDITORIAL BOARD

DOUGLAS H. McMurtrie, 1913, Editor-in-Chief
ROBERT D. LEIGH, 1914, Managing Editor
FRED D. WISH, 1913, Alumni Editor

DEPARTMENT AND ASSOCIATE EDITORS

R. E. SIMPSON, 1914, The Library Table
A. H. MACCORMICK, 1915, On the Campus
F. P. MCKENNEY, 1915, With the Faculty
J. F. ROLLINS, 1915, Intercollegiate Notes

L. E. JONES, 1913
V. R. LEAVITT, 1913
K. A. ROBINSON, 1914
G. H. TALBOT, 1915

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted.

All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager of the Bowdoin Publishing Co. Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

Bowdoin Publishing Company

H. B. Walker, 1913, Business Manager
ALFRED E. GRAY, 1914, Assistant Manager
E. L. SYLVESTER, 1914, Assistant Manager

Entered at Post Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII. JANUARY 7, 1913 No. 21

The New Gymnasium

With the beginning of a new era in Bowdoin athletics which the opening of the new gymnasium marks, what better resolution can the undergraduate make than to carry on every branch of gymnasium work with enthusiasm. If each one goes to practice with the determination to make the most of it, there need be no disquietude about our future athletic records. This week as we enter the building made possible by loyalty and generosity to the College, may the spirit of using it be as true to Bowdoin.

The Orient hopes that the letter from Dean Sills '01 in regard to the formation of an Alumni Council will bring forth many suggestions from our readers. Any such will be printed gladly in order that they may be brought to general notice before the June meeting.

Another Opportunity

The plan which is being developed by Mr. McConaughy is one which the Orient urges all undergraduates to support, and in particular those men who are so situated that they may work in groups. The strenuous efforts put forth by those interested in the plan insure the practicability of the initial part. But the part which will measure the success is the follow-up work, and it is this follow-up work which depends upon the men now in college.

Bowdoin Picture Show Ready

The set of Bowdoin slides to illustrate the College is practically completed and will be shown for the first time sometime this week before the Massachusetts Club. These slides are over 100 in number, and some of them are colored. The following men have cooperated in the preparation of this lecture: Joseph Roberts, secretary of the New York Alumni Association; John C. Minot, secretary of the Boston Bowdoin Club, and Dr. Loomis, Leigh, Monroe and Badger, all '14. A brief statement explaining the object and use of these slides has been sent out to all the alumni teaching in this section of the country and to about 100 other men.

The BLANKET TAX AGAIN

Three hundred twenty-two out of three hundred thirty-three men in college have paid the blanket tax, and become members of the A. S. B. C. This is 97 per cent, of the men in college. But, encouraging as the results have been, we should not assume a self congratulatory attitude, nor delude ourselves that hereafter the plan will run itself, and that no further effort is required on our part to make it a success.

A second semester draws nigh and the second installment of $7.50 will fall due. The excitement of the football season has passed away, but loyalty to college activities is still just as necessary. Every man, from Senior to Freshman, must realize that he is a part of Bowdoin and has a duty to perform; that he is personally responsible for the success or failure of the activities in which we engage. If we still realize this, the blanket tax for the second semester will be as much, if not more, of a success than it was for the first. Let’s make it so.

Paul H. Douglas,
Chairman Board of Managers.
STUDENT MEETING

Student meeting will be held in the Y. M. C. A. room Thursday evening, January 9. The speakers will include Frank Smith, a medical student; George E. Fogg '02, a Portland lawyer, and one other, probably a student. These gatherings under the Association auspices are always very popular and the hall will undoubtedly be filled to its capacity.

DRAMATIC TRIALS

In the first Dramatic Club trials sixty-six students competed. Because of so large a number it was found necessary to have further trials in order to get the best men for the different parts. These second trials were held Monday night at eight o'clock. The judges were Professors Brown and Mitchell and Mrs. Arthur Brown, the coach. The parts will be posted probably some time today or Wednesday, and the rehearsals will start soon.

THE CHRISTMAS SMOKER

The Monday night before the Christmas vacation a smoker was held in Memorial Hall, at which the football manager for next year, Robert D. Leigh, was elected and the first ballot for assistant manager was taken. The vote for assistant manager was so close that although Verrill was the winner by a few votes he did not have the necessary majority to give him the victory. This was not found out until later in the evening when his election was declared null and void by the Council.

The entertainment that was given to those present was first class. Of course the band was there to give a program which varied from college songs to popular music. Johnny Dunphy started the evening with some of his funny stories which brought down the house in gales of laughter. Then there was Crowell who read several very humorous passages. Without a doubt Loring Pratt was the headliner. He had countless stories and each encore seemed better than the previous ones so that he was obliged to respond time after time. Unlike many monologists he illustrated one of his selections, "A Modern Melodrama," lately printed in one of the comic weeklies. The old mill at midnight, the sealed papers and the bank were all present while he portrayed the general demeanor of the characters while giving their description.

Cider, apples, tobacco and pipes were passed around during the evening. One of the features of this part of the performance was the game of "duck of apple" at which several members of the Student Council served as the goats. Cedric Crowell who presided was ably assisted in making the evening enjoyable by a committee of three: Lawrence Crosby, chairman; John Dunphy and Lawrence Smith.

MUSICAL CLUB SELECTIONS

The following men have been chosen for the musical clubs:

Glee Club.—Leader, George Eaton '14; first tenor, Page '13, Twombly '13, Shea '14, Trotter '14, Card '15; second tenor, West '15, McKenney '15, Woodman '16, Hescock '16; first bass, Crowell '13, Greene '13, Smith '13, Ramsey '15; second bass, Eaton '14, Monroe '14, Leavitt '14, Dunton '15, Merrill '16; accompanists, Hatch '14, Twombly '13.

MANDOLINO CLUB.—Leader, Savage '13; first mandolin, Savage '13, Holt '13, Barton '14, Thompson '14, Demmons '15, Hall '15; second mandolin, Gilbert '13, Dunphy '13, Nason '14, Little '16, Farrar '14.

Mandola.—Conant '13, McCargo '14.

Mandocello.—Saunders '13.

Guitar.—Crosby '13.

Reader.—Crowell '13.

Manager.—Crosby '13.

Asst. Mgr.—Thompson '14.

ALUMNI COUNCIL PROPOSED

To the Editor of the Orient.

My dear Sir:—At the last meeting of the General Alumni Association of the College the following committee was appointed to consider the desirability of forming an Alumni Council: Charles T. Hawes '76, John Clair Minot '96, Eugene L. Bodge '97, Kenneth C. M. Sills '01, William E. Lunt '04. In other institutions such Councils have general oversight of the various alumni associations, keep the public informed in regard to the college, keep in touch with undergraduate activities, and, in general, act as a medium between the alumni, the faculty and the trustees, and as a help to the younger graduates in getting started in various occupations after graduation. Our committee has organized with Mr. Hawes as chairman, and myself as secretary.

I should be very glad to receive any expressions of opinion on this plan, in order to present them to the committee before next June.

Kenneth C. M. Sills, '01.

FRIARS INITIATION

The annual fall initiation and banquet of Friars, the Junior society, was held at Riverton Park, Dec. 17. The initiates were George F.

DANCING GALORE

Seven of Bowdoin's fraternities celebrated the approach of Christmas season by dances. Alpha Delta Phi held their annual house party and dance at this time and the six other dances were of a more informal character. This is the largest number of fraternity house parties ever occurring at this season of the year.

ALPHA DELTA PHI

The Bowdoin Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity gave their annual dance and house party December 20. The patronesses were Miss Helen Chapman, Mrs. William A. Moody, Mrs. Charles C. Hutchins and Mrs. Alice C. Little.

The committee in charge of arrangements was composed of Curtis Tuttle '13, Frederick S. Wigg '13, Arthur L. Pratt '14, G. Arthur MacWilliams '15 and Robert Little '16.

The guests were: Miss Katherine Hall, Miss Elizabeth Hall, Miss Dorothy Laughlin, Miss Hilda Laughlin, Miss Ruth Little and Miss Coffin of Portland; Miss Gale Littlefield and Miss Marion Brown of Bangor; Miss Sarah Baxter, Miss Ellen Baxter, Miss Marion Drew, Miss Mabel Davis, Miss Mary Elliott, Miss Clare Ridley, Miss Frances Skolfield, Miss Isabel Palmer, Miss Helen Mitchell, Miss Olive Nutter and Miss Elizabeth Purington of Brunswick; Miss Florence Dunton, Miss Louise Harriman, Miss Ruth Thompson and Miss Ethel Cochran of Bath; Miss Margaret Copeland of Newton, Mass.; Miss Louise Barrows of Auburn; Miss Ruth Perkins of Chicago; Miss Katherine McHale and Miss Katherine Ordway of Boston.

DELTA KAPPA EPSILON

Delta Kappa Epsilon held their annual Christmas dance Friday, Dec. 20. Mrs. Frank N. Whittier and Mrs. Carl H. Stevens of Brunswick were the patronesses.

The guests included Miss Elizabeth Sullivan of Bangor; Miss Miriam Northcott, Miss Marie Hieber, Miss Frances Crosman, Miss Evelyn Edwards of Portland; Miss Helen Sherman of Bar Harbor; Miss Christine Huston of Wiscasset; Miss Laura Standish of Boston; Miss Elizabeth Fuller of Rockland; Miss Sarah Snow of Skowhegan; Miss Katherine Torrey of Bath.

THETA DELTA CHI

The Eta Charge of Theta Delta Chi Fraternity gave a Christmas dance December 20. The patronesses were Mrs. C. A. Loring of Reading, Mass., Mrs. Wilmot B. Mitchell of Brunswick and Mrs. Herbert E. Cole of Bath. The members of the committee in charge of arrangements were Neil A. Fogg '13, Albert E. Parkhurst '13 and Maurice W. Hamblen '14.

Among the young ladies present were the following: Miss Phyllis Craig, Miss Marion Brown, Miss Elizabeth Payson, Miss Alice Foster, Miss Margaret Hewey, Miss Olivia Bagley and Miss Mildred Dow of Portland; Miss Marie Fogg of Westbrook; Miss Gladys Abbott of Bridgton; Miss Helen Soule, Miss Lillian Fogg and Miss Edna Dennison of Freeport; Miss Valrosa Vail of Marshfield, La.; Miss Margaret Arnold of Waterville; Miss Leola Howe of Baltimore, Md.; Miss Alice Cross of Jarvah, Wis.; Miss Dorothy Cross of Brookline, Mass.; Miss Ethel Gilfatin of Kezar Falls; Miss Nellie Vinal and Miss Ber- nice Vinal of Vinalhaven.

ZETA PSI

One of the most enjoyable of the Christmas dances was that of the Lambda Chapter of Zeta Psi, held at the chapter house Friday evening, Dec. 20. The patronesses were Mrs. Charles W. Hayes of Foxcroft, Mrs. Manton Copeland and Mrs. Paul Nixon of Brunswick. The guests were: Miss Gertrude Triplett of Bangor; Miss Myra Marsh of Foxcroft; Miss Martha Feyler of Waldoboro; Miss Carrie Johnson of Augusta; Miss Pauline Woodbury, Miss Mary Bletten of Dover; Miss Pauline Herring, Miss Gertrude Jackson, Miss Yvette Lapointe, Miss Margaret Day, Miss Helen Merriman, Miss Gladys Umber- land, Miss Alfaretta Graves, Miss Nathalie With- ington, Miss Annie Coffin of Brunswick; Miss Marion Troop of Wiscasset, and Miss Marguerite Wade of Waldoboro.

Three alumni of the chapter were also present. Mr. John R. Hurley of Hackensack, N. Y., Mr. Clyde R. Chapman of Fairfield, Me., and Gardner W. Cole of Foxcroft, Me.

DELTA UPSILON

The Bowdoin Chapter of Delta Upsilon held a Christmas dance at the chapter house Friday evening, December 20. Mrs. James A. Norton of Phillips, and Mrs. Samuel B. Furbish and Mrs. William Hawley Davis of Brunswick were the patronesses. The committee of arrangements consisted of James A. Norton '13 of Phillips, Austin H. MacCormick '15 of Boothbay Harbor and Lee D. Pettengill '16 of Lewiston.

The following young ladies were present: Miss Blanche Hanscom and Miss Nettie Bird of Rockland; Miss Vivien Lemont and Miss Caroline Rullmann of Bath; Miss Evelyn Swett of Somerville, Mass.; Miss Anne Hall, Miss Helen Fiske and Miss Frances Rideout of Brunswick; Miss Bertha Hunt of Worcester, Mass.; Miss Jeanne Moulton of Cumberland Center; Miss Juliette Holbrook of Newport; Miss Jennie Bailey of East Poland, and Miss Ethel Taylor of Lewiston.

Kappa Sigma

On Friday evening, December 20, at the chapter house, Kappa Sigma gave a Christmas dance. The patronesses were Mrs. Roscoe J. Ham, Mrs. Orren C. Hormell and Mrs. Frank Stetson of Brunswick; Mrs. Ensight M. Otis of Rockland, and Mrs. Ralph Hoit of Grasmere, N. H. The committee in charge was composed of Chester G. Abbott '13 of Lynn, Mass., Harold M. Somers '15 of Portland and Wallace B. Olson '16 of Somerville, Mass.

The guests were: Misses Olive Barnes, Katherine Fox, Retta Morse, Annie Hodgkins, Jessie Merrill, Edith Earle and Irene Woodbury of Portland; Misses Sue Houghton and Eleanor Morrill of Bath; Miss Lily Plets of Brunswick; Miss Ida Beane of Auburndale, Mass.; Miss Laura Barden of West Paris; Miss Elizabeth McDonald of Lynn, Mass., and Miss Mary Malia of Lewiston.

Beta Theta Pi

The Beta Sigma Chapter of Beta Theta Pi held its Christmas dance on Dec. 19. Mrs. Frank E. Roberts and Mrs. Roscoe J. Ham served as patronesses. The guests were Miss Katherine Johnson, Miss Abba Harris, Miss Ernestine Hall, Miss Agnes Parks of Portland; Miss Yvette Lapointe, Miss Elizabeth Purrington, Mrs. Willis E. Roberts of Brunswick; Miss Iva Record, Miss Mildred Jordan of Auburn; Miss Dorothy Bird of Rockland, and Miss Olive Holway of Augusta.

L. T. Brown, F. X. Callihan and H. A. Lewis served as the committee.

Club and Council Meetings

At a meeting of the Chemical Club the week before Christmas the organization for the year was perfected and the following officers were elected: President, W. Fletcher Twombly; vice-president, Neil Fogg; secretary-treasurer, A. E. Parkhurst; executive board, Sumner Pike, D. H. McMurtrie, T. E. Emery. The new men admitted to membership were H. D. Gilbert, A. G. Hildreth, H. M. Adams, S. L. Mountfort, A. K. Eaton, P. S. Smith, T. W. Daniels. Another meeting will be held the last of the month.

The Deutscher Verein held its annual initiation Thursday, Dec. 19, 1912, at the Hotel Eagle. The club was the guest of Prof. George T. Files.

The men initiated were: Willis E. Dodge '13, Vurnyer A. Craig '13, Earle B. Tuttle '13, James A. Norton '13, Albert P. Cushman '13, Frank R. Loeffer '14, Evan A. Nason '14, Francis T. Garland '14, Samuel E. Chase '14, Maurice W. Hamblen '14 and Philip R. Fox '14.

The Student Council held a meeting shortly before Christmas recess. The detailed plan for the limitation of student activities is now being prepared by a committee. Pres. Cedric Crowell was chosen by the Council to represent the College at the banquet of the New York Bowdoin Alumni Association, Jan. 31. The Association invited the Council to select a man as delegate to attend this affair and offered to pay all expenses.

Although there have been no meetings of the Good Government Club this year, it is understood that very soon there will be an organization and plans made for activity during the second semester.

At the December meeting of the Massachusetts Club it was decided to hold a reunion in Boston on Saturday evening, Dec. 21, to which all Bowdoin men were cordially invited to attend. The reunion in Boston was a success. Fifteen men attended the banquet, and the theatre party following. At this meeting also, Professor Files gave an interesting talk about his student life in Germany. It was decided to hold the January meeting in Hubbard Hall, at which an illustrated lecture is to be given. A "smoker," to be held at some future date in the old gym, was also proposed.

The first meeting of the Lincoln County Club was held on Friday evening, Dec. 13, 1912. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, L. Dodge '13; Vice-President, R. Kennedy '13; Secretary and Treasurer, M. Kuhn '15.

The first meeting of the Cumberland County Club was held on Monday evening, Dec. 16, 1912. At this meeting Ralph L. Buell '14 was elected President, and Fred D. Wish, Jr., '13, Secretary-Treasurer.

At the first meeting of the Franklin County Club, held on Friday evening, Dec. 13, James A. Norton '13 was elected President, and Ray M. Verrill '14, Secretary-Treasurer.

At the first meeting of the New Hampshire Club, W. T. Nixon '13 was elected President, H. C. Abbott '13, Vice-President, and A. E. Gray '14, Secretary-Treasurer.
On the Campus

The following spent a great part of the Christmas vacation in Brunswick: Cowan '13, Douglas '13, Tufts '13, Walker '13, Wish '13, Leigh '14, Sylvester '14, P. White '14, D. White '16, Foster '16.

The dates for the Junior Assemblies have been set by the committee for February 14 and March 14. It was thought that it would be better to place the dates for these affairs in the second semester owing to the rush of work coming in January.

Among the alumni back at the College for a visit Christmas vacation were "Baldy" Smith '11, "Bob" Cole '12 and "Pewt" Pursington '11.

There were a number of alumni on the campus to attend the Christmas dances. Among them were the familiar faces of "Jack" Hurley '12 and Clyde Chapman '12. Harold Andrews '12 and Buddy Rodick '12 were on the campus last week end.

"I didn't know Bowdoin was a coed college," a stranger was heard to remark at the Maine Central station Saturday morning before Christmas vacation.

No Orient was issued on the Tuesday preceding Christmas vacation on account of the limitation of the number of issues per volume. We hope it won’t happen another year.

The Monday Night Club held a meeting last night.

Fencing practice started yesterday. More candidates are wanted. The practice is held in the fencing room of the new gymnasium.

The advantages of a college built on a swamp were evident last week.

Morton '10, Atwood '10, Hobbs '10, Somes '11, Fuller ex-'12 and Auten '12 were other visitors on the campus shortly before the holidays.

Foster '16 is coaching the basketball team of Freeport High School.

According to new regulations made by the Orient Board the names of department editors are placed in the printed list on the editorial page opposite the department names.

Wing '14 taught mathematics at Morse High for a few days before Christmas vacation.

A double quartette from the Bowdoin Glee Club sang at the Brunswick Old People’s Home just before Christmas. Presents of tobacco were given to the men and shawls and aprons were given to the women. A part of the Chapel Christmas collection went for this purpose.

Statements concerning the work of the Bowdoin Y. M. C. A. have been sent to nearly 100 different newspapers and were generally used.

Lee Mikelsky has left for Houston, Texas, there to engage in commercial business, but Brother Ira is here with a sheaf of New Year bills for tardy Beau Brummels.

Dorando Pietri, who almost won the Marathon in the 1908 Olympic games was on the campus during Christmas vacation, when he filed an application for the position of track coach.

With the Faculty

Professor Mitchell lectured before the Athena Club of Bangor on Friday, Dec. 27, 1912. His subject was, "A Short Trip to England."

In the absence of the regular pastor Professor Woodruff preached at the morning service of the Church on the Hill last Sunday.

There has been recently published a song entitled "Out of the Mists and Shadows," with words by Lewis A. Burleigh '91, a lawyer in Augusta, and music by Professor Edward H. Wass of the Music Department.

Dr. Alfred O. Gross spent the holidays in Philadelphia.

Professor and Mrs. Paul Nixon spent Christmas at Quincy, Mass.

Dean Sills spent the vacation at Geneva, N. Y. Professor and Mrs. William H. Davis spent the holidays in Pennsylvania.

Professor and Mrs. Hormell spent the vacation in Cambridge, Mass., where Professor Hormell attended the meetings of the American Historical Association.

Professor and Mrs. Henry B. Alvord were at Bethlehem, N. H., for Christmas.

Professor Warren B. Catlin spent Christmas at Hartford, Conn., and attended the meetings of the American Economics Association at Boston.

Professors Ham and Bell attended the meetings of the American Historical Association in Boston.

Professors Davis and McConaughy attended the meetings of the Modern Language Association in Philadelphia during the holidays.

President Hyde recently addressed the teachers of the Bangor public schools. His subject was "The Spirit of the Schools."

Professor McConaughy spoke recently at the opening banquet of the York County Boys' Y. M. C. A. conference at Saco.

January 15 is the last date for the Prize Song Competition. All contestants should submit their songs to Professor Woodruff.
THE SECOND INSTALLMENT

The attention of the students is called to the facts concerning the second installment of the Blanket Tax and the rules regarding the same. The annual assessment shall be fifteen dollars, collectible in two installments of seven dollars and a half each. The dates of payment, for each installment, are the first three days of each semester. Those students who do not pay on these dates shall forfeit their right to membership in the A. S. B. C. for the ensuing semester, unless special arrangement shall be granted by the Board of Managers.” The first three days of next semester are Feb. 10, 11, 12.

Membership in the A. S. B. C. means admission to the home baseball games and possibly track meets; it means free subscription to ORIENT and Quill; it means the privilege of holding office in the organizations composing the Association; it means the voting privilege in all elections under the auspices of the A. S. B. C.; it means the right of representing the organizations supported by the A. S. B. C. in intercollegiate contests.

Unless the assessment is paid on the above dates and unless good and sufficient reason is given to the Board of Managers before the expiration of this three-day period, the student will for the semester be barred from any of the above privileges.

Last fall the Board excused a number of students for considerable lengths of time on the reason of the ignorance of the operation of the three-day rule and this was justified on the grounds of insufficient advertisement of the plan of the blanket tax. But it is absolutely necessary for the successful operation of the tax system that this three-days rule be applied and the Board is now obliged in fairness to all to apply the rule more strictly and to grant an extension of time only in extreme cases.

Last fall the men who did not pay up in the allotted time did not justify the extension of time being granted again. The very successful operation of the system thus far has shown that the whole student body is able to pay on the three allotted dates.

Do not forget your $7.50 February 10.

-Board of Managers.

OLD HEIDELBERG CAST

The men whose names are given below have been selected to take part in “Alt Heidelberg,” the Ivy Day play for the coming year. A number of these have already had experience in the College dramatics. Crowell ’13 has been in all the plays given by the Dramatic Club in the last three years; Elwell ’15 was in the Commencement play last June; L. Jones ’13 was in the plays two and three years ago; W. Greene ’13, in the two plays last year; MacDonald ’15, in last year’s Commencement play; Twombly ’13, in all the plays the last three years; Dunphy ’13, in the last two Ivy plays; P. Donahue ’14, in the plays last year.

CAST OF CHARACTERS

Prince........................Crowell ’13
Kathie........................Buell ’14
Frau Rüder......................Evans ’15
Frau Dörffel.....................Clark ’16
Von Haugh........................L. Jones ’13
Jüttner............................J. C. Merrill ’15
Von Passage......................Leigh ’14
Von Breitenberg..................Dole ’13
Metzning (Chamberlain)......
Detlev............................W. Greene ’13
Von Wedell......................Russell ’14
Bilz..............................MacDonald ’15
Englebrecht.....................Hall ’15
First and Second Student.....To be taken from Glee Club
Lackey ..........................A. Cole ’14
Student (Banzin) ............
Glanz............................Buell ’14
Reuter............................Evans ’15
Lutz..............................Twombly ’13
Kellerman......................Duine ’13
Schölermann..............P. Donahue ’14, or Abbott ’13
Rüder............................Abbott ’13, or P. Donahue ’14
Waiter ..........................Evans ’15

“Alt Heidelberg” is a very well known German play and has been studied in the College German courses. It is a good college play, dealing with Heidelberg life, and having a large preponderance of male parts. The first rehearsal was held last week, and others are scheduled for regular hours this week and following.
MUSICAL CLUBS SCHEDULE

The dates of the Musical Clubs are as follows:
Jan. 17, Bath; 20, Bangor; 21, Old Town; 22, Fairfield (pending); 23, Skowhegan; 27, Portland; Mar. 24, Brunswick; 26, open; 27, open; 28, Reading; 29, Boston.

Early in March a joint concert with Bates will be given in Lewiston. One or two more concerts may be arranged between the Maine and Massachusetts trips. Negotiations are under way for a New York concert to follow the Boston concert.

THE SENIOR SMOKER

At the Senior Smoker held in Massachusetts Hall last Tuesday evening, Mr. Oliver F. Cutts of New York gave one of the finest talks heard here for some time. The famous Harvard and All-American tackle showed that he is as high-powered intellectually as he is physically, and that he can hold an audience as well as he used to hold the best opposing rushes in his football days. Mr. Cutts is a big man and he is doing a big work. He is engaged in organizing college graduates for public spirited and efficient work, and in his talk "How College Graduates Can Serve the Community," every word of which was closely listened to, he pointed out that by devoting some of his spare time to forwarding the movement for cleaner politics, settlement work, charitable work, boy's club work, and other activities of that nature, the college man is performing a duty truly his as the possessor of a broad and liberal education. In thus bettering the community, too, he finds that natural outlet for the things he has stored up, which is so essential to making his own life well-rounded and complete.

After the talk, there was an opportunity to meet the speaker personally.

FENCING SQUAD SMALL

While it is to be regretted that all of last year's Fencing team was lost by graduation, the prospects of a successful team for the coming season are very bright. The most likely candidates are: 1913, Pike, Dunphy, Shackford, Wish; 1914, Payson, Pope; 1915, Floyd, Porritt, Woodbury, Perkins, Faulkner. Other candidates are: 1916, Lord, Irving, Greeley, Hamlin, Hawes, Hale, Proctor, Foster.

This is a poor showing as compared with the number of candidates last year, and it is hoped that a larger number of men will come out and try for the team.

THE STUDENT CONFERENCE

The program for the fourth state student conference which meets here February 28 and March 1 and 2 has been practically completed and will be sent to all the colleges and preparatory schools of the state. The delegations from the preparatory schools will be limited. Over 100 delegates from out of town will be expected. It is hoped to secure entertainment for one-half of these in the college buildings and the other half in the town. The principal speakers will be: Robert E. Speer of New York, secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Missions, one of the most popular college speakers in the country; Harrison Elliott of New York, a Bible study secretary of the National Y. M. C. A.; Arthur Howe, captain of the Yale football team of 1912, who is now associated with David R. Porter, 1906, in preparatory school Y. M. C. A. work; Henry H. King of Boston, state secretary of the Y. M. C. A. for Massachusetts; Daniel Chase, a graduate of the University of Maine, and now director of athletics at Hamilton College; and President Hyde. Features of the program will be the opening session Friday evening in the church, followed by a reception given by the Bowdoin Y. M. C. A. to the visiting delegates, conference sessions on Saturday on methods of Y. M. C. A. work, an address by President Hyde, faculty conference Saturday afternoon, address Saturday evening by Mr. Elliott, and three addresses Sunday by Dr. Speer. Three committees have been appointed by the Y. M. C. A. to prepare for this conference as follows: Entertainment: C. Brown '14, chairman, A. McCormick '15, sub-chairman; reception: R. Leigh '14, chairman, G. McWilliams, sub-chairman; attendance: A. Gray '14, chairman, A. Sweet '13, sub-chairman.

SECOND STUDENT MEETING

The second student meeting under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. was held last Thursday evening. The program opened with some selections on the orchestrille, played by Professor Wass, showing the remarkable range and tone of the instrument.

The first of the three speakers of the evening was Crowell '13 who briefly discussed Bowdoin Spirit. He said that while our expressed spirit was very excellent as far as it went, it did not go far enough. As an example of this he cited the lack of interest in singing, which considering the rewards offered for its encouragement, seems unjustifiable.

Frank Smith Medic '15 spoke a few words in explanation of the proposed Brunswick Boys' Club, which he thought would be of value not only to the boys themselves but to the men of the college who will help in its work.

The chief speaker of the evening was George E. Fogg '02, whom Crowell introduced as being best known to us as the author of "Glasses Clinking High." Mr. Fogg, whose subject was "If I were back in College," compared our preparation for life to the preparation for a football schedule. We employ a graduate coach to train our football team, and, similarly, should not be unwilling to accept the advice of graduates who have had experience. The first care of a coach is to look over the schedule and find out when and where the games are to be played. In the same way, a college man ought to size up the game of life and find out when and where he will be called upon to play it. Just as the coach has to find out what kind of material he has, so we have to find out what there is in us, and then train for the position for which we are fitted. The right man in the right place is sure to make good; but nobody ought to attempt to enter a profession for which he is not fitted. When a man has found the right place and the game is started, he must hit the line hard, follow the ball, and be there when it drops; in other words to work for all there is in him. Do not be discouraged, said he, if honors do not come quickly or easily, for the man who sticks through thick and thin is the man who eventually wins out.

Lastly come the Don'ts: don't overtrain and go stale; don't be a prig or a bookworm; don't forget that you may learn as much from the men with whom you live as from books.

INTERCLASS DEBATE—JAN. 10

The decision for the affirmative team ended the tie in the Freshman-Sophomore competition in favor of the "Freshies"—honors in baseball and football being evenly divided.

The debate was a good one: an interesting question handled with little spirit by both teams. The affirmative side contended that the President of the United States should be elected by a direct popular vote. They pointed out that under the present system the minority loses all representation; that there was a great temptation to fraud and bribery; and that there was an inequality in the value of the individual vote because of the two electors at large.

In opposition to this plan the negative upheld the "proportional" system, arguing that it would remedy the faults of the present system without the loss of state rights which would occur under the direct popular method.

In rebuttal the negative pointed their attack at the complications which would arise under the proposed system and at the loss of state rights.

The affirmative showed these objections to be trivial in view of the greater issues at stake; that since their big argument—the inequality in value of the individual vote—had not been answered in any way, and since their plan remedied all existing faults in the present system, then the proposed popular plan should be adopted.

The judges, Professors Herbert C. Bell, Warren B. Catlin and Orren C. Hornell, cast their ballot without consultation.

Don Jerome Edwards George Henry Talbot
Dwight Harold Sayward George William Bacon
Edward Philip Garland Francis Paul McKenney

PHI CHI INITIATION

The annual initiation and banquet of the Gamma Gamma Chapter of the Phi Chi Society of the Medical School of Maine, was held in Portland, Saturday afternoon and evening, Jan. 11th. Four new members, from the Class of 1916 of the Medical School, were initiated in Red Men's Hall, preceding the banquet at the Congress Square Hotel. These were Paul K. Holmes, Bryant E. Moulton, Alfred L. Mclntire and Nessib S. Kupelian.

Harry D. McNeil of Bangor acted as toastmaster, and introduced Dr. John L. Morse of Boston who read a very instructing and interesting paper on Diabetus Mellitus in Infancy and Childhood.

LECTURE ON HIWALE'S WORK

Hiwale '09, Bowdoin's missionary, like most sons of Bowdoin, is "making good" with a vengeance in his work. He has been appointed to succeed Dr. Lee, one of the most noted missionaries in India, and is located at Latarce, 80 miles south of Bombay. His parish has a greater population than Maine and he is the sole missionary in this district. Hiwale is working in conjunction with the chain of missions conducted by Dr. Hume, who was here as a college preacher in 1910. An illustrated lecture concerning Hiwale's work will be given January 23, by Enoch Bell, of the Board of Foreign Missions. Mr. Bell is an eloquent speaker and dealing with a subject so closely related to all Bowdoin men, should be greeted by a large audience.

A poll of twenty-eight shows that the position of half back claims the greatest number of football captains. Tackle, fullback and quarterback come next, and four captains play end.
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

Published every Tuesday of the collegiate year by
The Bowdoin Publishing Company
in the interests of the students of
Bowdoin College

EDITORIAL BOARD

Douglas H. McMurtrie, 1913, Editor-in-Chief
Robert D. Leigh, 1914, Managing Editor
Fred D. Wish, 1913, Alumni Editor

DEPARTMENT AND ASSOCIATE EDITORS

R. E. Simpson, 1914, The Library Table
A. H. MacCormick, 1915, On The Campus
F. P. McKenney, 1915, With The Faculty
J. F. Rollins, 1915, Intercollegiate Notes

L. E. Jones, 1913
V. R. Leavitt, 1913
K. A. Robinson, 1914
G. H. Talbot, 1915

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted.

All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager of the Bowdoin Publishing Co. Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

BOWDOIN PUBLISHING COMPANY

H. E. Walker, 1913, Business Manager
Alfred E. Gray, 1914, Assistant Manager
E. L. Sylvester, 1914, Assistant Manager

Entered at Post Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII. JANUARY 14, 1913 No. 22

Class Sings

The first of the class sings this evening for the purpose of preparing for the Snow Song Cup Contest should call forth a large attendance. To the Freshmen is given a chance to set the pace in the class rivalry, and they should make the most of it! For the first time they have an opportunity to give the College an example of 1916 spirit in competition with all the other classes. They may do much to start the improvement in singing Bowdoin songs by being present tonight to a man.

The Blanket Tax

Although the beginning of the second semester seems at a distance when viewed through the haze of final examinations, it is a time which will soon be at hand, bringing with it a crisis in undergraduate self-government. Then will be decided the question as to whether the College is to stand loyally behind the blanket tax plan by paying the second installment needed to carry on the spring sports. It is then that ideals of Bowdoin Spirit must be translated into hard cash if the carefully planned system of financing undergraduate activities is to succeed. Let everyone be thinking upon these things to the end that when the time comes, he may translate promptly.

INTERSCHOLASTIC BASEBALL SCHEDULE

Assistant Baseball Manager Elwell announces the following baseball schedule for the Bowdoin Interscholastic League, arranged at a meeting of the representatives of the six schools comprising the organization.

The schools are divided into two groups. Group A consists of Deering, South Portland, and Brunswick. Group B is composed of Edward Little High School, Lewiston High, and Hallowell. Each of these groups arranged a schedule of games to terminate before June 7th. On that date the first two games between the winners of the two groups will be played, and the second one will be arranged later.

The following is the schedule of the two groups:

April 30th, Hallowell High vs. Edward Little at Auburn; Brunswick vs. Deering at Forest Avenue grounds.

May 1, Deering High vs. South Portland at Pine Tree Park.

May 3, Brunswick High vs. South Portland High. Place not decided.

May 10, Hallowell High vs. Lewiston High at Lewiston.

May 14, South Portland High vs. Deering High at Forest Avenue grounds.

May 17, Lewiston High School vs. Edward Little High at Auburn; South Portland High vs. Brunswick High, place not decided.

May 24, Edward Little High School vs. Hallowell; Deering High vs. Brunswick High at Brunswick.

May 31, Lewiston High vs. Hallowell High at Hallowell.

June 4, Edward Little High vs. Lewiston High at Lewiston.

The managers also submitted to Assistant Manager Elwell the following list of approved umpires: George F. Wilson of Bowdoin, Leslie Stetson of Bowdoin, Lewis T. Brown of Bowdoin, Charles R. Bull of Bowdoin, Sumner Mountfort of Bowdoin, Edward Butler of Deering, William Desmond of Portland, Arthur El-

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION MEETINGS

The annual banquet of the New York Alumni Association of Bowdoin will be January 31. For the first time the College will be represented by a student speaker, Crowell ’13. The officers of the New York Association are: President, Francis Robbins Upton, M.S.; Secretary, Joseph Bangs Roberts.

The Boston Alumni Association will have its annual meeting and banquet February 5. The committee of the Association on speakers has invited Crosby ’13 to represent the College. The officers of the Boston Association are: President, John Clair Minor; Secretary, George F. Kimball.

BOWDOIN IN MAINE SCHOOLS

An examination of the directory of High School and Preparatory School principals in the State of Maine shows that 22 of the High Schools are in charge of Bowdoin graduates, as are also 10 of the preparatory and preparatory schools.

The following High Schools are in charge of Bowdoin men: Bangor, G. H. Larrabee ’88; Bath, H. E. Cole ’83; Belfast, C. W. Proctor ’98; Bridgton, H. E. Rowell ’10; Brownville, T. E. Gay ’08; Brunswick, C. E. Gardner ’01; East Livermore, F. H. Byram ’04; Bar Harbor, F. E. Briggs ’94; Eustis, T. E. Makepeace ’12; Freeport, R. S. Taylor ’08; Gorham, C. C. Shaw ’03; Kennebunk, A. L. Dennison ’03; North Berwick, E. E. Weeks ’12; Old Town, A. J. Hamlin ’00; Pembroke, W. R. Spinney ’13; Rockland, H. W. Cobb ’00; Thomaston, R. S. Robinson ’95; Topsham, D. F. Koughan ’09; Waldoboro, H. E. Alexander ’90; Warren, F. D. Rowe ’06; Wells, H. S. Hill ’05; Woodstock, R. E. Fisher ex-’10.

The following are principals of academies: Anson, R. E. G. Bailey ex-’11; Bridgton, C. C. Tuttle ’06; Foxcroft, G. W. Cole ’10; Fryeburg, R. C. Clark ’08; Hartland, W. S. Guitill ’10; Hebron, W. E. Sargent ’78; Monson, J. A. Scott ’98; Somerset, E. G. Barbour ’12; Thornton, E. R. Woodbury ’95; Washington, R. S. Smith ’04.

Among the superintendents of schools in Maine are the following Bowdoin men: Auburn, H. H. Randall ’00; Augusta, F. G. Marshall ’03; Bangor, D. S. Wormwood ’08; Bath, F. W. Freeman ’89; Belfast, W. B. Woodbury ’00; Damariscotta, H. K. White ’74; Fairfield, W. O. Hersey ’92; Houlton, W. F. Carr ’04; Kennebunk, J. W. Lambert ’93; Newcastle, H. K. White ’74; Searstown, Woodbury ’00.

THE OCTOBER QUILL

A conscientious and critical editing may take such credit as editors are permitted for the excellent quality of the October Quill; but it is probable that the financial stress which threatens many college literary periodicals and has already killed those splendid veterans, the Dartmouth Lit and the Trinity Tablet, must be blamed for the unusually thin table of contents.

The opening number of this issue, "The Piano Man" by K. A. Robinson, has the cheerful attribute of being a "good story," although with the small boy as deus ex machina the plot is not elaborated. The writer handles his nervous bright paragraphs with an almost professional and practised fluency. With its impecunious suitor, its seven pages (solid) of luxurious setting for The Girl who has all and leaves all with equal complacency, the tale is a good example, in little, of the best-seller variety that aims to please the passing moment. And the moment has need of its kind, we must admit. Most of the stories of this class lack, however, the compelling virility of the late O. Henry and Arnold Bennett who have the dash and daring of the twentieth century at its cleverest.

The writer of our story has achieved an easy and pleasing style in a chosen line; but in order really to write, it is necessary to try many themes and some serious ones. One of the best of the Atlantic Monthly's recent problem-stories. Mrs. Comer's "The Preliminaries," is a remarkable instance of the power of fiction in short story form to interpret life with true philosophic insight.

Some hastily composed sentences in "The Piano Man," like the one on page 154, "The idea of  getting along on what he knew that he would have to ," are awkward; and the use of "though" as a transitional particle is a curiously recurring mannerism. The sentence descriptive of the theme of Chopin's Polonaise in a Major is startling in cumulative exuberance but it shows well the writer's subjectively responsive attitude to music. "It pulsates" detracts from the characterization in the succeeding line on page 166.

A good example of what is sometimes called "thoughtful" poetry is "Alchemy," by Edward H. Blake '77. It has a flavor of Emily Dickinson's little rhymed lessons without, however, their epigrammatic force.

The essay on "Edward Grieg: Romanticist," by W. F. Twombly, is interesting as a careful study of tendencies and as an endeavor after a standard of criticism that shall unify in our thought all the arts. It is a descriptive sketch rather than a critical one but perhaps that fact commends it to the unmusical reader. There is a lack of clearness, indeed a positive ambiguity in the statement of the "reactive tendency," on pages 170-1. And one word which is better than "picturesqueness" or subjectivity—to sum the Romantic movements, and includes both—is caprice or waywardness. Awkward phrasings occur in such sentences as "An influence which he was never able to separate himself from" and "he was able to express emotions which were utterly incapable of expression by them;" both could be obviously compressed. The quotations introduced in support of the author's statements are unnecessary; for the writer's musical sensibilities have made it possible for him to assimilate his readings in the authors quoted and he has given us the legitimate reaction. In a work of research source-quotation are obligatory; in certain essays they add beauty and force; in a purely supplementary restating of the writer's thought as here they have a peculiarly bold and unpleasing effect. We could wish for some account, moreover, of the vagaries of Peer Gynt to illustrate the composer's daring romanticism.

"The Girl with the Patient Eyes," by R. P. Coffin, gets material for a prose idyll in that Maine coast which has never been made to yield all its poetry, despite Mrs. Stowe's appreciative prose and Miss Jewett's loving portrayal of its pine-fringed shores. This little Quill sketch is a well conceived glorification of the Immediate Duty; it has some crudity of expression resulting from its very determination to make vivid the interaction of the winds and waves and the baffled human longing. It suggests the possibility of more ambitious literary work in this rich field.

The Postman's all too brief review is criticism free from triteness, direct, and above all self-revealing. It shows the writer's interests,—some of them; one sort of phrase, "positively painful," is unpleasantly manneristic. The commentary on Wilde's critic leaves us curious to read that critic and determine if his lack be not more hopeless than "lack of reading."

M. C. H.

Club and Council Meetings

The Monday Night Club held its first meeting of the year last week at the Alpha Delta Phi House. The following men who made their "B" for the first time this fall were initiated: C. O. Page '13, L. T. Brown '14, H. H. Foster '16, J. E. Barry '16, G. W. Leadbetter '16. R. D. Leigh, manager, was also initiated. Captain Weatherill was elected president of the club and Leo Pratt '14 was chosen secretary. After the business meeting matters of football interest were discussed, such as the schedule, coaching system, etc. Refreshments were served.

The Y. M. C. A. Cabinet held a business meeting in the Association room last Thursday evening. Plans for the meeting of the State Student Conference, Feb. 28, were discussed and committees appointed to have charge of the various features of entertainment.

At the second meeting of the Lincoln County Club, held at the D. K. E. House, Thursday evening, Jan. 9, Dean Sills was the guest and he discussed topics bearing upon prospective students of the College.

At the last meeting of the Deutscher Verein the following officers were elected: Vorsitzender, D. H. McMurtrie '13; Shiftwart, J. A. Norton '13; Kassenwart, J. Schwey '14. The Verein will hold a meeting Thursday evening at Professor Ham's home.

At a meeting of the Quill Board held recently, K. A. Robinson '14 was elected editor-in-chief. L. H. Gibson '14 and R. P. Coffin '15 were elected to the Board. These two, with the editor-in-chief, form the Board proper. In conjunction with the Bowdoin Publishing Co. the Board has decided to have the Quill printed by the Brunswick Record. The old debt to the former printers is to be paid by a loan that the Quill will raise. Besides being more convenient, the Brunswick printers will give better quality type and paper.

At a meeting of the Athletic Council held last Saturday evening in the New Gymnäumium Floyd '15 and Porritt '15 were nominated for Tennis manager. Track and baseball matters were discussed also.

At the Massachusetts Club meeting last Saturday evening Professor McConaughy exhibited his set of 120 lantern slides in the Chemistry Lecture room. Following the illustrated lecture the club adjourned to the Alpha Delta Phi House for a social hour.

On the Campus

"Swifty" Gentner '11 was on the campus a few days last week.

The College preacher for January 26 will be Henry Van Dyke, D.D., LL.D.

According to present plans the new Gymnasium will be dedicated on the Wednesday of Commencement week.

Bragdon '12 has left his position as instructor at Mercersburg Academy and will be employed in the office of the College Treasurer.

Owing to unavoidable circumstances the Class of 1868 Prize Speaking scheduled for Thursday, January 16, has been postponed indefinitely.

When a recent visitor to the new Gym declared the flying rings impracticable, Dr. Whittier quickly answered his criticism by stripping off his coat and going back and forth on the rings.

At the enrollment of members of the Brunswick Boys' Association in the old Gym Saturday morning, 80 boys became members. A plan of organization for the club is now under way.

The Stewards' Club met recently and made some plans that will benefit all their clubs. The idea is to appoint some experienced man, preferably a grocer in Brunswick, who will buy provisions for the stewards and furnish them as each orders. Gray '14, Hayes '14, and Chase '14 were appointed as a committee to make further plans.

The fire at the College coal shed, after smoldering since its outbreak December 30, started afresh on the morning of January 10. The fire started in bin No. 3, and all the coal was shovelled out of that bin, but it was found that the fire had spread into bin No. 4. A crew of men has been at work emptying No. 4 in an effort to keep the flames from spreading to No. 5. In all, the bins contain about 1000 tons of soft coal.

A Y. M. C. A. Deputation, consisting of Douglas '13, Leigh '14 and MacCormick '15 will go to Bath Sunday. This is the second deputation the Y. M. C. A. has sent out this year and it will also send deputations to Rockland, Camden, Damariscotta, and Conway, N. H. Six very successful trips were taken last year and more will probably be taken this year for deputation work. There are now about twelve men in the college ready to go out on deputation work for the Y. M. C. A. The work has been very successful. The aim is to create an interest in the Y. M. C. A. and its principles among "prep" school boys.

With the Faculty

Professor Manton Copeland gave an interesting lecture before a recent meeting of the Men's Club of St. Paul's Episcopal Church of Brunswick. His subject was "Evidences of Evolution" and he illustrated his lecture by charts.

Professor McConaughy leaves Thursday for a week's trip in Massachusetts where he will deliver his illustrated lecture on the College at Mt. Herman School, Wilbraham Academy, Haverhill High School and at the two High Schools in Springfield.

In the play, "The Little Minister," to be given by the Brunswick Dramatic Club Jan. 28, the following of the faculty have parts: "Gavin Dishart," Professor Davis; "Capt. Halliwell," Professor McConaughy; "Tammis Whanmand," Mr. S. B. Furbish; "Rob Dow and Micah Dow," Professor Files; "Andrew Macmeker and Obe Crikshanks," Professor Gross; "Sneaky Hobart," Dr. A. W. Haskell; "Silva Toch," Professor Johnson.

Dean Sills addressed the Sophomore class of Portland High School last Thursday on the "High School Graduate and College."

During February and March, Professor McConaughy will conduct a course on Tuesday evenings for the teachers of Deering and Portland High Schools on problems in high school teaching. Wednesday evenings, he will conduct a course for the Sunday school teachers of Waterville and vicinity on problems of Sunday school teaching.

The Library Table

There are current many interesting articles concerning our institutions of learning. Preeminent is the "Rhodes Scholar" by D. C. Harvey, in the December University Magazine, treating of the life of the Rhodes scholars at Oxford, their influence on the undergraduates there and explaining why Rhodes scholars often seem to fall below what is expected of them. The "Socialization of the College" by Professor Walter Libby in the Popular Science Monthly for January, shows evidence of a practical mind with a comprehensive grasp of the modern purpose of education. Edward Breds comes forth in the Outing for December with another chapter on "Fencing in America."

Mr. Ellis Spear, Jr. '98 has presented the Library with a little pamphlet, which once belonged to General Know, entitled "A Description of the Situation, Climate, Soil and Productions, etc., of the District of Maine and Commonwealth of Massachusetts," and apparently is an early attempt at real estate promoting and publicity.

Other notable accessions are "Reminiscences of John Greenleaf Whittier's Life at Oak Knoll, Danvers," by his cousin, Mrs. Abbey J. Woodman, and "The Garland of Delight," a work by a series of prominent writers, with the prologue by Kate Douglas Wiggin. Probably the most important addition is that of thirty or forty volumes to the Annual Register, a review of public events at home and abroad, and a valuable source of contemporary history. The Library now possesses all the volumes of this extensive work, which has been published annually since 1758, with the exception of those from 1891 to 1908.

CALENDAR

Tuesday, Jan. 14.—1:00 p. m. Deutscher Verein picture.
8:00 p. m. Student Council Meeting.
Wednesday, Jan. 15.—8:00 p. m. Dramatic Club Rehearsal.
Thursday, Jan. 16.—8:00 p. m. Deutscher Verein Meeting.

NOTICE

Students are reminded that they must register for the courses of the Second Semester before January 30. It will be convenient if as many students as possible sign for their courses at once.

—KENNETH C. M. SILLS.

Alumni Department

Among the Bowdoin alumni in the Maine Legislature now in session are the following: Harry B. Austin '87, H. M. Moulton '87, Tabor D. Bailey '90, Francis Peaks '96, Reuel W. Smith '97, Frank L. Dutton '99, Roy L. Marston '99, Charles P. Conners '03, Aaron A. Putnam '06, and the Speaker of the House, John A. Peters '85.

'52.—Gen. Joshua L. Chamberlain, the famous graduate and former president of the College, was the subject of an article appearing recently in the Atlantic Monthly. Gen. Chamberlain is also the author of a most interesting article on some of the battles of the Civil War. This appeared in the latest Cosmopolitan.

'83.—Fred Morrow Fling, Ph.D., professor of European history in the University of Nebraska, has just delivered a course of lectures at Yale on the French revolution.

Professor Fling graduated from Portland High School in 1879 and worked his way through Bowdoin. Ambitious for a higher education, he went to Germany and won the degree of Ph.D. in the University of Leipzig. After his return to the United States, he married Miss Helene Dresser, a Wellesley College alumna.

He was elected to the chair of European history in the University of Nebraska in 1888 and still occupies that important position. He is widely known in the lecture field and his "Mirabeau and the French Revolution" in three volumes occupies a place in the historical department of every large library in this country and in the Old World.

'09.—George Brinton Chandler, a member of the Connecticut Legislature, has been appointed to the industrial commission created by Congress to investigate the relations between labor and capital. While in college he was an editor of the Orient, and he graduated with honors in English composition and oratory. For the last six years he has had public work in Connecticut, and he is well fitted for the position to which he has been appointed.

'91.—Prof. and Mrs. Harry DeForest Smith, and daughter have returned to this country after an interesting trip abroad. Prof. Smith had to shorten his stay in Greece on account of inconveniences caused by the war. He was sent by Amherst College where he is now located, to study the modern Greek language, customs, etc., and was in Athens when war was declared. Letters received from him indicate that the excitement there was much greater than the censored press dispatches would lead us to believe. The finest residences of the city are given over to the soldiers who are going to the front, and business has been demoralized by the lack of steamers, all possible boats being used to transport soldiers. Prof. Smith has been located at Amherst since 1901.

'97.—M. Summer Coggan, a prominent lawyer in Boston, was recently elected representative to the Massachusetts Legislature from Malden, Mass., in the face of a Roosevelt majority in that city of over 1,000 votes. Mr. Coggon graduated from Boston University Law School after he had finished his course here.

'01.—George L. Lewis, the son of Mrs. G. Lewis of Maine Street, is engaged to be married to Miss Frances F. Bell of Granby, Mass. Mr. Lewis is the librarian of the Athenæum at Westfield, Mass., having held that position since 1907. Mr. Lewis is the brother of Mr. Hugh M. Lewis, the assistant in the Bowdoin Library.

'06.—A son was born to Mrs. Robert T. Woodruff of Lynn, Mass., on December 5th. His name is Robert Thomas Woodruff, Jr. Mr. Woodruff, Senior, since graduation has been in the legal profession at Lynn, after spending a short time with the International Banking Company in London, and taking a law course at Harvard Law School.

'11.—Mrs. Edward T. Little announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Frances Little, to Lawrence Davis of New York City. Mr. Davis now has a fine position with the American Book Company in their New York branch.
STUDENT ELECTION

Tomorrow noon from 1:00 to 1:30 P.M. in Memorial Hall will be held the election of a fencing manager for this year. The candidates are Gordon P. Floyd '15 and Philip W. Porritt '15. There will be no formal meeting at that time but the polls will be open for the half hour at which time the ballots may be cast. The Student Council will have charge of the election.

1913 FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

At a meeting yesterday afternoon the Faculty approved the football schedule for next fall. The teams were chosen according to the well established schedule policy of meeting the colleges in New England of Bowdoin's scholastic standing and size. There were this year, as always, a number of the bigger college teams who desired games in the early part of the season, but these were refused. The teams played next fall are the same as those which this year's team met but the order of games is changed. The Trinity game is in Portland this year as also the Tufts game and the Vermont game is in Manchester. The schedule follows:

Sept. 27—Ft. McKinley at Brunswick.
Oct. 4—Wesleyan at Middletown.
Oct. 11—Trinity at Portland.
Oct. 18—Vermont at Manchester.
Oct. 25—Colby at Waterville.
Nov. 1—Bates at Lewiston.
Nov. 8—Maine at Brunswick.
Nov. 15—Tufts at Portland.
Asst. Manager MacDonald has arranged a second team game with Hebron for Oct. 4.

NEW BASEBALL COACH

Manager Callahan announces that the contract has been signed with Mr. Daniel M. Coogan to coach the Bowdoin baseball team this spring.

Coogan is a veteran baseball coach and player. For the past seven years he has coached Cornell and developed some of the best college teams in this section of the country. His resignation at that institution was caused by the securing of a coach for both baseball and football, with the purpose of strengthening the football situation. Before coaching at Cornell, Coogan also coached the Columbia baseball team. He attended the University of Pennsylvania where he played on the varsity team for three years and was captain his senior year. During his last year there he was considered by many the best college catcher in the country. After leaving college he played in the Tri-State League and later on the Washington team in the American League. Since his active playing career he has been connected with several professional teams in the capacity of manager. Mr. Coogan is about forty years old, weighs 117 pounds, is an Irishman by birth and speech and is married.

The management is very lucky in securing a man with such wide experience in league and college ball and one who is familiar with the problems of the college coach.

With the new gymnasium for winter practice, the material now in sight and the new coach, prospects are exceedingly bright for a champion-ship team. It will be noticed that Mr. Coogan is a catcher and will be especially fitted to develop battery men, a point where our team seems likely to be weakest this year.

BASEBALL SCHEDULE

The following schedule was submitted by Mgr. F. X. Callahan to the faculty and the Athletic Council and was accepted. There remain two dates pending. The team will play three games here, the remainder to be played away:

April 16—Brown at Providence.
April 17—R. I. State at Kingston.
April 18—Wesleyan at Middletown.
April 19—Trinity at Hartford.
April 22—Harvard at Cambridge.
April 23—Andover at Andover.
April 26—Maine Centrals at Portland.
April 30—Tufts at Medford.
May 1—Pending.
May 3—Colby at Waterville.
May 7—Maine at Brunswick.
May 10—Maine at Orono.
May 14—Colby at Brunswick.
May 21—Pending.
May 24—Tufts at Portland.
May 30—Bates at Lewiston.
June 6—Bates at Brunswick.
THE POLAR BEAR AND BOWDOIN

One of the most unique and original suggestions made on the campus for some time was the motion of Doctor Whittier at the last Athletic Council meeting that the polar bear be adopted as Bowdoin's official mascot. The suggestion was unanimously adopted by that body and will, no doubt, receive the official sanction of the Student Council, faculty and all other powers that be. While this stamping of the College seal on the Arctic animal gives him only official residence at Bowdoin there is no doubt but that he will in the course of time become the accepted and traditional mascot of all Bowdoin affairs and rank with Princeton's tiger and the Yale bull dog. Dr. Copeland of the Athletic Council has been appointed to make a biological investigation of Mr. Bruin and report any irregularities of descent or habit which may unfit him for the position. A song celebrating the new mascot is now in order.

The significance of the choice is apparent to Bowdoin men. Of course the color is in harmony with the Bowdoin white. Then, too, the rather northerly position of Bowdoin as a college makes the selection a fitting one. But the prime reason for the choice is the special significance of Bowdoin in the exploration at the polar regions and is a tribute to Hubbard '57, Peary '77 and McMillan '97, who made the North Pole expedition and discovery possible. It is hoped that a healthy specimen of our adopted mascot may be procured for the new trophy room.

INTERScholastic Indoor Carnival

The Athletic Council, at its last meeting, voted to have an indoor interscholastic track meet and relay carnival on or about March 15 under the auspices and direction of the gymnasium management. It is probable that all the schools in the state who have been represented in the annual Bowdoin invitation outdoor track meet will be invited to send teams to compete in this meet. This will be the first indoor track meet to be held in the new building. Crowell '13, manager of last year's track team, will probably have the affair in charge.

B. A. A. Relay

The Bowdoin relay team will race the University of Maine team at the B. A. A. meet at Boston Feb. 8. It was said at first that this race was not considered favorably by the Bowdoin management, as it was thought better for Bowdoin to further her athletic relations with colleges out of the state.

With the exception of Cole, who graduated last June, the B. A. A. relay team of last year is left in college. Haskell, Tuttle and Skolfield are the three who ran last year. The distance run by each man is 390 yards. Nearly 40 men are out for the team, and with so much good material, it is thought that Bowdoin will turn out an exceptionally strong quartet to race the Orono team.

DEBATING COUNCIL BANQUET

A debating council banquet will be held this evening at eight o'clock at Hotel Eagle. Douglas '13 will be toastmaster and Professor Henry L. Chapman will be the guest of honor. Debating plans for the coming season will be discussed.

LECTURE THURSDAY

Enoch Bell, a Yale graduate and former missionary in Japan will speak at Memorial Hall at 7:30 Thursday evening. Mr. Bell, at present Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, will have as his subject "America in the Far East," and will describe the work of Hiwale '00. This subject will be interesting to every man in College because there he can learn about the work of Hiwale, the Bowdoin missionary, from one who really knows.

TRIANGULAR LEAGUE DEBATES

Bowdoin will debate Hamilton and Wesleyan this year. The subject to be discussed will be: Resolved, that the high cost of living would be materially reduced by a tariff for revenue only. The date for the intercollegiate debate is not definitely settled as yet, but will probably be April 10. The manner of choosing the varsity teams will be the same as last year, and the trials for the Bradbury debate will be held Thursday, Feb. 13, in Memorial Hall. There is a splendid opportunity to make the teams, and it is hoped that Bowdoin spirit will manifest itself properly in this important activity.

IN THE GYMNASIUM

Since the installation of the net, baseball practice is settling down to routine. Banks have been built on the corners of the running track. It is promised that the football goal posts will be installed in a few days. The football squad is at present working out forward passes and simple plays.

Mr. Holmes started his voluntary class in heavy gymnastics last Saturday afternoon. Twenty men reported. The hours for this class are from 4:30 to 5:30 every Saturday afternoon.
MUSICAL CLUB CONCERT

The Musical Clubs gave their second concert of the season at Bath last Friday evening. The concert was under the auspices of the Tuesday Club and was held in Music Hall. Thirty-five men were in the concert. The program follows:

1. (a) Rise Sons of Bowdoin
   Words by Sills ‘01
   Burnett
   (b) We'll Sing to Old Bowdoin
   Words by Fogg ‘02
   GLEE AND MANDOLIN CLUBS

2. Winter Song
   GLEE CLUB
   Winter Song
   Bullard

3. The Teddy Bears' Picnic
   GLEE CLUB
   The Teddy Bears' Picnic
   Bratton
   MANDOLIN CLUB
   The Teddy Bears' Picnic
   Englemann

4. Solo
   Mr. Eaton
   Selected

5. Boating Song
   GLEE CLUB
   Boating Song
   Richardson
   PART II
   MANDOLIN CLUB
   Trinkaus

Thirty-three men left yesterday with the Clubs for the first long trip of the season. Concerts will be given at Bangor, Old Town, Fairfield and Skowhegan.

CLASS SINGING COMPETITION

Practice will soon be started for the competitive class singing. A committee from the Student Council now has the matter in charge. There will also be a committee in each class to take charge of the work. The songs have not yet been decided upon but are now under consideration. There will be a rehearsal of the senior class in Memorial Hall, Feb. 10.

THE BOYS ASSOCIATION

The Brunswick Boys' Association has organized and started regular meetings. Classes are held in the old gym from 4:30 to 5:30 every afternoon and on Saturday at 10:30 A., M., with Frank Smith '12 and Badger '14 as leaders. The ninety boys now enrolled will be divided into groups of ten each. Each group will have a social meeting once a week besides the two meet-
NUMBER OF MEN WHO HAVE THUS FAR REPORTED INDICATES THAT TOO LITTLE ATTENTION IS BEING DEVOTED TO THIS BRANCH OF SPORT. MANY SEASONS OF THOROUGH TRAINING ARE REQUIRED TO DEVELOP A TEAM WHICH CAN SUCCEED AGAINST ITS RIVALS FROM THE LARGER COLLEGES, EVEN UNDER THE FAVORABLE CONDITIONS OF THE PRESENT. THERE ARE PLENTY OF UNDERGRADUATES WHO HAVE THE TIME TO SPARE FOR FENCING AND THE ABILITY TO MAKE GOOD. TO THESE MAY THERE BE ADDED THE INCLINATION!

COLLEGE PREACHER SUNDAY

The College preacher next Sunday will be Henry Van Dyke, D.D., LL.D., the professor of English Literature at Princeton University. Dr. Van Dyke is an author and a lecturer of wide repute and the opportunity to hear him will, no doubt, be taken advantage of by all.

Club and Council Meetings

A meeting of the Student Council was held last Thursday evening in the Deutscher Verein room. It was decided to hold the next college smoker Feb. 17. It is planned to make this both a business meeting and good fellowship gathering. The usual rally committee has the affair in charge.

The committee on the plan for regulation of undergraduate activities reported two schemes. One is the arrangement of activities into majors and minors and a regulation as to the number of majors and minors one student may have in one collegiate year. The other system is a regulation according to hours required for each activity. The former scheme seemed to meet with most favor and was discussed in detail. The report was, however, not finally adopted but will be discussed more thoroughly and acted upon at a meeting to be held this week. The plan, if adopted, will probably come up before the student body for a vote at the February smoker.

The Athletic Council held a meeting recently at which the football schedule was adopted. A plan submitted by Manager Donahue for the election of temporary tennis captain was approved also. The plan is for the eight best men in last fall’s tournament to meet and chose one of their number for the position. Estimates of receipts and expenditures for football, baseball and track were also approved.

The Gibbons Club held a meeting at the Delta Kappa Epsilon House last Tuesday evening. Father St. Martin gave a short talk.

The Deutscher Verein held its second meeting
A large number of students saw Harrington Reynolds in an excellent presentation of "The Angelus" at the Cumberland last Tuesday night. During the week of Feb. 19 a stock company will be at the Cumberland and after that "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford" will appear.

Among the courses in Mission Study which will be given next semester are the course on the "Religions of the World" under Sweet '13 and the course on "City Problems" under Pike '13. The latter course will be along the line on which Mr. Cutts spoke to the Seniors recently.

The baseball net, said to be the largest thing of the kind ever made, is now being installed in the Athletic Building. Beside the main net, which protects the top and sides of the building, there will be a partition between the space for baseball and track. It was only with great difficulty that a manufacturer was found who would take the contract for it.

With the Faculty

Dr. Gerhard Bräuner of the Mt. Pleasant Academy at Ossining, New York, is to have charge of Professor Files' classes next semester. Dr. Bräuner was a student of Modern Languages at the Universities of Göttingen, Freiburg, and Marburg, receiving his doctorate at the latter institution magna cum laude. He has taught at the Gymnasium in Dessau, his subjects being German and French. He has traveled extensively in Europe.

In approving the baseball schedule for this year the faculty made the provision that in the future no fewer than one-third of the games be played in Brunswick.

On the thirtieth of this month Dean Sills will sail from New York on the Caronia. He will spend his time abroad in Egypt, Palestine, and Italy, returning by way of England. He will reach Brunswick early in September.

Professor Files sails from Boston on the Canopia Feb. 19 for an extended automobile trip abroad. He intends to tour through Italy, France, and Germany, and will return to Brunswick in June.

Dr. Whittier has been elected faculty delegate to the alumni dinners in Portland and Boston. Professor Files was recently elected vice-president and director of the Union National Bank of Brunswick.

Professor W. B. Catlin and Professor James L. McConaughy have been elected members of the Brunswick Club.

Professor Wass of the Music Department was.
runner-up in the billiard tournament at the Brunswick.

The committee of the general alumni association which was recently formed to consider the advisability of forming an alumni council, met in the Dean's office Saturday evening. The committee is composed of Charles T. Hawes '76 of Bangor, John Clair Minot '96 of Boston, Dean K. C. M. Sills '01 and Prof. W. E. Lunt '04 of Cornell.

Professors Sills and Hutchins attended the dedication of the new science building at Bates College last Tuesday.

Professor McConaughy completed the work for his Ph. D. degree at Columbia University last week by passing an oral examination on his thesis "The School Drama," which will soon be published by the university. The degree will be personally awarded at the June commencement. Professor McConaughy has succeeded in obtaining this degree in much less time than is usually required and is one of the youngest doctors ever honored by Columbia.

The Library Table

The Rhodes Scholarship, by George R. Parkin, organizing secretary of the Rhodes Scholarship Trust, gives an admirable explanation of matters regarding the Trust: its inception, its history, its aims, its problems, the opportunities it offers, and its methods of administration.

All other Library subjects must yield space to a mention of a most important accession—The Oxford English Dictionary, a new English dictionary on historical principles, founded mainly on the materials collected by the Philological Society, and edited by Sir James A. H. Murray.

The dictionary is probably more elaborate than any other already completed or promising early completion. The alphabet through "R" is now finished and occupies nine volumes. One obtains an idea of the scope of the work by learning that it records over twice as many words, illustrates three times as many, and contains ten times as many illustrative quotations, as does the Century, which, up to this time, has been considered the most extensive dictionary.

Although an Englishman deserves the credit for editing, American scholars have figured very prominently in furnishing the citations used in arriving at the correct definition of the words. For the past forty years, voluntary readers in both England and America have been sending in to the editor passages illustrating some word, or use of a word, that was unusual. It is interesting to note that this new dictionary was the one which the Maine Legislature used as authority for the correct definition of "post-officers."

Intercollegiate Notes

An undergraduates' economics society was recently organized at Harvard.

A chess club has been formed recently at Colby.

By an investigation at New York University by the department of sociology it was found that the average student there spends about $400 a year. The lowest year's expense was $308 and the highest was more than $800. Only forty-two per cent. of the undergraduates live in the college dormitories, while thirty-two per cent. of these go home over Sunday. The average time put on outside activities was eight hours a week, with the maximum at about 20 hours.

As a movement in the direction of real scholarship Harvard University has decided to enforce new requirements in the division of history and economics. Hereafter it is proposed to test not the student's ability to remember discontinued unrelated facts but his ability to think, largely and consecutively. It is planned that the student, at the end of his course, submit to an examination covering all work in the previous three or four years, and no man who fails to pass this examination satisfactorily will be entitled to his degree. The scheme involves faculty supervision of the student's outside reading and is an effort to make the man appreciate that learning is not just one thing after another, each preceding thing to be forgotten as soon as learned.

As the result of a canvass of Harvard seniors two hundred and three men expressed a willingness to undertake some sort of social service work after graduation.

The seventh annual triangular debate between Williams, Amherst and Wesleyan, which took place last Friday, resulted in a three-cornered tie, the home team of each college winning in each case.

A compilation entitled "What Harvard Men Spend" is published in the new edition of the University Register. The figures, calculated on the basis of reports by a representative group, indicate that aside from money spent for tuition, room rent, and regular board, the students resident in Cambridge spend yearly about $1,576,330 on what might be called the incidentals of college life.

The enrolment of Dartmouth and its allied schools for the year 1912-1913 is 1394 as compared with 1302 in the year 1911-1912. Dartmouth drew fewer students this year from Massachusetts and New Hampshire, but offset this by a marked increase in the number of western students.

Fraternities at Cornell are required to pay a special tax of $11,500 to finance the building of a new high school at Ithaca.

The seniors at the University of Indiana have chosen for their distinctive class dress corduroy trousers for the men and mackinaw coats for the women.

G. C. Taylor, a student at the University of Missouri, is paying his way through school on the proceeds from the milk of five cows which he milks each morning at 4 o’clock.

A petition is being signed by faculty members and students at Harvard asking that the faculty abolish the practice of holding “beer nights.” A divinity student is the leader of the crusade.

Clog dancing is a part of the physical training course for men at the University of Michigan.

Four thousand eight hundred and fifty-six foreigners are enrolled in the universities and colleges of the United States as regular students.

The registration at Williams is the smallest in seven years.

An Illini Club, consisting of one hundred Illinois men, is one of the strongest state clubs at the University of Michigan.

Cheer leaders will no longer be chosen by vote at Princeton as it is believed that favoritism is often shown by the student body and men are often elected without having any real ability as cheer leaders.

A “Thirty Club” has been formed at the University of Texas. It numbers upperclassmen who are engaged in university journalistic work, and its object is to improve the university publications.

Leland Stanford University recently defeated the champion soccer team of Australia by the score of 13 to 12.

At the annual class scrap at the University of Oklahoma this year, baling wire was used to tie the hands of the opposing classmen.

Professor John W. Burgess, who was dean of the graduate faculties at Columbia University until his retirement last June, makes some caustic comments in his annual report, which he has just submitted, on the founding of institutions of research by men of wealth. He says that they are created in direct opposition to the furtherance of the aims and ideals of true universities.

Students of the American College in Rome have won the usual number of prizes at the great Catholic University de Propagande Fide, founded in 1662 by Gregory XV, and well known from the fact that it has trained and sent forth so many missionaries to distant lands. Six first medals and fifteen second medals went to Americans.

CALENDAR

Tuesday, Jan. 21.—Musical Club Concert at Old Town.

8 P. M. Banquet of the Debating Council at Hotel Eagle.

7:30 Meeting of the Somerset County Club at the D. K. E. House.

7:00 Bugle Board Meeting at Hubbard Hall.

Wednesday, Jan. 22.—Musical Club Concert at Fairfield.

1 P. M. Election of Fencing Manager at Memorial Hall.

Thursday, Jan. 23.—Musical Club Concert at Skowhegan.

1 P. M. Meeting of the Board of Managers.

7 P. M. Lecture by Mr. Bell on the Work of Hiwale ’09.

Friday, Jan. 24.—7 P. M. Debate under auspices of English VI.

Saturday, Jan. 25.—4:30 P. M. Voluntary Class in Heavy Gymnastics in Gymnasium.

7 P. M. Rehearsal of the Dramatic Club.

7 P. M. Fencing Practice under Coach White.

Sunday, Jan. 26.—College Preacher, Dr. Henry Van Dyke, D.D., LL.D.

Monday, Jan. 27.—Musical Club Concert in Portland.

Tuesday, Jan. 28.—8 P. M. Production of “The Little Minister,” at the Cumberland Theatre, by the Brunswick Dramatic Club.

Alumni Department

’60.—Dr. Charles A. Stephens and Miss Minnie A. Plummer, the famous Maine prima donna, known as Mlle. Scaler, were united in marriage at South Paris, Me., on Dec. 26th. Dr. Stephens’ stories of field and camp have thrilled the blood of American boys for more than 40 years. He has long been connected with the editorial staff of the Youth’s Companion.

’81.—Edgar O. Achorn, LL.D., has an article in the London Spectator of January 4 on the Monroe Doctrine.

’84.—Once again it becomes the sad duty of the Orient to record the death of one of its former editors, Rev. Charles W. Longren, Ph.D., late of Redlands, Cal.

Dr. Longren was born Feb. 27, 1857, at Wirserum, Sweden and came to this country when still a boy. He prepared for college at Oberlin Acad-
In 1890, he left this state, holding a pastorate in Barre, Vt., for four years, and going from there to Franklin, Mass., where he remained for five years. In 1899, on account of his health, he went to Colorado where he held pastorates at Montross and Longmont. During this time he was awarded a degree of Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Denver, showing the appreciation of his work in the West. In 1909, he was called to Weiser, Idaho, and went from there to southern California about a year ago. He died November 5, 1912.

Dr. Longren was not only an earnest worker in the church, an eloquent speaker and a successful pastor, but he was also always interested in the larger life of the community wherever he happened to be. He will be sadly missed, not only in the Congregational Church where he was an influential and helpful leader, but also by a large circle of personal friends both in the East and in the West.

'09.—Herbert Edgar Holmes, the well-known Lewiston lawyer and editor and the present State Librarian has made a valuable contribution to the historical literature of the state in his recent publication, "The Makers of Maine." Realizing that the history of our own state is given very little place, even in our own schools, Mr. Holmes has attempted to fill a gap in our history which has been especially overlooked. He bears especial emphasis on the work of the Jesuit missions in the state. The book is of the popular type, most interesting on account of the many concrete examples introduced to illustrate the trend of the early settlements, and is a very interesting story as well as an authentic history.

'05.—Guy B. Mayo, who was a prominent member of the Progressive National Convention, is also assuming an important place in the State Legislative Committee of the Pennsylvania Progressives, who control the State Republican Convention.

'01.—Thomas W. Bowler, recently superintendent and principal of schools at Vineyard Haven,

'02.—Among the recent bulletins published by is now the head of the Latin department at the Westfield, Mass., High School.

the U. S. Geological survey is one on "Exploration of Salines in Silver Peak, Nevada," by R. B. Dole.

'04.—Once again it becomes the sad duty of the Orient to report the death of one of our younger alumni, Alphonso Clyde Merryman, a man well known to the more recent classes of the College because of his residence in this vicinity and one of the most popular men in his class.

Mr. Merryman was born in Freeport, where his mother still lives, in 1882. He graduated from the high school of that town in 1900 and entered Bowdoin in the following fall. After graduation from college he remained here for a year to take a post graduate course, and also was an assistant to Prof. Lee for two years. After leaving Bowdoin, he became the principal of a high school in Milwaukee, and held this position for three years. From there he went to Superior where he has spent the last three years as a professor of chemistry and biology.

In 1909, Prof. Merryman came east and married Miss Annie Harrington of Brunswick. This year he had built a fine residence at Superior and moved into it just before his death. He died Dec. 8th from blood-poisoning resulting from an abscess.

Mr. Merryman was very popular in his undergraduate days here, and the same qualities which made him so well liked here made many friends for him in the West. He was a man unusually deep and conscientious in his work, a good instructor, and a true friend. He will be sadly missed from the class circle, and by his many friends in the two different parts of the country.

'09.—Dr. Carroll M. Webber Medic '09, has been appointed superintendent of the new Edward Mason Dispensary in Portland. Dr. Webber took both the academic and medical courses in Bowdoin. He was a member of the Zeta Psi Fraternity and of the Alpha Kappa Kappa Medical Society.

'10.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Abbott of Portland announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Abbott, to James F. Hamburger of Hyde Park, Mass. Miss Abbott graduated from Portland High School in 1909, where she was one of the most popular girls of the class. "Jimmy" was popular man of his class at their Ivy exercises, and is well-known to the present undergraduates. He is now connected with a business house in Boston.

'12.—Elden G. Barbour has taken charge of the Vinalhaven High School. He is filling the position recently vacated by H. P. Marston '11 who has gone to Massachusetts.
COLLECTION OF THE BLANKET TAX

On the first three days of next semester, February 10, 11, 12, the second installment of the blanket tax will be due. The Board of Managers will have an agent to receive the money and issue the student ticket on these days in the Manager's room in the new gymnasium. The office hours will be from 8.30 to 12.30 and 1.00 to 5.00 p. m. On receipt of the tax the students will receive a coupon ticket admitting to home games and other contests of an intercollegiate nature. At 8.00 p. m., Feb. 12, the Board of Managers will meet in the manager's room to consider applications for an extension of time in payment of the tax. These applications may be made either in person or in writing. Failure to pay the tax on these three days or to make application for extension of time will debar a student from the membership in the A.S.B.C. and its privileges for the ensuing semester.

FENCING MANAGER

Gordon P. Floyd was elected fencing manager for the ensuing year at an election held last Wednesday noon in Memorial Hall.

The fencing squad is practicing daily in the new gymnasium. It is in charge of Mr. Charles White, the fencing master of the Pianelli Club of Augusta. Mr. White comes to Brunswick every Saturday night to coach the squad. Several new men of promise have already come out and it is hoped that others will follow their example.

COLLEGE RECEIVES BEQUEST

President Hyde announced in Chapel last Tuesday morning that Bowdoin is to receive $50,000 from the estate of the late Levi M. Stewart of Indianapolis, Ind. This generous gift is made unconditionally and is to be used as the college authorities deem best. The notification of the gift was made by David T. Stewart, the donor's brother and executor. A similar gift of $50,000 was made to Bates College and $75,000 was given to Dartmouth College from the same estate.

Levi M. Stewart, a graduate of Dartmouth College and a former resident of Maine, went to Indiana as a young man, and there acquired property which later became valuable building sites in Indianapolis. He died recently, unmarried, leaving the settlement of his estate to his brother, David D. Stewart, who received the degree of Master of Arts from Bowdoin in 1872. The latter is a prominent lawyer in St. Albans and a veteran Maine legislator of considerable prominence, having served several terms in both House and Senate and at one time occupied the position of President of the Senate.

President Hyde also announced that the contribution of Hon. John S. Hyde of Bath for the General Thomas Worcester Hyde Athletic Building had been increased from the original $25,000 to $42,000, a sum covering the entire cost of the structure.

ORCHESTRA CLASS

A course in the orchestra will be held next semester under the direction of Professor Wass. The class will meet every Wednesday evening at 8.00 p. m. in the Christian Association room. All who are interested are urged to attend the meeting to be held on the first Wednesday of the next semester and bring instruments.

PRELIMINARY B.A.A. TRIALS

A squad of 21 men ran in the preliminary trials for the relay team that will compete against the University of Maine at the B.A.A. meet February 8. Although no time was given out, it is understood that some of the men ran exceptionally fast.

Those who tried out are: L. Donahue '14, Cummings '13, C. Tuttle '14, Gardner '13, Payson '14, P. Smith '15, Russell '14, Jones '13, Haskell '13, Floyd '15, MacWilliams '15, Emery '13, Hall '13, Tarbox '14, Thompson '15, A. Stetson '15, Richardson '16, Walker '13, Melcher '15, Coxe '15, Skolfield '13.

There will be other trials held this week and next and from the results of all of them the four men and alternate will be chosen.

BOWDOIN SONG CONTEST RENEWED

Professor Frank E. Woodruff, chairman of the Committee of Judges for the Bowdoin Prize Song Contest, which ended Jan. 15, has announced the following decision:
"After careful consideration the Committee on Music has decided to continue the Bowdoin Song Contest until May 31. The Committee recognizes the merit of the verses offered in the competition that closed Jan. 15, and thinks that as the poetical expression of various phases of college life, both before and after graduation, they are, in many cases, admirably adopted for publication in one of the College papers; but the Committee is of the opinion that they do not meet satisfactorily the required and necessary conditions of a general and permanent college song. The prize is not therefore given to any of the songs hitherto received, and the contest will be continued until May 31, in the hope that other contributions may be received which will more adequately meet the conditions of a desired college song."

The prize offered in this contest by the Music Committee of the Faculty is fifty dollars. Competitors are requested to send their songs, signed with a nom de plume, and accompanied by the composer's name in a sealed envelope, to Mr. Edward H. Wass, chairman of the Music Committee.

DEBATING PROSPECTS

Directly after the commencement of the second semester the debating season at Bowdoin will start in earnest. Already the candidates for the Bradbury debates are preparing their parts for the trials, which will occur Feb. 13. At these trials four teams will be chosen to compete on Feb. 27 and 28, and on the basis of the work in these two debates, two teams will be selected to represent the College in the debates with Hamilton and Wesleyan. On April 10, Bowdoin will meet Hamilton at Brunswick and Wesleyan at Middletown. The question for both the triangular and the Bradbury debates will be: Resolved, That a tariff for revenue only would materially reduce the high cost of living.

Bowdoin's debating prospects this year are very good, for in addition to the four men now in college who made last year's teams, Bowdoin has an abundance of other promising candidates, who will assure lively competition, and make the veterans show their mettle to retain their places.

LIMITATIONS SCHEME

The plan for limitation of student activities submitted to the Student Council by a committee appointed for that purpose is printed below for the information of students, faculty and alumni. It is felt by the Council that the matter is of such interest to the College at large that expressions of opinion in communications to the Orient and discussions in student meetings are advisable before action is taken on the plan. Consequently the Council has deferred action on the committee report until there has been given time for expression of opinion on the matter. At the smoker to be held February 17 there will be given an opportunity for free discussion and faculty members and alumni are invited to be present.

It will be noticed in the scheme that a number of honorary offices such as class officers, membership on student and athletic councils, prize competitions, etc., are not included in the scheme of limitation.

THE REGULATION OF INDIVIDUAL PARTICIPATION IN UNDERGRADUATE ACTIVITIES.

The undergraduate activities shall be divided into two groups known as majors and minors.

The activities and offices known as majors shall be as follows:

Managers, assistant managers, and players on the Varsity football, baseball and track teams; members of intercollegiate debating teams; Masque and Gown president, manager and members of the first ten parts in the cast; members and officers of musical clubs; editor-in-chief and business manager of the Bugle, chairman of the Quill Board, managing editor of the Orient and business manager of Bowdoin Publishing Co.

The activities and offices known as minors shall be as follows:

Varsity fencing, relay and cross-country teams; members and art editor of Bugle Board, Orient and Quill Boards; assistant managers Bowdoin Publishing Co.; band; executive officers of Christian Association and chairman of Social Service, Bible Study and Missionary Committees of same; president of Debating Council, Good Government Club and Chemical Club.

No student can engage in more than two majors and one minor in one collegiate year; nor shall the three occur simultaneously. Nor can he engage in more than one major and two minors.

Any student elected to, appointed to, or participating in any activity in excess of the number prescribed above shall be required to resign from the same immediately and the office or position shall be declared vacant automatically. The enforcement of these regulations shall be in the hands of the Student Council and the secretary of the same shall receive from those in charge of the various activities a list of its personnel.

Exceptions to these provisions may be granted on petition by a five-sixths vote of the Council.

These regulations are to take effect beginning with the college year 1913-1914.

These regulations may be adopted by a majority vote of the members present at any meeting of the A.S.B.C. and may be amended by such a vote.

DEBATING COUNCIL BANQUET

Tuesday evening, Jan. 21, at Hotel Eagle the Debating Council held a banquet, marking the approach of the end of the first semester. After an excellent dinner, Douglas '13, president of the Council, presided at a brief session of speechmaking. The principal speakers were Professor William Hawley Davis and Professor Wilmot B. Mitchell, both of the English Department.

The members of the Sophomore and Freshman debating teams, which debated recently, attended the affair as guests of the Council.

The Council has decided to make this occasion a semi-annual instead of an annual gathering, as it has been until this year.

THE NEW YORK ALUMNI

A circular letter has been issued recently by the secretary of the Bowdoin College Alumni Association of New York City with the purpose of bringing before the members of that body a number of matters of interest.

Most important of these is the announcement of the proposed New York concert of the Bowdoin College Glee and Mandolin Club. The letter solicits subscriptions for the support of the venture and outlines the general entertainment to be given the club members.

The second announcement is of a weekly Bowdoin luncheon on Tuesday nights from 12:30 to 1:30 at the Restaurant Français, 140 Fulton St., Manhattan.

Blanks are issued with the letter, to be filled out by prospective employers, and employees among the members of the association with a view to establishing an employment bureau similar to that of the Boston Alumni Association.

There is an enclosure with the letter explaining the proposed college club of New York City which aims to serve as the home of all college alumni associations, etc.

The circular closes with a complete announcement of the forty-third annual banquet and dinner of the Association to be held at the Sherman Square Hotel, January 31.

MISSIONARY LECTURE

In Memorial Hall last Thursday evening Enoch Bell, Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, delivered a most interesting, as well as instructive, lecture on "America in the Far East."

The speaker said that the nations of the East are undergoing a period of change. Intellectual revolutions are moving from the leaders down to the masses. "Africa is not only becoming a white man's country, but a country in which we may become acquainted with the natives themselves." These countries have great need of English and American missionaries. Turkey wants to learn of our civilization. India is having religious reforms, and she is reaching out her hands to us for help. Japan has a tremendous need of a religion, for Buddha is still worshipped by thousands of people.

Mr. Bell spoke of the work of certain Bowdoin alumni in the East, and described at length that of Hiwale '09. Robert College, founded by Dr. Cyrus Hamlin '35, has a great educational influence. "No work done by Americans has been of more service than the introduction of industries. * * * The American Christian tries to get into the natives' lives and to give them what they need; and he has brought the spirit of life into these conditions." The great orphanages give a new knowledge of life to children. The uplift and education of women is very marked. The Doshisha Girls' School is well known by its work of this kind. The medical and surgical work is a wonderful thing to these Eastern people, who flock from miles around to the physician and surgeon, who can give them marvelous remedies. Nurses are trained for work among the people. Dispensaries are built; there is one in Hiwale's own town. Hiwale, a member of the highest caste of India, is giving his life to the members of the lowest. He has recently started a boarding school. The missionaries throughout these countries do religious, industrial and philanthropic work; and as we give them help, we have a share in this work.

MISSION STUDY CLASSES

The Mission Study Classes begin their six weeks' course on "Modern Problems" on Sunday, February 16, at four o'clock. Pike '13 leads course 1, "City Problems," in the Deutscher Verein room, assisted by Professor Catlin, Douglas, Jones, and P. White. Course 1 is for seniors and juniors. Course 2, "Religions of the World," in the Classical room, is led by Sweet '13, assisted by Crowell, L. Dodge, and Fogg. This course is for seniors and juniors. "Chinese Revolution," led by Leigh, Brown Simpson, and Merrill, MacCormick, Livingston, Rawson, West, is for sophomores and freshmen. Course 3 meets in the dormitories and at the different fraternity houses.
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

Published Every Tuesday of the Collegiate Year by
The Bowdoin Publishing Company in the Interest of the Students of
Bowdoin College

EDITORIAL BOARD

Douglas H. McMurtrie, 1913,
Robert D. Leigh, 1914,
Fred D. Wish, 1913,

Editor-in-Chief
Managing Editor
Alumni Editor

DEPARTMENT AND ASSOCIATE EDITORS

R. E. Simpson, 1914,
A. H. MacCormick, 1915,
F. P. McKenney, 1915,
J. F. Rollins, 1915,

The Library Table
On The Campus
With The Faculty
Intercolligiate Notes

L. E. Jones, 1913
V. R. Leavitt, 1913
K. A. Robinson, 1914
G. H. Talbot, 1915

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted.

All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager of the Bowdoin Publishing Co. Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

BOWDOIN PUBLISHING COMPANY

H. B. Walker, 1913,
Alfred E. Gray, 1914,
E. L. Sylvester, 1914,

Business Manager
Assistant Manager
Assistant Manager

Entered at Post Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII. JANUARY 28, 1913 No. 24

Fair Work

As there is no honor system generally adopted in the college, the Orient is inclined to say a few words prayerfully in regard to the coming examinations. May every man as he enters the examination room remember that the Bowdoin tradition of fair work is as important and as binding as that of fair play.

Thanks!

The Orient is glad to acknowledge the contribution made by a member of the college community which is published in this issue. Such unsolicited items come as a pleasant surprise and are much appreciated. The department devoted to the Faculty is open at all times to that body for announcements, notices and items; the Library Table and alumni departments are likewise open to general contributions.

In this connection we would like to suggest to those in charge of college organizations and those issuing news of college interest that the Orient considers it a great favor to have the first general publication of such news made in its columns. Of course, there are some pieces of news that demand immediate publication but there are others that can wait until the Orient is issued. Thus may our issues become less and less of a review of the daily papers, and more and more a Bowdoin publication.

The Tax Due

By the time the next issue of the Orient appears, the time for paying the blanket tax will be nearly at an end. Again we wish to urge the importance of meeting this obligation promptly. The proverb that he gives twice who gives early applies directly in this case. If the plan succeeds at present, the weight of tradition will make success easier of attainment in the future. The test comes now.

The Limitations Scheme

The plan for the limitation of the college honors of individuals presented to the Student Council by one of its committees is printed in another column. The Council has discussed the arguments for and against the proposed system and yet is not sure that it has considered all possible results. In order that the general sentiment may be learned, it is desired that everyone who has ideas on the subject will make ready to place them before the college at the smoker next month. In this way the Council may benefit by a large number of opinions and be able to make definite progress toward the solution of the question.

THE JUNIOR ASSEMBLY

Plans are now under way for the first Junior Assembly to be held in Memorial Hall, February 14. Since the decision has been made that the gymnasium be used only for the Ivy and Commencement Hops the committee has decided to make an effort to make these assemblies of a different character than heretofore. As the date for the first dance falls on St. Valentine's day, there will be a number of features in the way of decorations, etc. As the class is financially responsible for the success of the affair it is possible to make these affairs more elaborate than has been the case in the past. The idea of the committee is, however, to make these two winter dances ones in which the whole college shall participate rather than the members of the class and as much informality as is consistent will be aimed at.

PIANO RECITAL

The members of the student body who are taking the music courses and several of the faculty were given a recital at eight-thirty this morning by Mrs. Frank Dutton and Mrs. George Brickett of Augusta. Both of the pianists have been trained abroad and are considered to be among the best musicians of the state. The program was:

Second Concerto for piano and orchestra

Two pianos

Piano Duo—Venetian Scenes

THE LITTLE MINISTER

The cast for “The Little Minister,” which is to be given by the Brunswick Dramatic Club tonight at the Cumberland Theatre, is as follows:

Gavin Dishart, Professor William Hawley Davis
Lord Rintoul, Mr. John A. Cone
Capt. Halliwell, Professor J. A. McConaughy
Lady Babbie, Mrs. William Hawley Davis
Felice, Miss Ellen Baxter
Thwaits, Professor Joseph S. Davis
Tammas Whammond, Mr. Samuel B. Furbish
Rob Dow, Professor George T. Files
Micah Dow, Miss Iza Hutchinson
Sneeky Hobart, Dr. A. W. Haskell
Andrew Maelmeker, Mr. George R. Gardner
Silva Tosch, Mr. Arthur Johnson
Sergeant Davidson, Professor Joseph S. Davis
Joe Cruikshank, Dr. A. O. Gross
Nannie Webster, Mrs. Ernest Crawford
Jean, Miss Nathalie Withington

TRACK NEWS

The Maine intercollegiate track meet will be held May 16 at the University of Maine. With the Athletic Building Charlie Haskell’s squad has been able to steal a march on the other Maine colleges, and it is hoped that Bowdoin will retrieve herself for last year’s defeat.

James Lathrop, coach of the Bates track team, has been conferring with Captain Haskell and Manager Cole concerning two dual meets between Bates and Bowdoin. According to Lathrop’s proposed plan, one of these meets will be indoor and the other outdoor. No decision has yet been reached by the Bowdoin management, but the plan is being considered carefully. If the meets are arranged, the indoor meet will probably be in Brunswick, owing to the superior advantages of the new gymnasium, and the outdoor meet will probably be at Lewiston.

“Uriah” Hall will run the mile at the B. A. A. at Boston February 8, according to the present plans.

The interscholastic track meet is scheduled for Saturday, May 30. This date has not been decided upon finally, however, as the 23rd is also being considered.

INTERSCHOLASTIC DEBATING LEAGUE

Stanley Dole ’13, manager of the Bowdoin Interscholastic Debating League, has made arrangements to hold the preliminary debates on Feb. 28. On that date Lewiston High will meet Wilton Academy at Wilton, and Portland High will contest with Cony High at Augusta. The winning teams will debate at Brunswick on a later date not yet announced. The question for the three debates will be: Resolved, That the period during which the President of the United States shall be in office should be limited to six years. The coaches of the teams are as follows: Jones ’13, Portland High; LaCasce ’14, Lewiston High; Gage ’14, Cony High; Marr ’14, Wilton Academy.

The Debating Council is now pushing forward the formation of another interscholastic debating league, similar to the present organization. Although the proposed league is not yet wholly assured, the prospects of its becoming a reality are very good. The Westbrook and Edward Little High Schools have been practically secured as a nucleus, and it is hoped and expected that two of the other preparatory schools with which negotiations are now under way will soon join. According to present plans, Westbrook will debate Edward Little at Auburn on Feb. 28. The coaches for these teams have not yet been appointed.

THE BOYS ASSOCIATION

The Brunswick Boys’ Association, under the general supervision of Merrill ’14, is progressing rapidly. The enrollment has jumped to ninety-eight members, who are divided into eight day and two night classes. During the week many improvements have been made in the old gymnasium. An extensive equipment of gymnastic apparatus has been installed, and the southwest corner has been transformed into a spacious club room, where the different groups meet socially. The room has been made attractive by the addition of chairs, tables, reading matter, and the Y. M. C. A. piano.

The Association is not only a great advantage to the town boys, but also furnishes college men a great opportunity for unselfish, brotherly.
Resolved, Although Chase '14, Austin '15, Cross '15 and Fox '14 are giving assistance in the gymnasium, several more volunteers are wanted, and fellows in College who can spare time and are interested in the movement should confer with Merrill '14.

FEBRUARY MEETINGS

During the month of February the Y.M.C.A. will hold a series of five o'clock vesper services in the Chapel. The general subject of the meetings is the Church and social service. The speaker on February 13 will be Mr. A. A. Downes of Fairfield, Me. He will speak on “The Church and Medicine.” On February 20 Daniel Evans, D.D., of the Andover Theological School will speak on “The Church and the Laboring Man.” The speaker for February 27 has not been chosen yet but the subject is to be “The Church and Business.” There will be special music at all these services and all students and friends of the College are invited.

These meetings will take the place of the regular Thursday evening meetings and will close the calendar of Y.M.C.A. meetings for the year.

SUNDAY CHAPEL

The College was privileged to have Henry Van Dyke, D.D., LL.D., of Princeton University, as preacher at the morning service in the Church on the Hill and at the vesper service in the chapel last Sunday. For his subject at the afternoon service Dr. Van Dyke took the life and character of Joseph. He first reviewed his life and showed that although Joseph was influenced by the stage in which he was set and the drama in which he took part, there was something in his character which more than any of these counted for his greatness. He then proceeded to roughly classify these qualities of character as four dimensions—length, breadth, depth, and the unknown dimension. In dealing with each of these phases he applied the qualities of character to modern life. His exposition of the four qualities was in part as follows:

“Joseph was an idealist, a sentimentalist, a dreamer. How wonderfully he interpreted the king’s dream. But it is impossible for a man to live to his utmost without something of the inspiration of the dreamer. Every man is confronted with two paths, one that which leads to the prison of materialism and the other which leads to the life of idealism, and the choice must be made by every man, which he will take.

“Joseph was in the second place a big-hearted man, a man with a broad vision. He was ambitious and proud but free from avarice, vanity, malice and envy. The big-hearted man must have two qualities: willingness to forgive and willingness to give. They are seldom enough found together but when they are combined they make the splendid man.

“Then too Joseph had depth of character. In matters of great, fundamental principle, he was firm as a rock, he could not sin against his God. Great temptations, all the passions were arrayed against his principles, but he carried the day. In matters of judgment and taste compromises are sometimes desirable, but in matters of principle, never yield. What we need is not more moral enlightenment but more moral backbone. It may seem desirable at times to yield a point in principle to gain influence but by yielding we lose the very quality which makes for influence.

“Lastly, Joseph possessed the fourth great dimension, faith in God; in that was his power. He never dreamed for a moment that God would forsake him. In the luxury of Potiphar’s house, in the darkness of the Egyptian prison,—everywhere God was with him. So must it be with us if our lives are to be strong and glorious. Fight your fight to its end; you will win. Die your death in God’s service; He will bring you to the Promised Land.”

PUBLIC DEBATES

The Debating Council held a public debate Friday evening in Memorial Hall on the following question: Resolved, That a policy of progressive development of water power under state ownership and control should be adopted by the State of Maine. The affirmative was supported by Abbott ’13, Bickford ’14 and Hagar ’13, and the negative by Marr ’14, Dole ’13 and Cowan ’13. L. Dodge ’13 was the presiding officer and Professor Warren B. Catlin, Douglas ’13 and Verrill ’14 served as judges. The decision was awarded to the affirmative.

The last meeting of English VI for the year will take place Wednesday, Jan. 29, at 8.15 p.m. in Memorial Hall. The subject of discussion will be: Resolved, That President Taft’s proposal for relieving the financial stress now imposed upon the farmers should be enacted into law. The debaters will be: LaCasce ’14, McMahon ’13, Verrill ’14, for the affirmative; J. Brown ’13, Norton ’13, Tufts ’13, for the negative. Abbott ’13 will preside. The meeting is an open one, and the faculty and the students are urged to attend.
LET SUBJECTS PROSTRATE FALL

King Mike, who has kept his regal presence from his realm for the past twelvemonth, is again announced on the campus, as the following proclamation will bear witness:

OYEZ! OYEZ! OYEZ!

Having been appointed Master of the Household and Lord High Chamberlain by His Royal Highness, King Mike, I hereby give notice that His Highness will hold a levee at No. 18 North Winthrop Hall, February 15, at 8 o'clock. The loyal subjects will be expected to come and pay homage to this ruler, who is to take up his reign over us again. The Royal Kiss will be implanted upon a few deemed worthy of this high honor, and His Majesty and I will select from the list of the candidates the exalted group. Those chosen as attendant officers at the levee will be notified of their appointments before February 10.

All the humble slaves must be in the required court costume (not gym attire) and be thoroughly versed in the Court etiquette and procedure, and have memorized the Coronation Ode.

His Highness wishes to express his continued devotion to his kingdom and fervent interest in his subjects' welfare.

Given, this 19th of January,

Duc de Douglas.

Club and Council Meetings

The meeting of the Somerset County Club has been postponed until after examinations.

Eleven men from college met Monday night at the Delta Kappa Epsilon House and formed a Gun Club. The officers elected were: Skoffield '13, president; Loring '15, vice-President; T. E. Emery '13, secretary and treasurer; Heywood '14, field captain. Mr. Wheeler told some interesting anecdotes about trap shooting and explained the sport and the system of handicaps. The club will use the Brunswick Gun Club traps. Handicap shoots will be held during the spring for members, and if possible shoots will be arranged with other clubs. University of Maine already has a club, and the prospects are good that trap shooting will become a sport at Bowdoin as it is at many other colleges.

The Board of Managers held a meeting last Thursday. It was decided to use the sinking fund of the associated student body for loans and only the current sinking fund is to be used for that purpose. Matters of detail in regard to the collection of the second installment of the blanket tax were also discussed.

The Classical Club held its first meeting of the year last Tuesday evening, at the rooms of Dean Sills and the following new men were taken in: Robert Peter Coffin '15, Paul D. Demmons '15, Clarence T. Rogers '15, Aaron W. Hyler '15, William T. Livingston '15, Alfred H. Sweet '13. The members of the club discussed plans for the year and the rest of the evening was passed informally.

Officers for the year were chosen as follows: W. Dodge '13, president; Executive Committee, Professor Woodruff, W. Dodge '13 and Pope '14.

On account of the mid-year exams, there will be no meeting of the Chemical Club for the month of January, but it is planned to hold two meetings next month.

On the Campus

"Benny" Partridge '11 has been on the campus for the last few days.

A schedule for the second baseball team is now being arranged by Assistant Manager Elwell.

A farewell banquet was given Dean Sills by the Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity last Sunday evening.

Proctor '16 was stricken with appendicitis last Thursday and operated on at the Maine General Hospital on Friday.

Dr. Whittier is working on the list of the 1916 strong men and plans to have it ready for publication within a short time.

The class in English 9 which has been studying the Drama under Professor Files, made a dramatization of the Little Minister.

On account of the limitation of the number of issues per volume there will be no Orient during the examination period or on the Tuesday directly following examinations, February 11.

The U. Q. Club, a freshman organization, played a game of basketball with Freeport High School last Friday evening at Freeport in which they were defeated 10 to 7. The team was composed of Lull, Drummond, Edwards, Foster and Fuller, all of 1916.

The remainder of the net, the non-arrival of which has delayed the completion of our indoor diamond, has at last arrived and is being rapidly put in place. The banks at the corners of the running track are now completed and the jumping pit will be ready for work in a few days.

Mr. Kimball, the man who planned the heating and ventilating system of the gymnasium, was here last Saturday inspecting the work. The final adjustments have been made and the whole plant is now in perfect condition.
With the Faculty

The first appreciation of Woodrow Wilson to appear after election in an English magazine is in the Contemporary Review and by Professor Dennis of Wisconsin University who was formerly professor of History at Bowdoin from 1901 to 1904.

A review of Erich Marcks's "Manner und Zeiten" by Professor Ham has appeared in the Annals of the American Academy, Philadelphia.

Dr. Copeland makes the following announcement in regard to Botany 1 which is listed in the catalogue to be given next semester: "Students desiring to take Botany 1 who are unable to work during the 9:30 periods on Monday, Wednesday and Friday may substitute other hours."

Announcement of Professor Files' German courses for next semester has been made as follows: German 3—Prose composition. Same text. Translation—Jungfrau von Orleans (D. C. Heath & Co.) German 7—Continuation of same work. No new texts necessary in this course. German 11—Translation—Poems of Goethe, same text. Prose—Goethe's Egmont (D. C. Heath & Co.) German 13—Translation—Goethe's Iphigenie (Edited by Winkler, Henry Holt & Co.) German 15—As already announced.

Ira P. Booker, who for several weeks has been having serious trouble with his left foot, due to hardening of the arteries, submitted to a surgical operation recently, his left leg being amputated above the knee. He stood the shock of the operation very well and is now getting along quite comfortably.

Professor McConaughy spoke Sunday at Hebron.

Prof. W. B. Mitchell supplied the pulpit at the Winter Street Church in Bath recently.

ECONOMICS 8 (SOCIAL REFORM)

The catalogue announcement of this course should include the words, " Elective for Juniors and Seniors." It is not intended to be open to Sophomores even though they have taken course 1. Unless the membership should prove larger than is anticipated, the lectures will be supplemented by weekly conferences for discussion, in one or more small groups.

—Jos. S. Davis.

CALENDAR

Tuesday, Jan. 28.—8 P. M. — Production of "The Little Minister," at the Cumberland Theatre by the Brunswick Dramatic Club.

Wednesday, Jan. 29.—4 P. M. — Relay Trials.

8:15 P. M. — Debate in Memorial Hall under auspices of English 6.

Thursday, Jan. 30.—Last day to register for courses of the Second Semester.

Examinations begin.

Saturday, Feb. 1.—6:30 Dramatic Club Rehearsal.

Saturday, Feb. 8.—Bowdoin Relay Team races the University of Maine team at the B.A.A. Meet in Boston.

Monday, Feb. 10.—Second Semester begins.

Tuesday, Feb. 11.—Class of 1868 Prize Speaking in Memorial Hall.

Thursday, Feb. 13.—Cabinet Meeting of the Y.M.C.A., 24 College Street, 4 P. M. — Trials for Bradbury Debates.

Friday, Feb. 14.—First Junior Assembly.

Monday, Feb. 17.—College Smoker.

Alumni Department

'70.—Former Congressman and Mrs. D. S. Alexander of Buffalo, N. Y., are spending the winter months at Nassau, Bahama Islands.

'98.—Donald B. MacMillan who is making quite a record as an explorer of the northern country, will be accompanied on his trip to Crocker Land by Roald Amundsen, the discoverer of the South Pole and Valhjalmai Stefansson. The start will be made in the spring of 1915, and the party will take up winter quarters at Crocker Land, that land which now borders on the mythical, but of which Mr. MacMillan hopes to be able to tell us more. The return trip will be made by way of Patrick Island and the Southwest Passage, and Siberia will be touched.

'02.—Dr. Joseph R. Ridlon has been stationed at Porto Rico for several months in a campaign against the bubonic plague. The results seem to point to the elimination of this dread disease, and Dr. Ridlon hopes to return to the States soon. He has been promoted to the grade of Assistant Surgeon.

'05.—Arthur L. McCobb has an instructorship in modern languages at Harvard and is studying there as well.

'05.—William S. Brimijoin, A.M., '07, formerly of the Du Pont Powder Co., at its New Jersey station is now at Birmingham, Ala., where his daughter, Mary Clyde was born on January 4th.

'05.—Louis D. H. Weld, formerly in the government service at Washington, is instructor in Political Science at the University of Minnesota.

'08.—Karl B. Kilborn who is with the United States Fruit Co., is making a three months' trip on the "Atenas," around South American and the Canal Zone.
FRIAR CUP STANDING

Acting Dean McConaughy announces the standing of the several fraternities for the first semester in the competition for the Friar Scholarship Cup. Delta Upsilon is the winner for the fifth consecutive time. The average scholarship is reckoned on a basis of points, each A counting 4 points; B, 3 points; C, 2 points; D, 1 point; and E, -2 points. The total of the points made by each fraternity is divided by the number of men in the fraternity, thus giving the average scholarship of each group. The average is higher this semester than either of the two corresponding semesters preceding. The standing is as follows:

Delta Upsilon ...................................... 12,775
Theta Delta Chi .................................... 11,588
Beta Theta Pi ...................................... 10,924
Non-Fraternity .................................... 10,714
Delta Kappa Epsilon .............................. 10,473
Alpha Delta Phi ................................... 10,425
Psi Upsilon ....................................... 9,52
Bowdoin Club ..................................... 9,466
Kappa Sigma ....................................... 9,458
Zeta Psi ........................................... 9,435

FIRST JUNIOR ASSEMBLY

The first of the Junior assemblies was held Friday evening in Memorial Hall. Evergreen formed the principal decoration of the hall, while over the door was a large 1914, also worked in evergreen. The dance orders were a combination of black, white and gold, with the Bowdoin seal tastily arranged in the center of the design.

The patronesses of the evening were: Mrs. Roscoe J. Ham, Mrs. Paul Nixon, Mrs. William Hawley Davis, Mrs. Orren C. Hormell and Mrs. Walter T. Brown, all of Brunswick. The committee in charge was: Barton, chairman, Paul White, Arthur Merrill, Marr and Monroe, all '14. Music was by Lovell’s Orchestra of Brunswick. A feature of the evening was the presence of the Woodbury-Chapman bridal party of 24 persons.

Among the guests present were Miss Margaret Day, Miss Helen Merriman, Miss Pauline Herrin, Miss Virginia Woodbury, Miss Frances Skolfield, Miss Frances Little, Miss Mabel Davis, Miss Marion Drew, Miss Sarah Baxter and Miss Ellen Baxter, Miss Alexine Lapointe and Miss Yvette Lapoint of Brunswick; Miss Hilda Laughlin, Miss Phyllis Craig, Miss Alice Foster and Miss Katherine Hall of Portland; Miss Helen Christian and Miss Gail Woodcock of Bangor; Miss Pauline Hatch, Miss Vivian Lamont, Miss Caroline Jackson and Miss Hazel Howard of Bath; Miss Marion Troop of Wiscasset, Miss Olivia Holway of Augusta, Miss Eloise Burkwick of Philadelphia, Miss Ruth Young of Saco, Miss Mildred McFadden of Lubec, Miss Virginia Dunn of Auburn, Miss Jeanne Moulton of Cumberland Center, Miss Grace Weare of Ogunquit, Miss Louise Talbot of Freeport, Miss Evelyn Plummer of Lisbon Falls, Miss Sylvia Doutney of Burlington, Vt., and Miss Lida Baker of Boston.

FIRST COLLEGE TEA

The first College Tea was held last Friday afternoon in Hubbard Hall. It was well attended and those who were present spent a pleasant afternoon. Mrs. Hyde, Miss Helen Chapman, Mrs. Ham, Mrs. Nixon, Mrs. W. T. Brown and Mrs. Wess were on the reception committee. Mrs. Frank Woodruff assisted by Miss Mary Elliott and Miss Alexine Lapointe, poured coffee. Mrs. Copeland, Mrs. William Hawley Davis, Mrs. Walter T. Brown and Mrs. Wilder presided over the sherbet tables. They were assisted by the Misses Mitchell, Herring, Hall, Whittier and Taylor. Mrs. Herman L. Stover, Mrs. Algermon G. Chandler and Mrs. Carl H. Stevens served cakes and bonbons. The ushers were Russell '14, Payson '14, Badger '14, Verrill '15, Sylvester '14, L. T. Brown '14, Card '15, Cunliffe '14, MacCormick '15, MacIntire '16, and Oram '15.

NEW TRACK COACH

Bowdoin’s track coach for this year is P. J. Finneran, a man who is a star athlete not only in one or a few events, but also in nearly every event. He was seven years an amateur, and during that time he won points in every meet in which he competed. He has so many prizes and trophies that it almost requires an express team to carry them around.

He is a splendid gymnast, and excels at the hurdles. He joined the B.A.A. in 1890, since which time he has established the world’s record for the 440 yard hurdle race at 52.2-5 seconds, and the American record, 440 yard hurdles, at 60.3-5 seconds.

He has been employed as all around instructor by the Chicago Athletic Club. From there he went to the old Knickerbocker Athletic Club of New York as all around man, and then he went to Annapolis as track coach, where he remained for four seasons. Last fall he was at New Haven where he was one of the Yale coaches during the fall track work. During this winter, he has been employed at the Union Boat Club of Boston as boxing instructor. From this long list of experiences in the athletic world, it can be seen that Mr. Finan can is an athlete of no mean ability. He is at present trying to arrange his work so as to be able to start work at Bowdoin.

He is six feet tall and weighs around 175 pounds. He is a gentleman of pleasing address, makes friends of all with whom he comes in contact, and is highly recommended.

CLASS OF 1868 SPEAKING

Those who were present at the Class of 1868 Prize Speaking Contest in Memorial Hall last Tuesday evening were disappointed neither in the excellence of the speaking nor in the literary merit of the orations, for the high standard set by previous ’68 contests was not only equalled but even surpassed. Each part revealed great care and skill in preparation and was very well delivered. The prize was awarded to Alfred Henry Sweet. President Hyde presided and the judges were: Rev. John H. Quint, Prof. George T. Little and Supt. J. A. Cone. Lovell’s Orchestra furnished music. Following is the program:

Music
The Class Struggle, Paul Howard Douglas
Kipling the Poet, Laurence Alden Crosby
Emerson’s Individualism, Edward Oliver Baker
The War in the Balkans, Alfred Henry Sweet
The Theatre as a Teacher, Cedric Russell Crowell
A Modern Patriot, Fred Dixon Wish, Jr.

Announcement of the Judges’ decision.

VESPER SERVICES

In the Chapel last Thursday afternoon was held the first of a series of vespers services. The speaker was Dr. A. A. Downs, a graduate of the Medical School and now connected with the Maine Anti-Tuberculosis Society. His subject was “The Church and Medicine.” and he told how the church could markedly assist the medical profession in the treatment of such problems as prohibition, eugenics, the sex problem, preventable diseases and insanity. The closing words of the address were: “This is an age where, if men make good, they must do something for the good of humanity. Here is a field for the practical application of the principles enunciated by Christ.”

Next Thursday afternoon Prof. Daniel Evans of Andover Seminary will speak on “The Church and Labor.” The college quartette will sing and Miss Stetson will render a violin solo. Dr. Evans spoke here last May in connection with the Congregational meeting. He was born in South Wales, August 22, 1866; came to America in 1869, studied three years at the Bangor Theological Seminary and graduated from Bowdoin in 1890. He was ordained to the ministry in the Congregational Church in 1891 and served as pastor at East Weymouth, Maine, from 1891 to 1899, and since that time he has been in Cambridge. He was given the degree of D.D. in 1906. He is intensely interested in the labor problem and has served as arbitrator in a number of labor disputes.

On February 27 Dean Alfred E. Burton ’78 of Massachusetts Institute of Technology will speak, having for his subject “The Church and Education.” There will be a vocal solo by Mrs. Davis, and a violin solo by Miss Wilson.

MAINE WINS B.A.A. RELAY

By a scant yard and a half the University of Maine relay team defeated our relay quartet at the annual B.A.A. meet, Feb. 8. The race was exciting from start to finish and was one of the most closely contested of the evening. Donahue of Maine had the pole and kept it at the first turn, finishing four or five years ahead of Capt. Haskell. Smith ’15 made up the distance lost by our first man and by a brilliant burst of speed finished a yard ahead of Rogers, his opponent. Emery ’13 held the lead, running against Littlefield. Fox, Maine’s last runner, got off fast and got the lead at the first corner. McWilliams ’15 kept right to his heels but could not pass him and finished a yard and a half behind his opponent. The time, 3 min., 19.4-5 sec., was slower than that made by Bowdoin teams in the last two or three years. Skoffield ’13 was the alternate of the Bowdoin team.

MUSICAL CLUBS CONCERTS

The New York trip for the Musical Clubs is now assured. The concert will be in the grand ball room at Delmonico’s under the auspices of the New York Bowdoin Alumni Association and the State of Maine Society of New York. There will be a dance after the concert. This is the first time the musical clubs of any Maine college ever appeared in New York.
Two concerts in Massachusetts, one in Reading on March 28 and one in Boston on March 29, have been arranged. The Massachusetts and New York trip will be the longest the Clubs have ever taken.
The next concert is the annual joint concert with Bates in the City Hall, Lewiston. A dance will follow this concert. The joint concerts with Bates have been very successful and it is hoped this will be even more so. The presence of a good body of undergraduates will show that Bowdoin supports her clubs well.

INDOOR INTERSCHOLASTIC MEET
At sharp 2:30 P. M., March 15 the first event of Bowdoin’s great Interscholastic Indoor Meet will be pulled off in the General Thomas Worcester Hyde Athletic Building. All events will take place in the afternoon. So far ten schools have entered and are: Deering High, Farmington
High, Leavitt Inst. (Turner Center), Lewiston
High, Portland High, Lincoln Academy, Morse
High (Bath), Brunswick High, Coburn Institute, and Hebron Academy.

The original date set for the last opportunity to signify intention of competing was February 15. For various reasons that date has been postponed to February 22. Every school must signify its intention of competing before this date. No application can possibly be recognized after Feb.
22.
The list of events will probably be: 40 yard dash, 45 yard high hurdles, 300, 600 and 880 yard run, 12 pound shot, high jump, broad jump, and pole vault, in addition to relay races between the most of the competing schools.
Medals will be awarded to the first three men in each event—silver, bronze and ribbon. A trophy will be awarded to the school winning the meet. This trophy will be permanently possessed by the school winning the greatest number of times in five years.
No man will be eligible to compete in this meet who has competed in interscholastic athletics for four years in any school.
The management hopes that the fraternities will see to the accommodation of the men from the various schools, as entertainment has been promised them. Every man in college should do all in his power to make this meet a success and a credit to “Old Bowdoin.”

ALUMNI BANQUETS
The Bowdoin Alumni Association of Boston had the largest attendance in its history at its 45th annual banquet at Young’s Hotel, February
5th. There were about 200 present. The College was represented by President Hyde, Dr. Whittier and L. A. Crosby ’13. Dr. Myles Standish ’75 presided at the affair, as president of the association. At the head table also were seated President Hyde, Dr. Whittier, Prof. Jotham B. Sewal ’48, H. C. Emery ’92, Rev. Dr. Charles H. Cutler ’81, Edward Stanwood ’61, L. A. Emery ’61, H. DeForest Smith ’91, J. C. Minot ’96, and Donald B. McMillan ’07.
The Bowdoin Alumni of Portland held a banquet Saturday evening, Feb. 8, in the State of Maine room at the Falmouth Hotel which was attended by at least 75 alumni. At the business meeting the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Frederick O. Conant ’80; vice-president, David W. Snow ’73; secretary and treasurer, Edward S. Anthoine ’02; nominating committee, Harry C. Wilbur ’94,
Charles L. Hutchinson ’90, Alfred P. Cook ’97; entertainment committee, George S. Sabin ’83,
Wadleigh B. Drummond ’07, Leland G. Means
’12. President Franklin C. Payson ’76 presided as toastmaster. The speakers were President
Hyde, E. W. Freeman ’85, Hon. John A. Peters
’85, Dr. Whittier ’85 and Hon. Harry B. Austin
’87.
The New York Alumni displayed a very succes-ful banquet held at the Sherman Square Hotel. Horace E.
Henderson ’79 was elected president and Joseph B.
Roberts ’95 was elected as secretary for the coming year. William Curtis Merryman ’82, was toastmaster. The speakers included President
Hyde, E. P. Mitchell ’71, George B. Chandler
’71, Donald B. McMillan ’98, Dr. Bela G. Illes
’97, Medic, Max P. Cushing ’09 and Cedric R.
Crowell ’13. With General Thomas H. Hubbard and Donald B. McMillan present to add an official stamp to the choice the association adopted the polar bear as the emblem of the College.

RANKING OF MEDICAL SCHOOL
According to a recent classification made by the Council on Medical Education of the American Medical Association, based on thorough investigation, there are two medical schools in New England which are thoroughly acceptable in every respect. These are the Harvard and Yale schools. Five others including the Medical School of Maine, Dartmouth, Tufts, Boston Uni-viversity, and Vermont are rated in class A.
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

Published every Tuesday of the Collegiate Year by The Bowdoin Publishing Company in the interests of the Students of Bowdoin College

EDITORIAL BOARD

Douglas H. McMurtie, 1913, Editor-in-Chief
Robert D. Leigh, 1914, Managing Editor
Fred D. Wish, 1913, Alumni Editor

DEPARTMENT AND ASSOCIATE EDITORS

R. E. Simpson, 1914, The Library Table
A. H. MacCormick, 1915, On The Campus
F. P. McKenney, 1915, With The Faculty
J. F. Rollins, 1915, Intercollegiate Notes
L. E. Jones, 1913
V. R. Leavitt, 1913
K. A. Robinson, 1914
G. H. Talcott, 1915

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted.

All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager of the Bowdoin Publishing Co. Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

BOWDOIN PUBLISHING COMPANY

H. B. Walker, 1913, Business Manager
Alfred E. Gray, 1914, Assistant Manager
E. L. Sylvester, 1914, Assistant Manager

Entered at Post-Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter
Vol. XLII. FEBRUARY 18, 1913 No. 25

The New Quill

The Orient desires to congratulate the Quill on the first number of its new volume. The editorial in particular displays a spirit of determination which promises that the new board will succeed in upholding the standard of its predecessors. The appearance of the magazine is in accord with the spirit of its pages and speaks well for the change in the place of publication. May the college heed the plea for contributions, giving the board an abundance of material and in consequence the peace of mind necessary for literary work.

The Friar Cup

A comparison of the ranks of the several contestants for the Friar Cup with the ranks for the past two years proves that the competition has served its purpose of raising the scholarship of the college as a whole. The February results alone should be considered, since the June results are increased by the grades for Physical Training. Although the standard of some fraternities has decreased, these mid-year results show a consistent improvement in the average. The college owes much to the organization which has started the movement to put the fraternities and non-fraternity group on their mettle as regards scholarship.

A.S.B.C. TREASURY STATEMENT
FIRST SEMESTER, 1912-13.

Receipts:
By blanket tax from 321 men ................... $2,407.50
By error in change ...... 50
Total ................... $2,408.00
Set aside for five per cent. Reserve Fund ............... 120.40

$2,287.60

Expenditures:
To Football Management $1,400.00
To Track Management .... 250.00
To Baseball Management 255.00
To Bowdoin Publishing Co. 250.00
To Y.M.C.A. ............ 75.00
To Band Management ... 55.00

2,285.00

Balance ............... $2.60

Loaned to Track Management from Reserve Fund ........... $50.00
Balance in Reserve Fund ................... $70.40

FOOTBALL REPORT

BOWDOIN COLLEGE FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION

Report of Manager Lawrence W. Smith for the football season of 1912.
Receipts in full for season . . . . . . $5,932.76
Expenditures ................... 5,761.90

Balance on hand ................... $170.86

Assets.
Cash on hand ................... $170.86
Mileage ................... 5.16
Outstanding bills ................... 105.22

$281.24

Total assets ........... $281.24

Liabilities.
Unpaid bills, total ................... $1,125.00
Total liabilities ................... $1,125.00
Total assets ........................................ 281 24

Total deficit ........................................ $843 76
Estimated deficit of season 1911 .............. 300 00

Deficit of 1912 season ......................... $543 76
Respectfully submitted,
LAWRENCE W. SMITH, Mgr.

I have examined the books and accounts of the Football Manager and find them properly kept and vouched. The foregoing report is correct.
BARTRETT POTTER, Auditor.

February 8, 1913.

BASEBALL REPORT

RECEIPTS

Balance, E. O. Leigh .............................. $112 54
Brown guarantee .................................. 100 00
R. I. State (expenses) ......................... 17 60
Exeter guarantee ................................ 65 00
St. Anselm guarantee ......................... 60 00
Dartmouth guarantee .......................... 175 00
Middlebury guarantee ......................... 50 00
Vermont guarantee .............................. 100 00
Tufts guarantee ................................ 80 00
Harvard guarantee .............................. 125 00
Colby gate receipts ............................. 98 80
Maine guarantee ................................ 75 00
Colby guarantee ................................ 50 00
Tufts gate receipts ............................. 235 60
Maine gate receipts ............................. 80 50
Bates ½ gate receipts at Lewiston .......... 36 93
Bates ½ gate receipts ......................... 301 00
1912 subscriptions ............................. 33 00
1912 subscriptions ............................. 500 25
Miscellaneous receipts ....................... 4 61

Total receipts ................................... $2,410 83

EXPENDITURES

1911 supplies ................................... $101 79
J. F. Hillierich, bats ........................... 5 80
Brown trip ....................................... 252 15
Exeter trip ...................................... 67 85
Dartmouth trip ................................ 506 23
Harvard trip .................................... 165 40
Colby game expenses ......................... 66 75
Maine game expenses (rain) ................. 43 00
Maine game expenses (rain) ................. 38 35
Maine trip ...................................... 74 60
Colby trip ....................................... 50 50
Tufts game expenses ......................... 170 51
Maine game expenses ......................... 91 45
Bates trip ....................................... 30 20
Bates game expenses ......................... 103 25
Printing ........................................ 28 50
Telephone, etc .................................. 8 65
Coaching ......................................... 336 95
Board ........................................... 47 04
Ground tax ...................................... 127 80
Miscellaneous .................................. 88 01

Total expenditures ........................... $2,404 78
Total receipts ................................... $2,410 83
Total expenditures ........................... 2,404 78

Cash balance .................................... $6 25

Total liabilities ............................... $200 00
Assets—cash balance ......................... 6 25

Deficit .......................................... $193 75

The above is the report of the Bowdoin Baseball Association, season of 1912.
Respectfully submitted,
F. S. WIGGIN, Mgr.

Nov. 1, 1912.

I have examined the books and accounts of the manager of the Baseball Association and find them accurately kept and properly vouched. The foregoing report is correct.
BARTRETT POTTER, Auditor.

NOVEMBER QUILL

Neither a buoyant nor a luxurious issue, but surely a well-balanced one; observe the college comedy offset by the metropolitan tragedy, and the descriptive sonnet offset by the passionate lyric. Such would doubtless be a hasty character-zation of the November Quill. To the present reviewer, it forms a welcome contrast to an issue reviewed by him last year, in that the November Quill contains not a dreamy line, not a thought which is not charged with virility.

In A Plain Tale from the Campus we have one of the eagerly awaited college stories. Has E.'s talent, like that of the chief character in his story, been long unsuspected? There is a genuineness of tone and of detail to this narrative which almost completely revivifies the hackneyed plot.

There is a confidence and firmness in the handling, moreover, which augurs well for future efforts.

Sunset in Hakone, having already been tried in the fire of English 9, is embarrassing to the reviewer. Doubtless the writer has long been painfully yet resignedly conscious of the wrenched anapaest in line 6, the almost impudent prosaicness of "completes," and other defects in the workmanship. The effect of breathless seriousness, however, which grips the spectator-reader as in the suspense succeeding the final words he suddenly perceives the full beauty of
The deliberate, analytical method of narrating Jimmy the Insignificant seems plainly to have been adopted in an effort to redeem the prevailing melodrama of the story. The attempt itself is commendable: there is an easy-chair, after-examinations quality to the style which beckons the attention without trying to seize it. But the task is impossible: this young man—swaying, righting, then weakening, and at length risking the great leap—would show himself the figure that he is under a far more elaborate cloak of style than Mr. Gibson’s. And why? Why this impatience with melodrama? One is tempted to answer at length; but, in brief, is it not because of ingrained impatience with puppetry? Does not success in depicting the temptation and fall render impossible success in depicting the noble repentance and reformation? And is not suicide equally inconsistent with success in either direction? Jimmy Livingston’s docility amidst the vicissitudes of this plot is like the obliquness of the stage-hands in the pantomime, where, in the words of Thackeray, “when Clown wants anything—a warming-pan, a pump-handle, a goose, or a lady’s tippet—a fellow comes sauntering out from behind the side-scenes with the very article in question.”

One feels in reading Rosamond—likewise reprinted from English 9—that it would inevitably have burst from its author without any external incentive such as the requirements of a Course. Except for the unsingable hyperbole of “reverberates” and the inaptness of swearing to do what one cannot help doing, the melody and the illusion of the song are irresistible.

Ye Postman seems at first to demand no comment; his errand is plainly to fellow-members of the guild of college editors, and others feel almost guilty when they discover the fact. Since, however, postal exigencies recommend that the missive be unsealed, may not remorse be spared to the diligent reader by providing, along with the husks of titles and judgments, a kernel or two of quotation?

Those vulgar errors called typographical are still far too numerous in the Quill. Absolute accuracy is too much to expect; but perennial dissatisfaction with the degree of perennial inaccuracy is something which every conscientious reviewer must inculcate. The editor ought to be scrupulously sensitive even to inverted letters; he certainly should recognize that although “even-tide” may be only momentarily ambiguous, “all to soon” must seriously affect the dignity of a sonnet, and the grotesque suggestiveness of “bug bear” (a sort of dislocated ant-eater?) is fatally incongruous in any criticism.

—W. H. D.

DECEMBER QUILL

We were occupied when the December Quill arrived. Without any intention of reading it at once, we did go so far as to pry apart a couple of pages with a pencil and look inside. “The young man acted. Merciful God, how he acted!”

This seemed promising. With some celerity we cut the pages of “The Hamlet of Petersburg,” and promptly read the last third of the story—read it with respectful pleasure, not merely the patronizing pleasure that one commonly feels in looking over the work of an amateur one knows. From the time when the unknown Hamlet joins the strollers till the moment when his name is deftly and unobtrusively introduced this Hawthorne Prize story is good, good not only as Quill stories go, but good as most stories go.

We have also read the rest of the story, the first part. While it is never uninteresting and while it contains several clever passages, such as that describing Billy Wheeler and his company, and that introducing the old inebriate to the Toll Tavern guests, the first part of “The Hamlet” is not the best part. The postponed topographical information seems to halt us at the beginning rather unnecessarily; one notes an occasional harsh figure and a little magniloquence, in these first few pages, which Billy Wheeler’s great-uncle should not be held responsible for; last and least, we challenge any mediocre lingual con-tortionist to say rapidly: “had been weakening him imperceptibly.”

The remainder of the December Quill does not loom large against this rather long and very successful story. The few lines of verse, “Pierrot’s Love,” are graceful; and in the short essay, “Elm Trees,” one finds a number of fine touches in way of phrase together with a little too much of “the grand serious” in tone. Apropos of Quills in general, we would add that impressionism and individualism and printers have taken too many liberties with the good, old, classic art of punctuation. In conclusion, we wish to thank the retiring editors for their services and to join with them in lamenting the languid support that the Quill receives. Only two men contribute to this number! We forbear invoking once again the oft vexed shades of Longfellow and Hawthorne—but it is really a discreditable situation for magazine and college.

—P. N.
Club and Council Meetings

The Board of Managers held a meeting in the manager’s room of the gymnasium, Feb. 12. Matters pertaining to the blanket tax were discussed and a number of extensions for payment were granted. Those not granted extensions were barred from membership for the semester. The successful collection of the second installment seemed to the Board to indicate that its future was assured.

An orchestra class under the direction of Professor Wass has held a meeting for organization and has begun rehearsals.

The Monday Night Club will hold a meeting at the Kappa Sigma House, Feb. 24.

The Y.M.C.A. held a cabinet meeting at the rooms of Professor McConaughy, 24 College Street. The usual business was transacted and refreshments were served.

On the Campus

The Chemical Club will meet Thursday at eight o’clock in the Chemical Lecture Room. Professor Hutchins will speak.

Did you go to the midnight train Tuesday to see Sarah Bernhardt off?

The eighth annual dance of the Phi Chi Fraternity is to be held February the twenty-first at the Riverton Casino.

The football goal posts have been put up in the cage of the Athletic Building and the practice in goal-kicking has commenced.

A number of applications have been made for the position of coaching next year’s football team. The candidates were voted on at a meeting of the Athletic Council held yesterday afternoon.

Candidates for the fencing team will elect a captain sometime after the first of March. According to the custom when no captain has been elected at the close of the preceding year, one of the successful candidates is chosen as leader just before the match with Harvard.

A deputation from the Bowdoin Y.M.C.A. was sent to the Maine Central Institute at Pittsfield Sunday. The men who went are: Frank Smith ’12, McWilliams ’15, MacCormick ’15, and Foster ’16.

A deputation of nine will be sent to Rockland and vicinity in the near future. This will be the largest delegation ever sent out from the Bowdoin Y.M.C.A.

Acting Dean McConaughy will attend the conference of the college teachers of education at Philadelphia from February 20 to 26 inclusive.

All who have college business with the Dean are requested to see him on Wednesday, February 19.

Swett ’13, McWilliams ’15, and Fortin ’16 are delegates from Bowdoin to the convention at Brown University of Episcopal students in New England colleges. The convention will be held February 21 and 22.

The Student Council strongly advises all of the classes to get busy immediately and appoint committees to select the songs which their class will use in the competition. Any information concerning the “Sing” may be obtained from Mr. Wass.

The Seniors have already selected their songs and are having “Senior Sings” in the Y.M.C.A. rooms every Wednesday night. Although the competition for the Snow Song Cup will come in the latter part of the spring every class is advised to get to work at once and make these “Sings” real interclass competition.

The Glee Club entertained at a ball given by the Shriners at the Kora Temple in Lewiston Saturday night. “Bowdoin Beata” was followed by the grand march, after which the Mandolin and Glee Clubs alternated in giving selections. After the ball the club furnished music during the banquet—over 500 seats. Among the guests present were: Governor William T. Haines and ex-Governor Plaisted.

The Commencement play will be decided on and announced in the near future.

Alvah Stetson ’15 has left college and after a course in the New England Telephone Company’s school for service inspectors, will enter the employ of the company. He expects to return to college.

Church ’16 has left college but expects to return next year.

Among the other men who left at the end of the first semester are R. Stuart ’16, Pease ’16, Doten ’16, and Shepard ’16.

Lull ’16, who has been seriously ill with the grippe and complications has nearly recovered and will be out in a few days. Hamlin ’16 is suffering from an attack of the same malady.

Maurice Proctor ’16, who was operated on for appendicitis the last part of the first semester, is back at work again.

The eight men chosen from those competing in last fall’s tournament met shortly before the examination period and elected Paul C. Savage ’13 of last year’s tennis team as temporary captain of tennis.

Douglas ’13 and Chase ’14 attended the District Convention of Delta Upsilon held at McGill University, Montreal, Canada, Feb. 7 and 8.
At a meeting of the Debating Council held shortly before the examinations, Douglas '13 was awarded the Highland Lockwood Fairbanks Prize for excellence in debating during the first semester.

McFarland, Medc '15 and ex-captain of the Bowdoin track team, is coaching Brunswick High in preparation for the interscholastic indoor meet to be held here March 15.

V. A. Craig, A. P. Cushman, H. H. Hall, S. J. Hinch, E. E. Tufts, Jr., G. F. Wilson, all '13 have completed their college course and have left Bowdoin. They will return in June to participate in the Commencement exercises. Paul Wing '14, Trott '16, Pinkham '15, and Fitzgerald '16 have also left college.

---

CALENDAR

Tuesday, Feb. 18.
1.00 p.m. Picture of Board of Managers at Webber's Studio.
4.00 p.m. Masque and Gown Rehearsal.
7.00 p.m. Meeting of the Bugle Board.

Wednesday, Feb. 19.
1.10 p.m. Picture of the Student Council at Webber's Studio.

Thursday, Feb. 20.
5.00 p.m. Vesper Service in the Chapel.
7.30 p.m. Meeting of the Chemical Club.

Friday, Feb. 21.
3.00 p.m. Reception at the D.K.E. House.
8.30 p.m. Phi Chi Dance.
8.30 p.m. D.K.E. Dance.

Saturday, Feb. 22.
Adjourns. Washington's Birthday.

Meeting of the Monday Night Club at the Kappa Sigma House.

---

With the Faculty

President Hyde will attend the Washington Alumni dinner this week.

Professor McConaughy spoke at the Boys' Conference held in Portland, February 8 and 9. The Bowdoin lecture has been delivered in four towns of Washington County recently. It was given at Kent's Hill last week and will be delivered before the Boston alumni at an early date.

Mr. I. P. Booker, the College treasurer, is continuing on the road to improvement after the serious operation he was obliged to undergo.

Professor Chapman has been ill for the last few days and is confined to his home. He plans to be out again soon and will take charge of his classes within a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Rogers of New Haven, Conn., have announced the engagement of their daughter Elizabeth Townsend to Professor James L. McConaughy. Miss Rogers is a graduate of Vassar in 1910. Mr. Rogers graduated from Yale in 1875 and the Yale Law School in 1877. For some years he has practiced in New Haven, where he has also held numerous political offices; he has recently retired from active practice. The wedding will probably take place this summer.

---

Resolutions

Hall of the Theta Chapter of Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

Jan. 25, 1913.

With deepest sorrow the Theta Chapter of Delta Kappa Epsilon hears of the death of one of its oldest alumni, Henry Hyde Smith, LL.B., of the class of 1854, his death occurring on December 22, 1912 at the home of his son in Danville, Vermont. The Chapter of which he was an active member so many years ago was always dear to the heart of Brother Smith as was shown by the keen interest he took in its affairs even to the last. He had a distinguished career as a lawyer in Massachusetts and Maine and in his younger days was engaged in teaching. His sweet disposition, his kindly spirit and good nature endeared him to all who knew him. And so it is that we are conscious of a great loss in his passing. Therefore, be it Resolved, That we express our sorrow at his death and extend our sympathy to those bound closer to him by ties of friendship and family.

William Fletcher Twombly,
Alfred Everett Gray,
Joseph Cony MacDonald,
For the Chapter.

---

Alumni Department

'10.—Edward Harlan Webster, now head of the English department in the Commercial High School of Springfield, Mass., has had published in The Pedagogical Seminary for December, an article on "Verse Making in Our Public Schools." This is a very interesting and novel treatment of the subject of teaching both expression and appreciation of the poetic form. In Education for last March, Mr. Webster also had a significant comparison of the old and new curricula of study in our colleges and used for an illustration of the old-time brief but comprehensive course, a page from an early last century Bowdoin catalogue.
DEATH OF PROFESSOR CHAPMAN

Announcement of the death of Professor Chapman was made Monday morning in chapel, and as a mark of respect to his memory other college exercises for the day were omitted. He had been ill for about two weeks when on Saturday his condition suddenly became very serious, resulting in his death at 2 o'clock Monday morning. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the First Parish Congregational Church and the students and faculty will attend in a body. The next issue of the Orient will contain an obituary article expressing the deep sorrow that we all feel at the loss of our beloved teacher and friend.

PROVISIONAL COMMENCEMENT APPOINTMENTS

The list of provisional appointments for commencement parts has been announced. From this number, six men will be chosen by competition to deliver their parts at Commencement, and to one of these the Goodwin Prize will be awarded. The list is as follows:

MAINE STATE Y.M.C.A. CONFERENCE

The Maine State Y. M. C. A. will hold its fifth annual conference at Bowdoin February 28 and March 1 and 2, to unite the students of Maine who are interested in Christian work in a conference for inspiration and training. It is expected that there will be delegates from the Maine colleges, Bangor Seminary, the ten schools that have Y. M. C. A. organizations and those as yet unorganized. Although the number of delegates from the preparatory schools will be limited, the colleges and the Seminary can send any reasonable number of men.

The list of speakers is a long one and includes many men who have achieved success. The speakers as now arranged are: Dr. Robert E. Speer of New York, Secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Missions, a graduate of Princeton, annual speaker at Northfield and Silver Bay and probably one of the most popular college preachers in the country; Harrison S. Elliott of New York, Bible Study Secretary of the Student Department of the International Y. M. C. A., and one of the leading speakers at the 1912 conference at Orono; Arthur Howe of New York, captain of the Yale football team in 1911, coach in 1912 and now engaged in Y. M. C. A. work for the preparatory schools of the country; Henry H. King of Boston, a graduate of Amherst, now State Student Y. M. C. A. Secretary for Massachusetts and Rhode Island; Daniel Chase, athletic director at Hamilton College, a graduate of the University of Maine and formerly a county Y. M. C. A. secretary in New York; President William DeWitt Hyde of Bowdoin; and A. G. Cushman, Secretary of the Bates Y. M. C. A.

The visiting delegates will be entertained on the campus and in the town of Brunswick. After the opening session, which will be Friday evening at 7:15, a reception will be given to all delegates by the Bowdoin Y. M. C. A., to which all the members of the Bowdoin Y. M. C. A. will probably be invited. The latter part of Saturday afternoon will be given over to seeing various points of interest about the College, among them the new gymnasium, the College Library and the Art Building.

Three committees have charge of the general arrangements: Leigh '14 is chairman of the reception committee, McWilliams '15 is sub-chairman; Brown '14 is chairman and MacCormick '15 is sub-chairman of the entertainment committee; and Gray '14 and Sweet '13 are chairman and sub-chairman of the attendance committee.

COLLEGE SMOKER

The student body got together Monday night in Memorial Hall and held the most successful smoker of the year. "Dug" brought up the question of the restriction of student activities and laid it before the fellows for discussion. The men who voiced their ideas seemed to be unanimously of the opinion that the plan drawn up by the Student Council was faulty in the following respects: That such a plan makes no provision for time spent by men who do not make their letter on a varsity team; that a manager and a captain have to devote more time and work than members of teams, and therefore should not be classed in with team members; that members of the Band, Chemical Club, Good Government Club and kindred organizations do not give any more of their time than class officers, members of the Student and Athletic Councils, participants in prize competition, etc., who are not included in the scheme of limitation. A motion was then made that a new system be devised by the Student Council based on the amount of time that each activity takes. The motion was seconded and carried by a vote of the men present.

Another matter brought up and discussed was the advisability of starting a new Bowdoin paper devoted to humor. The plan seemed to meet the approval of everyone, so papers were circulated soliciting subscription pledges. If 200 fellows pledge their support the success of the undertaking is assured. It is intended to have this paper printed each month of the college year, but for the rest of this year there will be only two trial numbers—one of which will come out Ivy Day.

The new track coach, Mr. Finneran, spoke a few words expressing his pleasure of working with a Bowdoin track team. He expressed himself as very pleased with the material and equipment he was given to work with.

"Cope" Philoon was back and gave the fellows a "straight from the shoulder" talk on true Bowdoin Spirit.

At every pause in the business of the smoker the band got busy and did their share of entertainment. A part of the Glee Club presented their Cabaret Scene to a wildly enthusiastic audience. Of course Loring Pratt was there with some of his inimitable stories and dialect poems.

Cider, apples, pretzels, pipes, tobacco and cigarettes furnished the inward entertainment.

TRACK WORK

Track Coach Joe Finneran has arrived at College and has started work with the track candidates. The intercollegiate meets are still some distance away, but the probability of a dual meet with some New England college means that the men must work during the winter season as well as during the spring. The faculty vetoed a meet with Trinity and negotiations are now under way for a meet with either Boston College or the University of Vermont.

In order to develop new material, Coach Finneran has started a series of interclass track meets every Saturday afternoon. The first of these was held last Saturday and was won by the Juniors with 21 points. The Sophomores had 19, the Seniors 3 and the Freshmen 2. The events follow:

- High Jump.—First, C. Brown '14; Nickerson '16 and Green '13 tied for second and third.
- 40 Yard Dash.—First, Prescott '15; second, Russell '14; third, Smith '15.
- 40 Yard Hurdles.—First, Smith '15; second, L. Donahue '14; third, Russell '14.
- Pole Vault.—First, Hubbard '14; second, McKenney '15; third, Merrill '14.
- Relay Race.—First, 1915 (Prescott, MacCormick, Roberts, Smith); second, 1914 (Russell, L. Donahue, Garland, Payson); third, 1913 (Gardner, Emery, Nixon, Walker).

Plans are now under way for outdoor relay races between the New England colleges. No final arrangements have been made as yet, however.

The date for the outdoor interscholastic has been set at May 31.

The Bowdoin Freshmen will send a relay team to race against the Bates Freshmen at Lewiston March 13. The first call for candidates was issued last Wednesday.

At a meeting of the Maine A. A. at the Hotel DeWitt at Lewiston Saturday, Bowdoin was represented by Crowell '13 and Cole '14. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Howes of Colby; Vice-President, Cole of Bowdoin; Secretary, Sullivan of Bates; Treasurer, Adams of Maine; all four officers being the managers of their respective teams. Aside from the election of officers there was the discussion of officials for the Maine intercollegiate May 17.

BRADBURY DEBATING TRIALS

Sixteen men participated in the Bradbury Debating trials, held Monday afternoon in Hubbard Hall, and from them the four teams which are to compete in the Bradbury Prize Debates on March 3 and 4 were selected as follows: First debate, March 3, affirmative: Coffin '15, Sweet '13, Wish '13; Cowan '13, alternate; negative: Bacon '15, Emery '13, Gage '14; Eberhardt '13, alternate. Second debate, March 4, affirmative: Abbott '13, Crosby '13, Douglas '13; Garland '14, alternate; negative: Norton '13, Simpson '14, Talbot '15; Marr '14, alternate. The judges for the trials were Supt. John A. Cone, J. S. Davis, Rev. E. M.
Johnson and Daniel F. Koughan '09. The same board of judges with the addition of President Hyde will serve at the Bradbury Debates. The question for the Bradbury Debates will be: Resolved, That a tariff for revenue only would materially reduce the high cost of living.

MUSICAL NOTES

The orchestra class under the leadership of Professor Wass is proving to be a most profitable organization. The present twenty-three members are taught to play together with expression; but more players of orchestra instruments are urgently requested to come out. Rehearsals, lasting an hour and a half, are held Saturday afternoons at 1:30. Later on, from this class an orchestra club, made up of the best players, will be organized for special work; but the class will continue in its work.

The Junior and Senior Class Sings have started. The Seniors hold theirs every Wednesday evening at eight o'clock, while the Junior rehearsals are at five o'clock in the afternoon of the same day. The Freshmen and Sophomores have not yet begun their work.

In connection with Music IV a piano quartet has been formed, composed of W. S. Greene '13, W. F. Twombly '13, N. Tuttle '14 and H. M. Shea '14. A quartet club has been organized for the purpose of studying larger orchestra work. The College rents music for this club from the Institute of Musical Art of New York.

DELTA KAPPA EPSILON ENTERTAINS

Friday afternoon and evening, Feb. 21, the Bowdoin Chapter of Delta Kappa Epsilon held its annual reception and dance at the Chapter House on Maine Street. About 150 guests were present at the reception, which was held from 3:00 to 5:00 p. m. In the receiving line were Mrs. C. B. Haskell of Pittsfield, Me., Mrs. W. E. Twombly of Reading, Mass., and Mrs. G. L. Skofield of Brunswick. Refreshments were served by Mrs. F. N. Whittier, Mrs. H. C. Baxter, Mrs. Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. H. Stevens. Loveill's Orchestra played throughout the afternoon and for an order of twenty dances in the evening. About thirty-five couples were present at the dance, of which Mrs. Haskell, Mrs. Twombly and Mrs. Skofield were the patronesses.

Among the guests were Misses Dorothy Sewall, Catherine Torrey, Caroline Rullmann, Corinne Jackson and Pauline Hatch of Bath; Margaret Dole of Bangor; Mary Holden and Elizabeth Eastman of Lowell, Mass.; Alberta Robinson, Gertrude King, Dorothy True and Marie Hibber of Portland; Frances Stuart and Ethel Libby of Augusta; Ada Sawyer of Woodfords; Helen Beebe of Reading, Mass.; Catherine Whitten of Wakefield, Mass.; Christine Hinston of Newcastle; Ellen Baxter, Marguerite Hutchins, Marion Drew and Frances Skofield of Brunswick; Natalie Irving of West Roxbury, Mass.; and Gladys Hanson, Lora Standish, Ruth Greene of Boston, Mass. The delegate from Xi of Colby was Mr. Roberts.

The committee in charge consisted of Twombly '13, Haskell '13 and Cunliffe '14, while on the decorating committee were Holt '13, Standish '14, Eastman '15 and Hale '16.

PHI CHI DANCE

The Phi Chi Fraternity of the Medical School entertained Friday evening at Riverton Park Casino with a dance. The decorations very attractively carried out the fraternity colors of green and white.

The following special guests were present: Clinton Peters of Portland, delegate of the Alpha Kappa Kappa Fraternity; Dr. Stanley P. Warren, Dr. H. H. Brock, Dr. R. B. Moore, Dr. Wallace Dyson, Dr. W. E. Tobie, Dr. J. B. Drummond, all of Portland, and Dr. Clyde Merrill of Lewiston.

The patronesses were: Mrs. Willis B. Moulton, Mrs. H. H. Brock, Mrs. Walter E. Tobie, Mrs. Wallace Dyson, Mrs. Joseph Drummond, all of Portland.

Among the young ladies present were: Misses Frances Craven, Helen O'Neil, Mary Smith, Mrs. William Anderson, Mrs. John H. Moulton, of Portland; Misses Marguerite Hutchins, Ida Smith, Myrtle Higgins, of Brunswick; Miss Genevieve E. Dwinal of Auburn, Miss Gertrude Miller of Lewiston, Miss Ernestine Thompson of Springvale, Miss Annabel McNeil of Bangor, Miss Annie Riley of Biddeford, Miss Ruth Laneing of Roxbury, Mrs. McIntyre of Biddeford.
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

Published every Tuesday of the collegiate year by
The Bowdoin Publishing Company
in the interests of the students of
BOWDOIN COLLEGE

EDITORIAL BOARD

Douglas H. McMurtrie, 1913, Editor-in-Chief
Robert D. Leigh, 1914, Managing Editor
Fred D. Wish, 1913, Alumni Editor

DEPARTMENT AND ASSOCIATE EDITORS

R. E. Simpson, 1914, The Library Table
A. H. MacCormick, 1915, On The Campus
F. P. McKenney, 1915, With The Faculty
J. F. Rollins, 1915, Intercollegiate Notes
L. E. Jones, 1913
V. R. Leavitt, 1913
K. A. Robinson, 1914
G. H. Talbot, 1915

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted.

All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager of the Bowdoin Publishing Co. Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

BOWDOIN PUBLISHING COMPANY

H. B. Walker, 1913, Business Manager
Alfred E. Gray, 1914, Assistant Manager
E. L. Sylvester, 1914, Assistant Manager

Entered at Post Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII. FEBRUARY 25, 1913 No. 26

This week the College is to

Y.M.C.A. Conference

act as host of the members of the Student Christian Associations of the State. Nearly two hundred representatives of the other colleges and of the leading preparatory schools will be in attendance. The efforts of the college association to secure speakers of national reputation assure the success of this part of the conference. It rests upon the undergraduates to extend to the delegates a welcome which will lead them to enjoy themselves thoroughly and to carry away with them the pleasant memory of their stay.

Relay Carnival

The following week it is the privilege of the College to entertain other representatives of the schools of the State. Energetic preparations for this new departure in athletics are now well under way. In the institution of a relay carnival, the Athletic Council has solved the problem of entertaining preparatory school men with something of more immediate interest to them than the customary interclass meet. The carnival will serve the same purpose as the meet by affording the visitors a close range view of the college. In this connection, the Orient desires to reiterate the hope that the whole College will be shown them and that no one phase will be allowed to overshadow Bowdoin itself.

A True Account

After many years of leading editorials and hundreds of English III themes on the subject of the average expense account in the Bowdoin College Bulletins, it was a pleasant surprise to read the absolutely fair and honest estimate of Bowdoin student expenses in the new bulletin just issued by the College. The former estimates have been correct but incomplete and thus unconsciously misleading. The present account is complete and accurate. But with the blanket tax well on the road to success, the college estimate of expenses correct, what is the poor editorial writer to do?

VESPER SERVICE FEB. 27

Alfred Edgar Burton, B.S., engineer and educator, speaker at the College Vesper service Thursday, is a graduate of Bowdoin in the class of 1878. He was born in Portland March 24, 1857, and after graduating from college took an engineering course here under Professor George L. Vose, C.E., Bowdoin 1881. He was draughtsman and topographer on the United States Geodetic Coast Survey, 1879-1882, was instructor for the next two years, assistant and associate professor until 1896 and has been professor of topographical engineering since then and dean since 1908 at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He has served on a number of scientific astronomical expeditions, is a member of the leading geographical societies, and has written a number of papers upon astronomy. Professor Burton has been a member of the Board of Overseers of the College since 1903, was president of the Bowdoin Alumni Association of Boston from 1901 to 1904, and has always retained an active interest in the affairs of his Alma Mater.

There will be special music at the Vesper service at which Dean Burton speaks, consisting of a soprano solo by Mrs. William Hawley Davis and a violin solo by Miss Wilson.
SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED

One hundred and thirty-four scholarships have been given out this year, totalling $9,267.52. The highest was $275.02. There was one for $200.00, five for $112.50, one for $105.00, 17 for $100.00, eight for $90.00, 32 for $75.00, one for $67.50, one for $62.50, one for $60.00, 29 for $50.00, and 37 for $45.00. The Seniors received 31 scholarships, the Juniors 32, the Sophomores 29, the Freshmen 41 and the Medical students one.

COLLEGE PREACHER

The College Preacher for March 2 is to be Rev. Robert Elliott Speer of New York City. Mr. Speer graduated from Princeton University in 1889, after which he studied in the Theological Seminary of that institution. Since 1891 he has been secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions. He made a tour of visitation of the Christian missions in Persia, India, China, Korea and Japan in 1896-7; and in South America in 1909. He is the author of a number of religious works. He will speak in the Church on the Hill in the morning and evening, and in the Chapel in the afternoon.

BASEBALL NEWS

Although the baseball season is some distance away, Captain Skolfield of the baseball team has expressed himself as well pleased with the prospects for a successful team this year. In addition to the five veterans of last year’s team, Daniels ’13, a veteran of the season before, has returned to College.

The Freshmen who are taking cage work are making a good showing, and it is more than probable that there is some varsity material among them. Coach Coogan is expected here March 28.

The greater part of the cage work has been devoted to bunting, base-running and sliding. The improvement among even the experienced men has been noticed in this line. Joe Finneran, the new track coach, said that the new cage is the best in this part of the country, and that even the baseball facilities at Yale are not equal to those at Bowdoin.

SECOND VESPER SERVICE

The second vesper service was held Thursday, Feb. 20, at 5 p.m. in the Chapel. Crowell ’13 was leader and Rev. John Quint gave the prayer and Scripture reading. Professor Daniel Evans ’92 of Andover Seminary spoke on “The Church and Labor.” In announcing the speaker in morning chapel, Professor Mitchell, who was in college with him, told of the respect and admiration Professor Evans received from the students because of his high character.

Professor Evans said the question of conditions among the laboring people was the greatest in the world, and by the influence of the church alone could the huge laboring population be brought to a life in harmony with the rest of the people. “The Church is the great civilizing agent of the modern world. Religion restrains the passions of men and directs them to good, but the Church has been losing its hold on working people. Man cannot worship alone and the type is not the hermit now; so the Church must gather the people in. A few working people go to church, some are antagonistic to the Church and many are indifferent because they have found no satisfaction in the common places of worship. The reason for antagonism and indifference is that in past history the Church has allied itself with the rich against the poor, and the poor man in his misery finds it hard to believe in a kind and helping God. To understand the laboring man’s motives one must get into contact with his life. The laboring man submits to the domination of capital because he must support the family he loves. He does not want charity but justice. Justice will give him a fair share in what he helps to produce. But man is not here only to live; he is here for a life. True religion is the supreme end of life, that transforms it and makes it beautiful. The more prosperous should help the working people on to real life. This can be reached through the Church and in the Church all people should join to praise God, know one another and live.”

INTERSchOLASTIC MEET

Arrangements have practically been completed for the indoor interscholastic track meet which is to be held in the new athletic building March 15. In addition to the list of entries published in last week’s Orient, Edward Little High of Auburn, Mexico High, and Dexter High have entered. The program has been changed, but the following events are now certain: 220. 440 and 880 yard runs, 40 yard dash, 45 yard hurdles, 12 pound shot put, high jump, broad jump, pole vault, and relay races. The relay races as far as arranged are: Deering vs. Portland, Hebron vs. Coburn, and Morse vs. Lincoln.

A number of the officials will be College professors who are interested in track work, among them probably Dr. Whittier, and the rest will be College track men.

All the events will take place on the floor. The Norwich Corners from the upper track will be lowered, and covered with three inches of clay. It is thought that bleachers will be arranged on the floor rather than seats on the running track.

AN ALUMNI COUNCIL

The committee on the formation of an alumni council which met in Brunswick last month has decided to report the following recommendations to the meeting of the Alumni Association to be held at Commencement, 1913:

"That it is advisable that an alumni council be formed for the purpose of co-ordinating alumni activities; acting as representative of the alumni influence and interests; having charge of the various alumni associations; securing for the College desirable publicity; securing loans for needy undergraduates, and other funds for the College; and in other ways striving to turn the activities of the alumni into channels that will produce the most desirable results for the College.

"Such a council shall be composed of twelve members; four members to be elected each year for terms of three years; at the start, elections to be for one, two and three years.

"Election shall be by the alumni at large; nominations of at least twice the number of candidates to be voted for shall be made by the committee appointed by the General Association, and shall be sent out in May; every alumnus shall be eligible to vote.

"The council shall have power to employ a secretary if necessary, and it is hoped to secure the funds for such a purpose."

COLLEGE BULLETIN

The February number of the College Bulletin deals with expenses of students, together with scholarships, prizes and opportunities for self help. In addition to the customary figures given in the annual catalogue, the bulletin takes up personal expenses and sets the yearly expense to the average student at $569.00. The lowest figure set is $408.00 and the liberal is $771.00. These personal expenses, which include clothes, amusements and fraternity dues, are taken from the records of those men who have kept expense accounts.

Over $10,000 in scholarships was awarded last year to 138 students who had proved themselves needy and deserving. These scholarships vary in amount from $45.00 to $100.00, with an average of about $75.00. The bulletin says: "Since all scholarships are awarded on the basis of good character, good scholarship and need, it would be unfair to promise a scholarship in advance to any one individual; but anyone who is confident of his ability to meet these three requirements can promise one to himself."

Over $2,000.00 is paid annually to the 25 students who are assistants, the amount varying from $40.00 to $200.00. Another $1,000.00 is available for students who do clerical work in the Library and Dean's office. They are paid by the hour and average from $50.00 to $80.00 each. Still another $2,000.00 is paid student assistants in the department of physical training for work in the gymnasium and at the athletic field. The individual earnings here range from $50.00 to $200.00. It is estimated that in 1913 $1,500.00 of this sum will go to men in the academical department and $500.00 to men in the Medical School.

Prizes to the amount of more than $900.00 are annually awarded to those students who excel in any one branch of work. The highest of these is the Smyth Mathematical Prize of $300.00.

According to the bulletin, outside work is divided into the following principal classes: canvassing, working in banks, acting as car conductor, bell boy, time keeper, steamboat agent, clerking in hotels and stores, tutoring, typewriting, selling night lunches, newspaper work, waiting on table, managing book store. The Y. M. C. A. conducts an employment agency which endeavors to obtain positions for college men.

Moreover, the College aids its graduates to obtain positions and it is estimated that over one-half of each graduating class obtain positions through recommendations of the College. Each year the College receives more applications for teachers than it is able to fill while many business houses frequently offer important positions to Bowdoin men.

In dealing with the value of a college education, the bulletin says that the value of a college education cannot be measured in money, but that nevertheless, college men have an earning capacity far greater than that of men of equal ability who have not had the college education.

Club and Council Meetings

The first unofficial shoot of the Bowdoin College Gun Club was held Friday afternoon on the Brunswick traps. Ted Emery '13 was high gun for the afternoon with 20 out of a possible 25. The present plans are for a tournament, in which efforts will be made to interest more men, as well as to give the candidates practice for a probable match with the University of Maine.

At a meeting of the Freshman class Thursday afternoon, the committee for the annual banquet was elected as follows: Churchill, chairman, Littlefield, Noble, Edwards and D. White. Leadbetter was elected captain of the class track team and Sayward, manager.

At a meeting of the Sophomore class Friday afternoon, a committee was chosen to confer with Prof. Wass with regard to the class song. The committee is composed of West, chairman, Card and McKenney.

A meeting of the Ibis will be held this evening at the Zeta Psi House. Professor Ham will speak on "German Municipal Government."

On the Campus

At the request of Dr. Whittier, Ellis Spear, Jr., a member of the Executive Committee of the National Archery Association, is expected to visit the College within two weeks for the purpose of trying to interest Bowdoin men in archery. He will probably meet the fellows at a smoker, where the formation of an archery club will be discussed.

Gen. Thomas Hamlin Hubbard and his daughter were on the campus Thursday, when Gen. Hubbard for the first time went through the new gymnasium.

"Cope" Philoon was on the campus Monday and showed his usual "pep" at the smoker Monday night. He is on furlough of two months and a half. While at his post in Montana, he coached the football team of the University of Montana last fall.

Don White '05 was also at the Monday smoker. Norton '13 is confined to his room with the grippe.

Proctor '16 has returned to the hospital for treatment.

McWilliams '15 occupied the pulpit in the Episcopal Church at Lisbon Falls Sunday morning.

Twenty-two members of the Bowdoin Chapter of Kappa Sigma attended the annual district conclave at Boston Feb. 21 and 22.

A large number of Bowdoin students will take part in the production of "Brunswick; an Historical Play," to be given in the Town Hall, Feb. 27. The play was written by Dr. Whittier and Albert W. Tolman '88 of Portland. A number of the scenes are closely connected with the College and its history.

The following Freshmen are out for assistant track manager: J. Baxter, W. Chase, R. Clark, A. Crossman, L. Elliott and R. Little.

L. Donahue '14 pulled a tendon in his leg at the meet last Saturday and will probably be out of track work for a few days.

The Dramatic Club is now holding two or three regular rehearsals every week. The members of the cast are rapidly falling into the spirit of the play, and if the rehearsals maintain their present excellence, and are any indication to go by, then the play this year will be one of the best ever put on by the club.

The Library Table

In The Outlook of February 8 is an editorial on a pamphlet written by E. Baldwin Smith '11 entitled "The Study of the History of Art." This pamphlet should be of great value to the prospective art student, as it gives the nature and extent of the courses offered by the various colleges and universities. Out of the four hundred institutions of learning where liberal arts are taught, ninety-five give art history courses, but only sixty-eight of these institutions give adequate courses. Because of this only a comparatively small number of students in American institutions can have the privilege of thorough art courses. To use the words of The Outlook, "This is not as it should be. America is rapidly becoming an art-loving nation. The appreciation of works of art is not confined to connoisseurs. The attendance at our art museums shows the spontaneous nature of a popular appreciation, and this too of the very best works of art."

The most recent addition to the exchange column of the Orient is the Reed College Quest, a fortnightly paper published by the students. It does not make use of reformed spelling as so many other Reed publications have done.

The Library is once again blessed by the accession of a work that ranks very high among publications of its kind. The seven volumes of An American Bibliography, by Charles Evans, constitutes a chronological dictionary of all books, pamphlets, and periodical publications printed in the United States from the genesis of printing in 1639 down to and including the year 1789.

A unique and extremely valuable feature of the work is the chronological arrangement of the bibliography, which is better suited to reference than is an alphabetical arrangement of authors. The date is more important in bibliographical research than is the grouping of the works of the various authors, since the former shows the underlying causes which evoked the publication of the listed works. For those who desire it, however, an index of authors follows the main bibliography.

The new work is a great aid in literary and historical reference. Attached to each work in the bibliography, is an Evans serial number, which can be used instead of an inconveniently long titular reference. Then, too, almost every entry is followed by reference to one or more of the well-known libraries where copies of the book mentioned can be procured.

There are other useful features of this new bibliography. It gives the auction values of the books; and offers a classified subject-index. The list of printers and publishers is likewise of bibliographical interest and importance.

The Youths' Companion of January 18 reproduces on its cover an excellent picture of the new Bowdoin gymnasium and contains a complete description of both the gymnasium proper and the Thomas Worcester Hyde Athletic Building.

Intercollegiate Notes

At the annual banquet of the Williams College alumni in Boston recently an alumni council was proposed.

Two cups for the winners in a kicking contest have recently been offered by a sophomore society at the University of Maine.

The Bates Student, which was formerly a monthly publication, is now being issued weekly. It is the plan of the Board to retain the features of the former publication in an enlarged edition once a month.

Students at the University of Pennsylvania have been granted a reduction in rates for the grand opera season.

Resolutions

Hall of Eta of Theta Delta Chi

January 24, 1913.

It is with deepest sorrow that Eta Charge of Theta Delta Chi is called upon to record the death on November 5th of a beloved brother, Charles W. Longren of the Class of 1884. The Charge takes this opportunity to extend its sincere sympathy to his immediate family and those bound close to him by ties of friendship.

Earle Blanchard Tuttle,
Paul Donahue,
Kimball A. Loring.

For the Charge.

Alumni Department

'43.—One of Bowdoin's oldest graduates, Charles Wendell Porter, passed away January 27th at his home in Washington, D. C., after an illness of but two days. Much of his life had been spent in the West where he attained prominence in the railroad world. Mr. Porter was born May 1, 1823 at Machias, Me. He received an A.M. degree from this college in 1846 and also graduated from Harvard Law School. After practicing law in his native town for seven years, he went to St. Louis where for three years he was engaged in business. Returning to Machias he remained there for seven years and then again went West, this time to Batavia, Ill. He entered the railway business and for six years was land commissioner of the Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis Railroad, later becoming secretary of corporation. From 1878 until 1902 he made his home at Hudson, Wis. In the latter year he went to Washington, D. C., where after a short period of legal success, he retired from active life. At the time of his death Mr. Porter was 89 years of age.

'86.—While traveling in Egypt, Charles Whitcomb Tuttle, one of Bowdoin's most loyal alumni, died at Alexandria last week. Mr. Tuttle was a native of Hancock, N. H. Two years after his graduation he received the degree of A.M. from this college and later did post-graduate work at Gottingen and Freiburg. For a time he was a prominent chemist at San Francisco but of late his home has been at Colusa, Cal. Mr. Tuttle was a deep student and attained considerable success in his chosen field of chemistry. His wife and daughter were with him when he died. He is also survived by three sons, one of whom, Curtis Tuttle of our present senior class, has just completed his course of study. Mr. Tuttle was well-known in Brunswick where he has many relatives and is a frequent visitor.

'05.—One of the very successful of our younger alumni, Rev. J. Edward Newton, will assume the pastorate of the Rockland Congregational Church March 1st. Mr. Newton is a most remarkable scholar. While in college he won prizes in American History and Political Science; was selected for a Commencement part; graduated summa cum laude; and made Phi Beta Kappa. During his undergraduate days, he also won a prize in a competition open to all college men, his successful thesis being "The Effect of the Trusts on the Working Man." He also obtained an A.M. from Yale in 1906. Mr. Newton has occupied pastates at Jewett City, Conn., and at New Haven. He enters upon his new field with the best wishes of all Bowdoin men and a host of other friends.

'12.—Harrison Carter Chapman of Portland was married to Miss Virginia Woodhury of Brunswick, Saturday, Feb. 15, at the First Parish Church of Brunswick.
BOWDOIN ORIENT

VOL. XLII  BRUNSWICK, MAINE, MARCH 3, 1913  NO. 27

ADDRESS OF PRESIDENT HYDE

AT THE FUNERAL OF PROFESSOR CHAPMAN.

No words can heighten the esteem or deepen the affection we all feel for Professor Chapman. Any attempt to add would but subtract. Yet while he needs no tribute we can pay, we need to learn a lesson he can teach.

He was more admired and loved than any man in our College and community. What was there about him that won this universal admiration and affection? To answer, “his gracious manner, his sweet nature, his charming personality” is but to hide the light of his life behind vague phrases. So hidden it is largely lost. For these qualities cannot be copied successfully. The only way to transfer them from one life to another is to discover and transplant their root.

The root of Professor Chapman’s character was the wholeness of the man. Most of us are but half-men. If we have spiritual aspirations, they are without fit secular expression. That is one kind of half-man. Or, if we are effective in sports and studies, and practical affairs, we have no deep spiritual purpose out of which they spring and by which they are held together. That is the other kind of half-man. Professor Chapman was a whole man: his spiritual purpose fitly expressed in secular activity; his secular and social activity firmly united to his spiritual purpose; so there was no seam or gap where the one left off and the other began.

It was so in his student days. Some men can play ball, or write graceful verse, or edit a humorous publication. Other men can lead in religious life and work. Of late years the union of these two sides of life in the same person is becoming common. We understand that the man who does either alone is only a half-man. Fifty years ago the union of these two sides in the same person was far more rare. The man who specialized in either the secular or the spiritual was hardly expected to be strong on the other side. Professor Chapman specialized in both; or rather united them in one, as our strongest college men do today. He was the senior editor of the Bugle, class orist and poet, pitcher of the nine, and president of the Praying Circle, the predecessor of the Christian Association.

The same difference between the half-man and the whole man comes out in mature, practical life. There are half-men who find it easier to pray than to work; who are more adept in the worship of God than in the service of society or the help of their fellowmen. There are other half-men who plunge effectively into business, politics, society, philanthropy, without any deep, strong, central purpose to make these pursuits express the justice, the kindness and the love of God. Professor Chapman was the zealous and devout deacon of the church and the impartial and courteous moderator of the town meeting. Out of his daily prayer and weekly worship in the house of God came a smile for every little child upon the street; tenderness in the home circle; geniality in society; fidelity as chairman of the school committee, trustee of Bangor Seminary and the State Normal Schools; devotion to the town library, the town and state historical societies, and the Village Improvement Association; enthusiasm in teaching his favorite books and authors, which in spite of failing health he chung till the very end. How inspiring he taught I chanced to see some years ago. Unexpected I came quietly upon two Bowdoin undergraduates in the churchyard at Grasmere. They were not literary lights; simply ordinary, rollicking Bowdoin boys. Yet they were standing silent, with bowed heads, in the attitude of deepest reverence, by the grave of William Wordsworth. It was no less a tribute to the teacher than to the poet. To induce that mood in young men, after the course had been given and the examination passed, is to teach English Literature to good and lasting purpose. His own beautiful English style, the finished form of all he said and did, flowed quietly, inevitably, from a mind and heart in rhythmic harmony with God's truth and beauty which he was ever seeking to portray. The warmth of his friendship, the loyalty of his devotion to community, seminary, and College, the eager interest with which he followed the progress of his students through their college course and on into the struggle of professional and business life, was one more illustration of how his love of God flowed over into love of man, making courtesy and kindliness "the simple offspring of the common day."

I forbear to dwell upon the irreparable loss to sister, brother, son, daughter and grand children, to whom he had filled the dear names of brother, father and grandfather with a peculiarly sweet and sacred meaning. The town suspends its customary business to mourn its foremost citizen. The College can never hope to find in these days of hurried professional preparation another who like him has gradually grown into the love of letters through the lifelong effort to satisfy his own soul's hunger for truth of thought and feeling, and beauty of form and phrase; and who like him can hang on the torch of learning glowing with the joy of personal appreciation.

The sense of personal loss felt by the students has been so well expressed by one of their own number, that with his permission I shall read what he wrote on the announcement of Professor Chapman's death, and the suspension of exercises on Monday.

A voice has spoken, and the Chapel bell
Is silent. The morning air all sunshine,
Cold and clear, hears not the sound
Of wonted daily life. No Sabbath hush
Is this, but something more: a restless rest,
A questioning, half-groping doubt that creeps
Into the mind and robs it of its joy
And gives in place a saddened wonderment,
The wonderment a finished duty gives
That nobly to the end, without complaint,
Has moved and glorified each day.

Too soon, too near is death for this our life
To feel and know the loss, although the lip
May say, For only time that whispers in
The heart can make us see the vacancy.
The calmful joy, the loving word, the smile,
The consecration of each daily task
All live, and shall until for us
The air be hushed and still forevermore.

—Edward O. Baker.

Not alone the sad sense of what we have lost, but the glad assurance of what both he and we retain, would we carry with us from this hour;—
the blessed memory of a life that has achieved Goethe's aspiration to be "all there" in every duty and relationship; a life that has nobly fulfilled the prayer of Socrates, "Give me beauty in the inward man, and may the outer and inner be at one:" a life that has justified the praise bestowed by the Master of Balliol College on its most beloved fellow and tutor, "He loved great things, and thought little of himself; desiring neither fame nor influence, he won the devotion of men and was a power in their lives: and, seeking no disciples, he taught to many the greatness of the world and of man's mind."

HENRY LELAND CHAPMAN

We do not choose for our observation these or those qualities in a gifted friend. So, in recalling some of my own indebtedness to a good friend that I have lost, the result is but a scanty record of impressions, so imperfect in number and in quality that I should hesitate, if life itself were any better than a fragment.

My first memory is of a college tutor, exact in scholarship, somehow a little more human than a professor, but after all a part of a dreaded system that we students contemplated as a mysterious measuring-machine. This belief was false enough to the fact, as I know from later contact with Bowdoin College teachers. I associated then no thought of happiness in one's business or joy in scholastic living with the good men who taught us on the hard benches before them. This came certainly in part from the dullness of youth, having to deal with only a few of the facts. The old régime trained one of its finest servants in the man who was destined also to be a master in the new. The theological training that he had received he repaid with manifold interest to the school that had taught him. We who were young heard him as a preacher always with profit from his soundness and clearness of mind, and with rare delight in his manner that was faultless. In fact, I have almost never heard him, when expressing himself with deliberation, without a sense of personal literary discouragement. He set such value on any occasion of dealing with his fellows that he was incapable of carelessness.

No one familiar with Brunswick during the first half of Professor Chapman's long period of teaching could omit from his thought the share of Mrs. Chapman in the intellectual life of the little college community. Those who were privileged to know her appreciated somewhat both the charm and strength of her gracious personality and her eager and penetrating knowledge of the essential qualities of literature. The sense of his irreparable loss of such companionship for the last two decades of his life was sacredly veiled from the gaze of others.

The breadth of his interests was fostered by certain peculiarities of the ideal training of old as the base of fitness for work as a college teacher. The ministerial education which he received in the three years immediately following his graduation from college prepared him to represent the interests of the denomination in the pulpits which he served as occasional demands were made. On his appointment to college service directly after his seminary graduation, he was given the beginning, lowest grade, that of tutor in Latin and Mathematics. In three years he was made Professor of Latin; he remained three years more in this chair and was then transferred to the work in English. The scope which his new field offered was especially congenial in its further challenge to him in the development of his native gift of style. It relieved him from the temptation, almost deemed a necessity, to indulge the versatility on which the older educational theories placed a premium. His predilections did not prevent his generous attention to the whole of the vast field that it was his duty to survey, considered as a unit among the literatures of the world. He was too sane to be a literary worshipper; that he was great-minded and great-hearted enough to appreciate Shakespeare and Milton was no surprise to his friends. His marked gifts of the light touch and of a certain playful tenderness in dealing with social humanity made him enjoy heartily and expound wisely the Chaucer of the Prologue and Robert Burns. His musical temperament and the Augustan finish of his own work, especially in his mature years, were conditions that accompanied naturally his admiration of Tennyson. His college work included, of course, constant exemplification of what literature is and what it is for; but it may be doubted if its finest qualities were ever illustrated by him more effectively and touchingly than in his very recent rendering to his fortunate hearers of Crossing the Bar.

True spirit, from thy mortal earth released
Thou answerest the call of grace;
For thee the waiting of the world has ceased,
Thou gazest tearless in her face.

Fair spirit, who hast seen reflected here
The passing beauty of the truth,
Thine eyes are scanning Heaven's glorious sphere
Resplendent in unchanging youth.

Just spirit, who hast seen thy God as law
Indwelling in the things of sense,
Thou bringest nearer, loving yet in awe,
Thy worship of obedience.

Fare outward on eternal things intent,
God's scholar as our teacher sent,
Our better lives thy mortal monument.

—Henry Johnson.

THE ALUMNI

The following sonnet, written by Charles W. Snow '07, was published in the Quill of January, 1912:

To H. L. C.
I shall not wait until the accents sweet
Of his dear Master summon him away
To where the night shines brightly as the day
Before I lay my tribute at his feet:
Within that face what strength and beauty meet!
In those gray eyes what kindly lights at play!
Within that voice what gentleness alway!
And on that soul how glows the word complete!
Loved Chapman, who for more than forty years
Hast magnified the noble teacher's place,
And won the love of thousands by thy life,
Enshrined within the secret place of tears
And symbolizing Bowdoin's richest grace
Thy heart brings calm refreshment to our strife.

Henry Leland Chapman

Hail and farewell! we've barely time to greet
Our dearest friends, so urgent is our haste;
It seems we have so little time to waste
In further talk with those whom we may meet
By chance upon the busy, crowded street.
Both of us over-worked and eager-paced,
Some sudden memory is quick retraced,
Then sorrowful leave-taking we repeat.
Hail and farewell!—these words together lie
Upon our lips, yet stands at either pole
Of Thought's extended sphere—one springing from Glad heart of joy as an exultant cry,
The other sadly pressed from heart of dole,
To all that lies between, our lips are dumb.

—Isaac Bassett Choate.
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

Published every Tuesday of the Collegiate year by The Bowdoin Publishing Company in the interests of the Students of Bowdoin College

EDITORIAL BOARD

Douglas H. McMurtrie, 1913, Editor-in-chief
Robert D. Leigh, 1914, Managing Editor
Fred D. Wish, 1913, Alumni Editor

DEPARTMENT AND ASSOCIATE EDITORS

R. E. Simpson, 1914, The Library Table
A. H. MacCormick, 1915, On The Campus
F. P. McKenney, 1915, With The Faculty
J. F. Rollins, 1915, Intercollegiate Notes
L. E. Jones, 1913
V. D. Leavitt, 1913
K. A. Robinson, 1914
G. H. Talbot, 1915

Entered at Post Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII. MARCH 3 1913 No. 27

As a mark of the deep sorrow felt by the College in the death of her beloved teacher, this number of the Orient is dedicated to the memory of Professor Chapman. The tributes from faculty, alumni and undergraduates fittingly express the sorrow at the loss of Bowdoin's foremost professor, and emphasize the sterling qualities which made up Professor Chapman's character. May the College, taking example from his life, strive to develop men as worthy of the name as the friend and counsellor we have lost.

THE FACULTY

I know of no man in Brunswick whose death would be more keenly felt by the whole community, and of no graduate of Bowdoin whose passing would cause sorrow more universal and sincere. A large majority of the living alumni have been his pupils, the rest almost to a man have known him well for many years, and all without exception have had for Professor Chapman respect and honor and genuine affection. His intimate acquaintance with the life of the College for half a century, his deep interest in all that concerns the welfare of town, state, and nation, his clear discrimination of excellence and his high ideals in literature and in life, his opinions and judgments always positive and frank and always expressed with a fine consideration for others, and his kindly, sympathetic and genial spirit in all his relations with his fellows, made him an invaluable counselor and coworker in College, church and town, and in the wider interests to which he was devoted. It was a delight to work with him. It is a blessing to have known him. For he was open as the day, genial as spring sunshine, a pure and noble soul, without fear and without reproach. We are all in deep sorrow because we shall see his face no more.

Frank E. Woodruff.

In the death of Professor Chapman Bowdoin College has met with an irreparable loss. For more than forty years he has been a loved teacher in the college. With keenness and humor, with sympathy and eloquence and learning, he has interpreted to Bowdoin students the vital truths and the noble sentiments of a great literature. He has been able to bind together college boys and great books by the ties of understanding and interest and admiration. His students have looked up to him with pride. Reading his chaste English and hearing his cultured voice, they have been proud of him as a writer and as a speaker. But far more than that, they have been able to know something of the genuineness and the kindliness of his heart, and have felt the gracious influence of his winning personality. They have seen in him a true gentleman and have loved him as a personal friend.

-Wilmot B. Mitchell.

A marked characteristic of Professor Chapman was his wide range of interests. His fondness for athletics is one of the many evidences of this. From his undergraduate days, when he was the pitcher of the Bowdoin nine through the rest of his life he maintained his interest in the athletic affairs of the College. One of his last works for the College, outside the class-room was the writing of the memorial tablet to General Hyde, in whose memory the Athletic Building was given.

-Frank N. Whittier.

OTHER COLLEGES

Waterville, Maine, February 25, 1913.

To the Student Council and Student Body of Bowdoin College:
The Student Council of Colby College, acting on behalf of the Student Body, extends to the students of Bowdoin College most heart-felt sympathy at the demise of Professor Henry L. Chapman, whose death is a loss not only to Bowdoin, but to the entire world of scholars.

For the Student Council,

Ernest C. Marriner,
President.
THE FRATERNITY

The grievous loss which the College has sustained in the death of Professor Henry Leland Chapman is felt with peculiar keenness by his brothers in Alpha Delta Phi, by alumnus and undergraduate alike. He knew us all. Every surviving member of the Chapter has felt the pressure of that warm right hand, and cherishes the memory of his genial smile. His interest in them began as soon as they were pledged, and lasted through life.

Sadly as we shall all miss him, the loss is greatest to the active Chapter of which he was the wise counsellor, as well as a loving father to every member. He was a typical illustration of that which has sometimes been held to be an incongruity—a man full to overflowing with college spirit and loyalty, commanding the love and admiration of every present and past student in the institution, and yet a strong and devoted fraternity man. The spirit that animated him when he wrote one of the songs which we all most delight to sing, was characteristic of him to the end of his life. Hereafter it will be with loving and tender thoughts of him who wrote the words, that we sing that "the sweet perfume

Of that holy friendship lingers
Round each brother's tomb."

For the Bowdoin Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi, —Edward Stanwood, 1861.

GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS

The beneficiaries of the graduate scholarships for this year were announced yesterday afternoon. Alfred Henry Sweet received the Henry W. Longfellow Graduate Scholarship and Paul Howard Douglas was awarded the Charles Carroll Everett Scholarship. Douglas will specialize in Economics and Sociology at Columbia University. Sweet will take work in English Literature at Harvard.

Sweet entered Bowdoin at the beginning of College a year ago. He has been prominently identified with various activities in student life and was recently winner of the '68 Prize Speaking Contest. Douglas has been vitally connected with undergraduate activities during his whole course here and has held many positions of prominence. He was largely responsible for the formation of the Bowdoin Club last spring, and as chairman of the Board of Managers has successfully and efficiently organized the blanket tax system at Bowdoin. In Economics and Sociology he has been very successful and was winner of the Noyes Political Prize as well as several debating prizes. He is well known athletically by his two years' work as center on the Varsity football team.

THE CONFERENCE

The Fifth Annual Maine State Students' Y. M. C. A. Conference was held at Bowdoin February 28 and March 1 and 2. Colleges and preparatory schools alike were represented and it is estimated that nearly 200 delegates were in Brunswick.

The entire student body extended a cordial welcome to the visitors, and the townspeople also welcomed the delegates from other schools, and entertained them at their homes.

The opening service was held Friday evening in the Church on the Hill. It was the good fortune of the students and delegates to hear Hon. Carl E. Milliken, president of the Maine Senate, a graduate of Bates College, who said, in brief, that after a man graduates from college, it is not what he knows but what he is that shapes his life, and that college men should go forth to make Christian communities. The future of the country depends upon these college men of today and they should return to civilization the debt that they owe it.

Mr. Harrison S. Elliott, Bible Study Secretary of the Student Department of the International Y. M. C. A., spoke upon the light in which college men are beginning to see religion, and of the effect that this religion has upon the colleges and students. The colleges are not determined by the catalogue and faculty but by the students themselves. The Young Men's Christian Association is a band of men who want this school or that to take its model from the life of Jesus Christ. They are practicing every day, efficient religion.

Immediately after the close of the opening service, the meeting adjourned to Memorial Hall, where a reception was given to the visiting delegates by the Bowdoin Y. M. C. A. Here refreshments were served and delegates were given an opportunity to meet those from other schools. Cheers for all the schools were given and then acting Dean McConaughy on behalf of the College, welcomed the visitors.

The programs of the opening service and of the reception follow:

OPENING SERVICE

Congregational Church, seven-fifteen
Organ Prelude, "At Evening" D. Buck
Hymn
Scripture Reading Dean Hart, of Maine
Prayer Rev. John H. Quint
Address
Hon. Carl E. Milliken, Pres. Maine Senate
After the regular sessions of Saturday afternoon, the delegates were given an opportunity to make a sight-seeing tour of the campus. In the new gymnasium, there were games and athletic events in which the visitors took part.

The afternoon program:

- Congregational Church, one-thirty
  - Devotional Exercises
  - "Maine Students and the Northfield Conference," Mr. Cushman
  - "The Value of Deputation Work," Mr. Howe

- Congregational Church, two-fifteen
  - Conference on Service,
    - Conducted by Mr. Elliott, assisted by Mr. King and others.
  - Preparatory School Men
  - Congregational Church Vestry, two-fifteen
    - Conference on Service,
    - Conducted by Mr. Chase, assisted by Mr. Howe and others.
  - Faculty Men
    - Faculty Room, Massachusetts Hall, three
    - Conference on Student Religious Life and Work

The Saturday evening program consisted of a panorama lecture by Mr. Elliott on his travels and experiences in India, China, Korea and Japan.

A special chapel service was held at 9.30 Sunday morning, Mr. Howe leading the devotional service "What Prayer Means to Me." Immediately after the close of the session at the chapel there were services in the churches, as follows:

- 10.45
  - Congregational Church—Speaker, Dr. Speer
  - Methodist Church—Speaker, Mr. King
  - Universalist Church
  - Baptist Church—Speaker, Mr. Elliott

In the afternoon, the leaders met delegates and talked with them upon matters of vital importance and interest. Mr. Elliott was at the Beta Theta Pi House, Mr. Howe at the Psi Upsilon House, Mr. King was at the Delta Kappa Epsilon House and Mr. Chase was at the Delta Upsilon House.

The remainder of the Sunday afternoon program follows:

- The Library (Second Floor), three-thirty
  - Conference on "The Y.M.C.A. Secretaryship as a Life Work," conducted by Mr. H. S. Smith of the Springfield Y.M.C.A. Training College
  - The Library (Second Floor) and Fraternity Houses, four College Mission Study Classes, delegates are invited to attend some class

- College Chapel, five
- College Vesper Service for Students
Organ Prelude                   Mr. Wass
Responsive Reading              President Hyde
Scripture                        Dr. Speer
Address                          Solo
Organ Postlude                   Mr. Wass

The Sunday evening meeting ended the conference. It was a Union Service and the public was invited, but the closing session was for delegates only. At that time the convention was ended for the year, to meet again at Colby in 1914.

The evening program:
 Congregational Church, seven-thirty
Prelude, "Adoration"                     Gaul
Address                                Dr. Speer
Anthem, Quartette, "I Will Lift Up Mine Eyes"     Roberts
Closing Session for Delegates Only
Postlude, Marche Triomphale            Dubois

Over 126 delegates were present, in addition to 18 faculty members of the Christian Association. Bates led the visiting colleges with 25 representatives, Colby had 20 and Maine four. The delegates were warm in their praise of the way that the conference was conducted and all enjoyed their stay at Old Bowdoin. The meetings accomplished their purpose in arousing interest and enthusiasm in the work of the Christian Associations and showed to many who have not hitherto taken an interest in the work what the Association stands for and the good it does.

On the Campus

The Varsity Fencing team, composed of J. Dunphy '13 (Capt.), Floyd '15 and Shackford '13 with Purrit '15 alternate, met the Harvard team last Friday evening in the Hemenway Gymnasium, Cambridge. The Bowdoin team was defeated 9 to 0.

The Freshman class held a meeting last Friday. Ora Evans was elected class pianist. Woodman was elected chairman of the song committee to arrange for the class sings.

Lack of space forbids our printing abstracts of a number of the Y.M.C.A. Conference speeches, especially the sermon of Dr. Speer, the College preacher.

Next Thursday, March 6, a concert will be held in the Cumberland Theatre under the direction of William R. Chapman, the Maine Festival director. Miss Sue Winchell, well known to the student body, and a resident of Brunswick, is one of the soloists.

Alumni Department

'66.—Professor Henry Leland Chapman, D.D., LL.D., over 40 years a member of the faculty of Bowdoin College, died of Bright's disease at his home early Monday morning, February 24, after an illness of some months. Professor Chapman was himself a Bowdoin graduate and in his work as professor here he was regarded with the same feeling of comradeship that he had while a student.

He was born in Bethel, Maine, July 26, 1845, the son of Elbridge Chapman and Delinda Twitchell (Kimball) Chapman. His preparatory schools were Gould Academy and Gorham Seminary; he entered Bowdoin in the fall of 1862.

While at College, Professor Chapman showed those characteristics that marked him as a man of exceptional ability. He was for four years pitcher of the varsity baseball team and was a member of the boat crew, but he did not allow his work in athletics to interfere with his studies and at his graduation in 1866 he received Phi Beta Kappa honors. He was also a member of the Bowdoin Cornet Band, a member of the Chapel choir, and president of the Bowdoin Praying Circle,—the foundation of the present Christian Association. He was Senior Editor of the Bugle, was class poet during his first and last years at Bowdoin and was on the Ivy Day in 1865. Indeed, he is generally credited with being the founder of the Ivy Day exercises. He was a member of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity and always took an active interest in the Bowdoin Chapter.

After his graduation, Professor Chapman, then Mr. Chapman, studied for three years at the Bangor Theological Seminary and was graduated from that institution in 1869. Returning to Bowdoin, he became tutor in Latin and Mathematics, and a year later, in 1870, he was promoted to the position of instructor in Latin. During this year, he married Emma Caroline Smith of Gorham, who died June 14, 1892. In 1872, Professor Chapman was made professor of Latin and three years later he was elected professor of rhetoric, oratory and the English language. In 1880 he was made Edward Little professor in the same courses, a position that he held until 1897, when the courses of that professorship were divided, Wilmot B. Mitchell becoming the Edward Little professor of rhetoric and oratory and Professor Chapman taking the new department of English Literature, a chair especially suited to him, and indeed especially created for him, for his natural abilities in the field of English language made him particularly capable in teaching that course.

He had an especial gift for memorizing poetry and frequently in the course of his lectures he would stop and recite poem after poem from the works of Burns, Byron, Scott, Coleridge, Wordsworth, Tennyson and Browning, to illustrate the point made in his remarks.

Professor Chapman’s well known talent for interesting and instructive teaching made his classes always well filled and a large percentage of the college men studied under him for at least a portion of their college terms. From 1883 to 1885, after the resignation of General Joshua L. Chamberlain from the presidency of the college, Professor Chapman was elected Dean. It was at that time that Bowdoin first began her expansion that has placed her among the leading colleges of the country, and it is in no small measure due to his efforts during this time that the College was started on its road to success.

After his retiring from the position of Dean he became trustee of the Bangor Theological Seminary, a position that he has held ever since, and from 1887 until 1911, he served as president of the Board. He has been a trustee of the Bangor Theological Seminary for the past 22 years; he has also been a trustee of Bridgton Academy, of the Maine Missionary Society and of the Maine Bible Society. He was a member of the Maine Historical Society and has served as vice-president of that organization.

In 1869 Bowdoin conferred on Professor Chapman the degree of A.M., pro merito. This was followed by the degree of D.D. in 1890 and the degree of LL.D. in 1908.

On July 25, 1886, he delivered the poem “Ubi Sunt?” written for the twentieth anniversary of his class. In 1893 he gave a lecture on conservatism at the graduation exercises of the Maine Medical School and in 1895 he delivered an historical address at the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Bangor Theological Seminary. When the Carnegie Library was dedicated at Good Will Farm, Professor Chapman was called upon to make an address, and again in 1907, at the 300th anniversary of the landing of the first English settlers in New England, at Pemaquid, he was asked to speak. Only last year he was mentioned as a possible candidate for Governor of the State. He has written a number of sonnets, many of them well known not only to Bowdoin men, but also to readers of good literature, and he also wrote “Onward Bowdoin,” a rally song.

His perception in problems of the College was equalled by his ability to understand and solve problems of his town and for many years he was elected without opposition chairman of the Brunswick town meeting. Even in the days before Brunswick assumed its present proportions and was simply a small country settlement, Professor Chapman became influential in village affairs and was chairman of the Board of Agents for the Village District and soon afterward chairman of the School Committee. He was president of the Pejepscot Historical Society, was a charter member of the Public Library Association and for several years was a member of the executive committee and president of the Village Improvement Association. At the celebration of the 150th anniversary of the incorporation of the Town of Brunswick, he was chosen poet of the occasion.

Although Professor Chapman had studied for the ministry and had received the degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1890, he refused several calls to the pastorate of prominent churches.

The fact that his services to the College were appreciated by his fellow members of the faculty was shown by the reception and banquet tendered to him May 8, 1909, in honor of his 40 years of service at Bowdoin.

The announcement of Professor Chapman’s death after a life of usefulness to Bowdoin men for more than a generation was indeed a blow, not only to those students of the present time, but also to those graduates of years past. Many of the alumni of the College, men busy with the work of life, took the time to come to Brunswick to pay their last tribute to the man whom they knew and loved as student or professor, but always as a comrade.

Preceding the funeral were prayers at the house for the members of the immediate family. The funeral, Wednesday afternoon, from the First Congregational Church, of which Professor Chapman was a deacon and devoted member, was conducted by Rev. John Hastings Quint, assisted by Dr. William DeWitt Hyde, who pronounced the eulogy, and by President David S. Beach of Bangor Theological Seminary.

The Trustees and Overseers were represented by Edward Stanwood ’61, Weston Lewis ’70, Franklin C. Payson ’76, Galen C. Moses ’57, Clarence Hale ’69, Addison E. Herrick ’73, Augustus F. Moulton ’73, John A. Morrill ’76, Charles T. Hawes ’76, Barrett Potter ’78, Frederick O. Conant ’82, Charles H. Cutler ’81, William G. Mallett ’91, John A. Peters ’85, James P. Baxter. The pall bearers were Charles R. Bull, Verdi R. Leavitt, James P. Philoion, Frederick S. Wiggin, George F. Eaton, Arthur S. Pratt, Earl S. Thompson and Robert T. Weatherill, all members of Professor Chapman’s fraternity of Alpha Delta Phi.

The interment was in Pine Grove Cemetery. The hearse was preceded by the students marching in order of classes. There was a brief committal service by the Rev. Mr. Quint.
INDOOR INTERSCHOLASTIC MEET

On March 15 a new era in Maine interscholastic athletics will be opened by the occurrence of the Bowdoin College Interscholastic Indoor Meet. The success of the meet is already insured, both by the large number of entries and by the general interest shown throughout the schools of the State. Already 23 schools have signified their intention of competing, and are: Brunswick, Camden, Coburn, Cony, Deering, Dexter, Edward Little, Farmington, Freeport, Gardiner, Hallowell, Hebron, Kent’s Hill, Leavitt, Lewiston, Lincoln, M. C. L., Mexico, Morse, Portland, Rockland and Westbrook. These 23 schools are to send 150 contestants and in many cases a number of supporters. Every school except Mexico and Westbrook is planning to send a relay team, and these teams will be matched up with the purpose of furnishing the best possible race in each case.

The relays will be run off on a 110-yard packed clay track on the floor of the Athletic Building. Long spikes may be used on this floor. The 40-yard dash and the 45-yard high hurdles will be run across the floor. This track will be also of packed clay.

The bleachers will be under the board running track and will extend along the two sides of the building. The big net will be raised to the track so that a clear view of the entire course may be had from every seat.

Individual cups of silver and bronze will be given to each member of every winning relay team. The medals for first, second and third places in the track and field events will be of silver, bronze and ribbon, and will be from the same die as the outdoor medals except that on the reverse side will be the words “Indoor Meet.”

The championship trophy is a large wooden panel finished in green. In the center of this is a runner clearing a hurdle, and under the hurdle is a wreath of olive. Below the wreath is a large silver plate engraved with the words “Bowdoin College Interscholastic Indoor Meet.” Arranged below this large plate are five smaller ones, on which will be engraved the name of the winning school each year. The school winning the greatest number of times in five years will have permanent possession of the trophy.

Every effort is being made to secure an excellent list of officials. At present the tentative list is as follows:

Clerk of Course—B. B. Osthus, of Boston, who is clerk of course for the Maine, and the New England Intercollege Track Meets.
Referee—R. S. Macreadie.
Judges of Finish—B. C. Morrill, Dr. M. Copeland, C. B. Haskell, Jr.
Timers—Dr. F. N. Whittier, Dr. C. H. Stevens, F. A. Smith.
Starter—Mr. J. Finneran, track coach.
Scorer—C. Brown.
Announcer—R. D. Leigh.
Measurers—H. M. Hayes, G. W. Ricker.
Scorers—H. P. Faulkner, R. T. Weatherill.
Assistant Clerk of Course—A. S. Merrill, P. Koughan.

Custodians of Prizes—A. E. Gray, L. E. Jones.

The order of events is as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>TRACK EVENTS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Relay, Cony High vs. Gardiner High</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Relay, Morse High vs. Lincoln Academy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. 40 yard dash; heats and semi-finals</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Relay, Hallowell High vs. Freeport High</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Relay, Farmington High vs. Leavitt Institute</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6. 45 yard High Hurdles; heats and semi-finals</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7. Relay, Dexter High vs. Maine Central Institute</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8. Relay, Lewiston High vs. Edward Little High</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9. 220 yard run; trial heats</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10. 880 yard run</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11. Relay, Camden High vs. Rockland High</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>12. Relay, Kents Hill vs. Brunswick High</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>13. 40 yard dash finals</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14. 440 yard run</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>15. 45 yard High Hurdles; finals</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16. Relay, Coburn Classical Inst. vs. Hebron Academy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>17. Portland High vs. Deering High</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>FIELD EVENTS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Broad Jump</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
2. High Jump
3. Shot Put
4. Pole Vault

The track and field events will, for the most part, occur simultaneously.

The number of competitors representing the various schools is as follows: Mexico 2, Leavitt 5, Morse 5, M. C. I. 6, Hebron 13, Brunswick 10, Kents Hill 8, Lewiston 6, Westbrook 1, Deering 10, Coburn 8, Cony 6, Hallowell 5, Rockland 5, Farmington 6, Dexter 5, Lincoln 6, Camden 5, Edward Little 8, Gardiner 5, Portland 16.

Y. M. C. A NOMINATIONS

The following nominations have been made for Y.M.C.A. officers for the coming year:

President—A. E. Gray '14 and C. A. Brown '14.

Corresponding Secretary—A. H. MacCormick '15 and G. A. McWilliams '15.

Treasurer—P. J. Koughan '15 and J. F. Rollins '15.

Recording Secretary—H. H. Foster '16 and R. S. Fuller '16.

Alumni Advisory Committee—Prof. Mitchell, Prof. Sills and Rev. C. B. Emerson.

The annual meeting of the Y.M.C.A. and election of officers will held next week.

BRADBURY DEBATES

As a result of the Bradbury Prize Debates held March 5 and 6 in Memorial Hall, the following have been retained as intercollegiate debaters: Bacon '15, Crosby '13, Douglas '13, Gage '14, Sweet '13, Wish '13, with Norton '13 and Talbot '15, alternates. The team consisting of Crosby '13, C. G. Abbott '13 and Douglas '13 won first prizes and the team made up of Wish '13, Coffin '15 and Sweet '13 won second award. From those who have been chosen, two teams of three speakers and one alternate each will be chosen to represent Bowdoin in the triangular debate with Hamilton College and Wesleyan University on April 10.

N. E. ORATORICAL CONTEST

The annual contest of the New England Oratorical League will be Thursday, May 1, at Wesleyan. Five colleges, Amherst, Bowdoin, Brown, Williams and Wesleyan, are in the league. Each college sends one man. Bowdoin's speaker has not yet been chosen, but trials will be held about the first of April. In the three meetings of the league, Bowdoin has won twice, Earl Baldwin Smith in 1911 and Arthur Deehan Welch in 1912 being the Bowdoin winners.

THE INDOOR MEET

March 25 has been definitely decided as the date of the Interclass Indoor Meet. Besides the usual events several extra features are being planned. Efforts are being made to have Colby and Bates represented at the meet by relay teams, and this year the Medical School will compete as a unit.

One of the best features of the meet this year is that it will be run on the dirt floor of the Athletic Building and thus permit the use of long spikes in all of the events.

The events will be as follows: 1 mile, ½ mile, ¼ mile, 40 yard dash, 45 yard hurdles, high jump, broad jump, pole vault, shot put. The relay races will be between 8-man teams; one lap apiece. The class track captains and managers are: Seniors, Captain C. B. Haskell, Manager W. J. Nixon; Juniors, Captain L. T. Brown, Manager R. L. Buell; Sophomores, Captain F. S. Roberts, Manager M. H. Kuhn; Freshmen, Captain G. W. Leadbetter, Manager D. H. Sayward.

SUNDAY CHAPEL

At Sunday Chapel, President Hyde spoke on the true democracy. He said in part that politics as such do not enter into the schools and colleges, but that with the inauguration of Woodrow Wilson, all schools and colleges should realize that there has come into the presidency a man who is a democrat not merely politically, socially and industrially, a man who is the greatest college reformer since President Eliot. No college has gone so far in that democracy of Woodrow Wilson's as has this College here, and when a college does have the wider sense of democratic spirit, it has Christianity. President Wilson says, "The great voice of America does not come from the seats of learning but from the mountains... and farms... and mills." So we must train ourselves to be true helpers. Then we are true democrats; but if we train ourselves to get something better than the other, if we consider ourselves a class then we have no part in democracy and are cast out from the kingdom of Christ. Democracy in this sense is synonymous with Christianity and we ought to rejoice that a man who is a democrat in the broadest sense of the word has entered into the highest office of the land, if not the world.
WASHINGTON ALUMNI BANQUET

The annual banquet of the Washington, D. C., Alumni Association was held recently at the Raleigh Hotel of that city. Senator Charles F. Johnson '79 presided and acted as toastmaster. Those responding to toasts were President Hyde, Rev. Dr. S. M. Newman '67, Henry B. Quinby '69, Representative Fred C. Stevens '81, Representative D. J. McGillicuddy '81, Representative Frank R. Guernsey of Maine, George Otis Smith, a Colby graduate, Dr. Woodbury Pulsifer '75, Nathan C. Grover of the Univ. of Maine, George B. Chandler '90, Richard B. Dole '02 and Lyde S. Pratt '12.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Senator Charles F. Johnson; vice-presidents, Representatives Frederick C. Stevens and D. J. McGillicuddy; secretary, Woodbury Pulsifer; corresponding secretary, Charles H. Hastings '91; chaplain, Rev. Frank Sewall '58; treasurer, Gen. Ellis Spear '98; executive committee, Gen. Ellis Spear, chairman, Howard L. Prince '62, Dr. Woodbury Pulsifer, Charles H. Hastings, Richard B. Dole and Dr. Paul H. Preble '03.

COLLEGE ATHLETICS SCORED

The following clipping from an article by Dr. McCracken of U. of Pennsylvania is typical of the spirit of the discussion at the recent meeting of the N. C. A. A. held in New York. It is worthy the attention of every college man:

"Every true sport insists upon fairness and justice for its opponents," declares Dr. McCracken. "Anything which has a smattering of unfairness is frowned down, and yet many of the athletic associations of this country send scouts to spy out the style of game played by their opponents. In some instances a few important signals may be picked up and used to good advantage. Because of this system of spying among the Eastern schools, practically all large institutions are forced to do most of their football training behind closed gates. The students of the institution and friends of the members of the team are not admitted unless they can give the password. What an absurd development of college sports in a free country where students enter sports for the love of the game.

"Another condition equally deplorable," says Dr. McCracken, "a sin of omission rather than commission, exists at most of our large colleges. That is a condition whereby teams play against each other year after year and no members of the team except the line men are given an opportunity for even a meeting acquaintance. A great football player who had been out of the game for ten or twelve years was asked this question: 'How many men you played against in college do you now know socially?' After thinking for some time, he said: 'Three; but two of these are dead.'

"From an ethical standpoint we believe the six following conditions are desirable in order that each athlete may, while in college, receive the best preparation for his life after graduating: (1) A close supervision of all sports by the institution; (2) a hearty approval of athletics by all faculty members; (3) a classification of all schools according to eligibility requirements; (4) all athletic instructors responsible to the institution and considered officers of the same; (5) only men of good clean lives and high moral standards employed as athletic instructors; (6) a social system which will tend to create friendship between competitors of various teams."

FROM OXFORD

To the Orient:

Among six distinctions gained by Rhodes Scholars at Oxford, and recently announced by Mr. G. R. Parkin of the Rhodes Trust, was "A Commoner's Exhibition in Law at Trinity" by Robert Hale, of the Class of 1910.

Edward Eugene Kern '11, a Rhodes Scholar at Trinity College, Oxford, is a member of the Trinity Boat Crew.

WM. DEW. HYDE.
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

Published every Tuesday of the collegiate year by
The Bowdoin Publishing Company
in the interests of the students of
BOWDOIN COLLEGE

EDITORIAL BOARD

Douglas H. McMurtie, 1913, Editor-in-Chief
Robert D. Leigh, 1914, Managing Editor
Fred D. Wish, 1913, Alumni Editor

DEPARTMENT AND ASSOCIATE EDITORS

R. E. Simpson, 1914, The Library Table
A. H. MacCormick, 1915, On The Campus
F. P. McKenney, 1915, With The Faculty
J. F. Rollins, 1915, Intercollegiate Notes

L. E. Jones, 1913
W. R. Spinney, 1913
V. R. Leavitt, 1913
K. A. Robinson, 1914
G. H. Talbot, 1915

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted.

All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager of the Bowdoin Publishing Company. Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

BOWDOIN PUBLISHING COMPANY

H. B. Walker, 1913, Business Manager
Alfred E. Gray, 1914, Assistant Manager
E. L. Sylvester, 1914, Assistant Manager

Entered at Post Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII. MARCH 10, 1913 No. 28

Publicity

At the last meeting of the Student Council it was informally decided that all its deliberations, unless secrecy was especially demanded, should be made public in the Orient. Another step in advance! This action on the part of the Council cannot help but retain for it that confidence of the student body which it has enjoyed in the past and will also result, we hope, in a more lively interest on the part of the student body in the questions that come before their chosen representatives.

Second Team

It is the plan of the baseball management to have a well organized second team which is to practice on the Delta, play the first team regularly, and also play a schedule of games with outside teams. The series of interfraternity games, if conducted as in the past, would seriously interfere with the work of the second team. Thus the suggestion comes from the management that the usual fixed schedule of interfraternity games be abolished this season. In place of this it is proposed to have scrub games between the fraternities without a championship cup. In this way the second team would not suffer from the loss of the fraternity players and might perform its full share in strengthening the varsity team.

A regulation existing in Deferred Initiations many colleges has been proposed for adoption at Bowdoin. It is that the fraternity initiations shall be postponed until after the beginning of the second semester. Under the present system, if an initiate fails in February, he leaves college with but three months’ experience in the fraternity: a circumstance to which strenuous objection is being made by many of the national fraternity organizations. Under the system of deferred initiations, the pledging would take place as at present and the Freshman might live at the chapter house on trial for the first semester as regards his ability to meet the requirements of the College. Such a change ought not to be made without full discussion by the whole College and this the Student Council desires to open now.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The Y.M.C.A. is endeavoring to arrange for a musical service in the Chapel on Easter evening. Frank Smith, Gray '14, Merrill '14, MacCormick '15, McWilliams '15 and Foster '16 left Saturday for deputation work in Rockland, Camden, Vinalhaven and Warren. They spoke in churches and Sunday schools on Sunday. On Saturday evening a banquet was held.

About two hundred dollars have been pledged for the Hiwale Fund. Of this amount only about seventy-five have been paid. Those who have not yet paid are urged to do so as soon as possible.

Club and Council Meetings

The Senior Class held a meeting last Monday. L. E. Jones was elected chairman of the class day committee in place of Cushman, who has completed his course and left College. Pike was also elected a member of the same committee. Professor Wilmot B. Mitchell was elected chairman of the class ode committee in place of the late Professor Chapman. Skolfield and Wood were appointed a committee to find out the sentiment of the class in regard to carrying canes. Haskell was elected track captain and Nixon, manager.
The Monday Night Club met at the Kappa Sigma House, March 3. Thomas McCann of Bangor was a guest.

The Student Council held a meeting last Tuesday evening, March 4 in Hubbard Hall.

1) The matter of the limitation scheme was taken up as referred back from the student body and a new committee was chosen to investigate the matter further.

2) The matter of interfraternity baseball was discussed and it was decided to bring before the several fraternities the matter of an organized second team instead of an interfraternity league.

3) The plan of deferring of the initiation of Freshmen until a semester of successful collegiate work has been completed, which was recommended by the recent Interfraternity Conference, was discussed and it was decided to refer the matter to the several fraternities for their opinion and action.

4) The matter of Orient publicity was discussed and it was decided that all proceedings of the Council should be made public through the Orient.

5) It was called to the attention of the Council that in some class elections improper choices had been made for the position of tellers and a member was delegated to instruct the class president to appoint men of different fraternities from the candidates in all elections.

6) The matter of indiscriminate peddling and soliciting in the different dormitories was discussed and it was voted that no person shall solicit or peddle wares in the dormitories without obtaining the permission of the president of the Student Council. The Proctors are to enforce this provision.

7) There was a discussion of the U. Q. Club and its place in Bowdoin life.

8) It was decided to have the constitutions and regulations of the various organizations of the Associated Students printed in booklet form for general distribution to all students desiring them. A number of amendments were suggested to the by-laws of the Council and will be voted upon at the next meeting. The amendments were mainly those made necessary by the adoption of the Associated Students and the election of officers and members under that plan.

9) Plans for the Spring Rally were discussed and it was decided to have some form of college entertainment after the Interscholastic Indoor meet, March 15. A committee of arrangements was appointed.

The Deutscher Verein held its last meeting Monday evening, Mar. 3. Professor Bräuner gave an interesting talk about the schools of Germany. Professors Ham and Johnson were the guests of the evening. Refreshments were served. The next meeting is to be held at the house of Professor Ham on Monday, Mar. 17.

On the Campus

The following nominations have been made for leader of the Sophomore class squad to drill at the indoor meet: MacCormick, Verrill and Robinson.

For the Freshmen leader, Foster, Leadbetter, Stratton, Niven and Clark were nominated. At a meeting of the class Friday noon, Foster was elected.

The first Freshman class sing was held Friday afternoon. The committee in charge is: Woodman, chairman, Merrill and Hescock.

The Bugle picture of the Freshmen Class was taken Friday noon at the Art Building steps.

Winthrop Bancroft '16 has left College. He expects to return next fall.

Spinney '13 has returned to College after teaching at Pembroke the first semester.

Fred J. Lynch, ex-Harvard '15 has entered Bowdoin with Sophomore standing.

The Bowdoin slides were used Thursday night at Lincoln Academy, Friday night at Rockland and Saturday night at Vinalhaven. Dates have been made to show the slides at the meeting of the Boston Alumni Association and at Fryeburg Academy. Arrangements are pending for an exhibition of the slides at Worcester, Maine Central Institute and Portland.

The announcement that the Faculty had vetoed a track meet with Trinity was disproved when the Faculty last week formally approved of such a meet at Bowdoin, Saturday, May 10.

The date of the Indoor Meet has been changed from Monday, March 24 to Tuesday, March 25, in order to give the Glee Club an opportunity to give a performance before starting on its vacation trip. The Faculty has approved the relay race between the Colby and Bates varsity teams at the Indoor Meet.

The office hours of the acting Dean for this semester are as follows: Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, 11-12 A. M. Tuesday and Thursday, 2-3 P. M. The acting Dean will be in his office at 12:30 from Monday to Friday inclusive for the consideration of any matters presented at that time.

Elden Barbour '12 was on the campus over Sunday.

The Beta Theta Pi fraternity held its largest annual banquet of the New England members at the Hotel Lenox on last Friday evening. The Beta Sigma chapter of Bowdoin College had the largest number of members present, there being eighteen from the active chapter and eleven from the alumni. At the business meeting held before the banquet it was voted to hold the next general meeting convention in Boston the latter part of next summer.

The chapel choir has been made up as follows: Colby '13, Page '13, L. Dodge '13, Saunders '13, Shea '14, Cross '15, Trotter '14, Barry '16, Rawson '16, Rollins '15, Stuart '16, Twombly '13, P. Smith '15, Eaton '14, Monroe '14, Austin '15, Card '15, West '15, Wilson '14, Coffin '15, Leadbetter '16, Morris '13.

The next Musical Club concert will be held in the Town Hall, Brunswick, March 24. Following the concert there will be a dance. This will be the best opportunity to hear the Clubs.

The Second College Tea will be held on Thursday afternoon in Hubbard Hall. This tea is especially for graduates and friends from Lewiston and Auburn and the Kennebec Valley. The committee in charge has arranged to have this an Easter Tea.

The baseball men are working hard in the cage and some good material is showing up. Last week twelve men were measured for new suits. The new coach is expected to arrive about the 27th of this month.

Professor Davis recently acted as a judge of a public speaking contest at Rangeley.

Parkhurst '13 and Dole '13 are in Chicago attending the national convention of Theta Delta Chi.

The Orient annual meeting and election will occur Monday, March 17.

The Second Junior Assembly and Second College Tea will be held Thursday, March 13 instead of March 14.

The Brunswick Historical Play was given last Friday evening in the Town Hall to a large audience. A number of members of the faculty and student body were in the cast.

Rev. Chester B. Emerson '04 will give an informal reading of "Disraeli," the season's success in Boston at the Unitarian Church of Brunswick, Thursday, March 13.

Joe Pendleton '90, the well known football official, was on the campus last Thursday, as the representative of the sporting goods department of Filene's, Boston.

Fred Lord '11 was on the campus last week.

A Bowdoin Night will be held Saturday evening, March 15, in Memorial Hall under the direction of a committee of the Student Council.

The Bowdoin Lecture will be given by Professor McConaughy and there will be several other forms of informal entertainment. All students are invited to attend with their guests from the preparatory schools.

At the Saturday afternoon track meet March 8, the Freshman won with 22 points. The other totals were 1915, 17 points; 1913, 16 points and 1914, 8 points.

E. L. Sylvester '14 was recently elected Superintendent of Schools at Durham, Me.

A Handicap Meet is to be held March 17 in the Gym. All entries should be in immediately. Everyone eligible.

The Library Table

The Library has devised a scheme of co-operating with this department in bringing the new books to the attention of the students. At the round table in the entrance hall is to be placed a catalogue labelled The New Books which will contain a list of the most important of the recently published books that have been added, together with brief descriptions of them. If the book which one wishes to examine is out, he may get an idea of its contents and style from this catalogue and have the book reserved for him as soon as it is returned.

Many excellent works on literature have arrived, the most prominent being The Verse of Greek Comedy, by J. W. White; English Literature and the Classics, a collection by G. S. Gordon; The Oxford Book of Victorian Verse, chosen by A. Quiller-Couch; Chivalry in English Literature, by H. Schofield; and Cuneiform Parallels to the Old Testament, by R. W. Rogers.

Of lighter vein are The Adventures of Miss Gregory, by P. Gibbon; In the Courts of Memory, by Madame L. de Hegermann-Lindencrone; Along the Road, by A. C. Benson; The Unknown Quantity, by H. van Dyke; and The Penalty, by H. Begbie.

Other additions worthy of mention are The Great Illusion, a study of the relation of military power in nations to their economic and social advantages, by Norman Angell; The South Pole, an account of the Norwegian expedition of 1910-12, by R. Amundsen, the commander of the expedition; Lectures on the American Civil War, by Dr. J. F. Rhodes; and The Makers of Maine, by H. E. Holmes.
With the Faculty

In spite of the fact that the College has made every effort to obtain a suitable temporary instructor in English Literature to take the place left vacant by Professor Chapman's death, no suitable man could be found and all courses in English Literature are canceled for the semester.

Men who have signed for English Literature 2 or 4 are urged to change immediately to some other course, and students are requested to confer with the acting Dean before making the change. Men who do not change, however, will be given credit for the course, but men who signed for both must change at least one.

Acting Dean McConaghy spoke at Good Will Farm on Sunday. On Monday, March 17, he will address the high schools at Arlington and Winchester and will give a talk to the teachers of Beverly High School.

Professor Johnson was the Faculty delegate at the meeting of the Houlton Alumni Association of Bowdoin College Thursday night.

In the closed performance of Bernard Shaw's "You Never Can Tell," by the Brunswick Dramatic Club, March 27, a number of faculty members will appear. They are Professors Woodruff, Mitchell, Frederick W. Brown, McConaghy and Bell.

Professor Hormell has a signed article appearing recently in several of the Maine State papers upon the subject of the Public Utilities Bill now before the State Legislature. The article takes up the matter of the omission of the provision limiting the perpetual franchise policy of Maine and proposes as the proper method, the indeterminate franchise. Professor Hormell recently spoke before an open hearing of the committee of the legislature having charge of the bill on the same subject. Members of the Political Science 11 class were in attendance.

Recent communications from Professor and Mrs. Files, report them at Naples, but at the time of writing they were about to leave for a long tour through Italy. They stated that it is very cold in Naples and the slopes of Vesuvius are covered with snow.

CALENDAR

Tuesday, March 11.—8 p. m. Gibbons Club meeting at Kappa Sigma House.

Thursday, March 13.—3:30-5:30 p. m. Second College Tea in Hubbard Hall.

8 p. m. Second Junior Assembly.

Saturday, March 15.—2:30 p. m. Bowdoin Interscholastic Indoor Meet.

8 p. m. Lecture by Professor Moore of Harvard University, Hubbard Hall, under auspices Classical Club.

Monday, March 17.—4:30 p. m. Orient Board annual meeting and elections, Hubbard Hall.

Intercollegiate Notes

Acting on the suggestion of President Lowell of Harvard the Navy Department has arranged for taking college men onto the ships of the Navy for training during the summer. The men will be chosen from a list of colleges on the recommendation of the president and professors. Beside the regular routine of sea life special instruction will be given in the engineering and electrical systems of the ship, navigation, and gunnery, allowing each to specialize according to his previous studies. The advocates of the plan think that it will furnish a trained reserve force of capable men for the Navy beside giving them an excellent practical training. It will also create an interest in the Navy among the students and young men of the country that is now missing. The colleges eligible are Harvard, Yale, Boston, Mass. Tech., Columbia, Johns Hopkins, University of Virginia, Troy, Cornell, Michigan, Illinois, Purdue, California, Wisconsin and Minnesota.

A new woman's college has recently been founded in Maine. It is located at Springvale and the name chosen is Nassau Institute. It is a frank attempt to reproduce the Simmons College educational idea in this State and is devoted almost wholly to training in domestic science and allied arts. A large percentage of the members of the faculty are Simmons graduates.

One of the Harvard papers advocates the study of the history of the university by members of the Freshman class in the prescribed English course.

Since 1892 John D. Rockefeller has contributed $93,485,000 to American colleges and universities.

To advertise the university all members of the Freshman rhetoric classes at Kansas are required to write articles concerning the institution to their home newspapers.

The intercollegiate socialist society with headquarters in New York, announces a chapter role of forty-eight undergraduate chapters in as many colleges and universities. Two years ago the number of chapters was eleven.

Rooters of Kansas University have an organization called the "thundering thousand," the qualifications of which are healthy lungs and a proclivity toward producing noise at athletic games.
Two girls are members of the varsity tennis team at the University of Southern California.

Resolutions

HALL OF ALPHA DELTA PHI

March 5, 1913

Again it becomes the solemn duty of the Bowdoin Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi to record the death, on February 10th, of another of its members—Brother Charles Whitcomb Tuttle of the Class of 1886—who during an extended trip abroad was suddenly stricken. During his active career in the field of science and business, he attained a marked success. Although he lived at a great distance from this Chapter, yet he always had a deep interest in its welfare. The Chapter extends its heartfelt sympathy to his son, Brother Curtis Tuttle of the Class of 1913, the other members of his immediate family, and his many friends.

James Everett Philoon,
Earle Spaulding Thompson,
Samuel West,

For the Chapter.

Alumni Department

'60.—Another of our rapidly decreasing number of "Civil War alumni" has passed away. Major Adelbert Birge Twitchell died suddenly at his home in Newark, N. J., February 24th.

Mr. Twitchell was born Dec. 14, 1836 in Bethel, Me., the son of Alphin and Roxanna Twitchell. He prepared for college at Gould's Academy. He entered in 1856, graduating in the famous class which contained Thomas B. Reed, Judge Joseph W. Symonds, W. W. Thomas, and other noted men. It is also notable that over 20 members of this class saw service in the Civil War, either in the army or the navy.

After graduation, Mr. Twitchell taught in the public schools of Newark for a short time, but in 1861 enlisted as a private in the Bethel Company No. 1 of the Fifth Maine Regiment. He was quickly promoted to quartermaster-sergeant and in December of that year was made a second lieutenant of the Fifth Maine Battery, and was promoted to first lieutenant on August 30, 1862.

With the Fifth Maine Infantry, he saw much rough service in the battle of Bull Run. With the battery he served in the campaign of 1862 at Rappahannock, and on August 2, in the second battle of Bull Run, all of the other officers having been disabled or killed, he brought off the remnant of his companions that could be saved. At Chancellorsville in May of the following year, Lieut. Twitchell was so severely wounded that he was sent home. This was the battle in which the battery was hauled off by hand, and captain of the battery, Capt. Leppin, was mortally wounded.

But even this enforced absence from the front could not keep Lieut. Twitchell from valuable service. While convalescing, he raised the Seventh Maine Veteran Battery and took them through the campaign of 1864-5, serving as part of Burnside's 9th corps. One of the most valuable services of this battery was in front of Petersburg where they garrisoned Fort Hell, as it was called. Capt. Twitchell was commissioned Brevet Major in 1865.

At the close of the war, Mr. Twitchell returned to Newark where he was for many years connected with the Clark Lumber Co. In 1863, he was awarded the degree of A.M. from this College. In 1867, he married Miss Marietta Northrup of Newark, and three sons blessed this union. He was prominent in the church, the Y.M.C.A., the Board of Trade, and in fact in any organization where he might be of service to his city or country.

Thus has passed from our midst, one of our most noble alumni, a man who was unceasing his efforts to advance the welfare of his country whether on the battlefield or in civil affairs, and a man who always had the true love of his fellowman.

'77.—Mr. F. H. Hargraves of West Buxton has recently been appointed as a member of the Board of Inspectors of Prisons and Jails in this State.

'04.—Mr. Arthur Shorey who has been connected with the International Banking Company, has recently left Yokohama for Manila where he is now located in the interests of this company. Mr. Shorey has been connected with this company at New York, London, Hongkong, and Yokohama. This latest position completes a circuit of the offices of this company, and makes him a most experienced man in this line of work. At Manila he is joined by Charles J. Donnell of the Class of 1904, who has spent considerable time in Manila.

'12.—John Arnett Mitchell has just completed a most interesting trip abroad during which he has spent quite a little time in England, France and Germany. He comes back to take a place as instructor of Modern Languages in the Colored High School of Washington, D. C.
INTERSCHOLASTIC MEET RESULTS

Hebron Academy easily carried off first honors in the first annual Bowdoin Interscholastic Indoor Track Meet Saturday afternoon in the new Hyde Athletic Building. By placing men in every event except the high jump, and by winning first place in five of the nine events, the Hebron men scored 34 points and earned a clean-cut victory. Coburn Classical Institute took second place with eleven points, and Portland High, Brunswick High and Camden High tied for third place with eight points each. Dexter High secured five points, Deering High and Maine Central Institute three each, and Lincoln Academy one.

The meet was unique in being the first of its kind ever pulled off in the State, and also the first ever held in the General Thomas Worcester Hyde Athletic Building, and was fittingly honored by the presence of the Honorable John S. Hyde of Bath, the donor of the building.

There was no delay in running off the events, and the meet was a big success in every way. Twenty-two schools were represented by 130 contestants, the largest number of athletes that ever competed in an indoor meet in the State, and that the various events were hotly contested is shown by the fact that the 81 points scored in the meet were divided among twenty-one men.

The biggest feature of the games was the jumping of McCobb of Camden High School. Besides winning second place in the broad jump, he established a new State record in the running high jump by clearing the bar at 5 ft. 8¾ in., a height which exceeds by over one inch the record of 5 ft. 7½ in. made at the regular spring Bowdoin Interscholastic Meet by Thomas of Portland, and also surpasses by ¾ of an inch the Maine Intercollegiate record of 5 ft. 8¾ in. held jointly by Burlingame of Bowdoin, Scott of U. of M., and J. Williams of Bates.

Another feature of the meet was the running of Preti of Portland High in the 880 yd. dash, which he won in 2 min. 16.3-5 sec. Preti ran very easily and planned his race well, saving his speed for the last half of the run. At the beginning of the fifth lap he took the lead, steadily increased it, and finished fifteen yards ahead of Webster of Hebron, who was second.

Small of Hebron topped the list of individual point winners with a tally of ten points. McCobb of Camden was second with eight, and Donegan and Webster of Hebron tied for third with six each.

The ten relay races between the different schools furnished some of the most interesting contests of the afternoon. Brunswick High defeated Dexter High by half a lap in 1 min. 50.4-5 sec., the fastest relay time of the meet. The race between Portland High and Deering High was the closest and hardest fought of the day, the teams being so evenly matched that Portland finally won by a margin of only one yard.

The summary of events:

Forty Yard Dash—Trial Heats—First heat won by Upton, Camden High, time 5 sec.; second heat won by Nevens, Brunswick High, time 4.4-5 sec.; third heat won by Pierce, Brunswick High, time 5 sec.; fourth heat, won by Butler, Hebron, time 5 sec.; fifth heat won by Donegan, Hebron, time 5 sec.; sixth heat won by Chesley, Kent's Hill, time 4.4-5 sec.; seventh heat won by Patterson, Portland High, time 5.1-5 sec.; eighth heat won by Small, Hebron, time 5 sec.

Semi-final Heats—First heat won by Upton, Camden High, Nevens, Brunswick High second, time 4.4-5 sec.; second heat won by Small, Hebron, Pierce of Brunswick High, second, time 5 sec.

Final Heat—Won by Small, Hebron; second, Nevens, Brunswick High; third, Pierce, Brunswick High; time, 4.4-5 sec.

Forty-five Yard Hurdles—Trial Heats—First heat won by Donegan, Hebron; Donnell, Brunswick High, second; time 7 sec.; second heat won by Owen, Portland High; Libbey, Coburn, second; time 7.1-5 sec.

Final Heat—Won by Donegan, Hebron; Owen, Portland High, second; Donnell, Brunswick High, third; time 6.4-5 sec.

Two Hundred and Twenty Yard Run—Trial Heats—First heat won by Ashley, Coburn; Donegan, Hebron, second; Barton, Portland High, third; time 28 sec.; second heat won by Small, Hebron; Niles, Hallowell High, second; Dow, Kent's Hill, third; time 28 sec.

Final Heat—Won by Small, Hebron; Ashley,
Coburn, second; Donegan, Hebron, third; time 27 3-5 sec.

Eight Hundred and Eighty Yard Run—Won by Preti, Portland High; Webster, Hebron, second; Lowell, Coburn, third; time 2 min. 16 3-5 sec.

Four Hundred and Forty Yard Run—Won by Corliss, Coburn; Webster, Hebron, second; Wallace, Deering High, third; time 1 min. 23-5 sec.

Running Broad Jump—Won by Rowe, Hebron, distance 19 ft. 6½ in.; second McCobb, Camden High, distance 19 ft. ½ in.; third, Murray, Hebron, distance 18 ft. 5¾ in.

Running High Jump—Won by McCobb, Camden High, height 5 ft. 8¾ in.; second, Waldron of Deering High and Lord of Coburn tied, height 5 ft. 3 in.

Putting 12 Pound Shot—Won by Moulton, Hebron, distance 40 ft. 3 in.; second, Green, Maine Central Institute, distance 40 ft. 5½ in.; third, Nevens, Brunswick High, distance 38 ft. 4¾ in.

Pole Vault—Won by Sampson, Dexter High, height 9 ft. 9 in.; second, Donnell of Brunswick High and Smiley of Hebron, tied, height 9 ft. 6 in.

THE RELAY RACES

Relay Race Summary—(Men in the order in which named):

Brunswick High (Nevens, McPherson, Donnell, Pierce) defeated Dexter High (Colbath, Call, Mosher, Sampson); time, 1 min. 50 4-5 sec.

Hebron Academy (James, Butler, Donegan, Small), defeated Coburn Classical Institute (Tarbox, Mahoney, Libbey, Ashley); time 1 min. 51 2-5 sec.

Kent's Hill Seminary (Brigham, Dow, Jones, Chesley) defeated Maine Central Institute (Ranger, Haskell, Hurd, Phillips); time 1 min. 52 3-5 sec.

Lincoln Academy (Nute, Walker, Huston, Murray) defeated Morse High (Wing, Hart, Parker, Mercer); time 1 min. 52 3-5 sec.

Lewiston High (Hewey, Walsh, Penney, Tapley) defeated Edward Little High (Watson, Booth, Sturgis, Downing); time 1 min. 53 3-5 sec.

Portland High (Vanier, Libby, Preti, MacDonnell) defeated Deering High (Johnson, Waldron, Coolbroth, Spiers); time 1 min. 54 1-5 sec.

Leavitt Institute (Dyer, Briggs, Drake, Quimby) defeated Farmington High (Trask, Ellsworth, Luce, Dostie); time 1 min. 54 2-5 sec.

Camden High (Upton, Dodge, Pooler, McCobb) defeated Rockland High (Ulmer, Barbour, Thomas, Holbrook); time 1 min. 54 4-5 sec.

Hallowell High (Rollins, Dyer, Erbb, Niles) defeated Freeport High (Stowell, Plummer, Snow, Peacock); time, 1 min. 55 sec.

Cony High (Swift, Taber, Turner, Moore) defeated Gardiner High (Libby, Brown, Brisk, Connors); time 1 min. 55 1-5 sec.

A BOWDOIN NIGHT

Saturday evening at 7:30 a Bowdoin night and smoker was held in Memorial Hall in honor of the athletes who participated in the Interscholastic Meet during the afternoon. The student body, the athletes, and their supporters turned out in full force so that Memorial Hall was well filled. Several members of the faculty and their wives were also present during the first part of the evening.

Crowell welcomed the visiting athletes with a few well-chosen words, and then Acting Dean James L. McConaughy delivered the Bowdoin Lecture, which was illustrated by stereopticon views showing the college buildings, some of its famous men, and many of the phases of the college life.

After the lecture a rousing smoker was in order. Crowell presented the Burton C. Morrill Relay Cup to the captain of the Cony High School track team, which won its relay race with Gardiner High, and the Championship Trophy of the B.I.I. Meet to the captain of the Hebron Academy track team, which won the Indoor Meet in the afternoon.

Next Loring Pratt was called upon to entertain the gathering with his inimitable dialect readings, monologues, and pantomimes and made a hit. The meeting was interspersed with selections by the band and yells and closed with the singing of "Bowdoin Beata." Refreshments of cider, apples, pretzels and cigarettes were served during the evening.

EASTER SERVICE

On Easter evening, at 7:30, in Memorial Hall, an illustrated lecture will be given on "Great Scenes in the Life of Christ." The pictures are reproductions of some of the most famous paintings illustrating Christ's life, including the masterpieces of Raphael, Titian, Rubens, and some modern painters, including colored slides of the striking pictures by Tissot. Mr. McConaughy will describe the slides briefly, and the public is very cordially invited to this special Easter evening service.

NEW ENGLAND MEET PLANS

At a meeting of the executive committee of the New England Intercollegiate Athletic Association at Boston, March 9, at which Bowdoin was represented by Manager Cole '14, it was provisionally decided to hold the annual spring track meet at Springfield. The members of the executive committee are: Stone of Dartmouth, president; White of M.I.T., vice-president; Patten of Brown, secretary; Peirce of Worcester Polytechnic Institute, treasurer; Cole of Bowdoin, Maynard of Wesleyan, Moore of Amherst, and Robinson of Brown.

COLLEGE STRONG MEN

As a result of the physical examinations given to all new students each year and to all candidates for athletic teams, Dr. F. N. Whittier has just announced the list of the ten men passing the highest examinations for total strength in the Freshman class and in the college. The results are given in kilograms. The strength may be computed in pounds by multiplying the given results by two and one-fifth.

FRESHMEN

1. James Franklin Parsons, Barnston, Quebec, Hebron Academy 1912; age 23; strength of lungs, 23; strength of back, 220; strength of legs, 460; strength of upper arms, 1759; strength of fore arms, 131; total strength, 1009.9.

2. Guy Whitman Leadbetter, South Lincoln, Maine, Bangor High School 1912; lungs, 23.5; back, 205; legs, 410; upper arms, 224.6; fore arms, 115; total strength, 978.1.

3. Walter Emery Chase, Jr., Bath, Maine, Morse School 1912; age 18; lungs, 24; back, 200; legs, 500; upper arms, 110.9; fore arms, 106; total strength, 940.6.

4. Wellington Bamford, Houlton, Maine, Houlton High School 1912; age 20; lungs, 23; back, 180; legs, 360; upper arms, 192.6; fore arms, 106; total strength, 911.6.

5. James Hiram Brewer, Lisbon Falls, Maine, Lisbon Falls High School 1912; age, 17; lungs, 13; back, 200; legs, 360; upper arms, 189.5; fore arms, 114; total strength, 878.5.

6. Edward Robert Little, Brunswick, Maine, Brunswick High School; age, 18; lungs, 21; back, 170; legs, 400; upper arms, 155.2; fore arms, 117; total strength, 863.2.

7. Louis Evans Boutwell, Malden, Mass., Stone School, Boston, 1911; age, 20; lungs, 16; back, 190; legs, 360; upper arms, 184.5; fore arms, 104; total strength, 854.5.

8. Leland Stanford McElwee, Houlton, Maine, Houlton High School 1912; age, 18; lungs, 18; back, 170; legs, 355; upper arms, 163.6; fore arms, 125; total strength, 831.6.

9. Lawrence Joseph Hart, Bath, Maine, Morse High School 1912; age, 19; lungs, 19; back, 160; legs, 360; upper arms, 192.8; fore arms, 94; total strength, 825.8.

10. Ralph Winson Haywood, Salem, Mass., Salem High School; age, 19; lungs, 18; back, 180; legs, 370; upper arms, 137.4; fore arms, 104; total strength, 809.4.

The ten men in college, including all candidates for athletic teams, who have passed the highest physical examinations this year are as follows:

1. Frank Arthur Smith, Medice 1915, Calais, Maine; strength of lungs, 25; back, 240; legs, 390; upper arms, 304.2; fore arms, 130; total strength, 1089.2.

2. Robert Thomas Weatherill 1914, Brunswick, Maine; strength of lungs, 19; back, 200; legs, 390; upper arms, 229.4; fore arms, 105; total strength, 1043.4.

5. Walter Emery Chase, Jr., 1916.

7. Leon Dodge 1913, Newcastle, Maine; strength of lungs, 22; back, 210; legs, 385; upper arms, 171.5; fore arms, 95; total strength, 903.5.

8. Ermond Sylvester 1914, Durham, Maine; strength of lungs, 18; back, 205; legs, 340; upper arms, 190.6; fore arms, 130; total strength, 889.6.

10. Harry Peter Faulkner 1915, Boston, Mass.; strength of lungs, 27; back, 180; legs, 390; upper arms, 166.1; fore arms, 101; total strength, 864.1.

It is interesting to note that the Freshman class furnishes five of the ten strong men of the college.

INDOOR INTERCLASS MEET

On next Tuesday the twenty-fifth the annual interclass meet is to take place in the New Gymnasium. This is the first time that the event has taken place under such favorable conditions and with such an outlook for strong competition. The events are as follows:

1. Half mile run.

2. Mile run.

3. Quarter mile run.

4. Forty yard dash.

5. Forty-five yard high hurdles.

6. Forty-five yard low hurdles.

7. Class relay races. Eight-man teams, each man to run a lap.

8. High jump.

11. Shot put.
An Equal Chance

The Orient has been requested to correct the impression that the baseball team has been already selected. Such a misapprehension probably arises because, according to the established custom, the members of the 1912 squad have been measured for uniforms. It does not follow that these men are to compose the 1913 team, for they are chosen for measurement simply as a matter of convenience. Selection of the members of the team will not begin until after the arrival of the coach. There is now an equal opportunity for every man on the squad to win a place on the team.

A Real Evil

The recent action of the Student Council in deciding that no artificial scheme of limitation will adequately solve the problem of too great concentration of student offices and the consequent dropping of the matter should not be passed by without comment. The discussion of this problem and the scheme proposed by a committee of the Council has been widespread and the Orient has received two communications from Bowdoin alumni very ably discussing the matter which lack of space prevents us from printing.

It is significant that at the present time this same question with similar schemes of limitation is now up for discussion at Harvard, Yale, Brown and other prominent colleges. The fact that the need for limitation is felt so generally and that the arguments pointing out the evils in our present conditions here at Bowdoin were not answered show that there is really something the matter.

An extract from a communication written by Robert Hale of the class of 1910, one of Bowdoin’s Rhodes scholars, expresses this defect in present conditions as follows: “The aim of such a scheme of limitations is, I suppose, to prevent the individual undergraduate from diffusing his energies over too wide a field of college activities to the detriment of his work and his best intellectual training. I think the evil aimed at is a real one, and that an agitation for its remedy should be undertaken is a hopeful sign. Diffuseness and superficiality are the critics’ most reasonably and justly aimed at the American system of university education. If this reform or any other reform can give the Bowdoin undergraduate deeper appreciations in art, literature and music and above all arouse him from his lethargy in matters of politics, then it would be shameful indeed not to support the measure.” Mr. Hale goes on to point out a number of defects in the system of artificial limitation and then suggests that the Faculty have some voice in such over-participation as now exists and he says, “if professors advise a man to debate less or to play less football, the man should pay heed or take the consequences.”

Shall we not then attempt by natural and real means what the limitation scheme imperfectly seeks to accomplish? Let the members of the Faculty not hesitate to do an individual real service by advising him to pay less time to outside activities if with their additional experience and perception they realize that the particular student is throwing away some of the best things in the intellectual life of the college. And let the students, too, in choosing men for offices look for those who are doing things well, who are not overworking, and who have enough reserve time to handle extra duties in the best manner. And let them advise their fellows, especially the underclassmen, to see to it that they limit themselves in their activities not by what they can “get by with” but with what they can do to the best of their ability. And, lastly, let each individual student in planning his own college career, aim at doing well what he attempts rather than amassing a long list of Bugle honors, let him learn to say “No” to the selection of new offices and honors when his natural limit has been reached.

SECOND JUNIOR ASSEMBLY

About sixty couples were present at the second Junior Assembly in Memorial Hall, Thursday, March 13. The hall was decorated with the class colors, blue and white. The committee in charge was Barton, chairman, Monroe, P. L. White, A. S. Merrill and Marr, all of 1914. The patronesses were Mrs. Hutchins, Mrs. Moody, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Copeland and Mrs. Alice C. Little.

Among the guests present were: Miss Mildred Lang, Miss Emily Mansfield, Miss Edith Monroe, Miss Dorothy True, Miss Alberta Robinson, Miss Marion Libby, Miss Helen Broe, Miss Ernestine Hall, Miss Olive Eastman, and Miss Gertrude King of Portland; Miss Corinne Jackson, Miss Pauline Hatch, Miss Charlotte Hall, Miss Louise Haggett and Miss Dorothy Palmer of Bath; Miss Margaret Wood, Miss Helen Merriman, Miss Clare Ridley, Miss Marion Drew, Miss Ruth Blackwell, Miss Ellen Baxter, Miss Mary Elliot of Brunswick; Miss Marion Troop of Wiscasset; Miss Mary Emery of Skowhegan; Miss Marie Dyer of South Portland; Miss Bertha Dennison of Woodfords; Miss Barbara Johnson of Augusta; Miss Genevieve Robinson of Hallowell; Miss Marion Fernald of Portland; Miss Ruth Young of Saco; Miss Dorothy Tubbs of Norway; Miss Mollie Moore of Biddeford; Miss Eleanor Bradley and Miss Yvette Clair of Wateville; Miss Louise Harriman of Bath; Miss Katherine Hall and Miss Ruth Little of Portland.

SECOND COLLEGE TEA

The second College Tea was held Thursday, and in spite of the poor weather was very largely attended by students, alumni, and friends, some coming from considerable distances. Mrs. Moody served coffee, assisted by Miss Woodruff, Miss Sarah Baxter, Miss Hutchinson, and Hamblen '14. Tea was poured by Mrs. Nixon, assisted by Miss Ellen Baxter, Miss Snow, and Thompson '14. Mrs. Whittier and Mrs. Hornell served punch at one table, assisted by Miss Ruth Nearing, Miss Helene Blackwell, and Busfield '13; while at the other punch table Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. F. W. Brown served, assisted by Miss Ruth Blackwell, Miss Helen Fisk and Hyler '15. At the center refreshment table were Mrs. Holmes and Miss Beatrice Hacker. The ushers were Badger '14, Eddy '14, Card '15, Wish '13, Norton '13, Livingston '15, C. A. Brown '14, Verrill '14, and Roberts '15. The committee was Mrs. Davis, chairman, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. Hutchins, Mrs. Files, Mrs. Copeland, Mrs. Wilder and Mrs. F. W. Brown.

THE LIMITATIONS SCHEME

In closing the formal discussion of the plan of limitation of student activities, the Orient throws out the following extract from a personal letter from the “School and College” editor of the Boston Transcript, to show the general interest in the problem:

“This limitation of student activities is one of the things in which I am greatly interested and I hope that Bowdoin will move in the proper direction. In the average small college altogether too much work is done by a few men. The situation in the large universities is bad enough but in the institution of five or six hundred students it is almost intolerable. A good many colleges have tried to limit the number of activities in which a man may participate and the results have been uniformly good. Technology, I think, has almost an ideal plan, and everyone agrees that extracurricular affairs were never so well managed at the Institute as right now. The limitations imposed have given the most active an opportunity to do some much needed study and have been the making of a good many men who otherwise would never have had the chance to manage a team or a club of one kind or another. I sincerely hope that Bowdoin sees the light.”

Very truly yours,
HENRY T. CLANS.

CLASS SQUADS

The class squads are now being formed and night practise is being held in the new gymnasium in preparation for the Indoor Meet. The leaders and pianists are as follows:
1913—John A. Slocum, squad leader; Charles A. Hatch, pianist.
1915—Harold E. Verrill, squad leader; Francis P. McKenney, pianist.
1916—Herbert H. Foster, squad leader; Ora L. Evans, pianist.
Y.M.C.A.—SUMMARY OF COMMITTEE REPORTS

The Y.M.C.A. election will be held immediately after Chapel on Wednesday, March nineteenth. Students are asked to be seated for a few minutes for this election. Ballots will be passed to all members of the Association, who will be asked to indicate their choice for each office. To expedite matters, the Recording Secretary has been instructed to cast a ballot for the Alumni Advisory Committee, as follows: Professor Mitchell, for three years; Dean Sills, for two years; Rev. Chester B. Emerson, for one year. A brief summary of the Y.M.C.A. work for the year follows:

Probably the most important thing that the Y.M.C.A. at Bowdoin has done the past year, is the Brunswick Boys’ Association which was organized some months ago and now has 109 boys enrolled as members, meeting twice a week in the old gymnasium; soon each group of ten boys will meet with some student for a social gathering in the corner of the gymnasium, which has been fixed up with a piano, games, etc., as a club room.

Four hundred dollars was raised in town for this work, and it is probably the most important thing the College has ever done for the town. It is an outgrowth of the Grammar School gymnasium class run by the Y.M.C.A. for some years, and the Boy Scouts organized by the Bowdoin Association last year. It is hoped that the temporary quarters in the old gymnasium may be used next year, after which some permanent place will be secured down town.

The Deputation work, begun last year, has been even more effective during the past months. Ten places have been visited, including three preparatory schools, and nearly a dozen men have helped in this work. Letters were sent out to one hundred nearby towns and cities, offering to send Deputations if they would be helpful, and in this way the influence of the Bowdoin Association has been extended throughout the State. Bowdoin and Dartmouth are probably today the most prominent in Deputation work of all New England colleges.

Two hundred sixty-five men have been enrolled as members of the Association this year, the largest membership on record, and probably the largest percentage of the student body enrolled in any college Y.M.C.A. The plan of having the Association dues included in the Blanket Tax seems to have worked well, and very few men now doubt that the Y.M.C.A. is on a par with the other student activities. The basis for membership adopted by the Bowdoin Association some few years ago, and since imitated by a majority of the other New England Associations, will possibly be adopted by the whole Student Y.M.C.A. movement of the country, so that in this respect Bowdoin was the forerunner in a reform movement.

The Bible Study and Mission Study has not been as effective numerically this year, as last year, due largely to the lack of trained leaders. About 125 men were enrolled in Bible study, with an average attendance of about 75. The enrollment in Mission study is somewhat smaller. Next year it is proposed to have only two courses in Bible study, in order that the interest may not be scattered, as has been the case when too many courses were offered. It is hoped that leaders for next year may be trained by a special course in leadership this spring.

The Social Service Committee has continued its effective work, raising and spending about sixty dollars for the poor of Brunswick, sending collections of old clothes and magazines to places where they would be helpful. A careful investigation was made of the opportunity for educational classes for foreigners in Bath, but no real need was found, so this matter was given up.

The meetings for the year have not been well attended, and it is probable that in the future fewer religious meetings will be held by the Association. It is seriously to be doubted whether a regular religious meeting once a week should be added at an institution where there is compulsory Chapel, Sunday Vespers, and where many men attend church. The special Week of Prayer meetings, and the three Vesper services in February, were particularly effective. The music has been more important than in the past, and it is hoped later to have a special musical service.

The usual monthly Cabinet meetings have been held, and one Bowdoin Night, simply for the purpose of sociability, was held in Memorial Hall. A number more will probably be held under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. and the Student Council another year.

Closer church relations have been promoted by correspondence with the pastors of men who are entering college, by inviting men to become associated with local churches, either as temporary members, or by joining on confession of faith. A larger number of students than previous have been teaching in the local Sunday schools. It is suggested that next year a special committee on church relations be appointed.

The Freshman Religious Committee was more effectively organized than ever before, and cooperated successfully in the collection of old clothes, and in preparing for the State Student Y.M.C.A. Conference, of which the Bowdoin Association was the host this year.
Through the Press Committee this year two general reports have been sent out to all the papers in the state, and more effort than previously has been made to have the Association's activities generally known.
The usual reception, employment bureau, loaning of text books, etc., have been carried on as in the past.

Club and Council Meetings
Professor Moore of Harvard University delivered a lecture before the Classical Club in Hubbard Hall Thursday evening. He discussed the value of the study of Greek, Latin, History and the Sciences to the modern man with a vocation.
He especially emphasized the need of accuracy in thought and expression, which can best be gained through the study of some classical subject.

At the last meeting of the Student Council the main topic of interest was the Spring Rally which has been tentatively arranged for April 11.
(1) According to the provisions of by-laws of the Student Council a standing Music Committee of the college was announced. This committee consists of Crowell, ex-officio. George Eaton '14, ex-officio, C. Brown '14 and Sam West '15.
(2) A number of amendments to the Student Council by-laws proposed at the last meeting were adopted and the committee was instructed to go ahead with the securing of the funds for publishing the constitutions of student organizations.
(3) A large number of the fraternities reported in favor of abolishing the interfraternity baseball league. None were reported as formally opposing its abolition.
(4) All the fraternities have not yet communicated to the Council their attitude in regard to postponing initiation until the end of the first semester. This matter will be taken up at a later meeting when they have all been heard from.
(5) Professor Ham was re-elected to the position of faculty member of the Bowdoin Publishing Co., to serve for two years.
(6) The matter of publishing a booklet illustrative of Bowdoin undergraduate extra-curriculum activities was very favorably considered.
This matter was suggested to the Council by a letter from the acting Dean.
(7) The Rally Committee made a report of plans for the Spring Rally and a general discussion of speakers, etc., followed.
(8) The second committee on regulation of undergraduate activities made a written report which was adopted by the Council. The report follows:—
"Your committee appointed to devise a scheme for the limitation of individual participation in undergraduate activities with the aid of the suggestions made at the recent students' meeting has come to the conclusion that, although there may be a need for such limitation at Bowdoin, no artificial plan such as was suggested at that meeting, or has been heretofore proposed by the former committee of the Council, or none that its members can devise will adequately meet the problem. It recommends that the matter of such a system or rules of regulation be dropped."

On the Campus
J. Blethen '16 has left college for a short time on account of sickness.
R. H. Colby '13 is laid up with a cold.
Seward Marsh '12 was on the campus last week.
H. Locke '12 was at the Zeta Psi House during the week-end.
The Sophomore Gym class is now receiving instruction in the manly art of self defense under Burt Morrill. No white hopes have appeared yet.
Savage '13 and Eaton '15 have been playing tennis in the Athletic Building and the tennis squad will begin indoor work in earnest when the baseball men begin outdoor practise.
The popularity of Dr. Bräuner's German IV course is shown by the number of men who are taking the course without having signed for it.
A number of men attended the Bates Indoor Meet Thursday evening and supported the Freshmen.
The men taking the courses in Education have been visiting the schools in Brunswick and vicinity recently. A number of them with Professor McConaughy visited Portland High Thursday.
The Y.M.C.A. elections come tomorrow.
Kupelian, Medic '16 gave the Young People's Society of the Church on the Hill an illustrated lecture Sunday evening.
MacCormick '15 spoke before the Boys' Club of the Congregational Church at Westbrook Friday evening.
The College Band was seen but not heard last Monday night at the Cumberland when the moving pictures taken on the campus were shown.
Psi Upsilon will hold an informal dance in the chapter house on Wednesday, March 26.
Inclement weather cancelled the shoot of the Bowdoin Gun Club Friday afternoon.
The Bates Freshman relay team (Boothby, Syrene, Snow, Boyd) defeated the Bowdoin Freshmen (Richardson, Hall, Garland, Sayward) at the Bates interclass meet at Lewiston last Thursday night. Each man ran 300 yards; the time of the winners was 2 min. 48 sec. Captain Leadbetter was alternate of the Bowdoin team. Shepard of Bates, present holder of the M.I.A.A. shot put record, broke his own record with a put of over 42 feet.

According to the present plans there will be trials Saturday in the field events for the interclass meet on the following Tuesday.

Two teams have been temporarily organized among the six men chosen for the intercollegiates, in order to give the debaters practice on both sides of the question. A trial debate will be held in the near future. The permanent teams will be chosen probably by the first of next week. The judges for the debates in the League will soon be announced.

With the Faculty

Through its alumni the College has become prominent in scientific exploration, and now one of its professors is going north in the interests of science. Professor Copeland will start about July first from New York with an expedition led by Donald B. McMillan '98. The first stop will probably be Boston; then the expedition pushes on to Sydney, the start of most of Peary's famous expeditions. Leaving Sydney the expedition will continue north, making two stops on the Labrador coast. Soon after leaving Labrador the ship passes the line of the arctic circle, and goes on in the light of the midnight sun. Etah, at latitude 78, is to be the base of supplies and summer camp. McMillan and his party will then arrange for their journey to explore Crocker Land, an unexplored territory seen by Peary on one of his explorations. While McMillan arranges his winter camp Professor Copeland with the other party will collect biological material, especially invertebrates, in the vicinity of Etah.

Later in the summer the party Professor Copeland is with will go south to Jones' Sound, the region where Harry Whitney did his famous big game hunting and also met Dr. Cook. There they will shoot big game—musk ox, polar bear, rein deer, and walrus.

After pursuing the big game the scientific party, with all their collections of rare and probably some unknown forms of arctic life, will return on the ship about the tenth of September. The ship will go back to bring home McMillan and his party after they have spent two winters exploring the unknown Crocker Land.

This is the first expedition to the far north purely for scientific investigation, and it is a great honor that Professor Copeland should be chosen along with several other eminent scientists. The very latest modern equipment will be used by the party, even a moving picture machine being taken to show the animals in life, especially the huge musk ox, so common there.

---

CALENDAR

Tuesday, March 18:
5 p. m.—Glee Club Rehearsal.

Wednesday, March 19:
8.20 a. m.—Y.M.C.A. Election at Chapel.

Thursday, March 20:
5 p. m.—Glee Club Rehearsal.

Friday, March 21:
8 p. m.—Chemical Club Meeting.

Saturday, March 22:
8 p. m.—Deutscher Verein Meeting.

Sunday, March 23:
7.30 p. m.—Illustrated Lecture, Memorial Hall.

Monday, March 24:
8 p. m.—Performance of the Musical Clubs at Town Hall.

Tuesday, March 25:
Indoor Meet in Hyde Athletic Building.

---

Alumni Department

'co.—William Vose Phillips was married recently to Miss Alice E. Severance of Orono, the ceremony taking place at the groom's home in Orrington. The groom was attended by his two brothers, Charles C. Phillips, a graduate in the previous class, and Moses T. Phillips, who graduated from here in 1903.

Mr. Phillips has been very successful at Bangor in business since his graduation from college, and has also been a teacher at South Brewer, Maine.

---

MEDICAL SCHOOL OF MAINE

Bowdoin College

ADDISON S. THAYER, Dean

10 Deering Street Portland, Maine

---

UNIVERSITY OF MAINE

College of Law

Located in Bangor, maintains a three years' course. Ten resident instructors and three non-resident lecturers. Tuition, $70.00 a year; diploma fee only other charge. For circulars.

Address

Dean W. E. WALZ, Bangor, Me.
INDOOR MEET TONIGHT

Bowdoin’s 27th annual exhibition and 18th annual indoor interclass meet is to be held tonight in the Hyde Athletic Building. Nearly half the men in the College have entered in the various events and each class is promising to win the meet.

In addition to the events between the four classes, there will be the usual four man relay race between the Bates and Bowdoin Freshmen, while Lewiston High and Brunswick High will race for the interscholastic championship of Maine. This last event should be well worth watching, as each school has a fast team.

Twenty-seven years ago, when the first interclass competition of this nature was held, there was no running or jumping, but the event rather resembled an old fashioned circus with all its gilt and spangles. The growth of Bowdoin in the past quarter of a century can well be shown by the nature of tonight’s meet, held in one of the best gymnasmiums of the country, and including practically all the events of an outdoor meet. The clay track is the same as that used in the interscholastic meet. Ample seating accommodations have been provided.

The list of officials follows:

Referee:—Dr. W. W. Bolster of Lewiston.
Judges of Drills:—Mr. J. S. Davis, Professor C. C. Hutchins, Mr. H. B. Alvord.
Judges at the Finish:—Dr. Manton Copeland, Burton C. Morrill and Dr. A. O. Gross.
Judges of Field Events:—Professor Paul Nixon, Mr. S. B. Furbish and Mr. R. R. Shepard.
Timers:—Dr. F. N. Whittier, Dr. C. H. Stevens and Lawrence McFarland ’11.
Measurers:—Mr. R. L. Barrett, D. H. McMurtie ’13 and C. G. Dennett.
Starter:—Coach P. J. Finneran.
Scorer:—A. Woodcock ’12.
Clerk of Course:—H. L. Robinson.
Assistant Clerks of Course:—W. D. Eddy ’14 and J. C. MacDonald ’15.
Inspectors:—Professor W. H. Davis, Mr. W. F. Porter, F. A. Smith ’12 and C. R. Crowell ’13.
Manager:—Alan R. Cole ’14.
Assistant Manager:—Paul J. Koughan ’15.

MEMBERS OF CLASS SQUADS

1913:—Slocum, leader; Hatch, pianist; Carr, Buck, Leavitt, Philoan, Eberhardt, Howes, McNeally, Burleigh, Busfield, Dunphy, Lippincott, Wish.

880-Yard Run:—1913, Emery, Walker, Cummings, Haskell, Moulton, Douglas; 1914, Tarbox, Payson, Russell, Tuttle, Wright; 1915, Bacon, Porritt, Ricker, McWilliams, Livingstone, Coffin, McKenney, Kuhn; 1916, Ireland, Marshall, Crossman, Boardman, Sayward, Edwards.

One Mile Run:—1913, Norton, Eberhardt, Crosby, Emery, Nixon; 1914, Marr, Tarbox, Payson; 1915, Rolls, Porritt, Bacon, Ricker, McWilliams, Robinson; 1916, Boardman, Marshall, Winter, Irving, Crossman, Hargraves.

1914:—Mitchell, leader; Sha, pianist; Adams, Barton. Chase, Cunliffe, Dixon, Hambleen, Garland, Loeffler, Nason, Schwey, Thompson, Bickford, alternate.

1915:—Verrell, leader; McKenney, pianist; Hyler, MacCormick, Robinson, Coffin, Elwell, Dow, Hall, Hastings, Floyd, Perkins, Dow, Melcher, Knowlton.

1916:—Foster, leader; Evans, pianist; Lull, Stratton, Cruif, Boardman, Hall, Drummond, Leadbetter, Taber, Moulton, Haseltine, Niven, Nickerson.

40-Yard Dash:—(Juniors and Seniors to come); 1915, Smith, McWilliams, Prescott, Roberts; 1916, Leadbetter, Ginty, Wyman, Powers. 45-Yard High Hurdles:—(Juniors and Seniors to come); 1915, Smith, Floyd, Coxe, Roberts; 1916, Nickerson, Noble. 45-Yard Low Hurdles:—(Juniors and Seniors to come); 1915, Floyd, Coxe, McKenney, Roberts. 440-Yard Dash:—First heat, won by Russell ’14; second, Ireland ’16; time, 61.3-5 seconds; second heat, a tie between Walker ’13 and Richardson ’15; time, 62.4-5 seconds; third heat, won by Haskell ’13; second, Smith ’15; time 62 seconds.

High Jump:—L. Brown ’14, height, 5 feet, 6 inches; Boardman ’16, height, 5 feet, 6 inches; Nickerson ’16, 5 feet, 3 inches; Garland ’14, height, 5 feet, 3 inches; Wood ’16, height, 5 feet, 2 inches; Greene ’13 has not yet competed in the trials.

Broad Jump:—Faulkner ’15, 20 feet, 2 inches;
MUSICAL CLUBS CONCERT
The Bowdoin Musical Clubs held their usual Brunswick concert in the Town Hall last evening, March 27. The affair was well attended and the various numbers were well received. The program was as follows:

PART I.
1. (a) Rise Sons of Bowdoin
Words by Sills '01
(b) We'll Sing to Old Bowdoin
Words by Fogg '02
Glee and Mandolin Clubs
2. Winter Song
Glee Club
Bullard
3. Reading
Mr. Crowell
Selected
4. The Teddy Bear's Picnic
Mandolin Club
Bratton
5. Solo
Mr. Eaton
Selected
6. Boating Song
Glee Club
Richardson
Glee and Mandolin Clubs

PART II
1. The Thoroughbred
Mandolin Club
Englemann
2. Reading
Mr. Crowell
Selected
3. The Chapel in the Mountains
Mandolin Quintette
Messrs. Savage, Holt, Gilbert, Conant and Crosby
Davis
4. War Song of the Dare-Alls
Glee Club
Scott
5. Popular Medley
Mandolin Club
Trinkaus
6. (a) Bowdoin Beata
Words by Pierce '96
(b) Phi Chi
Words by Mitchell '71
Glee and Mandolin Clubs

THE VACATION TRIP
Thirty-three men, composing the 1912 Bowdoin Musical Clubs, will leave Brunswick Thursday morning on the longest spring trip yet undertaken. Aside from the usual Boston concert the clubs will give a concert in New York, this being the first appearance of the musical organization of any Maine college in that city.

The concerts are as follows: Portsmouth, N. H., March 27; Reading, Mass., March 28; Boston, Steinert Hall, March 29; New York, March 31.

The concert in Boston, as usual, is conducted especially for the alumni and after it the younger Bowdoin men in Boston will hold a reunion with the members of the clubs.

The New York concert is to be held in the ball room at Delmonico's. It is run jointly by the New York Bowdoin Alumni Association and the State of Maine Society of New York. John W. Frost '06, Max P. Cushing '09 and James D. Merriman '92, president of the Maine Society, have made elaborate preparations for the affair and have planned a dance following the performance. The number of tickets has already been over-subscribed and a large attendance is expected. The club members are to be entertained Monday night by the many younger alumni of that city.

WHO WINS?
The following statements, made expressly for the Orient, will prove beyond a shadow of doubt that someone will be disappointed when the meet is over tonight. The only suitable solution that the Orient can see is to have four first places,—one for each class.

Here they are:

THE SENIORS
Although two (2) of our best men have gone to Texas, we still can see no chance for the other three classes.
(Signed) CHARLES B. HASKELL, JR.,
Capt. 1913 Track Team.

THE JUNIORS
The Juniors' chances of winning are very bright. Each member of the Junior team is so bright his mother calls him son.
(Signed) LEW BROWN,
Capt. 1914 Track Team.

THE SOPHIS
Of course we're going to win; can't help it.
(Signed) JUDGE ROBERTS,
Capt. 1915 Track Team.

THE FRESHMEN
The Freshmen are going to win the meet anyway, so what's the use of having it?
(Signed) GUY W. LEDBETTER,
Capt. 1916 Track Team...

Mr. Charles B. Haskell,
Captain Track Team,
Bowdoin College,
Brunswick, Maine.
Dear Charlie:—I refuse to bet on the interclass meet. Am saving my money to bet on the Bowdoin varsity in the spring.

(Signed) WOODROW WILSON,
President United States of America.

N. E. ORATORICAL LEAGUE

The fourth competition in the New England Intercollegiate Oratorical League will be held at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., on Thursday, May 1. In this competitive speaking one representative from each of the five colleges—Amherst, Bowdoin, Brown, Wesleyan and Williams—will deliver an original oration not more than 1800 words in length. A preliminary speaking will be held in Memorial Hall on Wednesday, April 16, when a committee of the faculty will select the speaker to represent Bowdoin. Commencement parts or '68 parts may be used in this competition, and it is open to any student in college.

All students who wish to enter this competition will please leave their names with Professor Mitchell not later than Saturday, March 29th.

NEW Y.M.C.A. OFFICERS

The annual Y. M. C. A. elections, held Wednesday morning directly after Chapel, resulted as follows: President, C. A. Brown '14; vice-president, R. D. Leigh '14; corresponding secretary, A. H. MacCormick '15; treasurer, P. J. Koughan '15; recording secretary, R. S. Fuller '16; alumni advisory committee, Professor Mitchell, Professor Sills, Rev. C. B. Emerson.

BOWDOIN PUBLISHING CO.

A meeting of the Bowdoin Publishing Co. was held Saturday, March 22, at which the new officers were elected. A. E. Gray '14 was elected manager and George A. McWilliams '15 and Philip W. Porritt '15 were elected assistant managers. A number of matters of policy were discussed and an amendment to the constitution was passed requiring all contracts for advertising to be made to terminate in June. The number of issues per volume for the Orient was changed from 30 to 33.

NEW ORIENT BOARD

The result of the Orient elections held March 17 was as follows: Robert D. Leigh '14, Editor-in-Chief; Austin H. MacCormick '15, Managing Editor; Richard E. Simpson '14, Alumni Editor. The following Freshmen were added to the list of associate editors: Don J. Edwards, Raymond C. Hamlin, Dwight H. Sayward, John G. Winter.

Y.M.C.A. FINANCIAL REPORT

REPORT OF TREASURER OF BOWDOIN COLLEGE CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION FOR YEAR 1912-1913.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Receipts</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Balance from C. R. Crowell</td>
<td>$13.03</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Student subscriptions</td>
<td>9.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Admission to Mission Study</td>
<td>11.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sale of Mission Study books</td>
<td>8.10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Piano cartage</td>
<td>2.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>From College fund</td>
<td>200.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>From blanket assessment</td>
<td>200.00</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Total receipts: $453.53

Expenditures

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Expenses</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Northfield fee</td>
<td>10.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>State Student Conference subscrip-</td>
<td>25.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>State committee subscription</td>
<td>5.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>International committee fee</td>
<td>15.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Invitations, programs, printing</td>
<td>4.50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Enrollment-attendance cards, printing</td>
<td>7.35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cards, circulars and misc. printing</td>
<td>5.75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mission Study books</td>
<td>6.40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bible Study books</td>
<td>14.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Genl. Secy's expenses—Fifield</td>
<td>3.15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Genl. Secy’s expenses—McConaughy</td>
<td>2.35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Speakers’ expenses (6)</td>
<td>32.45</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pejepscoet work—footballs</td>
<td>5.50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pejepscoet work—refreshments and</td>
<td>12.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Xmas presents</td>
<td>17.32</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Total expenditures: $377.42

Balance: 76.11

| Liabilities | None |

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT D. LEIGH.
THE BOWDOIN ORIENT

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY OF THE COLLEGIATE YEAR BY THE BOWDOIN PUBLISHING COMPANY IN THE INTERESTS OF THE STUDENTS OF BOWDOIN COLLEGE

EDITORIAL BOARD

Douglas H. McMurtrie, 1913, Editor-in-Chief
Robert D. Leigh, 1914, Managing Editor
Fred D. Wish, 1913, Alumni Editor

DEPARTMENT AND ASSOCIATE EDITORS

R. E. Simpson, 1914, The Library Table
A. H. MacCormick, 1915, On The Campus
F. P. McKenney, 1915, With The Faculty
J. F. Rollins, 1915, Intercolligate Notes
L. E. Jones, 1913
W. R. Spatney, 1913
K. R. Leavitt, 1914
K. A. Robinson, 1914
G. H. Talbot, 1915

Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni and faculty. No anonymous contributions can be accepted.

All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager of the Bowdoin Publishing Company. Subscriptions, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

BOWDOIN PUBLISHING COMPANY

H. B. Walker, 1913, Business Manager
Alfred E. Gray, 1914, Assistant Manager
E. L. Sylvester, 1914, Assistant Manager

Entered at Post-Office at Brunswick as Second-Class Mail Matter

Vol. XLII. MARCH 25, 1913 No. 30

The Orient Year

As we look back over the record of events during the appearance of the forty-second volume of the Orient, the lasting impression is one of work unfinished. This results from the realization of many things begun, something accomplished, and many problems yet to be solved. The agitation which has been manifest in all phases of Bowdoin life may be said to have as its underlying principle the attempt to improve the relations of individuals and their interests.

In response to the dissatisfaction expressed with the old subscription system, the undergraduates have through the organization of the Associated Students succeeded in establishing a sound financial basis for activities; but they have yet to devise a workable scheme for protecting the individual against himself by limiting his participation in these activities. They have founded the Bowdoin Club to provide a home for non-fraternity men, but have yet to make a reality of a Union where all may meet as members of the College and not of its groups.

Just as these instances are typical of undergraduate problems, so the Bowdoin Illustrated Lecture and the plan for establishing an Alumni Council show the attitude of the administration in seeking to develop sympathetic relations with prospective students and to secure the cooperation of the alumni in meeting college problems.

With the Orient, the question of rendering increased service to the College is partially answered by the decision to increase the number of issues to thirty-three and to strengthen each department by making the individual responsible. We welcome the new Board to the task of carrying out these decisions and of keeping before the College the problems which must be met by the Bowdoin of the future.

FRESHMAN CANDIDATES

Competition will begin immediately for assistant managers of the Bowdoin Publishing Co. Candidates should hand their names to A. E. Gray '14 sometime this week. The increased importance of the managership of the Bowdoin Publishing Co. should be an incentive for a keen competition this year.

Competition is open also for the Orient editorial board. Candidates should hand their names to A. H. MacCormick '15 during the present week. The competition is for one member of the Board from the present Freshman class to be elected next fall and candidates who were in the competition just ended may continue in this competition.

CHAPEL MEMORIAL SERVICE

Bowdoin College held a memorial service for Professor Chapman Sunday, March 16, at the Chapel Vespers. Professor Wilmot B. Mitchell, who was long a close personal friend of Professor Chapman, gave the memorial address.

This is the first opportunity the Orient has had to make adequate mention of the service and we take this opportunity to publish Professor Mitchell’s address.

PROFESSOR HENRY LELAND CHAPMAN

When a good man dies, he bequeaths to his friends a heritage of precious memories. To all of us who knew Professor Chapman as a teacher, a colleague, or a neighbor, and counted among our choicest blessings the gift of his friendship, there have come during the days since his death many consoling memories of his life among us.

For more than forty years he was a teacher of Bowdoin boys. With a discriminating appreciation of the artistic and noble in literature, with a seasoned judgment that detected unerringly the fleeting and the false, with an ear acutely sensitive to the rhythmic music of verse, and with a cultured voice able to interpret that music, he revealed to generations of Bowdoin students, in a manner never to be forgotten, the truth and the beauty of a great literature.

Skilled teacher that he was, he taught his students more than the history of English letters; he helped them to know and feel what clear-eyed prophets and poets have thought and written concerning the great passions that have moved mankind and the problems and mysteries of human life. Not simply to teach history or biography was his aim, but to lead young men to the love of great books,—those that could hearten them in moments of discouragement, and humble them when they were over-proud, and rebuke them when they erred in folly, and inspire them with high ideals when satisfied with low standards of thinking and living.

To teach young men was his chosen work, and from that work he let no alluring voices call him away. No other tasks, however attractive they might seem, however well fitted he might be to perform them, could interfere with that work. He did many different things, to be sure, and did them well. His interests were broad and varied; church and town and State will feel his loss. But his profession as a teacher was always first. Although he possessed the coveted art of expressing his thoughts in a language that was easy, finished, and chaste, that was touched with the charm of his winning personality, the printing press could not tempt him to forget his classroom. Indeed, we may well regret today that we have not more of his essays and verses in print, but characteristically free from any striving for publicity, he interpreted his duty more narrowly. Thinking, perhaps, that too much of our modern book-making savors of self-advertisement, he gave to his classes his most carefully expressed opinions by word of mouth. That he spoke with grace, virility, and persuasiveness, we all know. As a result of this, and of the love and respect in which he was held, invitations to preach, to read, or to lecture came to him almost without number. “If a person once does a good thing,” says Goethe, “society forms a league to prevent his doing another. Because he has done one thing well, he is urged to squander himself and do a thousand things ill.” To such urging Professor Chapman did not unwisely yield. In the twenty-six years that I knew him, I never saw him do a piece of work carelessly. Turning from calls that might easily have appealed to selfish pride, he remembered tenaciously his chosen task, and graciously but firmly refused to be led away from it. Bowdoin College should remember with profound gratitude his devotion to duty, unceasing even to the day of his death.

“The work of a college professor,” says Dr. Bliss Perry, “is a petty calling for a man of petty mind; but it is a noble profession for the noble-hearted.” For Professor Chapman it was a noble profession.

Like most great teachers and noble-hearted men, Professor Chapman had a keen sense of humor, a humor like that of the gentle Elia, whose essays he much enjoyed,—“a mixture of wit and love, a diffused good humor that can come only from a mind free from all taint of morbidness, a merry-heartedness that ‘doth good like medicine,’ an overflowing friendliness which brings a laughter that is without scorn.” As today we gratefully recall this friend and teacher who has gone from us, how the memories of his playful humor come thronging back! The merry jest, the happy anecdote, the subtle play on words. It is the mission of such humor to brighten disappointment and sweeten bitterness, to relieve tense discussions and strained relations, to win the loyalty of young men and the friendship of little children. It never wounds, for it is the humor of the gentle and the courteous.

Twenty-two years ago, in closing his last lecture to my own class, after expressing the desire that our lives might be crowned with success, Professor Chapman read to us a poem. It was the epilogue to one of Thackeray's Christmas stories. I well remember the impressiveness with which he spoke these lines:

"Who misses or who wins the prize?
Go, lose or conquer as you can,
But if you fail or if you rise,
Be each, pray God, a gentleman."

At that time I knew Professor Chapman only as a student knows his teacher, but I felt, as did my fellows, that those words could come from no other lips more fittingly. Since then I have known him intimately, and have seen him in the varied relations of life, but that feeling has only deepened. I have seen his unswerving loyalty to the college, his firm advocacy of what he believed was right, his gracious acceptance of defeat, his freedom from unseemly striving, his generosity to every worker in a worthy cause, his love of truth, beyond the bounds of which no special pleading or unrestrained enthusiasm could ever carry him, his courtesy alike to high and low, his kindly chivalry to little children; and I have felt that here indeed was one of whom we could say with truth what Alfred Tennyson wrote as the highest word of praise for his loved friend, Arthur Hallam: "He bore without abuse the grand old name of gentleman."

Just what was the secret of his power, why men admired and trusted and loved him, cannot easily be put into one word. All the influences that played upon his mind and heart to make him the whole man that he was we can never know. The alchemy of human influences is subtle, and which transmute to gold no man with certainty can say. Inherited strength, the associations of family and of friends, personal bereavement, years of close contact with young and eager life, wide wanderings in the "realms of gold" where he had "many kindly states and kingdoms seen"—each of these doubtless played its part. But there is one force which I believe he would say had been more potent than all others. I may fittingly speak of it in this chapel where we have so often heard his voice in prayer, in sacred song, or as he spoke to us of the deep things of God. He had the old-fashioned faith that the spirit of his Divine Master can come into human lives and lift them up from the slavery of selfishness and fear into the glorious liberty of the sons of God. In that faith he faced undaunted the eternal realities of life and death.

On a Sabbath evening in the autumn of 1885, speaking from this pulpit, he said: "Somewhere in the uncertain future lies the shadow of death into which we shall enter and straightway be lost to earthly eyes. Everything Sabbath, every setting sun, every fleeting breath brings us nearer to that shadow. Shall we enter it tonight, or tomorrow, or after many days? Certainly no one can answer that question nor need we greatly care to answer it. There are other questions of graver import that press upon us. Is that shadow something to shrink from and to fear? Is it the end of our being and all our hopes? Are we really lost when we enter it? There is an answer to these questions. The revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ, to him who will receive it, makes that shadow as harmless and as little to be feared, as the mist that closes around one who climbs some high mountain in the assured faith that he will find the sunlight at the top."

After many days our friend and teacher has passed into the shadow. We shall see him no more in his familiar place. His last lecture has been given. Not again in this chapel shall we hear to his voice. No more shall we see him strolling along the paths of this campus rich with the memories of his earlier years. No more will Bowdoin graduates, as they come back to their alma mater, receive from him the genial word of welcome or the hearty handclasp. But we have for our consolation and for our guidance the memories of a life well lived among men in the firm faith that this life in the valley is not all but that somewhere beyond the mist, on the mountain top, is the sunlight.

Club and Council Meetings

The Central Committee held a meeting last Friday evening. A circular was issued to the members to be distributed among the preparatory school men and the evening was spent in an informal discussion.

The Orient Board held a meeting last Saturday evening at the Kappa Sigma House with old and new members present. The policy of the new Board was discussed. It was decided that the present Orient is inadequate in meeting the needs for special articles and that as soon as the financial management would consent, the so-called "Outlook idea" should be inaugurated. This is, in short, the making of a double size issue once a month which will contain features and special articles.

A Musical Art Club has recently been formed among a number of the upper-classmen especially interested in the study of music as an art. E. O. Baker '13 is president of the new organization and F. Twombly '13 is secretary and treasurer. The plans of the club's activities have not been completed as yet but there will probably be a series of recitals in which undergraduates, faculty members and townspeople will participate. The membership will be made competitive.

Dr. Pettengill of Harvard gave an illustrated lecture on Mediaeval German architecture in the classical room last Saturday evening, under the auspices of the Deutscher Verein. After the lecture the members held a regular meeting at the Zeta Psi house.

Malon P Whipple '07 gave a talk to the Chemical Club last Friday evening on applied rubber chemistry. Mr. Whipple is connected with the Apsley Rubber Company of Hudson, Mass.

On the Campus

Wing ex-'14 was on the campus last week.

Weeks '12 and Bryant '12 were on the campus last week.

The Seniors, at a recent meeting, voted to have class canes.

The Sophomores held their first class sing Friday evening.

Delta Upsilon will hold a dance at their house
Thursday, March 27.
President Hyde spoke at Chapel last Sunday on an Easter subject.
Clarence Brown '14 spoke at the Portland Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon.
Page '13 recently acted as principal of one of the Bath Grammar Schools for a few days.
The Bowdoin Gun Club had an informal shoot March 17 over the traps of the Brunswick Club.
Lew Brown's jump of 5 feet, 8½ inches in the handicap meet looks good for a new record in the State Meet.

H. J. Colbath '10, ex-track captain, was on the campus last week looking over our track prospects for the season.
C. Brown '14 pulled a tendon Friday afternoon, probably preventing his competing in the interclass meet tonight.
The Bates 1916 Relay team has held practise in the Athletic Building in preparation for the race with Bowdoin 1916.
The Fencing team closed the season with an informal bout with the team of the Planelli Club of Augusta last Thursday evening.
On April 4 and 5 the Cumberland will feature a film, "A Guiding Light," taken by the Lubin Co. at Cape Elizabeth, South Portland.
The Pejepscot Sunday School, conducted for the Bowdoin Y. M. C. A. by Koughan '15 and Mc-Williams '15, will start Sunday, April 13.
Lee Mikelsky was on the campus recently and has now returned to Phar, Texas. Ted Emery '13 and Duff Wood '13 returned with him for a few weeks' trip.
The class in Education II, accompanied by Professor McConaughy, visited the Deering High School today. Professor McConaughy addressed the school.
An Index for this volume is now being prepared and will be sent free of charge to any subscribers to the Orient on application to the Managing Editor, 9 Maine Hall.
The Saturday Club wishes through the columns of the Orient to extend its hearty thanks to all students and instructors who assisted in the presentation of "Old Brunswick."
The illustrated lecture on scenes from the Life of Christ given by Professor McConaughy in Memorial Hall last Sunday evening was very largely attended by students, faculty and townspeople.
Announcement is made of a third College Tea to be held on April the eleventh. The committee consists of Mrs. Hormell, chairman; Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Little, Mrs. Moody, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. F. W. Brown and Mrs. Alvord.

The rehearsals for "Old Heidelberg" are being held regularly and arrangements are being made for the costumes. The Glee Club men are taking part in the student scenes of the play. It is planned to have a production during the middle of April.
The Bowdoin teams for the Triangular League Debates on April 10 have been selected as follows: Bowdoin vs. Hamilton at Brunswick; affirmative, L. A. Crosby '13, A. H. Sweet '13, P. H. Douglas '13, G. H. Talbot '15, alternate, Bowdoin vs. Wesleyan at Middletown: negative, G. W. Bacon '15, E. C. Gage '14, F. D. Wish '13, J. A. Norton '13, alternate.
On last Wednesday several of the students who are taking the advanced courses in chemistry, accompanied by Dr. Cram and Dr. Loomis, went to Lewiston, where they visited the slaughter house and the bleacher. A banquet was served at the Elm House in Auburn under the auspices of the Maine branch of the American Chemistry Association. Papers were read by Dr. Cram of Bowdoin and Dr. McKee of the University of Maine.

Alumni Department

'38.—George Bacon Towle, head-master of Trinity School, New York City, died suddenly of angina pectoris on Jan. 6 last at Upper Montclair, New Jersey.
Mr. Towle was a native of Saco, Me., where he was prepared for college, and was a member of an old and prominent York County family. Opon leaving college he entered on mercantile pursuits in Boston and for several years prior to the great fire of 1872 was Secretary to the Boston Board of Trade. Commercial affairs were not greatly to Mr. Towle's bent of mind. He was a natural-born educator and he seized the opportunity present at the time, to become principal of the High School at Medway, Mass., where he resided and was member of the School Board. He was unusually successful in this position and later was called to the famous St. Paul's School at Salem, New York then under the charge of the Rev. Dr. Houghton. He was made instructor in mathematics, his favorite branch of study in his college course and where he was a prime favorite with Prof. ("Ferox") Smyth. Mr. Towle had his usual success at St. Paul's, but he longed for a more independent if not larger field for his work. Leaving Salem he opened a private school for boys in New York City. Here his reputation soon reached the directors of Trinity School and he was offered the position of head-master, which he accepted and filled with most gratifying results till his death.

Mr. Trowe was the possessor of an uncommonly happy disposition. No member of his college class ever saw a frown on his face or heard an acerbious word from his lips. He was always a gentleman as well as scholar. It was ever easy for him to maintain discipline with his pupils without harshness. As one who was near to him said: “He had the gentle gift of inducing boys to do the right thing because it was the right thing to do.” Many letters from former pupils amply testify to this faculty.

His wife, Mrs. Laura Stepenes Trowe, without children, mourns his loss while his surviving classmates and many other friends will always hold his memory in fond regret.—H. M. J., Sec. '58.

'67.—Former pupils and friends of James Wallace MacDonald are planning a memorial to him, in the form of a portrait which will hang in the Stoneham High School. Mr. MacDonald was principal of this school from 1870 to 1882, and from that time until his death last summer was an agent of the Massachusetts Board of Education.

'71.—In the sudden death of Edgar Foster Davis of Machias which occurred on February 23rd, Bowdoin has lost another of her older sons who was prominent in literary, religious and educational lines.

Mr. Davis was born April 17, 1851 in East Machias on the site of the house in which he died. He was the youngest son of the late Frederick and Elizabeth Foster Davis, and a direct descendant of Col. Benjamin Foster of Revolutionary fame. He prepared for college at Washington Academy. On graduation from college at the age of twenty years he became principal of Thomaston High School, a position which he held for two years. The next year he spent teaching in Rhinebeck, N. Y., and then for two years he resided at Middletown, Conn. In 1874 he was granted the degree of A.M. from this college.

In 1876 he entered Yale Divinity School, and for nearly twenty-five years was in the ministry. During that time he was pastor at Perry, Me., Milltown, N. B., Gardiner, Me., and Hamilton, Mass. His pastorate at the last place he terminated in 1889 and for the next five years was Professor of English at Pennsylvania State College. Then entering the ministry again he entered the field at Wolfboro and Whitefield, N. H., and later went to Detroit, and also to St. Louis, Mich. Two years at Grand Haven, Conn., completed his work in the ministry, and since that time has resided in East Machias, spending his entire time in literary work. In this large field Mr. Davis did a great deal of good as a pastor and left hosts of friends in the towns at which he served. However, it is as an author that he was best known. He was always interested in genealogical and literary work. Many of our readers will remember with pleasure his little book of poems which he recently published under the name of “Pine Cones and Needles.” The noble thoughts expressed in these poems, and the smooth rhythm of their lines impressed one with the poetical power of the man.

As pastor, teacher and author his aim was always to uplift the poorer classes, and to help his fellow men—an aim which made him a son of which Bowdoin may justly be proud.

'77.—Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary is on his way to Europe with his family. While there, Mr. Peary will receive several decorations in honor of his achievement in reaching the North Pole.

'92.—Another severe loss the great Bowdoin family has received this last week in the death of Rev. Charles S. Rich, a graduate who was prominent in the religious and educational life of the West.

Mr. Rich was a native of Portland, where he was born in 1870. A graduate of Portland High School, he, after graduation from this college, went to Andover Theological Seminary from which he graduated in 1895.

On graduation from there he returned to Bowdoin as instructor of rhetoric for one year, and then took a pastorate at Stockbridge, Mass., where he remained for five years. On leaving there he went West for his health, locating first in Sierra Madre, Cal., and later in Claremont, Cal. From there he went to Colorado Spring for a year, but finding Claremont the best place in which he might regain his health, he returned there.

Although most of the time so far removed from the college he was always interested in Bowdoin, and in his death she has lost a loyal and successful son.

UNIVERSITY OF MAIN

College of Law

Located in Bangor, maintains a three years' course. Ten resident instructors and three non-resident lecturers. Tuition, $70.00 a year; diploma fee only other charge. For circulars Address Dean W. E. WALTZ, Bangor, Me.

MEDICAL SCHOOL OF MAIN

Bowdoin College

ADDITION S. THAYER, Dean

10 Deering Street

Portland, Maine.