RECENT ACQUISITIONS
1961-1968

INTRODUCTION

The present exhibition indicates quite clearly the vigorous growth of the collections during the last eight years, although only a small proportion of the works acquired during this period can be displayed and listed in the catalogue of the exhibition. The result of generous gifts and auspicious purchases, recent acquisitions have broadened the scope and diversity of the Museum's holding considerably. Whole new areas, such as early Italian Renaissance painting or Baroque sculpture, are now represented for the first time, while Colonial and Federal portraiture, a traditionally strong area, has been given added depth. Although there are still gaps to be filled, the collections reflect more closely the ebb and flow of man's visual aspirations during the past four millennia. As a college museum we have an exceptional opportunity—and obligation—to give, by means of original works of art, some inkling of the vast body of visual delights bequeathed by one generation to the next. The time is long since past when an assorted collection of plaster casts could sum up all that was Good, True and Beautiful. These once-ubiquitous Praxitilean apparitions more properly reflect a history of taste, not of art. Wittingly or not, our horizons are wider now and our tastes all-embracing. Western and non-Western, primitive and contemporary, visionary and utilitarian; so many strands now form the fabric of our concepts of art and expression. A museum (with or without walls), by creating an intelligible continuum in which the old and the new, the familiar and the novel can be perceived, becomes an instrument of education in the finest sense.

The year 1961 marks an important watershed in the history of the museum and is a most appropriate starting point for this exhibition: the bequest of Mr. and Mrs. George Otis Hamlin establishing a purchase fund for the exhibition and purchase of American pictorial art. The proceeds from this endowment have enabled the museum to obtain significant works by American artists, beginning with Thomas Eakins' Portrait of A. Bryan Wall, which came in 1962. The most recent painting purchased from this fund is a fine George Inness landscape, Montclair, N. J. At the same time, Professor Hamlin left the museum his collection of nineteen paintings and over one hundred and eighty prints and drawings by John Sloan, later enlarged by additional drawings and prints presented by Mrs. John Sloan. A notable addition to the Colonial and Federal Portraits were two paintings by Gilbert Stuart given by Mr. Robert Winthrop and one by Thomas Sully, presented by Mr. John H. Halford '07 and Mrs. Halford. Particularly significant is the Stuart portrait, Elizabeth Bowdoin, Lady Temple, which complements the portrait attributed to Samuel King in the collection since 1826. The earliest American portrait to enter the collection is that of the Reverend Thomas Smith as a Child painted ca. 1710, the gift of Professor Nathan Dane II '37. More recently a rare tempera portrait by Michael-Felice Corné of Sarah Prince, dated 1803, was given by George O. Cutter '27.

Nineteenth-century American art has been an active field for collection, and the museum has been fortunate in gifts and purchases in this area. Through the generosity of Doris Homer Cluney, the museum was able to acquire a large collection of Winslow Homer memorabilia, while a significant drawing by Homer of Prout's Neck was purchased through the Hamlin Fund and an impression of the etching Eight Bells was presented by Mr. Charles S. Payson. With the help of the Hamlin Fund, we have acquired representative landscapes by Thomas Doughty and Martin Johnson Heade, as well as the George Inness painting mentioned above. Several examples of the work of the Portland painter, Harrison B. Brown were acquired, including two views of Portland Harbor. Among a number of gifts, Mr. Charles F. Adams'12 presented the museum with the delightful Valley of the Catskills by John H. Carmiencke. Several paintings by the Maine artist Anson K. Cross were added to those already in our collection by Mrs. Anson K. Cross and works by John Fredrick Kensett and D. D. Coombs were also acquired. A number of nineteenth-century portrait and genre paintings also entered the collections during this period. A particularly fine painting by Eastman Johnson, Babes in the Wood, combining features of both kinds of paintings, was presented by the Honorable Percival Baxter '98. Among a number of interesting paintings acquired by purchase, Portrait of a Cleric by Joshua Johnston and Washington Allston in His Studio by David Claypool Johnston can be mentioned.

Contemporary trends in American art are represented in the collection by a number of gifts from Mr. Walter Gutman '24 which include paintings, drawings and collages by such distinguished artists as Arshile Gorky, Franz Kline, Philip Guston, George Segal and Jack Tworkov. A large Andrew Wyeth watercolor, Bermuda, was given by Mr. Stephen Etnier '37. The museum has also extensively acquired drawings, sculpture and prints by Leonard Baskin through gift and purchase.

Our representation in European art has grown significantly in scope and quality. The Samuel H. Kress Foundation's gift of twelve Italian Renaissance and Baroque paintings, including one recently shown to be an early work of Jacopo Pontormo, has made it possible to have on display examples from a pivotal period in Western Art. The museum was indeed fortunate to be among the limited number of college and university museums in the country which benefited from the generosity of the Foundation. Recently, a large seventeenth-century Italian painting, The Musician, was added, the gift of Mr. John C. Pickard '22. A notable addition to the museum's collection of representative nineteenth-century French paintings is a Corot landscape, The Pond, given by Mr. John Halford '07 and Mrs. Halford, whose continued support of the museum can only be inadequately honored in this exhibition.

In the acquisition of sculpture there has been much new interest. A Roman Statue of a Youth dating from the 2nd century was presented by Professor Nathan Dane II '37. The friends of John Frost '04 gave in his memory a fine late Gothic bust of the Prophet Habbakuk. A comprehensive collection of Renaissance and Baroque medallions and plaquettes was acquired, the gift of Amanda, Marquesa Molinari of Alassio, Italy, while the museum purchased representative examples of German Renaissance and Bohemian Baroque sculpture. Three nineteenth-century portrait busts entered the collection, one of which, perhaps a unique cast by Frederick MacMonnies, was donated by Paul J. Newman '09. An Indian bronze of Krishna as a Prince came to the museum as a gift of the Associates of Bowdoin College Museum of Art.

The decorative arts, such as ceramics and silver, were enriched by the bequest of Sylvia Ross who also generously provided a purchase fund for suitable objects. Additional fine examples of Chinese jade work and ceramic art were given to the museum by Mrs. William Tudor Gardiner and Mrs. Davieson Powers. A considerable number of European and American drawings and prints, as well as examples of European sculpture and decorative arts, were added to the collections by the bequest of Miss Susan Dwight Bliss. Near Eastern and Asian art has been strengthened by the purchase and the donation of a number of Luristan bronzes, Persian and Mughal miniature painting and Persian ceramic ware. Other non-European cultures represented in recent acquisitions are those of Africa and Polynesia. A large handsome Ceremonial Caldron from the K’ang Hsi period in China was given by Mr. Karl R. Philbrick ’23. Finally, the museum has been fortunate in gifts of fine eighteenth-century furniture which complement the other collections and indicate that art is not confined to the boundaries set by frames and pedestals.

Hopefully, this brief recitation of the museum’s acquisitions in the past eight years indicates the promise of even more vital growth in the future. To secure this promise much active collection still needs to be done in all areas. With the help of generous and perceptive donors now, as in the past, the museum can find the ways necessary to meet its commitments to the campus and the community, to exhibit works of art of the highest quality, and preserve them for the next generation.
